PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is being furnished to our shareholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of our Board of Directors for use at our 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and at any and all adjournments of the meeting, for the purpose of considering and acting upon the matters referred to in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders and which are discussed below. The Annual Meeting of Shareholders will be held at our headquarters located at One Quaker Park, 901 Hector Street, Conshohocken, Pennsylvania 19428, at 10:00 A.M., local time, on May 9, 2007. The terms we, our, us, and Quaker, as used in this proxy statement, refer to Quaker Chemical Corporation.

This proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 4, 2007.

Information Concerning the Annual Meeting

What matters will be voted on at the meeting?

At the meeting, shareholders will vote on two matters:

Election of three nominees to serve on our Board of Directors; and Ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year 2007.

How does the Board recommend I vote on the proposals?

Edgar Filing: QUAKER CHEMICAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Board recommends that you vote:

FOR each of the three nominees named in this proxy statement; and

FOR the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year 2007.

Who is entitled to vote?

Shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 9, 2007, the record date for the meeting, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting and any adjournments of the meeting.

How do I cast my vote?

You can cast your vote by:

marking, signing and dating a proxy card or voting instruction card (if you hold shares in street name) and returning it in the postage-paid envelope provided; or attending the meeting and voting in person.

If you want to vote in person and you hold Quaker common stock in street name (i.e., your shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee), you must obtain a proxy card issued in your name from your broker and bring that proxy card to the meeting, together with a copy of a brokerage statement reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date and valid identification. Your brokerage statement should show the stock acquisition date.

If I have given a proxy, how do I revoke that proxy?

Your presence at the meeting will not revoke any proxy you may have given. If your shares are held in your name, you may revoke your proxy at any time (to the extent it has not already been voted at the meeting), but a revocation will not be effective until it is received. Your proxy will be revoked (to the extent it has not already been voted at the meeting) if you:

give written notice of the revocation to Quaker's Corporate Secretary, D. Jeffrey Benoliel, One Quaker Park, 901 Hector Street, Conshohocken, Pennsylvania 19428, or give electronic notice to Mr. Benoliel at jeffry_benoliel@quakerchem.com;

submit a properly signed proxy with a later date; or vote in person at the meeting as described above.

If your shares are held in street name, you should contact the record holder to obtain instructions if you wish to revoke your vote before the meeting.

How will my proxy be voted?

If you are a registered holder and your proxy is properly executed, returned and received prior to the meeting and is not revoked, it will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you return your signed proxy but do not mark the boxes to show how you wish to vote on any of the proposals, the shares for which you have given your proxy will, in the absence of your instructions to the contrary, be voted FOR each of the nominees named in the proxy, and FOR ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year 2007.

If your shares are held in street name and your voting instruction form is properly executed, returned and received prior to the meeting and is not revoked, it will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you have not furnished voting instructions within a specified period prior to the meeting, brokerage firms and nominees that are members of the New York Stock Exchange have the authority under the Exchange's rules to vote their customers' unvoted shares on certain routine matters but not on non-routine matters. Under the rules currently in effect, routine matters include the election of directors in an uncontested election and the ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm.

The proxy card and voting instruction form also grant the proxy holders discretionary authority to vote on any other business that may properly come before the meeting as well as any procedural matters. As of the date of this proxy statement, we do not know of any other matters that will be presented at the meeting.

What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card?

If you have your shares registered in multiple accounts with one or more brokers and/or our transfer agent, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete and return each of the proxy cards you receive to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

How many votes are needed to elect directors?

The three nominees receiving the highest number of FOR votes will be elected as directors. This is referred to as a plurality.

What if a nominee is unwilling or unable to serve?

We do not expect that to occur. If it does, proxies will be voted for a substitute nominee designated by our Board of Directors.

How many votes are needed to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to examine and report on our financial statements and internal control over financial reporting for the year 2007?

The proposal requires that the number of votes cast FOR the proposal exceed the number of votes cast AGAINST the proposal.

How will abstentions and broker non-votes affect the voting?

Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the voting on any matter brought before the meeting because they will not represent votes cast. A broker non-vote occurs when the beneficial owner of shares held in street name fails to furnish voting instructions to the broker within the required period, and the broker is not permitted under applicable rules to vote the shares.

Are dissenters' rights applicable to any of the matters to be voted on at the meeting?

No. Dissenters' rights do not apply to any of the matters to be voted on at the meeting.

Who will count the vote?

The Judge of Election appointed at the meeting, together with representatives of American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, our transfer agent, will tabulate the votes cast at the meeting.

How many shares can be voted at the meeting?

As of March 9, 2007, the record date for the meeting, 10,032,288 shares of Quaker common stock were issued and outstanding. Every holder of Quaker common stock is entitled to one vote or ten votes for each share held of record on the record date.

How many votes will I be entitled to cast at the meeting?

Edgar Filing: QUAKER CHEMICAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

You will be entitled to cast one vote or ten votes for each share of common stock you held on March 9, 2007, the record date for the meeting, depending upon how long you had held the shares as of the record date. As more specifically provided in Article 5 of Quaker's Articles of Incorporation, the number of votes you are entitled to cast at the meeting will be determined as follows:

Each share which, as of the record date, you had beneficially owned since March 1, 2004, will entitle you to ten votes.

Each share you acquired after March 1, 2004, will entitle you to one vote, with some exceptions. These exceptions are explained in Appendix A to this proxy statement.

We presume that shares you hold in street or nominee name, or that are held for your account by a broker, clearing agency, voting trustee, bank, trust company, or other nominee, were acquired by you after March 1, 2004 and, accordingly, entitle you to one vote for each of these shares. You may, however, rebut this one-vote presumption by presenting written evidence to us in accordance with the procedures described in Appendix A.

What is the total number of votes that may be cast at the meeting?

Based on the information available to us on March 9, 2007, the holders of 1,105,222 shares of Quaker common stock will be entitled to cast ten votes for each share held and the holders of 8,837,066 shares of Quaker common stock will be entitled to cast one vote for each share held, for a total of 19,889,286 votes. The number of shares that we have indicated are entitled to one vote includes those shares presumed by us to be entitled to only one vote. Because the holders of these shares may rebut this presumption, the total number of votes that may be cast at the meeting may increase.

Where can I find more information on the voting procedures for the meeting?

For additional information on our voting procedures, including the procedures for determining whether a share entitles its holder to one vote or ten votes, and how to rebut the one-vote presumption, please refer to Appendix A.

What is a quorum?

The presence of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on a particular matter will constitute a quorum for the purpose of considering that matter. For purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, the votes of a shareholder will be counted if the shareholder is present in person or by proxy. Shares which are the subject of abstentions or broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining a quorum.

Who can attend the Annual Meeting?

All shareholders of Quaker who owned shares of record on March 9, 2007 can attend the meeting. If you want to vote in person and you hold Quaker common stock in street name (i.e., your shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee), you must obtain a proxy card issued in your name from your broker and bring that proxy card to the meeting, together with a copy of a brokerage statement reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date and valid identification. If you hold stock in street name and want to attend the meeting but not vote in person at the meeting, you must bring a copy of a brokerage statement reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date and valid identification.

How will voting on any other business be conducted?

We do not know of any business to be considered at the meeting other than the proposals described in this proxy statement. However, if any other business is presented at the meeting, a proxy in the accompanying form will give authority to William R. Cook and Ronald J. Naples to vote on such matters at their discretion and they intend to do so in accordance with their best judgment.

Who will pay the cost of this proxy solicitation and how will the solicitation be conducted?

We will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies in the form included with this proxy statement, including the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing material in connection with the solicitation. In addition to the use of the mail, our directors, executive officers and employees may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies personally or by telephone, facsimile, electronic mail and personal contact. We will also reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy materials and Quaker's annual report, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K, to any beneficial holder of Quaker common stock they hold of record.

Does the company utilize householding for mailing of its proxy materials?

The Securities and Exchange Commission permits companies and intermediaries (such as brokers and banks) to satisfy delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more shareholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, is intended to reduce the volume of duplicate information shareholders receive and also reduce expenses for companies.

Quaker has instituted householding for its registered shareholders; some intermediaries may also be householding Quaker's proxy materials and annual report. Once you have received notice from the Company, the broker or another intermediary that they will be householding materials to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent.

If at any time a shareholder of record no longer wishes to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement and annual report, you should contact Irene Kisleiko, Assistant Secretary, toll free at 1-800-523-7010, ext. 4119, or inform us in writing at Quaker Chemical Corporation, Shareholder Services, One Quaker Park, 901 Hector Street, Conshohocken, Pennsylvania 19428. If you hold shares through an intermediary and no longer wish to participate in householding, you should contact your bank, broker or other nominee record holder.

Shareholders who share an address and are receiving multiple copies of annual reports or proxy statements but would like to receive a single copy can contact Irene Kisleiko as described above.

Any shareholder can receive a copy of Quaker's proxy statement and annual report by contacting Quaker Shareholder Services by telephone or in writing as set forth above.

Proposal 1 Election of Directors and Nominee Biographies

What is the makeup of the Board of Directors?

The Quaker Articles of Incorporation provide that our Board of Directors is divided into three classes, each consisting, as nearly as possible, of one-third of the total number of directors. The shareholders elect the members of one of the three classes each year to serve for a term of three years. Directors elected to fill vacancies and newly created directorships serve for the balance of the term of the class to which they are elected. Presently, there are nine directors, including three Class I directors, three Class II directors and three Class III directors. At the meeting, three Class III directors are to be elected with each member to serve a three-year term expiring in 2010 or until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified.

Are there any members of the class of directors to be elected at the meeting who are not standing for reelection?

No. Each incumbent director whose term expires this year has been nominated for election to serve for an additional three-year term and has agreed to serve if elected.

Who are the Board's nominees this year?

Edgar Filing: QUAKER CHEMICAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

Joseph B. Anderson, Jr., Patricia C. Barron and Edwin J. Delattre are the Board's nominees for election to the Board of Directors. Each nominee, if elected, would hold office until our 2010 annual meeting of shareholders and until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

What is the background of this year's nominees?

Our nominees for election to the Board as Class III members are:

Corporate Governance

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Company has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines which are available at www.quakerchem.com by accessing the Investors/Corporate Governance section of our Web site. The references to our Web site contained in this proxy statement are for informational purposes, and the content of the Web site is not incorporated by such references into this proxy statement. Corporate Governance Guidelines are also available in print to any shareholder who requests them. These guidelines were adopted by the Board to assist the Board in carrying out its fiduciary duties and maintaining its independence from management.

Director Independence

In accordance with New York Stock Exchange rules, the Board affirmatively determines the independence of each director and nominee for election as a director in accordance with guidelines it has adopted which include all elements of independence set forth in the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Company's director independence standards are defined in Paragraph 4 of the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

On an annual basis, each director and executive officer is obligated to complete a directors and officers questionnaire which requires disclosure, among other things, of any transactions with the Company in which the director (or any organization of which the director is a partner, shareholder or officer) or executive officer, or any member of his or her immediate family, have a direct or indirect material interest. Based on the independence standards and the information provided in the annual questionnaires, the Board determined at its meeting held on March 7, 2007, that each of the following non-employee directors is independent within our guidelines and has no relationship with the Company, except as a director and shareholder of the Company:

(1) Joseph B. Anderson, Jr.

(2) Patricia C. Barron

(3) Donald R. Caldwell

(4) Robert E. Chappell

(5) William R. Cook

(6) Edwin J. Delattre

(7) Jeffrey D. Frisby

(8) Robert H. Rock

In addition, based on these standards, the Board affirmatively determined that Ronald J. Naples is not independent because he is an executive officer of the Company. There are no family relationships between any of the Quaker directors, executive officers or nominees for election of directors.

Governance Committee Procedures for Selecting Director Nominees

Edgar Filing: QUAKER CHEMICAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Governance Committee's goal is to assemble a Board that brings to Quaker a variety of perspectives and skills derived from high-quality business and professional experience. In evaluating director nominees, the Governance Committee considers the appropriate size of Quaker's Board of Directors and the needs of Quaker with respect to the particular talents, experience and capacities of its directors including industry, managerial or leadership experience; business acumen or particular expertise; strategic capability; independence of judgment; familiarity with corporate governance and the responsibilities of directors; standing and reputation as a person of integrity; and ability to work constructively with the CEO and the Board. Directors who also serve as CEOs or in equivalent positions should not serve on more than three boards of public companies in addition to the Quaker Board and other directors should not serve on more than four other boards of public companies in addition to the Quaker Board. The Governance Committee has decided to waive the application of this guideline to Mr. Anderson in view of his many valued contributions to the Board and the Audit Committee, a record of consistent attendance at Board and Committee meetings, and availability to advise and assist management in support of Quaker's business.

The Governance Committee first evaluates for nomination current members of the Board willing to continue their service. Current members of the Board with skills and experience that are relevant and who are willing to continue to serve are considered for renomination, balancing the value of continuity of service with that of obtaining a new perspective. If a current member does not want to stand for reelection, the Governance Committee decides not to recommend a current director for reelection, or if the Governance Committee recommends an increase in the membership of the Board, it will identify the experience and personal capacities desired and will seek suggestions as to nominees from the current Board membership. In addition, and as has been done in the past, the Governance Committee may engage third parties to assist in the identification or evaluation of potential director nominees.

The Governance Committee will consider candidates recommended by the Company's shareholders and applies the same criteria in evaluating candidates nominated by shareholders as it does in evaluating candidates identified by Company sources. Any shareholder who wishes to recommend to the Governance Committee a prospective nominee for election to the Board may write to D. Jeffrey Benoliel, Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel, Quaker Chemical Corporation, One Quaker Park, 901 Hector Street, Conshohocken, Pennsylvania 19428. Any request for consideration at next year's annual meeting must be submitted no later than December 6, 2007, and contain a statement of the proposed candidate's business experience, business affiliations and a confirmation of his or her willingness to be a nominee. No shareholder or group of shareholders beneficially owning 5% or more of Quaker's common stock recommended a director nominee for election at Quaker's 2007 annual meeting of shareholders.

Communications with the Board of Directors

Shareholders or other interested parties may communicate with any of our directors, including non-management directors, by writing to them c/o D. Jeffrey Benoliel, Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel, at the address listed above. All communications received will be forwarded to the Governance Committee and the addressee. The Board believes it is management's role to speak for Quaker and, accordingly, any such communication received will be shared with the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers, as appropriate. The Code of Conduct, Financial Code of Ethics, Corporate Governance Guidelines and Audit, Compensation/Management Development and Governance Committee Charters have been posted on and are available free of charge by accessing the Investors/Corporate Governance section of our Web site at <http://www.quakerchem.com> or by written request addressed to Quaker Chemical Corporation, One Quaker Park, 901 Hector Street, Conshohocken, Pennsylvania 19428, Attention: Irene M. Kisleiko, Assistant Secretary.

Code of Conduct

The Company has a compliance program, the governing documents of which include a Code of Conduct (which is applicable to all of the Company's directors, executive officers and employees) and a Financial Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers (which is applicable to the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Global Controller, Controllers of each of the Company's majority-owned affiliates, Assistant Global Controller and other individuals performing similar functions designated by the Company's Board of Directors). The Company's compliance program embodies the Company's global principles and practices relating to the ethical conduct of the Company's business and its long-standing commitment to fairness, honesty, integrity, and full company compliance with all laws affecting the Company's business. The Code of Conduct and Financial Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers are available at <http://www.quakerchem.com> by accessing the Investors/Corporate Governance section of our Web site. Both are available in print to any shareholder who requests them.

The Company's compliance program includes a means for employees, customers, suppliers, shareholders and other interested parties to submit confidential and anonymous reports of suspected or actual violations of the Company's Code of Conduct or the Financial Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers relating, among other things, to:

accounting practices, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters and procedures;

theft or fraud of any amount;
insider trading;
performance and execution of contracts;
conflicts of interest;
violations of securities and antitrust laws; and violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

Any employee, shareholder or other interested party can call the Quaker Hotline at 1-800-869-9414 or from outside the United States, 1-678-999-4552. The Quaker Hotline is a toll-free telephone line dedicated solely to receiving questions and concerns and directing them to the appropriate authority for action. All calls are answered by an independent third-party service which is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The Audit Committee oversees the administration of the Company's compliance program and is directly responsible for the disposition of all reported violations of the Financial Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers and complaints received regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or audit matters. In addition, the Audit Committee is responsible for the disposition of all violations of (and approves any waivers to) the Code of Conduct for directors and executive officers and for the disposition of other serious violations of the Code of Conduct. No such waivers were made in 2006. The Code of Conduct, Financial Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers, Corporate Governance Guidelines and Audit, Compensation/Management Development and Governance Committee Charters have been posted on and are available free of charge by accessing the Investors/Corporate Governance section of our Web site at <http://www.quakerchem.com> or by written request addressed to Quaker Chemical Corporation, One Quaker Park, 901 Hector Street, Conshohocken, Pennsylvania 19428 to the attention of Irene Kisleiko, Assistant Secretary.

Meetings and Committees of the Board

Our Board of Directors has four standing committees, the Audit, Compensation/Management Development, Executive and Governance Committees. Each member of the Audit, Compensation/Management Development and Governance Committee is independent as independence is defined for members of the respective committee in the listing standards of the NYSE and Quaker's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Board has affirmatively determined that two of four members of the Audit Committee, including its current Chairman, William R. Cook, meet the criteria for an audit committee financial expert as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Board of Directors has adopted a charter for each of these committees other than the Executive Committee. Each committee reports its actions to the full Board at the Board's next regular meeting. A description of the duties of each committee follows the table below.

- (6) The Board of Directors held six regular meetings in 2006. Each director attended, in person or by teleconference, at least 75% of the aggregate of all Board and all committee meetings on which he or she served during 2006.

Time is regularly scheduled for the non-management directors to meet as a separate group. The chairmanship of these meetings rotates among the non-management directors.

Quaker does not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of the Board at its annual meeting of shareholders, but all directors are encouraged to attend. In 2006, all of our nine directors attended the annual meeting of shareholders.

The Audit Committee:

Engages the independent registered public accounting firm and approves all audit and non-audit fees.

Reviews and discusses with management and the independent registered public accounting firm the annual and quarterly financial statements.

Discusses with management and the independent registered public accounting firm any audit problems or difficulties and management's response.

Reviews the internal audit plan and discusses with the internal auditor and the independent registered public accounting firm their assessment of the effectiveness of Quaker's internal controls.

Oversees the handling of matters relating to compliance with law and ethics, including adherence to the standards of business conduct and ethics required by Quaker's policies.

The Compensation/Management Development Committee:

Reviews management's compensation philosophies and policies.

Approves annual performance objectives for the CEO, evaluates the CEO's performance against objectives and makes a recommendation to the Board regarding the CEO's base salary.

For all executive officers, other than the CEO, reviews performance evaluations and approves annual salaries.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The individuals who served as members of the Compensation/Management Development Committee during the year ended December 31, 2006 are Robert H. Rock, Chairman, Patricia C. Barron, Donald R. Caldwell, Edwin J. Delattre and Robert E. Chappell (until May 10, 2006), each of whom is an independent director. No member of the Compensation/Management Development Committee is or was during 2006 an employee, or is or ever has been an officer, of Quaker. No executive officer of Quaker served as a director or a member of the compensation committee of another company, one of whose executive officers serves as a member of Quaker's Board of Directors or Compensation/Management Development Committee.

Executive Compensation

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

General Philosophy

Quaker, like many companies of similar size, relies on a small group of managers that have the requisite skills and knowledge to enable us to achieve our business strategies, operate as a globally integrated whole, and deliver value to our shareholders. To attract and retain talented senior level managers, we have adopted a compensation strategy that:

- provides an opportunity for highly competitive levels of total compensation if merited by performance;
- creates a strong incentive to perform over a multiple-year period; and
- aligns interests of the management team with those of our shareholders.

Quaker compensates its executive officers, who include the Chairman and CEO, the senior vice presidents and select vice presidents, through a total compensation package. This package consists of a mix of base salary, an annual incentive cash payment, long-term incentives comprised of equity awards and cash payments, and a competitive benefits package comprised of health, life, disability, and retirement using both qualified and non-qualified programs, where appropriate.

In this Compensation Discussion and Analysis, when we use the term executive officers, we are including the Named Executive Officers identified in the Summary Compensation Table that follows.

Compensation Practices

Quaker's Compensation/Management Development Committee (the Committee) is responsible for overseeing and developing the compensation and management development programs for the Company. These responsibilities include the evaluation of, and approval of, or recommendation to Quaker's Board of Directors with respect to, the plans, policies and programs relating to the compensation of the Company's executive officers. The Committee works very closely with members of management in fulfilling its duties as it is management who provides the necessary information and coordinates with outside consultants to ensure the Committee is sufficiently informed when taking action, or recommending action on, compensation matters. As discussed below, benchmarking data is used prior to making any such decisions. The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Ronald J. Naples, makes recommendations to the Compensation/Management Development Committee concerning the form and amount of compensation of Quaker's senior officers other than the Chief Executive Officer. These recommendations are acted upon by the Compensation/Management Development Committee, which has the ultimate authority for determining the compensation of all Quaker's officers other than for the Chief Executive Officer. The Committee reviews all of the executive officers' performance appraisals and approves all adjustments in compensation and benefits for our executive officers, except for Mr. Naples. His compensation and benefits are approved by the Board following review of his performance by the Committee and, subsequently, a review of his compensation. The Chairman and CEO may be delegated authority to fulfill certain administrative duties regarding the compensation programs. The Committee's charter describes in full the Committee's authority, responsibilities and specific powers and can be accessed from the Company's Web site at <http://www.quakerchem.com>.

To the extent possible, the Committee strives to structure the compensation of Quaker's executives to ensure that the compensation paid to executive officers is deductible for Federal income tax purposes. The Committee may choose to provide compensation that is not deductible in order to retain or to secure the services of key executives when it determines that it is in Quaker's best interest to do so. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code), enacted in 1993, imposes a $1,000,000 limit on the amount of compensation deductible by Quaker in regard to compensation paid to each of the Chairman and CEO and our other four most highly compensated executive officers. Although the reported compensation of Mr. Naples for 2006 was in excess of $1,000,000, the $1,000,000 threshold for Section 162(m) purposes was not exceeded due to fact that most of the compensation listed was performance-based and, therefore, exempt from the 162(m) limitation.

Benchmarking Data

To assist Quaker in establishing a total direct compensation package of base salary, an annual incentive cash payment and long-term incentives, the Committee engages Towers Perrin, a nationally recognized human resources consulting firm, to perform executive compensation studies. The total direct compensation for each executive officer, defined as base salary, annual bonus and long-term incentives, is benchmarked against both the general and the chemical industries. General industry data representing information from over 820 companies is adjusted to reflect the approximate revenue scope of responsibility for each executive officer. For the chemical industry, relevant market survey data is very limited due to Quaker's size, but it is used in certain cases where comparisons are appropriate such as for the Chairman and CEO and regional managing directors. For non-U.S. based executive officers, data from the relevant local market is also used. In addition, proxy data for the specialty chemical companies within the S&P SmallCap 600 (Materials Group) is included to provide an industry comparison for Mr. Naples. The following specialty chemical companies are included in this group: A. Schulman, Arch Chemicals, H.B.Fuller, MacDermid, Material Sciences, OM Group, Omnova Solutions and PolyOne.

Generally, we target total direct compensation assuming target level performance for incentives at the 50th percentile against the comparables, and at maximum level at the 75th percentile of the comparative group. This is the starting point of the analysis, as other factors are taken into consideration such as experience, breadth of responsibilities, tenure in the position, whether the position held is for succession planning purposes, and internal equity.

Mr. Naples and Mr. Neal E. Murphy's targeted total direct compensation is below the 50th percentile of the comparable group while all the other Named Executive Officers' targeted total direct compensation is at the 50th percentile of the comparable group.

Allocating between Current and Long-Term Compensation

The Committee, in an effort to ensure the appropriate focus on performance, developed, in consultation with Towers Perrin, guidelines for executive officers for allocating the desired total direct compensation package among base salary, an annual incentive cash payment and long-term incentives. As a general philosophy, these guidelines provide that the higher the position within management, the more total compensation is incentive pay dependent and the more the incentive pay is long-term oriented. This is done to align compensation at more senior levels with the long-term success of the Company. These guidelines are reviewed regularly to ensure their marketplace competitiveness.

In the case of the CEO, the guidelines range for base salary from 27% to 41% of his total compensation, for annual incentive cash from 20% to 22% of the total compensation, and for long-term incentives from 39% to 51% of total compensation. The applicable guidelines for our other executive officers range for base salary from 50% to 68% of their total compensation, for annual incentive cash from 15% to 21% of the total compensation, and for long-term compensation from 14% to 30% of the total compensation.

Base Salary

Each year, the Committee reviews and discusses annual salaries of the executive officers. The Committee's final determination of salary increases depends on a number of factors including market data reported by Towers Perrin, specific position responsibilities and scope, experience and tenure, current job performance, the extent of an individual's penetration in his current salary range, and Quaker's overall financial results. In the case of some of the foreign-based executive officers, salary increases may be subject to the legal mandates of a particular country or region which thus influence the final determinations of the Committee even when similar increases were not granted to officers residing in the United States.

Annual Incentive Cash Payment

The second component of the total direct compensation package is the annual incentive cash payment, which is determined under the Global Annual Incentive Plan (GAIP). The GAIP is intended to provide employees of Quaker or a subsidiary of Quaker with an opportunity to receive incentive bonuses based on the achievement of pre-established financial performance criteria and personal objectives. This incentive is designed to be a short-term award for specific results and performance in a given year.

For 2006, the GAIP specified a corporate net income goal, regional budget goals, and individual performance objectives. The regional budget component was established to recognize our new regional organizational structure and to place increased emphasis on line-of-sight accountability for financial performance at the regional level. The bonus opportunity, which is defined as a maximum percentage of base salary as of September 30, 2006, was comprised of the corporate component representing 89% of the opportunity and an individual component representing 11% of the opportunity. However, for Mr. Naples, the individual component is 13% of the opportunity, and Messrs. Barry and Platzer were eligible for a regional component of up to 20% of the opportunity, but only if Quaker as a whole did not achieve its targeted financial performance and the applicable region met or exceeded its targeted performance objective.

Mr. Naples' maximum annual incentive cash award for 2006 was 140% of his base salary, or $861,000. Mr. Naples was entitled to this award if all of his individual goals were attained and Quaker reported net income of $12.0 million (or $1.20 per share), as was the case. If the Company had reported $10.5 million of net income and all individual goals were attained, the CEO would have earned a target award of 75% of his salary, or $461,000. Net income of $6.9 million was the level at which the bonus pool began to accumulate. If the Company's financial performance had been below this $6.9 million net income threshold level, and the CEO's business and personal goals were not achieved, no bonus would have been paid. The Committee selected these net income levels, which were approved by the Board, because of their correlation to the 2006 budgeted net income of $10.5 million and the level of improvement over the 2005 reported net income of $6.65 million (excluding special items). If the final net income level had fallen between the amounts shown above, interpolation would have been used to calculate the bonus payout.

The applicable maximum annual award percentage for our other executive officers can range from 50% to 60% of base salary. Payment of the award is based on the attainment of corporate net income, individual goals and, where an executive officer has regional business responsibility, the attainment of budgeted regional net income if corporate financial performance is below target level. The corporate net income levels for payment of the corporate financial performance component of the bonus opportunity were the same as they were for Mr. Naples.

In 2006, Mr. Naples met all of his individual goals, which included achieving the 2006 financial plan, reassessing strategic options, maintaining the balance of local accountability and global integration, establishing a new venture approach in China, strengthening and reporting on talent management and development, maintaining external relationships with industry peers, and reestablishing Quaker's visibility in the financial community. The individual goals of the other executive officers were a mix of quantitative performance objectives and managerial goals. Performance on the individual component of the other Named Executive Officers' annual bonus ranged from 80% to 100% of the opportunity.

At the time the Committee set the 2006 GAIP targets, it also approved a list of non-budgeted business circumstances for which adjustment may be made to the reported net income for purposes of calculating the award. They include significant customer strike, bankruptcy, or plant shutdown; change in accounting principles, unusual factors driving an increased tax rate; non-recurring adjustments to income such as asset write-downs or write-offs, restructuring and related charges and first year acquisition costs/losses; adverse legal judgments, settlements, litigation expenses, and legal and environmental reserves; expenditures for discretionary Board approved corporate purposes or major initiatives; and changes in exchange rates.

In 2006, reported net income exceeded the $12.0 million GAIP corporate financial performance target after adjusting for unbudgeted business circumstances associated with litigation and increased reserves for environmental matters at AC Products, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Accordingly, all participants earned the maximum corporate component of the GAIP bonus.

On March 7, 2007, Quaker's Board of Directors approved the (i) financial performance criteria at which the 2007 annual bonus pool under the GAIP begins to accumulate and (ii) the payout ratios to fund the bonus pool. The 2007 GAIP bonuses at target are based 75% on corporate financial results and 25% on regional performance or personal objectives, depending on position. For all associates, the corporate-financial-performance component of the bonus may vary up or down based on corporate profitability. For regional associates (Messrs. Barry and Platzer), the regional portion of the bonus may vary up or down based on regional performance, but the total bonus may not exceed the GAIP maximum bonus opportunity. For non-regional associates (Messrs. Naples, Murphy and Harris), the personal objectives portion of the bonus may vary up to 25% of target bonus, with the remainder of the total bonus to be determined by corporate financial performance, up to the GAIP maximum bonus opportunity. There is an alternative calculation that may be applied at the discretion of the Committee for corporate-financial-performance bonus purposes that measures return on capital against a cost-of-capital standard of 8% to 12%.

Long-Term Incentives

The Company has two long-term incentive plans, the 2001 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan (2001 LTIP) and the 2006 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan (2006 LTIP). Both plans are intended to assist the Company in attracting, retaining and motivating employees, non-employee directors and consultants through the use of compensation that rewards long-term performance. As of March 10, 2006, fewer than 52,250 shares of common stock were available for granting future awards under the 2001 LTIP, so the Board of Directors recommended, and the shareholders approved, the 2006 LTIP at the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders to enable the Company to continue the practice of offering long-term incentive compensation.

Under the 2001 and the 2006 LTIPs, a three-year performance period is used. In the first quarter of each new fiscal year, the Committee, based on the recommendations of the Chairman and CEO, selects those employees who will receive awards for the current three-year performance period, 2006-2008. Generally, employees selected as award recipients hold key positions impacting the long-term success of Quaker and its subsidiaries. In the first quarter of 2006, the Committee selected 19 participants for the 2006-2008 performance period, including all of the Named Executive Officers. These awards are based on overlapping three-year performance periods, so a new program starts each year and a payment is made each year, if earned. Target awards are determined as a percentage of base salary. See above under the heading of Allocating between Current and Long-Term Compensation. The specific amount of each award is determined based on the relative position of each executive officer within the Quaker organizational structure, his influence on long-term results, past practice, and performance factors independent of the terms and amounts of awards previously granted.

In early 2006, the Committee engaged Towers Perrin to provide an overview of emerging trends in long-term compensation practices. This review indicated that Quaker's practices were generally in the mainstream for peer companies, but it did note certain areas of differentiation. As a result of this analysis, the Committee made the following changes for the 2006-2008 plan period:

Maintain Quaker practice of providing three forms of payment (options, cash and restricted stock) to senior executives, including each of the Named Executive Officers, but limit payment forms for lower-level executives to cash and restricted stock.

Shift from having all long-term compensation based on performance to a split between performance-based and time-based, to facilitate retention. Restricted stock would be time-based and would vest at the end of three years assuming continued employment of the grantee. These restricted shares would be eligible for dividends payable at the time dividends are paid generally.

The cash portion would be performance-based. The performance criteria for the cash payment would be a single metric, relative total shareholder return. By tying the cash award to shareholder value, it allows a market metric to be used as a performance measure without accounting complications.

For the 2006-2008 performance period, Mr. Naples received a long-term incentive grant of 70,000 options, 13,000 restricted shares, and a target of $300,000 in cash, and the other Named Executive Officers received grants of 9,000 options, 1,650 restricted shares, and a target of $39,000 in cash each.

Awards under the 2006-2008 performance period are intended to make Quaker's executive compensation more dependent upon the long-term performance of the Company, especially for the Chief Executive Officer, and to ensure retention of executive officers. The stock options (once exercisable) only benefit the recipient if the stock price exceeds the fair market value of Quaker's stock on the day of the grant, which for these options was March 6, 2006, at a regularly scheduled Board meeting. At this meeting, our Board approved the 2006 LTIP. The options granted vest in three equal annual installments, commencing March 6, 2007, over the three-year performance period. The cash award is earned depending on the Company's relative total shareholder return over the 2006-2008 performance period as compared to the S&P SmallCap 600 (Materials Group). If Quaker is at the 50th percentile of the comparison group, the target cash award would be earned. If Quaker is at or above the 85th percentile, then 200% of the targeted award would be earned, and if below the 30th percentile no cash bonus would be earned. Like the GAIP, the award will be interpolated if performance is between the specified percentiles. As mentioned above, the restricted stock grant vests at the end of the performance period assuming the participant is in Quaker's employ at that time. During the performance period, the recipient is eligible to receive dividends on the restricted shares.

The exercise price of options awarded under the 2001 and 2006 LTIPs is not less than 100% of the fair market value of a share of Quaker common stock on the date the option is granted. For options granted after November 7, 2006, the fair market value on the grant date is defined in the 2006 LTIP as the last sale price for a share of common stock as quoted on the New York Stock Exchange for that date or, if not reported on the New York Stock Exchange for that date, as quoted on the principal exchange on which the common stock is listed or traded, and if no such sales are made on that date, then on the next preceding date on which there are such sales. Under the 2006 LTIP as in effect prior to amendment on November 8, 2006, and the 2001 LTIP, the fair market value was determined by reference to the average of the lowest and highest sale prices for a share of common stock rather than the last sale price.

Discretionary Long-Term Incentive Payments

Due to the negative impact of the unanticipated 2005 restructuring charge and a tax charge related to repatriation of foreign earnings, participants in the 2003-2005 and the 2004-2006 long-term incentive programs under the Company's 2001 LTIP did not earn any incentive awards. For both plan periods, the Company awarded the opportunity to earn options, performance-based stock and cash incentive awards. The stock and cash awards were subject to the Company achieving certain performance goals and were calculated as a mix: 60% (for the 2003-05 program) and 55% (for the 2004-06 program) on relative average return on assets (ROA) as compared to the S&P SmallCap 600 (Materials Group), and 40% (for the 2003-05 program) and 45% (for the 2004-06 program) on the Company's average earnings per share (EPS). To qualify for any award under either the EPS or the ROA criteria, average EPS had to be at least 50% of targeted EPS ($.88 for the 2003-05 program and $.80 for the 2004-06 program).

The Committee felt that not adjusting for the 2005 restructuring and tax charges would produce an inequitable result for plan participants. Since no provision was made at the time of grant for adjusting the result for one-time events, no payment could be made under the 2001 LTIP with respect to performance-based stock and cash incentive awards for the 2003-05 or the 2004-06 programs. Following extensive discussion in 2006 and early 2007, the Committee recommended to the Board, and the Board approved, discretionary cash awards in each of 2006 and 2007 that mimicked the 2001 LTIP, after adjusting earnings for the items noted above.

After adjusting for the aforementioned charges, the EPS qualifier was met. Though EPS, even after adjustment, still fell short of meeting the criteria for the EPS portion of the award for both plan periods, ROA satisfied the criteria for the 2003-05 period. For both plan periods, the threshold for the ROA payout was relative performance at the 30th percentile of the comparison group, target was at the 60th percentile, and maximum was at the 90th percentile. For the 2003-05 period, the Company performance met target, and accordingly, a payout of 60% of the target opportunity for all 2003-05 plan participants was paid in cash. Since the ROA benchmark data for 2006 is not available until April, award amounts for the 2004-06 period cannot be determined at this time.

If earned, all participants under the 2004-06 program will receive a cash award, except in the case of Mr. Naples. The Committee, at Mr. Naples recommendation, decided that Mr. Naples be excluded from this award, given that the discretionary bonus would constitute non-performance based compensation subject to the deductibility limits of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

To align the interests of executive officers with the interests of the shareholders, each of the Named Executive Officers must maintain a minimum ownership in Quaker stock. The amount required for Mr. Naples is three times his base salary and for the other Named Executive Officers half their base salary. Mr. Naples and the rest of the Named Executive Officers are in compliance with these ownership guidelines.

Special Stock Awards

Under the 2006 LTIP, the Committee has the authority to grant stock awards to executive officers and other employees in specific circumstances. During 2006, the Committee approved an additional stock grant for Neal E. Murphy, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, of 10,000 shares. The award was, in part, recognition of Mr. Murphy's valuable experience, consistent contributions, and guidance and leadership in managing the day-to-day operations at Quaker, and also in recognition that his base salary prior to recent adjustments was significantly below targeted benchmarks. The first 5,000 shares of Mr. Murphy's award will vest on June 23, 2009, 2,500 shares will vest on June 23, 2010, and 2,500 shares will vest on June 23, 2011.

In March 2001, the Committee approved a grant to Mr. Naples of 100,000 restricted shares of Quaker's Common Stock under the GAIP. The award was made for the following reasons: to bring Mr. Naples' total compensation closer to a competitive level consistent with the applicable comparable group; in recognition of Quaker's excellent performance over the prior five years; and as a further inducement for Mr. Naples to continue as CEO of Quaker. When the award was initially granted, 40,000 shares were to vest following the Committee's certification of the achievement of a 2001 earnings per share target established as of the date of grant, with the balance to vest in installments of 20,000 shares on January 23, 2003, 2004 and 2005, subject to Mr. Naples' continued employment with Quaker on such dates. During the fourth quarter of 2001, Mr. Naples made a request, in consideration of the difficult financial conditions then being experienced by Quaker, that the Committee restructure the vesting schedule and reduce the number of shares that would otherwise vest in 2002 (assuming the previously established earnings per share target was met) from 40,000 shares to 10,000 shares with the balance to vest on January 23, 2003, 2004 and 2005, subject to Mr. Naples' continued employment with Quaker, and on these dates payment was to be in installments of 20,000, 35,000 and 35,000 shares, respectively. The first 10,000 shares vested as of January 23, 2002, the date the Committee certified that the pre-established earnings per share target was met and another 20,000 shares and 35,000 shares vested on January 23, 2003 and January 23, 2004, respectively. Again, at Mr. Naples' request, the Committee agreed to a new vesting schedule for the remaining 35,000 shares still owed under this award. The Committee agreed to have 15,000 shares vest on January 23, 2005 and 20,000 shares vest on January 23, 2006, subject to Mr. Naples' continued employment with the Company. All shares under this grant have now fully vested.

Retirement Benefits

U.S. Qualified Defined Benefit Plan

Before 2006, nearly all of Quaker's U.S. employees were covered by a non-contributory qualified defined benefit retirement plan. The plan when originally adopted had a traditional final pay formula for calculating a participant's benefit which has been modified over the years. In 2001, a new formula was adopted. It is an accrual-based formula providing for annual credits of 3% to 7% of an employee's salary depending on age and service, with interest on the balance accruing based on the average rate of interest on 30-year treasury bonds. Participants who have reached the age of 60 and have 10 years of service are eligible for early retirement. The pension benefit is now calculated based on the benefit accrued under the old formula as of December 31, 2000, and then under the new formula commencing January 1, 2001. Effective December 31, 2005, the pension plan benefits were frozen for all non-union participants, including all of U.S. based executive officers, resulting in no further increase in pension benefits for compensation or service after such date.

Foreign Plans

Mr. Platzer's and, to a more limited extent, Mr. Harris' retirement benefits are provided under a defined benefit pension plan maintained by the Company's Netherlands operating subsidiary. Commencing June 12, 2006, Mr. Harris transferred to the Company's United Kingdom operating subsidiary and, therefore, will be entitled to retirement benefits under the Netherlands plan only for services rendered through June 9, 2006. Since 2004, the Netherlands plan has a career average pay formula that provides for a target retirement benefit of 80% career average salary assuming employment of 40 years. In 2004, the formula was modified freezing salary levels at then current levels for pension purposes with annual increases at an assumed rate of 3%. To the extent inflation increases over 3%, half of the excess will be added to the assumed rate of annual increases. Prior to 2004, the plan was a final salary plan and provided 70% of final salary assuming employment of 40 years. For pension purposes, pensionable salary is defined as 14.02 times a participant's monthly salary. Pension liabilities under this plan are funded through an insurance policy. Commencing June 12, 2006, Mr. Harris began to accrue retirement benefits under a pension plan maintained by our United Kingdom subsidiary. This plan is a final pay plan. The pension payable is 1/60th of final pensionable salary per year of service. Final pensionable salary is the average of the three highest years within the last ten years of service. Pensions in payment are indexed in line with the United Kingdom Retail Price Index, subject to a maximum of 2.5% per annum. A spouse's pension of 50% of member's pension is payable from the date of a participant's death. Participants in the United Kingdom plan must make contributions to the plan, the amount of which is dependent on age. Mr. Harris contributes 8% of annual salary towards his pension benefit.

Naples' Nonqualified Supplemental Retirement Income Program

We also provide supplemental retirement income to our U.S. based executive officers. Mr. Naples has a separate plan established in 1995 based on the Company's then current program for executives. The other U.S. based executive officers are eligible to receive benefits under a newly revised single plan. Though the formulas are different between the two plans, the targeted post-retirement income, assuming employment through the maximum prescribed period, is 50% of each officer's pre-retirement annual compensation (base salary and annual bonus).

Under Mr. Naples' Supplemental Retirement Income Program, the maximum annual benefit payable would be 80% of his after-tax net pre-retirement income, less his net after-retirement income. Net pre-retirement income is defined in Mr. Naples' plan as the higher of (a) his final year of base pay plus the average of the annual bonuses paid in the highest three calendar years (of the last five), or (b) the average of his three highest consecutive years of annual base compensation and annual bonuses, in either case reduced by Federal, state and local taxes, and Social Security. Net after-retirement income is Mr. Naples' after-tax annual Social Security benefit and pension benefit under the qualified defined benefit retirement plan. The maximum annual benefit is reduced by 2.677% for each full year of employment less than 15 years. Since he has reached the age of 60 and has 10 years of service, Mr. Naples is entitled to receive this benefit at any time following separation of service, as well as his benefit under the qualified plan discussed above. All payments under Mr. Naples' Supplemental Retirement Income Program are made monthly over Mr. Naples' lifetime or, if Mr. Naples elects, in an actuarially equivalent annuity over his lifetime and his spouse's lifetime.

U.S. Based Executive Officers' Nonqualified Supplemental Retirement Income Program

The Supplemental Retirement Income Program (SRIP) for the other U.S. based executive officers was amended in 2006 following a lengthy review process to modernize and tailor it to our needs. It provides an annual benefit of 50% of the participant's pre-tax average annual compensation, reduced by three offsets and further reduced if the participant completes fewer than 30 years of service. This benefit is generally payable over the participant's lifetime, starting within seven months after the participant's retirement (on account of disability, after attaining age 65, or after attaining age 62 and completing 10 years of service), or starting after the participant's 65th birthday (if the participant terminates after five years of participation but before retirement). Other benefit forms are 36 monthly installments (if payments start after the participant attains age 65) or monthly payments over the lifetimes of the participant and his beneficiary. However, benefits are payable in a lump sum if the present value of the participant's benefit does not exceed $30,000 or if the participant dies or a change in control occurs before the participant has started receiving benefits.

Average annual compensation is the average of the participant's annual base compensation and annual bonuses paid in the three calendar years (of the last 10) in which such amounts are the highest. The offsets are the participant's annual Social Security benefit (based on certain assumptions), the annual benefit payable to the participant over his lifetime under the qualified defined benefit retirement plan discussed above, and the aggregate amount of the qualified non-elective contributions made on the participant's behalf under the Quaker Chemical Corporation Retirement Savings Plan (plus assumed earnings) expressed as an annual benefit payable over the participant's lifetime. The service reduction is equal to 3.333% for each year (or partial year) of service fewer than 30 completed by the participant.

For three original participants including, Messrs. Barry and Murphy, their accrued benefit shall be the greatest of:

1. If employed by the Company at age 55, the benefit payable under the formula set forth in the SRIP as in effect prior to January 1, 2005, based on the original participant's salary plus bonus and years of employment when he attains age 55; or
2. The sum of the benefit the original participant would have accrued as of December 31, 2006, under the formula set forth in the SRIP as in effect prior to January 1, 2005, based on the original participant's salary plus bonus and years of employment at December 31, 2006, plus the benefit the original participant accrues under the new formula, but disregarding service completed before 2007; or
3. The amount determined under the new formula.

Severance and Change of Control Benefits

The Committee believes that appropriate severance and change-in-control benefits are an important part of the total compensation benefits package because they enhance our ability to compete for talent and foster stability in our management. In determining amounts, the Committee seeks to provide severance benefits sufficient to allow our executives time to find a comparable position elsewhere and change of control benefits sufficient to induce our executives to support a change of control transaction fully and remain with us despite the risk of termination after the transaction.

Mr. Naples Employment Agreement

Mr. Naples' employment agreement provides that upon the termination of his employment for reasons except his death or disability, or by us for cause, or by Mr. Naples for other than good reason (each as defined in the employment agreement), we will pay Mr. Naples 36 monthly severance payments that, in the aggregate, are equal to three times the sum of his base salary and annual bonus. Bonus is the greater of (i) the average annual bonus in the two preceding years in which the termination occurred or (ii) target bonus. In addition, Mr. Naples is entitled to a lump-sum payment of the pro rata portion of any annual bonus and long-term bonuses in effect during the year in which the severance event occurs calculated at target, medical, dental, disability and term life insurance for a period of five years, three years of credited service under his Supplemental Retirement Income Program, five years of office and secretarial services consistent with what is currently provided, one year of outplacement services, reimbursement of country club membership, annual tax preparation and financial planning for five years, and a car for five years.

In the case of a termination (other than by us for cause, not for good reason by Mr. Naples, death, or disability) within three years following a change of control, Mr. Naples would be entitled to the benefits described in the preceding paragraph, except that the severance payment would be a lump sum and the annual bonus used in calculating the severance payments would be the greater of the highest of the annual bonuses paid in the three years preceding the year during which the change of control transaction occurred, or target bonus. In addition, Mr. Naples' contract provides for payment of any excise tax (and a tax gross-up) charged to Mr. Naples as a result of any change in control payments that exceed applicable limitations. If Mr. Naples resigns for any reason between 9 and 18 months following a change of control, he will also be entitled to these severance benefits.

In the case of termination of employment because of disability (as defined in his employment agreement), Mr. Naples would continue to receive his monthly base salary for five years, offset by disability payments provided by the Company (through insurance or otherwise), and would continue to receive medical, dental and term life insurance coverage for five years. In the case of termination of employment because of death, Mr. Naples' beneficiary would receive three times his annual base salary, payable in 36 monthly installments.

Other Executive Officers

All of the other executive officers are entitled to severance (other than in the case of termination for cause, disability, death or retirement) equal to 12 months' base salary at their then current rate of salary or, if greater, as in the case of Mr. Platzer, severance prescribed by law in foreign jurisdictions.

The other executive officers are entitled, if terminated (other than by us for cause, not for good reason by the executive officer, disability or death) within two years following a change of control, to severance in the amount of 18 months of salary and annual bonus or, if greater, as in the case of Mr. Platzer, severance prescribed by law in foreign jurisdictions. Annual bonus is calculated by averaging the annual bonuses paid in the three years immediately preceding the year in which the change of control occurs. In addition, the executive officers are entitled to any annual bonus or long-term bonuses in effect during the year in which the severance event occurs calculated at target, one year outplacement services, and participation in our health, dental and life insurance programs as if still employed for a period of 18 months. These benefits will be paid or provided only if the executive officer signs a general release of claims. In addition, the benefits and payments will be discontinued if the executive officer violates the confidentiality provisions of the change in control agreement (at any time) or the noncompete provisions of the change in control agreement (during employment or the one-year period thereafter).

Other Benefits on Termination

Edgar Filing: QUAKER CHEMICAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

In addition to the payments and benefits discussed above, the executive officers are entitled to the payments and benefits that are available to all employees on termination of employment, including vested benefits under the Company's qualified defined benefit retirement plan and 401(k) plan, short-term and long-term disability benefits (in the event of disability), and life insurance benefits (in the case of death).

Perquisites and Other Benefits

As a general matter, the Company does not provide perquisites to its executive officers. In Europe, consistent with regional compensation practices, cars are provided to mid and upper level managers, including Messrs. Harris and Platzer.

Under Mr. Naples' prior employment agreement with us, we made loans to him in the aggregate principal amount of $642,326 in 1999 to cover withholding and additional taxes on stock awards. The two loans have a nine-year term and bear interest rates of 5.28% and 6.20%. The aggregate principal balance remains outstanding. Mr. Naples paid $34,626 during the year ended December 31, 2006, representing all of the interest accrued to that date on such indebtedness.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation/Management Development Committee of the Company has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K with management and, based on such review and discussions, the Committee recommended to the Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this proxy statement.

(1) Includes for all Named Executive Officers (except Mr. Murphy, who joined the Company in 2004) a discretionary long-term payment for the 2003-2005 period. A discretionary long-term payment for the 2004-2006 period may be paid to all of the Named Executive Officers (other than Mr. Naples), but is dependent on the Company achieving a relative pre-tax return on assets against a predetermined peer group. The benchmark data used to measure performance is not expected to be available until April 2007. See discussion under the caption "Discretionary Long-Term Incentive Payments" in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis Section on page 18 of this proxy statement.

(2) The amounts in columns (e) and (f) reflect the dollar amount recognized for financial statement reporting purposes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, in accordance with FAS 123(R) for outstanding equity awards under the Company's 2001 Global Annual Incentive Plan (GAIP) and the Company's 2001 and 2006 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plans. Assumptions used in the calculation of these amounts are included in Note 11 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

Edgar Filing: QUAKER CHEMICAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The amounts in column (g) are incentive cash bonuses earned in 2006 and payable in 2007 under the Company's GAIP. Annualized salary as of September 30th is used to calculate the amount. GAIP bonuses for foreign-based participants are paid by the applicable local foreign affiliate.

- (4) The amounts shown in column (h) reflect the actuarial increase in the present value of the Named Executive Officer's benefits under all pension plans established by the Company determined by using the interest rate and mortality rate assumptions consistent with those used in the Company's financial statements. See Note 9 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. The present value of Mr. Naples' benefits under all pension plans established by the Company decreased by $277,000. Mr. Murphy is not yet eligible for benefits under the U.S. qualified or non-qualified retirement plans since he has not met the five-year vesting requirements. For Messrs. Murphy and Barry, a significant portion of the increase is attributable to an assumed payment date of age 62 (rather than 65) which is available under the supplemental retirement income program, as amended in 2006, if certain requirements are met.

- (5) Includes (i) matching contributions allocated by the Company to the U.S. based Named Executive Officers pursuant to the Company's Retirement Savings Plan ($14,094 for Mr. Naples; $12,313 for Mr. Murphy; $13,078 for Mr. Barry); (ii) the costs associated with the use of a Company-provided automobile consistent with regional compensation practices in Europe ($20,951 for Mr. Harris; $29,871 for Mr. Platzer); (iii) a transition payment to Mr. Harris of $14,958 associated with his transfer from the Dutch affiliate to our United Kingdom affiliate; (iv) dividends paid during 2006 on time-based restricted stock awards ($8,385 for Mr. Naples; $5,364 for Mr. Murphy; $7,514 for Mr. Barry; $7,514 for Mr. Harris; $5,902 for Mr. Platzer); and (v) life insurance premiums paid by Quaker ($13,944 for Mr. Naples; $16,013 for Mr. Barry).
- (6) Does not include, for Mr. Naples, the fair market value of $384,000 which represents the 20,000 shares of restricted common stock vested on January 23, 2006 under the Company's GAIP, because no FAS 123(R) expense was recognized in 2006 with regard to this restricted stock grant.
- (7) Reflects $50,000 cash payment upon reaching the second-year anniversary of employment with the Company pursuant to Mr. Murphy's employment agreement, effective July 22, 2004.
- (8) Mr. Platzer's compensation is paid in Euros, and Mr. Harris' compensation was paid in Euros until June 9, 2006, and then British pounds following his transfer to the Company's United Kingdom operating subsidiary, effective June 12, 2006. All foreign currency amounts reflected in this table were converted to U.S. dollars at the spot rate in effect on December 31, 2006.

Grants of Plan Based Awards

Provided below is information on grants made in 2006 to the Named Executive Officers under the Company's 2001 and 2006 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plans. In early 2006, awards for the 2006-2008 period were made to the Named Executive Officers consisting of options vesting in three equal installments over the three-year performance period, time-based restricted stock vesting at end of the three-year period, and a cash bonus opportunity. See discussion under the heading "Long-Term Incentives" under the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section on page 17 of this proxy statement.

- (1) The amounts shown in column (c) reflect the minimum payment level under the Company's 2001 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan (2001 LTIP), which is 20% of the maximum amount shown in column (e). The amount shown in column (e) is 200% of each target amount. The value or maturation of a performance incentive unit is determined by performance over a three-year period based on relative total shareholder return against a pre-determined peer group.
- (2) The amounts shown in column (i) reflect the number of time-based restricted stock awards with full vesting on February 28, 2009. These awards were issued under the Company's 2001 LTIP.
- (3) The amounts shown in column (j) reflect the combination of incentive and non-qualified options which were issued under the Company's 2006 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan. These options become exercisable in three equal consecutive annual installments commencing on March 6, 2007.
- (4) Under the provisions of the Company's 2001 LTIP, the fair market value is defined as the average of the high and low prices on the grant date.
- (5) The amounts included in column (m) represent the full grant date fair value of the awards computed in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R). Assumptions used in the calculation of these amounts are described in Note 11 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

- (1) Options expiring on April 15, 2011 have a seven-year term and vest 75% after year 1, 15% after year 2, and 10% after year 3. Options expiring on July 22, 2011 will vest in two installments of 5,631 on July 22, 2007 and 3,000 on July 22, 2008. Options expiring March 6, 2013 have a seven-year term and vest in three equal installments for the three-year period after grant.
- (2) Mr. Naples exercised 40,700 options on January 12, 2007 prior to expiration of the options on January 18, 2007.
- (3) Mr. Platzer exercised 9,500 options on March 6, 2007.
- (4) Time-based restricted stock awards granted under the 2001 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan (2001 LTIP) with full vesting on February 28, 2009.

- (5) Time-based restricted stock award granted under the 2006 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan which vests 50% on June 23, 2009, 25% on June 23, 2010 and 25% on June 23, 2011.

- (6) Performance-based restricted stock awards issued under the 2001 Global Annual Incentive Plan which vest 50% on March 9, 2008, 25% on March 9, 2009 and 25% on March 9, 2010.

- (7) Reflects amounts based on the closing price of the Company's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange of $22.07 per share on December 29, 2006.

- (8) Reflects performance-based stock awards granted under the 2001 LTIP for the 2005-2007 performance period. The number of shares received is determined based on performance and can vary from 0% to 200% of target. The performance award stated in column (i) is at threshold, which is 40% of target.

Option Exercises and Stock Vested

This table shows the number and value of stock options exercised during 2006 by the Named Executive Officers. It also shows the number of shares vested under the terms of a certain restricted stock award granted to Mr. Naples, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, in March 2001, which shares were issued to him in April 2001.

Name	Option Awards		Stock Awards
	Numbers of Shares Acquired on Exercise	Value Realized on Exercise (1)	Number of Shares Acquired on Vesting	Value Realized on Vesting

- (1) Reflects the difference between the exercise price of the option and the closing market price for a share of common stock as quoted on the New York Stock Exchange on the date of exercise.
- (2) Reflects shares vested on January 23, 2006 under the terms of the 100,000 restricted stock award granted to Mr. Naples under the Company's 2001 Global Annual Incentive Plan.
- (3) Reflects value of 20,000 shares as noted in footnote (2) above, based on the last reported sale price for the common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on January 23, 2006 of $19.20 per share.

Pension Benefits

The table below shows the present value of accumulated benefits payable to each of the Named Executive Officers, and the number of years of service credited to each such Named Executive Officer, under each of the Pension Plans and the Supplemental Retirement Income Program under which they are (or may be) entitled to receive payments and benefits. For information on all material assumptions used in quantifying the present value of the accrued pension benefit, see Note 9 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. Also, see discussion under the heading "Retirement Benefits" under the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section on page 20 of this proxy statement.

	United Kingdom Pension Plan	0.5	21,545	0
Wilbert Platzer ⁽²⁾	The Netherlands Pension Plan	20.416	546,054	0

- (1) Mr. Murphy has not met the vesting requirements for the retirement benefits shown. His benefits will vest in the U.S. Pension Plan on May 15, 2009 and the Supplemental Retirement Income Program on July 21, 2009.
- (2) Mr. Platzer's benefit includes amounts accrued over nine years with a prior employer.
- (3) In all cases other than Mr. Platzer, years of credited service do not exceed the executive's period of employment with the Company (and affiliates). Years of credited service may be less than actual service because (i) benefits under the U.S. qualified defined benefit plan were frozen effective December 31, 2005, or (ii) a definition of years of credited service under the applicable plan takes into account less than full years of employment.

Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation

Messrs. Naples and Barry are participants in the Quaker Chemical Corporation Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Deferred Compensation Plan"). Eligibility is limited to the Company's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and other key management employees as designated by the CEO. Account balances represent compensation deferred by Messrs. Naples and Barry in prior years and the earnings thereon. In 2005, Messrs. Naples and Barry each elected to make no further deferrals and to liquidate their accounts. Under the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan, however, the Company can limit their distributions as necessary to avoid an adverse tax consequence as a result of the application of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. No other members of management are currently eligible to participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan. Amounts owed to Mr. Barry and, to a more limited extent, Mr. Naples, are funded through life insurance programs, the death benefit of which is discussed under the heading below "Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control." Earnings on deferred compensation accounts are measured against various investment media offered by the Company and chosen by the participant, including in excess of 40 alternatives available under General American Life Insurance Company Variable Universal Life policies.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control

Provided below in both tabular and narrative form are estimated potential payments to each of our Named Executive Officers for various scenarios, assuming the termination of employment and, where applicable, change in control occurred on December 31, 2006. Except for the Supplemental Retirement Income Program, the amounts shown are aggregate estimated amounts, and have not been calculated as a present value or otherwise adjusted for varying payment dates. For information on material assumptions used in quantifying the present value of the Supplemental Retirement Income Program benefit, see Note 9 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. The amounts shown are estimates of the amounts that would be paid; the actual amounts to be paid can only be determined at the time of the executive's separation from the Company (or a change in control, if applicable). Also, see the discussion under the heading "Severance and Change of Control Benefits" in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis on page 21 of this proxy statement.

- (1) Since Mr. Naples is eligible for early retirement, he would be entitled to the benefits listed under Voluntary Termination under the terms of the 2001 Global Annual Incentive Plan, the 2001 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan and the 2006 Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan, as applicable.
- (2) If Mr. Naples had died on December 31, 2006, in addition to the amounts shown in this column, (i) his beneficiary would have received a death benefit of $615,000 during 2007 and $307,500 during each of the following four years (2008-2011), and (ii) his beneficiary would also have received a death benefit under the Quaker Chemical Corporation Deferred Compensation Plan of $4,925,575 (including life insurance proceeds of $2,639,313 that would have been paid to the Company under the life insurance policy purchased under the Deferred Compensation Plan). If Mr. Naples had terminated on December 31, 2006 for any reason other than death, he would have received payment of his Deferred Compensation Plan aggregate balance ($3,488,248).
- (3) This amount reflects the closing price of our common stock on December 29, 2006 ($22.07) multiplied by the number of shares that would vest upon termination (or change in control).
- (4) This amount reflects the number of shares for which options would become vested on termination (or change in control), multiplied by the positive difference between the closing price of our common stock on December 29, 2006 ($22.07) and the exercise price of the option. Options that were vested before December 31, 2006 are shown in the Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End Table on page 27.
- (5) This amount is the value of medical, dental and life insurance coverage for five years, based on our current costs for these benefits.
- (6) Other fringe benefits include the value of the following: disability insurance ($691/year for 5 years); cost of membership in a country club ($6,500/year for 5 years); reimbursement up to $8,000 for annual tax preparation and financial planning services (for 5 years); an automobile for personal and business use up to a vehicle cost of $45,000 ($13,200/year for 5 years); private office ($12,000/year for 3 years); secretarial service ($60,000/year for 3 years); and outplacement counseling and services ($9,500/year for 1 year).
- (7) Amount shown is the estimated December 31, 2006 present value of seven monthly payments in July 2007 and monthly payments continuing thereafter for Mr. Naples lifetime.

Edgar Filing: QUAKER CHEMICAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

- (8) Amount estimated assuming an effective individual income tax rate of 40%. This amount is determined on the basis that the amount subject to the excise tax would not be decreased by amounts attributable to reasonable compensation for services before the change in control. In actuality, a significant portion of the payments would likely be attributable to such services, which would reduce the excise tax.

- (1) The Severance Allowance shown has been reduced to the extent necessary to avoid imposition of the excise tax under Code section 4999 (assuming the executive agrees to the reduction of the severance allowance rather than proportional adjustment of all change in control payments). The amount of the reduction is $81,019 (Mr. Murphy), $0 (Mr. Barry), $59,954 (Mr. Harris) and $0 (Mr. Platzer). Amounts due in foreign currency were converted to U.S. dollars for the purposes of this table at the spot rate in effect on December 31, 2006.
- (2) This is the estimated amount to which Mr. Platzer may be entitled under the law of The Netherlands. This amount may be adjusted upward or downward by a Dutch court depending on circumstances triggering the termination. To the extent a court-ordered severance payment exceeds the amount of Mr. Platzer's severance allowance under his change in control agreement, no severance allowance would be payable under his change in control agreement.
- (3) This amount reflects the closing price of our common stock on December 29, 2006 ($22.07) multiplied by the number of shares that would become vested on termination or change in control.
- (4) This amount reflects the number of shares for which options would become vested on a change in control, multiplied by the positive difference between the closing price of our common stock on December 29, 2006 ($22.07) and the exercise price of the option. Options that were vested before December 31, 2006 are shown in the Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End Table on page 27.
- (5) This amount reflects the value of medical, dental and life insurance coverage for 18 months for Messrs. Murphy and Barry, and the value of 18 months of medical coverage for Mr. Harris, all based on our current costs for these benefits. Mr. Platzer is not entitled to continuation of these benefits since the Dutch statutory formula is used to determine severance.
- (6) This amount is the estimated value of providing outplacement counseling and services during 2007.
- (7) Amount shown is the December 31, 2006 present value of the estimated benefit payable if, on December 31, 2006, a change in control occurred or the executive died. The December 31, 2006 present value of the Supplemental Retirement Income Program benefit payable in the case of disability is $916,000 (Mr. Murphy) and $1,085,000 (Mr. Barry) or, in the case of termination of employment for any other reason, $0 (Mr. Murphy) and $317,000 (Mr. Barry).

Under the terms of their employment, Messrs. Murphy, Barry, Harris and Platzer are entitled to:

12 months of salary if terminated by Quaker for any reason other than cause (as defined in their respective employment agreements) or in connection with a change in control (Mr. Murphy, $294,700; Mr. Barry, $288,000; and Mr. Harris, $259,211). In Mr. Platzer's case, the statutory amount shown above in the chart would be paid depending on the circumstances triggering termination;

If employment were terminated on December 31, 2006, as a result of death or disability (as defined in the respective plan), the amounts shown above for Annual Bonus (assuming target performance is attained), Restricted Stock Awards (time-based vesting) and Stock Options would be paid; and

In the case of death on December 31, 2006, a death benefit in 2007 of $0 (Mr. Murphy), $606,000 (Mr. Barry), $1,035,371 (Mr. Harris) or $292,488 (Mr. Platzer), plus 50% of base salary during each of the following four years (2008-2011) (Mr. Barry, $144,000; Mr. Harris, $129,606; Mr. Platzer, $116,673). In addition, if Mr. Barry had died on December 31, 2006, life insurance proceeds of $5,847,701 would have been paid to the Company under the life insurance policy purchased under the Quaker Chemical Corporation Deferred Compensation Plan, and the Company would have paid those proceeds to Mr. Barry's beneficiary. If Mr. Barry had terminated on December 31, 2006 for any reason other than death, he would have received payment of his Deferred Compensation Plan aggregate balance ($609,212).

Director Compensation

The Governance Committee is charged with reviewing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to director compensation. The Company uses a combination of cash and stock-based compensation to attract and retain candidates on the Board. We set director compensation at a level that reflects the significant amount of time and high skill level required of directors in performing their duties to the Company and to our shareholders. Annually, the Governance Committee, using third-party surveys and proxy data from mid-Atlantic companies, benchmarks the Company's director compensation against the marketplace data adjusting for revenue size and industry. Also, in setting director compensation, the Governance Committee considers the time and skill level required of directors in fulfilling their assigned duties.

The annual retainer paid to each director who is not an employee of Quaker is $24,000. In addition, each independent director receives $1,250 for each Board and Board committee meeting he or she attends, and the Chairperson of each Board committee receives the following additional compensation each year: Audit Committee, $5,000; Compensation/Management Development Committee, $2,500; Executive Committee, $2,500; and Governance Committee, $2,500. Any director who is also an employee of Quaker is not separately compensated for his service as a director.

Effective as of the 2007 Annual Meeting, the annual retainer will be increased for each director who is not an employee of Quaker to $28,000. Meeting fees will remain at $1,250 for each Board and Board Committee Meeting attended, but Committee Chairpersons will be increased as follows: Audit Committee, $6,000; Compensation/Management Development Committee, $6,000; Executive Committee, $4,000; and Governance Committee, $4,000. In addition, each Board year (defined as the period beginning with the annual meeting and ending as of the next annual meeting) each non-employee director will receive a time-based restricted stock grant which would vest at the end of three years assuming continued Board membership.

Edgar Filing: QUAKER CHEMICAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

Currently, each director is required to beneficially own at least 7,500 shares of Quaker's common stock. Until a director accumulates the required number of beneficially owned shares, 75% of the annual retainer is paid in shares of Quaker's common stock and once the threshold is met, 20% of the retainer is paid in such shares. Directors who beneficially own the required number of shares of Quaker common stock may elect to receive payment of a larger percentage (up to 100%) of their annual retainer in shares of Quaker common stock.

- (1) Mr. Naples is not included in this table as he is an employee of the Company and thus receives no compensation for his service as a Director.
- (2) Mr. Chappell and Dr. Delattre participate in the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan and have elected to defer 100% of their Board fees (but not stock awards). Participants in the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan may designate investment vehicles to determine earnings on deferred accounts as designated by the Administrator of the Plan.
- (3) Mr. Hauptfuhrer served as a Class II director of the Company until May 2006 and did not stand for reelection at the annual meeting of shareholders in 2006, upon reaching the mandatory retirement age for directors.
