Section 2 Financial Information

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.
$3,000,000,000 Commercial Paper Program

On April 11 and 12, 2007, Oracle Corporation (Oracle) issued a total $1,700,000,000 of short-term promissory notes (CP Notes) under its $3,000,000,000 Commercial Paper Program. The maturities of the CP Notes are between two weeks and three months, with approximately 93% of the CP Notes having maturities of one month, two months or three months. The weighted average yield of the CP Notes, including issuance costs, is 5.328%. Oracle has $1,300,000,000 of capacity remaining under its Commercial Paper Program.

The CP Notes are exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, are unsecured and rank pari passu with all of Oracle s other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. The CP Notes are not redeemable prior to maturity and are not subject to voluntary prepayment.

We expect to use these funds, along with our internally available cash and cash from operations, to pay for our acquisition of Hyperion Solutions Corporation (Hyperion). The initial offering period of the tender offer for Hyperion shares of common stock closed on April 13, 2007, and a subsequent offering period will expire on April 18, 2007.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
