Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

The information provided under Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On February 24, 2012, Ameris Bank (the Bank), the wholly-owned banking subsidiary of Ameris Bancorp (the Company), entered into a Purchase and Assumption Agreement (the Agreement) with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC), as Receiver of Central Bank of Georgia, Ellaville, Georgia (Central), and the FDIC, acting in its corporate capacity, pursuant to which the Bank acquired certain assets, and assumed substantially all of the deposits and certain liabilities, of Central (the Acquisition).

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Bank acquired approximately $273.9 million in assets, including approximately $182.6 million in loans, and also assumed approximately $271.5 million in liabilities, including approximately $261.0 million in customer deposits. The deposits were acquired with no premium, and the assets were acquired at a discount of $33.9 million. To settle the transaction, the FDIC made a cash payment to the Bank totaling $31.9 million, based on the differential between liabilities assumed and assets acquired, taking into account the asset discount.

In connection with the Acquisition, the Bank entered into shared-loss agreements with the FDIC that collectively cover approximately $27.0 million of single family residential mortgage loans, approximately $14.0 million of other real estate owned, approximately $100.1 million of commercial real estate loans and approximately $41.5 million of construction loans, other commercial loans and other commercial assets (collectively, Covered Assets). Under these shared-loss agreements, the FDIC will reimburse the Bank for 80% of losses on Covered Assets, beginning with the first dollar of loss incurred. The Bank will reimburse the FDIC for recoveries with respect to losses for which the FDIC paid the Bank under the shared-loss agreements. The shared-loss agreement applicable to single family residential mortgage loans provides for FDIC loss sharing and reimbursement by the Bank to the FDIC, in each case as described above, for ten years. The shared-loss agreement applicable to commercial loans and securities provides for FDIC loss sharing for five years and reimbursement by the Bank to the FDIC for eight years, in each case as described above.

The Bank also has agreed to pay to the FDIC, 45 days after February 28, 2022 (or, if later, the time of disposition of all acquired assets pursuant to the shared-loss agreements) (the True-Up Date), the excess, if any, of (i) 20% of the intrinsic loss estimate of approximately $63 million less (ii) the sum of (A) 20% of the cumulative shared-loss payments (defined as the aggregate of all shared-loss payments made by the FDIC to the Bank under the shared-loss agreements minus the aggregate of all reimbursement payments made by the Bank to the FDIC under such agreements), plus (B) 25% of the asset discount of total Covered Assets at the inception of the related shared-loss agreement, plus (C) servicing amounts equal to 3.5% of total Covered Assets at the inception of the related shared-loss agreement.

The terms of the Agreement provide for the FDIC to indemnify the Bank against certain claims, including, but not limited to, claims with respect to liabilities and assets of Central or any of their affiliates not assumed or otherwise purchased by the Bank, with respect to claims made by shareholders of Central and with respect to claims based on any action by Central's directors, officers and other employees.

The foregoing summary of the Agreement, including the related shared-loss agreements, is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report and incorporated herein by reference.
