INTERCONTINENTAL HOTELS GROUP PLACES A FURTHER GBP500M OF HOTELS ON THE MARKET FOR DISPOSAL

InterContinental Hotels Group PLC ("IHG") announces that it has today placed the next tranche of hotels on the market with a net book value of approximately GBP500m. This is in line with the statement in IHG's first quarter results announcement on 27 May 2004 that as part of the continuation of its strategy of continuing to grow its management and franchise businesses and reducing asset ownership, it intended to dispose of approximately a further GBP500m of hotel assets.

The hotels earmarked for disposal are predominantly in North America and include the InterContinental hotels in Miami and Chicago as well as other InterContinental and hotels under the Crowne Plaza and Holiday Inn brands.

These hotels are expected to generate approximately GBP15m of EBIT and GBP39m of EBITDA in 2004 and the intention is to retain management contracts. Hotels will only be sold providing satisfactory prices are achieved.

In addition to the hotels placed on the market today, IHG continues actively to progress the sale of the GBP129m of hotels highlighted in the May 27 announcement. Of these, the Group has completed the sale of two hotels with proceeds of more than GBP17m - the Holiday Inn, Gatwick, UK and the Holiday Inn , Adelaide, Australia.

Therefore, since demerger in April 2003 IHG has now sold a total of 28 hotels generating proceeds of more than GBP320m, with aggregate proceeds above net book value. Today's announcement takes the total net book value of hotels sold or being actively marketed to almost GBP1bn.

An update on progress, potential further disposals and return of capital to shareholders will be provided at IHG's interim results presentation on September 9 2004. To date IHG has purchased GBP138m of shares as part of the current GBP250m buyback programme. This equates to approximately 27 million shares at an average price of around 512p.

Commenting on the announcement Richard North, Chief Executive, IHG, said:

"Today's announcement is a further step in the execution of our strategy of reducing the capital intensity of the business and enhancing return on capital. We will continue to grow our already large managed and franchise businesses by capitalising on the strength of our brands and proven franchise and hotel management skills."
