Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 27, 2014, BioDelivery Sciences International, Inc. (the Company) entered into a definitive Development and Exclusive License Option Agreement (the Development Agreement) with Evonik Corporation, an Alabama corporation (Evonik), to develop and commercialize an injectable, extended release, microparticle formulation of buprenorphine for the treatment of opioid dependence (the Product). Under the Development Agreement, the Company also has the right to pursue development of the Product for pain management.

Under the Development Agreement, Evonik has also granted to the Company two exclusive options to acquire exclusive worldwide licenses, with rights of sublicense, to certain patents and other intellectual property rights of Evonik to develop and commercialize certain products containing buprenorphine. If such options are exercised, such licenses would be memorialized in the License Agreement (as defined below).

Pursuant to the Development Agreement, Evonik is responsible for using commercially reasonable efforts to develop a formulation for the Product in accordance with a work plan mutually agreed upon by the parties (the Project). Should the Project proceed past the Product formulation stage, Evonik also has the right to manufacture clinical and commercial supplies of Product, such manufacturing arrangement to be negotiated by the Parties in good faith in a formal License and Supply Agreement(s) (the License Agreement), with such License Agreement covering Evonik's intellectual property rights to be entered into between the parties if certain conditions are met and terms are mutually agreed upon.

Upon execution of the Development Agreement and the delivery by Evonik to the Company of certain data and results achieved by Evonik from prior work performed by Evonik relating to the Product, the Company is obligated to pay to Evonik an initial, non-refundable, non-creditable, one-time payment as well as development service fees for work to be completed, together totaling up to $2.16 million in accordance with an estimated budget set out in the Development Agreement (the Estimated Budget) for the mutually agreed Project. Evonik shall not bill the Company for amounts greater than the Estimated Budget unless change orders are executed by both parties.

Should Evonik and Company enter into the License Agreement following the attainment of a Phase I ready formulation for one or both of the opioid dependence or pain management indications, Company would pay Evonik certain non-refundable, non-creditable one-time payments in conjunction with certain future regulatory filings and approvals and royalties on net sales of Product.

The Development Agreement contains customary termination provisions, and the Company may additionally terminate the Development Agreement at any time after the completion of certain enumerated tasks as provided in the Development Agreement, for any reason or no reason, by providing written notice of termination to Evonik. Upon termination of the Development Agreement, Evonik will be paid any amounts owed to Evonik in accordance with the Estimated Budget for work that has been performed under the Development Agreement through the effective date of termination, including any reasonable, documented, non-cancelable third party costs and any reasonable, documented wind-down costs reasonably incurred by Evonik in connection with the Project. Should Company terminate for reasons other than for a material, uncured breach by Evonik or Evonik's bankruptcy, Evonik shall have the right to use any and all data and intellectual property generated under the Project for any purpose.

The Development Agreement contains customary provisions for confidentiality and mutual non-competition. The Development Agreement also contains other customary provisions regarding the activities of the parties in relation to the Product.

The Development Agreement is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 10.1. All descriptions of the Development Agreement herein are qualified in their entirety to the text of Exhibit 10.1 hereto, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

In connection with the Development Agreement described in Item 1.01 of this Current Report, the Company issued a press release on October 28, 2014. This press release is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 99.1.
