Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 15, 2011, Motorola Mobility Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Google Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), and RB98 Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub).

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. In the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company, other than any dissenting shares, shares held by Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or any of their respective subsidiaries and treasury shares, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $40.00 in cash, without interest.

The Board of Directors of the Company has unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders, approved the Merger Agreement and resolved to recommend adoption of the Merger Agreement by Company stockholders.

The closing of the Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders and regulatory approvals. Closing is not subject to any financing condition or a vote of Parent's stockholders.

Under the Merger Agreement, the Company may not solicit competing proposals or, subject to exceptions that permit the Company's Board of Directors to take actions required by their fiduciary duties, participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding alternative business combination transactions.

The Company may terminate the Merger Agreement under certain specified circumstances, including if its Board of Directors determines in good faith that it has received a superior proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), and otherwise complies with certain terms of the Merger Agreement. In connection with a termination to accept a superior proposal, Parent will be entitled to a fee of $375 million. The $375 million fee is also payable to Parent in other limited circumstances involving a competing proposal and termination of the Merger Agreement.

Under certain other circumstances principally related to a failure to obtain required antitrust clearances prior to the outside date (as defined in, and subject to extensions pursuant to, the Merger Agreement) and subject to certain other conditions, the Merger Agreement provides for Parent to pay to the Company a fee of $2.5 billion upon termination of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by the Company, Parent and Merger Sub, including covenants regarding operation of the business of the Company and its subsidiaries prior to the closing.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Parent, Merger Sub or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by the Company, on the one hand, and by Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand, made solely for the benefit of the other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in a confidential disclosure letter delivered in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. The disclosure letter contains information that has been included in the Company's general prior public disclosures, as well as potential additional non-public information. While the Company does not believe that the disclosure letter contains information required to be publicly disclosed under the securities laws other than information that has already been so disclosed, the disclosure letter contains information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to shareholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company, on the one hand, and Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement should not be relied on by any persons as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the Company, Parent or Merger Sub at the time they were made or otherwise. In addition, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.
