MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT

Dear Shareholders:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, to be held at 10:00 a.m., local time, on Thursday, June 25, 2015, at Bridge Capital's principal executive offices at 55 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California 95113.

The Boards of Directors of Western Alliance Bancorporation, or Western Alliance, and Bridge Capital have each approved an agreement and plan of merger, or the merger agreement, pursuant to which Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance, with Western Alliance surviving, which we refer to as the merger. Immediately following the completion of the merger, Bridge Capital's principal operating subsidiary, Bridge Bank, will merge with and into Western Alliance Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Western Alliance, which we refer to as the bank merger. Following the bank merger, Western Alliance Bank plans to operate its Northern California offices and the existing Bridge Bank offices as a combined division under the Bridge Bank trade name.

At the special meeting you will be asked to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby. You will also be asked to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and to approve adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

If the merger is completed, Bridge Capital shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Bridge Capital common stock, to receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and (y) $2.39 in cash, subject to possible adjustment, if necessary, to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization. Each outstanding, vested and unexercised Bridge Capital option for which an exercise election has not been made will be canceled and the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (1) the excess of (A) the sum of (i) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (ii) $2.39 over (B) the exercise price per share of such option and (2) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option. In addition, certain unvested restricted stock awards and stock options previously issued by Bridge Capital will be converted to Western Alliance awards and options under the terms of the merger agreement.

Western Alliance's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol WAL. Bridge Capital's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol BBNK. On May 21, 2015, the last practicable trading day prior to the printing of the attached proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price per share of Western Alliance's common stock was $31.82 and the closing price per share of Bridge Capital common stock was $27.75.

This is a prospectus of Western Alliance relating to its offering of up to 13,548,204 shares of Western Alliance common stock to Bridge Capital shareholders in the proposed merger and a proxy statement of Bridge Capital. This document and the documents incorporated by reference contain important information about Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, the merger and the conditions that must be satisfied before the merger can occur. Bridge Capital encourages you to read this entire proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the merger agreement, which is included as Appendix A, and the section discussing Risk Factors relating to the merger and the combined company beginning on page 22.

Your vote is very important. The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock entitled to vote. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote on the Internet or by telephone or by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card as soon as possible to make sure your shares are represented at the special meeting. To vote your shares, you may vote by telephone or on the Internet or use the enclosed proxy card or attend the special shareholders' meeting. Bridge Capital will hold to allow you to consider and vote on the merger agreement. To approve the proposals to be voted upon at the special meeting, you must vote for the proposal by following the instructions on the enclosed proxy card. If you do not vote at all, that will, in effect, count as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Bridge Capital's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are fair to, and in the best interests of, Bridge Capital and its shareholders. Accordingly, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors unanimously recommends you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, FOR the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and FOR the proposal to approve adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

On behalf of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors, we thank you for your continued support of the company.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON

JUNE 25, 2015

To the Shareholders of Bridge Capital Holdings:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting of shareholders of Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, will be held at 10:00 a.m., local time, on Thursday, June 25, 2015, at its principal executive offices at 55 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California 95113, for the following purposes:

1. Approval of the Merger Agreement. To consider and vote on a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated March 9, 2015, or the merger agreement, by and between Western Alliance Bancorporation, or Western Alliance, and Bridge Capital, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A hereto, pursuant to which Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance with Western Alliance surviving, or the merger, and approve the transactions contemplated thereby.
2. Advisory Vote on Certain Compensatory Arrangements. To consider and vote on a proposal to approve, on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, as described in the section entitled "The Merger" Golden Parachute Compensation for Bridge Capital's Named Executive Officers beginning on page 71; and
3. Adjournment. A proposal to approve any adjournments or postponements of the meeting, including, without limitation, a motion to adjourn the special meeting to another time and/or place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in order to approve the foregoing proposals.

You are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof only if you were a holder of record of Bridge Capital's common stock at the close of business on May 18, 2015.

Bridge Capital's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are fair to, and in the best interests of, Bridge Capital and its shareholders. Accordingly, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors unanimously recommends you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, FOR the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and FOR the proposal to approve adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Bridge Capital's common stock outstanding on May 18, 2015 is required to approve the merger agreement and the merger. The required vote of Bridge Capital's shareholders is based on the total number of shares of Bridge Capital's common stock outstanding and not on the number of shares which are actually voted. Not returning a proxy card, or not voting by telephone, Internet or in person at the special meeting, or abstaining from voting, will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

Each of the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, have agreed to vote in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Bridge Capital shareholders are entitled to assert dissenters' rights with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Your dissenters' rights are conditioned on your strict compliance with the requirements of Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law. The full text of Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus, and a summary of these provisions can be found under "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 72.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU PLAN TO ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING, PLEASE VOTE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE BY MAIL, BY TELEPHONE OR THROUGH THE INTERNET. INSTRUCTIONS ON THESE DIFFERENT WAYS TO VOTE YOUR SHARES ARE FOUND ON THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD. YOU MAY REVOKE YOUR PROXY AT ANY TIME BEFORE IT IS VOTED AT THE SPECIAL MEETING.

By order of the Board of Directors,

Daniel P. Myers
President and Chief Executive Officer

San Jose, California

May 28, 2015

Your vote is important. Please complete, sign, date and return your proxy card.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: Western Alliance Bancorporation, or Western Alliance, and Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, have agreed to the acquisition of Bridge Capital by Western Alliance under the terms of an agreement and plan of merger that is described in this proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A. In order to complete the merger, Bridge Capital shareholders must vote to approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby. Bridge Capital will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to obtain this approval. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting of Bridge Capital shareholders, and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials for the special meeting allow you to vote your shares of Bridge Capital common stock without attending the special meeting in person.

We are delivering this proxy statement/prospectus to you as both a proxy statement of Bridge Capital and a prospectus of Western Alliance. It is a proxy statement because Bridge Capital's Board of Directors is soliciting proxies from its shareholders to vote on the approval of (i) the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; (ii) on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensatory arrangements between Bridge Capital and its named executive officers providing for compensation in connection with the merger and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable; and (iii) adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals, and your proxy will be used at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. This document is a prospectus because Western Alliance will issue Western Alliance common stock to the Bridge Capital common shareholders in the merger, and this prospectus contains information about that common stock.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: In the proposed merger, Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance, with Western Alliance being the surviving corporation. Immediately following the completion of the merger, Bridge Bank will be merged with and into Western Alliance's wholly-owned subsidiary, Western Alliance Bank, with Western Alliance Bank as the surviving entity. Western Alliance plans to operate its Northern California offices and the existing Bridge Bank offices as a combined division under the Bridge Bank trade name.

Q: What are the proposals on which I am being asked to vote?

A: You are being asked to vote on the following proposals: (i) to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, (ii) to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensatory arrangements between Bridge Capital and its named executive officers in connection with the merger and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and (iii) to approve adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Q. Does the Bridge Capital Board of Directors recommend voting in favor of the proposals?

- A. Yes. After careful consideration, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors has unanimously determined that the merger agreement, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders. As a result, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement, FOR approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensatory arrangements between Bridge Capital and its named executive officers and FOR the approval of adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Q: Does my vote matter?

A: Yes. The merger cannot be completed unless the merger agreement is approved by the Bridge Capital shareholders. If you fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, or vote to abstain, or you do not provide your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee with voting instructions, as applicable, this will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: What vote is required to approve the proposals?

A: The merger agreement proposal must be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock entitled to vote thereon. The proposal regarding the compensatory arrangements between Bridge Capital and its named executive officers must be approved by the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote thereon. The proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn the special meeting, including for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, must be approved by the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote, regardless of whether a quorum is present.

Q: When will the merger close?

A: The merger is expected to close as soon as possible after satisfaction or waiver of all applicable closing conditions, including the receipt of Bridge Capital shareholder and regulatory approvals, which closing conditions are expected to be satisfied or waived in the second half of 2015. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur.

Q: What will Bridge Capital shareholders receive in the merger?

A: For each share of Bridge Capital Common stock you own, you will receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and (y) $2.39 in cash. Each outstanding, vested and unexercised Bridge Capital option for which an exercise election has not been made will be canceled and the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (1) the excess of (A) the sum of (i) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (ii) $2.39 over (B) the exercise price per share of such option and (2) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option. In addition, certain unvested restricted stock awards and stock options previously issued by Bridge Capital will be converted into Western Alliance awards and options under the terms of the merger agreement.

To facilitate the merger's compliance with the continuity of interest requirement for tax-free reorganizations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, the form of merger consideration is subject to potential adjustment to ensure that the merger qualifies as such a reorganization. Such adjustment, if required, would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration delivered to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights. For more information regarding the potential adjustments that may result to the merger consideration for U.S. federal income tax purposes, see the factors discussed in Risk Factors beginning on page 22 and The Merger Agreement Potential Adjustment to the Merger Consideration beginning on page 82.

Q: What will happen to shares of Western Alliance common stock in the merger?

A: Each share of Western Alliance common stock outstanding held by Western Alliance shareholders immediately before the merger will continue to represent one share of Western Alliance common stock after the effective time of the merger. Accordingly, Western Alliance shareholders will receive no consideration in the merger and the merger will not change the number of shares a Western Alliance shareholder currently owns.

However, after the merger, the current shareholders of Western Alliance as a group will own a percentage of ownership of the combined company that is smaller than such shareholders' percentage ownership of Western Alliance before the merger.

Q: What if I hold options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are vested as of the effective time of the merger or will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time?

A: Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Capital common stock granted under Bridge Capital stock plans and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms of such option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and will receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. If you own options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that have vested or will vest coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, you will soon receive under separate cover an election form that you may use to make an exercise election with respect to your options. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which the option holder has not made an exercise election will be cancelled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an exercise election has not been made the exercise price of which exceeds the closing price will be converted automatically into an adjusted option to purchase Western Alliance common stock, and will be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Capital stock option in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

Q: What if I hold options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are unvested as of the effective time of the merger or will not become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time?

A: At the effective time of the merger, each unvested Bridge Capital stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time, will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Capital common stock and will be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock (each an adjusted option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option immediately prior to the effective time and (y) 0.905, with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each adjusted option will have an exercise price per share of Western Alliance common stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option divided by (ii) 0.905. Each adjusted option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital stock option under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Q: What if I hold restricted shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are vested as of the effective time of the merger or will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time?

A: Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the effective time (including any Bridge Capital restricted stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, as of the effective time), will be a vested right to receive the merger consideration.

Q: What if I hold restricted shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are unvested as of the effective time of the merger or will not become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time?

A: At the effective time, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge capital common stock and will be converted automatically into a share of restricted Western Alliance common stock (each, an adjusted restricted share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock and (y) 0.905 (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each adjusted restricted share will otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Q: How do I make an exercise election with respect to my options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock?

A: If you own options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are vested or will vest at or prior to the effective time, you will soon receive under separate cover an election form that you may use to make an exercise election with respect to your options. The exercise election deadline will be 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the date immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. To make an election, a holder must submit a completed election form and return it so that the form is actually received by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC at or before the exercise election deadline in accordance with the instructions on the election form. If you do not make a valid exercise election at or before the exercise deadline, at the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which you have not made an exercise election will be cancelled and, in exchange for such cancellation, you will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

Q: Can I change my exercise election with respect to my options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock?

A: Once an option is exercised, such exercise cannot be revoked or undone. All elections will be revoked automatically if the merger agreement is terminated.

Q: What are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of shares of Bridge Capital common stock?

A: The merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Therefore, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a result of the merger, it is expected that a U.S. holder of shares of Bridge Capital common stock generally will only recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash received as part of the merger consideration but will recognize gain or loss with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock. See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 76.

Q: Will I receive any dividends?

A: Before the merger takes place, Bridge Capital has agreed not to pay any dividends to its shareholders. After the merger, any dividends will be based on what Western Alliance pays to its shareholders. Western Alliance has not paid dividends in the past and does not presently intend to pay dividends.

Q: What will happen if Bridge Capital shareholders do not approve the compensatory arrangements proposal?

A: Approval of the compensatory arrangements proposal is not a condition to the completion of the merger. The vote is an advisory vote and will not be binding on Bridge Capital. Therefore, if the other requisite shareholder approvals are obtained and the merger is completed, the amounts payable under the compensatory arrangements will still be paid as long as any other conditions applicable thereto occur.

Q: Why am I being asked to cast an advisory (nonbinding) vote to approve compensation that certain Bridge Capital officers will receive in connection with the merger?

A: SEC rules require that Bridge Capital seek an advisory (nonbinding) vote with respect to certain payments that will be made to Bridge Capital's named executive officers by Bridge Capital and Bridge Bank in connection with the merger. See The Merger Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours and The Merger Golden Parachute Compensation for Bridge Capital Named Executive Officers.

Q: Who can vote?

A: You are entitled to vote at the Bridge Capital special meeting if you owned Bridge Capital common stock at the close of business on May 18, 2015. You will have one vote for each share of Bridge Capital common stock that you owned at that time.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should first carefully read and consider the information contained and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. If you are a Bridge Capital shareholder:

After you have decided how to vote your shares, please indicate on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote, and sign, date and return it as soon as possible in the enclosed envelope. If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy card will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement proposal, the compensatory arrangements proposal and the proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals. Not returning a proxy card, or not voting in person at the special meeting, or abstaining from voting, will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

You can choose to attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person instead of completing and returning a proxy card. If you do complete and return a proxy card, you may change your vote at any time up to and including the time of the vote on the day of the special meeting by following the directions in the section The Special Meeting Revocability of Proxies.

You may also choose to submit your proxy by telephone or on the Internet and may do so by following the instructions on your proxy card.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, bank or other nominee, will my broker, bank or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker, bank or other nominee will not vote your shares of Bridge Capital common stock unless you provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote. You should instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares by following the instructions provided by the broker, bank or nominee with this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What if I fail to vote on the Internet or by telephone or to submit my proxy card or to instruct my broker, bank or other nominee?

A: If you fail to properly vote on the Internet or by telephone or to submit your proxy card or to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares of Bridge Capital common stock and you do not attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, your shares will not be voted. This will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

Q: What do I do if I receive more than one proxy statement/prospectus or set of voting instructions?

A: If you hold shares directly as a record holder and also in street name or otherwise through a nominee, you may receive more than one proxy statement/prospectus and/or set of voting instructions relating to the special meeting. These should each be voted and/or returned separately in order to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the close of voting at the special meeting by doing any one of the following: (1) complete, sign, date and submit another proxy (a properly executed, valid proxy will revoke any previously submitted proxies); (2) re-vote by telephone or on the Internet; (3) provide written notice of revocation to Bridge Capital's Corporate Secretary; or (4) attend the special meeting and vote in person. For more information see The Special Meeting Revocability of Proxies beginning on page 41.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is complete you will receive a form which will include instructions for surrendering your stock certificates representing your shares of Bridge Capital common stock in exchange for the merger consideration. In the meantime, you should retain your stock certificates because they are still valid. Please DO NOT send in your stock certificates with your proxy card.

Q: What needs to be done to complete the merger?

A: Completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met. In addition to compliance with the merger agreement, these include, but are not limited to:

the approval of the merger agreement by Bridge Capital shareholders;

the approval of the merger by federal and state regulatory authorities;

the approval for listing on the NYSE of the shares of Western Alliance common stock issuable in connection with the merger;

the absence of any injunction or legal restraint preventing the consummation of the merger or government proceedings trying to block the merger;

the registration statement filed with the SEC to register the shares of Western Alliance's common stock to be issued in the merger shall have been declared effective by the SEC; and receipt by Bridge Capital and Western Alliance of satisfactory legal opinions regarding certain tax matters. When the law permits, Western Alliance or Bridge Capital could decide to complete the merger even though one or more of these conditions has not been met. We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger is not completed, Bridge Capital shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of Bridge Capital common stock in connection with the merger. Instead, Bridge Capital will remain an independent public company and its common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NASDAQ Capital Market. Under specified circumstances, Bridge Capital may be required to pay Western Alliance a fee with respect to the termination of the merger agreement, as described under the section entitled The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 90 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares after the record date but before the special meeting?

A: The record date of the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting and the date that the merger is expected to be completed. If you sell or otherwise transfer your Bridge Capital shares after the record date but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting (provided that such shares remain outstanding on the date of the special meeting), but you will not have the right to receive the merger consideration to be received by Bridge Capital shareholders in the merger. In order to receive the merger consideration, you must hold your shares through completion of the merger.

Q: Are Bridge Capital shareholders entitled to seek dissenters' rights if they do not vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement?

A: Any shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and that have not approved the merger (or with respect to which the holder has not otherwise effectively waived its rights under Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law), and with respect to which a demand for payment and appraisal has been properly made in accordance with Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law, will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration otherwise payable, except as set forth below. See the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 72. In addition, the text of the applicable dissenters' rights provisions of California law is included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Will I be able to sell the shares of Western Alliance common stock that I receive in the merger?

A: You may freely trade the shares of Western Alliance common stock issued in the merger.

Q: Are there risks involved in undertaking the merger?

A: Yes. In evaluating the merger, Bridge Capital shareholders should carefully consider the factors discussed in "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22 and other information about Western Alliance and Bridge Capital included in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Where can I find more information about the companies?

A: You can find more information about Western Alliance and Bridge Capital from the various sources described under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 105.

Q: Who can I call with questions or to obtain copies of this proxy statement/prospectus and other documents?

A: Thomas A. Sa, Chief Financial Officer of Bridge Capital Holdings, at (408) 423-8500. A copy of the merger agreement and any of the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus will be provided to you promptly without charge if you call or write to Dale Gibbons, Chief Financial Officer, Western Alliance Bancorporation, One E. Washington Street, Suite 1400, Phoenix, Arizona 85004, Telephone: 602-389-3500 or Thomas A. Sa, Chief Financial Officer of Bridge Capital, 55 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California 95113, at (408) 423-8500. The merger agreement and the documents incorporated herein by reference have been previously filed with the SEC. This information is available for you to review at the SEC's public reference room located at 100 F Street, N.E., Room 1580, Washington, DC 20549, and through the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. General

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated March 9, 2015, or the merger agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance, with Western Alliance surviving, which we refer to as the merger. In connection with the merger, Bridge Capital's wholly owned subsidiary, Bridge Bank, National Association, or Bridge Bank, will merge with and into Western Alliance Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Western Alliance, with Western Alliance Bank surviving, which we refer to as the bank merger.

The Companies Involved in the Merger (page 37)

Western Alliance Bancorporation

One E. Washington Street, Suite 1400

Phoenix, Arizona 85004

Tel: (602) 389-3500

Western Alliance, incorporated in Delaware, is a bank holding company headquartered in Phoenix, Arizona, that provides a full spectrum of deposit, lending, treasury management, and online banking products and services through its wholly-owned banking subsidiary, Western Alliance Bank. Western Alliance Bank operates the following full-service banking divisions: Alliance Bank of Arizona in Arizona, First Independent Bank in Northern Nevada, Bank of Nevada in Southern Nevada, and Torrey Pines Bank in California. Western Alliance also serves business customers through a robust national platform of specialized financial services.

On January 30, 2015, Western Alliance Bank became a member of the Federal Reserve system and, as a consequence, is now regulated as a state member bank under Federal Reserve Board Regulation H (12 C.F.R. Part 208).

On a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2015, Western Alliance had approximately $11.3 billion in assets, $8.7 billion in total loans, $9.7 billion in deposits and $1.1 billion in stockholders' equity.

Bridge Capital Holdings

55 Almaden Boulevard

San Jose, California 95113

Tel: (408) 423-8500

Bridge Capital, incorporated in California, is a bank holding company for Bridge Bank, a full-service professional business bank founded in Silicon Valley in 2001. Bridge Bank's technology banking division provides a broad range of financial solutions to venture-backed and non-venture-backed companies. Bridge Bank's product offering includes growth capital, equipment and working capital credit facilities and treasury management solutions, along with a full line of international products and services and financing secured by domestic, government and foreign receivables.

On a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2015, Bridge Capital had approximately $1.9 billion in total assets, $1.3 billion in total loans, $1.7 billion in deposits and $192.6 million in shareholders' equity.

Merger Consideration (page 45)

The merger agreement provides that Bridge Capital shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Bridge Capital common stock, to receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock, which we refer to as the exchange ratio, and (y) $2.39 in cash, subject to possible adjustment, if necessary, to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization. Such adjustment, if required, would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration delivered to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights.

Subject to the potential adjustment that may be made to the exchange ratio pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization, the aggregate merger consideration to be issued or paid by Western Alliance will not exceed 12,494,704 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $36,663,403 of cash; provided that for each share of Bridge Capital common stock that is issued, from and after March 9, 2015, and prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the exercise of Bridge Capital stock options and the vesting of Bridge Capital restricted stock, either (i) outstanding as of March 9, 2015, other than any Bridge Capital restricted stock that vests pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement or (ii) granted or issued after March 9, 2015, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the maximum aggregate merger consideration will be increased by 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $2.39 in cash. If the total merger consideration exceeds the amount set forth in the previous sentence (including any cash paid in connection with the cancellation of outstanding vested and unexercised stock options for which the option holders have not made an exercise election (as more fully described under The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 45) and after giving effect to dissenting shares as if they had been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration), then the total merger consideration shall be reduced on a pro rata basis to the aggregate amount set forth in the preceding sentence.

Stock Options. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Capital common stock granted under Bridge Capital stock plans and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms of such option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and will receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which the option holder has not made an exercise election will be cancelled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an exercise election has not made the exercise price of which exceeds the closing price will be converted automatically into an adjusted option to purchase Western Alliance common stock, and will be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Capital stock option in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, each unvested Bridge Capital stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time, will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Capital common stock and will be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock (each an adjusted option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option immediately prior to the effective time and (y) 0.905, with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each adjusted option will have an exercise price per share of Western Alliance common stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge

Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option divided by (ii) 0.905. Each adjusted option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital stock option under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the effective time (including any Bridge Capital restricted stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, as of the effective time), will be a vested right to receive the merger consideration. At the effective time, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge capital common stock and will be converted automatically into a share of restricted Western Alliance common stock (each, an adjusted restricted share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock and (y) 0.905 (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each adjusted restricted share will otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Exercise Election Procedures for Holders of Bridge Capital Options (page 83)

If you own options to purchase shares of Bridge Capital common stock that have vested or will vest coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, you will soon receive under separate cover an election form that you may use to make an exercise election with respect to your options. The exercise election deadline will be 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on the date immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. To make an election, a holder must submit a completed election form and return it so that the form is actually received by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC at or before the exercise election deadline in accordance with the instructions on the election form. If you do not make a valid exercise election at or before the exercise deadline, at the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which you have not made an exercise election will be cancelled and, in exchange for such cancellation, you will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 76)

The merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of the Code. Therefore, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a result of the merger, it is expected that a U.S. holder of shares of Bridge Capital common stock generally will only recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash received as part of the merger consideration but will recognize gain or loss with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock.

Bridge Capital shareholders are urged to read the discussion in the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 76 and to consult their tax advisors for a full explanation of the tax consequences of the merger.

Bridge Capital Board of Directors Recommends Approval (page 43)

After careful consideration of the various factors, including those set forth under the heading "The Merger" Bridge Capital's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 50, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors has determined that the merger agreement, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable, fair to, and in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders. Accordingly, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Bridge Capital shareholders vote:

FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, or the merger agreement proposal;

FOR the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, or the compensatory arrangements proposal; and

FOR the proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

The merger is not conditioned on the receipt of shareholder approval (on an advisory, non-binding basis) of the compensatory arrangements proposal or the proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Bridge Capital (page 54)

In connection with the proposed merger, Bridge Capital's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, delivered to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors its fairness opinion orally, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of the date of the opinion, and subject to the limitations, qualifications, factors, and assumptions set forth therein, the per share consideration to be paid to the holders of Bridge Capital's common stock was fair to the holders of Bridge Capital common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of the written opinion is attached as Appendix C to this document and is incorporated herein by reference. The written opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital in connection with its consideration of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Bridge Capital as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the merger. The opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share consideration to holders of Bridge Capital common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Bridge Capital to engage in the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Bridge Capital or the effect of any other transaction in which Bridge Capital might engage.

Dissenters' Rights (page 72)

Any shares of Bridge Capital common stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and that have not approved the merger (or with respect to which the holder has not otherwise effectively waived its rights under Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law), and with respect to which a demand for payment and appraisal has been properly made in accordance with Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law, will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration otherwise payable, except as set forth below. See the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 72. In addition, the text of the applicable dissenters' rights provisions of California law is included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Differences in the Rights of Shareholders (page 93)

Western Alliance is a Delaware corporation and Bridge Capital is a California corporation. The Western Alliance certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain provisions that are different from the Bridge Capital articles of incorporation and bylaws. Upon completion of the merger, Bridge Capital shareholders will become stockholders of Western Alliance, and their rights will be governed by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and Western Alliance's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. No change to Western Alliance's certificate of incorporation or bylaws will be made as a result of the completion of the merger. For a discussion of certain differences between the rights of Western Alliance stockholders and Bridge Capital shareholders, see Differences in the Rights of Shareholders beginning on page 93.

Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours (page 66)

In considering the recommendations of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors to vote in favor of the merger agreement proposal and the compensatory arrangements proposal, you should be aware that Bridge Capital's executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Bridge Capital shareholders generally. In connection with the merger agreement, Western Alliance entered into an employment agreement with each of Daniel P. Myers, Thomas A. Sa and Timothy W. Boothe, regarding their continuing roles with the combined company following the merger, which will be effective upon the closing of the merger. Pursuant to each employment agreement, Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe will serve as executives of Western Alliance Bank for a period of three years. Mr. Myers will also be appointed as an executive officer of Western Alliance. In addition, two members of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors will become directors of Western Alliance following the merger. Western Alliance has also entered into protection agreements with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe. Additional interests that may differ from yours include, among others, the treatment of outstanding equity awards pursuant to the merger agreement, severance benefits payable under existing employment or change in control agreements entered into with executive officers, and rights to ongoing indemnification and insurance coverage by the surviving corporation for acts and omissions occurring prior to the merger. Bridge Capital's Board of Directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby. For more information see The Merger Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours beginning on page 66.

Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's Board of Directors After the Merger (page 67)

Prior to the effective time of the merger, all necessary action will be taken by Western Alliance in order that at the first regularly scheduled meeting of the combined company's Board of Directors occurring after the effective time, Western Alliance will expand the size of its Board of Directors by two seats and designate two members of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors, who will be named prior to the effective time, to serve on the Board of Directors of Western Alliance.

Regulatory Approvals We Must Obtain to Complete the Merger (page 74)

For the merger to take place, we need to receive the regulatory approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or FRB. For the bank merger to take place, we need to receive the approval of the FRB and the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions, or ADFI, and provide notice to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, or OCC. We have filed applications with, and provided the notice to, these regulators.

On May 21, 2015, the FRB approved Western Alliance's application for approval of the merger and the bank merger. In addition, the ADFI granted approval of the bank merger on May 19, 2015. We believe that no further regulatory approvals are required.

No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions (page 87)

Bridge Capital has agreed not to initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate the submission of any proposals from third parties regarding acquiring Bridge Capital or its businesses. In addition, Bridge Capital has agreed not to engage in discussions or negotiations with or provide confidential information to a third party regarding acquiring Bridge Capital or its businesses. However, if Bridge Capital receives an acquisition proposal from a third party prior to the date of the special meeting of Bridge Capital shareholders that did not result from solicitation in violation of its obligations under the merger agreement, Bridge Capital may participate in discussions with, or provide confidential information to, such third party if, among other steps, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors concludes in good faith that the failure to take such actions would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 90)

The merger agreement may be terminated prior to the effective time of the merger by either Western Alliance or Bridge Capital if:

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital mutually consent in writing;

a governmental entity which must grant a regulatory approval that is a condition to the merger denies such approval and such action has become final and non-appealable;

the merger is not consummated by December 31, 2015;

Bridge Capital shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting; or the other party materially breaches any of its representations, warranties or obligations contained in the merger agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach, and which breach has had or is likely to have a material adverse effect on the breaching party.

Additionally, Western Alliance may terminate the merger agreement if:

management or the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital (i) fails to use its reasonable best efforts to call and hold within 45 days of the effective date of this registration statement the special meeting of Bridge Capital shareholders to consider and approve the merger agreement (except as provided in the merger agreement) or (ii) fails to recommend to shareholders the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Additionally, Bridge Capital may terminate the merger agreement if:

prior to approval of the merger by the Bridge Capital shareholders at the special meeting, Bridge Capital has complied with its obligations regarding competing proposals and Bridge Capital receives an unsolicited bona fide competing proposal that is not withdrawn and that Bridge Capital's Board of Directors determines in good faith is a superior competing transaction (as defined in the Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement section below) and that failure to accept would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, and Bridge Capital has complied with the expense and breakup fee provisions described below.

Expenses; Breakup Fee (page 90)

Fees and Expenses Payable by Western Alliance. Western Alliance has agreed to reimburse Bridge Capital up to $600,000 for its documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, if the merger agreement is terminated by Bridge Capital due to Western Alliance's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement.

Fees and Expenses Payable by Bridge Capital. Bridge Capital has agreed to reimburse Western Alliance up to $600,000 for its documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred by Western Alliance in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, if the merger is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement, or due to the failure by management or the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital to use its reasonable best efforts to call and hold within 45 days of the effective date of this registration statement the special meeting of Bridge Capital shareholders to consider and approve the merger agreement (except as provided in the merger agreement) or to recommend to shareholders the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Bridge Capital has also agreed to reimburse Western Alliance up to $600,000 for its documented, reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred by Western Alliance in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and to pay a breakup fee of $15.9375 million, under any of the following circumstances:

If the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance or Bridge Capital due to the merger not being consummated by December 31, 2015 or the Bridge Capital shareholders failing to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting;

If the merger agreement is terminated by Bridge Capital prior to the approval of the merger by the Bridge Capital shareholders at the special meeting due to Bridge Capital's receipt of an unsolicited bona fide competing proposal that is not withdrawn and that the Bridge Capital Board of Directors determines in good faith is a superior competing transaction that failure to accept would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

If the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's failure to hold the special meeting within a specified time period or to recommend approval of the merger to the shareholders of Bridge Capital; or

If the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement; and both (a) after the date of the merger agreement (March 9, 2015) and before the special meeting date, Bridge Capital shall have received a competing proposal (as defined in The Merger Agreement Expenses; Breakup Fee below) and (b) within 12 months following the date of such termination, Bridge Capital enters into an agreement for a competing proposal or an acquisition transaction (as defined in The Merger Agreement Expenses; Breakup Fee below) otherwise occurs.

On March 9, 2015, concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, certain of the executive officers and all of the directors of Bridge Capital, and Carpenter Fund Manager, GP, LLC, who in the aggregate currently own approximately 37.39% of Bridge Capital's common stock, each solely in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Bridge Capital, entered into a support agreement with Western Alliance pursuant to which such shareholder, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, agreed to vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and against any alternative

Western Alliance has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares Western Alliance common stock that are to be issued pursuant to the merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE prior to the effective time of the merger.

Table of ContentsConditions to the Merger (page 83)

Each party's obligations to effect the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of mutual conditions, including, among other things, the following:

the approval of the merger agreement by Bridge Capital shareholders;

the approval of the merger by federal and state regulatory authorities;

the approval for listing on the NYSE of the shares of Western Alliance common stock issuable in connection with the merger;

the absence of any injunction or legal restraint preventing the consummation of the merger or government proceedings trying to block the merger;

the registration statement filed with the SEC to register the shares of Western Alliance's common stock to be issued in the merger shall have been declared effective by the SEC; and receipt by Bridge Capital and Western Alliance of satisfactory legal opinions regarding certain tax matters.

Share Information and Market Prices (page 35)

Western Alliance's common stock is traded on the NYSE under the trading symbol WAL and Bridge Capital's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the trading symbol BBNK. The table below presents the per share closing prices of Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's common stock as of March 6, 2015, the last trading date before execution of the merger agreement and May 21, 2015, the last practicable day before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. The table also shows the implied value per share of Western Alliance common stock which is calculated by valuing the Western Alliance common stock at the relevant date below per share and multiplying this value by the assumed per share stock consideration exchange ratio of 0.8145 and adding $2.39, the assumed per share cash consideration. Purpose of the Special Meeting (page 38). At the special meeting, Bridge Capital shareholders will be asked to:

approve the merger agreement proposal;

approve the compensatory arrangements proposal; and approve any adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote (page 38). Bridge Capital has fixed the close of business on _____, 2015 as the record date for determining the Bridge Capital shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only holders of record of Bridge Capital common stock on the record date are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting, and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Each share of Bridge Capital common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter brought before the meeting. On the record date, there were 15,965,284 shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding.

Quorum Requirement (page 38). Under California law and Bridge Capital's by-laws, a quorum of Bridge Capital's shareholders at the special meeting is necessary to transact business. The presence of holders representing a majority of Bridge Capital's common stock issued and outstanding on the record date and entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting.

All of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, including abstentions, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum at the special meeting.

Votes Required to Approve the Proposals (page 39). Bridge Capital's proposals require the following percentages of votes in order to approve them:

In order to approve the merger agreement proposal, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained.

In order to approve the compensatory arrangements proposal, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained.

In order to approve the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained, regardless of whether a quorum is present.

The vote on the compensatory arrangements proposal is not a condition to the merger and is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the merger agreement. Because the vote on the compensatory arrangements proposal is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Bridge Capital. Therefore, if the other requisite shareholder approvals are obtained and the merger is completed, the amounts payable in connection with the compensatory arrangements will still be paid as long as any other conditions applicable thereto occur.

As of the record date, the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, each of whom has agreed to vote his, her or its shares in support of the merger, beneficially owned and were entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 5,969,921 shares of Bridge Capital common stock representing approximately 37.39% of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding on that date.

Table of Contents

Failure to Vote; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes (page 40). If a shareholder of record properly submits a proxy prior to the special meeting, such shareholder's shares of common stock will be voted as he or she directs. If he or she submits a proxy but no direction is otherwise made, the shares of common stock will be voted FOR the merger agreement proposal, FOR the compensatory arrangements proposal and FOR the approval of any adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

Shares held by a Bridge Capital shareholder who indicates on an executed proxy card that he or she wishes to abstain from voting will count toward determining whether a quorum is present and will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal, the compensatory arrangements proposal and the proposal to approve any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

If a broker non-vote occurs, the broker non-vote will count for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal, the golden parachute arrangements proposal and the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting. For more information see The Special Meeting Failure to Vote; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes beginning on page 40.

Solicitation of Proxies (page 42). This solicitation is made on behalf of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors, and Bridge Capital will pay the costs of soliciting and obtaining proxies, including the cost of reimbursing banks and brokers for forwarding proxy materials to their principals. For more information see The Special Meeting Solicitation of Proxies beginning on page 42.

Revocation of Proxies (page 41). You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the close of voting at the special meeting by doing any one of the following: (1) complete, sign, date and submit another proxy (a properly executed, valid proxy will revoke any previously submitted proxies); (2) re-vote by telephone or on the Internet; (3) provide written notice of revocation to Bridge Capital's Chief Financial Officer; or (4) attend the special meeting and vote in person. For more information see The Special Meeting Revocability of Proxies beginning on page 41.

Comparative Unaudited Per Share Data

The following table shows information, at and for the periods indicated, about Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's historical book value per share and earnings per share. The table also contains pro forma information that reflects the merger of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital using the purchase method of accounting. The cash consideration is $2.39 per share, and the stock consideration is 0.8145 of a share of Western Alliance common stock. The table below reflects an exchange ratio of 0.8145 plus $2.39 in cash per share. The aggregate merger consideration has been calculated based on the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding as of March 9, 2015, including Bridge Capital restricted stock and stock options that will convert pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The actual stock consideration and cash consideration will be determined based on the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding as of the effective time.

Neither Western Alliance nor Bridge Capital has ever paid a cash dividend on its common stock, and neither company anticipates paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

CAUTIONARY NOTE CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus, including information included or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the merger between Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, including future financial and operating results and performance; statements about Western Alliance and Bridge Capital's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions with respect to future operations, products and services; and other statements identified by words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," "will," "should," "may" or words of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital's management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the control of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. Actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results discussed in these forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements:

the failure of the parties to satisfy the closing conditions in the merger agreement in a timely manner or at all;

the failure of the shareholders of Bridge Capital to approve the merger agreement;

the failure to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals of the merger;

disruptions to the parties' businesses as a result of the announcement and pendency of the merger;

costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses following the merger; operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees, may be greater than expected;

disruptions in the technology sector, particularly in the Silicon Valley region of Northern California;

actual credit losses may exceed expected losses in the loan portfolio;

possible need for a valuation allowance against deferred tax assets;

the effects of interest rates and interest rate policy;

exposure of financial instruments to certain market risks may cause volatility in earnings;

dependence on low-cost deposits;

ability to borrow from the Federal Home Loan Bank, or FHLB, or Federal Reserve Bank, or FRB; events that further impair goodwill;

an increase in the cost of funding as the result of changes to the parties' credit ratings;

expansion strategies may not be successful;

the ability of the parties to control costs;

risks associated with changes in internal controls and processes;

the ability of the parties to compete in a highly competitive market;

the ability to recruit and retain qualified employees, especially seasoned relationship bankers;

Table of Contents

the effects of terrorist attacks or threats of war;

risk of earthquakes and other natural disasters;

risk of audit of U.S. federal tax deductions;

perpetration of internal fraud;

risk of operating in a highly regulated industry and the parties' ability to remain in compliance;

possible need to revalue our deferred tax assets if stock transactions result in limitations on deductibility of net operating losses or loan losses;

exposure to environmental liabilities related to the properties to which each of the parties acquire title;

change in laws or government regulations or policies affecting financial institutions;

cyber security risks; and risks related to ownership and price of Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's common stock.

Additional factors that could cause Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and their respective Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the date of any document incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus and attributable to Western Alliance and Bridge Capital or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. Except to the extent required by applicable law or regulation, Western Alliance and Bridge Capital undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in this proxy statement/prospectus (including the matters addressed in Cautionary Note Concerning Forward-Looking Statements) and incorporated by reference into this document, you should carefully consider the matters described below in determining whether to approve the merger agreement. Please also refer to the additional risk factors identified in the annual reports and other documents of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital incorporated by reference into this document and listed in Where You Can Find More Information on page 105. Any of these risks could have an adverse effect on Western Alliance's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects, which could in turn affect the price of its shares.

Risks Related to the Merger

Because the market price of Western Alliance's common stock will fluctuate, Bridge Capital shareholders will not know until the effective time the value of the consideration they will receive in the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Bridge Capital common stock, other than dissenting shares, will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $2.39 in cash. Because the per share stock consideration is fixed, the market value of the Western Alliance common stock to be issued in the merger will depend upon the market price of Western Alliance common stock. This market price may vary from the closing price of Western Alliance common stock on the date the merger was announced, on the date that this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed to Bridge Capital shareholders and on the date of the Bridge Capital special meeting. Accordingly, at the time of the Bridge Capital special meeting, Bridge Capital shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the value of the stock consideration they would be entitled to receive upon completion of the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Western Alliance common stock and for shares of Bridge Capital common stock.

The market price of Western Alliance common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Western Alliance or Bridge Capital currently.

The businesses of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital differ and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations and market prices of common stock of each of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital. For a discussion of the businesses of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 105.

Bridge Capital shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management of the combined organization.

Bridge Capital's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital and on other matters affecting Bridge Capital. Upon the completion of the merger, each Bridge Capital shareholder will become a stockholder of Western Alliance with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than the Bridge Capital shareholder's percentage ownership of Bridge Capital. It is expected that the former shareholders of Bridge Capital as a group will receive shares in the merger constituting 12.8% of the outstanding shares of Western Alliance common stock immediately after the merger. Because of this, Bridge Capital's shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Western Alliance than they now have on the management and policies of Bridge Capital.

The merger agreement limits Bridge Capital's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains terms and conditions that make it more difficult for Bridge Capital to sell its business to a party other than Western Alliance. These no shop provisions impose restrictions on Bridge Capital that, subject to certain exceptions, limit Bridge Capital's ability to discuss or facilitate competing third party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of Bridge Capital.

In addition, the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital has agreed that it will not, directly or indirectly, facilitate or recommend a competing acquisition proposal, subject to limited exceptions. While the Board of Directors could take such actions if it determined that the failure to do so would or would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties, doing so would entitle Western Alliance to terminate the merger agreement and may entitle it to receive a termination fee. Bridge Capital will also be required to pay the termination fee if the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance or Bridge Capital due to the merger not being consummated by December 31, 2015 or the Bridge Capital shareholders failing to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting, the merger agreement is terminated by Bridge Capital prior to the approval of the merger by the Bridge Capital shareholders at the special meeting due to Bridge Capital's receipt of an unsolicited bona fide competing proposal that is not withdrawn and that the Bridge Capital Board of Directors determines in good faith is a superior competing transaction that failure to accept would or would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's failure to hold the special meeting within a specified time period or to recommend approval of the merger to the shareholders of Bridge Capital, or the merger agreement is terminated by Western Alliance due to Bridge Capital's material breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement; and both (a) after the date of the merger agreement (March 9, 2015) and before the special meeting date, Bridge Capital shall have received a competing proposal (as defined in The Merger Agreement Expenses; Breakup Fee below) and (b) within 12 months following the date of such termination, Bridge Capital enters into an agreement for a competing proposal or an acquisition transaction (as defined in The Merger Agreement Expenses; Breakup Fee below) otherwise occurs.

Western Alliance required Bridge Capital to agree to these provisions as a condition to Western Alliance's willingness to enter into the merger agreement. However, these provisions might discourage a third party that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Bridge Capital from considering or proposing that acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than the current proposed merger consideration, and the termination fee might result in a potential competing acquirer proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire Bridge Capital than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

Bridge Capital will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees, suppliers and customers may have an adverse effect on Bridge Capital. These uncertainties may impair Bridge Capital's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed and for a period of time thereafter, and could cause customers, suppliers and others who deal with Bridge Capital to seek to change existing business relationships with Bridge Capital. Bridge Capital employee retention and recruitment may be particularly challenging prior to the effective time of the merger, as employees and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company.

The pursuit of the merger and the preparation for the integration may place a significant burden on management and internal resources of Bridge Capital. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could affect the financial results of Bridge

Capital and, following the merger, the combined company. In addition, the merger agreement requires that Bridge Capital operate in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and restricts Bridge Capital from taking certain actions prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement. These restrictions may prevent Bridge Capital from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger.

Bridge Capital's executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that are different from your interest as a Bridge Capital shareholder.

In considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that Bridge Capital's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Bridge Capital shareholders generally. In connection with the merger agreement, Western Alliance entered into an employment agreement with each of Daniel P. Myers, Thomas A. Sa and Timothy W. Boothe, regarding their continuing roles with the combined company following the merger, which will be effective upon the closing of the merger. Pursuant to each employment agreement, Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe will serve as executives of Western Alliance Bank for a period of three years. Mr. Myers will also be appointed as an executive officer of Western Alliance. In addition, two members of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors will become directors of Western Alliance following the merger. Western Alliance has also entered into protection agreements with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe. Additional interests that may differ from yours include, among others, the treatment of outstanding equity awards pursuant to the merger agreement, severance benefits payable under existing employment or change in control agreements entered into with executive officers, and rights to ongoing indemnification and insurance coverage by the surviving corporation for acts and omissions occurring prior to the merger. For more information see The Merger Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours beginning on page 66.

If an adjustment to the merger consideration is required, then Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised dissenters' rights would have their cash portion of the merger consideration reduced and the stock component of their merger consideration increased.

An adjustment in the merger consideration as described in Risk Factors The number of shares of Western Alliance common stock and the cash amount payable as consideration to Bridge Capital shareholders are subject to adjustment and may not be finally determined until after Bridge Capital shareholders have voted on the merger would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration deliverable to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights. The market price of Western Alliance common stock may decline, as described in Risk Factors Because the market price of Western Alliance's common stock will fluctuate, Bridge Capital shareholders will not know until the effective time the value of the consideration they will receive in the merger. Accordingly, in the event that an adjustment in the merger consideration is required, the merger consideration deliverable to Bridge Capital shareholders that do not exercise appraisal rights would include a lower proportionate cash consideration component than the $2.39 currently contemplated and a higher proportionate stock consideration component than that contemplated by the current exchange ratio of 0.8145. These adjustments to the merger consideration, including the increase in the stock component of the merger consideration, may occur at a time when the value of Western Alliance common stock is declining.

The merger agreement may not be completed if certain conditions to the merger are not satisfied or waived or if the merger agreement is terminated by the parties in accordance with its terms.

The merger agreement is subject to a number of conditions that must be fulfilled in order to complete the merger. Those conditions include, but are not limited to: the approval of the merger agreement by Bridge Capital shareholders, receipt of required regulatory approvals, absence of orders prohibiting the completion of the merger, the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties by both parties, the performance by both parties of their covenants and agreements, and the receipt by both parties of legal opinions from their respective tax counsels.

In addition, Bridge Capital or Western Alliance may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time and one or both parties may terminate the merger agreement in a variety of circumstances, including if the merger is not completed by December 31, 2015. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 90 for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the merger agreement could be terminated.

The fairness opinion obtained by Bridge Capital from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the fairness opinion.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, Bridge Capital's financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger, orally delivered to the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital its opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing dated as of March 9, 2015. The opinion of Sandler O'Neill stated that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the per share consideration to be received in the merger was fair to the Bridge Capital shareholders from a financial point of view. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date of the opinion, including changes to the operations and prospects of Western Alliance or Bridge Capital, changes in general market and economic conditions or regulatory or other factors. Any such changes, or changes in other factors on which the opinion is based, may materially alter or affect the relative values of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from governmental entities that may delay the date of completion of the merger or impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on Western Alliance.

Before the merger may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from state and federal governmental authorities, including the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or FRB, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, or OCC, and the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions. Satisfying the requirements of these governmental entities may delay the date of completion of the merger. In addition, these governmental entities may include conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. While Western Alliance and Bridge Capital do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would result in a material adverse effect on Western Alliance, there can be no assurance that they will not, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of Western Alliance following the merger, any of which might have a material adverse effect on Western Alliance following the merger. The parties are not obligated to complete the merger should any regulatory approval contain a non-customary condition that materially alters the benefit to which Western Alliance bargained for in the merger agreement.

The unaudited pro forma financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus is illustrative only, and may differ materially from the combined company's actual financial position and results of operations after the merger.

The unaudited pro forma financial information in this proxy statement/prospectus is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what the combined company's actual financial position or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated or will be after the merger.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively impact the stock prices and future businesses and financial results of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital.

If the merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital may be adversely affected, and Western Alliance and Bridge Capital will be subject to several risks, including the following:

Bridge Capital may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay Western Alliance a termination fee of $15.9375 million under the merger agreement and pay Western Alliance's out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred in connection with the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby up to $600,000;

Western Alliance may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay Bridge Capital's out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding any overhead allocation) incurred in connection with the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby up to $600,000;

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital will be required to pay certain costs relating to the merger, whether or not the merger is completed, such as legal, accounting, financial advisor and printing fees;

under the merger agreement, Bridge Capital is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the merger which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies; and matters relating to the merger may require substantial commitments of time and resources by Western Alliance and Bridge Capital management, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that may have been beneficial to Western Alliance and Bridge Capital as independent companies, as the case may be.

In addition, if the merger is not completed, Western Alliance and/or Bridge Capital may experience negative reactions from the financial markets and from their respective customers and employees. Western Alliance and/or Bridge Capital also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the merger or to enforcement proceedings commenced against Western Alliance or Bridge Capital to perform their respective obligations under the merger agreement. If the merger is not completed, Western Alliance and Bridge Capital cannot assure their respective shareholders that the risks described above will not materialize and will not materially affect the business, financial results and stock prices of Western Alliance and/or Bridge Capital.

The shares of Western Alliance common stock to be received by Bridge Capital shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from shares of Bridge Capital common stock.

Following completion of the merger, Bridge Capital shareholders will no longer be shareholders of Bridge Capital. Bridge Capital shareholders will instead be stockholders of Western Alliance. There will be important differences between your current rights as a Bridge Capital shareholder and the rights to which you will be entitled as a Western Alliance stockholder. See Differences in the Rights of Shareholders beginning on page 93 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Western Alliance common stock and Bridge Capital common stock.

The tax consequences of the merger to a Bridge Capital shareholder will be dependent upon the cash consideration received.

The merger is intended to qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Therefore, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a result of the merger, it is expected that a U.S. holder of shares of Bridge Capital common stock generally will only recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash received as part of the merger consideration but will recognize gain or loss with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock.

The number of shares of Western Alliance common stock and the cash amount payable as consideration to Bridge Capital shareholders are subject to adjustment and may not be finally determined until after Bridge Capital shareholders have voted on the merger.

To facilitate the merger's compliance with the continuity of interest requirement for tax-free reorganizations under the Code, the form of the merger consideration is subject to potential adjustment to ensure that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. Such adjustment, if required, would result in a decrease in the cash component of the merger consideration and an increase in the stock component of the merger consideration delivered to those Bridge Capital shareholders that have not exercised appraisal rights. As a result, the amount of stock consideration and cash consideration to be received by Bridge Capital shareholders in the merger for each share of Bridge Capital common stock held by them may not be finally determined until after Bridge Capital shareholders have voted on the merger.

Risks Related to the Combined Company if the Merger is Completed

The integration of the companies will present significant challenges that may result in the combined business not operating as effectively as expected or in the failure to achieve some or all of the anticipated benefits of the transaction.

The benefits and synergies expected to result from the proposed transaction will depend in part on whether the operations of Bridge Capital can be integrated in a timely and efficient manner with those of Western Alliance. Western Alliance will face challenges in consolidating its functions with those of Bridge Capital, and integrating the organizations, procedures and operations of the two businesses. The integration of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital will be complex and time-consuming, and the management of both companies will have to dedicate substantial time and resources to it. These efforts could divert management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from day-to-day operational matters during the integration process. Failure to successfully integrate the operations of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital could result in the failure to achieve some of the anticipated benefits from the transaction, including cost savings and other operating efficiencies, and could have an adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of Western Alliance after the transaction.

Estimates as to the future value of the combined company are inherently uncertain. You should not rely on such estimates without considering all of the information contained or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Any estimates as to the future value of the combined company, including estimates regarding the price at which the common stock of the combined company will trade following the merger, are inherently uncertain. The future value of the combined company will depend upon, among other factors, the combined company's ability to achieve projected revenue and earnings expectations and to realize the anticipated synergies described in this proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to the risks and uncertainties described in this proxy statement/prospectus, including these risk factors. Accordingly, you should not rely upon any estimates as to the future value of the combined company, or the price at which the common stock of the combined company will trade following the merger, whether made before or after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus by Western Alliance and Bridge Capital's respective management or affiliates or others, without considering all of the information contained or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

If the merger is consummated, Western Alliance will be subject to substantial additional regulation.

If the merger is consummated, the combined company will be subject to substantial additional regulation. Areas of additional regulation will include, but not be limited to, more sophisticated stress testing, enhanced governance standards, including those relating to risk management, higher FDIC deposit insurance assessments, mandatory clearing of swaps, a mandatory Volcker Rule compliance program, a cap on interchange transaction fees, and direct oversight and examination by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. These additional regulatory requirements could divert management's attention away from ongoing business concerns, place a burden on internal resources, impose additional costs or limitations on the combined company and affect profitability.

Table of ContentsSELECTED HISTORICAL CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA OF WESTERN ALLIANCE

The following table summarizes selected historical consolidated financial data of Western Alliance for the periods and dates indicated. This information has been derived from Western Alliance's consolidated financial statements filed with the SEC. The information at and for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 is unaudited. However, in the opinion of management of Western Alliance, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations for the unaudited periods, have been made. The selected operating data presented below for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for future periods.

You should read this information in conjunction with Western Alliance's consolidated financial statements and related notes thereto included in Western Alliance's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Table of ContentsSELECTED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL DATA

The following Selected Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data is based on the historical financial data of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, and has been prepared to illustrate the effects of the merger. The Selected Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data does not give effect to any anticipated synergies, operating efficiencies or costs savings that may be associated with the merger. The Selected Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data also does not include any integration costs the companies may incur related to the merger as part of combining the operations of the companies.

The balance sheet is presented as if the merger was completed on March 31, 2015 and results of operations data is presented as if the merger was completed on January 1, 2014.

The unaudited pro forma financial data included in this proxy statement/prospectus is based on the historical financial statements of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, and on publicly available information and certain assumptions that we believe are reasonable, which are described in the notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements included in this proxy statement/prospectus.

This data should be read in conjunction with Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's respective Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and Annual Reports on Form 10-K as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Western Alliance has not completed due diligence or detailed valuation analyses necessary to determine the final fair market values of Bridge Capital's assets to be acquired and liabilities to be assumed. Accordingly, the pro forma condensed combined financial data does not include a final allocation of the purchase price. Pro forma tables are based on management's initial estimates of fair value adjustments which are subject to change based on results from detailed valuation analyses not yet completed.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANIES

Western Alliance Bancorporation

Western Alliance, incorporated in Delaware, is a bank holding company headquartered in Phoenix, Arizona, that provides a full spectrum of deposit, lending, treasury management, and online banking products and services through its wholly-owned banking subsidiary, Western Alliance Bank. Western Alliance Bank operates the following full-service banking divisions: Alliance Bank of Arizona in Arizona, First Independent Bank in Northern Nevada, Bank of Nevada in Southern Nevada, and Torrey Pines Bank in California. Western Alliance also serves business customers through a robust national platform of specialized financial services.

On January 30, 2015, Western Alliance Bank became a member of the Federal Reserve system and, as a consequence, is now regulated as a state member bank under Federal Reserve Board Regulation H (12 C.F.R. Part 208).

On a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2015, Western Alliance had approximately $11.3 billion in assets, $8.7 billion in total loans, $9.7 billion in deposits and $1.1 billion in stockholders' equity. For additional information about Western Alliance, see Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 105.

Western Alliance's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol WAL.

Bridge Capital Holdings

Bridge Capital, incorporated in California, is a bank holding company for Bridge Bank, a full-service professional business bank founded in Silicon Valley in 2001. Bridge Bank's technology banking division provides a broad range of financial solutions to venture-backed and non-venture-backed companies. Bridge Bank's product offering includes growth capital, equipment and working capital credit facilities and treasury management solutions, along with a full line of international products and services and financing secured by domestic, government and foreign receivables.

Bridge Bank attracts the majority of its loans and deposits from small and middle-market companies, and emerging technology companies, located throughout the San Francisco Bay Area. Additionally, an increasingly larger portion of the Bank's new business acquisition comes from its national network of loan production offices.

On a consolidated basis, as of March 31, 2015, Bridge Capital had approximately $1.9 billion in total assets, $1.3 billion in total loans, $1.7 billion in deposits and $192.6 million in shareholders' equity.

Bridge Capital's principal executive offices are located at 55 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California 95113, its phone number is (408) 423-8500 and its website is www.bridgecapitalholdings.com. THE SPECIAL MEETING

Bridge Capital's Board of Directors is using this proxy statement/prospectus to solicit proxies from the shareholders of Bridge Capital who hold shares of Bridge Capital common stock on the record date for use at the special meeting. Bridge Capital is first mailing this proxy statement/prospectus and accompanying form of proxy to Bridge Capital shareholders on or about May 28, 2015.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will be held on Thursday, June 25, 2015 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at Bridge Capital's principal executive offices at 55 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California 95113.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, the holders of Bridge Capital's common stock will be asked to:

approve the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, or the merger agreement proposal;

approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, or the compensatory arrangements proposal; and approve any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

The Bridge Capital Board of Directors is not aware of any other matters that may properly come before the special meeting. If any other matters properly come before the special meeting, the persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote the shares represented by all properly executed proxies on those matters as determined by a majority of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors.

Recommendation of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors

The Bridge Capital Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Bridge Capital shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and FOR the approval of the proposal with respect to compensatory arrangements.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote

The Bridge Capital Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on May 18, 2015 as the record date for determining the Bridge Capital shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only holders of record of Bridge Capital's common stock at the close of business on that day will be entitled to vote at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

Each share of Bridge Capital common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter brought before the meeting. On the record date, there were approximately 15,965,284 shares of Bridge Capital's common stock issued and outstanding, held by approximately 1,902 shareholders of record.

Quorum Requirement

Under California law and Bridge Capital's by-laws, a quorum of Bridge Capital's shareholders at the special meeting is necessary to transact business. The presence of holders representing a majority of Bridge Capital's common stock issued and outstanding on the record date and entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting.

All of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, including abstentions, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum at the special meeting.

Stock Ownership of Bridge Capital's Directors and Executive Officers

On May 18, 2015, the record date, the directors and executive officers of Bridge Capital and their respective affiliates, as a group, beneficially owned and were entitled to vote 1,062,363 shares of Bridge Capital common stock. These shares represent approximately 6.65% of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding on that date. Information pertaining to the security ownership of certain beneficial owners and directors and executive officers of Bridge Capital is incorporated by reference to Bridge Capital's Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, filed with the SEC on April 17, 2015.

On March 9, 2015, concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, certain of the executive officers and all of the directors of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Fund Manager, GP, LLC, who currently own in the aggregate approximately 37.39% of Bridge Capital's common stock, each solely in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Bridge Capital, entered into a support agreement with Western Alliance pursuant to which such shareholder, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, agreed to vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and against any alternative business combination transaction. A copy of the form of support agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix D.

When considering the recommendations of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors to vote in favor of each of the proposals presented at the special meeting, you should be aware that the executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the shareholders of Bridge Capital. See The Merger Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours beginning on page 66.

Vote Required to Approve the Proposals

Approval of Bridge Capital's proposals to be considered at the special meeting requires the vote percentages described below. You may vote for or against any of the proposals submitted at the special meeting or you may abstain from voting.

Required Vote for Approval of Merger Agreement. In order to approve the merger agreement, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained.

Required Vote for Approval of Certain Compensatory Arrangements. In order to approve the compensatory arrangements proposal, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained.

Required Vote for Adjournment or Postponement of Special Meeting. In order to approve the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, including for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal must be obtained, regardless of whether a quorum is present.

Table of Contents

The vote on the compensatory arrangements proposal is not a condition to the merger and is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the merger agreement. Because the vote on the compensatory arrangements is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Bridge Capital. Therefore, if the other requisite shareholder approvals are obtained and the merger is completed, the amounts payable under the compensatory arrangements will still be paid as long as any other conditions applicable thereto occur.

As of the record date, the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, each of whom has agreed to vote his, her or its shares in support of the merger, beneficially owned and were entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 5,969,921 shares of Bridge Capital common stock representing approximately 37.39% of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding on that date.

Failure to Vote; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

If a shareholder of record properly submits a proxy prior to the special meeting, his or her shares of common stock will be voted as he or she directs. If he or she submits a proxy but no direction is otherwise made, the shares of common stock will be voted FOR the approval of the merger agreement, FOR the advisory (non-binding) proposal with respect to compensatory arrangements, and FOR the approval of any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the foregoing proposals.

Failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal.

Shares held by a Bridge Capital shareholder who indicates on an executed proxy card that he or she wishes to abstain from voting will count towards determining whether a quorum is present and will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal, the golden parachute arrangements proposal and the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting.

A broker non-vote occurs when a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner signs and returns a proxy with respect to shares of common stock held in a fiduciary capacity (typically referred to as being held in street name) but does not vote on a particular matter because the nominee does not have the discretionary voting power with respect to that matter and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Under the rules that govern brokers who are voting with respect to shares held in street name, brokers have the discretion to vote such shares on routine matters but not on non-routine matters. The proposals that Bridge Capital shareholders are being asked to vote on at the special meeting are not considered routine matters and accordingly brokers or other nominees may not vote without instructions.

If a broker non-vote occurs, the broker non-votes will count for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger agreement proposal, the golden parachute arrangements proposal and the proposal to permit the proxies to adjourn or postpone the special meeting.

Submission of Proxies

If your Bridge Capital common stock is held by a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., in street name), you will receive instructions from that person or entity that you must follow in order to have your shares of Bridge Capital common stock voted. If you give the broker instructions, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you do not give instructions, the broker will not vote your shares on any proposal at the special meeting, as set forth above.

If you hold your Bridge Capital common stock in your own name and not through your broker or other nominee, you may vote your shares at the special meeting or by proxy in one of three ways:

By using the Internet website and instructions listed on the proxy card;

By using the toll-free telephone number listed on the proxy card; or

By signing, dating and mailing the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope.

- 40 -

Table of Contents

Whichever of these methods you select to transmit your instructions, the proxy holders will vote your shares in accordance with those instructions. If you return a proxy card without specific voting instructions, your proxy will be voted by the proxy holders as recommended by the Bridge Capital Board of Directors.

Vote by Internet. If you are a shareholder of record, you may choose to submit your proxy on the Internet. The website for Internet proxy submission and the unique control number you will be required to provide are on the proxy card. Internet proxy submission is available 24 hours a day and will be accessible until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on June 24, 2015. If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to your proxy card or the information provided by your bank, broker, custodian or record holder for information on Internet proxy submission. As with telephone proxy submission, you will be given the opportunity to confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. If you hold shares through a broker or other custodian, please check the voting form used by that firm to see if it offers Internet proxy submission. If you vote on the Internet, please note that there may be costs associated with electronic access, such as usage charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies, for which you will be responsible. If you submit your proxy on the Internet, you do not need to return your proxy card.

Vote by Telephone. If you hold your Bridge Capital common stock in your own name and not through your broker or another nominee, you can vote by telephone by following the instructions provided on the Internet voting site, or if you requested proxy materials, by following the instructions provided with your proxy materials and on your proxy card. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on June 24, 2015. If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to your proxy card or the information provided by your bank, broker, custodian or record holder for information on telephone proxy submission. If you hold shares through a broker or other custodian, please check the voting form used by that firm to see if it offers telephone proxy submission. Easy-to-follow voice prompts allow you to vote your shares of stock and confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. Bridge Capital's telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate shareholders by using individual control numbers. If you vote by telephone, you do not need to return your proxy card.

Vote by Mail. A proxy card is enclosed for your use. To submit your proxy by mail, Bridge Capital asks that you sign and date the accompanying proxy and, if you are a shareholder of record, return it as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope or pursuant to the instructions set out in the proxy card. If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to your proxy card or the information provided to you by your bank, broker, custodian or record holder. When the accompanying proxy is returned properly executed, the shares of Bridge Capital common stock represented by it will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained in the proxy.

Vote in Person. If you wish to vote in person at the special meeting, a ballot will be provided at the special meeting. However, if your shares are held in the name of your bank, broker, custodian or other record holder, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote at the special meeting. You should allow yourself enough time prior to the special meeting to obtain this proxy from the holder of record.

Revocability of Proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the close of voting at the special meeting by doing any one of the following:

Complete, sign, date and submit another proxy (a properly executed, valid proxy will revoke any previously submitted proxies);

Re-vote by telephone or on the Internet;

Provide written notice of revocation to Bridge Capital's Corporate Secretary; or Attend the special meeting and vote in person.

Solicitation of Proxies

This solicitation is made on behalf of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors and Bridge Capital will pay the costs of soliciting and obtaining proxies, including the cost of reimbursing banks and brokers for forwarding proxy materials to their principals. Proxies may be solicited, without extra compensation, by Bridge Capital's officers and employees in person or by mail, telephone, fax or other methods of communication. Bridge Capital will also reimburse brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses in sending these materials to you and getting your voting instructions.

Householding

Under SEC rules, a single set of annual reports and proxy statements may be sent to any household at which two or more Bridge Capital shareholders reside if they appear to be members of the same family. Each Bridge Capital shareholder continues to receive a separate proxy card. This procedure, referred to as householding, reduces the volume of duplicate information Bridge Capital shareholders receive and reduces mailing and printing expenses for Bridge Capital. Brokers with accountholders who are Bridge Capital shareholders may be householding Bridge Capital's proxy materials. As indicated in the notice previously provided by these brokers to Bridge Capital shareholders, a single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple shareholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from an affected Bridge Capital shareholder. Once you have received notice from your broker that it will be householding communications to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement, please notify your broker. Bridge Capital shareholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy statement at their address and would like to request householding of their communications should contact their broker.

BRIDGE CAPITAL PROPOSALS

Proposal 1: Approval of the Merger Agreement

Bridge Capital shareholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement pursuant to which Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance with Western Alliance surviving, and approve the transactions contemplated thereby.

For a detailed discussion of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, see The Merger Agreement. As discussed under The Merger Bridge Capital's Reasons for the Merger, after careful consideration, the Bridge Capital board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and declared the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, fair and in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders.

The approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. Failures to vote, abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will have the effect of a vote AGAINST this proposal.

THE BRIDGE CAPITAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

Proposal 2: Advisory Approval of Certain Compensatory Arrangements

In accordance with Section 14A of the Exchange Act, Bridge Capital is providing its shareholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory vote on the compensation that may be payable to its named executive officers in connection with the merger. As required by those rules, Bridge Capital is asking its shareholders to vote on the approval of the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the shareholders of Bridge Capital Holdings approve, on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, the agreements for and compensation to be paid by Bridge Capital Holdings and Bridge Bank to Bridge Capital's named executive officers in connection with the merger with Western Alliance Bancorporation, as disclosed in the section of the proxy statement/prospectus for the merger captioned The Merger Golden Parachute Arrangements for Bridge Capital Named Executive Officers.

The approval of the compensatory arrangements proposal is not a condition to the merger and is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the merger agreement proposal. Accordingly, you may vote to approve the compensatory arrangements proposal and vote not to approve the merger agreement proposal and vice versa. In addition, because the vote on compensatory arrangements is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Bridge Capital. Accordingly, because Bridge Capital is contractually obligated to pay the compensation, such compensation will be payable, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, if the merger is completed and regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

The affirmative vote of the majority of shares of Bridge Capital common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereon present and in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal will be required to approve the advisory resolution on the compensatory arrangements. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if a properly executed proxy card is returned) will be counted towards a quorum. However, if you are a shareholder of record, and you fail to vote by proxy or by ballot at the special meeting, your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining a quorum.

Failure to submit a proxy card or vote in person will not affect whether this matter has been approved. An abstention or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST this proposal.

THE BRIDGE CAPITAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL, ON AN ADVISORY (NONBINDING) BASIS, OF THE COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENTS PROPOSAL.

Proposal 3: Adjournment or Postponement of the Bridge Capital Special Meeting

Bridge Capital is also submitting a proposal for consideration at the special meeting to authorize the named proxies to approve one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting. Even though a quorum may be present at the special meeting, it is possible that Bridge Capital may not have received sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement by the time of the special meeting. In that event, Bridge Capital would need to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies. The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment or postponement of the special meeting for purposes of soliciting additional proxies to obtain the requisite shareholder approval to approve the merger agreement. Any other adjournment or postponement of the special meeting (e.g., an adjournment required because of the absence of a quorum) would be voted upon pursuant to the discretionary authority granted by the proxy card. If the special meeting is adjourned for 30 days or less, Bridge Capital is not required to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date for the special meeting.

The proposal to approve one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Bridge Capital common stock present or represented at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. Failures to vote will not have an effect on this proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST this proposal. Approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger.

THE BRIDGE CAPITAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO ADJOURN OR POSTPONE THE SPECIAL MEETING.

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains important information relating to the merger. You are urged to read this discussion together with the merger agreement and related documents attached as appendices to this proxy statement/prospectus before voting.

Structure

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Bridge Capital will merge with and into Western Alliance with Western Alliance continuing as the surviving entity following the merger. When the merger is completed, except as discussed below, each issued and outstanding share of Bridge Capital's common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash and shares of Western Alliance's common stock based on the merger consideration, as described below. Cash will be paid instead of fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock. Shares of Bridge Capital's common stock held as treasury stock or held directly or indirectly by Bridge Capital, Western Alliance or any of their subsidiaries will be canceled and shall cease to exist.

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital expect that the merger will take place in the second half of 2015, or as soon as possible after we receive all required regulatory and shareholder approvals and all regulatory waiting periods expire. If the merger does not take place by December 31, 2015, the merger agreement may be terminated by either party unless both parties agree to extend it.

In addition, Western Alliance and Bridge Capital have agreed to merge Bridge Bank with and into Western Alliance Bank, with Western Alliance Bank continuing as the surviving bank, which we refer to as the bank merger. The merger agreement provides that Western Alliance may, if necessary for regulatory or other reasonable business or tax reasons, change the structure of the bank merger as long as such change does not alter the kind or amount of merger consideration to be provided under the merger agreement, impede or materially delay consummation of the merger, or materially delay or jeopardize receipt of any required regulatory approvals or adversely affect the tax treatment of Bridge Capital's shareholders as a result of receiving the merger consideration. It is the current intention of Western Alliance that, from and after the effective time, Western Alliance will continue to use the Bridge Bank name across Bridge Bank's product lines as part of the Western Alliance franchise in the San Francisco Bay Area and at existing Bridge Bank offices outside of California.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that Bridge Capital shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Bridge Capital common stock, to receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock, which we refer to as the exchange ratio, and (y) $2.39 in cash, subject to possible adjustment, if necessary, to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization.

Subject to the potential adjustment that may be made to the exchange ratio pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization, the aggregate merger consideration to be issued or paid by Western Alliance will not exceed 12,494,704 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $36,663,403 of cash; provided that for each share of Bridge Capital common stock that is issued, from and after March 9, 2015, and prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the exercise of Bridge Capital stock options and the vesting of Bridge Capital restricted stock, either (i) outstanding as of March 9, 2015, other than any Bridge Capital restricted stock that vests pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement or (ii) granted or issued after March 9, 2015, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the maximum aggregate merger consideration will be increased by 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and $2.39 in cash. If the total merger consideration exceeds the amount set forth in the previous sentence (including any cash paid in connection with the cancellation of outstanding vested and unexercised stock options for which the option holders have not made an exercise election (as more fully described under The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 80) and after giving effect to dissenting shares as if they had been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration), then the total merger consideration shall be reduced on a pro rata basis to the aggregate amount set forth in the preceding sentence.

Bridge Capital Stock Options. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each holder of an outstanding, vested and unexercised option to purchase Bridge Capital common stock granted under Bridge Capital stock plans and each holder of an outstanding and unexercised option that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement may elect to exercise any such option in accordance with the other terms of such option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and will receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which the option holder has not made an exercise election will be cancelled and in exchange for such cancellation the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the closing price (calculated as the sum of (A) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (B) $2.39) over the exercise price per share of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such option, which cash payment will be treated as compensation and will be net of any applicable federal or state withholding tax. At the effective time, any outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an exercise election has not made the exercise price of which exceeds the closing price will be converted automatically into an adjusted option to purchase Western Alliance common stock, and will be treated in the same manner as an unvested Bridge Capital stock option in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, each unvested Bridge Capital stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time, will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bridge Capital common stock and will be converted automatically into an option to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock (each an adjusted option) equal to the product of (x) the total number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option immediately prior to the effective time and (y) 0.905, with any fractional shares rounded down to the next lower whole number of shares. Each adjusted option will have an exercise price per share of Western Alliance common stock (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such Bridge Capital stock option divided by (ii) 0.905. Each adjusted option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital stock option under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Bridge Capital Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding and vested shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock that are outstanding and vested immediately prior to the effective time (including any Bridge Capital restricted stock that will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the effective time in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, as of the effective time), will be a vested right to receive the merger consideration. At the effective time, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a right or award with respect to shares of Bridge capital common stock and will be converted automatically into a share of restricted Western Alliance common stock (each, an adjusted restricted share) equal to the product of (x) the number of shares of Bridge Capital restricted stock and (y) 0.905 (and rounded, as applicable, to the nearest whole share, with 0.50 being rounded upward). Each adjusted restricted share will otherwise be subject to substantially the same terms and conditions applicable to the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock under the applicable Bridge Capital stock plan and the agreements evidencing grants thereunder, including as to vesting.

Fractions of Shares. Certificates for fractions of shares of Western Alliance's common stock will not be issued or book entries representing fractional shares of Western Alliance common stock made. Instead of a fractional share of Western Alliance's common stock, a Bridge Capital shareholder will be entitled to receive an amount of cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the fractional share interest to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by (B) the 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time closing sales price of Western Alliance common stock reported on the NYSE composite tape for the trading day immediately preceding the closing date for the merger.

Conversion. The conversion of Bridge Capital's common stock into the merger consideration will occur automatically upon completion of the merger. Under the merger agreement, after the effective time, Western Alliance will cause its exchange agent to pay the purchase price to each Bridge Capital shareholder who surrenders the appropriate documents to the exchange agent. In this document, we use the term purchase price to refer to the (i) shares of Western Alliance's common stock, (ii) cash and (iii) any cash to be paid instead of a fraction of a share of Western Alliance common stock, payable to each holder of Bridge Capital's common stock.

Purpose and Effects of the Merger

The purpose of the merger is to enable Western Alliance to acquire the assets and business of Bridge Capital and its subsidiaries. Upon completion of the merger, except as discussed below, the issued and outstanding shares of Bridge Capital's common stock will automatically be converted into the merger consideration. See Merger Consideration.

Background of the Merger

As part of their ongoing consideration and evaluation of Bridge Capital's long-term prospects and strategies, the board of directors of Bridge Capital and senior management have regularly reviewed and assessed business strategies and objectives, including strategic opportunities and challenges, and have considered various strategic options potentially available to Bridge Capital, all with the goal of enhancing value for Bridge Capital shareholders. The strategic discussions have focused, among other things, on the business and regulatory environment facing financial institutions generally and Bridge Capital in particular, as well as conditions and ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry. In furtherance of this process, the board of directors of Bridge Capital directed management to gain an understanding of potential interested parties, their merger philosophy, and a general understanding of related valuation. The Bridge Capital board also formed a Strategic Development Committee to oversee this process, which committee was comprised of Dan Myers and Allan Kramer, as co-chairmen, and Board members Owen Brown, Howard Gould, and Bob Latta, and chief financial officer, Tom Sa.

In connection with this process, Bridge Capital management had contact with senior management at financial institutions that were identified by Bridge Capital as promising from a strategic and financial perspective to gain deeper knowledge of potential business alignment and to raise awareness of Bridge Capital's business focus and potential. In addition, from time to time, Bridge Capital management held informal meetings with investment bankers from several firms to gain insight as to industry trends, merger and acquisition market trends and valuations, and active and potential participants in merger and acquisition activities.

On June 11, 2014, while attending an industry conference, Mr. Sa encountered Dale Gibbons, the Chief Financial Officer of Western Alliance, and discussed in general terms the companies' respective business focus, philosophies and culture. Following this meeting, Robert Sarver, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Western Alliance, contacted Mr. Myers for a meeting to explore whether there was interest in a potential business transaction and to explore the potential benefits of such a transaction. Such meeting was held between Messrs. Myers and Sarver on June 20, 2014.

On August 1, 2014, Bridge Capital and Western Alliance signed a mutual non-disclosure agreement and continued discussions at a meeting in Western Alliance's offices in Phoenix. On August 20, 2014, the Strategic Development Committee received a management presentation regarding companies of interest in a potential business combination, including Western Alliance. On September 26, 2014, Bridge Capital met with the Western Alliance credit team which undertook a review of the Bridge Capital credit process and culture. Following that credit review, Western Alliance orally confirmed its interest in pursuing a business combination, outlining its approach to key strategic and economic components of a potential partnership.

On October 22, 2014, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors received a report from Mr. Myers regarding discussions between senior management of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance regarding interest in a potential transaction, and authorized the engagement of an investment banker to assess the valuation of Bridge Capital and evaluate the strategic benefits of a potential transaction with Western Alliance.

On October 31, 2014, senior management of Bridge Capital invited representatives of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. to assist the Bridge Capital Board of Directors in evaluating the merits of a potential business combination with Western Alliance in the context of current industry trends, Bridge Capital's standalone value prospects, and other potential strategic alternatives. On November 20, 2014, representatives of Sandler O'Neill made a presentation to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors on these topics. At the meeting, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors authorized senior management to continue discussions with Western Alliance, including the negotiation of a non-binding letter of intent.

On December 8, 2014, Bridge Capital received a draft, non-binding letter of intent (LOI) from Western Alliance outlining a potential business transaction. An engagement letter between Bridge Capital and Sandler O'Neill was executed on December 11, 2014. The Strategic Development Committee of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors met with representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Bridge Capital's legal counsel, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, on December 11, 2014, to discuss the LOI and a response. Following this meeting, on December 15, 2014, Western Alliance delivered a revised LOI to Bridge Capital; the proposed merger consideration called for Bridge Capital shareholders to receive 0.905 Western Alliance shares for each Bridge Capital share, assuming consideration would be paid 90% in Western Alliance stock and 10% in cash. The LOI contemplated that two Bridge Capital directors would join Western Alliance's Board of Directors and that certain key employees of Bridge Capital would sign employment agreements. Further, the LOI provided Western Alliance 30 days of exclusivity from the date of the LOI to draft and negotiate a definitive agreement.

On December 16, 2014, after careful consideration of Western Alliance's offer and the long-term business plan developed by Bridge Capital's management and previously approved by its Board of Directors, as well as the financial analysis prepared by representatives of Sandler O'Neill, the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital instructed management to sign the LOI and enter into further negotiations with Western Alliance regarding a definitive agreement.

Following this meeting, representatives of management and outside advisors to Western Alliance and Bridge Capital began more detailed discussions on the potential business transaction, and Western Alliance commenced credit, operational and legal due diligence of Bridge Capital through an online dataroom established on December 22, 2014. On January 6 and 7, 2015, members of Bridge Capital's executive management, along with a representative from Sandler O'Neill, interviewed members of Western Alliance's executive management in Phoenix, Arizona, as part of Bridge Capital's reverse due diligence investigation of Western Alliance. Bridge Capital, Sandler O'Neill and Bridge Capital's outside legal advisors also reviewed financial and other information regarding Western Alliance. During these meetings, Bridge Capital disclosed to Western Alliance results for the fourth quarter below estimates of investment analysts. Following these meetings, Western Alliance determined to terminate discussions with Bridge Capital and let the exclusivity period lapse in order to assess other strategic alternatives. On January 16, 2015, the exclusivity provision in the LOI expired. On January 22, 2015, the Strategic Development Committee reported to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors on the status of discussions with Western Alliance. On February 11, 2015, Western Alliance contacted Bridge Capital seeking to re-engage a discussion. On February 17 and 18, 2015, members of Western Alliance's executive management traveled to San Jose for further on-site due diligence on Bridge Capital, and a joint meeting of the Strategic Development Committee and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors was held on February 19, 2015, to review the outcome of these meetings.

Western Alliance's outside legal counsel forwarded an initial draft of the Agreement and Plan of Merger to Bridge Capital's legal counsel on January 2, 2015. Between January 2 and January 7, 2015, and during the weeks following the resumption of negotiations on February 11, 2015, representatives of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, and their respective legal counsel and financial advisors, conducted negotiations regarding the terms of the merger transaction, including, among other terms, the exchange ratio, cash consideration per share, employee compensation and severance, board representation, representations and warranties, covenants, closing conditions, and termination provisions and fees, as well as cultural issues and organizational structure. In addition, the terms of support agreements between Western Alliance and the individual directors of Bridge Capital, certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Community Bank Fund were negotiated, as well as employment and protection agreements between Western Alliance and each of Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe. During this period, Western Alliance also discussed available positions with Bridge Capital's executive management team and reached preliminary agreement with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe regarding employment positions with Western Alliance following the merger. See Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours.

During the period from December 2014 through March 2015, the Strategic Development Committee of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors held five meetings with Mr. Myers and a representative of Sandler O'Neill to discuss the status of the due diligence process, plans for communications with Bridge Capital's staff, customers, shareholders, and regulators, and negotiation of the transaction terms, including, among other terms, employee severance arrangements and cultural issues.

By February 26, 2015, many significant outstanding issues in the transaction negotiations had been resolved. Western Alliance scheduled a Board meeting for February 27, 2015, to consider the merger, and Bridge Capital scheduled a board meeting for March 9, 2015, to consider the merger. On February 27, 2015, Western Alliance's Board of Directors met with members of Western Alliance's management team to review and consider the proposed merger. At the meeting, the Western Alliance Board approved the entry into a transaction with Bridge Capital and the issuance of Western Alliance common stock in connection therewith. The Western Alliance Board then directed its management team to finalize and execute a definitive merger agreement substantially on the terms reviewed and discussed at the meeting.

At Bridge Capital's board meeting held on March 9, 2015, the Board of Directors met, together with representatives of management, Sandler O'Neill and Bridge Capital's outside legal counsel, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, to consider the proposed transaction. During the Bridge Capital board meeting, representatives of Sandler O'Neill summarized the key economic terms of the transaction. Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP presented a summary of the other significant terms of the transaction and also described the terms of proposed support agreements with the individual directors of Bridge Capital, certain executive officers of Bridge Capital and Carpenter Community Bank Fund. See The Merger Agreement Support Agreements. Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP discussed the legal standards applicable to the Bridge Capital board's decisions and actions with respect to its evaluation of the merger transaction. Mr. Myers summarized the terms of the employment and protection agreements between Western Alliance and each of Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe. See Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours Employment and Protection Agreements. Bridge Capital's management, representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP described the results of the due diligence investigation of Western Alliance. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill reviewed additional financial information and analyses regarding Bridge Capital, Western Alliance, peer companies and comparable transactions, and presented its oral fairness opinion (subsequently delivered in final written form dated March 9, 2015) to the directors of Bridge

Capital that, based on the qualifications and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair to the Bridge Capital shareholders from a financial point of view. See The Merger Opinion of Financial Advisor to Bridge Capital. Following these discussions, including consideration of the factors described under Bridge Capital's Reasons for the Merger, the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, Bridge Capital and its shareholders, and recommended that Bridge Capital's shareholders approve the merger agreement at a special meeting to be held later in 2015.

Following completion of the March 9, 2015, meeting of the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital, and after finalizing the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements, Bridge Capital and Western Alliance executed and delivered the merger agreement and announced the transaction late that afternoon in a press release.

Bridge Capital's Reasons for the Merger

Bridge Capital's Board of Directors has determined that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders and, by the unanimous vote of all of the directors of Bridge Capital, approved the merger agreement and the merger. ACCORDINGLY, BRIDGE CAPITAL'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT ALL HOLDERS OF BRIDGE CAPITAL COMMON STOCK VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

In the course of reaching its determination, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors consulted with its legal counsel regarding its fiduciary duties, the terms of the merger agreement and related issues, and reviewed with its financial advisors and its senior management, the financial aspects of the proposed transaction and the fairness of the transaction to the shareholders from a financial point of view, among other matters.

In reaching its determination to approve the merger agreement, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors considered all factors it deemed material. The Board of Directors analyzed information with respect to the financial condition, results of operations, businesses and prospects of Bridge Capital. In this regard, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors considered the performance trends of Bridge Capital over the past several years. The Board of Directors compared Bridge Capital's current and anticipated future operating results to publicly available financial and other information for other similarly-sized banking institutions. The Board also considered the ability of Bridge Capital to grow as an independent institution, and its ability to further enhance shareholder value without engaging in a strategic transaction. In this regard, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors considered the long-term as well as the short-term interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders, including whether those interests might best be served by continued independence.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors also considered a number of factors, including the following:

its knowledge of Bridge Capital's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects, and of Western Alliance's business, operations, management, financial condition, asset quality, financial performance, competitive position, stock performance, and prospects, taking into account the presentations made by Bridge Capital's financial advisors, the results of Bridge Capital's due diligence review of Western Alliance, and information provided by Western Alliance's management;

its knowledge of the current environment in the financial services industry, including national, regional and local economic conditions and the interest rate environment, continued consolidation and the competitive effects of consolidation on financial institutions similar in size to Bridge Capital, increased operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates, increasing nationwide and global competition, the current environment for banks, particularly in Silicon Valley and the San Francisco Bay Area, and current financial market conditions and the likely effects of these factors on the company's potential growth, development, productivity and strategic options, and the historical market prices of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance common stock;

the financial terms of the merger, including that, based on the closing price on the NYSE of Western Alliance's common stock on March 6, 2015 (the last trading day prior to the execution and announcement of the merger agreement), and the right of Bridge Capital shareholders to receive a mix of approximately 90% Western Alliance common stock and 10% cash, the per share merger consideration as of that date represented an approximate 18.9% premium over the closing price of Bridge Capital shares as of that date and a multiple to tangible book value per share of 222%;

the financial analyses presented by representatives of Sandler O'Neill to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors with respect to Western Alliance and the merger, including the terms of recent comparative transactions, and the opinion of Sandler O'Neill that, as of the date of that opinion and subject to the qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Bridge Capital common stock from a financial point of view (see Opinion of Financial Advisor to Bridge Capital beginning on page 54);

the financial and growth prospects for Bridge Capital and its shareholders of a business combination with Western Alliance as compared to continuing to operate as a stand-alone entity;

the greater market capitalization and trading liquidity of Western Alliance common stock in the event that Bridge Capital shareholders desire to sell the shares of Western Alliance common stock to be received by them following completion of the merger;

the potential revenue-enhancing opportunities in connection with the merger and the potential effect on the future financial performance of the combined company;

the benefits to Bridge Capital and its customers of operating as part of a larger organization, including higher lending limits, potential enhancements to products and services, and greater financial resources;

its belief that the two companies share a common vision of growth and entrepreneurship and that management and employees of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance possess complementary skills and expertise;

the similarity of the two banks' business models, including that they are both focused primarily on serving defined sectors of business, and Western Alliance's track record of successfully integrating and operating the businesses of a combined company following a merger;

the career opportunities afforded by a larger organization, as well as the level of severance benefits to be provided to Bridge Capital employees who will not be continuing with Western Alliance or are terminated within twelve months following the merger other than for cause;

the structure of the merger and the terms of the merger agreement, including the requirement that holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Bridge Capital common stock vote to approve the merger as a condition to closing, the termination fee provisions, and the ability of the Bridge Capital Board of Directors, under certain circumstances, to withdraw or materially and adversely modify its recommendation to Bridge Capital's shareholders, as well as its ability to terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal (if one were to be received), subject to payment of a $15.9375 million termination fee;

its assessment of the likelihood that the merger will be completed in a timely manner, including the fact that Western Alliance has existing resources to fund the cash portion of the merger consideration;

the expectation that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the likelihood that such approvals will be received in a timely manner.

Table of Contents

In the course of its deliberations regarding the merger, the Bridge Capital Board of Directors also considered potential risks and potentially negative factors associated with the merger, including the following material factors:

the fact that the value of the aggregate and per share merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Western Alliance's common stock;

the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Bridge Capital's business while working to complete the merger;

the restrictions (subject to certain exceptions) on the conduct of Bridge Capital's business prior to the completion of the merger which, although customary for public company merger agreements involving financial institutions, could delay or prevent Bridge Capital from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or other actions it would otherwise take with respect to its operations absent the pending merger;

the potential risks associated with achieving anticipated cost synergies and savings and successfully integrating Bridge Capital's business, operations and workforce with those of Western Alliance;

the risk of potential employee attrition or negative effects on Bridge Capital's business and customer relationships as a result of the pending merger;

the merger-related costs;

the fact that the interests of certain of Bridge Capital's directors and executive officers may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Bridge Capital's other shareholders as described under the heading "Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours" on page 66;

the fact that, in connection with the merger, Sandler O'Neill will receive a transaction fee, the majority of which is subject to the closing of the merger (see "Sandler O'Neill's Relationship");

the fact that, while Bridge Capital expects that the merger will be completed, there can be no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the merger agreement will be satisfied such that the merger may not be consummated, including that required regulatory and shareholder approvals be obtained; and the fact that Bridge Capital would be prohibited from affirmatively soliciting acquisition proposals after execution of the merger agreement and will be obligated to pay a termination fee of $15.9375 million to Western Alliance if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, all of which may discourage other parties potentially interested in a strategic transaction with Bridge Capital from pursuing such a transaction.

This description of the information and factors considered by Bridge Capital's Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include all material factors the Board considered. In determining whether to approve and recommend the merger agreement, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to any of the foregoing factors, and individual directors may have weighed factors differently. After deliberating with respect to the merger and the merger agreement, considering, among other things, the reasons discussed above, Bridge Capital's Board of Directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger as being in the best interests of Bridge Capital and its shareholders, based on the total mix of information available to the Board.

Western Alliance's Reasons for the Merger

Western Alliance's reasons for entering in to the merger agreement include:

each of Western Alliance's and Bridge Capital's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects;

Table of Contents

the opportunity for Western Alliance to further expand in the Northern California market, in particular in the Silicon Valley area;

the complementary nature of the businesses of the two companies including, in particular, Bridge Capital's significant technology banking platform with an emphasis on small, middle-market and emerging companies, and low cost deposit funding profile;

the belief of the Western Alliance Board of Directors that the combination would result in a larger and more diversified financial institution that is better positioned to develop and build on its current market position;

the anticipated pro forma impact of the transaction on the combined company, including the expected impact on financial metrics including earnings and tangible equity per share and on regulatory capital levels, and the expectation that the combined company will retain a strong capital position upon completion of the transaction;

the current and prospective environment in which Western Alliance and Bridge Capital operate, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the interest rate environment, the continuing consolidation of the industry, increased operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates, increasing nationwide competition and current financial market conditions and the likely effects of these factors on the companies' potential growth, development, productivity and strategic options;

the compatibility of the cultures of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital;

the three-year employment agreements with Dan Myers and certain other Bridge Capital executives, the appointment of two Bridge Capital directors to the Western Alliance Board, the retention incentives created by conversion of certain outstanding equity awards of Bridge Capital into awards of Western Alliance, and other factors related to the combined company's ability to continue to successfully operate and grow the Bridge Bank business;

the Board's review and discussions with Western Alliance management concerning the due diligence examination of Bridge Capital;

the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Western Alliance's business and towards the completion of the merger and the integration of the two companies; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the expected likelihood that such regulatory approvals will be received in a reasonably timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by Western Alliance's Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but does set forth the principal factors considered by Western Alliance's Board of Directors. Western Alliance's Board of Directors collectively reached the unanimous conclusion to approve the merger agreement and approve the merger in light of the various factors described above and other factors that each member of Western Alliance's Board of Directors determined was appropriate. In view of the numerous factors considered by Western Alliance's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of those matters, Western Alliance's Board of Directors did not consider it practical, and therefore did not attempt, to quantify, rank, or otherwise assign relative weights to each specific factor considered in reaching its decision. Rather, Western Alliance's Board of Directors is making its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to and the investigation conducted by it. In considering the factors discussed above, individual Western Alliance directors may have given different weights to each of the factors discussed in their evaluation of the merger.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Bridge Capital

By letter dated December 11, 2014, Bridge Capital Holdings, or Bridge Capital, retained Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., or Sandler O'Neill, to act as financial advisor to Bridge Capital's Board of Directors in connection with the Board's review of a potential business combination with Western Alliance Bancorporation, or Western Alliance. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors in connection with the proposed transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the March 9, 2015 meeting at which Bridge Capital's Board of Directors considered and approved the merger agreement, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the Board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Bridge Capital common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Bridge Capital common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Bridge Capital's board and is directed only to the fairness of the merger consideration to the holders of Bridge Capital common stock from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of Bridge Capital to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation to any holder of Bridge Capital common stock as to how such holder of Bridge Capital common stock should vote at the special meeting with respect to the merger or any other matter. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by Bridge Capital's officers, directors, or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the merger consideration to be received by Bridge Capital's common shareholders.

In connection with rendering its opinion dated March 9, 2015, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

the merger agreement;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Bridge Capital that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Western Alliance that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain internal financial forecasts for Bridge Capital for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018 and an estimated long-term growth rate for 2019 as discussed with the senior management of Bridge Capital; mean publicly available analyst earnings estimates for Western Alliance for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016 and an estimated long-term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter as provided by the senior management of Western Alliance;

certain estimated transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, and expected cost savings and other synergies provided by Western Alliance;

a comparison of certain financial and other information, including stock trading information, for Bridge Capital and Western Alliance with similar publicly available information for certain other publicly traded commercial banks;

the publicly available financial terms of certain other recent merger and acquisition transactions in the banking sector and, specifically, in the Western U.S.;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular, including, specifically, the Western U.S.; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Bridge Capital the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Bridge Capital and held similar discussions with the senior management of Western Alliance regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Western Alliance.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to Sandler O'Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O'Neill by Bridge Capital and Western Alliance or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O'Neill and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of preparing this letter. Sandler O'Neill further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance or any of their respective subsidiaries. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Bridge Capital, Western Alliance or the combined entity after the merger and Sandler O'Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to Bridge Capital and Western Alliance. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with Bridge Capital's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Bridge Capital and Western Alliance are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

With respect to internal financial estimates, Sandler O'Neill used estimates provided by senior management of Western Alliance, publicly available mean earnings per share estimates, and an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for Western Alliance as provided by the senior management of Western Alliance, as discussed below under "Certain Western Alliance Prospective Financial Information Provided to Sandler O'Neill". The senior managements of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that those estimates reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of such respective managements of the respective future financial performances of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. Sandler O'Neill assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance since the date of the most recent financial data made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill also assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Bridge Capital and Western Alliance would remain as a going concern for all periods relevant to its analyses. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and any other transactions contemplated in connection therewith.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Bridge Capital's consent, that each of the parties to the merger agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not waived, and that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Bridge Capital, Western Alliance or the merger and that the merger and any related transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date of its opinion. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect its opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of its opinion. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the prices at which the common stock of Bridge Capital or Western Alliance may trade at any time or the impact of the change in price of Western Alliance common stock on the per share consideration.

In rendering its opinion dated March 9, 2015, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill, but is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Bridge Capital or Western Alliance and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Bridge Capital and Western Alliance and the companies to which they are being compared.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Bridge Capital, Western Alliance and Sandler O'Neill. The analysis performed by Sandler O'Neill is not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the Bridge Capital Board of Directors at the Board of Directors' March 9, 2015 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Bridge Capital's common stock or the prices at which Bridge Capital's common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Bridge Capital's Board of Directors in making its determination to approve of Bridge Capital's entry into the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision Bridge Capital's Board of Directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger.

In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, it made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion; rather, Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the merger consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

Table of ContentsSummary of Proposal

Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. At the effective time, each share of Bridge Capital common stock will be converted into (i) 0.8145 shares of Western Alliance common stock and (ii) $2.39 in cash. In addition, cash will be paid in lieu of the issuance of any fractional shares of Western Alliance. Based upon the closing price of Western Alliance's common stock of $29.02 as of March 6, 2015, Sandler O'Neill calculated value of $26.03 per Bridge Capital common share and the aggregate transaction consideration to be approximately $425.0 million¹. Based upon financial information as of or for the twelve month period ended December 31, 2014 (unless otherwise stated below), Sandler O'Neill calculated the following valuation ratios:

Transaction Value Per Share / Tangible Book Value Per Share:	222%
Transaction Value Per Share / 2014 Actual Earnings Per Share:	23.0x
Transaction Value Per Share / Mean 2015 Estimated Earnings Per Share:	19.4x
Tangible Book Premium to Core Deposits ² :	15.0%
Market Premium as of March 6, 2015:	18.9%

² Core deposits equals total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000.

Bridge Capital Net Present Value Analysis

Sandler O'Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Bridge Capital common stock under various circumstances. The analysis assumed that Bridge Capital performed in accordance to internal financial estimates provided by Bridge Capital's senior management for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019. To approximate the terminal value of Bridge Capital common stock at December 31, 2018, Sandler O'Neill applied price to earnings multiples ranging from 12.0x to 20.0x and multiples of tangible book value ranging from 120% to 200%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 11.0% to 15.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Bridge Capital's common stock.

During the Bridge Capital Board of Directors meeting on March 9, 2015, Sandler O'Neill noted that the terminal value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicates an imputed range of values per share of Bridge Capital common stock of $13.68 to $27.22 when applying multiples of earnings to the applicable amounts indicated in the Bridge Capital estimates and $13.49 to $26.83 when applying multiples of tangible book value to the applicable amounts indicated in the Bridge Capital estimates.

Sandler O Neill also performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Western Alliance common stock under various circumstances. The analysis assumed that Western Alliance performed in accordance with publicly available mean analyst earnings estimates for the years ending December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2016 and an estimated annual earnings growth rate for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2019 as provided by the senior management of Western Alliance.

To approximate the terminal value of Western Alliance common stock at December 31, 2019, Sandler O Neill applied price to earnings multiples ranging from 10.0x to 20.0x and multiples of tangible book value ranging from 125% to 250%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 8.0% to 12.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Western Alliance's common stock.

At the March 9, 2014 Bridge Capital Board of Directors meeting, Sandler O Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicates an imputed range of values per share of Western Alliance common stock of $16.58 to $39.78 when applying earnings multiples to the applicable amounts indicated in the Western Alliance projections and $15.62 to $37.47 when applying multiples of tangible book value to the applicable amounts indicated in the Western Alliance projections.

Pro Forma Results and Capital Ratios

Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger on Western Alliance, assuming the following: (i) the merger closes on December 31, 2015; (ii) aggregate transaction value of $425.0 million, based on Western Alliance's closing stock price on March 6, 2015 of $29.02; (iii) Western Alliance would be able to achieve cost savings on Bridge Capital's projected non-interest expense; (iv) a core deposit intangible of approximately $20.0 million (10 year, straight line amortization method); (v) a pretax opportunity cost of cash of 1.50%; (vi) various purchase accounting adjustments, including a mark-to-market adjustment on Bridge Capital's loan portfolio, securities portfolio and fixed assets; and (vii) all vested and exercisable options of Bridge Capital are cashed out at the deal price per share and all unvested options and restricted stock of Bridge Capital are exchanged for Western Alliance options and restricted shares at an exchange ratio of 0.905x. The analyses indicated that as of December 31, 2015, the merger would maintain Western Alliance's regulatory capital ratios in excess of the regulatory guidelines for well capitalized status. The actual results achieved by the combined company, however, may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Analysis of Trading Liquidity of Western Alliance Common Stock

Sandler O'Neill used publicly available information to review Western Alliance's average daily common stock trading activity for the 5 day, 30 day and 90 day periods ending March 6, 2015. During those periods, Western Alliance's daily average common stock trading activity ranged from approximately 425 thousand shares to approximately 473 thousand shares per day and Bridge Capital's daily average common stock trading activity ranged from approximately 13 thousand shares to approximately 20 thousand shares per day. Based on an estimated 12.5 million Western Alliance common shares to be issued in aggregate to Bridge Capital's common shareholders, the analysis indicated that it would take between approximately 29 and 32 trading days to trade all of the shares issued to Bridge Capital's common shareholders on a combined basis, assuming that future trading volumes were consistent with the historical period referenced and no other shares were traded.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship

Sandler O'Neill acted as the financial advisor to Bridge Capital's Board of Directors in connection with the merger and will receive a transaction fee in an amount equal to 1.2% of the aggregate purchase price (as defined in the engagement letter entered into by and between Sandler O'Neill and Bridge Capital) to be paid in connection with the merger, $750,000 of which was paid upon the signing of the merger agreement and the balance of which is subject to the closing of the merger. Sandler O'Neill received a fee of $250,000 in connection with Sandler O'Neill's rendering its fairness opinion, which fairness opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the transaction fee that becomes due and payable upon the closing of the merger. Bridge Capital has also agreed to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (up to $25,000) incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Sandler O'Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain expenses and liabilities, including liabilities under applicable federal or state law.

In the ordinary course of its broker-dealer business, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Bridge Capital and Western Alliance and their respective affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Bridge Capital or Western Alliance or their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Certain Bridge Capital Prospective Financial Information Provided to Sandler O'Neill

Bridge Capital does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance, revenues, earnings or other financial results due to, among other reasons, the uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, Bridge Capital is including in this proxy statement/prospectus certain unaudited prospective financial information that was provided to Sandler O'Neill in its capacity as Bridge Capital's financial advisor and to Western Alliance in connection with the merger. The inclusion of this information should not be regarded as an indication that any of Bridge Capital, Western Alliance, Sandler O'Neill, their respective representatives or any other recipient of this information considered, or now considers, it to be necessarily predictive of actual future results, or that it should be construed as financial guidance, and it should not be relied on as such.

Bridge Capital's management approved the use of the following unaudited prospective financial information. This information was prepared solely for internal use and is subjective in many respects. While presented with numeric specificity, the unaudited prospective financial information reflects numerous estimates and assumptions made with respect to business, economic, market, competition, regulatory and financial conditions and matters specific to Bridge Capital's business, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Bridge Capital's control. The unaudited prospective financial information reflects both assumptions as to certain business decisions that are subject to change and, in many respects, subjective judgment, and thus is susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. Bridge Capital can give no assurance that the unaudited prospective financial information and the underlying estimates and assumptions will be realized. In addition, since the unaudited prospective financial information covers multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less predictive with each successive year. Actual results may differ materially from those set forth below, and important factors that may affect actual results and cause the unaudited prospective financial information to be inaccurate include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties relating to Bridge Capital's business, industry performance, general business and economic conditions, customer requirements, competition and adverse changes in applicable laws, regulations or rules. For other factors that could cause actual results to differ, please see the sections entitled "Risk Factors" and "Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements" and in Bridge Capital's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, as amended, and the other reports filed by Bridge Capital with the SEC.

The unaudited prospective financial information was not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, nor was it prepared with a view toward compliance with GAAP, published guidelines of the SEC or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. Neither Bridge Capital's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the unaudited prospective financial information contained herein, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability.

Furthermore, the unaudited prospective financial information does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date it was prepared. Bridge Capital can give no assurance that, had the unaudited prospective financial information been prepared either as of the date of the merger agreement or as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, similar estimates and assumptions would be used. Bridge Capital does not intend to, and disclaims any obligation to, make publicly available any update or other revision to the unaudited prospective financial information to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error, or to reflect changes in general economic or industry conditions. The unaudited prospective financial information does not take into account the possible financial and other effects on Bridge Capital of the merger and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results of the combined company. The unaudited prospective financial information does not give effect to the merger, including the impact of negotiating or executing the merger agreement, the expenses that may be incurred in connection with consummating the merger, the potential synergies that may be achieved by the combined company as a result of the merger, the effect on Bridge Capital of any business or strategic decision or action that has been or will be taken as a result of the merger agreement having been executed, or the effect of any business or strategic decisions or actions which would likely have been taken if the merger agreement had not been executed, but which were instead altered, accelerated, postponed or not taken in anticipation of the merger. Further, the unaudited prospective financial information does not take into account the effect on Bridge Capital of any possible failure of the merger to occur. None of Bridge Capital, Western Alliance, Sandler O'Neill or their respective affiliates, officers, directors, advisors or other representatives has made, makes or is authorized in the future to make any representation to any shareholder of Bridge Capital or other person regarding Bridge Capital's ultimate performance compared to the information contained in the unaudited prospective financial information or that the forecasted results will be achieved. The summary of the unaudited prospective financial information included below is not being included to influence your decision whether to vote in favor of the merger proposal or any other proposal to be considered at the special meeting, but is being provided solely because it was made available to Bridge Capital's financial advisor in connection with the merger and to Western Alliance in connection with Western Alliance's due diligence of Bridge Capital.

In light of the foregoing, and considering that the special meeting will be held several months after the unaudited prospective financial information was prepared, as well as the uncertainties inherent in any forecasted information, Bridge Capital shareholders are cautioned not to place unwarranted reliance on such information, and Bridge Capital urges all Bridge Capital shareholders to review Bridge Capital's most recent SEC filings for a description of Bridge Capital's reported financial results. See Where You Can Find More Information.

The following table presents Bridge Capital's unaudited prospective financial information for the years ending December 31, 2015 through 2018 as provided to Sandler O'Neill and Western Alliance and as discussed by Bridge Capital with each such party and, in the case of Sandler O'Neill, used in connection with its fairness opinion delivered to the Bridge Capital board of directors. The earnings per share information consists of Institutional Broker's Estimate System, or IBES, median consensus estimates for fiscal years 2015 and 2016 and management approved extrapolation for fiscal years 2017 and 2018 based on an assumed growth rate.

Certain Western Alliance Prospective Financial Information Provided to Sandler O Neill

Western Alliance management does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance or earnings and is especially wary of making projections for extended periods due to the significant unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, Western Alliance is including in this proxy statement/prospectus an estimated long-term earnings growth rate for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2019 which was provided to Sandler O Neill in its capacity as financial advisor to Bridge Capital in connection with the merger.

This estimated long-term earnings growth rate reflected numerous estimates and assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to Western Alliance's business, all of which are inherently uncertain and difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Western Alliance's control. This estimate is subjective in many respects and thus is susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. This estimate may also be affected by Western Alliance's ability to achieve strategic goals, objectives and targets over the applicable periods. As such, this estimate constitutes forward-looking information and is subject to risks and uncertainties, including the various risks set forth in the sections of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements and Risk Factors and in Western Alliance's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, and the other reports filed by Western Alliance with the SEC. The estimate covers multiple years and such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year.

The estimate was not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. Neither Western Alliance's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the estimate included below, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and they assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the estimate. Furthermore, the estimate does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date the estimate was prepared.

You are strongly cautioned not to place undue reliance on the estimate set forth below. The inclusion of the estimate in this proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that any of Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, Sandler O Neill, or their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives considered or consider the estimate to be predictive of actual future events, and the estimate should not be relied upon as such. None of Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, Sandler O Neill, or their respective affiliates, advisors, officers, directors or representatives can give any assurance that actual results will not differ from the estimate, and none of them undertakes any obligation to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the estimate to reflect circumstances existing after the date such estimate was generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error. None of Western Alliance, Bridge Capital, Sandler O Neill, or their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives makes any representation to any other person regarding the estimate. The estimate is not being included in this proxy statement/prospectus to influence a shareholder's decision regarding how to vote on any given proposal, but because the estimate was provided to Sandler O Neill.

Western Alliance provided Sandler O Neill with an estimated 12% annual long-term earnings growth rate for Western Alliance for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2019.

Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different Than Yours

Certain directors and executive officers of Bridge Capital have interests in the merger as individuals in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of Bridge Capital, including, but not limited to, agreements that provide for payments and benefits in addition to the merger consideration, enhanced severance pay upon termination, and accelerated vesting of equity awards. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. The Bridge Capital Board of Directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the merger agreement.

- 66 -

The dates and share prices used below to quantify these interests have been selected based upon applicable disclosure requirements and are for illustrative purposes only. They do not necessarily reflect the dates on which certain events will occur and do not represent a projection about the future value of Bridge Capital common stock. For purposes of all of the Bridge Capital agreements described below, the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will constitute a change in control.

Board Positions

Prior to the effective time of the merger, all necessary action will be taken by Western Alliance in order that, at the first regularly scheduled meeting of the combined company's Board of Directors occurring after the effective time, Western Alliance will expand the size of its Board of Directors by two seats and designate two members of Bridge Capital's Board of Directors, who will be named prior to the effective time, to serve on the Board of Directors of Western Alliance.

Employment and Protection Agreements

New Executive Employment Agreements. In anticipation of the closing of the merger, each of Daniel P. Myers, President and Chief Executive Officer of Bridge Capital; Thomas A. Sa, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, and Chief Strategy Officer of Bridge Capital; and Timothy W. Boothe, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Bridge Capital, have entered into executive employment agreements and protection agreements with Western Alliance Bank that will become effective upon closing of the bank merger.

Pursuant to the executive employment agreement with Daniel P. Myers, Mr. Myers will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Bridge Bank division of Western Alliance Bank, as the Executive Vice President of Northern California Administration of Western Alliance, and as a member of Western Alliance's Executive Management Committee, with an annual base salary of $450,000, which is subject to a guaranteed increase by $15,000 on each of January 1, 2017 and January 1, 2018. Upon commencement of employment, Mr. Myers will receive a grant of 15,000 shares of Western Alliance restricted stock that will vest on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the grant date. Commencing in 2016, Mr. Myers will be eligible for (a) an annual bonus of up to 65% of his base salary based on achievement of target performance goals, and (b) annual long-term equity incentive awards including a performance-based restricted stock award with a target value of 40% of his base salary and performance-based stock units with a target value of 40% of his base salary. Both long-term equity incentive awards will vest over no more than three (3) years. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Myers will be eligible to participate in Western Alliance Bank's employee benefit plans, fringe benefits, and perquisites as provided to similarly situated executives.

Pursuant to the executive employment agreement with Thomas A. Sa, Mr. Sa will serve as Executive Vice President of the Bridge Bank division of Western Alliance Bank with an annual base salary of $300,000, which is subject to a guaranteed increase by $10,000 on each of January 1, 2017 and January 1, 2018. Upon commencement of employment, Mr. Sa will receive a grant of 7,500 shares of Western Alliance restricted stock that will vest on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the grant date. Commencing in 2016, Mr. Sa will be eligible for (a) an annual bonus of up to 50% of his base salary based on achievement of target performance goals, and (b) annual long-term equity incentive awards including a performance-based restricted stock award with a target value of 35% of his base salary and performance-based stock units with a target value of 35% of his base salary. Both long-term equity incentive awards will vest over no more than three (3) years. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Sa will be eligible to participate in Western Alliance Bank's employee benefit plans, fringe benefits, and perquisites as provided to similarly situated executives.

Pursuant to the executive employment agreement with Timothy W. Boothe, Mr. Boothe will serve as Executive Vice President of the Bridge Bank division of Western Alliance Bank with an annual base salary of $275,000, which is subject to a guaranteed increase by $10,000 on each of January 1, 2017 and January 1, 2018. Upon commencement of employment, Mr. Boothe will receive a grant of 7,500 shares of Western Alliance restricted stock that will vest on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the grant date. Commencing in 2016, Mr. Boothe will be eligible for (a) an annual bonus of up to 50% of his base salary based on achievement of target performance goals, and (b) annual long-term equity incentive awards including a restricted stock award with a target value of 35% of his base salary and performance-based stock units with a target value of 35% of his base salary. Both long-term equity incentive awards will vest over no more than three (3) years. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Boothe will be eligible to participate in Western Alliance Bank's employee benefit plans, fringe benefits, and perquisites as provided to similarly situated executives.

Under each of these executive employment agreements, if the executive officer's employment is terminated by Western Alliance or is terminated by the executive for good reason (as defined in the executive employment agreement) or for certain other reasons specified in the executive employment agreement, the applicable officer will be entitled to receive, subject to his timely execution and delivery of a general release of claims, a lump-sum severance payment equal to two (2) times his annual base salary and target bonus for the year in which the termination occurs; accelerated vesting of the restricted stock award granted upon commencement of his employment; and reimbursement for the difference between his COBRA premium for himself and his dependents and the monthly premium amount paid by similarly situated active employees for a period not to exceed eighteen (18) months after termination.

In the event that it is determined that any of the payments or benefits described above or any other payments would be subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, then such payments will be reduced until no amount payable to the executive officer will be subject to such excise tax.

Protection Agreements. Western Alliance has also entered into protection agreements with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe. In addition to certain non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement, and confidentiality restrictions, the protection agreements provide that, if Western Alliance terminates the executive officer's service or the executive officer terminates for good reason (as defined in the protection agreement) between the third and fifth anniversary of the effective time of the merger (with certain exclusions), Western Alliance shall provide the applicable executive officer with salary continuation payments equal to the executive officer's base salary from the executive officer's date of termination to the fifth anniversary of the effective time of the merger and shall accelerate the vesting of the executive officer's restricted stock awards that are otherwise scheduled to vest on the fifth anniversary of the effective time.

Cash-Out of Previous Employment Agreements. In addition to the new executive employment agreements and protection agreements described above, Mr. Myers, Mr. Sa, Mr. Boothe, Margaret M. Bradshaw (the Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer of Bridge Capital), and Allen G. Williams (the Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer of Bridge Capital) are each party to employment agreements previously entered into with Bridge Capital and Bridge Bank.

In connection with the merger, Bridge Capital will pay Messrs. Myers, Sa, Boothe, and Williams, and Ms. Bradshaw a lump sum cash payment representing the amount he or she would receive if he or she was terminated in connection with a change in control under the employment agreement with Bridge Capital and Bridge Bank, and in return each executive officer will execute a release of any future rights or claims to any change in control or severance payments under such employment agreements. See the table below for the cash-out amounts to be paid to each executive officer.

Name	Total
Daniel P. Myers	$ 2,486,085

Timothy W. Boothe	$ 905,517
Allen G. Williams	$ 779,304

The amounts disclosed above are gross amounts which do not take into account the effect, if any, of the provision in the previous employment agreement of each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe, which provides that in the event that it is determined that any of the payments or benefits provided pursuant to the previous employment agreement or any other payments would be subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, then such payments will be reduced until no amount payable to the executive officer will be subject to such excise tax.

Accelerated Vesting and Payment of Equity Compensation

Stock Options. Immediately prior to the merger, each holder of an outstanding, unexercised stock option that is vested or will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the merger may elect to exercise the stock option in accordance with the terms of the stock option, contingent on the consummation of the merger, and receive, for any shares of Bridge Capital common stock acquired in such election, the merger consideration consisting of Western Alliance stock and cash. At the effective time of the merger, if an exercise election is not made for an outstanding, unexercised vested stock option, the stock option shall be cancelled in exchange for a payment equal to (i) the excess of the (A) the closing price (calculated as the sum of (1) the volume weighted average price of a share of Western Alliance common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date of the merger multiplied by 0.8145 and (2) $2.39) over (B) the exercise price per share of such stock option, multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such stock option. If the exercise price of an outstanding, unexercised vested stock option for which an election is not made exceeds the closing price per share and for all outstanding unvested stock options, such stock option will be converted automatically into an adjusted stock option with respect to Western Alliance common stock that is subject to the same terms and conditions as a Bridge Capital stock option. The adjusted stock option will represent a right to purchase the number of shares of Western Alliance common stock equal to (i) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such stock option, multiplied by (ii) 0.905, the exchange ratio, and will have an exercise price per share equal to (A) the exercise price per share for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such stock option, divided by (B) 0.905, the exchange ratio. See the Section titled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Bridge Capital Stock Options beginning on page 80.

Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the merger, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and vested or will become vested coincident with or immediately prior to the merger will become a vested right to receive the merger consideration consisting of Western Alliance common stock and cash. At the effective time of the merger, each share of Bridge Capital restricted stock that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the merger will be automatically converted into an adjusted restricted share of Western Alliance common stock subject to substantially the same terms and conditions as the converted Bridge Capital restricted stock. The number of adjusted restricted shares of Western Alliance common stock will equal (i) the number of shares of Bridge Capital common stock subject to such restricted stock, multiplied by (ii) 0.905, the exchange ratio. See the Section titled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Bridge Capital Restricted Stock beginning on page 81.

In connection with the merger agreement, the Board of Directors of Bridge Capital has determined to accelerate vesting of all outstanding unvested stock options and unvested restricted stock, subject to completion of the merger, for each of the individuals listed in the following table. The table sets forth, for each of Bridge Capital's directors and executive officers holding Bridge Capital stock options and restricted stock as of May 11, 2015, (i) the number of vested in-the-money stock options, vested out-of-the-money stock options, and unvested stock options that will vest in connection with the completion of the merger and (ii) the number of shares of restricted stock that will vest in connection with the completion of the merger that such director or executive officer holds.

Deferred Compensation Plans

Bridge Bank sponsors the Bridge Bank Deferred Compensation Plan, effective June 15, 2010, in which each of Mr. Williams and Ms. Bradshaw participates. The plan allows participants to defer compensation and Bridge Capital to make discretionary contributions on such participants' behalf. For those portions of participant account balances that are fully vested, Bridge Capital's contributions are only subject to forfeiture upon a participant's termination for cause. If the employment of an executive officer who participates in the plan is terminated (other than for death or disability) within two (2) years of a change in control, such as the merger, he or she becomes entitled to an immediate lump sum distribution of his or her account balance, despite any other existing elections as to the timing of such payments.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan Agreements

Bridge Bank has also entered into certain Executive Supplemental Retirement Plan Executive Agreements (SERP agreements) with each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe. Pursuant to the terms of the SERP agreements, if the executive officer's service is terminated by Bridge Bank or by the executive officer for good reason (as defined in the SERP agreements) within twenty-four (24) months following a change in control, such as the merger, the executive officer is entitled to full vesting of the normal benefit under the SERP agreement, and such SERP benefits will be made in installment payments commencing on the first business day of January of the year following the executive officer's attainment of age 55 or, if the executive officer is already age 55 as of such termination of employment, on the first business day of January of the year following the executive officer's termination of employment.

Golden Parachute Compensation for Bridge Capital's Named Executive Officers

The following table sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC, regarding certain compensation which each of Bridge Capital's named executive officers may receive that is based on or that otherwise relates to the merger. The merger-related compensation payable to Bridge Capital's named executive officers is subject to a non-binding advisory vote of Bridge Capital's shareholders, as described under "The Bridge Capital Proposals" Proposal 2: Advisory Approval of Certain Compensatory Arrangements beginning on page 43. For additional details regarding the terms of the amounts described below, see the discussion under "Interests of Bridge Capital Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger That are Different From Yours."

Please note that the amounts indicated below are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur or be accurate on the relevant date, including assumptions described below, and do not reflect certain compensation actions that may occur before the completion of the merger. For purposes of the disclosures required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K and calculating the amounts below, Bridge Capital has assumed that: (i) the effective date of the merger and the bank merger is December 31, 2015 (the latest practicable date), although there is no assurance that the merger or the bank merger will occur on such date or at all and (ii) each executive officer will experience a qualifying termination of employment on such date.

- (1) Cash: In accordance with the cash-out of the existing employment agreements described above, each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, Boothe, Williams, and Ms. Bradshaw will receive a lump sum cash payment representing the amount he or she would have received upon a qualifying termination of employment within the period of eighteen (18) to thirty (30) months, depending on the executive officer, following a change in control under the employment agreement. This cash amount is single trigger for purposes of Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K.

- (2) Equity: The amounts in this column reflect the value of the accelerated vesting of the executive officers' unvested stock options and restricted stock that will occur at the effective time of the merger and the value of payments made in cancellation of vested in-the-money stock options and restricted stock. The amounts in this column do not include the value associated with vested out-of-the-money stock options, unvested stock options, and unvested restricted stock that are being assumed and adjusted in connection with the merger. This acceleration of vesting is single trigger for purposes of Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K. As required by applicable SEC rules, all amounts determined in this column use a per share price of Bridge Capital

- (3) Pension/NQDC: In accordance with the terms of the SERP agreements, each of Messrs. Myers, Sa, and Boothe is entitled, upon his or her qualifying termination of employment within twenty-four (24) months following a change in control, to full vesting of the normal benefit under the SERP agreement, and such SERP benefits will be made in installment payments commencing on the first business day of January of the year following the executive officer's attainment of age 55 or, if the executive officer is already age 55 as of such termination of employment, on the first business day of January of the year following the executive officer's termination of employment. In addition, in accordance with the terms of the Bridge Bank Deferred Compensation Plan, each of Mr. Williams and Ms. Bradshaw is entitled, upon his or her qualifying termination of employment within two (2) years following a change in control, to receive an immediate lump sum distribution of his or her account balance. The amounts above are the estimated value of such benefits. Both of these benefits are double trigger for purposes of Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K.
- (4) Total: The amounts listed in this column represent the total amounts payable to each executive officer based on the assumptions stated herein.

Support Agreements

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, each of the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge Capital, and Carpenter Fund Manager, GP, LLC, who in the aggregate currently own approximately 37.39% of Bridge Capital's common stock, each solely in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Bridge Capital, entered into a support agreement with Western Alliance pursuant to which such shareholder, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, agreed to vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and against any alternative business combination transaction. None of the shareholders were paid additional consideration in connection with the execution of such agreement. A copy of the form of support agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix D.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement requires Western Alliance to purchase an extended reporting period endorsement or a tail policy for the benefit of Bridge Capital's current and former officers and directors who are, as of the date of the merger agreement, individually covered by a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy covering acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time which were committed by such officers and directors in their capacity as such. The policy is required to provide such coverage for an aggregate period of not less than six years following the effective time, on terms and in an aggregate amount not less favorable than those of the policy in effect on the date of the merger agreement. However, Western Alliance is not required to expend, in the aggregate, an amount equal to more than 200% of the current annual premiums expended by Bridge Capital to maintain or procure such coverage.

Dissenters Rights

The holders of Bridge Capital common stock, will be given the opportunity to exercise dissenters rights in accordance with certain procedures specified in California Corporations Code Sections 1300, et. seq. Please note that the description below discusses only the material terms and requirements of the law relating to dissenters' rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Sections 1300 through 1304 of the California Corporations Code, which sections are attached hereto as Appendix B.

Holders of Bridge Capital common stock who do not vote in favor of the merger may demand, in accordance with California Corporations Code Sections 1300 through 1304, that Bridge Capital acquire such holder's shares for cash at fair market value as of March 6, 2015, which is the day before the first announcement of the terms of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the merger. In order to exercise dissenters' rights under California law, a Bridge Capital shareholder must either: (i) vote AGAINST the merger; (ii) abstain from voting on the merger proposal; or (iii) not return a proxy.

Submit a Written Demand

In order to exercise dissenters' rights, a Bridge Capital shareholder must not vote in favor of the merger agreement and must make a written demand that Bridge Capital purchase his or her shares in cash for the fair market value of such shares and have the demand received by Bridge Capital within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein is mailed to the shareholder. The written demand must state the number of shares held of record by such Bridge Capital shareholder for which demand for purchase for cash is being made and must contain a statement of the amount which such Bridge Capital shareholder claims to be the fair market value of the shares as of March 6, 2015, the day before the first public announcement of the merger. That statement will constitute an offer by the Bridge Capital shareholder to sell his or her shares to Bridge Capital at that price. Once submitted, a Bridge Capital shareholder may not withdraw such demand unless Bridge Capital consents thereto.

Surrender Stock Certificates

Thereafter, in order to perfect dissenters' rights, a Bridge Capital shareholder must deliver his or her share certificate(s) for receipt by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, within 30 days after the date on which notice of the closing of the merger was mailed. American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC will stamp or endorse the certificate(s) with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares and return the certificate(s) to such Bridge Capital shareholder.

Any demands, notices, certificates or other documents delivered to Bridge Capital should be sent to Bridge Capital, Attention: Thomas A. Sa, Chief Financial Officer.

Determination of Value of Bridge Capital Common Stock

The purchase price for the shares of Bridge Capital common stock that dissent from the merger agreement will be the fair market value for such shares as of March 6, 2015, the day before the first public announcement of the merger. If there is a disagreement between the shareholder and Bridge Capital regarding the proposed purchase price or if Bridge Capital denies that such shares constitute dissenting shares, the shareholder and Bridge Capital each have the right, for six (6) months following the date on which notice of the closing of the merger was mailed, to file a lawsuit to have the fair market value determined by a court or to determine whether such shares are dissenting shares or both, as the case may be.

Tax Considerations

If you elect to exercise your appraisal rights, the payment in cash of the fair value of your shares of Bridge Capital common stock will be a taxable transaction to you. Shareholders considering exercising dissenters' rights should consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the tax consequences of such actions.

The foregoing summary is not intended to be a complete statement of the procedures for exercising dissenters' rights under California Corporations Code Sections 1300 through 1304, and is qualified in its entirety.

by reference to the full text of Sections 1300 through 1304, a copy of which is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. Bridge Capital urges any shareholder wishing to exercise dissenters' rights, if any, to read California Corporations Code Sections 1300 through 1304 carefully, and to consult legal counsel before attempting to exercise appraisal rights. Failure to comply strictly with all of the procedures set forth in California Corporations Code Sections 1300 through 1304 may result in the loss of your statutory dissenters' rights, if any.

Accounting Treatment

The merger, if completed, will be treated as a purchase by Western Alliance of Bridge Capital for accounting purposes. Accordingly, under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, the assets and liabilities of Bridge Capital will be recorded on the books of Western Alliance at their respective fair values at the time of the consummation of the merger. Any goodwill and other intangibles resulting from the merger will not be considered for regulatory capital purposes.

Regulatory Approvals

For the merger of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital to take place, Western Alliance must receive approval from the Federal Reserve Board, or the FRB. For the bank merger to take place, we must receive approvals from the FRB and the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions, or the ADFI, and Bridge Bank must provide notice to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, or OCC, of the proposed termination of Bridge Bank's status as a national bank following the merger. Such notice has been provided to the OCC. In this section, we refer to these approvals as the required regulatory approvals. Western Alliance and Bridge Capital have agreed to cooperate to obtain the required regulatory approvals.

Western Alliance Bank filed with the FRB an application for approval of the merger of Bridge Bank into Western Alliance Bank, with Western Alliance Bank surviving. We refer to that merger in this section as the bank merger. The bank merger is subject to the approval of the FRB under the Bank Merger Act and related FRB regulations. This filing requires consideration by the FRB of various factors, including assessments of the competitive effect of the contemplated transaction, the managerial and financial resources and future prospects of the resulting institution, the effectiveness of the institutions involved in combating money laundering, the risk to the stability of the United States banking or financial system posed by the contemplated transaction, and the effect of the contemplated transaction on the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, or the CRA, also requires that the FRB, in deciding whether to approve the bank merger, assess the records of performance of Western Alliance Bank and Bridge Bank in meeting the credit and other needs of the communities they serve, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods. Western Alliance Bank currently has a satisfactory CRA rating. Bridge Bank currently has a satisfactory CRA rating. FRB regulations require publication of notice and an opportunity for public comment concerning the application filed in connection with the bank merger, and authorize the FRB to hold informal or formal hearings or meetings in connection with the application to elicit information, clarify factual issues related to the application, and provide an opportunity for interested individuals to provide testimony if the FRB, after reviewing the application or other materials, determines that such a proceeding appears appropriate. It is not unusual for the FRB to receive protests and other adverse comments on merger applications from community groups and others. The bank merger may not take place for a period of 15 to 30 days following FRB approval, during which time the Department of Justice has the authority to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. The FRB will determine the precise length of the waiting period in consultation with the Department of Justice. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of any approval granted by the FRB unless a court specifically orders otherwise. If the Department of Justice does not start a legal action during the waiting period, it may not challenge the transaction afterward, except in an action under Section 2 of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

Application has been made to the ADFI in order to effect both the merger of Bridge Capital into Western Alliance and the bank merger. This application is subject to the review of the ADFI under Title 6 of the Arizona

Revised Statutes. In determining whether to approve the merger of Western Alliance and Bridge Capital, the Superintendent of the ADFI, or the Superintendent, considers all the facts presented, including Western Alliance's subsidiary depository institutions' records of compliance with the CRA. In addition, the Superintendent also considers the effect of the proposal on Western Alliance and the banks that it and Bridge Capital control, as well as the effect of the merger on competition in banking.

Western Alliance filed with the FRB an application under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, for approval of the merger of Bridge Capital with and into Western Alliance, with Western Alliance surviving. In processing this application, the FRB evaluates the proposed transaction under similar standards and procedures as those set forth above for the Bank Merger Act filing. This filing is subject to a Department of Justice antitrust review period.

Western Alliance and Bridge Capital are not aware of any other material governmental approvals that are required for the merger to take place that are not described above. If any other approval or action is required, we expect that we would seek the approval or take the necessary action.

On May 21, 2015, the FRB approved Western Alliance's application for approval of the merger and the bank merger. In addition, the ADFI granted approval of the bank merger on May 19, 2015. We believe that no further regulatory approvals are required.

Delisting and Deregistration of Bridge Capital Common Stock after the Merger

When the merger is completed, the Bridge Capital common stock currently listed on the NASDAQ Capital Market will be delisted from the NASDAQ Capital Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
