NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE SIX AND THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2008 AND 2007

Note 1 - BUSINESS DESCRIPTION AND ORGANIZATION

MyStarU.com, Inc., a Delaware corporation (together with its consolidated subsidiaries, “MYST” or the “Company”) is a fully integrated information and entertainment service provider to the business, internet, and consumer markets in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”). The Company was originally incorporated on January 6, 1997 in the State of Indiana under the corporate name MAS Acquisition XXI Corp. On December 21, 2000, the Company acquired Telecom Communications of America, a sole proprietorship in California, and changed its name to Telecom Communications, Inc. On February 28, 2005, the Company reincorporated in the State of Delaware by merging with a Delaware corporation of the same name. The surviving Delaware corporation succeeded to all of the rights, properties and assets and assumed all of the liabilities of the original Indiana corporation. On July 10, 2007, the Company changed its name from Telecom Communications, Inc. to MyStarU.com, Inc. The Company’s common stock continues to be quoted under the symbol, “MYST.OB,” on the over-the-counter bulletin board (“OTCBB”) in the United States of America.

The Company operates under the following business segments:

1. Investments in Entertainment Arts Productions - The Company purchases and licenses or resells copyrights of entertainment-related assets.
2. Online Content and Member Services Provider - The Company provides online content and member services for commercial use.
3. Software Sales - The Company provides web-based and mobile software platforms.
4. Media and Marketing Management - The Company’s subsidiary, Media Group International, coordinates product placement activities for filmmakers and advertisers within the entertainment arts industry of the PRC.
5. Importing and Exporting of Goods - The Company conducts international trade using the PRC as its base of operations.

On April 25, 2006, the Company’s majority-owned subsidiary, Subaye.com, Inc. (“Subaye.com”), acquired 100% of the shares of Guangzhou Panyu Metals & Minerals Import and Export Co., Limited (“Panyu M&M”), a PRC limited company, from the sole shareholder, Wukang IE Limited for $500,000. Panyu M&M’s principal activity is conducting import and export trade in PRC. On October 1, 2006, Subaye.com sold 100% of the shares of Panyu M&M to MYST.

On June 28, 2006, the Company acquired 53.92% of the outstanding common stock, par value of $0.001 of Subaye.com (F/K/A HRDQ Group, Inc.) by acquiring 2,024,190 shares of common stock of Subaye.com for $1,060,000. Concurrently, Subaye.com acquired certain valuable assets by selling 798,747 shares of its common stock to China Dongguan Networks, Inc (“CDN”) for $415,348 and 500,000 shares of its common stock to Top Rider Group Limited for $1,100,000.

Subaye.com also issued 200,000 Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.01, to Top Rider Group Limited for $660,000. Each share of Subaye.com’s Series A Convertible Preferred Stock is convertible into two shares of Subaye.com’s common stock. The proceeds from the issuance of Subaye.com’s common stock and preferred stock were used primarily to acquire a new website, www.subaye.com.

On September 1, 2006, the Company formed Guangzhou Subaye Computer Technology Limited (“GSTC”) as a PRC limited company, wholly-owned by the Company. GSTC provides computer services, such as web development, networking infrastructure and web infrastructure support services.

On May 16, 2007, Subaye.com issued 1,150,000 shares of its common stock for $2,300,000 to the Company. As a result of this transaction, the Company held a direct 64.60% ownership interest in Subaye.com. An independent valuation of Subaye.com was completed as of September 30, 2006 in order to facilitate an impartial and best efforts arms-length transaction between the majority and minority shareholders of Subaye.com.

On July 10, 2007, the Company filed appropriate documents with the Secretary of State of Delaware and changed its name from Telecom Communications, Inc. to MyStarU.com, Inc.

On October 1, 2007, the Company sold 100% of the outstanding ownership units of GSTC to its majority-owned subsidiary, Subaye.com for $3,894,720. Payment of the purchase price was made in the form of 2,748,788 shares of Subaye.com common stock. In accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 16, as amended, the transaction was accounted for as a reorganization using the historical cost basis of the Company’s investments and cash advances in GSTC, rather than the fair market value of Subaye.com common stock.

On October 1, 2007, Top Rider Group Limited, the sole holder of the Subaye.com preferred stock, converted its shares of preferred stock to 400,000 shares of Subaye.com's common stock.

On October 23, 2007, the Company's subsidiary, Subaye.com, acquired 100% of the outstanding ownership units of Media Group International Limited, a Hong Kong company, for consideration of $200,000, which was paid in the form of 100,000 shares of common stock of Subaye.com. Subaye.com will immediately begin executing the planned integration of the Corporate Video Online/Offline, commercial movie advertising markets, and overseas business operations and networks. Subaye.com expects the acquisition and the subsequent integration to be a leading provider of corporate video online/offline and product placement advertising in movies. The acquisition broadens its product portfolio and addressable market, helps develop overseas markets, and will immediately increase corporate video members and revenue.

On February 29, 2008, the Company disposed of two of its non operating subsidiaries, Arran Services Limited and Alpha Century Holdings Limited. The subsidiaries' sole function in recent reporting periods was to maintain and disburse funds on behalf of the Company for payment to vendors and for other administrative purposes.

Subsequent to the above transactions and certain other transactions disclosed in Note 9, the Company holds a 69.01% ownership in Subaye.com, Inc.

General Statement

The Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") has issued Financial Reporting Release No.60, Cautionary Advice Regarding Disclosure About Critical Accounting Policies ("FRR 60"), suggesting companies provide additional disclosure and commentary on their most critical accounting policies. In FRR 60, the SEC defined the most critical accounting policies to be the ones that are most important to the portrayal of a company's financial condition and operating results, and require management to make its most difficult and subjective judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates of matters that are inherently uncertain. The methods, estimates and judgments the Company uses in applying these most critical accounting policies have a significant impact on the results the Company reports in its consolidated financial statements.

We believe the following critical accounting policies and procedures, among others, affect our more significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements:

- Revenue recognition;
- Valuation of common stock issuances in lieu of cash compensation;
- Valuation of intangible assets and long lived assets, review for impairment losses.

Foreign currency translation

The reporting currency of the Company is the US dollar. The Company's principal operating subsidiaries established in the PRC and Hong Kong, use their local currency, Renminbi (RMB), and Hong Kong Dollar (HKD), as their functional currency. Results of operations and cash flows are translated at average exchange rates during the period, and assets and liabilities are translated at the unified exchange rate as quoted by the People's Bank of China at the end of the period. Translation adjustments resulting from this process are included in accumulated other comprehensive income in stockholders' equity on the balance sheets. Transaction gains and losses that arise from exchange rate fluctuations on transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currency are included in the results of operations as incurred.

Translation adjustments resulting from this process are included in accumulated other comprehensive income in stockholders' equity on the balance sheets and amounted to $56,422 and $7,016 as of March 31, 2008 and September 30, 2007, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

In accordance with the SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104, Revenue Recognition ("SAB 104"), the Company recognizes revenue when the following fundamental criteria are met: (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (ii) delivery has occurred or services have been rendered, (iii) the price to the customer is fixed or determinable and (iv) collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured. These criteria are usually met at the time of product shipment or performance of service.

Revenue for the monthly subscription from the members who subscribed to the Company's website(s) is recognized on a pro-rata basis, is calculated on a day-to-day basis and invoiced at the end of each month. The Company does not currently charge a cancellation fee or penalty if and when a customer decides to terminate their membership with our website(s).

Revenue for the monthly subscription of the Company's licensed products, including all post-delivery support and the right to receive unspecified upgrades/enhancements of the licensed products, is charged at a monthly basic price. Pursuant to the terms of the agreements, a fixed sum is due at the beginning of each month regardless of whether the customer requires service during that month. The Company recognizes the subscription on the first day of each month for which the support service agreement is in place.

Licensing revenue derived from the Company's copyrights is recognized in accordance with Statement of Position 00-2, Accounting by Producers or Distributors of Films ("SOP 00-2"). SOP 00-2 specifies that revenue is to be recognized when all of the following conditions are met:

1. Persuasive evidence of a sale or licensing arrangement with a customer exists.
2. The film is complete and, in accordance with the terms of the arrangement, has been delivered or is available for immediate and unconditional delivery.
3. The license period of the arrangement has begun and the customer can begin its exploitation, exhibition, or sale.
4. The arrangement fee is fixed or determinable.
5. Collection of the arrangement fee is reasonably assured.

When the Company's licensing fee is based on a percentage or share of a customer's revenue from the exploitation of the films, the Company recognizes revenue as the customer exploits the films and the Company meets all of the other revenue recognition conditions. In those circumstances, the Company receives reports from the customers on a periodic basis and uses those reports as the basis for recording revenue.

Revenues generated by MGI for media placement and advertising-related services contracted and placed with other third parties are recognized as services are rendered and are calculated by the agreed-upon sum on a straight-line basis over the contract period. For advertising placed by MGI with the Company or any of its subsidiaries, revenues are recognized as media placements are utilized by the customers, whether or not the media placements occur throughout the contract period or are placed and utilized at one particular time.

The Company negotiates contracts with its customers which may include revenue arrangements with multiple deliverables, as outlined by Emerging Issues Task Force No. 00-21 (EITF 00-21). The Company's accounting policies are defined such that each deliverable under a contract is accounted for separately. Historically, the Company has negotiated and signed contracts with its customers that outline the contract amount and specific terms and conditions associated with each deliverable. In these arrangements, our fee includes both the initial selling price of our software package profits and the monthly subscription of the licensed products for the contract period, usually for two years. The Company has historically separated out the various components of revenues as outlined within its contracts and has accounted for each component of the contract separately, in accordance with the terms of the contracts applicable to each component of the Company's revenues.

The Company recognizes revenue on import and export sales when products are delivered and the customer takes ownership and assumes risk of loss, collection of the relevant receivable is probable, persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists and the sales price is fixed or determinable. Net sales of products represent the invoiced value of goods, net of value added taxes, sales returns, trade discounts and allowances. In December 1999, the Securities Exchange Commission issued Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 101, "Revenue Recognition" and in July 2000, the Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") issued EITF Abstract No. 99-19 "Reporting Revenue Gross as a Principal versus Net as an Agent" ("EITF 99-19") which provided further guidance to SAB 101 on revenue recognition in certain circumstances. Prior to the introduction of EITF 99-19, the manner in which the Company recognized revenues depended on the goods and services sold. We reviewed the considerations included in EITF 99-19 with respect to sales of products within each of our business segments but with particular attention to our importing and exporting business segment. We determined that while EITF 99-19 outlines the variety of types of business transactions which would require the Company to report its revenues and costs of goods sold on a net basis, we do not believe our importing and exporting business should be accounted for with net reporting of revenues and costs of sales. The Company takes full ownership and assumes the risk of loss for its imported goods while the goods are in transit. The Company does not consider itself an agent for its customers, as described by EITF 99-19. After reviewing EITF 99-19, management believes that the Company is correct in continuing to present its revenues and costs of goods sold on a gross basis.

Sales revenue represents the invoiced value of goods, net of a value-added tax (VAT). All of the Company's products sold in the PRC are subject to a Chinese value-added tax at a rate of 6% of the gross sales price or at a rate approved by the Chinese local government.

Amortization of Copyrights

The Company amortizes its copyrights using the individual-film-forecast-computation method, in accordance with the SOP 00-2, which amortizes or accrues (expenses) such costs in the same ratio that current period actual revenue (numerator) bears to estimated remaining unrecognized ultimate revenue as of the beginning of the current fiscal year (denominator). The Company began amortization of certain movie copyrights in December 2006, when the Company began to recognize revenue from one of its copyrighted titles, "Big Movie: Subaye." Amortization related to the movies was $0 and $496,188 and $0 and $430,555 for the six and three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively, and was included in cost of sales.

The ultimate revenue to be included in the denominator of the individual-film-forecast-computation method fraction is subject to certain limitations as set forth in the SOP. If an event or change in circumstance indicates that the Company should assess whether the fair value of the copyright is less than its unamortized costs, the Company will determine the fair value of the film and will write off the amount by which the unamortized capitalized costs exceeds the episode's fair value. Accordingly, the Company cannot subsequently restore any amounts written off in previous fiscal years to income.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Cash

Cash includes cash on hand and demand deposits in accounts maintained with state-owned banks within the PRC and Hong Kong. Certain financial instruments, which subject the Company to concentration of credit risk, consist of cash and accounts receivable. Balances at financial institutions or state-owned banks within the PRC are not covered by insurance. Total cash in PRC or Hong Kong banks and cash on hand at March 31, 2008 and September 30, 2007, amounted to $1,271,398 and $1,150,422, respectively, of which no deposits are covered by insurance. The Company has not experienced any losses in such bank accounts and believes it is not exposed to any specifically identifiable risks on its cash in bank accounts. Cash on hand is susceptible to misappropriation. However, the Company has not experienced any losses of this nature and believes appropriate controls are in place to avoid a possible misappropriation of funds.

Accounts Receivable

We have a concentration of customers in each of our business segments. We are diligent in attempting to ensure that we issue credit to credit-worthy customers. However, our customer base is small and our accounts receivable balances are usually over 90 days outstanding, and that exposes us to significant credit risk. Therefore, a credit loss can be significant relative to our overall profitability.

Geographic, Political, Economic, Taxation and Legal

The Company's operations are carried out in the PRC. Accordingly, the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations may be influenced by the political, economic and legal environments in the PRC, and by the general state of the PRC economy. The Company's operations in the PRC are subject to specific considerations and significant risks not typically associated with companies in North America and Western Europe. These include risks associated with, among others, the political, economic and legal environments and foreign currency exchange. The Company's results may be adversely affected by changes in governmental policies with respect to laws and regulations, anti-inflationary measures, currency conversion and remittance abroad, and rates and methods of taxation, among other things.

Trade Accounts Receivable

Trade accounts receivable are recorded at the invoiced amount and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts represents the Company's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the existing accounts receivable balance. The Company determines the allowance for doubtful accounts based upon historical write-off experience and current economic conditions. The Company reviews the adequacy of its allowance for doubtful accounts on a regular basis. Receivable balances past due over 120 days, which exceed a specified dollar amount, are reviewed individually for collectibility. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote. The Company does have off-balance sheet credit exposure related to its customers. The concentration of customers owing at least 5% of the Company's outstanding accounts receivable as of March 31, 2008 was 85% of the Company's accounts receivable.

Allowances for doubtful accounts receivable balances are recorded when circumstances indicate that collection is doubtful for particular accounts receivable or as a general reserve for all accounts receivable. Management estimates such allowances based on historical evidence such as amounts that are subject to risk. Accounts receivable are written off if reasonable collection efforts are not successful.

Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or market. The cost is determined under the first-in-first-out (FIFO) method valuation method. An allowance for excess or obsolete inventory is maintained by the Company. The Company determines an appropriate balance in this account based on historical data and specific identification of certain inventory items. The Company's subsidiary, Panyu M&M, routinely ships and accepts deliveries of goods without insuring for potential losses on the goods during the course of delivery from Panyu M&M's suppliers. Additionally, in certain cases, the Company may accept liability for losses incurred on its goods as they are en route for delivery to Panyu M&M's customers. The Company has not historically encountered significant losses during the delivery process (both to and from Panyu M&M) but there is potential for significant losses to occur at any time.

Research and Development

Research, development, and engineering costs are expensed as incurred, in accordance with SFAS No. 2, Accounting for Research and Development Costs. Research, development, and engineering expenses primarily include payroll and headcount related costs, contractor fees, infrastructure costs, and administrative expenses directly related to research and development support.

Due to Related Party

The caption "Due to Related Party" on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet consists of a loan that is unsecured, non-interest bearing and has no fixed terms of repayment, and therefore, is deemed payable on demand. As of March 31, 2008, the amount included in due to related party consisted of a balance owed to an officer of Subaye.com's Media Group International Limited subsidiary.

Net Earnings (Loss) Per Share

The Company utilizes SFAS No. 128, Earnings per Share to calculate gain or loss per share. Basic gain or loss per share is computed by dividing the gain or loss available to common stockholders (as the numerator) by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding (as the denominator). Diluted gain or loss per share is computed similar to basic gain or loss per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if all potential common stock (including common stock equivalents) had all been issued, and if such additional common shares were dilutive. Under SFAS No. 128, if the additional common shares are dilutive, they are not added to the denominator in the calculation. Where there is a loss, the inclusion of additional common shares is anti-dilutive (since the increased number of shares reduces the per share loss available to common stock holders). For certain periods in which the Company incurred a loss, common stock equivalents have been excluded from the calculation of diluted loss per share.

There were no common stock equivalents as of March 31, 2008 or 2007, respectively.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Estimates and assumptions are periodically reviewed and the effects of revisions are reflected in the consolidated financial statements in the period they are determined to be necessary.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications to the Company's balance sheet and income statement have been made in 2007, in order for the 2008 financial statements to conform to the presentation of these financial statements. These reclassifications did not impact the Company's total assets, total liabilities, net income (loss) or stockholders equity for the six months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates continuity of operations, realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company had cumulative losses of $855,870 as of March 31, 2008 and negative cash flows from operations during the six months ending March 31, 2008 of $(295,902). The Company has committed to its new business segment, "Investments in Entertainment Arts," which requires substantial capital in order to invest in and manage the Company's investments. The Company's other business segments also may require outside sources of capital as well. The ability of the Company to operate as a going concern depends upon its ability to obtain outside sources of working capital and/or generate positive cash flow from operations. Management is aware of these requirements and is undertaking specific measures to address these liquidity concerns. Specifically, to increase revenues and generate strong operating cashflows, the Company has focused on increasing its member users of its websites, is determined to sell off assets it does not intend to utilize in the near future and will focus on continued sales of its master franchise licenses through its proprietary web-based educational platforms. The Company believes its outlook is promising and in particular that internal cashflows will improve and sources of external financing will continue to be available upon demand. The Company reached operating profitability during the first quarter of fiscal year 2008. We expect to continue to generate profits throughout the remainder of fiscal year 2008. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in obtaining such financing, that it will have sufficient funds to execute its business plan or that it will generate positive operating results. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of asset carrying amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might result should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 4 - ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

The Company's business operations are conducted in the PRC. During the normal course of business, the Company extends unsecured credit to its customers. Management reviews its accounts receivable on a regular basis to determine if the allowance for doubtful accounts is adequate. An estimate for doubtful accounts is made when collection of the full amount is no longer probable. Trade accounts receivable at March 31, 2008 and September 30, 2007 consisted of the following:

	March31, 2008	September30, 2007
	Unaudited	Audited

Less: allowance for doubtful accounts	(257,199)	(413,036)
Totals	$ 13,230,217	$ 7,982,668

The activity in the allowance for doubtful accounts for trade accounts receivable for the six months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 is as follows:

Gain on foreign currency translation	4,580	4,792
Ending allowance for doubtful accounts	$ 257,199	$ 413,036

The Company has the following concentrations of business with customers constituting greater than 5% of the Company's accounts receivable as of March 31, 2008 and September 30, 2007. The nonpayment of these accounts receivables, individually or in the aggregate, could have a material impact on our future results of operations.

These accounts receivable totaled $11,247,374 and $4,669,069 or 85% and 52% of our total accounts receivable as of March 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively.

NOTE 5 - COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE DEPOSIT ON CONTRACT

On March 8, 2008, the Company signed a contract with DA-TON Construction, a PRC-based developer, to purchase a new construction commercial building in the Panyu District in the PRC. Once completed, the building will consist of approximately 26,264 square feet of office space and is expected to be fully occupied by the Company and its subsidiaries. Construction is currently expected to be completed in December 2008. The purchase price of the building, once it is completed and other specific terms of the agreement are reached will be approximately $2,990,516 (21 million RMB). The Company paid a non-refundable deposit on the contract on March 8, 2008 of $600,000. The construction of the building is solely at the risk of DA-TON Construction. DA-TON Construction can break the contract and sell the building to another buyer under certain terms until a purchase and sale agreement is formalized and signed by both parties. In that event, the deposits on the contract will become refundable. The Company cannot be held liable for any expenses incurred above the contract price and will only be liable for the contract price if and when the construction is completed and the building is accepted by the Company "as is." Under the terms of the contract, the Company is scheduled to make payments to DA-TON Construction as follows:

The Company reviewed its business plan with regard to whether the Company will continue to sell off assets it doesn't consider having immediate benefit to the Company. As a result, the Company believes the sale of these copyrights is in the ordinary course of business and should not be reported as an extraordinary event or as other income. Accordingly, the Company has reported the proceeds from the sales in "licensing and royalty revenues" within the consolidated statement of operations and the adjusted cost basis associated with the sale in costs of sales on the consolidated statement of operations.

NOTE 8 - GOODWILL & INTANGIBLE ASSETS

*The copyrights for "Big Movie: Subaye" do not include rights for television broadcasting.

Copyrights for Internet Broadcasting Only

Big Movie 2: Two Stupid Eggs

The Company amortizes its copyrights using the individual-film-forecast-computation method, in accordance with the SOP 00-2, which amortizes or accrues (expenses) such costs in the same ratio that current period actual revenue (numerator) bears to estimated remaining unrecognized ultimate revenue as of the beginning of the current fiscal year (denominator). The Company began amortization of the Big Movie: Subaye movie copyrights in December 2006, when the Company began to recognize revenue from the film. Total amortization of the copyrights was $0 and $496,188 and $0 and $430,555 for the six and three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively, and was included in cost of sales.

The ultimate revenue to be included in the denominator of the individual-film-forecast-computation method fraction is subject to certain limitations as set forth in SOP 00-2. If an event or change in circumstance indicates that the Company should assess whether the fair value of the copyright is less than its unamortized costs, the Company will determine the fair value of the film and will write off the amount by which the unamortized capitalized costs exceeds the episode's fair value. Accordingly, the Company cannot subsequently restore any amounts written off in previous fiscal years to income.

Given the environment in which the Company currently operates, it is reasonably possible that management's estimate of the economic useful lives of these assets or the assumption that they will recover their carrying amounts from future operations, could change in the future.

Intangible assets of the Company are reviewed annually or more often if circumstances dictate, to determine whether their carrying value has become impaired. The Company considers assets to be impaired if the carrying value exceeds the future projected cash flows from related operations. The Company also re-evaluates the periods of amortization to determine whether subsequent events and circumstances warrant revised estimates of useful lives. As of March 31, 2008 and September 30, 2007, respectively, the Company expects these assets, at their current carrying value, to be fully recoverable.

The portion of the acquisition costs of Panyu M&M that has been allocated to goodwill totaled $354,614. Such allocation was made on the basis of the Company's appraised value of Panyu M&M's net assets as of the acquisition date. See Note 6.

The portion of the acquisition costs of MGI that has been allocated to goodwill totaled $202,453. Such allocation was made on the basis of recent arms length transactions involving the common stock of Subaye.com, Inc. See Note 6.

NOTE 11 - INCOME TAX

United States of America

Since the Company had no operations within the United States, there is no provision for US taxes and there are no deferred tax amounts as of March 31, 2008 and September 30, 2007, respectively.

Delaware

The Company is incorporated in Delaware but does not conduct business in Delaware. Therefore, the Company is not subject to corporate income tax. However, the Company does have to pay Franchise Tax to the Delaware Department of State. Regardless of where the Company conducts business, it must file an Annual Franchise Tax Report and pay Franchise Tax for the privilege of incorporating in Delaware. The minimum Franchise Tax is $35 with a maximum of $165,000. The Company's Franchise Tax owed to Delaware was approximately $500 and $200 for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

British Virgin Islands

3G Dynasty and Subaye IIP are incorporated in the British Virgin Islands and, under the current laws of the British Virgin Islands, are not subject to income taxes.

Hong Kong

Media Group International Ltd and MyStarU Ltd. are incorporated in Hong Kong and are subject to Hong Kong taxation on its activities conducted in Hong Kong and income arising in or derived from Hong Kong. No provision for Hong Kong profits tax has been made as the Company's Hong Kong subsidiaries incurred a loss during the six and three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively. The applicable Hong Kong statutory tax rate for the six and three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 is 17.5%, respectively.

People's Republic of China

Enterprise income tax in PRC is generally charged at 33% of a company's assessable profit, of which 30% is a national tax and 3% is a local tax. The Company's subsidiaries incorporated in the PRC are subject to PRC enterprises income tax at the applicable tax rates on the taxable income as reported in their Chinese statutory accounts in accordance with the relevant enterprises income tax laws applicable to foreign enterprises. Pursuant to the same enterprises income tax laws, the Company's subsidiaries are fully exempted from PRC enterprises income tax for two years starting from the first profit-making year, followed by a 50% tax exemption for the next three years.

No provision for enterprise income tax in the PRC had been made for March 31, 2008 and 2007 due to the fact that the Company had a net loss for the six and three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 and was exempt from PRC tax based on the statutory provisions granting a tax holiday for a two year period, as stated above, for the years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005. The Company is currently reviewing its financial forecast for 2008 and is considering the potential of certain tax liabilities for 2008.

The Company is governed by the Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China concerning Foreign Investment Enterprises and Foreign Enterprises and various local income tax laws ("the Income Tax Laws"). Under the Income Tax Laws, foreign investment enterprises ("FIE") generally are subject to an income tax at an effective rate of 33% (30% state income taxes plus 3% local income taxes) on income as reported in their statutory financial statements after appropriate tax adjustments unless the enterprise is located in specially designated regions of cities for which more favorable effective tax rates apply. Upon approval by the PRC tax authorities, FIEs scheduled to operate for a period of 10 years or more and engaged in manufacturing and production may be exempt from income taxes for two years, commencing with their first profitable year of operations, after taking into account any losses brought forward from prior years, and thereafter with a 50% exemption for the next three years.

Beginning January 1, 2008, the new Enterprise Income Tax ("EIT") law of the People's Republic of China replaced the existing laws for Domestic Enterprises ("DES") and FIEs.

The key changes are:

- a. The new standard EIT rate of 25% will replace the 33% rate currently applicable to both DES and FIEs, except for "high tech companies" who pay a reduced rate of 15%. The Company currently believes it will qualify as a high tech company under the rule.
- b. Companies established before March 16, 2007 will continue to enjoy tax holiday treatment approved by local government for a grace period of the next five years or until the tax holiday term is completed, whichever is sooner.

The Company and all of its subsidiaries, except for Subaye IIP, were established before March 16, 2007. Subaye IIP is a British Virgin Islands entity and is 100% owned by the Company. Subaye IIP is therefore treated as a pass-through entity for PRC tax purposes and is therefore not subject to PRC taxes. The Company is qualified to continue enjoying the reduced tax rate as described above. Since the detailed guidelines of the new tax law have not been published yet, the Company cannot determine what the new tax rate applicable to the Company will be after the end of their respective tax holiday terms.

The following table reconciles the PRC statutory rates to the Company's effective tax rate for the six months ended March 31, 2008 and March 31, 2007:

	2008	2007
U.S. Statutory rates	35.0%	35.0%
Foreign income	(35.0)	(35.0)
China tax rates	33.0	33.0
China income tax exemption	(33.0)	(33.0)
Effective income tax rates	0%	0%

Value Added Tax

Enterprises or individuals who sell products, engage in repair and maintenance or import and export goods in the PRC are subject to a value added tax in accordance with Chinese laws. The value added tax rate applicable to the Company is 6% of the gross sales price. No credit is available for VAT paid on the purchases.

The Company recorded a bad debt recovery of approximately $185,000 in three months ended December 31, 2007 and believes its allowance for doubtful accounts and accounts receivable balances are fairly presented as of March 31, 2008.

Other income and expenses decreased by $12,537 due primarily to:

The total other income was $14,251 and $26,788 for the six months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively. In 2006, the Company reported a gain on the sale of one of its automobiles.

We reported net income for the six months ended March 31, 2008 of $1,594,856. Earnings per share for the six and three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 was $0.01 and $(0.03) versus $0.01 and $(0.02), respectively.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We believe that our currently-available working capital should be adequate to sustain our operations for the twelve month period ending March 31, 2009.

As of March 31, 2008, we had a cash balance of $1,271,398 held in PRC and Hong Kong banks and including cash on hand. Historically, we have funded our operations with receipts from customers and have sold shares of our common stock in private placement transactions as necessary.

Management has invested substantial time evaluating and considering numerous proposals for possible investments, acquisitions or business combinations, either looked for by management or presented to management by investment professionals, the Company's advisors and others. We continue to consider acquisitions, business combinations, or start up proposals, which could be advantageous to our shareholders. No assurance can be given that any such project, acquisition or combination will be concluded, or that any such actions will be approved by our Board of Directors.

Net cash used in operations for the six months ended March 31, 2008 was $(265,870). The Company's accounts receivable balances have continued to increase over the last two quarters. However, the Company's actual cash balances have remained consistent over the six month period ended March 31, 2008.

Net cash provided by investing activities for the six months ended March 31, 2008 was 2,834. The Company received cash of $2,834 upon the acquisition of MGI.

Net cash provided by financing activities for the six months ended March 31, 2008 was $600,000. The Company completed a private placement and sold 5,000,000 shares of common stock for $600,000.

Our future growth is dependent on our ability to raise capital for expansion, and to seek additional revenue sources. If we decide to pursue any acquisition opportunities or other expansion opportunities, we may need to raise additional capital, although there can be no assurance such capital-raising activities would be successful.

ITEM 3. Controls and Procedures.

Our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer (collectively, the "Certifying Officers") are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures for us. Based upon such officers' evaluation of these controls and procedures as of a date within 90 days of the filing of this Quarterly Report, and subject to the limitations noted hereinafter, the Certifying Officers have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in this Quarterly Report is accumulated and communicated to management, including our principal executive officers as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

We have taken several actions in order to remedy the shortcomings in our disclosure controls and procedures, including the appointment of a new CFO with more experience in U.S. public company reporting. We are also in the process of migrating our financial data into accounting software that we believe will better facilitate the control and review process. We will continue to identify and correct any deficiencies in order for our Certifying Officers to be able to conclude that our controls and procedures are effective.

The Certifying Officers have also indicated that, except as set forth above, there were no significant changes in our internal controls or other factors that could significantly affect such controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation, and there were no corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.
