On January 7, 2016, Puma Biotechnology, Inc. (the Company) filed an investor presentation (the Investor Presentation) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) in partial response to an unsolicited consent solicitation launched by Dr. Fredric N. Eshelman (Eshelman) that attempts to increase the size of the Company s board of directors and appoint Eshelman and his three nominees to the board. The Company s Investor Presentation included certain factual and publicly available information regarding Eshelman s background.

On January 22, 2016, the Company received a letter, dated January 20, 2016 (the Eshelman Letter), from Eshelman, which demanded an immediate apology and retraction of Puma s investor presentation and threatened to proceed with legal action against the Company if the Investor Presentation is not retracted and an immediate apology is not provided.

On January 27, 2016, the Company, through its legal counsel, responded to the Eshelman Letter, rejecting Eshelman s demands.

Copies of the Eshelman Letter and the Company s response are reproduced below.
