Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(d) On September 22, 2015, the Board of Directors of MISONIX, INC. (the “Company”) elected Thomas M. Patton, 51, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Thomas F. O’Neill on May 13, 2015. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Patton is independent according to the corporate governance standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market.

Mr. Patton will serve as a director until the next annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The committees of the Board of Directors on which Mr. Patton may serve are unknown as of the date of filing of this Current Report on Form 8-K. Mr. Patton will participate in the Company’s compensation arrangements for non-employee members of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Patton has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of CAS Medical Systems, Inc. (“CASMED”), a non-invasive patient monitoring medical device company, and as a member of the CASMED Board of Directors since August 2010. He previously served as the CEO of Wright Medical Group, an orthopedic device company, located in Memphis, Tennessee, and as President of Novamatrix Medical Systems, a patient-monitoring company, located in Wallingford, Connecticut. From 2003 to 2010, Mr. Patton acted as an advisor to the healthcare-focused private equity group of Ferrer Freeman & Company and was the co-founder and CEO of QDx, Inc., a start-up company that developed a platform for hematology diagnostics beginning in 2003. Mr. Patton attended The College of the Holy Cross, where he majored in Economics and Accounting. After graduating magna cum laude from Georgetown University Law Center, Mr. Patton worked at the law firm of Williams & Connolly in Washington, D.C. Thereafter, he joined Wright Medical Group as its General Counsel where he served in various executive roles until being appointed CEO.

Attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 is a press release issued by the Company on September 22, 2015 announcing the election of Mr. Patton.
