Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On October 20, 2011, the Board of Directors of Masimo Corporation (the Company) adopted the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the Restated Bylaws). The Restated Bylaws became effective immediately upon their adoption. The Company s former Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Former Bylaws) were amended and restated to provide for the election of directors by majority voting in uncontested elections of directors. Specifically, Section 7 of Article I of the Former Bylaws was amended to provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock of the Company to elect directors under specified circumstances, each director in an uncontested election shall be elected by the vote of a majority of votes cast at any meeting for the election of directors at which a quorum is present. Director nominees in contested elections will continue to be elected by the vote of a plurality of the votes cast. Under the Restated Bylaws, votes cast includes direction to withhold authority and excludes abstentions and broker non-votes with respect to a director s election.

The Restated Bylaws also include a director resignation procedure consistent with the aforementioned majority vote standard, which provides that if an incumbent director is not elected at such meeting for the election of directors and no successor has been elected at such meeting, the director must promptly tender his or her resignation to the Company s Board of Directors (the Board). The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board (the Nominating Committee) will consider the resignation and make a recommendation to the Board as to whether the resignation should be accepted. The Board will then make its decision with respect to the tendered resignation, taking into account the Nominating Committee s recommendation, and publicly disclose such decision and the rationale behind it (by a press release, a filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission or other broadly disseminated means of communication) within 90 days from the date of the certification of the election results.

The Company s Former Bylaws provided for the election of directors by plurality voting in all director elections based on the number of votes cast.

The preceding is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Restated Bylaws, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.2 and incorporated herein by reference. Additionally, a copy of the Restated Bylaws, marked to show changes to the Former Bylaws, is included as Exhibit 3.2.1 hereto.
