PROXY STATEMENT

FOR 2008 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

GENERAL QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

When is the Proxy Statement being mailed?

A: This Proxy Statement of Command Security Corporation (which we refer to in this Proxy Statement as the “Company,” “we,” “us” or “our,” as the context requires) will first be mailed on or about August 8, 2008 to shareholders of the Company by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) to solicit proxies for use at the Annual Meeting.

When is the Annual Meeting and where will it be held?

A: The Annual Meeting will be held on September 18, 2008 at 12:00 p.m. New York time at the offices of our legal counsel, Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP, 1301 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York.

Who is asking for my vote at the Annual Meeting?

A: The Board asks that you vote on the proposals listed in the Notice of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The votes will be taken at the Annual Meeting on September 18, 2008 or, if the Annual Meeting is adjourned, at any later meeting. The Board recommends that you vote “FOR” each of the proposals presented in this Proxy Statement.

Who may attend the Annual Meeting?

A: All shareholders of the Company may attend the Annual Meeting. Shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the above meeting are entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote in their place. A person to whom a proxy is granted need not be a shareholder of the Company.

Who is entitled to vote?

A: Shareholders as of the close of business on July 18, 2008 (the “Record Date”) are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each common share is entitled to one vote.

What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You are being asked to vote on:

1. The election of three (3) Class II directors to serve on our Board of Directors until our 2010 annual meeting of shareholders, or until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified;

2. The ratification of the appointment of D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP as our independent public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2009;
3. An amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock common stock from 20,000,000 shares to 50,000,000 shares; and
4. Such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof.

How do I vote?

A: You may vote by either attending the Annual Meeting or by appointing a proxy by signing and dating each proxy card you receive and returning it in the enclosed prepaid envelope. We encourage you to complete and send in your proxy card. If you then decide to attend the Annual Meeting, you may revoke your proxy by voting in person.

All shares represented by valid proxies, unless the shareholder otherwise specifies, will be voted:

·“FOR” the election of each of the three (3) persons identified in “Proposals for Election of Directors” as nominees for election as Class II directors of the Company for terms expiring in 2010;

·“FOR” the ratification of D’Arcangelo & Co., LLP as the independent public accounting firm for the Company for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2009;

·“FOR” the amendment of our Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock from 20,000,000 shares to 50,000,000 shares; and;

·At the discretion of the proxy holders with regard to any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Where a shareholder has properly specified how a proxy is to be voted, it will be voted by the proxy in the manner specified.

Can I change my vote after I have returned my proxy card?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy by:

·sending a written notice of revocation or another signed proxy with a later date to the Company’s principal executive offices, P.O. Box 340, 1133 Route 55, Suite D. Lagrangeville, New York 12540; or ·attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

A: If you receive more than one proxy card, it is because your shares are held in more than one account. You will need to sign and return all proxy cards to insure that all your shares are voted.

My common shares are held in “street name.” Will my broker vote my shares at the meeting?

A: If your shares are held in the name of a broker, then only your broker can execute a proxy and vote your shares and only after receiving your specific instructions. Remember that your shares cannot be voted unless you return a signed and executed proxy card to your broker. However, please be advised that broker non-votes with respect to any matter to be voted on at the Annual Meeting will not be voted but will be counted as present to determine whether there is a quorum for voting purposes on such matters at the Annual Meeting. Broker non-votes occur when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the broker, bank or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular proposal and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares. Please sign, date and promptly mail the enclosed proxy card in the envelope provided by your broker.

Under New York law, corporate action taken at a shareholders' meeting is generally based on the votes cast. “Votes cast” means the votes actually cast “for” or “against” a particular proposal, whether in person or by proxy. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes generally have no effect in determining whether a proposal is approved by Shareholders. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast, while approval of Proposal 2, to ratify the Board’s selection of our independent accountants, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. However, approval of Proposal 3, to amend our Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of our common stock, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of all of our outstanding common shares, not merely of the votes cast. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes in connection with Proposal 3 will have the same effect as a vote against Proposal 3.

Who will count the vote?

A: Martin C. Blake, Jr., our Chief Operating Officer, will tabulate the votes and act as inspector of election.

What constitutes a quorum for the Annual Meeting?

A: As of the Record Date, 10,757,216 common shares of the Company were issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders holding at least fifty percent (50%) of the issued and outstanding common shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will constitute a quorum for purposes of the matters to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting. If you submit a properly executed proxy card, then the common shares covered by that proxy card will be considered part of the quorum. Votes that are withheld and broker non-votes will be counted towards a quorum.

What is the required vote for election of each director?

A: Members of our Board will be elected by a plurality of the affirmative votes cast in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, the three (3) nominees for Class II director receiving the highest number of affirmative votes for such class will be elected. A shareholder may, with respect to the election of directors, (i) vote for the election of all of the nominees, (ii) withhold authority to vote for any one or more of the nominees or (iii) withhold authority to vote for all of the nominees by so indicating in the appropriate spaces on the enclosed proxy card. Because the nominees will be elected by a plurality vote, neither broker non-votes nor shares abstaining from the vote on the proposal to elect the slate of nominees will have an effect on the outcome of the vote on Proposal One. If you are in favor of the slate of nominees, you are urged to vote “for” each nominee identified in Proposal One.

What vote is required to ratify the Board's selection of our independent registered public accounting firm?

A: The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required to ratify the Board's selection of our independent public accounting firm. With respect to the approval of the ratification of the appointment of the independent accountants, abstentions are considered to be shares present and entitled to be cast and will have the effect of a negative vote on the matter, and broker "non-votes" are not counted as shares eligible to vote and will have no effect on the outcome of the matter. If you are in favor of the ratification of the appointment of our independent accountants, you are urged to vote "for" Proposal Two. Shareholder ratification of the selection of D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP as our independent public accountants is not required by our By-laws or other applicable legal requirement. However, the Board is submitting the selection of D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP to the shareholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate governance. If the shareholders fail to ratify the selection, the audit committee of our Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") will reconsider whether or not to retain that firm. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee at its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in our and our shareholders' best interests.

What vote is required to amend our Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of our authorized common shares?

A: The affirmative vote of a the holders of a majority of our outstanding common shares, whether or not present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting, is required to approve the amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of our authorized common shares. With respect to the proposal to approve the amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation, abstentions and broker "non-votes" are considered to be shares present and entitled to be cast and will have the effect of a negative vote on the matter. If you are in favor of the amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of our authorized common shares, you are urged to vote "for" Proposal Three.

Are there other matters to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting?

A: We are not aware of any other matters to be presented or acted upon at the Annual Meeting.

If any other matter is presented at the Annual Meeting on which a vote may properly be taken, the shares represented by proxies will be voted in accordance with the judgment of the proxy holders.

How are proxies being solicited?

A: Proxies may be solicited by mail, advertisement, telephone, via the Internet or in person. Solicitations may be made by directors, officers, investor relations personnel and other employees of the Company, none of whom will receive additional compensation for such solicitations. Banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward the Company's solicitation material to their customers for whom they hold shares. We will reimburse brokerage firms and others for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy materials to the beneficial owners of our common shares and obtaining voting instructions from beneficial owners of our common shares.

When are shareholder proposals for inclusion in the proxy statement for the 2009 Annual Meeting due?

A: Pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), shareholders may present proper proposals for inclusion in a company's proxy statement and for consideration at the next annual meeting of its shareholders by submitting their proposals to us in a timely manner.

A proposal by a shareholder intended for inclusion in our proxy materials for the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act must be received by us marked for the attention of the Secretary, Command Security Corporation, P.O. Box 340, 1133 Route 55, Suite D, Lagrangeville, New York, 12540, on or before March 31, 2009, in order to be considered for such inclusion. Shareholder proposals intended to be submitted at the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders outside the framework of Rule 14a-8 will be considered untimely under Rule 14a-4(c)(1) if not received by us at the above address on or before June 15, 2009. If we do not receive notice of the matter by the applicable date, the proxy holders will vote on the matter, if properly presented at the meeting, in their discretion.

Who can help answer my questions?

A: If you have any questions about the Annual Meeting you should contact Barry I. Regenstein, our President and Chief Financial Officer, at (845) 454-3703.

As of July 29, 2008, executive officers and directors of the Company beneficially own, in the aggregate, approximately 54.0% of our outstanding common shares. They have all indicated that they intend to vote all of their shares in the manner recommended by our Board of Directors.

The entire expense of printing, preparing, assembling and mailing proxy materials and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company.

IMPORTANT: Whether or not you intend to attend the Annual Meeting, Please mark, date and sign the enclosed proxy card and return it at your earliest convenience in the enclosed postage-prepaid return envelope so that your common shares will be voted. This will not limit your right to revoke your proxy or to attend or vote at the Annual Meeting.

Proposal One

Election of Directors

Our Board is currently comprised of six (6) members divided into two classes of directors serving staggered two-year terms. Class I currently consists of three directors: Peter T. Kikis, Laurence A. Levy and Martin C. Blake, Jr. Class II currently consists of three directors: Barry I. Regenstein, Robert S. Ellin and Thomas P. Kikis.

The Class I directors of the Company will continue in office for their existing terms, which expire at the 2009 annual meeting of shareholders or when their respective successors are elected and have been duly elected and qualified. The Class II directors of the Company to be elected at the Annual Meeting will serve for a term of two years, expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders in 2010 or until their respective successors are elected and have qualified.

Unless authority to vote for directors is withheld, the Company intends that the shares represented by the enclosed proxy will be voted for the election of the nominees listed below. In the event the nominees become unable or unwilling to accept nomination or election, the shares represented by the enclosed proxy will be voted for the election of such persons as the Board of Directors may select. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that the nominees will be unable or unwilling to serve.

Directors are elected by a plurality vote of the aggregate voting power of the shares of outstanding common stock, present in person or represented by proxy, voting together as a single class. Accordingly, the three (3) nominees for Class II director receiving the highest number of affirmative votes for such class will be elected.

Proposal Two
Ratification of the Appointment of D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP
as Independent Accountants

The Audit Committee has selected D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP as the independent accountants to audit the books, records and accounts of the Company for the current fiscal year ending March 31, 2009, subject to ratification by the shareholders at the Annual Meeting. D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP has audited the Company's financial statements since 1996. Although shareholder ratification is not required by our By-laws or any other applicable legal requirement, the Board is submitting the selection of D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP to the shareholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate governance. Our Board recommends that shareholders vote for ratification of such appointment. In the event of a negative vote on ratification, our Board may reconsider its selection. A representative of D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, they will have the opportunity to make a statement and will be available to answer questions from shareholders.

The Audit Committee has responsibility for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent accountants. As part of this responsibility, the Audit Committee must pre-approve all permissible services to be performed by the independent accountants.

Pursuant to the Audit Committee charter, the Audit Committee is required to pre-approve all auditing services and the terms thereof (which may include providing comfort letters in connection with securities underwritings) and non-audit services (other than non-audit services prohibited under Section 10A(g) of the Exchange Act, or the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") or the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board) to be provided to the Company by the independent accountants; provided, however, the pre-approval requirement is waived with respect to the provision of non-audit services for the Company if the "de minimus" provisions of Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Exchange Act are satisfied. This authority to pre-approve non-audit services may be delegated to one or more members of the Audit Committee, who shall present all decisions to pre-approve an activity to the full Audit Committee at its first meeting following such decision.

During the fiscal years ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 and the interim period between April 1, 2008 and July 29, 2008, neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf consulted D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events listed in Item 304(a)(2)(i) or (ii) of Regulation S-K.

Approval of Proposal Two will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the common shares present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote.

The following table sets forth the aggregate fees billed by D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP for audit and non-audit services rendered to the Company in our fiscal years ended March 31, 2007 and 2008. These fees are categorized as audit fees, audit related fees, tax fees and all other fees. The nature of the services provided in each category is described following the table.

All Other Fees	6,132	19,548

Audit fees. These fees generally consist of professional services rendered for the audits of the financial statements of the Company and its internal control over financial reporting, quarterly reviews, consents, income tax provision procedures and assistance with and review of documents filed with the SEC.

Audit-related fees. These fees generally consist of assurance and other services related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements or that are traditionally performed by the independent registered public accounting firm, issuance of consents, due diligence related to acquisitions, internal control reviews, attest services that are not required by statute or regulation and consultations concerning financial accounting and reporting standards.

Tax fees. These fees generally relate primarily to tax compliance, including review and preparation of corporate tax returns, assistance with tax audits, review of the tax treatment for certain expenses and tax due diligence relating to acquisitions. They also include fees for state and local tax planning and consultations with respect to various tax matters.

All other fees. These fees generally consist of reviews for compliance with various government regulations, risk management and treasury reviews and assessments and audits of various contractual arrangements.

The Board of Directors has determined that the services rendered by D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP are compatible with maintaining their independence as the Company's principal accountants and independent auditors.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” ratification of the appointment of D'Arcangelo & Co., LLP as the Company's independent accountants for our fiscal year ending March 31, 2009.

Proposal Three
Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation to Increase Number of Authorized
Shares of Common Stock

Presently, our authorized capital stock consists of 20,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.0001 per share. As of July 29, 2008, the Company had outstanding approximately 10,757,216 shares of common stock and no shares of preferred stock.

Under the proposed amendment, the number of authorized shares of common stock would be increased from 20,000,000 to 50,000,000 shares, which would leave us with 39,242,784 shares of common stock authorized and unissued as of July 29, 2008.

The amendment would provide us with the ability to issue common stock for a variety of corporate purposes. These include issuances in connection with the acquisition of a business, to raise cash to expand our business and for equity incentive plans for our employees. The additional authorized shares would enable us to act quickly in response to opportunities that may arise for these types of transactions, in most cases without the necessity of obtaining further shareholder approval and holding a special shareholders' meeting before such issuances(s) could proceed, except as provided under New York law or under the rules of the American Stock Exchange (which requires shareholder consent for acquisition transactions involving a 20% or greater increase in the number of our listed shares). The proposed increase in the number of shares of common stock will not change the number of shares of stock outstanding, have any immediate dilutive effect or change the rights of current holders of stock. However, to the extent that the additional authorized shares of capital stock are issued in the future, they may decrease existing shareholders' percentage equity ownership and, depending on the price at which they are issued, could be dilutive to the voting rights of existing shareholders and may dilute earnings and book value on a per share basis. Shareholders do not have preemptive rights to acquire the common stock authorized by this amendment, which means that current shareholders do not have a prior right to purchase any new issue of capital stock in order to maintain their proportionate ownership thereof.

Our Board of Directors believes that it is in the best interests of the shareholders for the Board of Directors to have the flexibility to issue additional shares of common stock in any or all of the above circumstances. Although the issuance of additional shares of common stock could, in certain instances, discourage an attempt by another person or entity to acquire control of us, we have not proposed the increase in the number of authorized shares of common stock with the intention of using the additional authorized shares for anti-takeover purposes.

Our Board of Directors has no present arrangements or agreements to issue any of the proposed additional authorized shares of common stock. However, we review and evaluate potential capital raising activities, transactions and other corporate actions on an on-going basis to determine if such actions would be in the best interests of the Company and our shareholders.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the approval of the amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation to increase the authorized number of shares of common stock from 20,000,000 shares to 50,000,000 shares.

Board Meetings and Committees

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008, our Board held a total of three meetings, and all incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of our Board and the meetings of committees, if any, upon which such directors served. Our Board has determined that each of our directors other than Barry I. Regenstein, our President and Chief Financial Officer, and Martin C. Blake, Jr., our Chief Operating Officer, qualifies as “independent” under the listing standards of The American Stock Exchange.

Our Board has three committees: the Audit Committee, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Compensation Committee. All Board committees are comprised solely of independent directors.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee currently consists of Thomas P. Kikis (Chairman), Peter T. Kikis and Robert S. Ellin. The Board has determined that each member is independent under listing standards of the American Stock Exchange (“AMEX”) and the applicable rules of the SEC, that each member is “financially literate” under the AMEX listing standards and that Mr. Thomas P. Kikis qualifies as an Audit Committee Financial Expert under the applicable rules of the SEC.

The Audit Committee hires the Company's independent accountants and is charged with the responsibility of overseeing the financial reporting process of the Company. In the course of performing its functions, the Audit Committee reviews, with management and the independent accountants, the Company's internal accounting controls, the annual financial statements, the report and recommendations of the independent accountants, the scope of the audit and the qualifications and independence of the auditors. The report of the Audit Committee is set forth later in this proxy statement. The Audit Committee held four meetings during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008. A copy of the Audit Committee charter as adopted by the Board on April 27, 2005 is available on the Company's website at www.commandsecurity.com.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee currently consists of Thomas P. Kikis (Chairman), Peter T. Kikis and Laurence A. Levy. The Board has determined that each member of this committee is independent under the AMEX listing standards. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying individuals who are qualified to become directors, recommending nominees for membership on the Board and committees of the Board, promulgating minimum qualifications that it believes must be met by director nominees, establishing policies for considering director candidates recommended by shareholders, implementing procedures for shareholders in submitting recommendations for director candidates and developing and recommending to the Board corporate governance guidelines.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has established the following minimum qualifications for prospective nominees: (1) high accomplishments in his or her respective field, with superior credentials and recognition, (2) if applicable, a demonstrated history of actively contributing at board meetings, (3) high personal and professional integrity, exceptional ability and judgment, and effectiveness, in conjunction with the other nominees to the Board, in serving the long-term interests of the shareholders and (4) sufficient time and availability to devote to the affairs of the Company, particularly in light of the number of boards on which the nominee may serve. In addition, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may consider a variety of other qualities and skills, including whether the nominee has direct experience in the industry or in the markets in which the Company operates and the definition of independence within the meaning of the American Stock Exchange listing standards. Nominees must also meet any applicable requirements of the SEC's regulations, state law and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has established a process for identifying and evaluating nominees for director. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may solicit recommendations from any or all of the following sources: non-management directors, executive officers, third-party search firms or any other source it deems appropriate. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will then, without regard to the source of the initial recommendation of such proposed director candidate, review and evaluate the qualifications of any such proposed director candidate, and conduct inquiries it deems appropriate. Upon identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board, consistent with the minimum qualifications and other criteria approved by the Board from time to time, and provided that the Company is not legally required to provide third parties with the ability to nominate individuals for election as a member of the Board, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will then recommend that the Board select the director nominees for election at each annual meeting of shareholders.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by the Company's shareholders. A shareholder wishing to propose a nominee should submit a recommendation in writing to the Company's Secretary not less than 120 days nor more than 150 days in advance of the date that the Company's proxy statement was mailed to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting of shareholders; provided that if the date of this year's annual meeting of shareholders has been changed by more than 30 days from the date contemplated at the time of the previous year's proxy statement, such proposal must be received by the Company a reasonable time before the Company solicits proxies for the election of directors. Proposing shareholders are also required to provide information with regard to the nominees, including their full names and residence and business addresses; business experience for the most recent five years; including principal occupations and employment, the number of shares of the Company's stock owned by the proposed nominees and a description of legal or administrative proceedings or order or decree any nominee is or has been a party to or is or was subject to during the past five years, the name and residence and business address of the shareholder who makes the nomination, the number of shares of the Company's capital stock owned directly or indirectly by the shareholder who makes the nomination and any other information regarding each of the nominees required by Schedule 14A of the Exchange Act. A copy of the full text of the By-laws provision and the procedures established by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may be obtained by writing to our Secretary. All notices of proposals by shareholders, whether or not included in our proxy materials, should be sent to Command Security Corporation, P.O. Box 340, 1133 Route 55, Suite D, Lagrangeville, New York 12540, Attention: Barry I. Regenstein, President.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee was formed in April 2005 and held four meetings during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008. Prior to the creation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the Board performed the functions of a nominating committee. A copy of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee charter as adopted by the Board on April 27, 2005 is available on the Company's website at www.commandsecurity.com.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Laurence A. Levy (Chairman), Peter T. Kikis and Robert S. Ellin. The Board has determined that each member is independent under the AMEX listing standards. The Compensation Committee sets the compensation of the other senior executives of the Company, administers the stock option plans and the executive compensation programs of the Company, determines eligibility for, and awards under, such plans and programs, and makes recommendations to the Board with regard to the adoption of new employee benefit plans, stock option plans and executive compensation plans. The report of the Compensation Committee is set forth later in this proxy statement. The Compensation Committee held three meetings during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008. A copy of the Compensation Committee charter as adopted by the Board on April 27, 2005 is available on the Company's website at www.commandsecurity.com.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee is currently composed of independent, non-employee directors. No interlocking relationships exist among our Board, Compensation Committee or executive officers and the Board, Compensation Committee or executive officers of any other company, nor has an interlocking relationship existed in the past.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Board has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to directors, officers, senior management and certain other employees of the Company, including its principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller or persons performing similar functions. The Company will provide a copy of its Code of Business Conduct and Ethics to any person without charge, upon request, and a copy of this code is available for viewing on our website at www.commandsecurity.com. Requests for a copy of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics can be made in writing to the following address: Command Security Corporation, P.O. Box 340, 1133 Route 55, Suite D, Lagrangeville, New York 12540, Attention: Barry I. Regenstein, President.

Related Party Transaction Policies and Procedures

The Board has adopted a written Code of Ethics & Business Conduct that applies to all its employees, officer and directors. In keeping in the spirit of such code, and specifically the Conflict of Interest section of the Code of Ethics & Business Conduct, it is the Company's policy not to enter into any transactions with one of its executive officers, directors or director nominees, or stockholders known to beneficially own over 5% of a class of our voting stock or their related persons, unless the transaction is approved by a majority of the Company's disinterested directors after a full disclosure.

Communications with Directors

The Board has established a process to receive communications from shareholders. Shareholders and other interested parties may contact any member (or all members) of the Board, or the independent directors as a group, any Board committee or any Chair of any such committee by mail or electronically. To communicate with the Board of Directors, any individual directors or any group or committee of directors, correspondence should be addressed to the Board of Directors or any such individual directors or group or committee of directors by either name or title. All such correspondence should be sent to Command Security Corporation, P.O. Box 340, 1133 Route 55, Suite D, Lagrangeville, New York 12540, Attention: Gary Herman, Secretary. To communicate with any of our directors electronically, a shareholder should send an email to the Company's Secretary: gherman@gallowaycap.com.

All communications received as set forth in the preceding paragraph will be opened by the Corporate Secretary for the sole purpose of determining whether the contents represent a message to our directors. Any contents that are not in the nature of advertising, promotions of a product or service, patently offensive material or matters deemed inappropriate for the Board of Directors will be forwarded promptly to the addressee. In the case of communications to the Board or any group or committee of directors, the Company's Secretary will make sufficient copies (or forward such information in the case of e-mail) of the contents to send to each director who is a member of the group or committee to which the envelope or e-mail is addressed.

It is the Company's policy that its directors are invited and encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our executive officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of the outstanding common shares to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and to furnish copies to us.

Based upon a review of the reports furnished to us and representations made to us, we believe that, during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008, all reports required by Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act to be filed by our officers and directors and 10% beneficial owners were filed on a timely basis with the exception of the following: Peter T. Kikis did not file a Form 4 on a timely basis with respect to transfers of shares to a foundation controlled by his son Thomas

P. Kikis.

Employment Agreements

The Company is a party to an employment agreement with Mr. Regenstein, which provides for his services as President and Chief Financial Officer until September 7, 2007. In January 2006, Mr. Regenstein was promoted to President of the Company, and he also currently serves as the Company's Chief Financial Officer. The term of the employment agreement will be automatically extended for successive one-year periods unless either party provides to the other party notice 60 days prior to such date, or any anniversary thereof, that the notifying party does not wish to renew the employment agreement. During the term of the employment agreement, Mr. Regenstein will receive a base annual salary of $250,000, which may be from time to time increased by the Company's Compensation Committee and an annual bonus as determined in accordance with the terms of any incentive plan the Compensation Committee may have in effect from time to time, based on the attainment of performance targets established by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Regenstein is also entitled to participate in other benefit plans that the Company may have in effect from time to time.

On the effective date of the employment agreement, which is August 30, 2004, Mr. Regenstein was granted 500,000 options exercisable at $1.35 per share, 200,000 of which vested immediately upon grant. After August 30, 2005, the remaining options vested at a rate of 12,500 per month during the term of the employment agreement.

In the employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Regenstein if, within two years following a Change in Control (as defined in the agreement), (i) such executive's employment is terminated by the Company (other than for cause, death or disability) or (ii) such executive terminates his employment for "good reason" (as defined in the agreement), the Executive shall be entitled to (A) all accrued payments and benefits through the termination date; (B) his base salary for a period of the lesser of (x) one year following the date of termination or (y) the remainder of the term of his employment agreement; and (C) reimbursement of expenses through the termination date. Also, immediately upon a termination referred to in subparagraphs (i) or (ii) above within two years following a Change in Control, all then outstanding options, restricted stock and other equity-based awards granted to such executive but which have not vested as of the date of termination, shall become fully vested and all options not yet exercisable shall become exercisable.

The Company is also a party to an employment agreement with Mr. Brown, which provides for his services as Vice President—Corporate and Regional Vice President—West Region. The agreement expires on April 11, 2010. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $150,000, and a grant to Mr. Brown of stock options to purchase an aggregate of 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock, which options vest as to 1/12th of the shares of common stock subject to the option in each month during his employment with the Company. The stock options expire on April 12, 2017.

For developing new business for the Company or for bringing to the Company new accounts, Mr. Brown will be entitled to receive additional compensation. The additional compensation will be based upon the net amounts received by the Company from each of the new accounts.

Additionally, after each of the first three twelve months of service Mr. Brown will receive, at the Company's option, either (i) restricted shares of the common stock of the Company or (ii) options to purchase common stock of the Company, in each case in an amount equal to two and three quarter percent (2.75%) of the net receipts from the new accounts. Compensation for developing new business for the Company or for bringing to the Company new accounts will continue for a full five (5) years, regardless of whether or not Mr. Brown has been terminated and regardless of the reason for termination.

Each of Messrs. Regenstein, Blake and Brown is eligible to participate in any employee benefit plan and fringe benefit programs, if any, as the Company may from time to time provide to its senior employees generally. The Company offers basic health, major medical, dental and travel insurance to its Named Executive Officers.

Termination Payments

If the Company terminates Mr. Regenstein's employment (other than for cause, death or disability) or Mr. Regenstein terminates his employment for good reason, the Company will pay to Mr. Regenstein an amount equal to one year's base salary, plus maintain in effect for one year all benefits and other perquisites received by Mr. Regenstein prior to termination. If termination had occurred on March 31, 2008 in accordance with the preceding sentence, Mr. Regenstein would have received an amount equal to approximately $315,000 ($275,000 for one year' base salary, $10,000 for continuing medical benefits and $30,000 for his car allowance).

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

This compensation discussion and analysis explains the material elements of the compensation awarded to, earned by, or paid to each of our named executive officers during the last completed fiscal year.

Overview

In the current stage of the Company's development, the objectives of its executive compensation policy have been to retain the executives who have been integral to its growth, to attract other talented and dedicated executives and to motivate each of its executives to increase overall profitability. To achieve these goals, the Company has strived to offer each executive an overall compensation package, which is simple, but competitive and a substantial portion of which is tied to the achievement of specific performance objectives.

The Company's overall strategy is to compensate its named executive officers with a mix of cash compensation, in the form of base salary and bonus, and equity compensation, in the form of stock options. The Company's goal is to set compensation levels to attract, retain, reward and motivate executive officers and employees, align compensation with business objectives and performance and with the interests of the shareholders, position compensation to reflect the individual's performance as well as the level of responsibility, skill and strategic value of the employee, recognize the evolving organizational structure of the Company and directly motivate executives to accomplish results as well as foster a company-wide team spirit.

Recently, the Company has retained a compensation consultant to prepare recommendations to the Compensation Committee for the adoption in fiscal 2009 of an Executive Incentive Program covering the Company's executive officers. The Company's policy for setting compensation levels has focused on compensating its named executive officers at levels competitive for executives at companies of similar size and development operating in the industry. Compensation decisions have been made by the Company's President in consultation with the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors, other than with respect to the President's compensation, which has been determined by the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors. In addition to frequent discussions between the President and the Board of Directors, the Company also gathers market compensation data through negotiations related to newly hired executives. The Company believes that the compensation levels for its named executive officers are competitive. The Company expects that as it continues to develop its compensation policies will evolve to reflect that growth and to remain competitive.

Executive Compensation

The Company's executive compensation policy includes the following elements:

Base Salary. The annual base salary for Barry I. Regenstein, the Company's President and Chief Financial Officer, for Martin C. Blake, Jr., the Company's Chief Operating Officer, for John C. Reed, Regional Vice President—New England Region, for William A. Vigna, Regional Vice President—Mid-Atlantic Region, and for Marc W. Brown, Vice President - Corporate and Regional Vice President - West Region, was reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors. Messrs. Regenstein and Brown were paid in accordance with an employment agreement between each of such executives and the Company. When determining their respective base salaries under their employment agreements, the Board considered, among other things, the level of responsibility, breadth of knowledge and prior experience as well as publicly available compensation information and informal survey information obtained with respect to other small-capitalization, publicly traded companies. No specific weight is given to any of these factors in the evaluation of an executive officer's base salary.

Bonuses. In fiscal 2008, the Compensation Committee did not establish bonus targets for the executive officers and five bonus payouts were made in fiscal 2008 to such executives.

Stock Options. In addition to salary and bonus, the Compensation Committee, from time to time, grants options to executive officers. The Compensation Committee views option grants as an important component of its long-term, performance-based compensation philosophy. Since the value of an option bears a direct relationship to the Company's stock price, the Compensation Committee believes that options motivate executive officers to manage the Company in a manner that will also benefit shareholders. As such, the specific number of stock options granted to an executive officer is determined on an individual basis by the Compensation Committee's perception of relative contributions or anticipated contributions to overall corporate performance. The Compensation Committee also reviews the total number of options already held by individual executive officers at the time of grant. In fiscal 2008, the Company did not grant options to purchase common shares to any named executive officer, except for Mr. Brown who was granted options to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to an employment agreement.

Retirement Plan. The Company does not provide a qualified or non-qualified pension plan for its named executive officers. All of its non-highly compensated employees, however, are eligible to participate in a defined contribution plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. The plan allows eligible employees to defer up to 15% of their compensation to the plan on a pre-tax basis, subject to the applicable dollar limit set by the Internal Revenue Service.

Perquisites and Other Benefits. As a general matter, the Company limits the use of perquisites in compensating its senior management.

Other Compensation. The employment agreements entered into with the Company's named executive officers will remain in their current form until such time as the Board of Directors determines, in its discretion, that revisions are appropriate. In addition, the Company intends to continue to maintain its current benefits and perquisites for the Company's named executive officers; however, the Board of Directors, in its discretion, may modify, amend or add to a named executive officer's executive benefits or perquisites if it deems it advisable.

Note Regarding Compensation Committee Composition. Laurence A. Levy, a member of our Board and Chairman of our Compensation Committee, joined our Board and such committee on June 5, 2008, and did not participate in any discussions regarding executive compensation in respect of our fiscal year ended March 31, 2008.
