WHY WE ARE HERE AGAIN

Despite losing by a significant margin in last year's proxy fight, Sardar Biglari remains inexplicably insistent in his campaign against Cracker Barrel. Why do we say inexplicably?

Because of all we accomplished over the past year

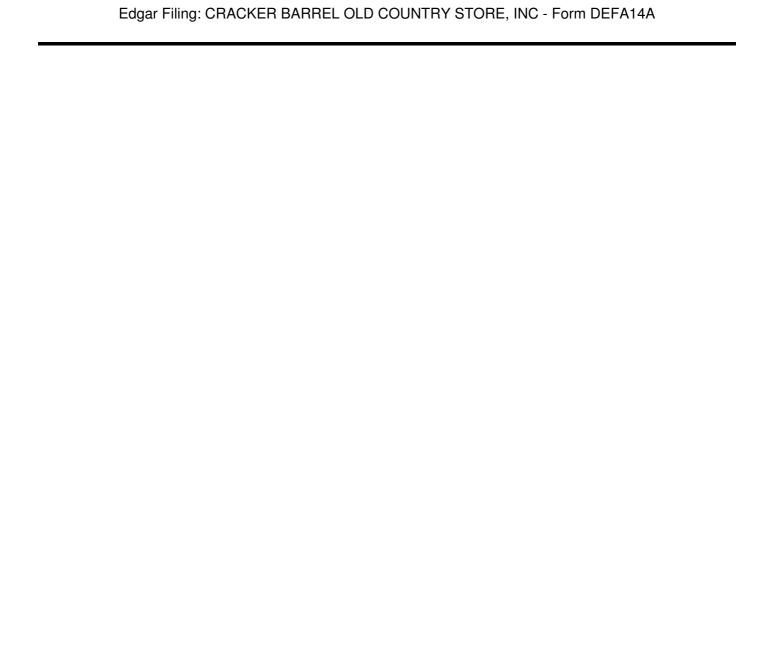

What would Biglari have done differently?

We don t know he hasn t raised specific new ideas or suggestions to management or the Board, despite having many opportunities to do so We believe Sardar Biglari has a conflict of interest, history of creeping control that is not in the best interest of shareholders, and a questionable track record on corporate governance Despite being offered two independent seats (for the second year), he turned the offer down

Biglari refuses to consider any settlement offer unless he is personally appointed to the Board

Our shareholders determined he was not right for the Board last year

We agreed and believe he is not right for the Board this year either This discussion should be about the business and who s got it on the right path

WHY WE BELIEVE SARDAR BIGLARI IS STILL WRONG FOR THIS BOARD

Biglari has a history of creeping control that we believe is not in the best interest of shareholders:

We believe Biglari has a questionable track record on corporate governance: still proposing dual class of high vote / low vote stock at Biglari Holdings and proposed excessive compensation for himself at Biglari Holdings which received negative shareholder and ISS responses Biglari Holdings just agreed to pay a $850,000 civil penalty to resolve a Federal Trade Commission

(1) Biglari Holdings, press release dated 23-Sep-2011.

However, Biglari s Rhetoric Changes Over Time and We Believe Cannot Be Relied Upon

we told Chairman Michael Woodhouse that we have purchased stock for investment purposes only Our intention was that even if we were to purchase additional stock, we would keep ownership well under 20%. Current ownership of 17.4% exceeds his previously announced intentions Biglari has twice attempted to gain board seats to influence the Company not investment purposes only In September 2012, Biglari Holdings agreed to pay $850,000 to settle charges that it violated anti-trust rules when it purchased Cracker Barrel shares 1 Sardar Biglari 1 Sardar

WHAT SARDAR BIGLARI RECENTLY CONFIRMED ABOUT BIGLARI HOLDINGS We, however,
are control

investors

Biglari Holdings is an unconventional public company becauset is in the business of owning other businesses without regard to any particular industry along with the stipulation that all major capital allocation decisions are made by Sardar Biglari, Chairman and CEO.

The logic underlying the dual class structure indicates that we could gain increased flexibility in structuring acquisitions and financing transactions to augment our growth. As a holding company, we believe that the greater flexibility resulting from our proposal would transform into an advantage in our pursuit of other businesses. We may also use such stock to

OUR VIEWS ON BIGLARI ARE SHARED BY WALL STREET ANALYSTS

Selected Analyst Commentary

Source: Publicly available equity research reports, permission to use quotations neither sought nor obtained Mr. Biglari s argument seems to be less focused on corporate governance and shareholder performance, which was the basis of last year s proxy fight, and more focused on demanding that as the largest shareholder he deserves two seats on Cracker Barrel s board. We are skeptical that the other 82% of Cracker Barrel s shareholders would vote for two executives of a direct competitor, Steak n Shake, to join Cracker Barrel s board. We find it interesting that if you exclude the investment in Cracker Barrel, Biglari Holdings has not made many shareholder enhancing decisions the past two years. Assuming the market is reflecting the CBRL investment gain in BH s market valuation, we estimate BH s market value would be down about 10% since it became an active investor in Cracker Barrel on June 13, 2011 (vs. KBCM Restaurant Index +30%). We estimate the CBRL investment represents roughly 55% of

BH s enterprise value. We expect Biglari Holdings will lose the proxy fight in November. Chris O Cull, KeyBanc Capital Markets; 20-Sep-2012 Mr. Biglari has not issued an alternative strategic plan for CBRL bu*t* has suggested aggressive goals to drive sales and traffic without supporting details as to how such results would be realized. Under Sandy Cochran, who became CEO in September

company has performed strongly.
Numerous changes have been implemented ranging from board composition (much higher quality board in our opinion) to marketing, cost management, and willingness to return cash to shareholders. It is not clear what Mr. Biglari s plans might involve or if they could be as effective as management s recent performance.

nominees:
Not be affiliated with Biglari Holdings
Not be a current executive officer or director of a competing restaurant company Comply with CBRL s long-standing publicly disclosed qualification criteria This offer was subject to the minimal conditions that, Biglari Holdings:
Support the Board-recommended slate of nominees at the 2012 annual meeting that would include the two nominees of Biglari Holdings
Not nominate other candidates or present shareholder proposals at the 2012 annual meeting
Not seek to call or support any special meeting prior to the Company s 2013 annual meeting Many proxy fights are settled with the appointment of one or more directors that are not affiliated with the dissident, yet Biglari refuses even to consider nominating an independent director, insisting that is has to be him and Cooley

In voting Biglari down last year, shareholders determined last year he wasn t right for the Board

OTHER SHAREHOLDER MATTERS

Shareholder-Friendly Rights Plan is Fully Consistent with ISS Guidelines, Including a 20% Threshold Compensation

Pay for Performance Culture

Adopted in April 2012 in response to threat that Biglari could gain creeping control without paying a control premium

Tennessee law preventing shareholders from voting shares above 20% without shareholder approval is not sufficient. By acquiring shares above 20%, Biglari could still prevent other shareholders from voting those shares and gain greater influence by virtue of economic ownership

Shareholder-friendly provisions include:

Rights plan would not be triggered by qualifying offers (all-cash, fully financed tender offers that remain open for at least

60 business days)

Rights plan is focused on creeping acquisitions above 20% and would not deter a non-coercive cash tender offer for all

shares

Rights expire if shareholders do not approve rights plan at November 2012 annual meeting

If shareholders approve, rights would expire on April 9, 2015

80% of CEO s target total direct 2012 compensation, and 69% of other named executive officers, is contingent upon measurable performance

Incentive programs have one, two and three year performance periods to promote long term and current year shareholder value

WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD

We have accomplished a great deal over the last year with more to come

Our reconfigured Board is highly engaged and continuously seeks to create value We believe Biglari s and Cooley s presence would create a conflict of interest and would be detrimental to the functioning of our Board

We again made a good faith offer this year to permit Biglari to appoint two independent directors to the Board and again he rejected. Is his fight about having representation or just about him?

We believe Biglari s historic playbook of creeping control and poor corporate governance could harm Cracker Barrel and its shareholders
