CITIC Prudential continues to expand in China with launch in Shanghai

Prudential plc's life insurance joint venture, CITIC Prudential, has received official approval by the China Insurance Regulatory Commission (CIRC) to open a new branch in Shanghai. As the only European life insurer with four licences in China, Prudential is well positioned to continue its expansion in the rapidly growing Chinese market.

Mark Norbom, Chief Executive of Prudential Corporation Asia, said "China is a very important market for Prudential and we are delighted that CITIC Prudential has received a fourth licence. It is further evidence that we are making excellent progress toward achieving our goal of building a sustainable and material business that meets the savings, protection and investment needs of the Chinese people."

"Our life insurance partnership with Prudential continues to expand and grow strongly" added Mr. Wang Jun, Chairman of CITIC Group. "With operations in Guangzhou, Beijing, Suzhou and a licence for the city of Shanghai, CITIC Prudential is well positioned to continue its growth in the Chinese market. We look forward to the continued development of our partnership with Prudential in China."

CITIC Prudential has seen great success since launching in Guangzhou on 13 October 2000. It is the first Sino-British life insurance joint venture, and is already among the top five providers in the Guangzhou market in terms of new business. CITIC Prudential successfully followed this up with the launch of its second operation in Beijing in August 2003 and its third in Suzhou in September 2004.

CITIC Prudential Shanghai branch is expected to be open for business in the first quarter of 2005.
