China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited (the “Company”), a joint stock company limited by shares, was incorporated in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) on 14 April 1995. The address of the Company’s registered office is 66 Airport Street, Pudong International Airport, Shanghai, the PRC. The Company and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) are principally engaged in the operation of civil aviation, including the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery, tour operations and other extended transportation services.

The Company is majority owned by China Eastern Air Holding Company (“CEA Holding”), a state-owned enterprise incorporated in the PRC.

The Company’s shares are traded on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and The New York Stock Exchange.

This condensed consolidated interim financial information was approved for issue by the Company’s Board on 29 August 2014.

This condensed consolidated interim financial information has not been audited.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

This unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information for the six months ended 30 June 2014 has been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard (“IAS”) 34 “Interim Financial Reporting”. The unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information should be read in conjunction with the annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2013, which have been prepared in accordance with IFRS as issued by the International Accounting Standard Board (“IASB”).

As at 30 June 2014, the Group's accumulated losses were approximately RMB2.58 billion and its current liabilities exceeded its current assets by approximately RMB39.13 billion. In preparing the interim financial information, the Board conducts adequate and detailed review over the Group's going concern ability based on the current financial situation.

The Board has taken active actions to deal with the situation that current liabilities exceeded its current assets, and the Board is confident that they have obtained adequate credit facility from the banks to support the floating capital. As at 30 June 2014, the Group had total unutilised credit facilities of approximately RMB53.50 billion from banks.

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd)

Based on the bank facility obtained by the Group, the past record of the financing and the good working relationship with major banks and financial institutions, the Board considers that the Group will be able to obtain sufficient financing to enable it to operate, as well as to meet its liabilities as and when they become due, and the capital expenditure requirements for the upcoming twelve months. Accordingly, the Board believes that it is appropriate to prepare these financial statements on a going concern basis without including any adjustments that would be required should the Company and the Group fail to continue as a going concern.

3. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the condensed consolidated interim financial information are consistent with those followed in the preparation of the Group's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2013, except for the adoption of new standards and interpretations effective as of 1 January 2014. However, they do not materially impact the annual consolidated financial statements of the Group or the interim condensed consolidated financial statements of the Group.

The nature and the impact of each new standard/amendment are described below:

Amendments to IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation – Offsetting Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities

IAS 32 Amendments clarify the meaning of “currently has a legally enforceable right to set-off” for offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities. The amendments also clarify the application of the offsetting criteria in IAS 32 to settlement systems (such as central clearing house systems) which apply gross settlement mechanisms that are not simultaneous. The amendments do not have any material impact on the Group.

Amendments to IAS 36 Impairment of Assets

Amendments to IAS 36 Impairment of Assets modifies the disclosure of information relating to the recoverable amount of impaired assets, particularly if that amount is based on fair value less costs of disposal. The amendments do not have any material impact on the Group's financial statements.

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information

3.ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

Amendments to IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and measurement – Novation of Derivatives and Continuation of Hedge Accounting

The IAS 39 amendments provide an exception to the requirement of discontinuing hedge accounting in situations where over-the-counter derivatives designated in hedging relationships are directly or indirectly, novated to a central counterparty as a consequence of laws or regulations, or the introduction of laws or regulations. For continuance of hedge accounting under this exception, all of the following criteria must be met: (i) the novations must arise as a consequence of laws or regulations, or the introduction of laws or regulations; (ii) the parties to the hedging instrument agree that one or more clearing counterparties replace their original counterparty to become the new counterparty to each of the parties; and (iii) the novations do not result in changes to the terms of the original derivative other than changes directly attributable to the change in counterparty to achieve clearing. The amendments do not have any material impact on the Group.

Amendments to IFRS 10, IFRS 12 and IAS 27: Investment Entities

Amendments to IFRS 10 include a definition of an investment entity and provide an exception to the consolidation requirement for entities that meet the definition of an investment entity. Investment entities are required to account for subsidiaries at fair value through profit or loss in accordance with IFRS 9 rather than consolidate them. Consequential amendments were made to IFRS 12 and IAS 27 (2011). The amendments to IFRS 12 also set out the disclosure requirements for investment entities. The amendments do not have any material impact on the Group.

IFRIC 21 Levies

IFRIC 21 clarifies that an entity recognises a liability for a levy when the activity that triggers payment, as identified by the relevant legislation, occurs. The interpretation also clarifies that a levy liability is accrued progressively only if the activity that triggers payment occurs over a period of time, in accordance with the relevant legislation. For a levy that is triggered upon reaching a minimum threshold, the interpretation clarifies that no liability should be recognised before the specified minimum threshold is reached. The interpretation does not have any material impact on the Group.

The Group has not early adopted any other standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information

4. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

(a) Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including currency risk, fair value interest rate risk, cash flow interest rate risk and fuel price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

The interim condensed consolidated financial information do not include all financial risk management information and disclosures required in the annual financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the Group's annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2013.

There have been no changes in the risk management department since year end or in any risk management policies.

(b) Liquidity risk

The Group's primary cash requirements have been for day-to-day operations, additions of and upgrades to aircraft, engines and flight equipment and repayments of related borrowings. The Group finances its working capital requirements through a combination of funds generated from operations and bank loans (both short-term and long-term). The Group generally finances the acquisition of aircraft through long-term finance leases or bank loans.

The Group operates with a working capital deficit. As at 30 June 2014, the Group's net current liabilities amounted to RMB39,126 million (2013: RMB40,472 million). For the six months ended 30 June 2014, the Group recorded a net cash inflow from operating activities of RMB5,262 million (2013: inflow of RMB3,780 million), a net cash outflow from investing activities and financing activities of RMB4,136 million (2013: outflow of RMB2,612 million), and an increase in cash and cash equivalents of RMB1,157 million (2013: increase of RMB1,161 million).

The Directors of the Company believe that cash from operations and bank loans will be sufficient to meet the Group's operating cash flow. Due to the dynamic nature of the underlying businesses, the Group's treasury policy aims at maintaining flexibility in funding by keeping credit lines available. The Directors of the Company believe that the Group has obtained sufficient general credit facilities from PRC banks for financing future capital commitments and for working capital purposes.

(c) Fair value measurement

The carrying amounts and fair values of the Group's financial instruments, other than those with carrying amounts that reasonably approximate to fair values, were as follows:

	30 June 2014
	Carrying amounts	Fair values
	RMB million	RMB million
	(Unaudited)	(Unaudited)
Financial assets
Deposits relating to aircraft held under operating leases included in other long term assets	568	500
Financial liabilities
Long-term bank borrowings	28,592	28,650
Obligations under finance leases	28,308	29,509
Total	56,900	58,159

The Group enters into derivative financial instruments with various counterparties, principally financial institutions with high credit ratings. Derivative financial instruments, including forward currency contracts and interest rate swaps, are measured using valuation techniques similar to forward pricing and swap models, using present value calculations. The models incorporate various market observable inputs including the foreign exchange spot and forward rates and interest rate curves. As at 30 June 2014, the marked to market value of the derivative asset position is net of a credit valuation adjustment attributable to derivative counterparty default risk. The changes in counterparty credit risk had no material effect on the hedge effectiveness assessment for derivatives designated in hedge relationship and other financial instruments recognised at fair value.

6. SEGMENT INFORMATION

(a) CODM, office of the General Manager, reviews the Group’s internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources.

The Group has one reportable operating segment, reported as “air transport operations”, which comprises the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery, ground service and cargo handling income.

Other services including primarily tour operations, air catering and other miscellaneous services are not included within the air transport operations segment, as their internal reports are separately provided to the CODM. The results of these operations are included in the “other segments” column.

Inter-segment transactions are entered into under normal commercial terms and conditions that would be available to unrelated third parties.

6. SEGMENT INFORMATION (cont'd)(a) (cont'd)

In accordance with IFRS 8, segment disclosure has been presented in a manner that is consistent with the information used by the Group's CODM. The Group's CODM monitors the results, assets and liabilities attributable to each reportable segment based on financial results prepared under the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises (the "PRC Accounting Standards"), which differ from IFRS in certain aspects. The amount of each material reconciling items from the Group's reportable segment revenue and profit or loss, arising from different accounting policies are set out in Note 6(c) below.

The segment results for the six months ended 30 June 2014 are as follows:

* Unallocated assets primarily represent investments in associates and joint ventures, and available-for-sale financial assets. Unallocated results primarily represent the share of results of associates and joint ventures.

(b) The Group's business segments operate in three main geographical areas, even though they are managed on a worldwide basis.

The Group's revenues by geographical areas are analysed based on the following criteria:

1) Traffic revenue from services within the PRC (excluding the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“Hong Kong”), Macau Special Administrative Region (“Macau”) and Taiwan, (collectively known as “Regional”)) is classified as domestic operations. Traffic revenue from inbound and outbound services between overseas markets excluding Regional is classified as international operations.

6. SEGMENT INFORMATION (cont'd)(b) (cont'd)

2) Revenue from ticket handling services, ground services, cargo handling service and other miscellaneous services are classified on the basis of where the services are performed.

	(Unaudited)
	Six months ended 30 June
	2014	2013
	RMB million	RMB million
Domestic (the PRC, excluding Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan)	28,673	27,831
International	12,514	11,864
Regional (Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan)	1,907	1,929
Total	43,094	41,624

The major revenue-earning assets of the Group are its aircraft, all of which are registered in the PRC. Since the Group's aircraft are deployed flexibly across its route network, there is no suitable basis of allocating such assets and the related liabilities by geographic areas and hence segment non-current assets and capital expenditure by geographic areas are not presented. Except the aircraft, most non-current assets (except financial instruments) are registered in the PRC.

6. SEGMENT INFORMATION (cont'd)

Notes:

(i) The difference represents the different classification of business tax and expired sales in advance of carriage under PRC Accounting Standards and IFRS.

The difference is attributable to the differences in the useful lives and residual values of aircraft and engines adopted for depreciation purpose in prior periods under PRC Accounting Standards and IFRS. Despite the (ii) depreciation policies of these assets have been unified under IFRS and the PRC Accounting Standards in recent years, the changes were applied prospectively as changes in accounting estimates which result in the differences in the carrying amounts and related depreciation charges under IFRS and PRC Accounting Standards.

The difference represents the different measurement of the fair value of acquisition cost of the shares from (iii) Shanghai Airlines between PRC Accounting standards and IFRS, which results in the different measurement of goodwill.

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. After initial recognition, the Group chooses the cost model to measure all of its investment properties.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The estimated useful lives and residual values used for this purpose are as follows:

	Estimated useful life	Residual value	Depreciation rate
Buildings	30 to 45 years	3	% 2.16% to 3.23%

The carrying amounts of investment properties measured at the cost method are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable.

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Review of Operations

In the first half of 2014, the global economy continued to show signs of a moderate recovery, while the PRC economy maintained decelerating growth. The global passenger aviation market continued to grow. Moreover, the freight market recovered slowly and the competition of domestic aviation transport has become even more intensive. Facing such a complicated operating environment, the Group, under the premise of ensuring safe operation, strengthened its marketing efforts on passenger and freight transportation, enhanced external cooperation, improved service quality, fostered strategic transformation and intensified cost control. In the first half of 2014, the Group recorded operating revenue of RMB44,936 million, representing an increase of 6.28% from the same period last year. Net profit attributable to the parent company was RMB12 million.

In the first half of 2014, factors such as geo-political instability, reduction in demand of high end business travelers and formation of high-speed railway network had a relatively significant impact on the domestic passenger transportation market. The Group adjusted its flight capacity in a timely manner and refined its flight price and cabin management, aiming to secure the stable growth of its passenger transport operation. For the mainland China, the Group further increased its investment in flight capacity in core and key markets to increase its competitiveness in its domestic routes; for the Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan regions, the Shanghai – Hong Kong route was refined through the optimisation of its fleet model and increased flight schedule frequency to strengthen its influence in the regional market; for the international market, the Group reduced its flight capacity for Southeast Asia in a timely manner and increased the flight capacity for routes of Japan, Korea and North America by seizing the opportunities of rebound of passenger traffic for Japan routes, as well as the rapid growth in the number of outbound travelers. In the first half of 2014, the Group had ASK of 76,931.77 million passenger – kilometres, representing an increase of 5.46% from the same period last year. RPK was 61,499.79 million passenger – kilometres, representing an increase of 6.30% from the same period last year. Passenger load factor was 79.94%, representing an increase of 0.63 percentage point from the same period last year. Passenger revenue amounted to RMB35,965 million, representing an increase of 3.75% from the same period last year.

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

With the recovery of the global international trade, global aviation freight transportation industry rebounded in the first half of 2014, but the freight transportation industry became more competitive. The Group adapted to changes to market demand by further utilizing bellyhold cargo space of passenger aircraft, adjusting the number of freighters and optimising its route network, while proactively fostering its business transformation and developing value-added services such as logistics integration and express delivery. In the first half of 2014, the Group had AFTK of 3,967.72 million tonne – kilometres, representing an increase of 3.38% from the same period last year. RFTK was 2,294.35 million tonne – kilometres, representing a decrease of 0.16% from the same period last year. Freight load factor was 57.83%, representing a decrease of 2.04 percentage points from the same period last year. Freight traffic revenue was RMB3,616 million, representing an increase of 2.41% from the same period last year.

Operations

Safe Operations

The Group places great emphasis on safe operation. In the first half of 2014, the Group has continuously strengthened its foundation for safe operations through the implementation of safety responsibility system. Thorough safety checks were also conducted to identify safety hazards in its operations, while safety awareness among operating personnel was also raised. The Group also strengthened specific research on safety problems and expanded its safety management directions to enhance its safety management level. In the first half of 2014, the Group had 780,700 hours flown, which was an increase of 5.18% from the same period last year.

Fleet Structure

In the first half of 2014, the Group introduced 23 new aircraft, including A330 series for long-and-medium haul routes, A320 series for medium-and-short haul routes and B737 series aircraft. It surrendered 17 aircraft, 15 of which were passenger aircraft of A320 series, A300–600R, B737 series, B757 and CRJ-200, and two of which were A300–600F and B747–400F freighters.

As at 30 June 2014, the Group operated a fleet of 485 aircraft, which included 459 passenger aircraft, 12 freighters and 14 business aircraft held in custody. The Group believes its fleet structure has become more streamlined and in line with its operating needs.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Passenger Transportation Marketing

By continuously optimising its route network and proactively adjusting its flight schedules in accordance with the market factors and seasonal changes, the Group further reinforced its market shares in core and key markets, while increasing its flight capacity in highland area markets as well as North America, Japan and Korea. The Group continues to enhance its control on sales and implemented centralised controls on transportation prices to stabilise revenues. With the proactive establishment of an e-commerce platform and development of mobile opportunity, the Group has expanded its sales channels and improved its direct sales ability. In the first half of 2014, the proportion of revenue from direct sales increased by 4.4% from the same period last year. In the meantime, through developing its corporate customers and frequent travelers sources, the Group continued to optimise its customer structure and strengthen customer relationships. As at 30 June 2014, the total number of the corporate customers amounted to 4,520, while the total number of frequent traveler members reached 22.13 million.

In the first half of 2014, based on the number of take-off and landing aircraft, the market share of the Group at Shanghai Hongqiao Airport, Shanghai Pudong Airport, Kunming Airport and Xi'an Airport were 49.00%, 37.60%, 42.50% and 30.30%, respectively; based on the number of passengers transported, the market share of the Group in Shanghai Hongqiao Airport, Shanghai Pudong Airport, Kunming Airport and Xi'an Airport were 47.80%, 35.30%, 39.00% and 30.30%, respectively. The Group maintained a relatively strong market influence in its core markets such as Shanghai, Kunming and Xi'an, etc.. The difference of the two statistical data in respect of the market share was mainly due to the aircraft structure and passenger load factor etc..

Alliance and Cooperation

By proactively utilising the SkyTeam Alliance platform and cooperation with SkyTeam Alliance member airlines, the Group was able to expand its route network to 1,052 destinations in 177 countries around the world. The Group has also commenced code-sharing operations with 12 SkyTeam Alliance member airlines, covering 355 destinations serviced by 692 routes. In addition, the Group sustainably increased its participation in SkyTeam Alliance matters and actively promoted products of the SkyTeam Alliance in the PRC, which further enhanced the market influence of the Group and the SkyTeam Alliance. Meanwhile, the Group continued to innovate through external cooperation and development by conducting a more extensive and thorough business cooperation with certain SkyTeam Alliance members.

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

At the same time, the Group also sustainably developed the cooperation with non-SkyTeam Alliance member airlines, and implemented the code-sharing cooperation etc. with several non-SkyTeam member airlines.

Freight Transportation Operation

The Group flexibly adjusted the transportation price and refined its cabin management to raise its revenue level. The Group reduced the flight capacity in freight flights via termination of leasing. Focusing on major routes in Europe and America, the Group has stabilised its market share in North America. The Group has leveraged on the opportunity arising from Zhengzhou's development into a freight transportation hub, and will strive to establish Zhengzhou Airport as a hub for aviation freight of the Group in central China. To continue developing its customer resources and make active market expansion, the Group focused on upgrading its customer experience to develop and promote differentiated services and products, so as to increase freight transportation revenue.

Transformation and Development

The Group made strenuous effort in pushing forward its transformation from a traditional air passenger and freight carrier to a modern integrated aviation services and logistics services provider.

For the passenger transportation, the Group continued to build up its e-commerce platform and put emphasis on the development of mobile applications. In the first half of 2014, the number of newly registered members of the Group's mobile application grew by over 560% from the same period last year, and the number of visitors of "mobile E" also increased by over 130% from the same period last year. In July 2014, the Group completed the trial aviation of the first WIFI-equipped passenger commercial flight in the Mainland China, which provided travelers with in-flight internet browsing capability. Meanwhile, the Group continued to foster the establishment of sky mall by enriching the varieties of commodities offered, and has commenced cabin payment capabilities. In line with the global trend of rapid development in low-cost airlines, China United Airlines, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, has announced its transformation into a low-cost airline company in July 2014.

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

For freight transportation, Eastern Logistics, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, has focused on exploring integrated logistics commercial customer resources and signed strategic cooperation agreements with 48 customers. For express delivery business, Eastern Logistics has achieved new progress for its “Freight Expressway + E-commerce + Trading” project, and took the initiative to establish the Shanghai Cross-border E-commerce Association with itself being elected as the chairman unit of its first session, which has in turn enhanced its influence in logistics e-commerce sector and in Shanghai area. After directly connecting to South America last year, the e-commerce platform (www.eaemail.com) commenced its procurement project in North America aiming to enhance its brand recognition.

Service Quality

Adhering to the philosophy of “Customer-Oriented and Dedicated Service”, the Group sustainably optimised its service processes, proactively fostered management development and placed efforts on optimising its service standards to enhance customer experience. In the first half of 2014, the Group played an active role in promoting the establishment of route information platform, which assists visitors with flight information and products offered. Through facilitation of “LingYan Crew Ten, Hundred and Thousand (” brand project and commencement of campaigns including model employee exchange workshops, the Group established a service model and enhanced air service quality. The Group also strengthened the service quality assessment and supervision, revised and optimised the “Service Manual” to strengthen its management and control on the service process. In the meantime, the Group has continuously upgraded its hardware products based on the needs of travelers through designing and selecting new cabin service facilities as well as enhancing on board entertainment programs. The Group also fostered the construction of VIP lounges in airports including Shanghai Pudong, Beijing and Chengdu. In-flight meal quality was also improved following the cooperation and exchange with renowned catering groups.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Information Technology

The Group focused on establishing an “Information-based Eastern Airlines”. It took a proactive approach towards information technology development to utilise the supportive and leading purposes of information technology. In the first half of 2014, domestic passengers using self-checkin services of the Group accounted for 32.23% of all passengers, while full coverage of online check-in and mobile check-in was also realised in 139 sites for domestic routes. With an aim to proactively develop the “Eastern Airline at Your Fingertips” project, upgrades and modifications of the mobile application of Eastern Airlines and website (m.ceair.com) were completed, while the tablet version of its website was also up and running. The Group continued promoting the development of information technology platform for various businesses including marketing, services, operation, flight affairs, management and logistics, which provided automatic system support for all business sectors and also increased the Group’s operational efficiency.

Cost Control

The Group has been proactively promoting the principle of “reducing cost while enhancing efficiency”. With continuous optimisation of its fleet and routes, fuel consumption was reduced and aircraft fuel costs were lowered. Strict engine maintenance budget management reduced aircraft engine maintenance costs. Strict control on staff recruitment and optimisation of retirement schemes improved salary cost management. The Group also diversified its financing channels and reduced its financial expenses and costs. In the first half of 2014, the Group issued RMB3.3 billion of offshore RMB denominated bonds and RMB4.0 billion of PRC super short-term commercial notes at relatively low cost.

Brand and Social Responsibilities

While pursuing sustainable enterprise development, the Group has adopted a social responsibility philosophy with respect to corporate decision making and operations, which seeks to unify corporate development and social responsibility.

The Group regards “Energy-Saving and Low-Carbon for Green Growth” as a major component of its social responsibilities. Most of the Group’s flights refuelled and flew according to its “low-carbon flying” program. The Group also lessened the environmental impact of its fleet by proactively removing from flights and surrendering leases of older aircraft and introducing new more fuel-efficient aircraft.

The Company was awarded the “Best Main Board Blue Chip Company” in 2013 by Sina Finance, and ranked among top 10 in terms of “Most Competitive Asia Airline 2014” and “Most Popular Asia Airline 2014” in the 5th World Airline Competitiveness Rankings.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Operating Expenses

The total operating costs of the Group for the first half of 2014 increased by 2.82% to RMB43,334 million from the same period last year. Aviation fuel consumption represents the most significant operating costs of the Group. In the first half of 2014, the Group's expenditures on aviation fuel was approximately 2.2603 million tonnes, representing an increase of 5.38%. Due to the year-on-year decrease of 5.29% in average fuel prices, the Group's expenditure on aviation fuel consumption amounted to RMB14,949 million, representing a decrease of 0.20% from the same period last year.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's take-off and landing charges were RMB4,579 million.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's depreciation and amortisation expenses were RMB4,449 million, representing an increase of 12.24% compared to the same period last year, which was primarily attributable to the introduction of new aircraft and engines by the Group, resulting in a greater base for depreciation.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's wages, salaries and benefits expenses were RMB6,885 million, representing an increase of 10.57% compared to the same period last year. This increase was mainly due to the increased employee head count and an increase in aircraft flying hours of the flight crew.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's aircraft maintenance expenses were RMB2,080 million, representing a decrease of 9.60% compared to the same period last year. This decrease was primarily attributable to a decrease in the number of aircraft under repair compared to the same period last year.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's food and beverages expenses were RMB1,148 million, representing an increase of 5.42% compared to the same period last year, which was primarily attributable to the increase in the number of passengers carried.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's aircraft operating lease rentals were RMB2,298 million, representing an increase of 6.93% compared to the same period last year. This increase was primarily attributable to the increased number of aircraft under operating leases.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's other operating lease rentals amounted to RMB231 million, representing a decrease of 19.79% compared to the same period last year. This decrease was primarily attributable to the termination of certain property leases that were not renewed upon expiration.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

In the first half of 2014, the Group's sales and marketing expenses were RMB2,044 million, representing an increase of 9.13% compared to the same period last year. This increase was primarily attributable to increased volume of ticketing agency businesses.

In the first half of 2014, the amount of civil aviation infrastructure levies payable to the Civil Aviation Administration of China was RMB797 million, representing an increase of 6.13% compared to the same period last year. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in miles flown by the Group.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's ground services and other expenses were RMB2,483 million, representing a decrease of 1.55% compared to the same period last year.

In the first half of 2014, the Group's other operating expenses were RMB1,393 million, representing a decrease of 1.83% compared to the same period last year. This decrease was primarily attributable to the strict cost control measures imposed by the Group on controllable costs.

Other Operating Income

In the first half of 2014, the Group's other operating income was RMB1,842 million, representing an increase of 181.22% compared to the same period last year. This increase was primarily attributable to the increase in operating subsidies received from the government by the Group.

Finance Income/Costs

In the first half of 2014, the Group's finance income was RMB40.00 million, representing a decrease of 96.81% from the same period last year. Finance costs amounted to RMB1,466 million, representing an increase of 89.65%, primarily due to the fact that the Group recorded relatively high net exchange losses in the first half of 2014 as compared to net exchange gains in the same period last year, leading to the substantial year-on-year increase of finance costs for this period.

Profit

Profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company in the first half of 2014 was RMB12.00 million, representing a decrease of 98.07% compared to the same period last year. Earnings per share attributable to equity shareholders of the Company were RMB0.0009.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Liquidity and Capital Structure

The Group monitors its capital on the basis of its debt ratio, which is calculated as total liabilities divided by total assets. As at 30 June 2014, the debt ratio of the Group was 81.36%.

The Group generally operates with net current liabilities. As at 30 June 2014, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by RMB39,126 million. The Group has been and believes it will continue to be capable of financing its working capital by obtaining loans from banks and various financing tools such as the issuance of bonds.

The Group generally finances its working capital requirements through business operations and short-term bank loans. As at 30 June 2013 and 30 June 2014, the Group's cash and cash equivalents amounted to RMB3,672 million and RMB3,152 million, respectively. Net cash inflow generated from the Group's operating activities was RMB3,780 million and RMB5,262 million, respectively. Apart from operating expenses, cash requirements of the Group in the first half of 2014 consisted of funds for the purchase and modification of aircraft and aviation equipment as well as the payment for relevant debts. As at 30 June 2013 and 30 June 2014, the Group's net cash outflow from investment activities was RMB10,775 million and RMB8,304 million, respectively. As at 30 June 2013 and 30 June 2014, net cash inflow from the Group's financing activities were RMB8,163 million and RMB4,168 million, respectively.

As at 31 December 2013 and 30 June 2014, the Group's borrowings payable within one year were RMB23,285 million and RMB24,157 million, respectively. As at 31 December 2013, the Group's borrowings payable from one to two years, from three to five years and beyond five years were RMB6,606 million, RMB9,952 million and RMB10,757 million, respectively, as compared to RMB13,591 million, RMB11,188 million and RMB9,511 million, respectively, as at 30 June 2014.

The Group's obligations under finance leases as at 31 December 2013 and 30 June 2014 were RMB23,135 million and RMB28,308 million, respectively. As at 31 December 2013, the Group's lease obligations payable within two years, from three to five years and beyond five years were RMB5,945 million, RMB8,651 million and RMB8,539 million, respectively, as compared to RMB6,932 million, RMB9,487 million and RMB11,889 million, respectively, as at 30 June 2014.

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

As at 31 December 2013, the Group's borrowings comprised USD-denominated borrowings equivalent to USD5,776 million and RMB-denominated borrowings of RMB15,385 million. Fixed-rate borrowings accounted for 28.39% of the total borrowings, and floating-rate borrowings accounted for 71.61% of the total borrowings. As at 30 June 2014, the Group's borrowings comprised USD-denominated borrowings equivalent to USD6,241 million and RMB-denominated borrowings of RMB20,045 million. Fixed-rate borrowings accounted for 31.65% of the total borrowings, and floating-rate borrowings accounted for 68.35% of the total borrowings.

The Group's obligations under finance leases comprised only floating-rate obligations. As at 31 December 2013, the Company's obligations under finance leases comprised USD-denominated obligations of USD3,076 million, SGD-denominated obligations of SGD224 million, HKD-denominated obligations of HKD1,336 million and JPY-denominated obligations of JPY8,222 million. As at 30 June 2014, the Company's obligations under finance leases comprised USD-denominated obligations of USD4,188 million, SGD-denominated obligations of SGD212 million, HKD-denominated obligations of HKD1,270 million and JPY-denominated obligations of JPY7,778 million.

Interest Rate Fluctuation

The Group's total interest-bearing liabilities (including long-term and short-term borrowings, finance leases payable and bonds payable) as at 31 December 2013 and 30 June 2014 were RMB73,735 million and RMB86,755 million, respectively, which consisted of short-term interest-bearing liabilities accounting for 35.62% and 32.00%, respectively, of total interest-bearing liabilities for the relevant periods. Most of the long-term interest-bearing liabilities were liabilities with floating interest rates. Both short-term and long-term interest-bearing liabilities were affected by fluctuations in current market interest rates.

The Group's interest-bearing liabilities were primarily denominated in USD and RMB. As at 31 December 2013 and 30 June 2014, the Group's liabilities denominated in USD accounted for 75.62% and 73.97%, respectively, of total interest-bearing liabilities while liabilities denominated in RMB accounted for 20.87% and 23.11%, respectively, of total interest-bearing liabilities for the relevant periods. Fluctuations in the USD and RMB interest rates have significant impact on the Group's finance costs. As at 31 December 2013, the notional amount of the outstanding interest rate swap agreements was approximately USD844 million. As at 30 June 2014, such amount was USD803 million and such agreements will expire between 2014 and 2023.

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited Interim Report 2014

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Exchange Rate Fluctuation

As at 31 December 2013, the Group's total interest-bearing liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, converted to RMB, amounted to RMB66,710 million, of which USD liabilities accounted for 96.20% of the total interest-bearing liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. Therefore, a significant fluctuation in foreign exchange rates will subject the Group to significant foreign exchange loss/gain arising from the translation of foreign currency denominated liabilities, which will also affect the profitability and development of the Group. The Group typically uses hedging contracts for foreign currencies to reduce the foreign exchange risks for foreign currency revenue generated from ticket sales and expenses to be paid in foreign currencies. The Group's foreign currency hedging contracts mainly involve the sales of JPY and the purchase of USD at fixed exchange rates. As at 31 December 2013, foreign currency hedging contracts held by the Group amounted to a notional amount of USD38 million. Such amount was USD51 million as at 30 June 2014, and will expire between 2014 and 2017.

Fluctuation of Jet Fuel Prices

In the first half of 2014, assuming constant factors but excluding the effects of crude oil option contracts, if the average price of jet fuel had increased or decreased by 5%, jet fuel costs of the Group would have increased or decreased by approximately RMB747 million.

In the first half of 2014, the Group has not engaged in any aviation fuel hedging activities.

Pledges on Assets and Contingent Liabilities

The Group generally finances the purchases of aircraft through finance leases and bank loans secured by its assets. As at 31 December 2013, the value of the Group's assets used to secure certain bank loans was RMB24,306 million. As at 30 June 2014, the value of the Group's assets used to secure certain bank loans was RMB20,657 million, representing a decrease of 15.01% compared to the same period last year.

As at 30 June 2014, the Group had no material contingent liabilities.

Employees

As at 30 June 2014, the Group had 68,526 employees. The wages of the Group's employees generally consisted of basic salaries and performance bonuses.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Outlook for the Second Half of 2014

The Group would like to bring to the attention of readers of this report that the 2014 interim report contains certain forward-looking statements, including descriptions of the Group's future operating plans for the second half of 2014 and beyond, and a general outlook of international and domestic economies and the aviation industry. Such forward-looking statements are subject to many uncertainties and risks that are beyond the control of the Group. Actual events may be materially different from these forward-looking statements.

In the second half of 2014, affected by factors including geo-political instability and economic policies of different countries, the global economic recovery will remain in uncertainty. Though the PRC economy is expected to be stabilised and surge, while the domestic aviation market is expected to still maintain growth, with a relatively intensive industry competition, the Company will face an business environment that involves both opportunities and challenges.

In the second half of 2014, the Group will focus on: (1) reinforcing safety management and ensuring safe operation through strengthening safety checks as well as management of safety processes; (2) seizing market demand, deploying flight capacity in an efficient manner, refining cabin management and enhancing marketing quality for passenger and freight transportation; (3) optimising service procedures, enriching services and products while improving in-flight hardware and software to enhance customer experience; (4) intensifying its efforts in comprehensive budget management to promote cost reduction and efficiency enhancement projects, while expanding financing channels to increase capital utilisation efficiency; (5) exploiting the leading effect of information technology by emphasising technological application of, among others, big data and mobile internet; (6) fostering internal system reform and business model innovation, deepening transformation and development of passenger and freight transportation while proactively exploring the continued development and change of aviation services.

Fleet Plan

The Group will continually strive to simplify and optimise its fleet structure. The future fleet of the Group is expected to mainly comprise four models, namely B777 series for long-haul, A330 series for long- and medium- haul, and A320 series and B737NG series for medium- and short- haul. Older aircraft models that have high energy-consumption characteristics will be actively phased out. In the second half of 2014, the B777 aircraft introduced by the Group will commence operation.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

For information related to the shares appreciation rights of the Company, please refer to the relevant announcements of the Company dated 27 August 2012, 19 October 2012, 9 November 2012 and 30 November 2012 which are published on the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

There was no granting and exercise of rights under the H shares appreciation rights of the Company during the first half of 2014.

Save as disclosed above, as at 30 June 2014, none of the Directors, chief executive, Supervisors or members of the Company's senior management and their respective associates had any other interest or short position in the shares, underlying shares and/or debentures (as the case may be) of the Company and/or any of its associated corporations (within the meaning of Part XV of the SFO) which was required to (i) be notified to the Company and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange pursuant to the provisions of Divisions 7 and 8 of Part XV of the SFO (including any interest or short position which were taken or deemed to have under such provisions of the SFO), or (ii) as recorded in the register required to be kept by the Company pursuant to section 352 of the SFO, or (iii) which was otherwise required to be notified to the Company and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange pursuant to the Model Code as set out in Appendix 10 to the Listing Rules (which shall be deemed to apply to the Supervisors to the same extent as it applied to the Directors).

5. Purchase, Sale or Redemption of Securities

During the six months ended 30 June 2014, neither the Company nor its subsidiaries purchased, sold or redeemed any of its issued securities ("securities" having the meaning ascribed thereto under Section 1 of Appendix 16 to the Listing Rules).

During the six months ended 30 June 2014, the Company has adopted the Model Code set out in Appendix 10 to the Listing Rules as the securities transactions code for the Directors. Having made specific enquiries to all the Directors, it is the Company's understanding that the Directors have complied with the required standards of conduct as set forth in the Model Code regarding Directors' securities transactions.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

On 13 March 2014, to meet the Company's working capital requirements, Eastern Air Overseas, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, issued RMB2.5 billion guaranteed bonds with an interest rate of 4.8% due March 2017 (with an additional issue of RMB800 million on 21 May 2014) to professional investors in Hong Kong, and (2) listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The Company has provided a guarantee in connection with such bond issue. For details, please refer to the announcements of the Company dated 7 March 2014, 13 March 2014, 15 May 2014 and 21 May 2014 issued in Hong Kong.

On 14 May 2014, the Company completed the issuance of the 2014 first tranche of super short-term commercial notes, with an issuance amount of RMB4 billion, with a maturity of 270 days, with the nominal value of RMB100 (3) per unit and at a yield of 4.95%. The proceeds raised from the commercial notes were mainly used for replenishing the Company's working capital. For details, please refer to the announcement of the Company dated 14 May 2014 issued in Hong Kong.

On 13 June 2014, the Company (as the purchaser) entered into an agreement with Boeing Company (as the seller) (4) in Shanghai, PRC to purchase eighty B737 series aircraft from Boeing Company. The above aircraft will be delivered to the Company in stages from 2016 to 2020. For details, please refer to the announcement of the Company dated 13 June 2014 and the circular of the Company dated 22 August 2014 issued in Hong Kong.

On 26 June 2014, the 2013 annual general meeting of the Company considered and approved the proposal on amendments to the Articles, and it was agreed to amend the clauses regarding the adoption of cash distribution as (5) the prioritized means of distribution over equity and dividend to distribute profit as well as the intervals for cash distribution in the Articles. For details, please refer to the announcements of the Company dated 26 March 2014 and 26 June 2014 issued in Hong Kong.

On 15 August 2014, Shanghai Airlines Tours, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into the equity transfer agreement with Eastern Air Tourism, pursuant to which, Shanghai Airlines Tours agreed to acquire 72.84% equity interest in (Shanghai Dongmei Air Travel Co., Ltd.) ("Shanghai Dongmei") from Eastern Air Tourism at a total consideration of RMB32,147,700 (the "Shanghai Dongmei Acquisition"). Eastern Air Tourism (6) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of CEA Holding, which in turn is the controlling shareholder of the Company. Eastern Air Tourism is thus a connected person of the Company under the Listing Rules. Therefore, the Shanghai Dongmei Acquisition constitutes a connected transaction of the Company. The purpose of the Shanghai Dongmei Acquisition is to realise the economies of scale of the Group's tourism ticket business and increase its comprehensive competitiveness. For details, please refer to the announcement of the Company dated 15 August 2014 issued in Hong Kong.
