Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 27, 2012, Nancy Stephenson tendered a letter of resignation to the board of directors (the “Board”) of Cross Border Resources, Inc. (the “Company”), pursuant to which she resigned as the Chief Accounting Officer, Treasurer and Secretary of the Company, effective July 31, 2012.

On August 2, 2012, the Board appointed Kenneth S. Lamb to replace Ms. Stephenson as the Chief Accounting Officer, Treasurer and Secretary of the Company. Mr. Lamb, who is 36 years old, has significant experience in corporate accounting, financial reporting, and corporate governance. From December 2008 until May 2011, he was employed by Transatlantic Petroleum, Ltd., an international oil and gas company engaged in the acquisition, exploration, development, and production of crude oil and natural gas, serving as its Director of Internal Audit from December 2008 to July 2010 and its Manager of Financial Reporting and Internal Controls from August 2010 to May 2011. Since leaving Transatlantic Petroleum, he has served as a consultant on accounting matters and special projects for a variety of companies, including Red Mountain Resources, Inc., the Company’s largest stockholder. From July 2007 until November 2008, Mr. Lamb was employed with the Brink’s Company, a company providing security-related services for banks, retailers and other commercial and governmental customers, as Internal Audit Supervisor where he managed financial audits in numerous different countries. Mr. Lamb began his career with PricewaterhouseCoopers in 2000 and worked for KPMG from 2005 to 2006. He received a B.B.A. in Accounting and a B.A. in History from Sam Houston State University and is a licensed Certified Public Accountant.

Mr. Lamb will be an at will employee of the Company and will receive a salary of $10,000 per month. Mr. Lamb will also be entitled to such medical, dental, life, disability and other benefits as are generally afforded to other executives of the Company.

Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

The Company held its annual meeting of stockholders on July 31, 2012. At the annual meeting, the stockholders of the Company voted on the following matters: (1) the election of five directors to serve for the ensuing year and until their successors are elected and qualified; (2) a proposal to allow all holders of the Company’s outstanding common stock warrants to exercise the full amount of such warrants regardless of the beneficial ownership of the Company’s common stock owned by such holders; (3) a proposal to approve an amendment to the Company’s articles of incorporation increasing the number of shares of common stock the Company is authorized to issue to 99,000,000 shares; and (4) a proposal to approve an amendment to the Company’s articles of incorporation authorizing the Company to issue up to 1,000,000 shares of “blank check” preferred stock. The results of the vote were as follows:

1. The stockholders elected Messrs. Alan W. Barksdale, Richard F. LaRoche, Jr., John W. Hawkins, Paul N. Vassilakos and Randell K. Ford as directors, who together constitute the entire board of directors. The following is a tabulation of votes cast for and withheld from each director, as well as the number of broker non-votes:
