GigaMedia Sells Land-Based Music Retail Business;

One-Time Gain Expected

TAIPEI, Taiwan, September 29, 2005 GigaMedia Limited ( GigaMedia or the Company ) (NASDAQ: GIGM) announced today the sale of all of its ownership interest in its land-based music distribution business to Nextbase International Limited, a company organized and existing under the laws of the British Virgin Islands.

The sale closed today and has immediate effect.

The total sale price for GigaMedia's stake was US$5.15 million. The Company expects to record a one-time gain related to the transaction which will be mostly offset by operating losses in the music distribution business in the third quarter, resulting in a small aggregate net income contribution to GigaMedia of approximately US$130 thousand during the period. The sale will also increase GigaMedia's cash and cash equivalent balances.

The music retail business was a legacy of the old Giga, a non-core operation, explained GigaMedia CEO Arthur Wang. The cornerstone of the new Giga is the high-growth online entertainment sector.

Disposal of the land-based music retail business will free management resources to accelerate core business growth and the pace of strategic acquisitions, stated CEO Wang.

GigaMedia acquired its 58.58% ownership in the music distribution business in 2002 as part of a diversification strategy of the old management team.
