Item 1.01. Entry into a Definitive Material Agreement.

(a) Recapitalization

Recapitalization Agreement

As previously disclosed, on February 7, 2011, Function (X) Inc. (formerly Gateway Industries, Inc., the “Company”) entered into the Agreement and Plan of Recapitalization (the “Recapitalization Agreement”) by and among the Company, Sillerman Investment Company LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Sillerman”), and EMH Howard LLC, a New York limited liability company (“EMH Howard”). The Recapitalization Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company’s Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 10, 2011, and incorporated herein by reference. The transactions contemplated by the Recapitalization Agreement (the “Recapitalization”) were consummated on February 11, 2011.

Pursuant to the Recapitalization Agreement, Sillerman, together with other investors approved by Sillerman, invested in the Company by acquiring 120,000,000 newly issued shares of common stock of the Company in a private placement transaction at a price of $0.03 per share (on a post-split basis as described below) as a result of which Sillerman and the other investors acquired approximately 99% of the outstanding shares of common stock, with Sillerman (together with Robert F.X. Sillerman personally) directly or indirectly beneficially owning more than a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock. The Company has entered into subscription agreements with each of these investors.

As part of the Recapitalization, the Company also issued 250,000 shares to J. Howard, Inc., an entity affiliated with Jack L. Howard, a director and officer of the Company prior to the Recapitalization, and its designees (which included former directors of the Company) in connection with partially extinguishing outstanding debt owed to J. Howard, Inc. As part of the Recapitalization, Sillerman also reimbursed the Company for its expenses in connection with the Recapitalization Agreement and related matters and for advances made by J. Howard, Inc. to the Company to support its daily operations since 2007, in the amount of $200,000 and in satisfaction thereof.

The newly recapitalized company will conduct its business under the name Function (X) Inc. with the ticker symbol FNCX.

Function X’s Business

The new enterprise has been established to provide a new platform for investments in media and entertainment, with a particular emphasis on digital and mobile technology. Mr. Sillerman is evaluating several initiatives aimed at combining certain established business principles with a new element enabled by digital and mobile distribution capabilities. An initial product under consideration would emphasize Smartphone applications, with a goal of being ready for beta testing in the third quarter of 2011. The Company is not disclosing any details about this product for competitive reasons, and because this product has not reached the stage of a specific plan for its commercial adaptation.

The Company is a new developmental stage company in a highly competitive market, and is subject to all the business risks and uncertainties with any new business or developmental stage company, including that it will not achieve its business objective. The digital and mobile technology markets are highly competitive with almost all established participants possessing greater resources than the Company. There can be no assurance that the Company will adopt a specific plan for the commercial and technical development and financing of any particular product. Moreover, if and when adopted by the Company, such a plan will be subject to customary risks of start-up businesses or developmental stage companies, including technical and practical uncertainties of developing a successful new product, obtaining the services of additional talented individuals and the difficulty of obtaining financing, none of which is assured. The Company currently is without revenue and any investment in the Company is highly speculative. The Company will be required to obtain additional financing to complete the development of its initial products and there is no assurance that such financing will be available at all or on terms acceptable to the Company and that any such financing, if obtained, will not be highly dilutive to current stockholders of the Company.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Forward-looking statements, which involve assumptions and describe future plans, strategies and expectations of the Company, are generally identifiable by use of the words “may,” “will,” “should,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “believe,” “intend” or “project” or the negative of these words or other variations on these words or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that may be incorrect, and there can be no assurance that any projections or other expectations included in any forward-looking statements will come to pass. The actual results of the Company could differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors. Except as required by applicable laws, the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements for any reason, even if new information becomes available or other events occur in the future.

(b) Asset Contribution Agreement

At the closing of the Recapitalization, the Company entered into an Asset Contribution Agreement with Sillerman Investment Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“SIC”), whereby SIC assigned certain intellectual property assets used in its business to the Company in exchange for an agreement by the Company to reimburse SIC for expenses incurred in connection with the development of such intellectual property assets and its related business, whenever incurred, at or after the closing, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $2,000,000. The Asset Contribution Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.2 and incorporated herein by reference.
