Other Events

On March 10, 2009, the Ventura County Superior Court, in the case entitled People of the State of California v. iMergent, Inc., et al., Case No. 56-2007-287557-CU-MC-VTA, entered a Consent Order and permanent injunction (Judgment). The terms of the Judgment were agreed to between iMergent, Inc. (the "Company") and the State of California and the District Attorney of Ventura County, California (the State). The Judgment stemmed from a temporary injunction entered on August 30, 2007. The temporary injunction was based on a complaint which contended that the Company violated Consumer Protection Laws and mailed solicitations in violation of California statutes.

The Company agreed to pay a total settlement of $850,000. That amount includes fees and refunds to certain customers who file claims. The Company had accrued for the settlement amount in its financial statements for a previous period. To the extent that filed claims exceed the refund amount, refunds will be paid on a pro-rata basis. The State will be entitled to retain as fees any monies not claimed. There are no further costs or fees required to be paid by the Company.

In addition, the Company also agreed to register as a seller under the California Seller Assisted Marketing Plans Act (the SAMP). The Company agrees that it will not sell any product with which income representations are made that has an initial required consideration in excess of $500.00 without complying with the SAMP requirements. The Company also agreed to certain actions intended to clarify the business practices of the Company.
