Table of ContentsATTACHED DOCUMENT TO THE CONVOCAION NOTICE
OF THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS*BUSINESS REPORT (from April 1, 2003 to March 31, 2004)1. OUTLINE OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS*(1) Principal Substance of Business

The Company engages primarily in the manufacture and sales of home electronics and car electronics products, and all businesses incidental and related to the businesses mentioned above.

The following table sets forth the principal products of the Company and the ratio of sales by segment to total sales:

In the 58th accounting period, the Company changed its business segment classification for certain businesses. Results related to DVD drives for personal computers (PCs) have been moved from Others to Home Electronics, and results related to plasma displays for business use have been moved from Home Electronics to Others. Corresponding figures for the previous year have been reclassified accordingly.

Segment	Principal Products in Each Segment	Ratio of Sales by Segment to Total Sales
		58th Accounting Period	57th Accounting Period
Home Electronics	DVD players, DVD recorders, recordable DVD drives, DVD-ROM drives, home-use plasma displays, stereo systems, individual stereo components, and equipment for cable-TV systems	45.8%	45.5%
Car Electronics	Car Stereos, car AV systems, car speakers and car navigation systems	48.6%	48.7%
Others	Business-use plasma displays and business-use AV systems	5.6%	5.8%

Table of Contents(2) Process and Result of Business Operations (on Parent Company Only Basis) and Problems with which the Company is Required to Cope

(a) Process and Result of Business Operations:

	58th Accounting Period	57th Accounting Period	% Change 58th/57th
Domestic Sales	194,315 million yen	189,793 million yen	102.4%
Export Sales	274,695 million yen	261,166 million yen	105.2%
Total Sales	469,010 million yen	450,950 million yen	104.0%

During the 58th annual accounting period, ended March 31, 2004, sales in Japan increased over the previous year. This was because sales of car navigation systems and DVD recorders increased steadily to compensate for a drop in sales of DVD players and plasma displays. Export sales were also higher than the previous year. This rise was attributable to an increase in sales of recordable DVD drives for PCs and DVD recorders as well as an expansion in the sales of plasma displays, although sales of car audio products, DVD players, and audio products declined. As a result, net sales for the period under review came to 469,010 million yen, an increase of 4.0% over the previous year. Exports accounted for 58.6% of total sales as compared with 57.9% during the previous year.

Operating income expanded dramatically to 9,923 million yen from 4,853 million yen in the previous year, and ordinary income increased 52.5% to 16,419 million yen. This was achieved by a reduction of selling, general and administrative expenses in tandem with increased sales. Net income also expanded 59.6% to 6,774 million yen primarily thanks to an increase in ordinary income.

Results by business segment were as follows.

Home Electronics

	58th Accounting Period	57th Accounting Period	% Change 58th/57th
Domestic Sales	66,402 million yen	74,274 million yen	89.4%
Export Sales	148,421 million yen	130,701 million yen	113.6%
Total Sales	214,824 million yen	204,975 million yen	104.8%

In Japan, although sales of DVD recorders remained strong, sales of DVD players, recordable DVD drives for PCs, home-use plasma displays and audio products decreased. As a result, sales in Japan fell by 10.6% from the previous year.

Export sales, on the other hand, increased 13.6%. Although sales of DVD players, audio products worldwide, and cable TV set-top boxes to North America decreased, sales of home-use plasma displays and DVD recorders advanced in all regions, and sales of recordable DVD drives for PCs to Europe and Asia expanded significantly.

Table of ContentsCar Electronics

	58th Accounting Period	57th Accounting Period	% Change 58th/57th
Domestic Sales	119,295 million yen	105,688 million yen	112.9%
Export Sales	108,852 million yen	114,030 million yen	95.5%
Total Sales	228,147 million yen	219,718 million yen	103.8%

In Japan, sales of car electronics products increased 12.9% over the previous year. Sales of car navigation systems to both automobile manufacturers and consumers remained strong. Sales of car audio products to automobile manufacturers also rose.

Export sales dropped 4.5%. Sales of car navigation systems expanded, but those of car audio products for consumers and automobile manufacturers in North American contracted.

Others

	58th Accounting Period	57th Accounting Period	% Change 58th/57th
Domestic Sales	8,617 million yen	9,821 million yen	87.7%
Export Sales	17,421 million yen	16,435 million yen	106.0%
Total Sales	26,039 million yen	26,256 million yen	99.2%

In Japan, sales decreased 12.3% from the previous year due to a reduction in sales of business-use AV (audio/video) systems.

On the other hand, export sales were up 6.0% thanks to strong sales of business-use plasma displays worldwide.

Research and Development

In an industry in which the pace of technological development continues to accelerate, Pioneer's ongoing research and development focuses on high-density recording, flat panel displays, digital signal processing, information/communication technologies, and core LSIs. Listed below are the major results and activities during the period under review.

Multiple-Layer Optical Discs

Pioneer is pushing the envelope in digital media, driving demand in a market that eagerly awaits the latest advances in high-quality, long-time recording formats. During fiscal 2004, we succeeded in developing dual-layer disc technology for DVD-R recording, enabling up to 8.5 gigabytes of data to be recorded onto one side of a disc. Such performance, almost equal to levels of existing dual-layer DVD-ROM discs, allows conventional DVD-Video players to be compatible with discs using this technology. Compatible DVD recorders will also be developed with relative ease. The new discs will raise DVD recording capacity to approximately four hours in SP mode and twelve hours in EP mode almost double the recording capacity of DVD-R discs currently on the market. The Company is further improving this format's performance and will propose this format to the DVD Forum*.

In the field of Blu-ray Disc, which is particularly well-suited for digital high-definition images and is expected to be the next-generation large-capacity optical disc, Pioneer has also succeeded in developing a prototype of playback-only four-layer disc with 100-gigabyte capacity on one side. The multiple-layer structure of the Blu-ray Disc format requires higher-precision control than DVDs for determining the thickness of layers between the disc surface and each layer. Pioneer has achieved this through collaboration with Hitachi Chemical Co., Ltd., involving joint development of photopolymer sheets suited for optical disc material.

Home AV Network

Pioneer Research Center USA, Inc. (PRA) launched the Digital Entertainment Network Initiative (DENi) in 2002. In January 2003, PRA and the six other consumer electronics company members of DENi drew up comprehensive technical specifications for simplifying network connection among home-use audio/video products. The new DENi technology takes advantage of Ethernet and Internet Protocol, which are commonly used for computer networking, and enables in-home connection and sharing of audio and video sources among rooms which are distant from one another, without troublesome additional cabling. PRA took the lead among DENi members in promoting this technology, and in July 2003, the Consumer Electronics Association (CEA) of the United States adopted the DENi proposal as the digital entertainment network standard, CEA-2008. PRA is expected to continue to advance home network technologies and promote unified industry standards.

* DVD Forum is an international industry organization promoting unified DVD standards and growing applications.

 Ethernet is the most widely used local area network (LAN) technology.

(b) Problems with which the Company is Required to Cope:

The business environment remains severe, characterized by uncertain economic conditions in our major markets, Japan, North America and Europe, intensifying price competition in our major product categories, and exchange rate fluctuations. Thus, the Company is concentrating management resources on strategic businesses to achieve the targets set forth in the medium-term management plan. For example, we converted production lines of optical discs to plasma displays, and we sold to a third party three of our audio/video software business subsidiaries in Japan and the United States. We will continue our efforts to increase profits and improve management efficiency through our select and focus policy.

In April 2004, we made a change in our internal company structure. Plasma Display Business Company, a new internal company, was created to further promote and expand our plasma display business. At the same time, we integrated the Components Business Company into the Home Entertainment Company, aiming to achieve more powerful synergy in the DVD business. Now, we are advancing our strategic business plans with the following four internal companies:

Home Entertainment Company, which is in charge of audio/video product business and business in devices such as recordable DVD drives for PCs;

Plasma Display Business Company, which is managing a comprehensive, plasma display business;

Mobile Entertainment Company, which is responsible for car electronics business overall; and Industrial Solutions & Entertainment Company, which is applying business plans and system products to operate in industrial and business markets.

In our plasma display business, we are working to build a more efficient production system to meet fast-growing demand. Pioneer Display Products Corporation, our subsidiary dedicated to plasma display production, is currently expanding its capacity and strengthening its operations. In February 2004, Pioneer Corporation and NEC Corporation (NEC) reached an agreement in principle under which NEC will transfer to Pioneer all the shares NEC holds in its subsidiary, NEC Plasma Display Corporation, and all the intellectual property rights NEC holds for plasma displays. This fall, we plan to establish an overall production system that yields more than one million panels annually. We also plan to continue to differentiate our products from those of our competitors by developing new display panels with higher picture quality and energy efficiency, while lowering production costs.

In our DVD business, demand for DVD recorders for home use, especially those with hard disk drives (HDDs), has been growing, and we plan to develop products with added values and advanced features, reinforcing the line of HDD models. Also, demand for recordable DVD drives for PCs is rising sharply. To accommodate this growing demand, we are strengthening our production capacity in China. With these products, we aim to bolster sales both in home audio/video and PC markets.

In our car electronics business, we continue our efforts to strengthen our market leadership. In the car navigation system business, our HDD models with advanced functions, as well as affordably priced, easy-to-operate DVD models enjoy excellent reputations in Japan. We also plan to expand this business overseas, in Europe and North America in particular. In the car audio business, we plan to fortify our current strong market position with such new products and innovations as car CD players with organic light-emitting diode (OLED) displays to satisfy diversifying consumer demand.

We continue our efforts to minimize operating costs and expenses worldwide. To reduce our overall manufacturing costs, we are expanding production in China. We are also implementing an expense supervision system to lower the ratio of our selling, general and administrative expenses to consolidated operating revenue. We are applying supply chain management to optimize efficiency of inventory control worldwide. We believe that such initiatives help us improve cash flows and profitability.

We appreciate the support that shareholders have always given us, and look forward to more of it. And we will keep doing everything in our power to improve shareholder value.

(3) Conditions of Investment in Plant and Equipment

The total amount of investment in plant and equipment during the period under review was 15,131 million yen, the principal of which was invested in facilities for research and development, as well as for production, and in molds for production.

(4) Conditions of Raising Funds

The Company raised 60,600 million yen through the issue, on March 5, 2004, of Euro Yen Zero Coupon Convertible Bonds due 2011 (bonds with stock acquisition rights, tenkanshasaigata shinkabu yoyakuken-tsuki shasai) (the Bonds). The net proceeds of the issue of the Bonds will be applied principally towards investment in plasma display business, and enhancement of distribution channels in Europe and China.

- Notes: 1. As for the 55th accounting period, ordinary income increased largely, thanks to a rise of sales and a significant reduction in selling, general and administrative expenses, although the gross profit margin worsened. Net income increased, in spite of losses on write-down of subsidiary stock and on business reorganization. As for the 56th accounting period, ordinary income increased largely, thanks to an improved gross profit margin, although selling, general and administrative expenses increased. Net income also increased, in spite of losses in investment in stocks as a result of a significant drop in market value as well as expenses incurred in connection with withdrawal from certain businesses facing unfavorable prospects. As for the 57th accounting period, due to a worsening gross profit margin and increases of selling, general and administrative expenses, ordinary income increased thanks to the increase of non-operating income that was brought by a gain in dividend income and other factors. As a result, net income during the period increased despite the decrease of extraordinary gains because extraordinary losses diminished as well due to a decrease in loss related to business reorganization. The business results for this 58th accounting period are as described under the caption
1. OUTLINE OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS (2) Process and Result of Business Operations and Problems with which the Company is Required to Cope in this report.
2. Except per share information, all amounts less than one million yen are disregarded.
3. Per share amounts of net income are based on the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each period. Per share amounts of total shareholders equity are based on the number of shares of common stock issued and outstanding at the end of each period. From the 56th accounting period, however, treasury stock is deducted from the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period and from the number of shares of common stock issued and outstanding at the end of the period. All per share amounts less than the second decimal place are disregarded.

(b) New Development in the Company's Group:

Effective April 1, 2003, Pioneer Video Corporation established Pioneer Micro Technology Corporation, by spinning off its semiconductor business. On the same day, Shizuoka Pioneer Corporation merged Pioneer Video Corporation and changed its trade name to Pioneer Display Products Corporation.

Also, the Company sold to Dentsu Inc. 90% of its shares in Pioneer LDC, Inc., the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary engaged in the audio/video software business, on September 30, 2003, and the remaining 10% on March 31, 2004.

(c) Business Performance of the Company's Group:

The number of consolidated subsidiaries was 130, and the Company's investments in five affiliated companies were accounted for on an equity basis. The Company's consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S.A.

During the 58th annual accounting period, ended March 31, 2004, consolidated operating revenue was 700,885 million yen, rising 3.5% over the previous year. During the period under review, the average value of the yen was 7.8% higher against the U.S. dollar, but 8.7% lower against the euro, compared to the 57th accounting period.

In the 58th accounting period, the Company changed its business segment classification for certain businesses. Results related to DVD drives for PCs have been moved from Others to Home Electronics, and results related to plasma displays for business use have been moved from Home Electronics to Others. Corresponding figures for the previous year have been reclassified accordingly.

Home Electronics sales increased 1.3% from the previous year to 281,482 million yen. In Japan, sales decreased by 9.2% to 78,798 million yen, due to a decline in sales of DVD players, recordable DVD drives for PCs, and plasma displays for home use, in spite of the increase in sales of DVD recorders. Overseas sales increased 6.0% to 202,684 million yen, due to rises in sales of our home-use plasma displays and DVD recorders worldwide, and recordable DVD drives in Europe and Asia, despite lower sales of DVD players and audio products worldwide, cable TV set-top boxes in North America, and digital broadcast set-top boxes in Europe.

Car Electronics sales amounted to 292,187 million yen, up 3.9% over the previous year. In Japan, sales increased 15.1% to 121,708 million yen, reflecting growth in sales of car navigation systems to both consumers and automobile manufacturers as well as increased sales in car audio products to automobile manufacturers. Overseas sales decreased 2.8% to 170,479 million yen, primarily due to lower sales of car audio products to both consumers and automobile manufacturers in North America, despite higher sales of car navigation systems in North America and Europe and car audio products in other regions.

Royalty revenue from Patent Licensing decreased 6.1% from the previous year to 11,821 million yen. This was due to a decline in royalty revenue resulting from expiration of the Company's optical disc-related patents in certain areas.

Others sales increased 9.3% from the previous year to 115,395 million yen. In Japan, sales were slightly higher by 1.1%, at 62,792 million yen. This is attributed primarily to increased sales of OLED display panels in cellular phones, despite the decrease in sales of commercial karaoke products resulting from the sale of the Company's karaoke business subsidiaries. Overseas, sales were up 21.0% over the previous year to 52,603 million yen, primarily due to increased sales of optical disc manufacturing systems in Asia, semiconductors related to laser pickups in China, and business-use plasma displays worldwide.

Table of Contents

Operating income increased 42.1% from the previous year to 43,719 million yen mainly as a result of increased sales and improved gross profit margin as well as decreased selling, general and administrative expenses. Lower average value of the yen against the euro during the year compared to the previous year affected gross profit margin favorably. Net income also increased 54.5% from 16,078 million yen for the previous year to 24,838 million yen, reflecting an increase in operating income and income from discontinued operations recorded in connection with the sale of subsidiaries engaged in the audio/video software business.

Pursuant to Article 2 of the Law Concerning Special Measures under the Commercial Code with Respect to Audit, etc. of Corporations (Kabushiki Kaisha) of Japan, we have audited the financial statements, namely, the balance sheet, the statement of income, the business report (with respect to accounting matters only), the proposal of appropriation of unappropriated retained earnings and the supplementary schedules (with respect to accounting matters only) of Pioneer Corporation for the 58th accounting period from April 1, 2003 to March 31, 2004. The accounting matters included in the business report and the supplementary schedules referred to above are based on the Company's books of account. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit from an independent position.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as the evaluating the overall financial statements presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our audit includes auditing procedures applied to subsidiaries as considered necessary.

As a result of our audits, in our opinion:

- (1) The balance sheet and the statement of income present fairly the financial position and the results of operations of the Company in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

From the 58th accounting period, the Company changed period of recognition of actuarial gain or loss from the designated period (15 years), which is within the employees' average remaining services period, to the employees' average remaining services period of each pension plan (14 to 18 years). This accounting change was considered appropriate because it was made, taking into account that the Company will review the pension plan in the future after applying for an exemption from obligation to pay benefits for future employees' services related to the substitutional portion of the governmental pension program, for the purpose of calculating the Company's profit and loss more appropriately by recognizing actuarial gain or loss over the employees' average remaining services period of each pension plan, which is in line with the accounting policy of the consolidated financial statements of the Company that is based on the generally accepted accounting standards in the United States.

- (2) The business report (with respect to accounting matters only) presents fairly the Company's affairs in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

- (3) The proposal of appropriation of unappropriated retained earnings is in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Company's Articles of Incorporation.
- (4) The supplementary schedules (with respect to accounting matters only) present fairly the information required to be set forth therein under the Commercial Code of Japan.

Our firm and the engagement partners do not have any financial interest in the Company for which disclosure is required under the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Law of Japan.

The Board of Corporate Auditors of Pioneer Corporation

Corporate Auditor (full time)	Makoto Koshiba	(seal)
Corporate Auditor (full time)	Shinji Yasuda	(seal)
Corporate Auditor	Terumichi Tsuchida	(seal)
Corporate Auditor	Isao Moriya	(seal)
Corporate Auditor	Keiichi Nishikido	(seal)

The Board of Corporate Auditors has prepared this audit report as follows, upon deliberation after being reported by each Corporate Auditor on the methods and results of auditing with respect to the execution of functions by directors during the 58th accounting period from April 1, 2003 to March 31, 2004.

1. Summary of the methods of auditing by Corporate Auditors

In accordance with such matters as the policy of auditing and assignment of auditing work determined by the Board of Corporate Auditors, each Corporate Auditor attended meetings of the board of directors and other important meetings, called on directors and other personnel for reports of business, inspected important documents, and investigated the condition of operations and property at the head office and the principal places of business. Regarding subsidiaries, each Corporate Auditor requested subsidiaries' reports on business as considered necessary under the circumstances, visited subsidiaries from time to time, and thus investigated the condition of operations and property. The Board of Corporate Auditors also received a report of the accounting auditor's audits and examined the accounting documents and the supplementary schedules.

In addition, regarding such matters as transactions of directors that compete with the Company, transactions in which interests are contrary between directors and the Company, benefits given by the Company free of charge to shareholders, unusual transactions between the Company and subsidiaries or shareholders, and acquisition and disposal of shares of the Company, we called on directors and other personnel for reports and investigated the circumstances, when considered necessary.

2. Results of auditing

- (1) The methods and the results of auditing by Tohmatsu & Co., the independent accountants and the Company's Accounting Auditor, are appropriate.
- (2) The business report presents fairly, in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the status of the Company.
- (3) The proposal of appropriation of unappropriated retained earnings is proper in view of the financial position of the Company and other circumstances.

- (4) The supplementary schedules are proper and present fairly matters as are required to be reported therein.
- (5) Regarding execution of functions by directors, including functions thereby regarding subsidiaries, there exist no unjust acts or serious violation of laws and regulations of Japan or the Company's Articles of Incorporation therein.

It is to be added that there are no acts by directors in contravention of their duties regarding their transactions which compete with the Company, transactions in which interests are contrary between directors and the Company, benefits given by the Company free of charge to shareholders, unusual transactions between the Company and subsidiaries or shareholders, and acquisition and disposal of shares of the Company.

Agenda Item No. 1. Approval of Proposal of Appropriation of Unappropriated Retained Earnings for the 58th Accounting Period

The board of directors hereby proposes to appropriate the unappropriated retained earnings for the 58th accounting period as described on page 25.

The Company's policy on dividends allows for dividend continuance and stability. In addition, the Company determines the appropriate dividend amount, taking into consideration its financial condition, consolidated business results, and other factors.

Based on this policy, for the year-end cash dividend for the 58th accounting period, the Board hereby proposes to pay at the ratio of 12.5 yen per share of common stock, an increase of 2.5 yen over the previous accounting period, taking into consideration the growth of the business performance for the 58th accounting period, further development of business operations and the business environment, as well as repaying your kind support. Combined with the interim dividend, this payment will bring the total annual cash dividends for the 58th accounting period to 25.0 yen per share of common stock, as compared to 17.5 yen per share of common stock for the previous accounting period.

For the bonuses payable to Directors and Corporate Auditors, the board hereby proposes to appropriate 100 million yen in the aggregate (including 11 million yen for Corporate Auditors).

Agenda Item No. 2. Amendment to a Portion of the Articles of Incorporation

Point of the agenda and reasons for amendment:

It is hereby proposed that since the purchase by the Company of its own shares by resolutions of the Board of Directors is permitted by providing for provisions which allow such purchase in the Articles of Incorporation, pursuant to the Law Amending the Commercial Code and the Law Concerning Special Measures to the Commercial Code with Respect to Audit, etc. of Corporations (Kabushiki Kaisha) (Law No. 132 of 2003) of Japan, new provisions of Article 6 (Purchases by the Company of Its Own Shares) be added so that the Company may take timely, flexible measures to achieve the Company's capital policy, and accordingly, the numbers of Articles on and after present Article 6 shall be moved down.

In addition, it is proposed that the present Supplementary Provisions be deleted because such provisions become unnecessary since the purposes thereof are achieved.

The present Articles and the proposed amendments are as follows:

Table of ContentsAgenda Item No. 6. Issue of Share Acquisition Rights for the Purpose of Granting Stock Options

To further raise the motivation and the morale for improvement of the consolidated business performance of the Company, the Company hereby asks for authorization to issue share acquisition rights pursuant to the provisions of Articles 280-20 and 280-21 of the Commercial Code of Japan, as stock options to directors, executive officers and employees of the Company and directors of its subsidiaries according to the following terms:

- (1) Persons to whom share acquisition rights shall be allocated: Directors, executive officers and a number of employees of the Company as well as a number of directors of domestic or overseas subsidiaries of the Company (hereinafter referred to as the Qualified Persons)
- (2) Aggregate number of share acquisition rights:
Not exceeding 3,500

The number of shares to be issued upon exercise of each share acquisition right (hereinafter referred to as the Number of Granted Shares) shall be 100; provided, however, in case the Company splits or consolidates its shares of common stock on or after the date of issue of share acquisition rights (hereinafter referred to as the Issue Date), the Number of Granted Shares shall be adjusted according to the following formula:

$$\begin{array}{rclcl} \text{Number of Granted} & & \text{Number of Granted} & & \text{Ratio of split or} \\ \text{Shares after adjustment} & = & \text{Shares before} & \times & \text{consolidation} \\ & & \text{adjustment} & & \end{array}$$

In addition, the Number of Granted Shares shall be appropriately adjusted to the necessary and reasonable extent, in the case of merger, company split or capital reduction of the Company and in any other case similar thereto where an adjustment of the Number of Granted Shares shall be required.

Any fraction less than one (1) share resulting from this adjustment shall be disregarded.

- (3) Class and number of shares to be issued (or transferred from the Company's own shares held by the Company in lieu thereof; hereinafter the same shall apply) upon exercise of share acquisition rights:
Shares of common stock of the Company not exceeding 350,000; provided, however, in case the Number of Granted Shares shall be adjusted pursuant to (2) above, the number of shares to be issued shall be adjusted to the number obtained by multiplying the aggregate number of share acquisition rights to be issued by the Number of Granted Shares after adjustment.
- (4) Issue price of the share acquisition rights:
No consideration shall be paid.
- (5) Amount to be paid in upon exercise of share acquisition rights:
The amount to be paid in per share upon exercise of share acquisition rights (hereinafter referred to as the Exercise Price) shall be the amount obtained by multiplying the higher of either (i) the average of closing prices (including quotations; hereinafter the same shall apply) in the regular tradings of the shares of common stock of the Company on the Tokyo Stock Exchange for 30 consecutive trading days (excluding any trading day on which the closing price does not exist) commencing on the day 45 trading days prior to the Issue Date or (ii) such closing price on the day immediately preceding the Issue Date (if the closing price does not exist on such day, the closing price on the day immediately preceding such day), by 1.05. Any fraction less than one (1) yen resulting from this calculation shall be rounded up to the nearest one (1) yen.

Table of Contents

Provided, however, in case the Company splits or consolidates its shares of common stock on or after the Issue Date, the Exercise Price shall be adjusted according to the following formula and any fraction less than one (1) yen resulting from this adjustment shall be rounded up to the nearest one (1) yen:

$$\begin{array}{l} \text{Exercise} \\ \text{Price} \\ \text{after} \\ \text{adjustment} \end{array} = \begin{array}{l} \text{Exercise Price} \\ \text{before adjustment} \end{array} \times \frac{1}{\text{Ratio of split or consolidation}}$$

In addition, the Exercise Price shall be appropriately adjusted to the necessary and reasonable extent, in the case of merger, company split or capital reduction of the Company and in any other case similar thereto where an adjustment of the Exercise Price shall be required.

- (6) Period during which share acquisition rights may be exercised:
From and including July 3, 2006, to and including June 30, 2009
- (7) Conditions for exercise of share acquisition rights:
 - (i) Each share acquisition right may not be exercised in part.
 - (ii) Other conditions for exercise of share acquisition rights shall be determined by the board of directors of the Company.
- (8) Cancellation of share acquisition rights:
The Company may at any time acquire share acquisition rights and cancel them without any consideration.
- (9) Restriction on transfer of share acquisition rights:
Share acquisition rights cannot be transferred unless an approval of the board of directors of the Company shall be obtained.
- (10) Others:
 - (i) In case a Qualified Person is no longer a director, executive officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, such Qualified Person shall not be entitled to exercise share acquisition rights, unless the above is resulted from resignation due to expiration of the term of office, compulsory retirement age, involuntary retirement or any other reasonable event.
 - (ii) Allocation of share acquisition rights shall be made subject to the execution of, and in accordance with, an agreement for allocation of share acquisition rights between the Company and each Qualified Person which provides, in addition to the foregoing, the matters and conditions deemed necessary by the board of directors of the Company, based on the resolution adopted at this ordinary general meeting of shareholders, in order to achieve the purpose of this issue of share acquisition rights.
