Notice on Delisting of Own Shares from the Frankfurt Stock Exchange

Please be advised that Kubota Corporation (hereinafter the Company) resolved at the Board of Directors Meeting held on December 16, 2008 to apply for delisting its shares from the Frankfurt Stock Exchange which are listed in the form of Global Bearer Certificate.

1. Reasons for delisting

Trading volume of shares of the Company in the form of Global Bearer Certificate on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange is very low, and thus the delisting would cause no substantial inconvenience to the Company's shareholders and investors.

2. Stock exchanges on which the Company will maintain its listing

Tokyo Stock Exchange, Osaka Securities Exchange and New York Stock Exchange

3. Schedule

The applications for delisting its shares will be submitted to the Frankfurt Stock Exchange from this day onward. The Company expects to complete the delisting procedures by the end of May 2009.

< Cautionary Statements with Respect to Forward-Looking Statements >

This document may contain forward-looking statements that are based on management's expectations, estimates, projections and assumptions. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks and uncertainties, which are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual future results may differ materially from what is forecast in forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including, without limitation: general economic conditions in the Company's markets, particularly government agricultural policies, levels of capital expenditures, both in public and private sectors, foreign currency exchange rates, continued competitive pricing pressures in the marketplace, as well as the Company's ability to continue to gain acceptance of its products.
