ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

The Reporting Persons believe that the Issuer's Common Stock is undervalued and is an attractive investment.

The Reporting Persons intend to engage in discussions with the Issuer and Issuer's management and board of directors, other stockholders of the Issuer and other persons that may relate to governance and board composition, management, operations, business, assets, capitalization, financial condition, strategic plans and the future of the Issuer. The Reporting Persons may also take one or more of the actions described in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D and may discuss such actions with the Issuer and Issuer's management and the board of directors, other stockholders of the Issuer and other persons.

The Reporting Persons intend to review their investments in the Issuer on a continuing basis. Depending on various factors and subject to the obligations described herein, including, without limitation, the Issuer's financial position and strategic direction, actions taken by the board, price levels of shares of Common Stock, other investment opportunities available to the Reporting Persons, concentration of positions in the portfolios managed by the Reporting Persons, market conditions and general economic and industry conditions, the Reporting Persons may take such actions with respect to their investments in the Issuer as they deem appropriate, including, without limitation, purchasing additional shares of Common Stock or other financial instruments related to the Issuer or selling some or all of their beneficial or economic holdings, engaging in hedging or similar transactions with respect to the securities relating to the Issuer and/or otherwise changing their intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Valeant currently intends to propose a merger in which the Issuer's shareholders will receive a combination of cash and Valeant common shares. Valeant has not yet determined the amount of cash and number of Valeant common shares it will offer, but it currently expects the cash component will total around $15 billion. Barclays and Royal Bank of Canada have indicated that they are prepared to deliver financing commitments covering the cash portion of the transaction at the time Valeant makes an offer.

Although Valeant currently expects to make an offer, it is under no obligation and provides no assurance it will do so. If Valeant fails to make an offer before May 2, 2014, the Reporting Persons will have the right to terminate the letter agreement described in Item 6 below and wind up PS Fund 1.

The Reporting Persons and Valeant intend to consult with each other in connection with their respective investments in Common Stock, as described in Item 6 below.

The disclosures in Item 6 are herein incorporated by reference.

(c) Exhibit 99.2, which is incorporated by reference into this Item 5(c) as if restated in full, describes all of the transactions in shares of Common Stock, forward purchase contracts and options that were effected in the past 60 days by the Reporting Persons for the benefit of PS Fund 1. ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

On February 25, 2014, Pershing Square and Valeant entered into a Letter Agreement (the Letter Agreement) relating to PS Fund 1's investment in Common Stock. Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, the parties thereto agreed, among other things, that:

Valeant and Pershing Square will become members in a newly formed jointly owned entity (which thereafter became known as PS Fund 1) and that entity will be the exclusive entity through which Pershing Square and funds advised by Pershing Square will acquire Issuer equity;

Valeant will contribute $75.9 million to the entity; Funds advised by Pershing Square will contribute in its discretion additional amounts to the entity and the entity will purchase equity in the Issuer;

Valeant will not, while Valeant, Pershing Square and/or the entity may be deemed a group, acquire beneficial ownership of Issuer equity, except in a business combination transaction with the Issuer or as a result of transactions by Pershing Square, the entity or any of their respective affiliates;

The entity will dissolve following the earliest to occur of several events, including the consummation of a business combination transaction with the Issuer or at such time that Valeant informs Pershing Square or the Issuer that it is no longer interested in pursuing a business combination transaction with the Issuer;

Income, gain and loss on $75.9 million in value of shares of Common Stock purchased by the entity will be allocated to Valeant and the remaining net profit realized by the entity will be allocated to funds advised by Pershing Square, except that Valeant will have a right to 15% of the net profits otherwise allocable to funds advised by Pershing Square if, before dissolution and at a time when a Valeant business combination proposal for the Issuer is outstanding, a proposal for a third party business combination with the Issuer is outstanding or made;

Valeant will consult with Pershing Square before making any material decisions relating to a business combination with the Issuer;

Pershing Square will direct the management of the entity (including the manner and timing of purchases and sales of Issuer equity) and will generally decide how the entity votes any securities it owns, except that until the Termination Time (as defined in the Letter Agreement) the entity will vote all of its shares of Common Stock in favor of a proposal by Valeant to acquire the Issuer and other proposals supported by Valeant and against proposals reasonably likely to impair the ability of Valeant to consummate a business combination with the Issuer, and, subject to limited exceptions, will not sell or otherwise reduce its economic ownership in Issuer equity;

At the election of Valeant, immediately prior to consummation of a Valeant business combination with the Issuer, Pershing Square will purchase, for $400 million, shares of Valeant common stock at a per share price reflecting a 15% discount to the then current market price;

If Valeant and the Issuer consummate a business combination transaction that permits stockholders of the Issuer to elect to receive Valeant common stock, Pershing Square will cause the entity to elect to receive Valeant common stock for all shares of Common Stock over which it controls that election; and

If Valeant and the Issuer consummate a business combination transaction, Pershing Square will, on the date of consummation, hold Valeant common stock with a then current value of at least $1.5 billion and, for a period of one year after that consummation, it will not sell shares of Valeant common stock unless after giving effect to the sale it continues to own at least $1.5 billion in value of Valeant common stock (and during that one year period it will not hedge its investment in that minimum number of shares).

Pershing Square formed PS Fund 1 and, pursuant to and in accordance with the Letter Agreement, Valeant USA, Pershing Square and certain funds advised by Pershing Square entered into an Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement for such entity that generally reflected the understandings set forth in the Letter Agreement (the LLC Agreement). The foregoing summaries of the Letter Agreement and the LLC Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the actual language of those agreements, which are filed as Exhibit 99.3 and Exhibit 99.4 and incorporated herein by reference.

The Subject Shares are beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons. PS Fund 1 may, from time to time, enter into and dispose of options, forward purchase contracts or other derivative transactions with one or more counterparties that are based upon the value of shares of Common Stock, which transactions may be significant in amount. The profit, loss and/or return on such contracts may be wholly or partially dependent on the market value of the shares of Common Stock.

As of April 21, 2014, PS Fund 1 holds options to purchase 24,831,107 shares of Common Stock pursuant to various American-style call options with strike prices ranging from $1.20 to $1.33 and exercisable through dates ranging from March 4, 2015 to April 20, 2015. PS Fund 1 has also entered into certain forward purchase contracts with an expiration of April 22, 2015, covering 3,450,000 notional shares of the Issuer's Common Stock. The forward purchase contracts may be settled by physical settlement or cash settlement. The consideration for the forward purchase contracts will be paid at settlement based on a forward price of $140.37 and 3,450,000 notional shares of the Issuer's Common Stock. None of the options or forward purchase contracts gives the Reporting Persons direct or indirect voting, investment or dispositive control over any securities of the Issuer or requires the counterparty thereto to acquire, hold, vote or dispose of any securities of the Issuer. The counterparty to the options and the forward purchase contracts is an international investment bank. Please refer to Exhibit 99.2 hereto for additional information.

Except as described herein, none of the Reporting Persons or, to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any of the other persons identified in Item 2 above has any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) with respect to any securities of the Issuer.
