Purpose of Filing

Fording Canadian Coal Trust, a trust organized under the laws of the province of Alberta, Canada (the Trust), is filing this Form 6-K to establish itself, pursuant to Rule 12g-3(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), as the successor issuer to Fording Inc., a company organized under the laws of Canada (Old Fording).

Background and Succession Pursuant to Rule 12g-3

On February 28, 2003, Old Fording converted its business into an income trust as described in the Information Circular (as defined below) pursuant to a plan of arrangement (the Plan of Arrangement) approved by the holders of common shares (the Common Shares) and options to acquire Common Shares of Old Fording on February 19, 2003 and by the Court of Queen s Bench of Alberta on February 20, 2003.

The arrangement occurred pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement involving Old Fording, Teck Cominco Limited, Westshore Terminals Income Fund, Ontario Teachers Pension Plan Board, Sherritt International Corporation and CONSOL Energy Inc., and provided for the creation of the Trust. In connection with the Plan of Arrangement, shareholders of Old Fording were given the choice of receiving in exchange for their Common Shares:

units in the Trust (the Units) on the basis of one Unit per Common Share to the maximum unit amount (approximately 21.4 million Units, in total), subject to proration;

C$35.00 in cash per Common Share to a maximum of C$1.05 billion, subject to proration; or a combination of cash and Units.

Shareholders of Old Fording had until 4:00 p.m. (Mountain Standard Time) on February 27, 2003 to make their elections. Shareholders of Old Fording who failed to make a proper election were deemed to have elected the Unit option, subject to proration, in respect of their Common Shares.

The Plan of Arrangement and related transactions are more fully described in the Notice of Special Meeting, Notice of Petition and Information Circular of Old Fording dated November 20, 2002, as supplemented and amended by the supplement to the Information Circular dated December 8, 2002, the second supplement to the Information Circular dated December 30, 2002 and the third supplement to the Information Circular dated January 27, 2003 (the Information Circular), each of which was previously filed on Form 6-K by Old Fording.

The Trust s stock symbol on the New York Stock Exchange will remain the same as Old Fording s stock symbol on the New York Stock Exchange, FDG.

The Common Shares were registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act. Pursuant to Rule 12g-3(a) under the Exchange Act, the Units are deemed to be registered under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act. This report constitutes the Trust s assumption of Old Fording s reporting obligations under the Exchange Act.
