Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Underwriting Agreement

On December 4, 2013, Endologix, Inc. (the Company) entered into an underwriting agreement (the Underwriting Agreement) with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, as representative (the Representative) of the several underwriters named in Schedule A thereto (collectively, the Underwriters), in connection with the registered underwritten public offering (the Offering) of $75,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Company's 2.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2018 (the Notes). The Company also granted the Underwriters an option, exercisable for 30 days, to purchase up to an additional $11,250,000 aggregate principal amount of the Notes to cover over-allotments, if any (the Option). On December 5, 2013, the Underwriters exercised the Option in full. The Company estimates that the net proceeds from the Offering (including the Option), after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by the Company, will be approximately $82.9 million. The Offering is expected to close on or about December 10, 2013, subject to customary closing conditions. The Notes are to be issued pursuant to a base indenture, as supplemented by one or more supplemental indentures, in each case to be entered into between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee.

The Underwriting Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by the Company and customary conditions to closing, obligations of the Company and the Underwriters, respectively and indemnification, termination and other customary provisions.

The Offering was made pursuant to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-3ASR (Registration No. 333-181762) (the Registration Statement), which became effective May 30, 2012, and the prospectus dated May 30, 2012 included in the Registration Statement, as supplemented by a prospectus supplement dated December 4, 2013.

The above description of the Underwriting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Underwriting Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 1.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Capped Call Confirmation

In connection with the pricing of the Notes, on December 4, 2013, the Company entered into a capped call transaction (the Base Capped Call Confirmation) with Bank of America, N.A. (BofA), an affiliate of the Representative, and in connection with the exercise in full of the Option by the Underwriters, on December 5, 2013, the Company entered into an additional capped call transaction (such additional capped call transaction, together with the Base Capped Call Confirmation, the Capped Call Confirmations) with BofA. The Capped Call Confirmations will cover, subject to anti-dilution adjustments substantially similar to those applicable to the Notes, a number of shares of common stock of the Company equal to the aggregate conversion rate of the Notes. The cap price under the Capped Call Confirmations will initially be $29.02 per share, which represents a premium of approximately 60.0% over the last reported sale price of the Company's common stock on December 4, 2013, and is subject to certain adjustments under the terms of the Capped Call Confirmations. The Company used approximately $7.42 million of the net proceeds from the Offering to pay the cost of the Capped Call Confirmations.

The Capped Call Confirmations are expected generally to reduce the potential dilution and/or offset potential cash payments the Company is required to make in excess of the principal amount upon conversion of the Notes in the event that the market price per share of common stock of the Company, as measured under the terms of the Capped Call Confirmations, is greater than the strike price of the Capped Call Confirmations, which initially corresponds to the conversion price of the Notes and is subject to anti-dilution adjustments substantially similar to those applicable to the conversion rate of the Notes. If, however, the market price per share of common stock of the Company, as measured under the terms of the Capped Call Confirmations, exceeds the cap price of the Capped Call Confirmations, there would nevertheless be dilution and/or there would not be an offset of such potential cash payments, in each case, to the extent that such market price exceeds the cap price of the Capped Call Confirmations.

The Company will not be required to make any cash payments to BofA or any of its affiliates upon the exercise of the options that are a part of the Capped Call Confirmations, but will be entitled to receive from BofA (or an affiliate thereof) a number of shares of common stock of the Company and/or an amount of cash generally based on the amount by which the market price per share of common stock of the Company, as measured under the terms of the Capped Call Confirmations, is greater than the strike price of the Capped Call Confirmations during the relevant valuation period under the Capped Call Confirmations. However, if the market price of common stock of the Company, as measured under the terms of the Capped Call Confirmations, exceeds the cap price of the Capped Call Confirmations during such valuation period under the Capped Call Confirmations, the number of shares of common stock of the Company and/or the amount of cash the Company expects to receive upon exercise of the Capped Call Confirmations will be capped based on the amount by which the cap price exceeds the strike price of the Capped Call Confirmations.

For any conversions of Notes prior to the close of business on the 55th scheduled trading day immediately preceding the stated maturity date, including without limitation upon an acquisition of the Company or similar business combination, a corresponding portion of the Capped Call Confirmations will be terminated. Upon such termination, the portion of the Capped Call Confirmations being terminated will be settled at fair value (subject to certain limitations), as determined by BofA, in its capacity as calculation agent under the Capped Call Confirmations, which the Company expects to receive from BofA, and no payments will be due BofA.

The Capped Call Confirmations are separate transactions entered into by the Company with BofA, are not part of the terms of the Notes and will not change the holders' rights under the Notes. Holders of the Notes will not have any rights with respect to the Capped Call Confirmations.

The summary of the Capped Call Confirmations is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Capped Call Confirmations, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment to Wells Fargo Credit Agreement

On December 3, 2013, in connection with the Offering, the Company, Nellix, Inc. (together with the Company, the Borrowers) and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (Wells Fargo) entered into a seventh amendment to the Credit Agreement, dated October 30, 2009, as amended, by and between the Borrowers and Wells Fargo (the Credit Agreement) permitting the offering and issuance of the Notes (the Wells Fargo Amendment). The Wells Fargo Amendment amended the Credit Agreement to, among other things, (i) permit the Company to incur indebtedness pursuant to certain types of transactions, including the Offering, in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $100,000,000, (ii) permit the Company to make required regularly scheduled payments of interest on certain types of indebtedness, including indebtedness incurred by the Company in the Offering, and make any required payments of principal in connection with certain types of conversions of indebtedness, including payments of principal in connection with conversion of the Notes, (iii) permit the Company to enter into the Capped Call Confirmations in connection with the Offering and (iv) include certain other ministerial amendments to permit the Offering under the terms of the Credit Agreement and related matters.

The above description of the Wells Fargo Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Wells Fargo Amendment, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
