ITEM OTHER EVENTS

8.01

On March 31, 2008, Insignia Solutions plc (Insignia) received a notice from Smith Micro Software Inc. (Smith Micro) stating that Smith Micro was making a claim under Article 12 of the Asset Purchase Agreement dated February 11, 2007, as amended. In its claim Smith Micro seeks indemnification for various alleged breaches of representations and warranties in the Asset Purchase Agreement resulting in alleged aggregate losses to Smith Micro stated to be between $3.1 million and $6.5 million. Insignia does not believe that the claim has merit and intends to vigorously contest it through the dispute resolution process established in the Asset Purchase Agreement, which includes binding arbitration.

It is not possible to predict the duration of the dispute resolution process, which may be lengthy. As a result, Insignia will suspend its pursuit of opportunities to merge with operating entities. In addition, Insignia will not be able to proceed with the alternative of liquidation until this process is completed. Insignia does not plan to conduct an investor conference call to discuss this announcement, as Smith Micro's claim will be the subject of legal proceedings.
