PROXY STATEMENT

2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of ImmuCell Corporation (the Company), a Delaware corporation, of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, June 8, 2004 at the Embassy Suites Hotel, 1050 Westbrook Street, Portland, Maine, and any and all adjournments thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card are first being given or sent to shareholders on or about April 20, 2004. Shareholders who execute proxies may revoke them at any time before exercise thereof. See OTHER MATTERS, below.

VOTING SECURITIES OUTSTANDING

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on Thursday, April 15, 2004, the record date, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting of Shareholders and at any adjournment thereof. As of such date, there were 2,757,817 shares of common stock of the Company issued and outstanding. Each share is entitled to one vote with respect to all matters to be acted upon at the meeting. The holders of one-third of the Company's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, represented at the meeting in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Votes cast in person or by proxy at the meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of election approved for the meeting.

With regard to the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor or withheld; votes that are withheld from any nominee will not be counted in such nominee's favor, although they will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. The nominees for directors receiving a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of the common stock represented at the meeting in person or by proxy will be elected. This means that the six nominees receiving the largest number of votes cast will be elected.

Management has no reason to believe any nominees will be unavailable. Any vacancies that may occur during the year may be filled by the Board of Directors to serve until the next Annual Meeting.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors of the Company held four regular meetings and one special meeting during 2003. The committees of the Board of Directors are the Executive Committee, the Compensation and Stock Option Committee, the Audit Committee and the Nominating Committee. During the year ended December 31, 2003, each director attended at least 75 percent of the aggregate of (i) the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and (ii) the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board on which he served (during the periods that he served). Members of the Board will be elected at the first meeting of the Board following this year's Annual Meeting to serve on the various committees until the next Annual Meeting and until their successors are elected.

In the absence of actions by the full Board of Directors, the Executive Committee may exercise, with certain limitations, all of the powers of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Company. Its members are Messrs. Brigham, Cashen and Maxwell. The Executive Committee held four meetings during 2003.

The Board's Compensation and Stock Option Committee reviews and recommends salary, bonus and other benefits for executive officers of the Company and reviews and recommends new executive officer compensation or benefit plans or policies to the Board and is responsible for administering the Company's 1989 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, the 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan and the 2000 Stock Option Plan for Outside Directors. Its members are Messrs. Cashen, Maxwell, Rothschild and Sayare, all of whom are independent directors as defined in the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market. Mr. Cashen serves as chairman of the Committee. The Compensation and Stock Option Committee held one meeting during 2003.

The Board's Audit Committee engages the Company's independent auditors, consults with such auditors with regard to audit plans, reviews the annual reports of the independent auditors, oversees the adequacy of the Company's internal operating procedures and controls, meets with management and the auditors to review quarterly financial results, authorizes the public release of press releases covering financial results and oversees compliance with legal, ethical and regulatory matters. Its members are Messrs. Cashen, Maxwell and Sayare. Dr. Sayare serves as chairman of the Committee. The Company's Board of Directors has determined that Dr. Sayare is qualified to serve as an audit committee financial expert, as defined in the applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. All members of the Audit Committee are independent, as defined in the Nasdaq Stock Market listing standards. The Audit Committee held eight meetings during 2003. The Audit Committee Report can be found on page 5 of this Proxy Statement, and the Charter and Powers of the Audit Committee can be found in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The Board's Nominating Committee recommends to the full Board the number of directors to serve on the Board, the criteria for Board membership and nominees for election to the Board. The Nominating Committee considers the integrity and relevant business experience of any nominee to serve on the Board of Directors, and there are no differences in the manner in which the committee evaluates nominees for director based on whether the nominee is recommended by a shareholder. All nominees approved by the Nominating Committee for inclusion on this year's proxy card were recommended by the non-management directors serving on the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee's members are Mr. Cashen and Dr. Sayare. Dr. Sayare serves as chairman of the Committee. The Nominating Committee met once during 2003. The Nominating Committee will consider nominees for director recommended by shareholders as part of the Nominating Committee's periodic review of the size and composition of the Board. Such recommendations may be sent to the Nominating Committee through the Secretary of the Company. Under the Company's By-laws, shareholders intending to formally nominate a person for election as a director at the Annual Meeting itself, as distinguished from recommending a candidate to the Nominating Committee, must notify the Secretary of the Company in writing of this intent not less than 60 nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's Annual Meeting. If the date of the Annual Meeting is changed by more than 30 days from such anniversary date, the notice by the shareholder must be received not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the earlier of the day on which notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or public disclosure was made. Such notice must comply with the provisions set forth in the By-laws. A copy of the relevant provisions of the By-laws will be sent to any shareholder who requests it in writing. Such requests should be addressed to the Secretary of the Company. By unanimous agreement in December 2003, the Board of Directors resolved that the Nominating Committee shall be comprised of independent directors, as defined in the applicable listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market, and that all recommendations of directors to serve on the Board of Directors that are made by the Nominating Committee shall be approved by the Board of Directors. Each member of the Nominating Committee is an independent director, as so defined. The Nominating Committee operates within the authority provided by the Company's By-laws and resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors, but it does not have a written charter.

Officers of the Company who are also directors do not receive additional compensation for attendance at Board of Directors meetings or committee meetings. In accordance with the Company's By-laws, it has always been the Company's policy to reimburse the directors for out-of-pocket expenses, and effective July 1990, the Company adopted a policy to pay a per meeting fee of $750 to each non-employee director for his attendance and service at each regularly scheduled Board of Directors meeting. Effective June 1994, the Company increased this fee to $1,000 per regularly scheduled quarterly meeting. Effective June 2000, the Company also began paying an annual retainer fee of $2,000 (paid in advance in two semi-annual installments of $1,000 each) to compensate for time spent by directors on Company business outside of the regularly scheduled quarterly meeting dates. Beginning in 2002, the Board began to regularly meet two times per year in-person and two times per year by teleconference. At times when a director attends a part but not all of a meeting, the compensation is reduced proportionately. The meeting fee for in-person meetings is reduced by 50% for full participation by teleconference and is reduced by 75% for partial participation by teleconference. Occasionally, special meetings of the Board of Directors are called in addition to the regularly scheduled quarterly meetings, and generally no additional fee is paid to directors in connection with service at such special meetings. Messrs. Cashen, Maxwell and Sayare each received $6,000, and Mr. Rothschild received $5,000 during 2003 for their attendance and services at regular meetings of the Board of Directors and for the annual retainer fee.

In June 2000, the shareholders approved the 2000 Stock Option Plan for Outside Directors (the 2000 Plan) pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Under the 2000 Plan, each of the five, then-serving outside directors of the Company was automatically granted a non-qualified stock option to purchase 15,000 shares of common stock at its fair market value on the date the 2000 Plan was approved by the shareholders. Three of these outside directors are serving the Company currently. Directors who are newly elected to the Board subsequent to June 2000 receive an automatic grant of an option to purchase 15,000 shares, at the fair market value on the date when such directors are first elected to the Board by the shareholders. One such grant that was made in 2001 is currently outstanding. In each case, one-third of the options subject to the grant vest on the date that the director is first re-elected to the Board by the shareholders; an additional 5,000 options vest on the second date that the director is re-elected to the Board by the shareholders; and the remaining 5,000 options vest on the third date that the director is re-elected to the Board by the shareholders. There are 120,000 shares of common stock reserved for issuance under the 2000 Plan. All options granted under the 2000 Plan expire no later than five years from the date of grant. The 2000 Plan expires in June 2005, after which date no further options may be granted under the 2000 Plan; however, any outstanding options under the 2000 Plan may be exercised in accordance with their terms.

The last sales price of the Company's common stock on April 8, 2004 as reported by The Nasdaq SmallCap Market was $4.60.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board reviews the financial reporting process, the system of internal controls, the audit process and the process for monitoring compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The Audit Committee meets with the outside auditors before each quarterly press release of financial results and before the filing of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K. Each of the Audit Committee members satisfies the definition of independent director as defined in the Nasdaq Stock Market listing standards. The Board adopted its first written charter for the Audit Committee on February 17, 2000, which was attached to the Proxy Statement for the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders as Exhibit A. The Board adopted a revised Charter and Powers of the Audit Committee on January 12, 2004, which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A. The Company has a January 1 to December 31 fiscal year. The Audit Committee met eight times during the 2003 fiscal year.

The Audit Committee has reviewed the Company's audited consolidated financial statements and discussed such statements with management. The Audit Committee has discussed with Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC, the Company's independent auditors during the 2003 fiscal year, the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees, as amended).

The Audit Committee received from Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and discussed with them their independence. Based on the review and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 and be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Board of Directors of the Company engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the principal accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for each of the fiscal years from 1993 through 2002. The Board of Directors of the Company decided to change the Company's independent accountants effective April 1, 2003. On that date, the Board dismissed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and engaged Baker Newman & Noyes LLC as principal accountants to audit the Company's financial statements. In each case, the decision was recommended by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and then approved by the Board.

This report of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

INFORMATION CONCERNING AUDITORS

The Board of Directors of the Company engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the principal accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for each of the fiscal years from 1993 through 2002. The Board of Directors decided to change the Company's independent accountants effective April 1, 2003. On that date, the Board dismissed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and engaged Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC as principal accountants to audit the Company's financial statements. In each case, the decision was recommended by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and then approved by the Board. In February 2004, the Audit Committee engaged Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC as principal accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004, in accordance with the authority of the Audit Committee set forth in the revised Charter and Powers of the Audit Committee. A representative of Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting with an opportunity to make a statement if he desires to do so and is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's reports on the financial statements for the two years in the period ended December 31, 2002 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In addition, in connection with its audits for the two years in the period ended December 31, 2002 and through April 1, 2003, there were no disagreements with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope and procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, would have caused PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in their reports on the financial statements for such years.

Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC's report on the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In addition, in connection with its audit for the most recent fiscal year, there were no disagreements with Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope and procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC, would have caused Baker Newman & Noyes, LLC to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in their report on the financial statements for such year.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of common stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and greater than ten-percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the best of the Company's knowledge, based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, the Company's officers, directors and greater than ten-percent beneficial owners complied with all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements.

EXPENSES AND SOLICITATION

The cost of preparing, assembling, and mailing the proxy material and of reimbursing brokers, nominees and fiduciaries for the out-of-pocket and clerical expenses of transmitting copies of the proxy material to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons will be borne by the Company. Although the Company reserves the right to do so, the Company does not currently intend to solicit proxies otherwise than by use of the mail, but certain officers and regular employees of the Company, without additional compensation, may use their personal efforts, by telephone or otherwise, to obtain proxies. The proxy materials are being mailed to shareholders of record as of the record date on or about the close of business on April 20, 2004.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Proposals of shareholders of the Company intended to be presented at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must be received by the Company at its principal place of business no later than December 17, 2004 to be included in the Company's Proxy Statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting. Certified mail addressed to the Secretary of the Company is advised.

Additionally, after adjournment of the formal business matters at each year's Annual Meeting, there is an opportunity for shareholders to communicate directly with the Board of Directors. To the extent practicable, it is the Company's policy to have all directors attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All directors did attend the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

OTHER MATTERS

The management of the Company does not know of any matter not specifically referred to above as to which any action is expected to be taken at the meeting. However, if any matters other than those referred to above properly come before the meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote such proxy in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

All shares represented by proxies in the form enclosed herewith will be voted at the meeting and adjournments thereof in accordance with the terms of such proxies and the pertinent statements included herein relative to the exercise of the power granted by said proxies, provided such proxies appear to be valid and executed by shareholders of record entitled to vote there at and have not previously been revoked. A proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise by the filing with the Secretary of the Company of an instrument revoking such proxy or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. A shareholder's proxy will not be voted if the shareholder attends the meeting and elects to vote in person. Where the person solicited specifies in his proxy a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares will be voted in accordance with the specification so made. If a shareholder fails to so specify with respect to such proposals, the proxy will be voted FOR the election of the nominees listed in Item 1.
