Dear Fellow VimpelCom Shareholders

The outcome of the election of directors at VimpelCom's June 22 AGM could seriously affect the future value of your investment. To ensure that VimpelCom continues to be operated for the benefit of all shareholders, we urge you to cast all of your votes for Jo Lunder and Terje Thon by signing, dating and returning the enclosed BLUE proxy card today. Telenor believes the alternative outcome could potentially lead to Alfa seizing control of VimpelCom without paying a control premium to its fellow shareholders.

Consider carefully the risks facing VimpelCom shareholders at this critical AGM:

If Alfa's nominees constitute a majority of VimpelCom's board of directors, Telenor believes:

VimpelCom may continue to be negatively impacted by Alfa's ongoing conflicts of interest arising from its stake in MegaFon and the methods Alfa may use to alter the corporate governance of VimpelCom to remove minority shareholder protections;

Alfa could push through the acquisition of WellCom at an excessive price and cause VimpelCom to engage in other transactions that would benefit Alfa but destroy value for other VimpelCom shareholders; and

If Telenor were to exit its investment in VimpelCom, VimpelCom and its shareholders would lose the positive involvement of Telenor's majority shareholder, the Norwegian state, and it is unlikely a merger with Kyivstar would ever occur.

Telenor believes that in the current climate in Russia control of VimpelCom by Alfa would increase the risks to which VimpelCom is subject, and VimpelCom could continue to experience turmoil from lawsuits and other similar tactics Alfa has employed.

If Telenor's independent nominees are elected, we believe all VimpelCom's shareholders will benefit from:

Telenor's long-term industrial and commercial commitment to building value for all shareholders by using Telenor's knowledge of best practices and proven concepts from more mature markets to improve VimpelCom's profitability and competitive position, which will give VimpelCom an advantage over its competitors;

Telenor's continuing support for value-enhancing CIS expansion by VimpelCom, including expansion in Ukraine; and

The increased likelihood of a VimpelCom/Kyivstar merger.

While Telenor has no confidence in the business case for the acquisition of WellCom, Telenor would, as it has repeatedly stated, support a VimpelCom/Kyivstar transaction under the right conditions. A merger with Kyivstar is unlikely to occur if Alfa controls VimpelCom.

Telenor's nominees, Jo Lunder, the former CEO of VimpelCom, and Terje Thon, who has served on VimpelCom's board since 1999, have the commitment, knowledge and experience to ensure that VimpelCom is operated for the benefit of all shareholders and to protect shareholders from Alfa's attempts to seize control. We urge you to cast all your votes at VimpelCom s forthcoming AGM FOR Jo Lunder and Terje Thon, by signing, dating and returning today the enclosed BLUE proxy card today.
