Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

On August 17, 2006, The Boeing Company (the Company) announced it would exit the Connexion by Boeing high speed broadband communications business having completed a detailed business and market analysis. The Company's decision is expected to result in a pre-tax charge of up to $320 million of which approximately $290 million is expected to be recognized in third quarter 2006 and approximately $30 million is expected to be recognized in the fourth quarter 2006. The Company's second quarter 10-Q had disclosed that the charge was expected to be up to $350 million.

The estimated charge of $320 million includes the following:

Write-downs of assets of $472 million (primarily related to capitalized leases)

A gain of $320 million associated with the early contract terminations (primarily early termination of capital lease obligations)

Contract termination costs of $168 million (includes operating leases, supplier and customer costs)

The exit of the Connexion by Boeing business is expected to result in cash expenditures of approximately $235 million.
