INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THIS REPORT

Section 2 - Financial Information

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On April 21, 2006, Metalclad Insulation Corporation (“Metalclad”), Entrx Corporation’s (“Entrx”) wholly owned subsidiary, completed the sale of the building housing its offices and operating facilities in Anaheim, California (the “Premises”), for a gross price of $3,900,000. Under the terms of the sale, Metalclad Corporation will lease these facilities from the buyers of the Premises, Amin and Hasina Lakhani, for a period of eight months, at monthly rent of $21,800. Neither of the buyers has any material relationship to Entrx or any of its affiliates, or any officer or director of Entrx, or any associate of any such officer or director.

Metalclad intends to lease alternate facilities, from which it can conduct its operations, which will likely be located in the Anaheim, California area. While Metalclad has identified several potential suitable sites for these facilities, no site has yet been agreed upon, and no negotiations for leasing such site have been commenced. Entrx does not anticipate that the lease costs required will substantially exceed the monthly rent currently being paid for the Premises.

At the closing of the sale of the Premises, Metalclad paid the Far East National Bank (the “Bank”) $1,500,093 to release the mortgage held by the Bank on the Premises, and paid the Bank $1,005,282, to pay off Metalclad’s line of credit with the Bank, releasing Metalclad and Entrx from all obligations owing to that Bank.

Entrx intends to use the funds remaining from the sale of the Premises, after paying the Bank, and paying commissions and fees related to the sale transaction, totaling approximately $1,060,000, as working capital for future operations.

Item 2.04 Triggering Events that Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement
