Item 1.01 Entry into a Definitive Agreement

On September 5, 2008, Radiant Logistics, Inc. (the “Company”, “we” or “us”) concurrently entered into and closed upon a Stock Purchase Agreement (the “Agreement”) pursuant to which we acquired all of the issued and outstanding stock of Adcom Express, Inc., a privately held Minnesota corporation. For financial accounting purposes, the transaction was deemed to be effective as of September 1, 2008. The stock was acquired from Robert F. Friedman, the sole shareholder of Adcom. The stock was acquired in an arm’s-length transaction with no material relationship existing between us or any of our executive officers or directors on the one hand, and the selling stockholder on the other, prior to the transaction. The total value of the transaction was $11,050,000, consisting of: (i) $4,750,000.00 in cash paid at the closing; (ii) $250,000 in cash payable shortly after the closing, subject to adjustment, based upon the working capital of Adcom as of August 31, 2008; (iii) up to $2,800,000 in four “Tier-1 Earn-Out Payments” of up to $700,000 each, covering the four year earn-out period through 2012, based upon Adcom achieving certain levels of “Gross Profit Contribution” (as defined in the Agreement), payable 50% in cash and 50% in shares of our common stock (valued at delivery date); (iv) a “Tier-2 Earn-Out Payment” of up to a maximum of $2,000,000, equal to 20% of the amount by which the Adcom cumulative Gross Profit Contribution exceeds $16,580,000 during the four year earn-out period; and (v) an “Integration Payment” of $1,250,000 payable on the earlier of the date certain integration targets are achieved or 18 months after the closing, payable 50% in cash and 50% in our shares of our common stock (valued at delivery date). The Integration Payment, the Tier-1 Earn-Out Payments and certain amounts of the Tier-2 Payments may be subject to acceleration upon occurrence of a “Corporate Transaction” (as defined in the Agreement), which includes a future sale of Adcom or Radiant, or certain changes in corporate control. The cash component of the transaction was financed through a combination of our existing funds and the proceeds from a revolving credit facility provided by Bank of America, N.A.

Edina, Minnesota

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Adcom Express and Subsidiaries as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholder's equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Adcom Express and Subsidiaries as of September 30, 2007 and 2006, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

ADCOM EXPRESS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTE 1 - Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

---

Nature of Operations

Adcom Express, Inc. (“Adcom”) was incorporated in Minnesota in September 1978. Adcom performs various services for thirty Adcom Express stations located in major U.S. cities. Adcom Express is the service mark owned by Adcom Express, Inc. and its use has been granted to stations which provide freight forwarding services. The services provided by Adcom consist of education/training, marketing assistance, significant carrier relationships, logistical support, billing and collection of customer accounts receivable, technology and system management, central processing services, and full service accounting services.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Adcom Express, Inc., BFW Logistics, Inc., FNA Corporation, Adcom Express of Colorado, Inc., TR & MM, Inc., Adcom Worldwide (Canada) ULC (together, the “Company”) and is in compliance with FIN No. 46 - Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (VIE), an Interpretation of ARB No. 51, issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) in January 2003. The interpretation requires variable interest entities to be consolidated by their primary beneficiary when certain circumstances exist. The primary beneficiary is the entity that holds the majority of the beneficial interests in the variable interest entity. A VIE is a legal entity used for business purposes that either does not have equity investors with voting rights or has equity investors that do not provide sufficient financial resources for the entity to support its activities. At September 30, 2007 and 2006 Adcom Express, Inc. was the primary beneficiary of BFW Logistics, Inc., FNA Corporation, Adcom Express of Colorado, Inc., TR & MM, Inc., and Adcom Worldwide (Canada) ULC, requiring consolidation of the companies. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Cash

The Company maintains its cash in high quality financial institutions. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits.

Revenue Recognition and Accounts Receivable

The Company records revenue and the related account receivable when a station originates a shipment for a customer. At the same time, it records the cost of revenue and the related account payable (to carriers, couriers, and stations participating in the shipment). The Company charges unpaid customer receivables back to the originating station if the account is unpaid after 90 days. After a period of 18 months for land transportation vendors and six years for air transportation vendors, the Company writes off accounts payable to other revenue in the event an estimated invoice for the recorded account payable has not been received from the vendor prior to the respective expiration period.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements.

ADCOM EXPRESS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount billed to customers. The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts, which is based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection information and existing economic conditions. The allowance is provided for accounts with a significant pattern of uncollectibility based on historical experience and management's evaluation of accounts receivable. The Company writes-off accounts receivable when they become uncollectible, and payments subsequently received on such receivables are credited to the allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company does not accrue interest on past due receivables. The allowance for doubtful accounts at September 30, 2007 and 2006 was $150,000 and $60,000, respectively.

Available-for-sale securities

Securities held as available-for-sale are stated at market value. Adjustments to market value are recorded as a separate component of equity. Realized gains and losses upon disposition are determined using the specific identification method. Market value approximates cost at both September 30, 2007 and 2006.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Improvements are capitalized while repair and maintenance costs are charged to operations when incurred. Furniture, fixtures and equipment are depreciated using straight-line methods over their estimated useful lives of five to seven years. Leasehold improvements are amortized using the straight-line method over the shorter of their estimated lives or the lease term.

Intangibles

Customer lists are being amortized using the straight-line method over 15 years.

Income taxes

The Company and its subsidiaries file separate federal and state tax returns.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are charged to expense as incurred. Advertising expense was $10,467 and $17,588 for the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Management's Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements.

ADCOM EXPRESS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIESRecently Issued Accounting Standards*

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation (FIN) No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109. FIN 48 prescribes a comprehensive model for recognizing, measuring, presenting and disclosing in the financial statements tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return, including a decision whether to file or not to file in a particular jurisdiction. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2007. If there are changes in net assets as a result of application of FIN 48, these will be accounted for as an adjustment to retained earnings. The Company is currently assessing the impact of FIN 48 on its financial position and results of operations.

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 157, Fair Value Measurements. SFAS No. 157 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to U.S. GAAP guidance requiring use of fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently assessing the impact of SFAS No. 157 on its financial position and results of operations.

NOTE 1 - Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited financial statements of Adcom Express, Inc. and Subsidiaries (the Company) have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all normal, recurring adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007. Interim results of operations are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year or any other interim periods.

Nature of Operations

Adcom Express, Inc. ("Adcom") was incorporated in Minnesota in September 1978. Adcom performs various services for thirty Adcom Express stations located in major U.S. cities. Adcom Express is the service mark owned by Adcom Express, Inc. and its use has been granted to stations which provide freight forwarding services. The services provided by Adcom consist of education/training, marketing assistance, significant carrier relationships, logistical support, billing and collection of customer accounts receivable, technology and system management, central processing services, and full service accounting services.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Adcom Express, Inc., BFW Logistics, Inc., FNA Corporation, Adcom Express of Colorado, Inc., TR & MM, Inc., Adcom Worldwide (Canada) ULC (together, the "Company") and is in compliance with FIN No. 46 - Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (VIE), an Interpretation of ARB No. 51, issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) in January 2003. The interpretation requires variable interest entities to be consolidated by their primary beneficiary when certain circumstances exist. The primary beneficiary is the entity that holds the majority of the beneficial interests in the variable interest entity. A VIE is a legal entity used for business purposes that either does not have equity investors with voting rights or has equity investors that do not provide sufficient financial resources for the entity to support its activities. At June 30, 2008 and September 30, June 30, 2008 and 2007 Adcom Express, Inc. was the primary beneficiary of BFW Logistics, Inc., FNA Corporation, Adcom Express of Colorado, Inc., TR & MM, Inc., and Adcom Worldwide (Canada) ULC, requiring consolidation of the companies. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Revenue Recognition and Accounts Receivable

The Company records revenue and the related account receivable when a station originates a shipment for a customer. At the same time, it records the cost of revenue and the related account payable (to carriers, couriers, and stations participating in the shipment). The Company charges unpaid customer receivables back to the originating station if the account is unpaid after 90 days. After a period of 18 months for land transportation vendors and six years for air transportation vendors, the Company writes off accounts payable to other revenue in the event an estimated invoice for the recorded account payable has not been received from the vendor prior to the respective expiration period.

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount billed to customers. The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts, which is based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection information and existing economic conditions. The allowance is provided for accounts with a significant pattern of uncollectibility based on historical experience and management's evaluation of accounts receivable. The Company writes-off accounts receivable when they become uncollectible, and payments subsequently received on such receivables are credited to the allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company does not accrue interest on past due receivables. The allowance for doubtful accounts at both June 30, 2008 and September 30, 2007 was $150,000.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost. Improvements are capitalized while repair and maintenance costs are charged to operations when incurred. Furniture, fixtures and equipment are depreciated using straight-line methods over their estimated useful lives of five to seven years. Leasehold improvements are amortized using the straight-line method over the shorter of their estimated lives or the lease term.

Intangibles

Customer lists are being amortized using the straight-line method over 15 years.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are charged to expense as incurred. Advertising expense was $10,336 and $10,467 for the nine months ended June 30, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Management's Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation (FIN) No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109. FIN 48 prescribes a comprehensive model for recognizing, measuring, presenting and disclosing in the financial statements tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return, including a decision whether to file or not to file in a particular jurisdiction. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2007. If there are changes in net assets as a result of application of FIN 48, these will be accounted for as an adjustment to retained earnings. The Company is currently assessing the impact of FIN 48 on its financial position and results of operations.

During September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 157, “Fair Value Measurements” (“SFAS 157”). This statement defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value under generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, however, during December 2007, the FASB proposed FASB Staff Position SFAS 157-2 deferred the effective date of certain provisions of SFAS 157 until fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008. The Company does not believe that the adoption of SFAS 157 will have a material effect on its results of operations or financial position.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, “The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities-Including an Amendment of FASB Statement No 115.” SFAS No. 159 permits an entity to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. Most of the provisions of SFAS No. 159 are elective; however, the amendment of SFAS No. 115, “Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities,” applies to all entities with available-for-sale or trading securities. For financial instruments elected to be accounted for at fair value, an entity will report the unrealized gains and losses in earnings. SFAS No. 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company does not believe that the adoption of SFAS No. 159 will have a material effect on its results of operations or financial position.

During December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141 (Revised 2007), “Business Combinations” (“SFAS 141 (Revised 2007)”). While this statement retains the fundamental requirement of SFAS 141 that the acquisition method of accounting (which SFAS 141 called the purchase method) be used for all business combinations, SFAS 141 (Revised 2007) now establishes the principles and requirements for how an acquirer in a business combination: recognizes and measures in its financial statements the identifiable assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, and any noncontrolling interests in the acquiree; recognizes and measures the goodwill acquired in the business combination or the gain from a bargain purchase; and determines what information should be disclosed in the financial statements to enable the users of the financial statements to evaluate the nature and financial effects of the business combination. SFAS 141R is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2008. The Company does not believe that the adoption of SFAS 141R will have a material effect on its results of operations or financial position.

During December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 160, “Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements, an Amendment of ARB No. 51” (“SFAS 160”). This statement establishes accounting and reporting standards for noncontrolling interests in subsidiaries and for the deconsolidation of subsidiaries and clarifies that a noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary is an ownership interest in the consolidated entity that should be reported as equity in the consolidated financial statements. This statement also requires expanded disclosures that clearly identify and distinguish between the interests of the parent owners and the interests of the noncontrolling owners of a subsidiary. SFAS 160 is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2008. The Company does not believe that the adoption of SFAS 160 will have a material effect on its results of operations or financial position.

During March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 161, “Disclosures about Derivatives Instruments and Hedging Activities, an Amendment of FASB Statement No. 133” (“SFAS 161”). This Statement changes the disclosure requirements for derivative instruments and hedging activities. Entities are required to provide enhanced disclosures about (a) how and why an entity uses derivative instruments, (b) how derivative instruments and related hedged items are accounted for under Statement 133 and its related interpretations, and (c) how derivative instruments and related hedged items affect an entity’s financial position, financial performance, and cash flows. The Company does not believe that the adoption of SFAS 161 will have a material effect on its results of operations or financial position.

In May 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 163, “Accounting for Financial Guarantee Insurance Contracts – An interpretation of FASB Statement No. 60”. SFAS 163 requires that an insurance enterprise recognize a claim liability prior to an event of default when there is evidence that credit deterioration has occurred in an insured financial obligation. It also clarifies how Statement 60 applies to financial guarantee insurance contracts, including the recognition and measurement to be used to account for premium revenue and claim liabilities, and requires expanded disclosures about financial guarantee insurance contracts. It is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, except for some disclosures about the insurance enterprise’s risk-management activities. SFAS 163 requires that disclosures about the risk-management activities of the insurance enterprise be effective for the first period beginning after issuance. Except for those disclosures, earlier application is not permitted. The Company does not believe that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company’s financial statements.
