Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

(Unaudited)

Note 1 - Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirements for interim financial statements and, accordingly, they are condensed and omit disclosures, which would substantially duplicate those contained in the most recent annual report to shareholders. The financial statements as of September 30, 2004 and for the interim periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 are unaudited and, in the opinion of management, include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation. The financial information as of December 31, 2003 has been derived from the audited financial statements as of that date. For further information, refer to the financial statements and the notes included in First Reliance Bancshares, Inc.'s 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-KSB.

Note 2 - Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

No recent authoritative pronouncements that affect accounting, reporting, and disclosure of financial information by us have occurred during the quarter ending September 30, 2004, other than the items described below.

In November 2003, the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) reached a consensus that certain quantitative and qualitative disclosures should be required for debt and marketable equity securities classified as available for sale or held to maturity under SFAS No. 115 and SFAS No. 124 that are impaired at the balance sheet date but for which other-than-temporary impairment has not been recognized. Accordingly EITF issued EITF No. 03-1, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and Its Application to Certain Investments. This issue addresses the meaning of other-than-temporary impairment and its application to investments classified as either available for sale or held to maturity under SFAS No. 115 and provides guidance determining the amount of impairment and additional quantitative and qualitative disclosures. The guidance for determining the amount of impairment was scheduled to be effective for periods ending after June 15, 2004, but has been delayed indefinitely pending implementation guidance by the FASB. The disclosure provisions of EITF No. 03-1 were effective for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2003. Adopting the disclosure provisions of EITF No. 03-1 did not have any impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In March 2004, the FASB issued an exposure draft on Share-Based Payment . The proposed Statement addresses the accounting for transactions in which an enterprise receives employee services in exchange for (a) equity instruments of the enterprise or (b) liabilities that are based on the fair value of the enterprise's equity instruments or that may be settled by the issuance of such equity instruments. This proposed Statement would eliminate the ability to account for share-based compensation transactions using APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees , and generally would require instead that such transactions be accounted for using a fair-value-based method. This Statement, if approved, was scheduled to be effective for awards that are granted, modified, or settled in fiscal years beginning after a) December 15, 2004 for public entities and nonpublic entities that used the fair-value-based method of accounting under the original provisions of Statement 123 for recognition or pro forma disclosure purposes and b) December 15, 2005 for all other nonpublic entities. On October 16, 2004, the FASB delayed the effective date of this proposal by six months and anticipates it will be effective for by the third quarter of 2005. Retrospective application of this Statement is not permitted. The adoption of this Statement, if approved, could have an impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Other accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies that do not require adoption until a future date are not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements upon adoption.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

The following is a discussion of our financial condition as of September 30, 2004 compared to December 31, 2003, and the results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003. These comments should be read in conjunction with our condensed financial statements and accompanying footnotes appearing in this report.

Advisory Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

The statements contained in this report on Form 10-QSB that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements subject to the safe harbor created by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. We caution readers of this report that such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of us to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Although we believe that our expectations of future performance is based on reasonable assumptions within the bounds of our knowledge of our business and operations, there can be no assurance that actual results will not differ materially from our expectations.

Factors which could cause actual results to differ from expectations include, among other things:

the challenges, costs and complications associated with the continued development of our branches;

the potential that loan charge-offs may exceed the allowance for loan losses or that such allowance will be increased as a result of factors beyond the control of us;

our dependence on senior management; competition from existing financial institutions operating in our market areas as well as the entry into such areas of new competitors with greater resources, broader branch networks and more comprehensive services;

adverse conditions in the stock market, the public debt market, and other capital markets (including changes in interest rate conditions);

changes in deposit rates, the net interest margin, and funding sources;

inflation, interest rate, market, and monetary fluctuations;

risks inherent in making loans including repayment risks and value of collateral;

Edgar Filing: FIRST RELIANCE BANCSHARES INC - Form 10QSB

the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the local economies in which we conduct operations may be different than expected resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit, including the resultant effect on our loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses;

fluctuations in consumer spending and saving habits;

the demand for our products and services;

technological changes;

the challenges and uncertainties in the implementation of our expansion and development strategies;

the ability to increase market share;

the adequacy of expense projections and estimates of impairment loss;

the impact of changes in accounting policies by the Securities and Exchange Commission;

unanticipated regulatory or judicial proceedings;

the potential negative effects of future legislation affecting financial institutions (including without limitation laws concerning taxes, banking, securities, and insurance);

the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System;

the timely development and acceptance of products and services, including products and services offered through alternative delivery channels such as the Internet;

the impact on our business, as well as on the risks set forth above, of various domestic or international military or terrorist activities or conflicts;

other factors described in this report and in other reports we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission; and our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

Critical Accounting Policies

We have adopted various accounting policies which govern the application of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States in the preparation of our financial statements. Our significant accounting policies are described in the notes to the consolidated financial statements at December 31, 2003 as filed on our annual report on Form 10-KSB. Certain accounting policies involve significant judgments and assumptions by us which have a material impact on the carrying value of certain assets and liabilities. We consider these accounting policies to be critical accounting policies. The judgments and assumptions we use are based on the historical experience and other factors, which we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Because of the nature of the judgments and assumptions we make, actual results could differ from these judgments and estimates which could have a major impact on our carrying values of assets and liabilities and our results of operations.

We believe the allowance for loan losses is a critical accounting policy that requires the most significant judgments and estimates used in preparation of our consolidated financial statements. Refer to the portion of this discussion that addresses our allowance for loan losses for description of our processes and methodology for determining our allowance for loan losses.

Regulatory Matters

We are not aware of any current recommendations by regulatory authorities, which, if they were to be implemented, would have a material effect on liquidity, capital resources, or operations.

Results of Operations

Net Interest Income

For the nine months ended September 30, 2004, net interest income totaled $6,432,056, an increase of $2,073,420, or 47.57%, as compared to $4,358,636 for the nine months ended September 30, 2003. Total interest income for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 was $9,185,887, or 49.27% greater than the same period of the preceding year. The main component of interest income was generated from loans, including fees, which totaled $8,322,963 and $5,388,990 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively. This increase is a result of the significant growth in our loan portfolio as a result of our expansion into the Lexington market as well as continued growth in the Florence market. In addition, interest income on taxable securities totaled $537,239 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, an increase of $81,902 from the same period of the preceding year. This income was partially offset by interest expense on deposit accounts of $2,379,843 in 2004 and $1,611,185 in 2003. The net interest margin, which is net interest income divided by average earning assets, realized on earning assets was 4.11% and 3.43% for the nine month periods ending September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003, respectively, and the interest rate spread was 3.80% and 3.34% during the same periods.

Edgar Filing: FIRST RELIANCE BANCSHARES INC - Form 10QSB

For the three months ended September 30, 2004, net interest income increased $812,984 to $2,450,069, compared to $1,637,085 for the three months ended September 30, 2003. Total interest income for the three months ended September 30, 2004 was $3,575,957, or $1,304,548 greater than the same period of the preceding year. Interest income totaling $3,273,844 was generated from loans, including fees for the three months ended September 30, 2004, which is 60.31% higher than for the third quarter of 2003. This increase is a result of the significant growth in our loan portfolio as a result of our expansion into the Lexington market as well as continued growth in the Florence market. In addition, interest income on investment securities totaled $292,246 for the three months ended September 30, 2004 and $220,809 for the three months ended September 30, 2003. This income was partially offset by interest expense on deposit accounts of $999,588 for the period in 2004 and $559,156 in 2003. The interest rate environment had a significant impact on our interest earned on assets and the costs paid for liabilities.

Table of ContentsFIRST RELIANCE BANCSHARES, INC.*Item 2. Management's Discussion And Analysis or Plan of Operation - continued*Provision and Allowance for Loan Losses

The provision for loan losses is the charge to operating earnings that management feels is necessary to maintain the allowance for loan losses at an adequate level. For the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003, the provision for loan losses charged to expense was $846,762 and $541,067, respectively. For the three months ended September 30, 2004, the provision charged to expense was $368,500 as compared to $293,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2003. The allowance for loan losses was 1.18% of total loans at September 30, 2004 and was 1.22% of total loans as of September 30, 2003. There are risks inherent in making all loans, including risks with respect to the period of time over which loans may be repaid, risks resulting from changes in economic and industry conditions, risks inherent in dealing with individual borrowers, and, in the case of a collateralized loan, risks resulting from uncertainties about the future value of the collateral. The Bank maintains an allowance for loan losses based on, among other things, historical experience, an evaluation of economic conditions, and regular reviews of delinquencies and loan portfolio quality. Based on present information, management believes the allowance for loan losses is adequate at September 30, 2004 to meet presently known and inherent risks in the loan portfolio. Management's judgment about the adequacy of the allowance is based upon a number of assumptions about future events, which it believes to be reasonable, but which may not prove to be accurate. Thus, there is a risk that charge-offs in future periods could exceed the allowance for loan losses or that substantial additional increases in the allowance for loan losses could be required. Additions to the allowance for loan losses would result in a decrease of our net income and, possibly, the Bank's capital.

Noninterest Income

Noninterest income during the nine months ended September 30, 2004 was $1,787,517 as compared to $1,564,722 for the first nine months of 2003. The primary source of this income was from service charges on deposit accounts, which totaled $895,291 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, compared to $692,457 for the nine months ended September 30, 2003. Income from service charges increased as a result of the growth in deposits over the two periods. In addition, other charges, commissions and fees totaled $305,512 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, an increase of $155,655, or 103.88%, over the same period of the preceding year. The primary reason for this increase was $97,801 from income in the new bank-owned life insurance policies. Noninterest income during the three months ended September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003 was $663,227 and $521,843, respectively. The primary source of this income was from service charges on deposit accounts, which totaled $337,912 during the three months ended September 30, 2004. This represents an increase of $95,237 or 39.24%, over the $242,675 in service charges recognized during the third quarter of 2003. Increases in various sources of noninterest income was partially offset by decreases in residential mortgage origination fees due to fewer mortgage refinancings during 2004.

Noninterest Expense

Total noninterest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, was $5,946,322. Total noninterest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 was $4,365,425. The increase of $1,580,897 was primarily attributable to salaries and employee benefits, which comprised the largest portion of these expenses totaling $3,486,375 and $2,447,470 for the nine months ending September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively. The increase in salaries was primarily a result of the opening of our new branch office in Lexington, South Carolina, and an increase in full time equivalent employees between the two periods. In addition, other operating expenses totaled $1,736,941 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, as compared to $1,504,802 for the same period in 2003. Furniture and equipment expense increased $205,798 from $240,370 for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 to $446,168 for the same period in 2004. Other operating expenses and furniture and equipment expenses increased primarily as a result of the opening of our new branch office in Lexington, South Carolina.

Total noninterest expense for the three months ended September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003 was $2,120,188 and $1,576,513, respectively. Salaries and employee benefits totaled $1,253,052 for the three months ended September 30, 2004, an increase of 39.13% as compared to the same period in the prior year. In addition, other operating expenses totaled $612,568 and $495,054, respectively, for the three months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003. Furniture and equipment expenses totaled $145,146 and $100,339, respectively, for the three months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003. Increases in all categories of noninterest expense, over the two periods, is related to the opening of the new Lexington branch office and the overall growth of the Bank.

Income Taxes

The income tax provision for the nine months and three months ended September 30, 2004 was $424,808 and $189,298, respectively. The income tax provision for the nine months and three months ended September 30, 2003 was $279,187 and $75,511, respectively. The income tax provisions for 2004 were based on effective tax rates of 29.78% and 30.31% for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and for the three months ended September 30, 2004, respectively.

Net Income

The combination of the above factors resulted in net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003 of $1,001,681 and $737,679, respectively. The increase in net income is due to increases in both net interest income and noninterest income. The increase in volume of loans and decrease in cost of funds were the primary factors for the increased income. The combination of the above factors resulted in net income for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 and September 30, 2003 of $435,310 and $213,904, respectively.

Assets and Liabilities

Edgar Filing: FIRST RELIANCE BANCSHARES INC - Form 10QSB

During the first nine months of 2004, total assets increased $75,619,190, or 41.93%, when compared to December 31, 2003. The primary source of growth in assets was the increase of $67,961,775, or 48.76%, in loans receivable. Deposits increased $69,548,330, or 49.89%, to $208,963,281 as of September 30, 2004. The largest increase in deposits was in time deposits greater than $100,000, which increased $29,698,584, or 54.36%, to $84,332,588 at September 30, 2004. Advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank increased by $900,000 from December 31, 2003. These advances were used to fund our loan growth. The growth in assets and liabilities was partially attributable to the opening of our new Lexington branch in the second quarter of 2004.

Investment Securities

Investment securities totaled $30,071,645 at September 30, 2004, as compared to $28,743,992 at December 31, 2003. Investment securities totaling $28,955,920 were designated as available for sale. Nonmarketable equity securities totaled $1,115,725 at September 30, 2004.

Liquidity

Our liquidity needs are met through scheduled maturities of loans and investments on the asset side and through pricing policies on the liability side for interest-bearing deposit accounts and advances from Federal Home Loan Bank. The level of liquidity is measured by the loan-to-total funds ratio, which was at 89.41% at September 30, 2004 and 86.08% at December 31, 2003.

Securities available-for-sale, which totaled $28,955,920 at September 30, 2004, serve as a ready source of liquidity. We also have lines of credit available with correspondent banks to purchase federal funds for periods from one to seven days. At September 30, 2004, unused lines of credit totaled $26,000,000. Based on qualifying collateral reports filed on a quarterly basis with the Federal Home Loan Bank, we also have a line of credit to borrow funds from the Federal Home Loan Bank of up to $45,396,205 as of September 30, 2004. As of September 30, 2004, we had borrowed $20,000,000.

Capital Resources

Total shareholders' equity increased $4,766,037 to $22,468,676 at September 30, 2004. This increase is primarily the result of a stock offering completed during the third quarter which raised approximately $3,364,471 in capital and from net income of the period of $1,001,681. The additional capital will be used to fund our growth in the Lexington market and for other general corporate and operating purposes.

The Company is subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Bank to maintain minimum ratios of Tier 1 and total capital as a percentage of assets and off-balance-sheet exposures, adjusted for risk weights ranging from 0% to 100%. Tier 1 capital of the Company consists of common stockholders' equity, excluding the unrealized gain or loss on securities available-for-sale, minus certain intangible assets. The Company's Tier 2 capital consists of the allowance for loan losses subject to certain limitations. Total capital for purposes of computing the capital ratios consists of the sum of Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital. The regulatory minimum requirements are 4% for Tier 1 and 8% for total risk-based capital.

Off-Balance Sheet Risk

Through its operations, the Bank has made contractual commitments to extend credit in the ordinary course of its business activities. These commitments are legally binding agreements to lend money to the Bank's customers at predetermined interest rates for a specified period of time. At September 30, 2004, the Bank had issued commitments to extend credit of $27,022,000 and standby letters of credit of $428,000 through various types of commercial lending arrangements. Approximately $20,269,000 of these commitments to extend credit have variable rates.

The following table sets forth the length of time until maturity for unused commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit at September 30, 2004.
