Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

At the 2007 annual stockholders meeting for Wachovia Corporation ( Wachovia ) on April 17, 2007, Wachovia s stockholders approved certain changes to Wachovia s articles of incorporation to provide for the declassification of the terms of Wachovia s directors and to provide for majority voting in uncontested director elections. Following receipt of stockholders approval, Wachovia filed Articles of Amendment to its articles of incorporation with the North Carolina Secretary of State, which became effective upon filing on April 17, 2007. Attached as Exhibit (3)(a) to this report and incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03 are the Articles of Amendment Wachovia filed with the North Carolina Secretary of State. Additional information regarding the amendments to Wachovia s articles of incorporation is set forth on pages 74-76 in Wachovia s 2007 proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 9, 2007.

In addition, on April 17, 2007, following the annual stockholders meeting, Wachovia s board of directors approved certain amendments to Wachovia s bylaws to conform the bylaws to the amended articles of incorporation regarding the terms and election of directors as discussed above and to provide for certain other amendments, including regarding the indemnification of officers and directors of Wachovia and its subsidiaries. In general, the amended bylaws:

conform the bylaws to Wachovia s articles of incorporation to provide for the annual election of directors; conform the bylaws to Wachovia s articles of incorporation to provide for majority voting in uncontested director elections;

clarify that stockholders may withdraw notices provided in connection with its advance notice provisions for transacting business or nominating directors at Wachovia s annual stockholders meetings;

eliminate provisions that are no longer applicable, including provisions regarding the appointment of directors and certain executive officers that were included in the bylaws as part of the First Union/Wachovia merger completed in 2001;

designate certain officers to execute agreements and other instruments; limit mandatory indemnification to directors of specific Wachovia subsidiaries designated by Wachovia s board of directors and grants permissive indemnification to directors of other Wachovia subsidiaries. Prior to the amendments, Wachovia s bylaws provided for mandatory indemnification to directors of Wachovia s subsidiaries; provide mandatory indemnification to certain executive officers of Wachovia and its subsidiaries; clarify that indemnification is permitted for employees who serve, at Wachovia s request, as directors, officers or agents of for-profit entities in which Wachovia has an equity or other financial interest, and for employees who are not directors or executive officers of Wachovia; and provide that persons covered by the indemnification provisions may enforce their rights to mandatory indemnification and the advancement of expenses.

Attached as Exhibit (3)(b) to this report and incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03 are Wachovia's Amended and Restated Bylaws, which became effective on April 17, 2007.

Exhibits (3)(a) and (3)(b) are both filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Exchange Act, and therefore, may be incorporated by reference in filings under the Securities Act.
