On 3 September 2008 (New York Time), the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York ( New York Southern District Court ) granted the Defendants' motion to dismiss the purported securities class action brought against the Company and certain individuals (the Defendants ). The New York Southern District Court granted summary judgment dismissing the claims asserted by purchasers who acquired the stock of the Company on the New York Stock Exchange or any other exchange in the U.S., or Americans who purchased the Company's stock anywhere, finding that there is no merit to any of these claims. Claims by non-U.S. purchasers who acquired the stock of the Company on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited were dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. On 14 October 2008 (New York Time), plaintiffs filed a Notice of Appeal stating their intention to appeal the order of New York Southern District Court granting Defendants' motion to dismiss the complaint to the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. No briefing schedule has yet been set. The Company intends to continue vigorously defending the lawsuit.

3.3 Implementation of undertakings by the Company, its shareholders and effective controller

x Applicable      " Not applicable

1. During the Company's A shares Initial Public Offering, China Life Insurance (Group) Company, the controlling shareholder of the Company, had undertaken that it would not, within 36 months from the listing of the Company's A shares, transfer or authorize others to manage any shares of the Company that are directly or indirectly owned by it, nor would it allow the Company to acquire such shares. During the reporting period, China Life Insurance (Group) Company has strictly adhered to the above undertaking and has not breached the above undertaking.

2. Before the Company's A shares Initial Public Offering (as at 30 November 2006), of the land use rights titles injected into the Company by China Life Insurance (Group) Company, at the time of the restructuring and establishment of the Company, formalities for change of titles have not been completed for the land use rights in respect of 4 pieces of land with a total area of 10,421.12 square meters. Of the properties that were injected into the Company, formalities for change of title have not been completed for 6 properties with a gross floor area of 8,639.76 square meters. China Life Insurance (Group) Company undertook that it would, within one year from the date of listing of the Company's A shares, assist the Company in completing the formalities for change of titles in respect of the 4 pieces of land and 6 properties mentioned above, failing which it will bear any loss that may be suffered by the Company as a result of such defective titles. China Life Insurance (Group) Company has strictly observed its undertaking. As at the end of the reporting period, all changes of titles had been completed except for two properties and related lands of the Shenzhen Branch of the Company. The Shenzhen Branch of the Company continues to use the above properties and related lands and no other parties have made any challenges or presented obstacles for the use of the properties and related lands.

3. China Life-CMG Life Assurance Company Ltd., a subsidiary of China Life Insurance (Group) Company ( CLIC ), is a sino-foreign joint venture established on 4 July 2000 and owned as to 51% by CLIC and as to 49% by CMG Group of Australia. The scope of operations of China Life-CMG Life Assurance Company Ltd. is to conduct the following businesses (excluding statutory insurance business) within the administrative district of Shanghai municipality and in the provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the Central Government where it has established branches: (1) insurance business such as life insurance, health insurance and accident and casualty insurance; (2) re-insurance of the above insurance businesses. CLIC has agreed that it will, within three years of the listing of the Company on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, dispose all of its interests in this joint venture to any third party or otherwise eliminate any competition between China Life- CMG Life Assurance Company Ltd. and the Company. The Company received written notice from CLIC that as of the end of the reporting period, CLIC was working towards the transfer of its interest in China Life-CMG Life Assurance Company Ltd. The Company will make timely disclosure according to the relevant listing rule requirements of the place where the Company is listed.
