Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Purchase and Sale Agreement

On November 2, 2016, EPR Properties, a Maryland real estate investment trust (EPR or the Company), and Ski Resort Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company owned by funds affiliated with Och-Ziff Real Estate (the Co-Buyer), entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with CNL Lifestyle Properties, Inc., a Maryland corporation (CNL), CLP Partners, LP, a Delaware limited partnership and subsidiary of CNL (the Operating Partnership), and certain of their subsidiaries named therein (together with CNL and the Operating Partnership, the Seller Parties) providing for the purchase and sale of a portfolio of subsidiaries and related assets that collectively comprise substantially all of the assets of CNL (the Sale). The Purchase Agreement provides that the Company will acquire the Northstar California Ski Resort, 15 attractions properties (waterparks and amusement parks) and five small family entertainment centers for aggregate consideration valued at approximately $456 million. Additionally, the Company has agreed to provide approximately $244 million of five year secured debt financing to the Co-Buyer for the purchase of 14 CNL ski properties valued at approximately $374 million. The Company s aggregate investment in this transaction is projected to be valued at approximately $700 million and is expected to be funded with approximately $647 million of common shares of beneficial interest of EPR (EPR Common Shares) and approximately $53 million of cash before prorations, transaction costs and closing adjustments, a portion of which transaction costs will be included in the secured debt financing to the Co-Buyer.

EPR s board of trustees has unanimously approved the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, including the issuance of EPR Common Shares to CNL as partial consideration for the entities and assets being acquired.

The transaction will require the approval of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of CNL and CNL intends to concurrently obtain stockholder approval of a plan of liquidation and dissolution. Following the closing of the Sale and subject to the approval of CNL s stockholders, CNL intends to liquidate and dissolve in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Maryland General Corporation Law.

Purchase Price

As consideration for the Sale, EPR and the Co-Buyer (together, the "Purchasers") have agreed to pay an aggregate purchase price (the "Aggregate Purchase Price") of approximately $830 million, consisting of approximately $183 million in cash, less any acquired indebtedness (which is not expected to be material), and approximately $647 million of EPR Common Shares, subject to a collar described below. EPR has agreed to finance the Co-Buyer's acquisition of the Ski Sale through a loan secured by mortgages on all of the assets being acquired by the Co-Buyer in an original principal amount which will be equal to approximately $244 million plus 65% of EPR's and the Co-Buyer's transaction costs and fees for the Ski Sale and the related financing. The loan will bear interest at a rate of 8.5% and have a five-year term with three 30-month extension periods. As set forth in the Purchase Agreement, the Aggregate Purchase Price is subject to customary purchase price adjustments for proration and closing adjustments. Of the aggregate estimated $183 million cash consideration, it is estimated that approximately $53 million will be paid by EPR and approximately $130 million will be paid by the Co-Buyer.

The number of EPR Common Shares to be issued to CNL at the closing will equal the quotient of (X) approximately $647 million divided by (Y) the volume weighted average price per EPR Common Share on the New York Stock Exchange for the ten business days ending on the second business day before the closing (the "Closing VWAP"), provided that (i) if the Closing VWAP is less than $68.25, then the calculation will be made as if the Closing VWAP were $68.25 and (ii) if the Closing VWAP is greater than $82.63, then the calculation will be made as if the Closing VWAP were $82.63. The Purchase Agreement requires, subject to compliance with applicable laws, that CNL promptly distribute pro rata to CNL's stockholders all of the EPR Common Shares received by CNL in connection with the Sale.

Closing Conditions

The closing of the Sale is subject to closing conditions, including, among other things, (1) approval of the Sale by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of CNL common stock, (2) the expiration or termination of all waiting periods applicable to the Sale under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust

Edgar Filing: EPR PROPERTIES - Form 8-K

Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Waiting Period"), (3) the approval for the New York Stock Exchange listing of the EPR Common Shares to be issued in the Sale, (4) the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by the parties (subject to certain materiality qualifiers), (5) the absence of a material adverse effect on the entities and assets being acquired by the Purchasers, and the absence of a material adverse effect on either of the Purchasers, (6) the termination of certain management agreements related to the Attractions Sale, (7) the obtaining of permits from forest service authorities and consents from ground lessors, (8) the receipt by CNL of a tax opinion relating to EPR's qualification and taxation as a real estate investment trust, (9) the receipt by the Co-Buyer of certain notices and/or orders under the Investment Canada Act and (10) other customary closing conditions.

The closing of the Sale is not conditioned on the approval of CNL's stockholders to liquidate and dissolve CNL. In addition, the closing of the Sale is not subject to a financing condition or vote of EPR's shareholders or the equity owners of the Co-Buyer.

Representations, Warranties and Covenants

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties which will expire at the closing of the Sale, as well as customary covenants, including covenants with respect to the conduct of business during the period from the execution of the Purchase Agreement and the closing of the Sale, and the agreement of the Seller Parties and the Purchasers to use reasonable best efforts, subject to certain limitations, to obtain expiration of the HSR Waiting Period. The Purchase Agreement also includes covenants requiring (i) the Seller Parties not to solicit, initiate, knowingly induce, knowingly encourage, or knowingly facilitate any inquiries, offers or requests relating to alternative business combination transactions, or, subject to certain exceptions, engage in any discussions or negotiations with respect thereto and (ii) CNL to call and hold a special meeting of CNL's stockholders and, subject to certain customary exceptions, recommend that CNL stockholders approve the Sale.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, EPR has agreed to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") a registration statement on Form S-4, which will include a prospectus with respect to the EPR Common Shares to be issued and a proxy statement for the special meeting of CNL stockholders to approve the Sale.

Termination

The Purchase Agreement also contains termination rights and provides that the Purchase Agreement may be terminated by mutual consent of the parties. In addition, the Purchase Agreement includes other customary termination rights, including:

termination by either EPR, the Co-Buyer or CNL: (1) if the Sale does not close by September 15, 2017; (2) if a final non-appealable order is issued prohibiting the Sale; or (3) upon failure of CNL to obtain stockholder approval;

termination by CNL: (1) upon a breach or failure to perform by any Purchaser of its representations, warranties or covenants that cannot be cured on or before September 15, 2017; (2) in order to enter into an alternative transaction that is considered a superior proposal, following a prescribed process including a period of negotiation; or (3) if the Purchasers fail to close the Sale at a time when the conditions to the obligation of the parties to close have been satisfied or waived; or termination by either EPR or the Co-Buyer: (1) upon a breach or failure to perform by CNL of its representations, warranties or covenants that cannot be cured on or before September 15, 2017; (2) CNL's board of directors fails to recommend the approval of the Sale, CNL enters into a competing transaction, or CNL willfully breaches its covenant not to solicit a competing transaction; or (3) upon the occurrence and continuation after notice of any events that have had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the entities and assets being acquired.

CNL will be required to pay a termination fee of $25 million plus reimbursement of expenses incurred after June 10, 2016 (up to $10 million) to the Purchasers if the Purchase Agreement is terminated because CNL enters into an alternative definitive agreement in respect of a superior proposal or the CNL board of directors changes its recommendation to CNL's stockholders with respect to the Sale. In addition, CNL will be required to pay reimbursement of expenses incurred after June 10, 2016 to the Purchasers if the Purchase Agreement is terminated because CNL stockholders do not approve the Sale. The Purchasers, on a joint and several basis, will be required to pay a reverse termination fee of $60 million plus reimbursement of expenses incurred after June 10, 2016 (up to $10 million) to CNL if the Purchase Agreement is terminated because the Purchasers fail to close the Sale as required by the Purchase Agreement after the conditions to the obligations to close have been satisfied or waived. Reimbursable expenses are generally capped at $10 million under the Purchase Agreement; however, these expenses are capped at $6.5 million in the case of a termination because CNL fails to obtain the requisite stockholder approval or $1.5 million if the termination is due to an injunction or order relating to antitrust matters.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement is only a summary and does not purport to be complete. A copy of the Purchase Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated by reference herein. The description of the Purchase Agreement contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Purchasers or the Seller Parties. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement were made as of a specified date, are modified or qualified by information in confidential disclosure letters provided by each party to the other in connection with the signing of the Purchase Agreement, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement are not necessarily characterizations of the actual state of facts about the Purchasers and the Seller Parties at the time they were made or otherwise and should only be read in conjunction with the other information that EPR and CNL make publicly available in reports, statements and other documents filed with the SEC.

Joint Buyers Agreement

On November 2, 2016, EPR and the Co-Buyer entered into a Joint Buyers Agreement (the "Joint Buyers Agreement") pursuant to which they have agreed, among other matters, to an allocation of any termination fee or reimbursement of expenses received from CNL and the terms upon which they would share the obligation to pay any reverse termination fee or expense reimbursement to CNL. Certain investments funds affiliated with Och-Ziff Real Estate have guaranteed to EPR the Co-Buyer's payment obligations under the Joint Buyers Agreement up to $75 million.

The foregoing description of the Joint Buyers Agreement is only a summary and does not purport to be complete. A copy of the Joint Buyers Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
