Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On December 5, 2011, Recon Technology, Ltd (the “Company”) received from the Nasdaq OMX Group (“Nasdaq”) a letter (the “Nasdaq Letter”) indicating that it is not in compliance with the minimum $1.00 per share minimum bid price requirement for continued inclusion on the Nasdaq Capital Market set forth in Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5450(a)(1), as a result of the bid price of the Company’s ordinary shares having closed below $1.00 for the last 30 consecutive business days prior to the date of the letter.

Nasdaq’s letter advises the Company that, in accordance with Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company will be provided 180 calendar days, or until June 4, 2012, to regain compliance. The letter further advises that such compliance can be achieved if, at any time before June 4, 2012, the bid price of the Company’s ordinary shares closes at $1.00 or more per share for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days. There can be no guarantee that the Company will be able to regain compliance with the continued listing requirement of Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5450(a)(1).

If the Company does not regain compliance by June 4, 2012, Nasdaq will provide written notification to the Company that its ordinary shares may be delisted. At that time, the Company may appeal Nasdaq’s decision to a Listing Qualifications Panel.

The Company intends to actively monitor the bid price for its ordinary shares between now and June 4, 2012, and will consider available options to resolve the deficiency and regain compliance with the Nasdaq minimum bid price requirement.

ITEM 4.02 NON-RELIANCE ON PREVIOUSLY ISSUED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OR A RELATED AUDIT REPORT OR COMPLETED INTERIM REVIEW.

On December 6, 2011, the Audit Committee of the Registrant, which is authorized to take such action, concluded that the unaudited consolidated financial statements included in the Registrant’s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q as of and for the three and six months ended December 31, 2010 and as of and for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2011 (the “Original Filings”), should no longer be relied upon. They consolidate in the Registrant’s financial statements the operating results of an entity that should not have been consolidated during such periods. In particular, the Registrant’s Audit Committee concluded that, in light of a December 16, 2010 change in the equity ownership of ENI Energy Technology Co., Ltd., a PRC company (“ENI”), the Registrant ceased to have the power to direct the activities of ENI which most significantly impact its economic performance as of the date of transfer. As a result, ENI ceased to be a variable interest entity of the Registrant at that time, and its financial results should not have been consolidated with those of the Registrant beginning December 16, 2010.

Management and the Registrant’s Board of Directors brought this matter to the attention of and discussed this matter with the Registrant’s independent registered public accounting firm.

The Registrant filed is currently working with the Registrant’s independent registered public accounting firm to amend the Original Filings to address the matters described above. The impact of the foregoing matters on the restatement of the Registrant’s financial statements is not known at this time.
