Edgar Filing: LHC Group, Inc - Form 8-K

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

LHC Group, Inc. (the "Company") and Keith G. Myers, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, entered into a new employment agreement effective January 1, 2008, for Mr. Myers to continue serving as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The employment agreement provides an initial three-year term, after which the agreement will be automatically renewed for additional one-year periods, unless either party gives notice of non-renewal. Pursuant to the employment agreement, the Company will pay Mr. Myers a base salary of not less than $339,900 per year.

The Company and John L. Indest, President and Chief Operating Officer, entered into a new employment agreement effective January 1, 2008, for Mr. Indest to continue serving as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. The employment agreement provides an initial three-year term, after which the agreement will be automatically renewed for additional one-year periods, unless either party gives notice of non-renewal. Pursuant to the employment agreement, the Company will pay Mr. Indest a base salary of not less than $309,000 per year.

The Company and Peter J. Roman, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, entered into a new Employment Agreement effective January 1, 2008, for Mr. Roman to continue serving as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The employment agreement provides an initial three-year term, after which the agreement will be automatically renewed for additional one-year periods, unless either party gives notice of non-renewal. Pursuant to the employment agreement, the Company will pay Mr. Roman a base salary of not less than $200,000 per year.

The Company and Daryl Doise, Senior Vice President for Corporate Development, entered into a Employment Agreement effective June 1, 2008, for Mr. Doise to continuing serving as Senior Vice President for Corporate Development. The employment agreement provides an initial two-year and seven-month term, expiring December 31, 2010, after which the agreement will be automatically renewed for additional one-year periods, unless either party gives notice of non-renewal. During the employment period, the Company will pay to Mr. Doise base salary of not less than $231,750 per year.

Each of Mr. Myers, Mr. Indest, Mr. Roman and Mr. Doise are referred to herein as an "Executive."

Pursuant to the employment agreements, the compensation committee of the Board of Directors of the Company shall review each Executive's base salary annually and may increase (but not decrease) such Executive's base salary from year to year. The annual review of each Executive's salary by the Board will consider, among other things, such Executive's own performance, and the Company's performance.

Each Executive will be (i) entitled to participate in the Company's executive bonus plan, pursuant to which such Executive will have an opportunity to receive an annual cash bonus based upon the achievement of his individual performance goals established from year to year by the compensation committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, (ii) eligible for grants under the Company's long-term incentive plan of stock options, restricted stock, or such other stock-based awards as the Company makes to similarly situated executives, and (iii) eligible to receive benefits under the Company's welfare benefit plans and programs.

Edgar Filing: LHC Group, Inc - Form 8-K

The employment agreements may be terminated by the Company at any time with or without "cause" (as defined therein), or by the Executive with or without "good reason" (as defined therein). The agreements also terminate upon the death, disability or retirement of the Executive. Depending on the reason for the termination and when it occurs, the Executive will be entitled to certain severance benefits.

If the Executive is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason, then in addition to accrued salary, vested benefits, and a pro-rata portion of his annual bonus earned through the date of termination, the executive will be entitled to (i) a severance payment equal to one times his base salary in effect as of the date of termination (or, if the termination occurs within two year following a change in control of the Company, 2.5 times the sum of (1) his base salary in effect as of the date of termination, and (2) the greater of the average of the annual bonuses earned by him for the two prior fiscal years, or his target bonus for the year in which the date of termination occurs), (ii) continuation of health and welfare benefits during the applicable COBRA period as if he had not terminated employment, and (iii) vesting of all outstanding equity awards.

The employment agreements provide that if a payment to or for the benefit of an Executive would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then he will receive a full gross up of any excise tax imposed, including income and excise taxes on such gross-up amount, subject to a $50,000 threshold benefit amount.
