* IMPORTANT INFORMATION ****

* PLEASE RESPOND AS SOON AS POSSIBLE ****

To: Common Shareholders and Series D Preferred Shareholders of Magna Bank

Subject: Form of Election and Letter of Transmittal for the Merger between Magna Bank and Pinnacle Bank

Magna Bank (Magna) and Pinnacle Bank have agreed to merge pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc. (Pinnacle), Pinnacle Bank and Magna dated April 28, 2015 (the Merger Agreement), subject to shareholder and other approvals. We are sending you the enclosed Form of Election (the Election Form) for your use in making an election as to how you would like to be paid for the shares of Magna common stock that you hold as of the effective time of the merger (including shares of Magna common stock issuable upon the automatic conversion of the Series D preferred stock that you may own immediately prior to the effective time of the merger of Magna and Pinnacle Bank which includes shares styled "Trust Bank for Savings", the former name of Magna) (Magna Shares). You may elect to receive as the merger consideration payable to you in connection with the merger of Magna and Pinnacle Bank (the Merger) either (i) 0.3369 shares of Pinnacle common stock for all of your Magna Shares, (ii) an amount in cash equal to $14.32 for all of your Magna Shares, or (iii) a combination of stock and cash for all of your Magna Shares.

Magna is holding a special shareholders meeting on July 31, 2015 (the Special Meeting) for its common shareholders and its Series D preferred shareholders to consider and act, voting together as a single group, upon the Merger Agreement. Pinnacle and Computershare Inc., the election agent (the Election Agent), are sending you the Election Form in advance of the Special Meeting in order to assure your timely return of the Election Form. If Magna common shareholders and Series D preferred shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement, the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal will not be given effect and you will continue to own your Magna Shares as you currently own them and any certificates for Magna Shares will be returned to you.

It is urgent that you respond as quickly as possible to the enclosed Election Form and indicate your preference as to the type of payment you wish to receive should Magna common shareholders and Series D preferred shareholders approve the Merger, subject to any possible pro-rata allocation adjustments contemplated by the Merger Agreement. You should have already received a copy of the Merger Agreement that was attached to the Proxy

Statement/Prospectus mailed to you on June 24, 2015, and you should refer to the Merger Agreement in case you have any questions about the pro-rata allocation procedures that the Election Agent will follow in making any adjustments to your Election Form that may be required under the terms of the Merger Agreement. If you do not mark one of the election boxes on page 3 of the Election Form, your Magna Shares will be deemed Non-Election Shares and you will receive Mixed Consideration (as defined in the Election Form under Description of Merger Consideration) in exchange for your Magna Shares (subject to the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares).

In order for your election to be valid, you must see that the enclosed Election Form is completed, signed and delivered to and received by the Election Agent, at the address stated in the Election Form, no later than 5:00 p.m., eastern daylight time, on July 28, 2015.

Also enclosed is a Letter of Transmittal for your use in delivering your certificates for Magna Shares as required under the Merger Agreement. You may, but are not required to, include the Letter of Transmittal and your Magna common stock certificates and Magna Series D preferred stock certificates with the Election Form. If the certificates for your Magna Shares do not accompany the Election Form, you must submit the certificates for your Magna Shares with the Letter of Transmittal on or after the effective time of the Merger.

If you hold certificates that in the aggregate totaled less than 2,500 common shares prior to April 2012 in the name of either Magna Bank or 1st Trust Bank for Savings those shares were converted into shares of Magna Series D preferred stock in April 2012. If you did not exchange the certificates for those common shares for certificates representing shares of Magna Series D preferred stock at the time of the conversion, you may deliver those certificates now using the Letter of Transmittal and you will receive the merger consideration as specified in the Election Form. You may also be entitled to dividends with respect to those shares. See paragraph 10 of the enclosed Letter of Transmittal.

If you have any questions regarding the instructions in this letter or in the Election Form or Letter of Transmittal or need additional copies of such documents, please contact Beth Lawrence at (901) 259-5670 as soon as possible and she will be glad to assist you in properly completing the Election Form and Letter of Transmittal and/or delivering additional copies to you. Nevertheless, it is your responsibility as a shareholder of Magna to carefully follow the instructions in the Election Form and return a properly completed Election Form by the indicated deadline in order for your election to be valid. In any event, your common stock certificates and Series D preferred stock certificates (including any 1st Trust Bank for Savings certificates) together with a properly completed Letter of Transmittal must be surrendered before you can receive the merger consideration payable to you under the Merger Agreement.

DESCRIPTION OF MERGER CONSIDERATION

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 28, 2015 (the Merger Agreement), by and among Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc. (Pinnacle), Pinnacle Bank and Magna, which provides for the merger of Magna with and into Pinnacle Bank (the Merger), you may elect on page 3 (the Election) one, and only one, of the following in exchange for all of the Magna Common Shares, including Magna Common Shares issuable upon the automatic conversion of your Magna Series D Preferred Shares, held by you:

(a) a number of shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of Pinnacle (the Pinnacle Common Shares) equal to the number of Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares evidenced by the certificate(s) listed above (the Stock Consideration) multiplied by 0.3369 (the Stock Election)(subject to the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares);

6. Method of Delivery. The method of delivery of all documents is at the option and risk of the holder of Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares. If delivery is by mail, the use of registered mail, with return receipt requested, properly insured, is strongly recommended. A return envelope is enclosed. It is suggested that this Election Form be hand delivered or mailed to the Election Agent as soon as possible. Delivery of the documents will be deemed effective only when materials are actually received by the Election Agent.

7. Termination of Merger. Completion of the Merger is subject to the receipt of all required regulatory approvals and to the satisfaction of certain other conditions. No payments related to any surrender of the certificate(s) will be made prior to the consummation of the Merger, and no payments will be made to Magna shareholders if the Merger Agreement is terminated. If Magna shareholder approval of the Merger Agreement is not received, or if the Merger Agreement is otherwise terminated, all Elections will be void and of no effect and certificates representing Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares submitted to the Election Agent will be returned as soon as practicable to the persons submitting them.

8. Construction. All Elections will be considered in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement.

All questions with respect to the Election Form (including, without limitation, questions relating to the timeliness or effectiveness) will be resolved by the Election Agent following the Election Agent's consultation with Pinnacle and in accordance with the instructions of Pinnacle, which shall be final and binding.

INSTRUCTIONS

This Letter of Transmittal is to be completed and submitted to the Exchange Agent to accompany the surrender of Magna Common Shares (including Magna Common Shares issuable upon the automatic conversion of the Magna Series D Preferred Shares) to be exchanged for the Merger Consideration. Until a record holder's stock certificate(s) is received by the Exchange Agent at the address set forth on the front of this Letter of Transmittal, together with any other documents the Exchange Agent may require, and until the same are processed for exchange by the Exchange Agent, the holder will not receive any Cash Consideration, any credit in the book-entry system of Pinnacle's transfer agent (or certificate, if requested by you) representing the Stock Consideration and/or check representing cash in lieu of fractional shares (if any) in exchange for the holder's stock certificate(s). No interest will accrue on the Cash Consideration or any cash in lieu of fractional shares. Holders of Magna Common Shares, including Magna Common Shares issuable upon the automatic conversion of the Magna Series D Preferred Shares, receiving Stock Consideration will be entitled to any dividends or other distributions with respect to Pinnacle Common Shares which have a record date and are paid after the effective time of the Merger; provided, however, that any such holder of Magna Common Shares (including Magna Common Shares issuable upon the automatic conversion of the Magna Series D Preferred Shares) will not receive such dividend payments until the certificate(s) representing such holder's Magna Common Shares (including Magna Common Shares issuable upon the automatic conversion of the Magna Series D Preferred Shares) are received by the Exchange Agent.

If the certificate or book-entry credit and/or check are to be issued in the name of a person(s) other than the record holder(s) or if the name of the record holder(s) needs to be corrected or changed (by marriage or otherwise), the box entitled Special Issuance Instructions must be completed. If the check is to be sent to a person(s) other than the record holder(s) or to the record holder(s) at an address other than that shown in the box entitled Description of Magna Shares Surrendered, the box entitled Special Delivery Instructions must be completed. If the box entitled Special Issuance Instructions is completed, or the box entitled Special Delivery Instructions is completed, the signature(s) of the person(s) signing this Letter of Transmittal must be guaranteed. 4. Important Information Regarding Backup Withholding. Under U.S. federal income tax law, the holder of Magna Common Shares (including Magna Common Shares issuable upon the automatic conversion of the Magna Series D Preferred Shares) must report and certify his, her or its social security or other taxpayer identification number and further certify that the holder is not subject to backup withholding due to notified underreporting and is a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien). Failure to complete the Form W-9 above could result in certain penalties as well as backup withholding of payments due to the holder. See the attached Instructions to Form W-9 for additional instructions. If you are a foreign person, you must provide a properly completed and executed Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN, which you can obtain from the Exchange Agent.

5. Inadequate Space. If there is inadequate space to complete any box or to sign this Letter of Transmittal, the information or signatures required to be provided must be set forth on additional sheets substantially in the form of the corresponding portion of this Letter of Transmittal and attached to this Letter of Transmittal.

6. Indication of Certificate Numbers and Shares. This Letter of Transmittal should indicate the certificate number(s) of the certificate(s) representing the Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares covered hereby and the number of shares represented by each certificate.

7. Method of Delivery. The method of delivery of all documents is at the option and risk of the holder of Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares. If delivery is by mail, the use of registered mail, with return receipt requested, properly insured, is strongly recommended. A return envelope is enclosed. It is suggested that this Letter of Transmittal be hand delivered or mailed to the Exchange Agent as soon as possible. Delivery of the documents will be deemed effective, and risk of loss and title with respect thereto will pass, only when materials are actually received by the Exchange Agent.

8. Payment Will be Made by a Single Check or Certificate or Book-Entry Credit. Normally, a single check and/or a single certificate or book-entry credit representing Pinnacle Common Shares will be issued; however, if for tax purposes or otherwise a holder wishes to have the checks and/or certificates or book-entry credits issued in particular denominations, explicit written instructions to the Exchange Agent should be provided. Holders participating in a joint election will receive a single check or certificate or book-entry credit for the holders Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares. Cash in lieu of fractional shares and dividends declared and paid, if any, will be paid by separate check.

9. Lost Certificates. If any certificate representing Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the holder should complete the enclosed Lost Securities Affidavit. The Exchange Agent may (but is not required to) waive any immaterial defects or variances in the manner in which the Letter of Transmittal has been completed and submitted so long as the intent of the holder of Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares submitting the Letter of Transmittal is reasonably clear. Neither the Exchange Agent, Pinnacle nor Magna is under any obligation to provide notification of any defects in the deposit and surrender of any certificate(s) representing Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares, nor shall the Exchange Agent, Pinnacle or Magna be liable for any failure to give any such notification.

12. Miscellaneous. No fraction of a Pinnacle Common Share will be issued upon the surrender for exchange of a certificate(s) for Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares. In lieu of fractional shares, an amount of cash determined under a formula set forth in the Merger Agreement will be paid by check.

The surrender of certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration is contingent upon the completion of the Merger. If for any reason the Merger Agreement is terminated and the Merger does not occur, the Exchange Agent will return the certificate(s) for Magna Common Shares and/or Magna Series D Preferred Shares surrendered with this Letter of Transmittal to the registered holder of the certificate(s) at the address appearing on Magna's stock register. Any certificate that is styled in the name of 1st Trust Bank for Savings will be reissued in the name of the registered holder as a certificate for the Magna common stock or Magna Series D preferred stock it represents, together with any dividends that have been previously declared and paid on such shares.

Instructions to Form W-9

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)

Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)

Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)

Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)

Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)

Form 1099-C (canceled debt)

Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 13.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

Edgar Filing: PINNACLE FINANCIAL PARTNERS INC - Form 425

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 13 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;

A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;

An estate (other than a foreign estate); or

A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;

In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and

In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a saving clause. Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of

Voluntary Corporate Action: COY AGNA

Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called backup withholding. Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 15 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 14 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 14 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 14), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 15 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write Applied For in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering Applied For means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. Other payments include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

To reduce your risk:

Protect your SSN,

Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and

Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.
