ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Shore Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company”) and its Delaware bank subsidiary, The Felton Bank (“Felton Bank”), are party to an employment agreement with Thomas Evans dated April 1, 2002 (the “Agreement”). A copy of the Agreement was filed as Exhibit 10.7 to the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004. Under the Agreement, Mr. Evans is to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of Felton Bank for which Mr. Evans is to receive an annual salary of $105,000 (subject to annual review and adjustment), discretionary bonuses, fringe benefits and vacation generally available to other officers of the Company’s subsidiaries, and participation in the pension, profit sharing, retirement, equity and incentive compensation plans generally available to other officers of the Company’s subsidiaries. The Agreement has an initial term of four years, subject to automatic renewal for 12-month terms unless one of the parties objects, but may be terminated by the Company and Felton Bank at any time with or without cause (as defined in the Agreement) or by Mr. Evans for any reason upon 90 days’ written notice. Any termination by the Company or Felton Bank without cause entitles Mr. Evans to a lump sum payment of one year’s salary. In addition, during the initial four-year term, Mr. Evans may voluntarily terminate his employment upon the occurrence (and for 90 days thereafter) within 12 months of a Change in Control (as defined in the Agreement) of any of the following events without his consent (the “Voluntary Termination Reasons”): (i) his base compensation is reduced by the Company and/or Felton Bank, (ii) the Company and/or Felton Bank fail to provide him with the other benefits and compensation contemplated by the Agreement, (iii) the Company and/or Felton Bank assign him duties and responsibilities that are materially different from those normally associated with his position, or (iv) the Company and/or Felton Bank materially reduce his responsibilities or authority. Upon a termination for any of the Voluntary Termination Reasons, Mr. Evans is entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to one year’s salary. During the term of the Agreement (whether or not he remains employed during that term) or, if the Company and Felton Bank terminate the Agreement without cause or Mr. Evans terminates it upon a Change in Control, for one year after his employment terminates, Mr. Evans agrees to not serve any other financial institution operating within 50 miles of either the Company or Felton Bank. In the event Mr. Evans becomes disabled, he is entitled to receive the following percentages of his compensation, inclusive of any benefits which may be payable to him under any disability insurance then in effect: (i) 100% for the first six months of disability; (ii) 75% for the next 12 months; and (iii) 50% thereafter for the remainder of the initial four-year term or any renewal thereof. If Mr. Evans returns to work and is employed on a full-time basis for at least 12 months from the last period of disability, then benefits will restart upon a subsequent disability. If he returns to work for less than 12 months and is again disabled, benefits will continue where they stopped at the end of his previous disability period.

On November 3, 2005, the Company, Felton Bank and Mr. Evans agreed to amend the Agreement so that it contains Change in Control provisions similar to those contained in the employment contracts with the Presidents of the Company’s other bank subsidiaries. Specifically, the Agreement was amended so that, in the event the Company and Felton Bank terminate Mr. Evans’s employment following a Change in Control without his consent and for a reason other than cause, he is to receive an amount equal to the difference between (i) the product of 2.99 times his “base amount” as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and (ii) the sum of any other “parachute payments” (as defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code) that he receives on account of the Change in Control (the “Change in Control Amount”). Mr. Evans will also be entitled to the Change in Control Amount if (i) he terminates his employment for any reason within 30 days of a Change in Control or (ii) he terminates his employment for any of the Voluntary Termination Reasons that occur within 12 months of a Change in Control. In addition, the following were added to the list of Voluntary Termination Reasons: (i) the Company and Felton Bank require Mr. Evans to perform his principal executive functions more than 35 miles from his primary office as of the date of the Change in Control; and (ii) Mr. Evans is not elected or re-elected to the Board of Directors of each of the Company and Felton Bank following the Change in Control (if he was serving on such Boards prior to the Change in Control). Finally, the Agreement was amended so that Mr. Evans may exercise his ability to terminate his employment for any of the Voluntary Termination Reasons without regard to whether the Change in Control occurs during the initial four-year term of the Agreement. This amended Agreement replaces and supersedes the April 1, 2002 version.

The form of Agreement, as amended on November 3, 2005, is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1.

In addition to serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of Felton Bank, Mr. Evans is also a director of both the Company and Felton Bank.

ITEM 2.02. Results of Operation and Financial Condition.
