Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On September 27, 2017, Wabash National Corporation (“Wabash National”) announced its successful completion of the acquisition of Supreme Industries, Inc. (“Supreme”) following a completion of the offering period for the cash tender offer by Wabash National’s direct wholly-owned subsidiary, Redhawk Acquisition Corporation (“Purchaser”), for all outstanding shares of (i) Class A common stock, par value $0.10 per share (the “Class A Shares”), and (ii) Class B common stock, par value $0.10 per share (the “Class B Shares” and, collectively with the Class A Shares, the “Shares”), of Supreme. The depository for the tender offer has advised Wabash National that at the completion of the offering period at 12:01 a.m., New York City time, on September 27, 2017, stockholders of Supreme had validly tendered 14,074,879 Class A Shares and 1,656,466 Class B Shares (including Shares tendered through notices of guaranteed delivery), representing an aggregate of approximately 91.67% of Supreme’s outstanding Shares as of such time (or approximately 90.88% of outstanding Shares excluding notices of guaranteed delivery). The Shares tendered in the offer were sufficient under the Delaware General Corporation Law for Purchaser to merge with and into Supreme after the completion of the tender offer and for Supreme to become a wholly owned subsidiary of Wabash National without a vote of Supreme’s stockholders. Shares validly tendered and not properly withdrawn during the offering period have been accepted for payment and will be paid promptly. As a result of the merger that followed the tender offer, each Share not tendered and accepted for payment in the offer, other than those Shares with respect to which the holders properly exercise appraisal rights and Shares held by Wabash National or a subsidiary of Wabash National, has been converted into the right to receive $21.00 net to the seller in cash, without interest thereon and subject to applicable withholding taxes. Upon completion of the acquisition, Supreme became a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Wabash National and Supreme’s Shares will cease to be traded on the NYSE American stock exchange.
