Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On January 19, 2010, Targeted Genetics Corporation (the "Company") received a written notice from the staff of The NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ") informing the Company that trading of the Company's common stock would be suspended prior to the open of business on Thursday, January 21, 2010 and that NASDAQ would initiate procedures to delist the Company's common stock. The Company had notified NASDAQ on January 13, 2010 of its decision not to pursue a reverse stock split as a means to regain compliance with the $1.00 share price required for continued listing under Listing Rule 5550(a)(2). The Company does not intend to appeal NASDAQ's determination to delist its common stock.

As previously reported, following the delisting of the Company's common stock, the Company anticipates that its common stock will be quoted on the Pink Sheets, a centralized electronic quotation service for over-the-counter securities. However, the Company can give no assurance that trading in its stock will continue on the Pink Sheets or on any other securities exchange or quotation medium.
