Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

ABX Air, Inc. and Airborne, Inc., an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of DHL Holdings (USA), Inc., are parties to an ACMI Service Agreement, dated August 15, 2003. Under the Agreement, ABX Air provides air cargo transportation services to Airborne on a cost plus basis. The Agreement has a term of seven years. However, upon prior notice, Airborne can terminate specific aircraft, add to, delete or modify the air routes ABX Air operates for Airborne under the Agreement.

ABX Air and Airborne are also parties to a Hub and Line-Haul Services Agreement, dated August 15, 2003, pursuant to which ABX Air provides staff to conduct package handling, package sorting, warehousing, line-haul logistics services, as well as airport facilities and equipment maintenance services for Airborne, also on a cost plus basis.

On November 3, 2004, Airborne notified ABX Air that Airborne will be reducing the amount of air cargo transportation services that ABX Air is providing under the Agreement by twenty-six aircraft (sixteen DC-9s and ten DC-8s), affecting twenty-two scheduled air routes, by the end of 2005. Additional information regarding the termination of these aircraft can be found in ABX Air's press release under the caption "Plans for Reduced DHL Airlift Requirements in 2005", attached hereto as Exhibit 99.
