Preliminary Note: This Amendment No. 3 to the Statement on Schedule 13D originally filed on April 9, 1999, as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto filed on February 14, 2001 and Amendment No. 2 thereto filed on June 25, 2003 (as so amended, the "Statement") with respect to the common stock, $.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), of Hudson Technologies, Inc., a New York corporation (the "Issuer") supplements Item 6 to reflect the agreement by the Reporting Persons to waive certain rights with respect to the Convertible Notes, the Additional Convertible Notes, the Exchange Notes (collectively referred to as the "Fleming Convertible Notes"), the Series A Preferred Stock and certain registration rights held by the Reporting Persons.

Item 1. Security and Issuer

The address of the Issuer's principal executive offices is 275 North Middletown

Edgar Filing: FLEMING US DISCOVERY FUND III LP - Form SC 13D/A

Road, Pearl River, New York 10965. Information in the original Schedule 13D remains in effect except to the extent that it is superseded by subsequently filed information, including the information contained in Amendment No. 1, Amendment No. 2 and this Amendment No. 3. Responses to each item below are incorporated by reference into each other item, as applicable. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Amendment No. 3 shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Statement.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Reference is made to Issuer's registration statement on Amendment No. 4 to Form SB-2 (the "Registration Statement") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 12, 2003, in connection with the offering of shares of Common Stock of the Issuer (the "Offering"). As further described in the Registration Statement, the US Fund and the Offshore Fund (collectively, the "Fleming Funds") have indicated their intention that if the gross proceeds from the shares sold by the Issuer for cash in the Offering to Issuer's stockholders and other investors (other than the Fleming Funds) together with the amount of principal and accrued interest due on the outstanding $1,660,000 principal amount of Fleming Convertible Notes that will be converted to common stock in connection with the offering, is less than $2,575,000, the Fleming Funds will acquire from the shares being offered to the public that number of shares (not to exceed an aggregate of $925,000) necessary for the Issuer to reach the $2,575,000 level. Included in this amount to be acquired by the Fleming Funds is the loan from the Fleming Funds to the Issuer in the principal amount of $575,000 for which the Issuer may use shares available under the Registration Statement after the expiration of the Offering period to repay the principal and any accrued and unpaid interest of such loan. In addition, the Fleming Funds may, but are not required to, purchase from the shares being offered to the public additional shares in excess of the amount described in the foregoing sentence.

Fleming Convertible Notes

The Fleming Funds have indicated their intention to modify the terms of the Fleming Convertible Notes, under the circumstances described herein, such that if (A) the gross proceeds from the shares sold by the Issuer for cash in the Offering to the Issuer's stockholders and other investors (other than the Fleming Funds, and not including the amount of principal and accrued interest due on the approximately $1,660,000 outstanding principal amount of Convertible Notes that may be converted to common stock in connection with the Offering), is at least $1,000,000 and (B) the then effective conversion rate of the Fleming Convertible Notes is less than the $1.10 subscription price of the Offering (the "Subscription Price"), then the conversion rate of the Fleming Convertible Notes shall be equal to the Subscription Price. In accordance with the existing terms of the Fleming Convertible Notes, in the event that the then-effective conversion rate of the Convertible Notes is greater than the Subscription Price, the conversion rate of the Fleming Convertible Notes and the Convertible Notes held by other investors shall be equal to the Subscription Price (and such terms shall remain in place).

Further, the terms of the Convertible Notes (including the Fleming Convertible Notes) provide that the holder of the Convertible Notes would have the right to determine, to the extent that securities are available for purchase in the Offering, (which such offering, when aggregating the outstanding principal and accrued interest of the Convertible Notes and all additional proceeds from new investors, equals not less than $2,000,000 (the "Equity Offering"), whether (i) to apply the outstanding principal and interest, if any, of the Convertible Notes to the purchase of the securities in the Equity Offering or (ii) to convert the same into conversion shares at the then-effective conversion rate. However, upon the request of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Issuer agreed that it would not use registered shares in the Equity Offering to repay the Convertible Notes, and the holders of the Convertible Notes would receive only restricted securities upon conversion of the Convertible Notes at the then-effective conversion rate.

The Issuer has indicated its intention to grant holders of Convertible Notes certain future registration rights satisfactory to the Issuer.

Series A Preferred Stock

In December 2002 (as described in Amendment No. 2 to this Schedule 13D), the Fleming Funds agreed to waive their rights to an immediate downward adjustment of the then effective $2.375 conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock in connection with the issuance of the Convertible Notes; however, any subsequent conversion of the Convertible Notes will result in a downward adjustment of the conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock to equal the then effective conversion rate at which the Convertible Notes convert. Consequently, upon conversion of certain of the Convertible Notes at the $.79 per share conversion rate, the anti-dilution provisions of the Series A Preferred Stock will cause the conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock to adjust downward to a conversion price of $.79 per share. In accordance with the terms of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Fleming Funds have the right (but not the obligation) to convert any or all shares of Series A Preferred Stock into the Issuer's common stock.

The Fleming Funds have indicated their intention to modify the terms of the Series A Preferred Stock held by the Fleming Funds, under the circumstances described below, such that:

(1) If (A) the gross proceeds from the shares sold by the Issuer for cash in the Offering to the Issuer's stockholders and other investors (other than the Fleming Funds, and not including the amount of principal and accrued interest due on the approximately $1,660,000 outstanding principal amount of Convertible Notes that may be converted to common stock in connection with the offering), is at least $1,000,000 and (B) the then effective conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock is less than the Subscription Price, then the conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be equal to the Subscription Price. As described above, in accordance with the existing terms of the Series A Preferred Stock, in the event that the conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock is greater than the Subscription Price, then the conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be equal to the Subscription Price, and

(2) If the gross proceeds from the shares sold by the Issuer for cash in the offering to the Issuer's stockholders and other investors (other than the Fleming Funds, and not including the amount of principal and accrued interest due on the approximately $1,660,000 outstanding principal amount of Convertible Notes that may be converted to common stock in connection with the Offering), is more than $4,000,000, then the Fleming Funds will convert all of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock into restricted common stock, at the conversion price described in the foregoing paragraph (1).

Warrants

In accordance with the terms of the Convertible Notes the issuer is obligated to issue common stock purchase warrants to the holders of Convertible Notes upon the earlier of the first anniversary of the respective date of issuance of the Convertible Notes or the consummation of a public equity offering which, when aggregating the outstanding principal and accrued interest of the Convertible Notes and all additional proceeds from new investors, equals gross proceeds of not less than $2,000,000. Consequently upon the consummation of the Offering for such gross proceeds the Issuer will be required to issue common stock purchase warrants to the holders of the Convertible Notes which warrants will be exercisable to purchase an amount of shares of the Issuer's common stock equal to 10% of the number of shares of common stock into which the Convertible Notes were convertible at the time of their issuance. Pursuant to the terms of the Convertible Notes, the warrants will have an exercise price equal to 110% of the lesser of (i) the conversion rate of the Convertible Notes on the date of their issuance or (ii) the conversion rate of the Convertible Notes on the date of the issuance of the warrants. The Fleming Funds have agreed that if the conversion price of their Convertible Notes is increased to equal the Subscription Price as a result of the Issuer's receipt of at least $1,000,000 of gross cash proceeds from the sale of shares to our stockholders and other investors in the Offering (other than the Fleming Funds, and not including the amount of principal and accrued interest due on the approximately $1,660,000 outstanding principal amount of Convertible Notes that may be converted into common stock in connection with the offering), then the exercise price on any warrants they receive, to the extent such exercise price is lower than the Subscription Price, will be raised to equal the Subscription Price. Furthermore, in the event that the exercise price of the warrants is increased to equal the Subscription Price, but the exercise price of warrants issued to any other holder(s) of Convertible Notes is lower than the Subscription Price, the Fleming Funds have agreed to waive their right in this instance to decrease the conversion rate of their Convertible Notes and the conversion price of their Series A Preferred Stock to such lower price.

Other Waivers

In addition, the Fleming Funds have agreed to waive their "piggyback" registration rights with respect to the registration of the shares of common stock underlying the Series A Preferred Stock in the Offering, which waiver does not in any way limit the registration rights of the Fleming Funds in any other offering or as otherwise permitted under the registration rights agreement entered into between the Issuer and the Fleming Funds at the time of their purchase of the Series A Preferred Stock.

In addition, as part of the Offering process, upon the request of the Issuer, the Fleming Funds have affirmed that for a period of six months from the date of the Registration Statement they will not take any action that would cause the Issuer to engage in a going private transaction.
