ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On February 17, 2009, the Company entered into subscription agreement (the “Subscription Agreements”) with accredited investors (“investors”). Pursuant to the Subscription Agreements, the Company sold $140,000 of the Company’s 7% Convertible Debentures, 3-year warrants to purchase a number of shares equal to 50% of the number of shares issuable upon conversion of the debenture of the Company’s common stock at an exercise price of $0.21 (the “$0.21 Warrants”), and three-year warrants to purchase a number of shares equal to 50% of the number of shares issuable upon conversion of the debenture shares of the Company’s common stock at an exercise price of $0.315 (the “$0.315 Warrants”, and collectively with the = $0.21 Warrants, the “Warrants”).

The Debentures are convertible into shares of the Company’s common stock at $.105 per share pursuant to the following:

if after 90 days from the date hereof the market price of the Company’s common shares during the 90 day period has not closed at a bid price at or above $.12 per share for 3 or more consecutive trading days. In such instance then the Investors’ price per share shall be equal to the average closing bid price for the last 30 trading days immediately prior to the 90th day after the date of this addendum. Should the price of the common shares be $.105 or higher on the 90th day after the date of this addendum, then the purchase price per share shall remain at $.105 per share. Should the Market Price of the shares be $.105 or higher on the 90th day after the date of this addendum, but less than $.125, then the Investor shall be entitled to an amount of additional shares equal to 10% of the number of shares to which the Investor is otherwise entitled.

In connection with the issuance of the debentures and warrants pursuant to the Subscription Agreements, the Company relied upon the exemption from securities registration afforded by Regulation D as promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and/or Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. No advertising or general solicitation was employed in offering the securities. The offerings and sales were made to a limited number of persons, all of whom were accredited investors, and transfer of the securities was restricted in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act.
