PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING AND PROXY SOLICITATION INFORMATION

This proxy statement is first being sent to stockholders on or about July 7, 2006, in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Q.E.P. Co., Inc. (the Company), to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on July 27, 2006, and at any adjournment thereof (the Meeting). The close of business on June 27, 2006 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. At the close of business on the record date, the Company had outstanding 3,465,788 shares of $0.001 par value Common Stock (Common Stock), all of which are entitled to one vote per share at the Meeting.

Shares represented by duly executed proxies in the accompanying form received by the Company prior to the Meeting will be voted at the Meeting. If stockholders specify in the proxy a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted as specified. If a proxy card is signed and returned without specifying a vote or an abstention on any proposal, it will be voted according to the recommendation of the Board of Directors on that proposal. The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the election of directors; and FOR the ratification of the appointment of the independent certified public accountants. The Board of Directors knows of no other matters that may be brought before the Meeting. However, if any other matters are properly presented for action, it is the intention of the named proxies to vote on them according to their best judgment.

Stockholders who hold their shares through an intermediary must provide instructions on voting as requested by their bank or broker. A stockholder who signs and returns a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by taking one of the following three actions: (i) voting in person at the Meeting; (ii) giving written notice of the revocation to the Secretary of the Company; or (iii) executing and delivering a proxy with a later date, provided that no revocation will be effective until written notice of the revocation is received by the Company at or prior to the Meeting.

A majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting. The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting is required to approve all matters to be voted upon at the Meeting, except for the election of directors, which shall be determined by plurality vote. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Meeting will be tabulated by one or more inspectors of election, appointed at the Meeting, who will also determine whether a quorum is present for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as shares present in the determination of whether shares of the Company's Common Stock represented at the Meeting constitute a quorum. With respect to all matters to be voted upon at the meeting, abstentions will be treated as votes AGAINST and broker non-votes will not be counted for the purpose of determining whether a proposal has been approved.

The expense of preparing, printing, and mailing proxy materials to stockholders of the Company will be borne by the Company. In addition to the use of mail, employees of the Company may solicit proxies personally and by telephone. The Company's employees will receive no compensation for soliciting proxies other than their regular salaries. The Company will also reimburse brokerage houses and other nominees for their expenses in forwarding proxy material to beneficial owners of the Company's stock.

The executive office of the Company is located at 1001 Broken Sound Parkway, Suite A, Boca Raton, Florida 33487 and the telephone number is (561) 994-5550.

The Board of Directors and its Committees

During the fiscal year ended February 28, 2006, the Company's Board of Directors held four meetings. Each of the Company's directors attended at least 75% of the total number of Board meetings and meetings of committees of which he is a member that were held during fiscal year 2006. In addition to attending meetings, directors discharge their responsibilities through review of Company reports to directors, correspondence, and telephone conferences with the Company's executive officers, employees and others regarding matters of interest to the Company. The Board of Directors determined that Christian Nast, Geary Cotton, and Emil Vogel are independent directors as defined by Nasdaq listing requirements. The Company believes that each of Laura M. Holm, David W. Kreilein, and Robert W. Muir, Jr. would also be independent under NASDAQ listing requirements. The Board of Directors has standing audit, compensation, nominating and governance committees.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee currently consists of Christian Nast, Emil Vogel and Geary Cotton, each of whom is a non-employee director of the Company and each of whom is independent under Nasdaq listing standards. In accordance with the applicable Nasdaq rules, all Audit Committee members are able to read and understand financial statements. The Board of Directors has determined that Geary Cotton, Chairman of the Audit Committee, is an audit committee financial expert as defined by Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K of the Exchange Act and he is independent under Nasdaq listing standards. Pursuant to the revised Audit Committee charter adopted in October 2002, as amended in May 2004, the duties of the Audit Committee are, among others, to select, retain, and evaluate the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, to review and approve in advance all related party transactions, to meet with the Company's independent registered public accountants to review the scope of audit procedures employed by the Company's independent registered auditors, to review and approve the audit reports rendered by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, to review and discuss all factors and relationships affecting the independence of the independent registered public accountants and to approve the audit fee and all permissible non-audit services performed by the accountants. During fiscal 2006, the Audit Committee met six times, and the Chairman of the Audit Committee held several meetings with management and the Company's independent registered public accountants.

Management is responsible for the Company's financial reporting process and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and the independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring and reviewing these processes, not to conduct auditing or accounting reviews and procedures. Members of the Audit Committee are not required to be accountants or auditors by profession. The Committee's considerations and discussions with management and the independent registered auditors do not assure that the Company's financial statements are presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America or that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

Audit Committee Report

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities during fiscal 2006, the Audit Committee reviewed the financial statements included in the quarterly filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on Form 10-Q and the audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K of the Company with management, including a discussion of the quality and acceptability of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of the footnote disclosures contained in, or used in the compilation of, the financial statements of the Company.

The Audit Committee has discussed with the Company's independent registered auditors the overall scope and plans for the audit, the results of such audit, Grant Thornton's evaluation of the Company's internal controls and the quality of the financial reporting practices of the Company. The Audit Committee also reviewed with the independent registered auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the Company's audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, their judgments as to the quality and acceptability of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters required to be discussed under general auditing standards, including Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. Additionally, the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent registered auditors the auditors' independence from management and has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered auditors as required by the Independence Standards Board, Standard No. 1.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above and when considering whether the level of non-audit services provided by Grant Thornton LLP is consistent with the maintenance of its independence, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements of the Company be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2006 for filing with the SEC. The Board of Directors of the Company has approved such recommendation.

The foregoing has been furnished by the Audit Committee:

Geary Cotton, Chairman
Christian Nast
Emil Vogel

This section is not Soliciting Material, is not deemed filed with the SEC and is not to be incorporated by reference in any filing of the Company under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, whether made before or after the date hereof and irrespective of any general incorporation language in any such filing.

Compensation of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Company incurred the following fees, including expenses billed to the Company, for the fiscal years ended February 28, 2006 and February 29, 2005 by Grant Thornton LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm:

Audit Fees Fees for the fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2005 audits and reviews of the Company's annual financial statements and interim financial statements, including statutory audits that were required internationally, were approximately $451,029 and $422,500, respectively.

Audit Related Fees Fees for the fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2005 audit of the Company's 401(k) Plan were approximately $17,850 and $15,000, respectively.

Tax Fees Fees for fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2005 tax return preparation and tax compliance services were $42,328 and 39,800, respectively.

All Other Fees Aggregate fees for all other services rendered by Grant Thornton LLP for fiscal 2006 and fiscal 2005 were approximately $0 and $6,200, respectively.

The Audit Committee has not adopted a pre-approval policy and considers and approves services provided by Grant Thornton LLP on a case by case basis. All fees during fiscal 2006 for non-audit services were approved by the Company's Audit Committee.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Christian Nast, Emil Vogel, and Geary Cotton, each of whom is a non-employee director of the Company and each of whom is independent under Nasdaq listing standards. The Compensation Committee does have a written charter and a current copy of such charter is available to Stockholders on the Company's website, www.qep.com. The purpose of the Compensation

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form DEF 14A

Committee is to recommend to the Board both base salary levels and bonuses for the Chief Executive Officer and the other officers of the Company. The Compensation Committee also reviews and makes recommendations with respect to the Company's existing and proposed compensation plans, and serves as the committee responsible for awarding grants to employees of options under the Company's Omnibus Stock Plan of 1996. During fiscal 2006, the Compensation Committee met once to determine the salary and discuss the bonuses of the Company's executive officers. See Board Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation.

Compensation of Directors

During fiscal 2006, each non-employee director was paid a retainer fee of $12,000 each, and $1,200 for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, $2,000 for attendance at each Audit Committee meeting, $1,500 for attendance at each Compensation Committee meeting and $3,000 for attendance at each Governance Committee meeting. In addition, all non-employee directors are granted 15,000 stock options annually on the date of the Annual Stockholders Meeting. Although the directors have the option to receive their fees in cash or an amount of shares of Company common stock based on the fair value of such stock on the date of each meeting, during fiscal 2006, the directors received only cash. The directors are also reimbursed for reasonable travel or other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attending such meetings. No employee of the Company received any additional compensation for his service as a director.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee currently consists of Christian Nast and Emil Vogel, each of whom is a non-employee director of the Company and each of whom is independent under Nasdaq listing standards. The Nominating Committee does have a written charter and a current copy of such charter is available to stockholders on the Company's website, www.qep.com. The Nominating Committee does not have a formal policy with regard to the consideration of director candidates recommended by stockholders. Because of the historical small turnover of the Company's directors, the Company addresses the need to retain members and fill vacancies after discussion among current members of the Nominating Committee, the Board of Directors and the Company's management. Stockholders may nominate director candidates by complying with certain specific procedural and informational requirements set forth in the Company's Bylaws. The Nominating Committee employs general guidelines rather than adhering to strict requirements in selecting director candidates. In accordance with such guidelines the Nominating Committee gives consideration to prospective nominees who, among other things will bring to the Board of Directors a variety of experiences and backgrounds; will help to form a central core of business executives with substantial senior management experience, financial expertise, and such other skills that would enhance the Board of Directors' effectiveness; and will represent the balanced, best interests of the Company's stockholders as a whole and the interests of the Company's other stakeholders, including customers, employees, and vendors. Furthermore, to the extent possible and appropriate, the Nominating Committee aspires to confirm that each prospective nominee is an individual of high character and integrity who has the ability to work well with others; possesses substantial and significant experience which would be of value to the Company in the performance of the duties of a director; and has sufficient time available to devote to the affairs of the Company in order to carry out the responsibilities of a director.

Governance Committee

The Governance Committee currently consists of Lewis Gould, Christian Nast, Emil Vogel and Geary Cotton. The Governance Committee has a written charter. The purpose of the Governance Committee is to develop, implement, and oversee procedures for evaluating the Company's Board of Directors, the various committees of the Board, and the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and to provide analysis and advice to the Company regarding its policies, procedures, long-term planning and strategic goals. The Governance Committee met three times during fiscal 2006.

Communication With the Board of Directors and Director Attendance at Annual Meetings

Directors are expected to fulfill their fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders, including preparing for and attending meetings of the Board of Directors and the committees of which the directors are a member. The Company does not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at annual meetings. Nevertheless, directors are encouraged to attend. All members of the Company's Board of Directors attended the 2005 Annual Meeting.

Stockholders may communicate with the Board of Directors by writing to the Chairman of the Board of the Company, care of the Board of Directors (or at the stockholder's option, care of a specific director), at 1001 Broken Sound Parkway, Suite A, Boca Raton, Florida 33487. The Company will ensure that all communications to the Board of Directors or any particular director (properly marked and addressed as set forth above) will be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors or a specified director, as the case may be.

Code of Ethics

The Board of Directors adopted a Code of Ethics for senior financial officers of the Company in fiscal 2004. It applies to the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Controller, and to each of the Finance Directors of the Company's subsidiaries. The Code of Ethics is designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote honest and ethical conduct, full and accurate disclosure in periodic reports, and compliance with laws and regulations by the Company's senior officers who have financial responsibilities. A copy of the Code of Ethics was filed with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ending February 29, 2004, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 27, 2004. The Company will provide a copy of the policy in print without charge to any stockholder who makes a written request to: Corporate Secretary, Q.E.P. Co., Inc., 1001 Broken Sound Parkway, Suite A, Boca Raton, Florida 33487.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors, executive officers and persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of the outstanding common stock of the Company (Ten Percent Owners) to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company's directors, executive officers and Ten Percent Owners are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of such reports received by it, the Company believes that during the fiscal year ended February 28, 2006, its directors, executive officers and Ten Percent Owners complied with all applicable Section 16(e) filing requirements except for a Form 4, which was inadvertently filed late for Richard Brooke reporting the acquisition of stock options on February 10, 2006.

401(k) Plan

Effective March 1, 1995, the Company merged, amended and restated its prior defined contribution profit sharing plan and its prior 401(k) plan into a revised plan (the "401(k) Plan") to provide retirement income to employees of the Company. The prior plans were, and the 401(k) Plan is intended to remain, qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The 401(k) Plan covers all employees who are at least age 21 and have completed three months of service. It is funded each year by the following contributions: (i) voluntary pre-tax ("salary reduction") contributions from employees up to a maximum dollar limit set by law, (ii) discretionary matching contributions by the Company equal to a percentage of the amount of the employee's salary reduction contribution, which percentage is to be determined each year by the Company (and may be zero), and (iii) a profit sharing contribution, the amount of which, if any, is determined by the Company in its sole discretion. Upon leaving the Company, each participant is 100% vested with respect to the participant's contributions and is vested based on years of service with respect to the Company's matching contributions. Contributions are invested as directed by the participant in investment funds available under the 401(k) Plan. Full retirement benefits are payable to each participant in a single cash payment upon the participant's retirement, termination of employment, death or disability.

On December 27, 2004, the Company adopted the QEP Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Deferred Plan") effective December 15, 2004. The purpose of the Deferred Plan is to provide participants with an opportunity to defer receipt of a portion of their salary, bonus, and other specified cash compensation. Participation in the Deferred Plan is limited to employees who are part of a select group of management or highly compensated employees of the Company. The Company also entered into a Trust Under the QEP Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Trust") with Reliance Trust Company as the trustee. The Trust will be a "rabbi trust" and will be used to set aside the amounts of deferred compensation allocated to the participants in the Plan and the earnings from the investment of such amounts.

Employment Agreement

Effective May 12, 2003, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Lewis Gould. The agreement provides that Mr. Gould shall devote his full business time to the Company, may be terminated by the Company for cause (as defined in the agreement) and will receive an annual base salary of $456,750 subject to adjustment for cost of living increases and other factors. The agreement provides that Mr. Gould may receive stock options and an annual bonus at the discretion of the Board of Directors. He will also receive lump sum compensation equal to 2.9 times his annual salary and bonus, and all insurance and other benefits for the longer of the term of the agreement or three years in the event of his termination following a non-negotiated change in control of the Company. The agreement also provides Mr. Gould with an automobile allowance. The agreement is for a five-year term and is subject to successive one-year renewals thereafter.

During fiscal 2006, the members of the Compensation Committee were Christian Nast, Geary Cotton, and Emil Vogel, each of whom is a non-employee director of the Company and each of whom is an independent director as defined by the Nasdaq listing standards. See Board Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous filings under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that might incorporate future filings, including this Proxy Statement, in whole or in part, the following Board Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation and the Performance Graph shall not be incorporated by reference into any such filings.

Board Compensation Committee Report On Executive Compensation

All executive officer compensation for fiscal 2006 was established by the Compensation Committee. In determining executive officer compensation, the Committee took into consideration all factors it deemed relevant, including business conditions in general and in the Company's line of business, the Company's performance, and the performance of the specific executive officer under consideration. In addition to salaries and retirement plan contributions, the compensation program for executive officers also includes awards of stock options/SARS under the Company's Omnibus Stock Plan of 1996.

The compensation for Mr. Gould was governed by the terms of an employment agreement entered into in May 2003, which provided for an adjustment to his annual salary based on the change in the cost of living index. During fiscal 2006, Mr. Gould's annual salary was $500,000, and he received no annual discretionary bonus. In determining the base salary to be paid to Mr. Gould, the Compensation Committee considered a number of factors, including the overall performance of the Company attributable to Mr. Gould's efforts, business conditions in general, and market compensation for executives with similar background and experience. After reviewing the Company's results for fiscal 2006, the Compensation Committee determined not to award a bonus to Mr. Gould.

This report is provided by each member of the Compensation Committee who participated in determining fiscal 2006 executive officer compensation, and who currently serves as a member of the Company's Board of Directors.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph is a comparison of the cumulative total returns for the Company's Common Stock as compared with the cumulative total return for the NASDAQ Stock Market (U.S.) Index and the Russell 2000 Index. The Securities and Exchange Commission rules provide that the Company may compare its returns to those of issuers with similar market capitalization if the Company does not use a published industry or line-of-business index as a comparison and does not believe it can reasonably identify a peer group. After reasonable inquiry, the Company determined that no existing published industry or line-of-business indexes were applicable to the Company's business. In addition, the Company was unable to identify a peer group of publicly traded companies to which it believed a reasonable and meaningful comparison could be made. Therefore, the Company determined to compare its returns to those of the Russell 2000 Index, an index which the Company believes includes companies with market capitalizations similar to its own. The graph assumes that $100 was invested in the Company's Common Stock on February 28, 2001 and in each of the indexes on such date, and that all dividends were reinvested.
