ITEM 6.

CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF PLDT.

Item 6 is hereby supplemented to add the following at the end thereof:

The Co-Operation Agreement

As described under Item 4, the First Pacific Parties, NTT and DoCoMo entered into the Co-Operation Agreement to grant DoCoMo certain benefits and to amend the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement in connection with DoCoMo's proposed acquisition of the Common Shares.

1. Provisions of the Co-Operation Agreement Effective on the Date of the Co-Operation Agreement

(a) Permitted Transfer of the Common Shares

Any transfer of the Common Shares from NTT to DoCoMo (including the initial transfer of Common Shares from NTT to DoCoMo to which the Co-Operation Agreement is conditional) will be deemed to be a transfer to a Permitted Transferee (as defined in the Shareholders Agreement), and will not trigger First Pacific's right of first offer, or result in default or constitute ground for termination of the Shareholders Agreement or the Strategic Agreement.

DoCoMo and NTT have agreed that all the Common Shares held by DoCoMo and NTT as a result of the Transfer (as defined in the Shareholders Agreement) shall be subject to the covenants of the Shareholders Agreement and Strategic Agreement, as amended by the Co-Operation Agreement, that apply to NTT (including without limitation, First Pacific's right of first offer on disposal) as if DoCoMo were NTT and a party to such agreements.

(b) Alliance

PLDT will, to the extent of the power conferred by its direct or indirect shareholding in SMART, procure that SMART will not enter into: any contract, understanding or arrangement with any Person (as defined in the Strategic Agreement) (and its Affiliates (as defined in the Strategic Agreement)) carrying on a Competing Business (as defined in the Strategic Agreement) in Japan; or any material contract, understanding or arrangement with any Person (and its Affiliates) carrying on a Competing Business in the territories other than in Japan, relating to preferred roaming or the lowest inter operator tariff with any Person carrying on a Competing Business in Japan and its Affiliates for a period of six months from the date of the Co-Operation Agreement, without the prior written consent of DoCoMo.

2. Provisions of the Co-Operation Agreement Effective after the Effective Date (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement)

The remainder of the commercial provisions of the Co-Operation Agreement become effective only upon the Transfer by NTT to DoCoMo of full legal and beneficial title to Common Shares held as at the date of the Co-Operation Agreement by NTT amounting to not less than 12,633,486 Common Shares.

(a) Lock-up

The Co-Operation Agreement provides that prior to and including the third anniversary of the Effective Date, DoCoMo shall not without the prior written consent of the First Pacific Parties, and the First Pacific Parties shall not without the prior written consent of DoCoMo, Transfer, or create or permit to exist any Encumbrance (as defined in the Shareholders Agreement) on any of their respective Common Shares other than an Existing Encumbrance (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement) or Transfer as permitted under the Shareholders Agreement, subject to certain provisos set out in the Co-Operation Agreement whereby the lock-up will cease to apply.

(b) Restriction on Share Acquisitions

Each of NTT and DoCoMo has agreed and warranted to each of the First Pacific Parties that it shall not, and shall procure that its respective representatives, advisers, and Subsidiaries (as defined in the Shareholders Agreement) and Affiliates and their respective representatives and advisers shall not, directly or indirectly, acquire, seek to acquire or enter into any arrangement concerning the Common Shares which will or may result in NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates together holding, or having legal, beneficial or economic interests in Common Shares which represent in aggregate more than 21% of all Common Shares issued and outstanding from time to time, subject to certain provisos set out in the Co-Operation Agreement which allow the effect of share repurchases or capital returns that are conducted otherwise than on a pro-rata basis to be disregarded.

If NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates together hold more than 21% of all Common Shares issued and outstanding other than as a result of some unintentional act, the First Pacific Parties have the right to terminate forthwith their respective rights and obligations under the Co-Operation Agreement, the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement by written notice to each of PLDT, NTT and DoCoMo. If NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates together hold more than 21% of all Common Shares issued and outstanding as a result of some unintentional act, the First Pacific Parties have the right to terminate their respective rights and obligations under the Co-Operation Agreement, the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement by written notice to each of PLDT, NTT and DoCoMo only where the relevant parties have not, within 12 months, disposed of such number of Common Shares so as to together hold no more than 21% of all Common Shares issued and outstanding. These rights to terminate shall terminate only when certain rights and obligations of the parties terminate under the Co-Operation Agreement, the Strategic Agreement or the Shareholders Agreement; or when First Pacific and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates together hold or have legal, beneficial or economic interests in Common Shares which represent in aggregate less than 21% of all Common Shares issued and outstanding from time to time provided that (a) the right to terminate shall not terminate when such parties hold or have interests in Common Shares which represent in aggregate less than 21% but more than 18.5% and (b) such parties restore their aggregate holdings of Common Shares to such 21% level within 12 months of the date they first fall below 21%.

(c) Support

Each of NTT, DoCoMo and the First Pacific Parties have agreed and warranted that to the extent permissible under applicable laws and regulations of the Philippines and other jurisdictions, each of NTT, DoCoMo and the First Pacific Parties will cast its vote as a PLDT Shareholder (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement) for the purpose of safeguarding PLDT from a Hostile Transferee (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement and determined by the board of PLDT based on proper grounds, having regard to the interests of PLDT as a whole and the proper exercise by the directors of PLDT of their fiduciary duties), it being understood, however, that if in the reasonable determination of NTT, DoCoMo, or a First Pacific Party such action would or might violate any applicable law or regulation, then such party will not be bound by the support obligation set forth in the Co-Operation Agreement.

(d) Principle of Co-Operation, Exercise of Rights

After NTT has transferred to DoCoMo the full legal and beneficial title to Common Shares held as at the date of the Co-Operation Agreement amounting to the First Minimum Shareholding Threshold (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement), references in the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement to NTT Group shall be construed to be references to NTT and its Subsidiaries and DoCoMo and its Subsidiaries and references to an NTT Party shall be construed as references to NTT and its Permitted Transferees and DoCoMo and its Permitted Transferees, except as where otherwise provided for in the Co-Operation Agreement or where such a construction would produce an absurd result.

(e) Exercise of Rights by DoCoMo and NTT

In respect of any exercise of rights of NTT and DoCoMo set forth in certain provisions of the Co-Operation Agreement and certain provisions of the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement, NTT and DoCoMo shall discuss between themselves the manner in which such rights shall be exercised, whereupon the Acting Party (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement) shall give notice in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement to PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of the decision regarding the exercise of such rights.

Prior to July 1, 2006, NTT is responsible for notifying PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of decisions with respect to exercise of such rights to PLDT and the First Pacific Parties. From and after July 1, 2006, DoCoMo is responsible for notifying PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of such decisions. In each case, PLDT and the First Pacific Parties are entitled to rely on any such notice as if it had been given by both NTT and DoCoMo.

Edgar Filing: FIRST PACIFIC COMPANY LTD /FI - Form SC 13D/A

NTT and DoCoMo have also agreed that NTT will irrevocably assign to DoCoMo on July 1, 2006, all of NTT's rights to nominate and provide the COA (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement) pursuant to the Advisory Services Agreement (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement).

NTT and DoCoMo agree that DoCoMo shall be entitled to purchase all, or some only, of the Common Shares or PTIC Shares which may be purchased by NTT or DoCoMo pursuant to such agreements, and that if DoCoMo decides not to purchase some or all of such Common Shares, then NTT shall have the option to purchase some or all of the Common Shares or PTIC Shares not to be acquired by DoCoMo.

(f) Permitted Transfers of the Common Shares

In the event DoCoMo proposes to Transfer any Common Shares which would result in NTT and DoCoMo holding, in the aggregate, less than 10% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding, NTT shall have the right of first offer to purchase such Common Shares from DoCoMo on terms and conditions no less favourable to DoCoMo than those on which DoCoMo proposes to Transfer such Common Shares. Such right shall be superior to any right of first refusal which any of the First Pacific Parties may have in respect of such proposed Transfer under the Shareholders Agreement. Any Transfer from DoCoMo to NTT pursuant to the exercise by NTT of its rights in such circumstance, shall not give rise to a right of first offer by the First Pacific Parties under the Shareholders Agreement and shall be a Transfer to a Permitted Transferee.

(g) Board Appointments

In respect of NTT's right to nominate two directors to the board of PLDT pursuant to the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement, NTT and each of the First Pacific Parties shall, to the extent of the power conferred by the Common Shares owned, directly or indirectly, by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to procure a vote in favour of any resolution put to the meeting of PLDT Shareholders for the purpose of replacing one existing NTT nominee on the board of PLDT with one DoCoMo nominee.

Upon the holdings of the Common Shares by NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries reaching in aggregate 20% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding, and thereafter for so long as DoCoMo, NTT and their respective Subsidiaries in the aggregate continue to hold at least 17.5% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (with the permitted exception of where the holdings of Common Shares by NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries fall below 17.5% but are more than 15% of the Common Shares issued and outstanding and are restored to not less than 17.5% within 12 months), NTT and each of the First Pacific Parties shall, to the extent of the power conferred by the Common Shares owned, directly or indirectly, by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to procure a vote in favour of any resolution put to the meeting of PLDT Shareholders for the purpose of effecting the election of one additional DoCoMo nominee (who must be a Philippine national) as a director of PLDT, subject to certain provisos set forth in the Co-Operation Agreement.

In respect of NTT's right to nominate two directors to the board of SMART pursuant to the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement, NTT and each of the First Pacific Parties shall, to the extent of the power conferred by the Common Shares owned, directly or indirectly, by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to procure that PLDT casts its vote in favour of any resolution put to the meeting of SMART Shareholders (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement) for the purpose of replacing one existing NTT nominee on the board of SMART with one DoCoMo nominee (who must be a Philippine national).

Upon the holdings of the Common Shares by NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries reaching in aggregate 20% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding, and thereafter for so long as DoCoMo, NTT and their respective Subsidiaries in the aggregate continue to hold at least 17.5% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (with the permitted exception of where the holdings of Common Shares by NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries fall below 17.5% but are more than 15% of the Common Shares issued and outstanding and are restored to not less than 17.5% within 12 months), NTT and each of the First Pacific Parties shall, to the extent of the power conferred by the Common Shares owned by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to

This provision amends section 9.5 of the Strategic Agreement.

(b) Each of NTT, PLDT and each of the First Pacific Parties have agreed and warranted that it shall, to the extent of the power conferred by the Common Shares owned by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to procure that SMART does not (A) cease to carry on business, (B) dispose of all of its Assets (as defined in the Strategic Agreement), or any substantial part thereof, (C) issue Common Capital Stock (as defined in the Strategic Agreement) (including any securities convertible to Common Capital Stock), (D) merge or consolidate with or into any entity, or (E) promote or take any step to effect winding up or liquidation, without PLDT first consulting with DoCoMo no later than thirty days prior to the first submission to the board of PLDT or SMART, or SMART Mancom (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement) for approval for any such action. This provision amends clause 6 of the Shareholders Agreement.

(c) PLDT has agreed that, in the event PLDT seeks to transfer, and seeks to cause any member of the PLDT Group to transfer, any SMART Common Capital Stock to any Person who is not a member of the PLDT Group, PLDT will first consult with DoCoMo no later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the first submission to the board of PLDT, Joint Mancom or PLDT Mancom for approval for any such transfer. This provision amends section 11.2 of the Strategic Agreement.

These provisions in (j)(c)(i), (j)(c)(ii) and (j)(c)(iii) replace section 11.4 of the Strategic Agreement.

(k) Transitional Arrangements

NTT, DoCoMo and the First Pacific Parties have agreed that the COA, currently appointed by NTT, will be replaced by a DoCoMo nominee on or before July 1, 2006 and is currently a director of the board of PLDT, an observer at meetings for the board of SMART, and an advisor to each of SMART Mancom, PLDT Mancom and Joint Mancom. From the Effective Date, DoCoMo will have the right to appoint a senior technical advisor to SMART, and such advisor

(m) Termination

The Co-Operation Agreement, the Strategic Arrangements (as defined in the Strategic Agreement) and the Shareholders Agreement will terminate if NTT, DoCoMo or their respective Subsidiaries cease to own, in aggregate, full legal and beneficial title to at least 10% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (subject to a 60 days cure period as set out in the Co-Operation Agreement), or if the First Pacific Parties and their respective Subsidiaries cease to have effective voting power in respect to at least 18.5% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (subject to a 60 days cure period as set out in the Co-Operation Agreement). The provision relates Clauses 14(A) and 14(C) of the Shareholders Agreement.

The Amended Strategic Agreement

The Strategic Agreement was amended by the Co-Operation Agreement, and the following summarizes certain of the principal terms of the Strategic Agreement, as amended by the Co-Operation Agreement.

1. Strategic Relationship

PLDT, NTT and DoCoMo have agreed to form a strategic relationship in the Philippines and, among other things, to establish a joint committee to explore the development and marketing of products and services between the parties. PLDT has agreed not to designate or refer to any other person as its strategic partner without the consent of NTT and DoCoMo, provided that PLDT may, subject to certain exceptions, designate as its strategic partner any person in which PLDT and its subsidiaries own 25% or more of its capital stock.

2. Limitations on Competition by NTT and DoCoMo

Without PLDT's consent, NTT, DoCoMo or their respective Subsidiaries may not invest in a business competing with PLDT in respect of PLDT customers principally located in the Philippines if such investment, when added to all prior investments by NTT and its majority owned and controlled subsidiaries (the NTT Holding Company Group) in such business, is in excess of US$50 million (subject to certain adjustments for inflation) or if such investment, when added to all prior investments by NTT and its Subsidiaries in all such businesses for the past 12 months, is in excess of US$100 million (subject to certain adjustments for inflation). Similar limitations exist with respect to NTT's and DoCoMo's use of assets in the Philippines in such businesses.

3. Committee Structure

PLDT has agreed to maintain the Committee structure defined in Schedule 10 of the Strategic Agreement and to provide that the relevant parties thereto will use reasonable efforts to procure that DoCoMo be entitled to appoint one individual to attend any Committee of PLDT or SMART as a member, advisor or observer to the extent permitted under applicable laws, regulations and company articles; for the avoidance of doubt, DoCoMo shall have the right to terminate such appointment and/or replace the individual at any time.

4. Certain Approval Rights of NTT and DoCoMo

(a) Capital Expenditures

Subject to certain exceptions, PLDT and/or its Subsidiaries may make or agree to make any capital expenditures in connection with a project if the total capital expenditures required for such project will or will likely exceed US$50 million (subject to certain adjustments for inflation), in each case only pursuant to the approval procedures described in paragraph (f) below and with the written approval of NTT or DoCoMo, given in the manner described in paragraph (f) below.

(b) Investment in Existing Investees

Subject to certain exceptions, PLDT and/or its Subsidiaries may make any investments in or provide certain forms of financial support to any existing investee of PLDT, if the cumulative value of all investments by PLDT and its Subsidiaries would exceed the sum of US$10 million (subject to certain adjustments for inflation), plus the aggregate book value of all investments made in such existing investee by PLDT and its Subsidiaries as of July 31, 1999, or to any existing investee, if, for the past 12-month period, the cumulative value of all investments by PLDT and its Subsidiaries would exceed US$25 million (subject to certain adjustments for inflation), in each case only pursuant to the approval procedures described in paragraph (f) below and with the written approval of NTT or DoCoMo, given in the manner described in paragraph (f) below.

(d) Exception for Capital Expenditures for or Investments in a NTT Competing Business

Edgar Filing: FIRST PACIFIC COMPANY LTD /FI - Form SC 13D/A

Neither NTT nor DoCoMo may withhold its consent to any proposed capital expenditure or investment if (A) such proposed transaction would involve a person who is in direct competition for the same business opportunities with the NTT Holding Company Group (as defined herein), or involve a business in which the NTT Holding Company Group is, or is to be, engaged in, and (B) the board of directors of PLDT confirms in writing that proceeding with such transaction will not give rise to a right to accelerate or otherwise demand payment of material indebtedness of PLDT.

(e) Limitation on Competition Where Consent is Withheld

In the event NTT or DoCoMo withholds their approval in connection with PLDT's proposed expenditure or investment, none of NTT or its Subsidiaries may make a similar or competing investment for a period of nine months following notification by NTT or DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries of their decision to withhold such approval.

(f) Approval Procedures

PLDT, First Pacific Parties, NTT and DoCoMo have agreed in the Strategic Agreement to certain discussion and written notification procedures in connection with the approval process by NTT or DoCoMo in respect of the above-mentioned proposed expenditures or investments (each, a Proposed Transaction). Such procedures require, among other things, that NTT or DoCoMo give its approval to a Proposed Transaction unless it reasonably concludes in good faith, having given proper consideration to all material factors identified by PLDT, the best interests of PLDT and its shareholders taken as a whole, and all other facts and circumstances that NTT or DoCoMo deems relevant in making such decision, that the Proposed Transaction is not in the best interests of PLDT and its shareholders taken as a whole. NTT and DoCoMo have agreed in the Co-Operation Agreement to discuss between themselves the manner in which the above rights shall be exercised.

In the event of any dispute between PLDT, the members of the First Pacific Parties, NTT and DoCoMo regarding whether NTT or DoCoMo has acted in accordance with the above standard in withholding its consent to any Proposed Transaction, NTT or DoCoMo shall be deemed for all purposes to have complied with the terms of the Strategic Agreement and not to have breached said agreement in withholding such approval, unless PLDT shows, by clear and convincing proof, that NTT or DoCoMo did not act in accordance with the agreed standards in withholding its approval of such Proposed Transaction.

Under the Co-Operation Agreement, NTT and DoCoMo have agreed to discuss between themselves the manner in which their rights will be exercised. Prior to July 1, 2006, NTT is responsible for notifying PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of decisions with respect to exercise of such rights. From and after July 1, 2006, DoCoMo is responsible for notifying PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of such decisions. In each case, PLDT and the First Pacific Parties are entitled to rely on any such notice as if it had been given by both NTT and DoCoMo.

5. Approval Rights Relating to Piltel

The Strategic Agreement provides that prior written approval of NTT and DoCoMo is required with respect to certain corporate actions relating to Piltel, including matters relating to the integration of Piltel into the businesses of PLDT and its Subsidiaries (the Piltel Integration). The Piltel Integration has been substantially completed.

In addition, prior written approval of NTT and DoCoMo is required in connection with various corporate and business actions of Piltel to the extent such actions would be outside the Piltel Integration, including actions relating to any refinancing of Piltel's debt or any additional investment in Piltel in excess of an agreed threshold, changes to Piltel's capital stock, capital expenditures, certain intercompany agreements and transactions, migration of Piltel customers to PLDT or its Subsidiaries, marketing and material asset dispositions.

The Strategic Agreement also provides that, except for certain agreed-to parameters relating to the Piltel Integration, prior written approval of NTT or DoCoMo is required for (i) Piltel or PLDT to issue, redeem, consolidate or split or otherwise reclassify or amend the terms of any capital stock of Piltel, (ii) PLDT and its Subsidiaries (other than Piltel) shall not make any capital expenditure for any asset to be used in the Piltel business, (iii) PLDT and its Subsidiaries (other than Piltel) shall not enter into any agreement with Piltel or Piltel's subsidiaries, other than arms-length transactions in the ordinary course of business, (iv) PLDT and its Subsidiaries (other than Piltel) shall not seek to effect the migration of Piltel customers to PLDT or any of PLDT's Subsidiaries or market/or sell any product or service which depends in any material respect upon the use of assets owned or operated by Piltel or any of Piltel's subsidiaries, and (v) PLDT shall cause Piltel and Piltel's Subsidiaries not to make any material asset disposition.

Edgar Filing: FIRST PACIFIC COMPANY LTD /FI - Form SC 13D/A

Under the Co-Operation Agreement, NTT and DoCoMo have agreed to discuss between themselves the manner in which their rights will be exercised. Prior to July 1, 2006, NTT is responsible for notifying PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of decisions with respect to exercise of such rights to PLDT and the First Pacific Parties. From and after July 1, 2006, DoCoMo is responsible for notifying PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of such decisions. In each case, PLDT and the First Pacific Parties are entitled to rely on any such notice as if it had been given by both NTT and DoCoMo.

6. Limitations on the Issuance of Common Capital Stock

Subject to certain exceptions, under the terms of the Strategic Agreement, PLDT may not issue Common Shares or securities convertible into or exchangeable for the Common Shares without the prior written approval of NTT and DoCoMo unless PLDT has first offered NTT and DoCoMo the right to purchase a number of shares equal to its pro-rata portion of the number of shares proposed to be issued. By operation of Philippine law, holders of the Common Shares will, with certain exceptions, have preemptive rights with respect to issuances of new Common Shares, including issuances of the Common Shares to NTT and DoCoMo pursuant to any exercise by NTT and DoCoMo of the rights referred to above.

Under the Co-Operation Agreement, NTT and DoCoMo have agreed to discuss between themselves the manner in which their rights will be exercised. Prior to July 1, 2006, NTT is responsible for notifying PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of decisions with respect to exercise of such rights. From and after July 1, 2006, DoCoMo is responsible for notifying PLDT and the First Pacific Parties of such decisions. In each case, PLDT and the First Pacific Parties are entitled to rely on any such notice as if it had been given by both NTT and DoCoMo. With respect to NTT and DoCoMo's pre-emptive rights, DoCoMo will be entitled to purchase all, or some, of the Common Shares or PTIC Shares which may be purchased by NTT or DoCoMo, however, if DoCoMo decides not to purchase some or all of the Common Shares or PTIC Shares, NTT and DoCoMo have agreed that NTT shall have the option to purchase some or all of the Common Shares or PTIC Shares.

7. Termination of Approval Rights

The Strategic Arrangements will terminate if NTT, DoCoMo or their respective Subsidiaries cease to own, in aggregate, full legal and beneficial title to at least 10% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (subject to a 60 days cure period as set out in the Co-Operation Agreement), or if the First Pacific Parties and their respective Subsidiaries cease to have effective voting power in respect to at least 18.5% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (subject to a 60 days cure period as set out in the Co-Operation Agreement).

8. Competing Business in Japan

In case PLDT intends to enter into any contractual arrangement with any Person relating to the operation of a Competing Business in Japan involving joint branding, the provision, production or marketing of telecommunications or multimedia products or services, or cooperation in, or sharing of, research and development of technology or other Intellectual Property, PLDT will (a) from the date of the Co-Operation Agreement until June 30, 2006, first provide NTT and if NTT declines, then provide DoCoMo with the same opportunity to enter into such agreement with PLDT upon the same terms being considered by PLDT; and (b) from July 1, 2006, first provide DoCoMo and if DoCoMo declines, then provide NTT with the same opportunity to enter into such agreement with PLDT upon the same terms being considered by PLDT, provided always that PLDT will not be under any obligation to contract with NTT and/or DoCoMo with respect to any such Competing Business in Japan if, in the reasonable opinion of PLDT disclosed to NTT and/or DoCoMo (as the case may be) in reasonable detail, it will not fully realize its expected benefits under such arrangement by contracting with NTT or DoCoMo or it is necessary for PLDT to maintain a relationship with a Person other than NTT or DoCoMo pursuant to reasonable business arrangements in furtherance of PLDT's strategic objectives from time to time.

In case PLDT, SMART or SMART's Subsidiaries intends to enter into any contractual arrangement on or after July 1, 2006 with any person who is engaged in a Competing Business in competition with DoCoMo (as assessed having regard to DoCoMo's then existing business) and who has been notified as such to PLDT in writing by DoCoMo, in relation to the operation of a Competing Business in the Philippines, and involving joint branding, the provision, production or marketing of telecommunications or multimedia products or services, or cooperation in, or sharing of, research and development of technology or other Intellectual Property, PLDT will, or PLDT shall use its reasonable efforts to procure that SMART or its Subsidiaries will, first provide DoCoMo with the same opportunity to enter into such agreement with PLDT, SMART or SMART's Subsidiaries, as the case may be; provided that PLDT will not be under any obligation to contract with, or to cause SMART or SMART's Subsidiaries to contract, with DoCoMo with respect to any such Competing Business in the Philippines if, in the reasonable opinion of PLDT disclosed to NTT and/or DoCoMo (as the case may be) in reasonable detail, (a) it will not fully realize its expected benefits under such arrangement by contracting with DoCoMo or, (b) it is necessary for PLDT to maintain a relationship with a Person other than NTT or DoCoMo pursuant to reasonable business arrangements in furtherance of PLDT's strategic objectives from time to time or (c) the board of PLDT, SMART or SMART's Subsidiaries, as the case may be, determines that to be in the best interests of its company to enter into such arrangements with a Person other than DoCoMo.

Each of DoCoMo and PLDT have agreed that it will, from time to time, discuss with the other strategic developments in their respective businesses, with a view to identifying opportunities for mutually beneficial future arrangements between DoCoMo, the PLDT Group and each of their respective Affiliates.

The Amended Shareholders Agreement

The Shareholders Agreement was amended by the Co-Operation Agreement, and the following summarizes certain of the principal terms of the Shareholders Agreement as amended by the Co-Operation Agreement.

Common Shares owned, directly or indirectly, by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to procure a vote in favour of any resolution put to the meeting of PLDT Shareholders for the purpose of effecting the election of one additional DoCoMo nominee (who must be a Philippine national) as a director of PLDT, subject to certain provisos set forth in the Co-Operation Agreement.

In respect of NTT's right to nominate two directors to the board of SMART pursuant to the Shareholders Agreement and the Strategic Agreement, NTT and each of the First Pacific Parties shall, to the extent of the power conferred by the Common Shares owned, directly or indirectly, by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to procure that PLDT casts its vote in favour of any resolution put to the meeting of SMART Shareholders (as defined in the Co-Operation Agreement) for the purpose of replacing one existing NTT nominee on the board of SMART with one DoCoMo nominee (who must be a Philippine national).

Upon the holdings of the Common Shares by NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries reaching in aggregate 20% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding, and thereafter for so long as DoCoMo, NTT and their respective Subsidiaries in the aggregate continue to hold at least 17.5% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (with the permitted exception of where the holdings of Common Shares by NTT, DoCoMo and their respective Subsidiaries fall below 17.5% but are more than 15% of the Common Shares issued and outstanding and are restored to not less than 17.5% within 12 months), NTT and each of the First Pacific Parties shall, to the extent of the power conferred by the Common Shares owned by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to procure a vote in favour of any resolution put to the meeting of PLDT Shareholders for the purpose of effecting the election of one additional DoCoMo nominee (who must be a Philippines national) as a director of SMART subject to certain provisos set forth in the Co-Operation Agreement.

2. Committees and Subsidiary Committees

Clause 5 of the Shareholders Agreement is amended to provide that the relevant parties thereto will use reasonable efforts to procure that DoCoMo to be entitled to appoint one individual to attend any Committee (as defined in the Shareholders Agreement) of PLDT or SMART as a member, advisor or observer to the extent permitted under applicable laws, regulations and company articles; for the avoidance of doubt, DoCoMo shall have the right to terminate such appointment and/or replace the individual at any time.

3. Reserved Matters (Voting)

Clause 6 of the Shareholders Agreement be amended to provide additionally that each of NTT, PLDT and each of the First Pacific Parties severally agrees and warrants to DoCoMo that, it shall, to the extent of the power conferred by the Common Shares owned by it from time to time and to the extent permissible under Philippines laws or regulations: (i) cast (or refrain from casting as appropriate) its votes as a PLDT Shareholder; (ii) lobby (as a PLDT Shareholder) the directors of PLDT; and (iii) otherwise use its reasonable efforts as a PLDT Shareholder, to procure that SMART does not (a) cease to carry on its business, (b) dispose of all its Assets, or any substantial part thereof, (c) issue any Common Capital Stock (including any securities convertible to Common Capital Stock), (d) merge or consolidate with or into any entity, or (e) promote or take any step to effect winding up or liquidation, without PLDT first consulting with DoCoMo no later than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the first submission to the board of PLDT or SMART, or SMART Mancom for approval for any such action.

4. Restrictions on Transfers of the Common Shares and PTIC Shares

A Shareholder Party (as defined in the Shareholders Agreement) and DoCoMo may transfer its Common Shares that are subject to the Shareholders Agreement only after offering to sell such Shares to the non-disposing Shareholder Party or with the prior written consent of the other Shareholder Party. Shareholder Parties and DoCoMo may encumber their Common Shares provided that such encumbering Shareholder Party or DoCoMo provides certain information regarding the encumbrance to the non-encumbering Shareholder Party or DoCoMo. Similar restrictions apply to PTIC Shares.

Edgar Filing: FIRST PACIFIC COMPANY LTD /FI - Form SC 13D/A

Notwithstanding the foregoing, transfer of NTT's remaining Common Shares to any person after Transfer of the initial Common Shares to DoCoMo as provided for in the Co-Operation Agreement is subject to a superior right of first offer granted to DoCoMo, subject to the limitations on share acquisitions described in the Co-Operation Agreement.

In the event DoCoMo proposes to transfer any Common Shares which would result in NTT and DoCoMo holding, in the aggregate, less than 10% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding, then NTT shall have a right of first offer to purchase such Common Shares from DoCoMo on terms and conditions no less favorable to DoCoMo than those on which DoCoMo proposes to transfer such Common Shares. Such right shall be superior to any right of first refusal which any of the First Pacific Parties may have in respect of such proposed transfer under the Shareholders Agreement. Any such transfer from DoCoMo to NTT pursuant to the exercise by NTT of this right will not give rise to a right of first offer by the First Pacific Parties under the Shareholder Agreement and shall constitute a transfer to a Permitted Transferee.

Pursuant to the Co-Operation Agreement, NTT and DoCoMo have agreed that within the time periods provided for giving a Preemption Reply, both parties will consult with each other regarding the exercise of the relevant rights. DoCoMo will be entitled to purchase all, or some, of the Common Shares or PTIC Shares which may be purchased from a Shareholder Party, however, if DoCoMo decides not to purchase some or all of the Common Shares or PTIC Shares, NTT and DoCoMo have agreed that NTT shall have the option to purchase some or all of the Common Shares or PTIC Shares.

5. Termination

The Shareholders Agreement will terminate if NTT, DoCoMo or their respective Subsidiaries cease to own, in aggregate, full legal and beneficial title to at least 10% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (subject to a 60 days cure period as set out in the Co-Operation Agreement), or if the First Pacific Parties and their respective subsidiaries cease to have effective voting power in respect to at least 18.5% of the Common Shares then issued and outstanding (subject to a 60 days cure period as set out in the Co-Operation Agreement).
