Provident

Provident is a Delaware corporation and the bank holding company for The Provident Bank, an FDIC-insured New Jersey-chartered capital stock savings bank that operated 82 full-service branch offices in northern and central New Jersey at December 31, 2011. Provident had $7.10 billion in total assets at December 31, 2011. Provident's principal executive offices are located at 239 Washington Street, Jersey City, New Jersey 07302. Provident's telephone number is (732) 590-9200.

Who Can Vote

The Provident board of directors has fixed March 6, 2012 as the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, only holders of record of shares of Provident common stock at the close of business on such date will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On March 6, 2012, 60,702,206 shares of Provident common stock, par value of $0.01 per share, were outstanding and held by approximately 5,760 holders of record. The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Provident common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting.

How Many Votes You Have

Each holder of shares of Provident common stock outstanding on March 6, 2012 will be entitled to one vote for each share held of record. However, Provident's certificate of incorporation provides that stockholders of record who beneficially own in excess of 10% of the then outstanding shares of Provident common stock are not entitled to vote any of the shares held in excess of that 10% limit. A person or entity is deemed to beneficially own shares that are owned by an affiliate of, as well as by any person acting in concert with, such person or entity.

Matters to Be Considered

The purpose of the Annual Meeting is to elect four directors, vote on an advisory basis on executive compensation, and ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as Provident's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2012. Provident may adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting for the purpose of allowing additional time to solicit proxies.

How to Vote

You may vote your shares by completing and signing the enclosed Proxy Card and returning it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope or by attending the Annual Meeting. Alternatively, you may choose to vote your shares using the Internet or telephone voting options explained on your Proxy Card. You should complete and return the Proxy Card accompanying this document, or vote using the Internet or telephone voting options, to ensure that your vote is counted at the Annual Meeting, regardless of whether you plan to attend. If you return an executed Proxy Card without marking your instructions, your executed Proxy Card will be voted FOR the election of the four nominees for director, FOR approval of the executive compensation paid to our named executive officers, and FOR the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as Provident's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2012.

Stockholders of record can vote in person at the Annual Meeting. If a broker holds your shares in street name, then you are not the stockholder of record and you must ask your broker how you can vote in person at the Annual Meeting.

The board of directors is currently unaware of any other matters that may be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting. If other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, Provident intends that shares represented by properly submitted proxies will be voted, or not voted, by the persons named as proxies in the Proxy Card in their best judgment.

Participants in Provident Benefit Plans

If you are a participant in The Provident Bank Employee Stock Ownership Plan or The Provident Bank 401(k) Plan, or any other benefit plans sponsored by The Provident Bank through which you own shares of Provident common stock, you will have received with this Proxy Statement voting instruction forms that reflect all shares you may vote under the plans. Under the terms of these plans, the trustee or administrator votes all shares held by the plan, but each participant may direct the trustee or administrator how to vote the shares of Provident common stock allocated to his or her plan account. If you own shares through any of these plans and you do not vote, the respective plan trustees or administrators will vote your shares in accordance with the terms of the respective plans. The deadline for returning your voting instructions is April 22, 2012.

Quorum and Vote Required

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Provident common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. A proxy submitted by a broker that is not voted is sometimes referred to as a broker non-vote.

Directors are elected by a plurality of votes cast, without regard to either broker non-votes or proxies as to which authority to vote for the nominees proposed is Withheld. The advisory vote on executive compensation and ratification of the appointment of the independent registered public accounting firm are each determined by a majority of the votes cast, without regard to broker non-votes or proxies marked Abstain.

Revocability of Proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the Annual Meeting. You may revoke your proxy by:

submitting a written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of Provident prior to the voting of such proxy;

submitting a properly executed proxy bearing a later date;

using the Internet or telephone voting options explained on the Proxy Card; or voting in person at the Annual Meeting; however, simply attending the Annual Meeting without voting will not revoke an earlier proxy.

Written notices of revocation and other communications regarding the revocation of your proxy should be addressed to:

Provident Financial Services, Inc.

239 Washington Street

Jersey City, New Jersey 07302

Attention: John F. Kuntz, Esq.

Corporate Secretary

If your shares are held in street name, you should follow your broker's instructions regarding the revocation of proxies.

Solicitation of Proxies

Provident will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from you. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, Provident will request that banks, brokers and other holders of record send proxies and proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Provident common stock and secure their voting instructions, if necessary. Provident will reimburse such holders of record for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. Provident has also made arrangements with Phoenix Advisory Partners to assist Provident in soliciting proxies and has agreed to pay them a fee of $7,000 plus reasonable expenses for their services. If necessary, Provident may also use several of its employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from stockholders, personally or by telephone, facsimile, e-mail or letter.

Householding

Unless Provident has received contrary instructions, Provident has sent a single copy of these proxy materials to any household at which one or more stockholders reside if Provident believes the stockholders are members of the same household. Each stockholder in the household will receive a separate Proxy Card. This process, known as householding, reduces the volume of duplicate information received at your household and helps reduce Provident's expenses. If you would like to receive your own set of proxy materials, please follow these instructions:

If your shares are registered in your own name, contact Provident's transfer agent and inform them of your request to revoke householding by calling them at 1-800-368-5948 or by writing them at Registrar and Transfer Company, 10 Commerce Drive, Cranford, New Jersey 07016, Attention: Investor Relations Department. Future proxy mailings will then be mailed to each individual stockholder.

If a bank, broker or other nominee holds your shares, contact your bank, broker or other nominee directly.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

Your board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR each of the nominees for director listed in this Proxy Statement, FOR approval of the compensation paid to our named executive officers, and FOR the ratification of KPMG LLP as Provident's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2012.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Provident common stock is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The directors and executive officers of Provident and The Provident Bank, and beneficial owners of greater than 10% of Provident common stock are required to file reports on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission disclosing beneficial ownership and changes in beneficial ownership of Provident common stock. The Securities and Exchange Commission rules require disclosure in the Proxy Statement or Annual Report on Form 10-K of the failure of a director, executive officer, or greater than 10% beneficial owner of Provident common stock to file a Form 3, 4, or 5 on a timely basis. Based solely on a review of ownership reports and confirmations by executive officers and directors, Provident believes that during the year ended December 31, 2011, executive officers and directors timely filed all required stock ownership reports.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF PROVIDENT DIRECTORS

General

Provident's board of directors currently consists of 11 members and is divided into three classes, with one class of directors elected each year. Each of the members of the board of directors also serves as a director of The Provident Bank. Directors are elected to serve for a three-year term and until their respective successors shall have been elected and qualified. A director is not eligible to be elected or appointed to the board of directors after reaching age 73.

Four directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve for a three-year term and until their respective successors shall have been elected and qualified. On the recommendation of the Governance/Nominating Committee, the board of directors nominated Geoffrey M. Connor, Christopher Martin, Edward O. Donnell and Jeffries Shein for election as directors at the Annual Meeting.

All of the nominees for election at the Annual Meeting currently serve as directors of Provident and The Provident Bank. The stockholders previously elected Messrs. Connor, Martin, O. Donnell and Shein. There are no arrangements or understandings between any nominee and any other person pursuant to which any such nominee was selected. Unless authority to vote for the nominees is withheld, it is intended that the shares represented by the enclosed Proxy Card, if executed and returned, will be voted FOR the election of all nominees.

Each of the nominees has consented to be named a nominee. In the event that any nominee is unable to serve as a director, the persons named in the Proxy Card as proxies will vote with respect to a substitute nominee.

designated by Provident's current board of directors. At this time, the board of directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees would be unable or would decline to serve, if elected.

PROVIDENT'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR NAMED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT.

The Board of Directors

Provident's board of directors is comprised of individuals with considerable and varied business experiences, backgrounds, skills and qualifications who collectively have a strong knowledge of Provident's business and markets, and are committed to enhancing long-term stockholder value. The Governance/Nominating Committee is responsible for identifying and selecting director candidates that meet the evolving needs of the board of directors. Director candidates must have the highest personal and professional ethics and integrity. Additional criteria weighed by the Governance/Nominating Committee in the director identification and selection process include the relevance of a candidate's experience to the business of Provident, enhancement of the diversity of experience of the board, the candidate's independence from conflict or direct economic relationship with Provident, and the candidate's ability and willingness to devote the proper time to prepare for and attend meetings. The Governance/Nominating Committee also takes into account whether a candidate satisfies the criteria for independence under Provident's Independence Standards and the New York Stock Exchange listing rules, and if a nominee is sought for service on the Audit Committee, the financial and accounting expertise of a candidate, including whether the candidate qualifies as an Audit Committee financial expert. While the Governance/Nominating Committee does not have a formal policy respecting diversity on the board of directors, consideration is given to nominating persons with different perspectives and experience to enhance the deliberation and strategic decision-making processes of the board of directors.

The following table sets forth certain information, as of March 6, 2012, regarding the nominees for election as directors and the incumbent directors whose terms will continue following the Annual Meeting, including the terms of office of each director.

Corporate Governance Matters

Provident is committed to maintaining sound corporate governance principles and the highest standards of ethical conduct and is in compliance with applicable corporate governance laws and regulations.

Board of Directors Meetings and Committees

The board of directors of Provident meets quarterly, or more often as may be necessary. The board of directors met nine times in 2011. The board of directors currently maintains four standing committees: the Compensation Committee, Audit Committee, Risk Committee and Governance/Nominating Committee. The board of directors of The Provident Bank meets monthly at least 11 times a year, as required by New Jersey banking law.

All directors attended no fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings held by the Provident board of directors and all committees of the board on which they served (during the period they served) in 2011. When the Provident and The Provident Bank board of directors and committee meetings are aggregated, all directors attended no fewer than 75% of the aggregated total number of meetings in 2011. Provident has a policy requiring each director to attend the annual meeting of stockholders. All persons serving on the board of directors at the time of the annual meeting of stockholders held on April 28, 2011 attended the meeting.

Board Leadership Structure

The board of directors believes that combining the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer positions, together with the appointment of an independent Lead Director, is the appropriate board leadership structure for Provident. The board of directors believes that the Chief Executive Officer is most knowledgeable about Provident's business and corporate strategy and is in the best position to lead the board of directors, especially in relation to its oversight of corporate strategy formation and execution. Management accountability and the board's independence from management are best served by maintaining a super majority of independent directors, electing an independent Lead Director, and maintaining standing board committees that are comprised of independent members and leadership. The Lead Director plays an important role on the board of directors and has the following responsibilities:

Schedules executive sessions of the non-management directors without management present at least two times each year and advises the Chairman of the schedule for such executive sessions.

With input from the non-management directors, develops agendas for, and presides over the executive sessions. The Lead Director provides the Chairman with timely feedback from the executive sessions where appropriate, and oversees the preparation and timely distribution of minutes of the executive sessions.

Acts as the principal liaison between the non-management directors and the Chairman on issues relating to the working relationship between the board and management, including providing input as to the quality, quantity and timeliness of information provided by management to the board in order to ensure that the conduct of board meetings allows adequate time for discussion of appropriate issues and that appropriate information is made available to the board on a timely basis.

Provides input to the Chairman regarding board meeting agendas and meeting materials based on requests from the non-management directors.

Attends board committee meetings as a non-member at the invitation of the respective committee chair.

Risk Oversight/Risk Committee

The entire board of directors is engaged in risk management oversight. The board has established a separate standing Risk Committee to facilitate its risk oversight responsibilities. The current members of the Risk Committee are: Ms. Brooks (Chair) and Messrs. Berry, Connor and Shein. Each member of the Risk Committee is considered independent as defined in the New York Stock Exchange corporate governance listing standards. The Risk Committee's charter is posted on the Governance Documents section of the Investor Relations page of The Provident Bank's website at www.providentnj.com. The Committee met 11 times during 2011.

The Risk Committee oversees the overall risk management activities employed by management in pursuit of:

maintaining a culture of discipline that enforces and provides proper incentives to employees for a sound, effective and coordinated enterprise risk management process designed to identify potential events that may affect Provident and to appropriately manage risks in order to provide reasonable assurance that Provident's stated objectives will be achieved; and identifying potential emerging risks in a routine and systematic manner, assessing the implications of those risks to Provident, and managing those risks in a manner appropriate to the probability of their occurrence and potential consequence to Provident.

The Risk Committee receives regular reports from management and other standing board committees regarding relevant risks and the actions taken by management to adequately address those risks.

Corporate Governance Principles

The board of directors has adopted Corporate Governance Principles, which are posted on the Governance Documents section of the Investor Relations page of The Provident Bank's website at www.providentnj.com. The Corporate Governance Principles cover the general operating policies and procedures followed by the board of directors including:

establishing the size and composition of the board of directors and the desired qualifications of directors;

setting a minimum stock ownership requirement for directors at 10,000 shares of Provident common stock to be achieved over five years;

providing for director orientation, continuing education and an annual performance assessment of the board of directors;

selecting board committee membership; and reviewing annual compensation paid to the non-management directors.

The Corporate Governance Principles provide for the board of directors to meet in regularly scheduled executive sessions without management at least two times a year. Four executive sessions were conducted in 2011. Mr. Fekete, who served as Lead Director in 2011, presided over these executive sessions conducted by the non-management directors, all of whom are independent.

Director Independence

The New York Stock Exchange rules provide that a director does not qualify as independent unless the board of directors affirmatively determines that the director has no direct or indirect material relationship with Provident. The New York Stock Exchange rules require the board of directors to consider all relevant facts and circumstances in determining the materiality of a director's relationship with Provident and permit the board of directors to adopt and disclose standards to assist the board in making independence determinations. Accordingly, the board of directors has adopted Independence Standards to assist the board in determining whether a director has a material relationship with Provident. These Independence Standards, which should be read with the New York Stock Exchange rules, are available on the Governance Documents section of the Investor Relations page of The Provident Bank's website at www.providentnj.com.

In February 2012, the board of directors conducted an evaluation of director independence, based on the Independence Standards and the New York Stock Exchange rules. In connection with this review, the board of directors considered all relevant facts and circumstances relating to relationships that each director or his or her immediate family members and their related interests had with Provident.

After its evaluation, the board of directors affirmatively determined that each of Mr. Berry, Ms. Brooks, Mr. Connor, Mr. Fekete, Mr. Gallagher, Dr. Hernandez, Mr. Hogan, Ms. Laud, Mr. O'Donnell and Mr. Shein is an independent director. The board of directors determined that Mr. Martin is not independent because he has served as a Provident employee in the last three years. The board of directors specifically considered the following business relationship in reaching its independence determinations:

The Provident Bank leases space for a branch banking office from Fords Circle Associates LLC. Mr. Shein owns a 7.5 percent equity interest in Fords Circle Associates LLC. In 2011, The Provident Bank paid rent and related charges of approximately $54,300 for this branch banking office.

Governance/Nominating Committee

The current members of the Governance/Nominating Committee are: Messrs. O'Donnell (Chair), Hernandez, Shein and Ms. Laud. Each member of the Governance/Nominating Committee is considered independent as defined in the New York Stock Exchange corporate governance listing standards. The Governance/Nominating Committee's charter is posted on the Governance Documents section of the Investor Relations page of The Provident Bank's website at www.providentnj.com. The Committee met five times during 2011.

The functions of the Governance/Nominating Committee include, among other things:

evaluating and making recommendations to the board concerning the number of directors, committee assignments and committee membership rotation practices;

establishing the qualifications, relevant background, and selection criteria for board members;

making recommendations to the board concerning board nominees;

conducting evaluations of the effectiveness of the operation of the board;

developing corporate governance principles applicable to Provident;

recommending revisions to the code of business conduct and ethics;

making recommendations to the board regarding director orientation and continuing education; and evaluating the Governance/Nominating Committee's performance on an annual basis.

The Governance/Nominating Committee identifies nominees for director by first assessing the performance of the current members of the board of directors willing to continue service. Current members of the board with skills and experience that are relevant to Provident's business and who are willing to continue service are first considered for re-nomination, balancing the value of continuity of service by existing members of the board with that of obtaining a new perspective. If any member of the board does not wish to continue service, or if the Governance/Nominating Committee or the board decides not to re-nominate a member for re-election, or if the size of the board is increased, the Governance/Nominating Committee will solicit suggestions for director candidates from all board members. In addition, the Governance/Nominating Committee is authorized by its charter to engage a third party to assist in the identification of director nominees. Candidates must have the highest personal and professional ethics and integrity.

Procedures for the Nomination of Directors by Stockholders

If a determination is made that an additional candidate is needed for the board, the Governance/Nominating Committee will consider candidates properly submitted by Provident's stockholders. Stockholders can submit the names of qualified candidates for director by writing to the Corporate Secretary at Provident Financial Services, Inc., 239 Washington Street, Jersey City, New Jersey 07302. The Corporate Secretary must receive a submission not less than 120 days prior to the date of Provident's proxy materials for the preceding year's annual meeting. If the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days prior to, or delayed by more than 30 days after, the anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's submission must be so delivered not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is first made. A stockholder's submission must be in writing and include the following information:

the name and address of the stockholder as they appear on Provident's books, and the number of shares of Provident common stock that are beneficially owned by such stockholder (if the stockholder is not a holder of record, appropriate evidence of the stockholder's ownership should be provided);

the name, address and contact information for the candidate, and the number of shares of Provident common stock that are owned by the candidate (if the candidate is not a holder of record, appropriate evidence of the candidate's ownership should be provided);

a statement of the candidate's business and educational experience;

such other information regarding the candidate as would be required to be included in Provident's proxy statement pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation 14A;

a statement detailing any relationship between the candidate and Provident, The Provident Bank and any subsidiaries of The Provident Bank;

a statement detailing any relationship between the candidate and any customer, supplier or competitor of Provident and The Provident Bank;

detailed information about any relationship or understanding between the proposing stockholder and the candidate; and a statement that the candidate is willing to be considered and willing to serve as a director if nominated and elected. Stockholder submissions that are timely and that meet the criteria outlined above will be forwarded to the Chair of the Governance/Nominating Committee for further review and consideration. A nomination submitted by a stockholder for presentation at an annual meeting of Provident's stockholders must comply with the procedural and informational requirements described later in this Proxy Statement under the heading Advance Notice Of Business To Be Conducted at an Annual Meeting.

Stockholder and Interested Party Communications with the Board

A stockholder of Provident and any other interested party may communicate with the board of directors, the non-management directors, the Lead Director or with any individual director by writing to the Chair of the Governance/Nominating Committee, c/o Provident Financial Services, Inc., 239 Washington Street, Jersey City, New Jersey 07302. A communication from a stockholder should indicate that the author is a stockholder and, if shares of Provident common stock are not held of record, the letter should include appropriate evidence of stock ownership.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Provident has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that is applicable to directors, officers and employees of Provident and The Provident Bank, including the principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer, and all persons performing similar functions. The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is posted on the Governance Documents section of the Investor Relations page of The Provident Bank's website at www.providentnj.com. Amendments to and waivers from the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics will also be disclosed on The Provident Bank's website.

Transactions With Certain Related Persons

Federal laws and regulations generally require that all loans or extensions of credit to directors and executive officers must be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the general public and must not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features. However, regulations also permit directors and executive officers to receive the same terms through benefit or compensation plans that are widely available to other employees, as long as the director or executive officer is not given preferential treatment compared to participating employees. Pursuant to such a program, loans may be extended to executive officers on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the general public, except as to the interest rate charged, so long as such rate is generally available to participating employees. These loans may not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features. As of December 31, 2011, The Provident Bank had aggregate loans and loan commitments totaling $100,000 in the form of a home equity line of credit to one executive officer. The Provident Bank does not make loans to members of the board of directors or to their immediate family members and their related interests, as such terms are defined in The Provident Bank's Lending Policy.

Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 generally prohibits an issuer from: (1) extending or maintaining credit; (2) arranging for the extension of credit; or (3) renewing an extension of credit in the form of a personal loan for an officer or director. There are several exceptions to this general prohibition, one of which is applicable to Provident. The provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 that prohibit loans do not apply to loans made by a depository institution, such as The Provident Bank, that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and is subject to the insider lending restrictions of the Federal Reserve Act. Any loans to Provident's and The Provident Bank's officers are made in conformity with the Federal Reserve Act and Regulation O.

Provident's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics requires directors and executive officers to promptly disclose any interest they may have in any proposed transaction involving Provident or The Provident Bank, and any such director or executive officer shall abstain from any deliberation or voting on the transaction. Any such transaction would require approval of a majority of the directors who have no interest in the proposed transaction. In addition, directors and executive officers annually disclose any transactions, relationships or arrangements they or their related interests may have with Provident or The Provident Bank. Such disclosures, together with information obtained from each director's annual statement of interest form, are used to monitor related party transactions and make independence determinations.

Audit Committee Matters

Audit Committee

The current members of the Audit Committee are: Messrs. Hogan (Chair), Fekete, Gallagher, and Ms. Brooks. Each member of the Audit Committee is considered independent as defined in the New York Stock Exchange corporate governance listing standards and under Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 10A-3.

The duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee include, among other things:

sole authority for retaining, overseeing and evaluating a firm of independent registered public accountants to audit Provident's annual financial statements;

in consultation with the independent registered public accounting firm and the internal auditor, reviewing the integrity of Provident's financial reporting processes, both internal and external;

reviewing the financial statements and the audit report with management and the independent registered public accounting firm; reviewing earnings and financial releases and quarterly and annual reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission; and approving all engagements for audit and non-audit services by the independent registered public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee met 11 times during 2011. The Audit Committee reports to the board of directors on its activities and findings. The board of directors believes that Frank L. Fekete and Thomas B. Hogan Jr. each qualify as an Audit Committee financial expert as that term is used in the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Audit Committee Report

Pursuant to rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, this Audit Committee Report shall not be deemed incorporated by reference to any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that Provident specifically incorporates this information by reference, and otherwise shall not be deemed soliciting material or to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission subject to Regulation 14A or 14C of the Securities and Exchange Commission or subject to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter approved by the board of directors. The Audit Committee's charter is posted on the Governance Documents section of the Investor Relations page of The Provident Bank's website at www.providentnj.com.

Management has primary responsibility for Provident's internal control and financial reporting process, and for making an assessment of the effectiveness of Provident's internal control over financial reporting. The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for performing an independent audit of Provident's consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and to issue an opinion on those financial statements, and for providing an attestation report on management's assessment of internal control over financial reporting. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

As part of its ongoing activities, the Audit Committee has:

reviewed and discussed with management, and the independent registered public accounting firm, the audited consolidated financial statements of Provident for the year ended December 31, 2011;

discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communications with Audit Committees, as amended, and as adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board; and received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered public accounting firm mandated by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent registered public accounting firm's communications with the Audit Committee concerning independence, and has discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm its independence from Provident.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to Provident's board of directors that the audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 be included in Provident's Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, the Audit Committee approved the re-appointment of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2012, subject to the ratification of this appointment by the stockholders of Provident.

Compensation Committee Matters

Compensation Committee

The current members of the Compensation Committee are: Messrs. Berry (Chair), Fekete, Gallagher, and O'Donnell. Each member of the Compensation Committee is considered independent as defined in the New York Stock Exchange corporate governance listing standards. The Compensation Committee is responsible for executive management development and succession planning, and for reviewing and evaluating compensation programs and policies and risks associated with such programs and policies, including setting performance measures and goals consistent with principles of safety and soundness, approving awards under existing compensation plans and administering long-term equity awards. On at least an annual basis, the Compensation Committee meets to review the performance of, and the compensation payable to the named executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer. The basic elements of Provident's executive compensation program include base salary, an annual cash incentive and long-term equity award primarily tied to corporate financial targets, and certain other benefit arrangements, such as retirement benefits. The Compensation Committee's charter is posted on the Governance Documents section of the Investor Relations page of The Provident Bank's website at www.providentnj.com. The Compensation Committee met 11 times during 2011, including two conference call meetings for which no meeting fees were paid.

The Compensation Committee has retained the services of McLagan as its independent compensation consultant to assist it in evaluating executive compensation programs and in making determinations regarding executive and director compensation. The independent compensation consultant reports directly to the Compensation Committee and periodically meets with the Committee in executive session, without management. McLagan does not perform any other services for Provident, The Provident Bank or their affiliates or their management. In 2011, McLagan conducted a market review of executive compensation at the direction of the Compensation Committee to validate the peer group and to provide updated total compensation market data for the named executive officers.

The Compensation Committee determines the compensation payable to the Chief Executive Officer based on corporate financial performance against established goals and the Chief Executive Officer's individual performance. The Compensation Committee establishes corporate financial performance goals and individual goals for the Chief Executive Officer at the beginning of each year, and members of the Compensation Committee meet with the Chief Executive Officer during the year to review progress against the goals. The Compensation Committee also sets performance goals for, and determines the compensation payable to, the named executive officers, based in part on the Chief Executive Officer's assessment and recommendations. The independent compensation consultant's input and other executive compensation data sources are available to the Compensation Committee to assist it in these determinations.

In addition to evaluating Provident's overall financial performance in its review of the named executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers the performance of each named executive officer's business line or area of responsibility. Several key management competencies and behaviors are assessed, including the named executive officer's effectiveness as a leader and his or her role in building a cohesive executive team, as well as other strategic core competencies such as accountability, analytical ability and decision making, communication, cooperation and teamwork, creativity and problem-solving, and integrity. The named executive officer's performance relating to these competencies forms the basis of a performance review discussion with the named executive officer that reinforces his or her role in achieving Provident's business plan and short-and long-term strategies.

The Compensation Committee assesses risks posed by the compensation plans maintained for the benefit of, and incentive compensation paid to, officers and employees. This comprehensive risk assessment is performed by Provident's internal audit function and by McLagan, and is presented to, and reviewed by, the Compensation Committee. The risk assessment conducted in 2011 concluded that Provident's incentive compensation plans do not pose significant risk or promote excessive risk taking that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on Provident.

Director compensation is established by the board of directors upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and is discussed in this Proxy Statement under the heading "Director Compensation."

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Messrs. Berry, Fekete, Gallagher, and O'Donnell served as members of the Compensation Committee in 2011. None of these directors has ever been an officer or employee of Provident. In addition, none of these directors is an executive officer of another entity where one of Provident's executive officers serves on the compensation committee or the board of directors, or which had any transactions or relationships with Provident in 2011 requiring specific disclosures under Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Summary

Provident's executive compensation program is designed to tie pay with performance in a manner consistent with safe and sound business practices and sustainable financial performance aligned with stockholder interests. The key features of the program, which are discussed in more detail below, are:

Active oversight by the Compensation Committee consisting solely of independent directors;

Assistance regularly provided to the Compensation Committee by an independent compensation consultant selected by the Compensation Committee;

Provident's executive compensation program is focused on pay for performance in order to align compensation with business strategies and to enhance stockholder value;

The major components of Provident's program are salary, annual cash incentives and long-term equity;

Executive salaries are evaluated based on regional peer group data;

Annual cash incentive compensation opportunities are tied to key corporate performance metrics;

Long-term incentive compensation opportunities are tied to key corporate performance metrics and performance against peer group metrics;

The incentive compensation plans provide for risk mitigation and accountability authorizing the Compensation Committee to condition incentive compensation awards with claw back, deferral, and adjustment provisions, and settlement in stock subject to holding periods;

Executives are subject to share ownership guidelines; and Perquisites are limited.

Executive Compensation Philosophy

The Compensation Committee believes that Provident's executive compensation program is consistent with promoting sound risk management and long-term value creation for Provident's stockholders. Provident's executive compensation program is intended to align the interests of its executive officers and employees with stockholders by rewarding performance against established corporate financial goals, and by rewarding strong executive leadership and superior individual performance. By offering annual cash incentives, long-term equity compensation and competitive benefits, Provident's goal is to attract, motivate and retain a highly qualified and talented team of executives who will help maximize Provident's long-term financial performance and earnings growth.

The compensation paid to each named executive officer is based on the executive's level of job responsibility, corporate financial performance measured against annual goals, an assessment of the executive's individual performance and the competitive market. For the named executive officers and other members of executive management, annual incentive compensation is linked more directly to corporate financial performance, because these executives are in leadership roles that influence corporate financial results.

The Compensation Committee regularly reviews the components of the executive compensation program with advice from its independent compensation consultant and after giving due consideration to the most recent non-binding stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation. In light of strong stockholder support, the Compensation Committee concluded that no material revisions were necessary to our executive compensation program. Consistent with past practice, McLagan was engaged to review Provident's executive compensation program in 2011, which included a review and recommendation of an appropriate peer group to assess competitive compensation practices, as well as for comparing performance against certain financial targets. Financial targets for 2011 were established in 2010 based upon a peer group of 18 publicly traded thrift and banking institutions with assets of $3 to $15 billion, having an asset mix similar to Provident as follows:

Valley National Bancorp

Susquehanna Bancshares, Inc.

National Penn Bancshares, Inc.

F.N.B. Corporation

NewAlliance Bancshares, Inc.

United Bancshares, Inc.

Investors Bancorp, Inc.

Northwest Bancorp, Inc.

WesBanco, Inc.

Community Bank System, Inc.

S&T Bancorp, Inc.

Beneficial Mutual Bancorp, Inc.

Independent Bank Corp.

Flushing Financial Corporation

WSFS Financial Corporation

Sandy Spring Bancorp, Inc.

After consultation with McLagan during 2011, the Compensation Committee determined it would use two peer groups in connection with executive compensation determinations commencing in 2012:

A regional peer group of 20 publicly traded thrift and banking institutions with assets of $4 to $20 billion doing business in the Northeast that will be used for comparative base salary and total compensation data as follows:

Webster Financial Corporation

Fulton Financial Corporation

Edgar Filing: PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

Valley National Bancorp

Signature Bank

Investors Bancorp, Inc.

F.N.B. Corp.

NBT Bancorp Inc.

WSFS Financial Corporation

S&T Bancorp, Inc.

Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc.

Sun Bancorp, Inc.

SNL Small Cap U.S. Bank & Thrift Index (SNL Index) that will be used to compare long-term performance achievement. The Compensation Committee may modify peer groups from time to time based on mergers and acquisitions within the industry or other relevant factors. While Provident's executive compensation program targets base salary and annual cash incentive compensation at market levels, actual compensation paid to a named executive officer may vary based on other factors, such as the individual's performance, experience and tenure, and competitive market conditions.

The Compensation Committee recommended and the Board of Directors approved the adoption of an Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan Document of Provident Financial Services, Inc. (the Omnibus Document) to serve as a core governance document establishing lines of authority, a foundation for relevant internal controls and procedures, risk mitigation and accountability features, including claw backs and deferrals. The Omnibus Document does not create any new or additional compensation programs.

Elements of 2011 Executive Compensation

Provident pays its named executive officers in accordance with a pay for performance philosophy by providing competitive compensation for demonstrated performance. The Compensation Committee employs a total compensation approach in establishing executive compensation opportunities, consisting of base salary, annual cash incentive compensation, long-term equity awards (which may include performance-vesting stock options, performance-vesting stock awards, time-vesting stock awards and discretionary stock grants to recognize exceptional individual or corporate performance or to maintain a competitive total compensation package where warranted), a competitive benefits package and limited perquisites.

Base Salary

A competitive base salary is necessary to attract and retain talented executives. Annually, the Compensation Committee evaluates each named executive officer's base salary level. In general, competitive base salary information, or market data, is furnished to the Compensation Committee by the independent compensation consultant, and each named executive officer's base salary level is compared to the competitive market data. The Compensation Committee considers assessments of the individual named executive officer's performance, leadership, operational effectiveness, and experience in the industry, as well as market conditions.

In establishing base salaries for 2011, the Compensation Committee considered Provident's financial performance, as well as peer group and market-based industry salary data. In consideration of the performance achieved in difficult economic conditions that continued in 2010 and to maintain a competitive base salary for each of the named executive officers, the Compensation Committee determined that base salary increases reflected in the Summary Compensation Table were appropriate for each of the named executives to remain competitive with the market.

Annual Cash Incentive Payment/The 2011 Annual Cash Incentive Plan

Annual cash incentive opportunities are provided to Provident's named executive officers in order to align the attainment of annual corporate financial performance objectives with executive compensation. At the beginning of each year, the Compensation Committee assigns corporate financial targets and a range of annual cash incentive award opportunities to each named executive officer. The award opportunities are linked to a specific target and range of performance results for multiple corporate financial performance measures. Although the annual incentive cash award is generally calculated based upon pre-determined metrics and measurable achievement, the Compensation Committee has discretion to adjust the metrics and cash incentive awards where appropriate.

The Compensation Committee recommended, and the board of directors approved, the 2011 Annual Incentive Plan. The 2011 Annual Incentive Plan provided the opportunity for a cash incentive payment based upon the achievement of corporate and individual goals. The Compensation Committee established the annual incentive component of total compensation as a percentage of base salary for the Chief Executive Officer and other named executive officers based upon competitive total compensation data previously provided by the independent compensation consultant as follows:

Participant	Annual Cash Incentive as a % of Base Salary
	Threshold	Target	Maximum
Chief Executive Officer	30%	60%	120%
Other Named Executive Officers	20%	40%	80%

For the named executive officers, the Compensation Committee established the following 2011 targets (collectively, the Corporate Targets) and relative weightings for the 2011 Annual Incentive Cash Plan:

Metric	Weight	Threshold	Target	Maximum
		95%	100%	115%
Net Income (in millions)	25%	$ 54.5	$ 57.4	$ 66.0
Efficiency Ratio ⁽¹⁾	10%	57.4%	56.5%	54.0%
Core Deposits as a % of Total Deposits ⁽²⁾	10%	>38%	>50%	>83%
Total Loans Net of Provisions (in billions)	10%	$ 4.44	$ 4.55	$ 4.88
Non-Performing Assets as a % of Average Assets vs. Peer Median	10%	>38%	>50%	>83%
Return on Average Assets	15%	0.79%	0.83%	0.96%
Earnings Per Share Growth versus Peer Median	10%	> 38%	> 50%	> 83%
Net Interest Margin	5%	3.40%	3.46%	3.64%
Return on Average Equity	5%	5.79%	6.09%	7.00%

(1) Represents the ratio of non-interest expense divided by the sum of net interest income and non-interest income.

(2) Core deposits are defined as savings accounts, interest and non-interest bearing checking accounts, and money market deposit accounts; and exclude all time deposit accounts.

Under the 2011 Annual Cash Incentive Plan, cash incentive payments based on Provident's actual 2011 financial performance would be made if financial performance met or exceeded 95% of any one of the Corporate Targets (Threshold). Cash incentive payments would be a minimum of 1.50% of base salary for the Chief Executive Officer and 1.00% of base salary for the other named executive officers upon the achievement of at least one metric (weighted at 5%) at the Threshold level, increasing to 120% of base salary for the Chief Executive Officer and 80% of base salary for the other named executive officers upon achievement of all metrics at the Maximum level.

In aggregate, the overall actual achievement of Corporate Targets for 2011 was above Target, after excluding impairment charges associated with the sale of two administrative office buildings and expenses relating to hurricane damage. The net income, core deposit, total loans, return on average assets, earnings per share growth, net interest margin and return on average equity goals were achieved above Target. The efficiency ratio goal was achieved above Threshold and the non-performing assets goal was not achieved. Based upon the foregoing, the Committee authorized payouts under the 2011 Annual Incentive Plan to the named executive officers as follows:

Name	Cash Incentive
Christopher Martin	$ 348,899
Thomas M. Lyons	$ 122,892
Donald W. Blum	$ 113,763
John F. Kuntz	$ 123,550
Michael A. Raimonde	$ 109,725

The Compensation Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors approved increasing the compensation opportunity for the 2012 Annual Cash Incentive Plan. The annual incentive component of total compensation as a percentage of base salary for the Chief Executive Officer and other named executive officers, based upon competitive total compensation data previously provided by the independent compensation consultant, is as follows:

Participant	Annual Cash Incentive as a % of Base Salary
	Threshold	Target	Maximum
Chief Executive Officer	35%	75%	115%
Other Named Executive Officers	25%	45%	70%

Long-Term Equity Incentives

The 2008 Long-Term Equity Plan provides the opportunity to grant various forms of equity incentives on a time-vesting and performance-vesting basis. The Compensation Committee believes that stock ownership provides a significant incentive in building long-term stockholder value by further aligning the interests of officers and employees with stockholders. The importance of this component of compensation increases as Provident's common stock appreciates in value and serves as a retention tool for executives. The inclusion of performance-vesting awards also encourages a long-term strategic focus. It is the policy of the Compensation Committee to make equity grants when the window for trading by directors and officers in Provident common stock is open under Provident's stock trading policy. Throughout the year, equity awards may be granted to new hires and promoted employees, or to existing employees to recognize superior performance with a grant date effective as of the date of the next regularly scheduled Compensation Committee meeting that falls when the window for trading is open under Provident's stock trading policy.

The Compensation Committee established the equity component of total compensation as a percentage of base salary, for the Chief Executive Officer and other named executive officers, based upon competitive total compensation data previously provided by the independent compensation consultant. The Compensation Committee also exercises discretion in making equity grants and may grant equity to the Chief Executive Officer and other named executive officers based on exceptional individual or corporate performance and to maintain a competitive total compensation level where warranted. After a review of comparative total compensation data provided by McLagan, the Compensation Committee adjusted the opportunity for the Chief Executive Officer and other named executive officers for stock awards to be made in 2012 to maintain competitive total compensation and generally follows the guidelines below with respect to annual equity grants:

Participant	2011 Opportunity
	Long-Term Equity Award as a % of Base Salary
	Threshold	Target	Target Plus	Maximum
Chief Executive Officer	12.5%	50.0%	75.0%	100.0%
Other Named Executive Officers	10.0%	40.0%	60.0%	80.0%

Participant	2012 Opportunity
	Long-Term Equity Award as a % of Base Salary
	Threshold	Target	Target Plus	Maximum
Chief Executive Officer	15.0%	75.0%	95.0%	115.0%
Other Named Executive Officers	12.50%	45.0%	55.0%	70.0%

The 2011 long-term equity awards were made based on the following matrix:

Participant	Three-Year Performance-Vesting		Three-Year Time-Vesting
	Non-Qualified Stock Options	Restricted Stock	Restricted Stock
Chief Executive Officer	50%	50%	0%
Other Named Executive Officers	0%	75%	25%

The Compensation Committee determined that for equity grants made in 2011 under the Long-Term Equity Plan to all named executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer, 75% of equity grants would be subject to performance-vesting, and 25% would be time-vesting over three years; and for the Chief Executive Officer, 100% of equity grants would be subject to performance-vesting. Such performance-vesting would be measured at the end of a three-year period based upon metrics approved by the Compensation Committee at the time of the equity grant. Currently the performance metrics include projections of compounded annual growth in earnings per share over a three-year period and a comparison of total stockholder return to the peer group over a three-year period. For the performance-vesting grants made in 2011 which vest in 2013, the two performance metrics at target (weighted 50% each) are compounded annual growth of eight percent in earnings per share from the base year of 2010 (or $0.90 per share) and achievement of total shareholder return versus peers greater than fifty percent of the peers. The performance-based grants vest at the end of three years if the pre-established performance level is met. These performance metrics are designed to encourage conduct that drives long-term strategic decisions suited to maximizing stockholder value.

2011-2013 Performance Matrix

Earnings Per Share Growth

2010 Actual*	$ .90 Threshold	$ .90 Target	$ .90 Target Plus	$ .90 Maximum
Compounded Annual Growth Rate	6.00%	8.00%	12.00%	16.00%
Cumulative three-year EPS Required	$3.04	$3.16	$3.40	$3.66

* Excludes certain impairment charges

Total Shareholder Return versus Peer Group

Threshold ≥40% of peers	Target ≥50% of peers	Target Plus ≥67.5 of peers	Maximum ≥85% of peers
The Compensation Committee has determined that the performance metrics for awards granted under the Long-Term Equity Plan are appropriately set such that participants in the plan will attain: (i) the Threshold level of performance if minimum expected improvements in the performance targets are achieved, which the Committee believed was reasonably likely to be attained; (ii) the Target level of performance if our projected business plan expectations are achieved, which the Committee believed had approximately an even likelihood of either being attained or not being attained; (iii) the Target Plus level of performance if our projected business plan expectations are exceeded, which the Committee believed would be difficult to achieve; and (iv) the Maximum level of performance, which sets a cap on how much incentive compensation will be paid in the event that the Target Plus level is exceeded, which the Committee believed was unlikely to be achieved.

In recognition of the performance of the executive team in a difficult operating environment, to maintain a competitive compensation program, and as a retention incentive, discretionary equity awards were granted in 2011 to the named executive officers. The Chief Executive Officer was granted 10,000 restricted stock awards subject to three-year time vesting and 50,000 incentive stock options subject to five-year time vesting. The other named executive officers were granted restricted stock awards subject to three-year time vesting as follows: Mr. Lyons 2,100 shares; Mr. Blum 900 shares, Mr. Kuntz 3,000 shares and Mr. Raimonde 1,500 shares.

Benefits

Provident offers the named executive officers benefits generally available to all employees, including medical and dental, disability insurance, group life insurance coverage, an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) and a 401(k) Plan with discretionary employer matching contributions. Certain of the named executive officers have accrued benefits under a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan that was frozen as of April 1, 2003 following the adoption of the ESOP. In addition to pension benefits, medical and life insurance benefits are made available to certain employees when they retire. These post-retirement benefits have been eliminated. However, certain employees with ten or more years of service at the time the benefits were eliminated, including Mr. Martin, still qualify for these post-retirement benefits upon retirement. The named executive officers are also eligible for non-qualified benefits under the Supplemental Defined Contribution Plan designed to make up for the IRS limits on contributions to the qualified 401(k) Plan and ESOP.

Perquisites

The Compensation Committee believes that perquisites should be provided on a limited basis, and only to the most senior level of executive officers. The following perquisites are currently provided: a club membership for Mr. Martin and the use of a company-owned automobile for Messrs. Martin, Blum and Raimonde. Messrs. Lyons and Kuntz are paid a monthly car allowance. All of the named executive officers are eligible for an annual medical examination at Provident's expense.

Elements of Post-Termination Benefits

Employment Agreement

Provident entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Martin dated September 23, 2009. The initial term of the employment agreement was 36 months. Commencing on August 31, 2012, and continuing each August 31 thereafter, the agreement renews for an additional year such that the remaining term will be twelve full calendar months. The employment agreement provides that if employment were terminated for reasons other than for cause, or as a result of the executive's death, retirement or disability, the executive would be entitled to:

earned but unpaid base salary through the termination date;

an annual bonus to which the executive may be entitled under any cash-based annual bonus or performance compensation plan then in effect;

benefits due to the executive as a former employee other than pursuant to the agreement;

severance pay or liquidated damages equal to the executive's base salary and bonuses due for twelve months following termination, with bonuses due to be the greater of (i) one-twelfth of the average annual cash bonus paid to the executive with respect to the three completed fiscal years prior to the termination, or (ii) the cash bonus paid to the executive for the last fiscal year prior to the date of termination multiplied by twelve months following termination; and the continuation of life, medical, dental and disability insurance coverage for twelve months following termination.

The executive may resign from employment for good reason and receive these termination benefits in the event of certain adverse changes in the executive's employment conditions. Under the employment agreement, the termination benefits are subject to the executive's compliance with non-solicitation and non-compete provisions for a period of six months following the executive's termination. The employment agreement does not provide for benefits for a termination following a change in control. Those benefits are provided for in a separate change in control agreement between Provident and Mr. Martin described below.

Change in Control Agreements

Change in control agreements are reserved for a limited number of executives (currently 11 persons). Benefits are payable under the change in control agreements after a termination of the executive following a change in control of Provident. Provident has entered into a three-year change in control agreement with Mr. Martin and two-year change in control agreements with Messrs. Blum, Kuntz, Lyons and Raimonde.

Following a change in control, the executive is entitled to a severance payment if:

the executive's employment is terminated during the term of such agreement, other than for cause, disability, or retirement; or the executive terminates employment during the term of the agreement for good reason.

Good reason is generally defined to include:

the assignment of duties materially inconsistent with the executive's positions, duties or responsibilities as in effect prior to the change in control;

a reduction in his or her base salary or fringe benefits;

a relocation of his or her principal place of employment by more than 25 miles from its location immediately prior to the change in control; or a failure by Provident to obtain an assumption of the agreement by its successor.

For Mr. Martin, the change in control severance payment is equal to three times the highest level of aggregate annualized base salary and other cash compensation paid to him during the calendar year termination occurs, or during either of the immediately preceding two calendar years, whichever is greater. For the other executive officers, the change in control severance payment is equal to two times the highest level of aggregate annualized base salary and other cash compensation paid to the executive during the calendar year termination occurs, or during either of the immediately preceding two calendar years, whichever is greater. In addition, the executive is generally entitled to receive life, health, dental and disability coverage for the remaining term of the agreement. Payments under the change in control agreements for executive officers, other than Mr. Martin, are reduced to the extent necessary to prevent an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

Other Matters

Executive Stock Ownership Requirements

The Compensation Committee recommended, and the board of directors adopted, the following minimum equity ownership requirements for senior executives to further align their interests with stockholders:

Tier I	Chief Executive Officer	100,000 shares
Tier II	Other Named Executive Officers	10,000 shares

Each of the named executive officers currently meets or exceeds these requirements. New executives are given five years from their date of hire or promotion to achieve the minimum equity ownership levels, and vested and unvested restricted stock awards and shares of Provident common stock held in the ESOP and 401(k) Plan count toward the requirements.

Tax Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, companies are subject to limits on the deductibility of executive compensation. Deductible compensation is limited to $1 million per year for each executive officer listed in the summary compensation table. Compensation that is performance-based under the Internal Revenue Code's definition is exempt from this limit. Stock option grants and other equity grants subject to performance vesting are intended to qualify as performance-based compensation.

Edgar Filing: PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

The Compensation Committee does not have a formal policy with respect to the payment of compensation in excess of the deduction limit. The Compensation Committee's practice is to structure compensation programs offered to the named executive officers with a view towards maximizing the tax deductibility of amounts paid.

However, in structuring compensation programs and making compensation decisions, the Committee considers a variety of factors, including Provident's tax position, the materiality of the payments and tax deductions involved and the need for flexibility to address unforeseen circumstances. After considering these factors, the Committee may decide to authorize payments, all or part of which would be nondeductible for federal tax purposes. In 2011, the compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer exceeded the deduction limit by approximately $8,000.

For Messrs. Martin, Blum and Raimonde, the amount shown is the value attributable to personal use of a company-provided automobile calculated in accordance with Internal Revenue Service guidelines. For the other named executive officers, the amount reflects a monthly car allowance.

Plan-Based Awards

The following table sets forth certain information as to grants of plan-based awards during 2011 made to the named executive officers. The awards shown below that were granted on January 27, 2011 represent the cash incentive payments that could be earned based on performance under the 2011 Annual Cash Incentive Plan. The awards granted on February 3, 2011 are long-term equity incentive awards that vest over a three-year period, and which are primarily performance-vesting awards. The Compensation Discussion and Analysis contains information about cash- and equity-based incentive awards made to the named executive officers.

- (1) The amounts shown assume achievement of 100% of individual goals and objectives. The range of estimated possible payouts reflects the full potential of the annual incentive payment if only one performance metric is achieved at Threshold level and if all performance metrics are achieved at Maximum level.
- (2) Represents the number of restricted stock awards that may vest if performance metrics are achieved over the three-year period 2011-2013 at Target level.
- (3) Represents the number of stock options that may vest if performance metrics are achieved over the three year period 2011-2013 at Target levels.
- (4) Represents the number of three-year time-vesting restricted stock awards granted. Messrs. Martin, Lyons, Blum, Kuntz and Raimonde were granted discretionary three-year time-vested stock awards in the amount of 10,000, 2,100, 900, 3,000 and 1,500 respectively.
- (5) Represents the number of five-year time-vesting stock options granted.
- (6) The fair value of stock awards is based on the closing price on the grant dates ($14.78 for the February 3, 2011 grants and $14.50 for the February 24, 2011 grants). A Black-Scholes value of $3.74 was used to determine the fair value of stock options.

Pension Benefits

The Provident Bank maintains a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan, which covers full-time employees hired prior to April 1, 2003, the date on which the pension plan was frozen.

Pension plan participants generally become entitled to retirement benefits upon the later of attainment of age 65 or the fifth anniversary of participation in the plan, which is referred to as the normal retirement date. The normal retirement benefit is equal to 1.35% of the participant's average final compensation up to the average social security level plus 2% of the participant's average final compensation in excess of the average social security level multiplied by the participant's years of credited service to a maximum of 30 years.

Participants who have completed at least five years of vested service generally become 100% vested in their accrued retirement benefits. Vested retirement benefits generally will be paid beginning on the participant's normal retirement date. Participants with accrued benefits in the pension plan prior to April 1, 2003 continued to vest in their pre-April 1, 2003 accrued benefit.

A participant may elect to retire prior to age 65 and receive early retirement benefits if retirement occurs after completion of at least five consecutive years of vested service and attainment of age 55. If an early retirement election is made by a participant, retirement benefits will begin on the first day of any month during the ten-year period preceding the participant's normal retirement date, as directed by the retiring participant. If a participant elects to retire prior to attaining age 65 and after completing five years of credited service, his or her accrued pension benefit will be reduced 3% per year for the first five years prior to age 65 and 5% per year thereafter to age 55. However, if a participant elects to retire early after both attaining age 60 and completing 25 years of credited service, his or her accrued pension benefit will be unreduced. Any participant who terminated employment prior to January 1, 2002, will receive an early pension benefit equal to the actuarial equivalent of the annual amount of the normal pension that would otherwise have been payable to the participant had he or she not elected to receive an early pension. If the termination of service occurs after the normal retirement date, the participant's benefits will begin on the participant's postponed retirement date.

The table below shows the present value of accumulated benefits payable to each of the named executive officers, including the number of years of service credited to each named executive officer, under each of the pension plans determined using interest rate and mortality rate assumptions consistent with those used in Provident's financial statements.

Nonqualified Deferred Compensation

The following table sets forth information about the participation by each named executive officer under our nonqualified defined contribution plan at and for the year ended December 31, 2011.

NONQUALIFIED DEFERRED COMPENSATION AT AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2011

Name	Executive Contributions in Last Fiscal Year ($)	Registrant Contributions in Last Fiscal Year ($) ⁽¹⁾	Aggregate Earnings in Last Fiscal Year ($) ⁽²⁾	Aggregate Withdrawals / Distributions ($)	Aggregate Balance at Last Fiscal Year-End ($) ⁽¹⁾
Christopher Martin		17,958	9,411		27,369
Thomas M. Lyons		2,356			2,356
Donald W. Blum		2,801	85		2,886
John F. Kuntz		2,482	60		2,542
Michael A. Raimonde		369			369

- (1) The amounts shown represent the estimated 2011 Non-Qualified Supplemental Defined Contribution Plan contribution for 2011. The portion of the contribution attributable to the ESOP is based on the fair market value of Provident common stock on December 30, 2011 (the last trading date in 2011) of $13.39. These contributions are included in the Summary Compensation Table in the column All Other Compensation.
- (2) The amounts shown represent interest and dividends credited under the Non-Qualified Supplemental Defined Contribution Plan, and for Mr. Martin the amount includes interest and dividends on his balance in the First Savings Bank Directors' Deferred Fee Plan. The amounts shown do not include any appreciation in the value of the phantom shares attributable to the ESOP portion of the supplemental benefit as the fair market value of Provident common stock at December 31, 2010 was $15.13 compared to $13.39 at December 30, 2011 (the last trading day in 2011). These amounts are not included in the Summary Compensation Table because the interest and dividends were not above market.

The Provident Bank maintains a Non-Qualified Supplemental Defined Contribution Plan (the Supplemental Plan), which is a non-qualified plan that provides additional benefits to certain executives whose benefits under the 401(k) Plan and ESOP are limited by tax law limitations applicable to tax-qualified plans. The Supplemental Plan requires a contribution for each participant who also participates in the 401(k) Plan and ESOP equal to the amount that would have been contributed under the terms of the 401(k) Plan and ESOP but for the tax law limitations, less the amount actually contributed under the 401(k) Plan and ESOP. The Supplemental Plan provides for a phantom stock allocation for qualified contributions that may not be accrued in the qualified ESOP and for matching contributions that may not be accrued in the qualified 401(k) Plan due to tax law limitations. Vesting of these supplemental benefits is subject to the same terms and conditions as the benefits provided under the 401(k) Plan and ESOP. The 401(k) portion of the benefit under the Supplemental Plan is credited with interest at an annual rate equal to the bond-equivalent yield on United States Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of ten years. The ESOP portion of the benefit under the Supplemental Plan is credited with dividends payable on Provident common stock.

Benefits payable under the Supplemental Plan are payable to the participant in a lump sum during the calendar year immediately following the calendar year of the earliest to occur of: (i) separation from service; (ii) disability; or (iii) death of the participant. The 401(k) portion of the benefit under the Supplemental Plan is paid in cash and the ESOP portion of the benefit is paid in Provident common stock unless the committee administering the Supplemental Plan determines in its sole discretion to pay it in cash.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control

Provident has entered into an employment agreement and a three-year change in control agreement with Mr. Martin and two-year change in control agreements with Messrs. Blum, Kuntz, Lyons and Raimonde. The following tables reflect the amount of compensation and benefits payable to each of the named executive officers of Provident at December 31, 2011 pursuant to such individual's employment agreement or change in control agreement, as applicable, in the event of termination of such executive's employment. No payments are required due to a voluntary termination under the employment agreement and the change in control agreements. The amount of compensation and benefits payable to each named executive officer upon an involuntary or good reason not-for-cause termination, termination following a change of control and in the event of disability (with respect to the employment agreement) is shown in the following tables. The amounts shown assume that such termination was effective as of December 31, 2011, and thus include amounts earned through such time and are estimates of the amounts which would be paid out to the executive upon his termination. The amounts shown relating to unvested options and stock awards are based on the fair market value per share of Provident common stock on December 30, 2011 (the last trading date in 2011), or $13.39 per share. Using that fair market value, only certain unvested stock options had value at December 31, 2011. The actual amounts that may be paid out to each executive can only be determined at the time of such executive's separation from Provident. The amounts shown on the following tables do not take into account any reductions that may be required in order to comply with Internal Revenue Code Section 280G cutback provisions in each of the named executive officers' agreements. There is no such cutback provision in Mr. Martin's agreement.
