Shareholder Support Agreements (Page 108)

As of the record date for the BNC special meeting, Aquiline BNC Holdings LLC, an institutional shareholder of BNC beneficially owned and had the power to vote [] shares of BNC voting common stock, representing approximately []% of the outstanding shares of BNC voting common stock on that date, and the directors and executive officers of BNC collectively beneficially owned and had the power to vote [] shares of BNC voting common stock, representing approximately []% of the outstanding shares of BNC voting common stock on that date. In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Aquiline BNC Holdings LLC and each of the directors and executive officers of BNC executed a shareholder support agreement pursuant to which they agreed, among other things, to vote their shares of BNC voting common stock for the approval of the BNC merger proposal, the BNC compensation proposal and the BNC adjournment proposal.

As of the record date for the Pinnacle special meeting, the directors and executive officers of Pinnacle collectively beneficially owned and had the power to vote [] shares of Pinnacle common stock, representing approximately []% of the outstanding shares of Pinnacle common stock on that date. In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, each of the directors and executive officers of Pinnacle also executed a shareholder support agreement pursuant to which they agreed, among other things, to vote their shares of Pinnacle common stock for the approval of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal and the Pinnacle adjournment proposal.

The Mergers Generally Will Be Tax-Free to the Holders of BNC Common Stock With Respect To The Shares of Pinnacle Common Stock They Receive But Will Be Taxable With Respect To Any Cash They Receive (Page 124)

The mergers, taken together, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to the completion of the merger that BNC receive a legal opinion from Troutman Sanders LLP to the effect that the mergers, taken together, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, for United States federal income tax purposes. It is also a condition that Pinnacle receive a similar opinion from Bass, Berry & Sims PLC. The opinions will not bind the Internal Revenue Service (which we refer to as the IRS) or a court, which could view the mergers differently.

Generally, for United States federal income tax purposes, U.S. holders (as defined in the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers) will not recognize gain or loss as a result of the exchange of their BNC common stock for shares of Pinnacle common stock pursuant to the mergers, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Pinnacle common stock.

For a more complete description of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the mergers, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers beginning on page 122. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. You should consult your tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences of the merger to you.

BNC's Officers and Directors Have Financial Interests in the Merger that are Different From or in Addition to Their Interests as Shareholders (Page 95)

In considering the recommendation of the BNC board of directors, BNC shareholders should be aware that the directors and executive officers of BNC have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of BNC shareholders generally. The BNC board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in making its recommendation that BNC shareholders vote to approve the merger proposal.

These interests include:

All equity-based awards (including those held by the directors and executive officers) that were granted prior to December 31, 2016 would vest upon the effective time of the merger and be settled for the merger consideration (or, in the case of stock options, a cash amount approximately equal to the value of the merger consideration less the applicable exercise price);

All restricted stock awards granted on or after December 31, 2016 and prior to the effective time of the merger would convert, as of the effective time of the merger, into restricted stock awards in respect of the common stock of Pinnacle (with the number of shares subject to such awards adjusted by the exchange ratio);

Richard D. Callicutt and David B. Spencer have entered into agreements with Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank that provide for certain payments in connection with the closing of the merger as well as severance benefits upon a subsequent qualifying termination of employment;

Ronald J. Gorczynski is party to an agreement with BNC that provides for severance benefits upon a qualifying termination of employment following the effective time of a change in control (such as the merger);

Benefits under the salary continuation agreements between BNC and Messrs. Callicutt, Spencer and Gorczynski would vest upon a change in control (such as the merger);

Upon or immediately following the effective time of the merger, Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank would elect Mr. Callicutt and three additional members of the board of directors of BNC to the boards of directors of Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank; and BNC's directors and executive officers are entitled to continued indemnification and insurance coverage under the merger agreement.

For a more complete description of these interests, see "The Merger" Interests of BNC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (Page 100)

Pinnacle will account for the merger by utilizing the purchase accounting method in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles.

The Pinnacle Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends that Pinnacle Shareholders Vote FOR the Pinnacle Share Issuance Proposal and the Pinnacle Adjournment Proposal Presented at the Pinnacle Special Meeting (Page 62)

The Pinnacle board of directors has approved the mergers, the share issuance and the merger agreement, has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the mergers and the share issuance, are advisable and in the best interests of Pinnacle, and unanimously recommends that Pinnacle shareholders vote FOR the Pinnacle share issuance proposal and FOR the Pinnacle adjournment proposal. For the factors considered by the Pinnacle board of directors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, see The Merger Pinnacle s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Pinnacle Board of Directors.

The BNC Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends that BNC Shareholders Vote FOR the Approval and Adoption of the Merger Agreement and the Other Proposals Presented at the BNC Special Meeting (Page 76)

The BNC board of directors has determined that the mergers, the merger agreement, and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of BNC and its shareholders, and has approved and adopted the merger agreement. The BNC board of directors unanimously recommends that holders of shares of BNC voting common stock vote FOR the BNC merger proposal and FOR the other proposals presented at the BNC special meeting. For the factors considered by the BNC board of directors in reaching its decision to approve and adopt the merger agreement, see The Merger BNC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the BNC Board of Directors.

Opinion of Pinnacle's Financial Advisor (Page 64 and Annex B)

In connection with the merger, Pinnacle's financial advisor, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW) delivered a written opinion, dated January 22, 2017, to the Pinnacle board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to Pinnacle of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger. The full text of KBW's opinion, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in preparing the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this document. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the Pinnacle board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the merger. The opinion did not address the underlying business decision of Pinnacle to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement or constitute a recommendation to the Pinnacle board of directors in connection with the merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Pinnacle common stock or any stockholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the merger or any other matter.

Opinion of BNC's Financial Advisors

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill (Page 79 and Annex C)

At the January 22, 2017 meeting at which the BNC board of directors considered the merger agreement, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. (which we refer to as Sandler O'Neill), delivered to the BNC board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on January 22, 2017, to the effect that, as of such date, subject to procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations described in Sandler O'Neill's opinion, the exchange ratio was fair to BNC shareholders from a financial point of view.

The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion.

BNC shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed transaction.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion and was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date thereof. The opinion was directed to the BNC board of directors and is directed only to the fairness of the exchange ratio to BNC shareholders from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of BNC to engage in the merger, enter into the merger agreement or any other aspects or terms of the merger or merger agreement. Sandler O'Neill's opinion is not a recommendation to any BNC shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the BNC special meeting with respect to the merger or any other matter. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger or other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by BNC's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the merger consideration to be received by BNC shareholders, or the fairness of the merger to the holders of any other class of securities of BNC or any other constituency of BNC.

For further information, see The Merger Opinion of BNC's Financial Advisors Opinion of Sandler O'Neill

Opinion of BSP Securities (Page 82 and Annex D)

At the January 22, 2017 meeting at which the BNC board of directors considered the merger agreement, BSP Securities, LLC (which we refer to as BSP Securities), delivered to the BNC board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on January 22, 2017, to the effect that, as of such date, subject to procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations described in BSP Securities opinion, the exchange ratio was fair to BNC shareholders from a financial point of view.

The full text of BSP Securities' opinion is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by BSP Securities in rendering its opinion.

BNC shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed transaction.

BSP Securities' opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion and was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed on, and the information made available to BSP Securities as of, the date thereof. The opinion was directed to the BNC board of directors and is directed only to the fairness of the exchange ratio to BNC shareholders from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of BNC to engage in the merger, enter into the merger agreement or any other aspects or terms of the merger or merger agreement. BSP Securities' opinion is not a recommendation to any BNC shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the BNC special meeting with respect to the merger or any other matter. BSP Securities did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger or other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by BNC's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the merger consideration to be received by BNC shareholders, or the fairness of the merger to the holders of any other class of securities of BNC or any other constituency of BNC.

For further information, see The Merger Opinion of BNC's Financial Advisors Opinion of BSP Securities

Treatment of BNC Equity Awards (Page 105)

BNC Options. At the effective time, each outstanding option to purchase shares of BNC common stock issued pursuant to BNC's equity-based compensation plans, whether vested or unvested, will become fully vested and cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of (x) the Pinnacle share closing price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (y) the exercise price of each such option and (ii) the number of shares of BNC common stock subject to each such option to the extent not previously exercised.

BNC Restricted Stock Awards and BNC RSU Awards. At the effective time, each outstanding BNC RSU award granted under BNC's equity-based compensation plans and each outstanding BNC restricted stock award granted under BNC's equity-based compensation plans prior to December 31, 2016 will fully vest and be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of BNC common stock underlying each such award.

At the effective time, each outstanding BNC restricted stock award granted on or after December 31, 2016 will be converted into a restricted stock award relating to shares of Pinnacle common stock, with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such award, and relating to the number of shares of Pinnacle common stock, determined by multiplying (i) the number of shares of BNC common stock subject to such BNC restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time by (ii) the exchange ratio.

Treatment of BNC's Subordinated Notes and Subordinated Debentures (Page 54)

Upon consummation of the merger, Pinnacle will assume BNC's obligations under its outstanding $60.0 million subordinated notes issued in September 2014 that mature in October 2024. These notes bear interest at a rate of 5.5% per annum until September 30, 2019 and may not be repaid prior to that date. Beginning on October 1, 2019, if not redeemed on that date, these notes will bear interest at a floating rate equal to the three-month LIBOR determined on the determination date of the applicable interest period plus 359 basis points.

The $50.5 million in aggregate principal amount of subordinated debentures issued by trust affiliates of BNC in connection with the issuance of trust preferred securities will also be assumed in connection with the merger. Upon consummation of the merger, Pinnacle expects that its total assets will exceed $15.0 billion, which as a result of exceeding that level as a result of the merger, would cause the subordinated debentures Pinnacle and BNC have issued in connection with prior trust preferred securities offerings to cease to qualify as Tier 1 capital under applicable banking regulations. Though these securities would no longer qualify as Tier 1 capital from and after the closing of the merger, Pinnacle believes these subordinated debentures would continue to qualify as Tier 2 capital.

The Merger is Expected to Occur in the Third Quarter of 2017 (Page 107)

Pinnacle and BNC expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2017. However, neither Pinnacle nor BNC can assure you of when or if the merger will be completed. Pinnacle must obtain the approval of Pinnacle shareholders for the issuance of shares of Pinnacle common stock at its special meeting, and BNC must obtain the approval of holders of shares of BNC voting common stock to approve and adopt the merger agreement at its special meeting. Pinnacle and BNC must also obtain required regulatory approvals in addition to satisfying certain other closing conditions. If the merger has not been completed on or before January 22, 2018, either Pinnacle or BNC may terminate the merger agreement so long as the party electing to terminate has not caused the failure of the merger to occur by failing to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement.

Completion of the Merger is Subject to Customary Conditions (Page 108)

The completion of the merger is subject to a number of customary conditions being met, including the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by the requisite vote of BNC voting common shareholders and the approval of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal by the requisite vote of Pinnacle shareholders, as well as receipt of all required regulatory approvals.

Where the law permits, a party to the merger agreement could elect to waive a condition to its obligation to complete the merger, even if that condition has not been satisfied. Neither Pinnacle nor BNC can be certain when (or if) the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived by the applicable party or that the merger will be completed.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (Page 101)

Subject to the terms of the merger agreement, Pinnacle and BNC have agreed to cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file and cause their applicable subsidiaries to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings to obtain as promptly as practicable all regulatory approvals reasonably necessary or advisable to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include, among others, approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (which we refer to as the Federal Reserve Board), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (which we refer to as the FDIC), the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions (which we refer to as TDFI) and the North Carolina Office of the Commissioner of Banks (which we refer to as the NCCOB). On February 10, 2017, Pinnacle filed applications and notifications to obtain regulatory approvals from the Federal Reserve Board, the TDFI and the NCCOB. Pinnacle Bank filed applications and notifications on the same day to obtain regulatory approvals from the FDIC, the TDFI and the NCCOB.

Although neither BNC nor Pinnacle currently knows of any reason why Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank cannot obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner, BNC and Pinnacle cannot be certain when or if they will be obtained or, if obtained, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Pinnacle and its subsidiaries.

Termination of the Merger Agreement; Fees Payable (Page 117)

We may jointly agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time. Either of us also may terminate the merger agreement if:

a governmental entity or regulatory agency that must grant a regulatory approval denies approval of the merger or the bank merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or a governmental entity or regulatory agency of competent jurisdiction issues a final nonappealable order, injunction or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the merger or the bank merger (although this termination right is not available to a party whose failure to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement resulted in those actions by a governmental authority);

the merger is not completed on or before January 22, 2018 (although this termination right is not available to a party whose failure to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement resulted in the failure to complete the merger by that date); or the other party is in breach of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement and the breach rises to a level that would excuse the terminating party's obligation to complete the merger and is either incurable or is not cured by the earlier of 30 days following written notice to the breaching party or January 22, 2018.

Pinnacle may also terminate the merger agreement if: (a) prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of the BNC shareholders to approve the BNC merger proposal, (i) BNC or the board of directors of BNC withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to Pinnacle its recommendation that its shareholders vote FOR approval of the BNC merger proposal or publicly discloses its intention to do so, or otherwise submits the merger agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval, or recommends to its shareholders an acquisition proposal (as defined in the merger agreement) other than the merger or (ii) BNC materially breaches its obligation to hold its shareholders meeting to approve the merger agreement or its obligations with respect to acquisition proposals, or (b) a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of BNC common stock is commenced, other than by Pinnacle or a subsidiary of Pinnacle, and the BNC board of directors unanimously recommends that the shareholders of BNC tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such shareholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within the 10 business day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act.

In addition, BNC has the right to terminate the merger agreement if, prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of the Pinnacle shareholders to approve the Pinnacle share issuance proposal, Pinnacle or the board of directors of Pinnacle withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to BNC its recommendation that its shareholders vote FOR approval of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal or publicly discloses its intention to do so, or otherwise submits the Pinnacle share issuance proposal to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval, or Pinnacle materially breaches its obligation to hold its shareholders meeting to approve the Pinnacle share issuance.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, BNC will be required to pay Pinnacle a termination fee of $66.0 million, which we refer to as the termination fee, if:

Prior to the termination of the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal is made known to senior management of BNC or is made directly to BNC shareholders generally or any person publicly announces (and does not withdraw) an acquisition proposal with respect to BNC and:

(a) (1) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by either BNC or Pinnacle after January 22, 2018 without the requisite vote of the BNC shareholders to approve the BNC merger proposal having been obtained or (2) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by Pinnacle because BNC is in breach of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement and the breach rises to a level that would excuse the terminating party's obligation to complete the merger and is either incurable or is not cured by the earlier of 30 days following written notice to the breaching party or January 22, 2018, and

(b) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, BNC enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to an acquisition proposal; or

Pinnacle terminates the merger agreement because (a) prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of the BNC shareholders to approve the BNC merger proposal, (i) BNC or the board of directors of BNC withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to Pinnacle its recommendation that its shareholders vote FOR approval of the BNC merger proposal or publicly discloses its intention to do so, or otherwise submits the merger agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval, or recommends to its shareholders an acquisition proposal other than the merger or (ii) BNC materially breaches its obligation to hold its shareholders meeting to approve the merger agreement or its obligations with respect to acquisition proposals, or (b) a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of BNC common stock is commenced, other than by Pinnacle or a subsidiary of Pinnacle, and the BNC board of directors recommends that the shareholders of BNC tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such shareholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within the 10 business day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, Pinnacle will be required to pay BNC the termination fee if:

BNC terminates the merger agreement because prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of the Pinnacle shareholders to approve the Pinnacle share issuance proposal, Pinnacle or the board of directors of Pinnacle withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to BNC its recommendation that its shareholders vote FOR approval of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal or publicly discloses its intention to do so, or otherwise submits the Pinnacle share issuance proposal to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval, or Pinnacle materially breaches its obligation to hold its shareholders meeting to approve the Pinnacle share issuance.

Table of Contents

The termination fee could discourage other companies from seeking to acquire or merge with BNC prior to completion of the merger and could cause BNC to reject any acquisition proposal which does not take into account the termination fee.

Pinnacle and BNC May Amend the Terms of the Merger and Waive Rights Under the Merger Agreement (Page 119)

We may jointly amend the terms of the merger agreement, and the parties may waive their respective rights to require the other parties to adhere to any of those terms, to the extent legally permissible. However, after the approval of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal by shareholders of Pinnacle and approval of the BNC merger proposal by shareholders of BNC, no amendment or waiver may be accomplished without the further approval of Pinnacle shareholders or BNC shareholders, as applicable, if such amendment or waiver requires further approval under applicable law.

Dissenters' Rights (Page 101)

Under the North Carolina Business Corporation Act (which we refer to as the "NCBCA"), holders of BNC common stock do not have the right to dissent from the merger agreement and seek an appraisal in connection with the merger.

Comparison of the Rights of BNC Shareholders and Pinnacle Shareholders (Page 139)

The rights of BNC shareholders will change as a result of the merger due to differences in Pinnacle's and BNC's governing documents and Tennessee and North Carolina law. The rights of BNC shareholders are governed by North Carolina law and by the BNC articles of incorporation and bylaws. Upon the completion of the merger, BNC shareholders will become shareholders of Pinnacle, and their rights will therefore be governed by Tennessee law and by Pinnacle's amended and restated charter, as amended (which we refer to as "Pinnacle's charter"), and bylaws, as amended (which we refer to as "Pinnacle's bylaws"). See "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights," for a description of the material differences between the rights of BNC shareholders and Pinnacle shareholders.

Board of Directors after the Merger (Page 94)

Immediately after the merger, the board of directors of the combined company will have 18 members, consisting of 14 current members of Pinnacle's board of directors as well as Richard D. Callicutt II, and three additional members of BNC's board of directors. The parties currently expect that these three BNC board members will be Abney S. Boxley III, Thomas R. Sloan and G. Kennedy Thompson.

The pro forma financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and does not necessarily indicate the financial results of the combined company had the companies actually been combined at the beginning of the period presented. You should not rely on the pro forma information as being indicative of the historical results that we would have had if we had been combined or the future results that we will experience after the merger. The pro forma information, although helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits of expected cost savings, opportunities to earn additional revenue, the impact of restructuring and merger-related costs or other factors that may result as a consequence of the merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

Pinnacle common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol PNFP, and BNC common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol BNCN.

The following table shows, for the periods indicated, the reported closing sale prices per share for Pinnacle common stock and BNC common stock on (i) January 20, 2017, the last trading day before the public announcement of the execution of the merger agreement, and (ii) March 8, 2017 the latest practicable date prior to the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This table also shows in the column entitled Equivalent Price per BNC Share the closing price of a share of Pinnacle common stock on that date, multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.5235. Based on the 20-day trailing average closing price of Pinnacle's common stock on the NASDAQ as of January 20, 2017, the last trading day before the public announcement of the execution of the merger agreement, the exchange ratio represented approximately $35.70 in value for each share of BNC common stock.

The following table shows only historical comparisons. No assurance can be given as to what the market price of the Pinnacle common stock will be when the merger is completed or any time thereafter. Because the market value of Pinnacle common stock will fluctuate after the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, no assurance can be given as to the value a share of Pinnacle common stock will have when received by a BNC shareholder. BNC shareholders and Pinnacle shareholders are advised to obtain current market quotations for BNC common stock and Pinnacle common stock and to review carefully the other information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus in considering whether to approve the proposals contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The principal source of Pinnacle's cash flow, including cash flow to pay interest to holders of its subordinated debentures and subordinated notes, and any dividends payable to shareholders, are dividends that Pinnacle Bank pays to Pinnacle as its sole shareholder. The ability of Pinnacle Bank to pay dividends to Pinnacle, as well as Pinnacle's ability to pay dividends to its shareholders, will continue to be subject to and limited by the results of operations of Pinnacle Bank and by certain legal and regulatory restrictions. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that Pinnacle will continue to pay dividends to its shareholders in the future. See "Supervision and Regulation - Payment of Dividends" in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K, and the Risk Factor entitled "Our ability to declare and pay dividends is limited" in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K which is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, for additional information about limitations on Pinnacle's and Pinnacle Bank's ability to declare and pay dividends. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes hereto and the documents incorporated by reference herein, contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. Forward-looking statements represent Pinnacle's and BNC's expectations or predictions concerning the future and are subject to risks and uncertainties. Actual operating results and financial positions may differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements can generally be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "expect", "anticipate", "goal", "intend", "plan", "believe", "should", "seek", "estimate" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but other statements not based on historical information may also be considered forward-looking. You should note that the discussion of Pinnacle's and BNC's reasons for the merger contain many forward-looking statements that describe beliefs, assumptions, expectations and estimates of the board or management of each of Pinnacle and BNC and public sources as of the indicated dates and those assumptions, expectations and estimates may have changed as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, any statements that refer to expectations, projections or other characterizations of future events or circumstances, including any underlying assumptions, are forward-looking statements. Those statements are not guarantees and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual results could differ materially and adversely from these forward-looking statements.

The ability to predict results or the actual effects of the combined company's plans and strategies is inherently uncertain. Some of the factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements, include, but are not limited to, those identified in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 35 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the following:

the risk that the cost savings and any revenue synergies from the merger may not be realized or take longer than anticipated to be realized; disruption from the merger with customers, suppliers or employees or other business partners' relationships;

the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement;

the risk of successful integration of the two companies' business;

a material adverse change in the financial condition of Pinnacle or BNC; loan losses that exceed the level of allowance for loan losses of the combined company;

lower than expected revenue following the merger;

Pinnacle's ability to manage the combined company's growth;

the risks inherent or associated with a merger or acquisition, like the merger;

general economic conditions, either nationally, in Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina or Virginia or in certain MSAs in those states that are less favorable than expected resulting in, among other things, a deterioration of the quality of the combined company's loan portfolio and the demand for its products and services;

the failure to obtain the necessary approvals by Pinnacle and BNC shareholders;

the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the merger;

the ability to obtain required governmental approvals of the merger;

reputational risk and the risk of adverse reaction of Pinnacle's, Pinnacle Bank's, BNC's and BNC Bank's customers, suppliers, employees or other business partners to the merger;

Table of Contents

the failure of the closing conditions to be satisfied or any unexpected delay in closing the merger;

the risk that the integration of Pinnacle's and BNC's operations will be materially delayed or will be more costly or difficult than expected;

the possibility that the merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events;

the dilution caused by Pinnacle's issuance of additional shares of its common stock in the merger or related to the merger;

increased competition with other financial institutions;

continuation of the historically low short-term interest rate environment;

rapid fluctuations or unanticipated changes in interest rates on loans or deposits;

inability to comply with regulatory capital requirements, including those resulting from changes to capital calculation methodologies and required capital maintenance levels or regulatory agencies in connection with those agencies' approval of the merger;

the possibility that the incremental cost and/or decreased revenues associated with exceeding $10 billion in assets will exceed current estimates;

changes in state and federal legislation, regulations or policies applicable to banks and other financial service providers (like BHG, in which Pinnacle owns a 49% interest), including regulatory or legislative developments; and general competitive, economic, political and market conditions.

Additional factors which could affect the forward-looking statements are identified elsewhere in this document and discussed in the reports filed with the SEC by each of Pinnacle and BNC. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 150. The timing and occurrence or non-occurrence of events may be subject to circumstances beyond Pinnacle's or BNC's control.

For any forward-looking statements made in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or in any documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Pinnacle and BNC claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus or the date of the applicable document incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Except to the extent required by applicable law, Pinnacle and BNC do not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect facts, circumstances, assumptions, or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made. All written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and attributable to Pinnacle, BNC, or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote for the proposals presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You should also consider the other information in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to Pinnacle or BNC that are not currently believed to be important to you, if they materialize, also may adversely affect the merger, the merger agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby and Pinnacle as the ultimate surviving company in the mergers.

In addition, Pinnacle's and BNC's respective businesses are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including the risks and uncertainties described, in the case of Pinnacle, in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and in the case of BNC, in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, each of which are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Please see Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 150.

Risks Factors Relating to the Mergers

Because the market price of Pinnacle common stock may fluctuate, BNC shareholders cannot be sure of the exact value of shares of Pinnacle common stock they may receive.

Upon completion of the merger, outstanding shares of BNC common stock will be converted into the merger consideration consisting of shares of Pinnacle common stock as provided in the merger agreement. While the number of shares of Pinnacle common stock that holders of BNC common stock may receive as the merger consideration for each share of BNC common stock is fixed, the value of these shares of Pinnacle common stock may fluctuate depending on the price per share of Pinnacle common stock at the time the shares of Pinnacle common stock are actually received by BNC shareholders. The closing price of Pinnacle common stock on the date that the BNC shareholder actually receives the shares of such Pinnacle common stock after consummation of the merger may vary from the closing price of Pinnacle common stock on the date that BNC and Pinnacle announced the merger, on the date that this joint proxy statement/prospectus is being mailed to BNC shareholders, and on the date of the BNC special meeting. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in Pinnacle's business, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations, changes in estimates or recommendations by securities analysts or rating agencies, announcements of strategic developments, acquisitions, dispositions, financings and other material events by Pinnacle or its competitors among other things. Many of these factors are beyond the control of Pinnacle or BNC. Accordingly, at the time of the BNC special meeting, because of the above timing differences, BNC shareholders will not be able to calculate the exact value of Pinnacle common stock they will receive upon consummation of the merger.

The market price for Pinnacle common stock may be affected by factors different from those that historically have affected BNC.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of BNC common stock will become holders of Pinnacle common stock. Pinnacle's businesses differ from those of BNC, and accordingly the results of operations of Pinnacle will be affected by some factors that are different from those currently affecting the results of operations of BNC. For a discussion of the businesses of Pinnacle and BNC and of some important factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the section entitled Information About the Companies beginning on page 52 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated herein by reference and referred to under the section entitled

Edgar Filing: Skkynet Cloud Systems, Inc. - Form 8-K

Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 150, including, in particular, in the section entitled Risk Factors in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Table of Contents

Pinnacle may not be able to successfully integrate BNC or to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Pinnacle can provide no assurance that the mergers and the bank merger will be consummated. In the event that the mergers and the bank merger are consummated, a successful integration of BNC's operations with Pinnacle's operations will depend substantially on Pinnacle's ability to consolidate operations, corporate cultures, systems and procedures and to eliminate redundancies and costs. Pinnacle may not be able to combine its operations with the operations of BNC without encountering difficulties, such as:

the loss of key employees;

the disruption of operations and business;

inability to maintain and increase competitive presence;

loan and deposit attrition, customer loss and revenue loss;

possible inconsistencies in standards, control procedures and policies;

unexpected problems with costs, operations, personnel, technology and credit; and/or problems with the assimilation of new operations, sites or personnel, which could divert resources from regular banking operations.

Additionally, general market and economic conditions or governmental actions affecting the financial industry generally may inhibit Pinnacle's successful integration of BNC.

Further, Pinnacle entered into the merger agreement with the expectation that the mergers and the bank merger will result in various benefits including, among other things, benefits relating to enhanced revenues, a strengthened market position for the combined company, cross selling opportunities, cost savings and operating efficiencies. Achieving the anticipated benefits of the mergers and the bank merger is subject to a number of uncertainties, including whether Pinnacle integrates BNC in an efficient and effective manner, and general competitive factors in the marketplace. Failure to achieve these anticipated benefits on the anticipated timeframe, or at all, could result in a reduction in the price of Pinnacle's common stock as well as in increased costs, decreases in the amount of expected revenues and diversion of management's time and energy that could materially and adversely affect Pinnacle's business, financial condition and operating results. Additionally, upon consummation of the mergers and the bank merger Pinnacle will make fair value estimates of certain assets and liabilities of BNC in recording the mergers and the bank merger. Actual values of these assets and liabilities could differ from Pinnacle's estimates, which could result in Pinnacle not achieving the anticipated benefits of the mergers and the bank merger. Finally, any cost savings that are realized may be offset by losses in revenues or other charges to earnings.

BNC shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

After consummation of the merger, BNC shareholders are expected to own a significantly smaller percentage of Pinnacle than they currently own of BNC. Based on the number of shares of Pinnacle common stock outstanding as of [], 2017, the last date before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for which it was practicable to obtain this information, we expect that BNC shareholders as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger will hold, in the aggregate, approximately []% of the issued and outstanding shares of Pinnacle common stock immediately following the closing of the merger (without giving effect to any shares of Pinnacle common stock held by BNC shareholders prior to the merger). Additionally, former BNC directors, following the consummation of the merger, initially will hold four seats on Pinnacle's board of directors. Consequently, BNC shareholders likely will be able to exercise less influence over the management policies of Pinnacle than they currently exercise over the management and policies of BNC.

The combined company will incur significant transaction and merger-related costs in connection with the merger.

Pinnacle expects to incur significant costs associated with combining the operations of BNC with its operations. Pinnacle just recently began collecting information in order to formulate detailed integration plans to deliver anticipated cost savings. Additional unanticipated costs may be incurred in the integration of Pinnacle's business with the business of BNC. Although Pinnacle expects that the elimination of duplicative costs, as well as the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses, may offset incremental transaction and merger-related costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all.

Whether or not the merger is consummated, each of Pinnacle and BNC will incur substantial expenses, such as legal, accounting and financial advisory fees, in pursuing the merger which will adversely impact its earnings. Completion of the merger is conditioned upon customary closing conditions, including the receipt of all required governmental authorizations, consents, orders and approvals, including approval by certain federal and state banking regulators. Pinnacle and BNC intend to pursue all required approvals in accordance with the merger agreement. However, there can be no assurance that such approvals will be obtained on the anticipated timeframe, or at all.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or cannot be met.

Before the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement may be completed, approval of Pinnacle's applications and notices filed with the Federal Reserve Board, the TDFI and the NCCOB and Pinnacle Bank's applications and notices filed with the FDIC, the TDFI and the NCCOB must be obtained. These governmental entities and regulatory agencies may impose conditions, limitations or costs, or place restrictions on the conduct of Pinnacle after the completion of the merger as a condition to the granting of such approvals or require changes to the terms of the mergers or the bank merger. Although Pinnacle and BNC do not currently expect that any material conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement or imposing additional costs on or limiting the combined company's revenues, any of which might have a material adverse effect on Pinnacle following the mergers and the bank merger. There can be no assurance as to whether the required regulatory approvals will be received, the timing of those approvals, or whether any conditions will be imposed. See The Merger Agreement - Conditions to the Completion of the Merger beginning on page 108 for a discussion of the conditions to the completion of the merger and The Merger - Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger beginning on page 101 for a description of the regulatory approvals that must be received in connection with the mergers and the bank merger.

Combining Pinnacle and BNC may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the mergers and the bank merger may not be realized.

Pinnacle and BNC have operated and, until the completion of the mergers and the bank merger, will continue to operate, independently. The success of the mergers and the bank merger, including anticipated benefits and cost savings, will depend, in part, on Pinnacle's ability to successfully combine and integrate the businesses of Pinnacle and BNC in a manner that permits growth opportunities, and does not materially disrupt existing customer relations nor result in decreased revenues due to loss of customers. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of either company's ongoing businesses, or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures, and policies that adversely affect the combined company's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors, and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the mergers and the bank merger. The loss of key employees could adversely affect Pinnacle's and BNC's ability to successfully conduct their respective businesses, which could have an adverse effect on Pinnacle's and BNC's respective financial results and the value of its common stock. If Pinnacle experiences difficulties with the integration process and attendant systems conversion, the anticipated

benefits of the mergers and the bank merger may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. As with any merger of financial institutions, there also may be business disruptions that cause Pinnacle and/or BNC to lose customers or cause customers to remove their accounts from Pinnacle and/or BNC and move their business to competing financial institutions. Integration efforts between the two companies may also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of BNC and Pinnacle during this transition period and for an undetermined period after completion of the mergers and the bank merger on the combined company. In addition, the actual cost savings of the mergers and the bank merger could be less than anticipated.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively affect the stock price and the future business and financial results of Pinnacle or BNC.

If the merger is not completed, Pinnacle's and BNC's respective businesses may be adversely affected by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of their respective management teams on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger. In addition, the market price of Pinnacle or BNC common stock might decline to the extent that the current market prices of each company reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Pinnacle may be required to pay a termination fee of $66.0 million to BNC and BNC may be required to pay a termination fee of $66.0 million to Pinnacle. For additional information, see "The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement" beginning on page 117.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the merger agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire BNC.

Until the consummation of the merger, with some exceptions, BNC is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, knowingly facilitating or encouraging, or participating in any discussion, negotiation or activity regarding an acquisition proposal, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person or entity other than Pinnacle. In addition, BNC has agreed to pay a termination fee of $66.0 million to Pinnacle if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including a change of recommendation of BNC or the BNC board of directors. See "The Merger Agreement Termination Fee" beginning on page 118. These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of BNC from considering or proposing such an acquisition that might result in greater value to BNC's shareholders than the merger, or may result in a potential competing acquirer proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire BNC than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

The merger agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the merger may not be completed.

The merger agreement is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled or waived in order to complete the merger. Those conditions include: the approval of the BNC merger proposal by BNC shareholders, the approval of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal by Pinnacle shareholders, the receipt of all required regulatory approvals and expiration or termination of all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof, the accuracy of representations and warranties under the merger agreement (subject to the materiality standards set forth in the merger agreement), Pinnacle's and BNC's performance of their respective obligations under the merger agreement in all material respects and each of Pinnacle's and BNC's receipt of a tax opinion to the effect that the mergers, taken together, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These conditions to the closing of the merger may not be fulfilled in a timely manner or at all, and, accordingly, the merger may be delayed or may not be completed.

In addition, the parties can mutually decide to terminate the merger agreement at any time, before or after shareholder approval, and Pinnacle or BNC may elect to terminate the merger agreement in certain other circumstances. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Pinnacle or BNC may be required to pay a termination fee of $66.0 million to the other party. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on page 118 for a fuller description of these circumstances.

Certain executive officers and directors of BNC have interests in the merger different from, or in addition to, the interests of BNC shareholders.

Certain of BNC's existing directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of BNC's shareholders generally. For example, certain BNC executive officers have agreements that provide for payments following the consummation of the merger as the merger will be considered a change in control for purposes of these agreements. The BNC board of directors was aware of these interests when it approved and adopted the merger agreement. See "The Merger—Interests of BNC Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger" beginning on page 95.

The actual financial positions and results of operations of Pinnacle and BNC may differ materially from the unaudited pro forma financial data included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The pro forma financial information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of what the combined company's financial position or results of operations would have been had the transactions been completed on the dates indicated. The pro forma financial information has been derived from the audited and unaudited historical financial statements of Pinnacle and BNC, and certain adjustments and assumptions have been made regarding the combined businesses after giving effect to the transactions. The assets and liabilities of BNC have been measured at fair value based on various preliminary estimates using assumptions that management believes are reasonable utilizing information currently available. The process for estimating the fair value of acquired assets and assumed liabilities requires the use of judgment in determining the appropriate assumptions and estimates. These estimates may be revised as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. Differences between preliminary estimates in the pro forma financial information and the final acquisition accounting will occur and could have a material impact on the pro forma financial data and the combined company's financial position and future results of operations.

In addition, the assumptions used in preparing the pro forma financial data may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the closing. Any potential decline in Pinnacle's or BNC's financial condition or results of operations may cause significant variations in Pinnacle's or BNC's share price.

BNC and Pinnacle are subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending, which could adversely affect each party's business and operations.

In connection with the pendency of the merger, it is possible that some customers and other persons with whom BNC, BNC Bank, Pinnacle and/or Pinnacle Bank has a business relationship may delay or defer certain business decisions or might seek to terminate, change or renegotiate their relationships with BNC, BNC Bank, Pinnacle and/or Pinnacle Bank, as the case may be, as a result of the merger, which could negatively affect BNC's, and/or Pinnacle's respective revenues, earnings and cash flows, as well as the market price of BNC's or Pinnacle's common stock, regardless of whether the merger is completed.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each of BNC and Pinnacle is subject to certain restrictions on its business prior to completing the merger, which may adversely affect each party's ability to execute certain of its business strategies, including the ability in certain cases to acquire or dispose of assets, incur indebtedness or incur capital expenditures. Such limitations could negatively affect BNC's or Pinnacle's businesses and operations prior to the completion of the merger.

Shares of Pinnacle common stock to be received by BNC shareholders as a result of the merger will have rights different from the shares of BNC common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, the rights of former BNC shareholders who receive Pinnacle common stock will be governed by Pinnacle's charter, Pinnacle's bylaws and by Tennessee corporate law. The rights associated with Pinnacle common stock and the terms of the TBCA are different from the rights associated with BNC common stock and the terms of the NCBCA, which currently govern the rights of BNC shareholders. Please see the section entitled Comparison of Shareholders' Rights beginning on page 139 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Pinnacle common stock.

The opinions of Pinnacle's and BNC's financial advisors delivered to the parties' respective boards of directors prior to the parties' signing of the merger agreement will not reflect any changes in circumstances following the date of such opinions.

The fairness opinions of Pinnacle's and BNC's financial advisors to the parties' respective boards of directors were delivered on and dated January 22, 2017. Changes in the operations and prospects of Pinnacle or BNC, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Pinnacle or BNC may significantly alter the value of BNC or Pinnacle or the prices of the shares of Pinnacle common stock or BNC common stock by the time the merger is completed. The opinions do not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinions.

BNC shareholders will not be entitled to dissenters' or appraisal rights in the merger.

Dissenters' or appraisal rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Under the NCBCA, dissenters' rights are not available to holders of shares of any class or series of shares that are traded in an organized market and has at least 2,000 shareholders and a market value of at least $20,000,000. Because BNC common stock is traded on the NASDAQ, an organized market, and has at least 2,000 shareholders and a market value of at least $20,000,000, BNC shareholders will not be entitled to dissenters' rights in the merger under applicable North Carolina law.

Shares Held in Street Name ; Broker Non-Votes

Under stock exchange rules, banks, brokers, and other nominees who hold shares of Pinnacle common stock in street name for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, banks, brokers, and other nominees are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of matters determined to be non-routine, without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are shares held by a bank, broker or other nominee that are represented at the Pinnacle special meeting, but with respect to which the bank, broker or nominee is not instructed by the beneficial owner of such shares to vote on the particular proposal and the bank, broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power on such proposal. If your bank, broker or other nominee holds your shares of Pinnacle common stock in street name, your bank, broker or other nominee will vote your shares of Pinnacle common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your bank, broker or other nominee with this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Pinnacle believes that the Pinnacle share issuance proposal and the Pinnacle adjournment proposal are non-routine proposals and your bank, broker or other nominee may not vote your shares of Pinnacle common stock without your specific voting instructions.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a Pinnacle Shareholder's Vote

You have the power to change your vote at any time before your shares of Pinnacle common stock are voted at the Pinnacle special meeting by:

signing and returning a proxy card with a later date; delivering a written revocation letter to Pinnacle's corporate secretary at 150 Third Avenue South, Suite 900, Nashville, Tennessee 37201; attending the Pinnacle special meeting in person, notifying the corporate secretary and voting by ballot at the special meeting; or voting by telephone or the Internet at a later time than the time at which you first voted.

If you choose to send a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card, the new proxy card must be received before the beginning of the Pinnacle special meeting.

Written notices of revocation and other communications about revoking your proxy card should be addressed to:

Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc.

150 Third Avenue South, Suite 900

Nashville, Tennessee 37201

Attention: Corporate Secretary

If your shares of Pinnacle common stock are held in street name in a stock brokerage account or by a bank, broker or other holder of record and you wish to attend the Pinnacle special meeting, you must obtain a legal proxy from the bank, broker or other holder of record and you will need to bring a copy of a bank or brokerage statement to the Pinnacle special meeting reflecting your stock ownership as of the Pinnacle record date. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices, or any similar equipment during the Pinnacle special meeting is prohibited without Pinnacle's express written consent.

Delivery of Proxy Materials to Shareholders Sharing an Address

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies to mail a single proxy statement to two or more shareholders sharing the same address. This practice is known as householding. Householding provides greater convenience to shareholders and saves Pinnacle money by reducing excess printing costs. You may have been identified as living at the same address as another Pinnacle shareholder. If this is the case, and unless Pinnacle receives contrary instructions from you, Pinnacle will continue to household your proxy statement for the reasons stated above.

If you are a Pinnacle shareholder or a beneficial owner at a shared address to which a single copy of this joint proxy statement/prospectus has been delivered, and you would like to receive your own copy of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, you may obtain it electronically from Pinnacle's website (www.pnfp.com) by selecting the tab entitled Investor Relations under the tab About Pinnacle and then the tab entitled SEC Filings; by contacting the Investor Relations department of Pinnacle by phone (615-744-3700); or by writing to the Investor Relations department of Pinnacle and indicating that you are a shareholder at a shared address and would like an additional copy of the document.

A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the Pinnacle board of directors adopted the merger agreement and approved the mergers, the bank merger and the issuance of Pinnacle common stock in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement and declared the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the mergers, the bank merger and the share issuance, to be advisable and in the best interests of Pinnacle. PROPOSAL NO. 2: PINNACLE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

The Pinnacle special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to permit, among other things, further solicitation of proxies if necessary to obtain additional votes in favor of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal.

Recommendation of the BNC Board of Directors

The BNC board of directors has determined that transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the mergers and the bank merger, each on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, are in the best interests of BNC and its shareholders and has approved and adopted the merger agreement. The BNC board of directors unanimously recommends that BNC shareholders vote FOR the BNC merger proposal, FOR the BNC compensation proposal, and FOR the BNC adjournment proposal. See The Merger BNC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the BNC Board of Directors for a more detailed discussion of the BNC board of directors recommendation.

BNC Record Date and Quorum

As of the BNC record date, there were [] shares of BNC voting common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the BNC special meeting held by approximately [] holders of record. Each share of BNC voting common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the BNC special meeting on each proposal to be considered at the BNC special meeting.

The presence at the BNC special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BNC voting common stock entitled to vote at the BNC special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. All shares of BNC voting common stock present in person or represented by proxy, including abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the BNC special meeting, including any adjournment thereof (unless a new record date is or must be set for the adjourned meeting).

BNC compensation proposal:

Vote required: Approval of the BNC compensation proposal requires that the votes cast in favor of the proposal at the BNC special meeting exceed the votes cast opposing the proposal at the BNC special meeting.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, fail to submit a proxy card or vote in person at the BNC special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote with respect to the BNC compensation proposal, so long as a quorum is present, it will have no effect on the proposal.

BNC adjournment proposal:

Vote required: Approval of the BNC adjournment proposal requires that the votes cast in favor of the proposal at the BNC special meeting exceed the votes cast opposing the proposal at the BNC special meeting.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, fail to submit a proxy card or vote in person at the BNC special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote with respect to the BNC adjournment proposal, so long as a quorum is present, it will have no effect on the proposal.

Shares Held by Officers and Directors

As of the BNC record date, the directors and executive officers of BNC and their affiliates collectively beneficially owned and were entitled to vote [] shares of BNC voting common stock, representing approximately []% of the outstanding shares of BNC voting common stock, including [] shares subject to options currently exercisable but not exercised. In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, each of the directors and executive officers of BNC executed a shareholder support agreement pursuant to which they agreed, among other things, to vote their shares of BNC voting common stock for the approval of the BNC merger proposal. As of the BNC record date, excluding shares held in fiduciary or agency capacity, Pinnacle and its subsidiaries did not own any shares of BNC common stock.

Voting of Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

Each copy of this joint proxy statement/prospectus mailed to BNC shareholders is accompanied by a form of proxy card with instructions for voting. If you hold stock in your name as a shareholder of record, you should complete and return the proxy card accompanying this joint proxy statement/prospectus, regardless of whether you plan to attend the BNC special meeting. You may also vote your shares through the Internet or by telephone. Information and applicable deadlines for voting through the Internet or by telephone are set forth in the enclosed proxy card instructions.

If you hold your stock in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee, you must direct your bank, broker or nominee how to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank, broker or nominee.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT, REGARDLESS OF THE NUMBER OF SHARES OF BNC COMMON STOCK YOU OWN. Accordingly, each BNC shareholder should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or vote via the Internet or by telephone, whether or not the BNC shareholder plans to attend the BNC special meeting in person.

All shares represented by valid proxies that BNC receives through this solicitation, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card. BNC merger proposal, FOR the BNC compensation proposal, and FOR the BNC adjournment proposal. However, if other business properly comes before the BNC special meeting, the proxy agents will, in their discretion, vote upon such matters in their best judgment.

Shares Held in Street Name ; Broker Non-Votes

Under stock exchange rules, banks, brokers, and other nominees who hold shares of BNC voting common stock in street name for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, banks, brokers and other nominees are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of matters determined to be non-routine, without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are shares held by a bank, broker or other nominee that are represented at the BNC special meeting, but with respect to which the bank, broker or nominee is not instructed by the beneficial owner of such shares to vote on the particular proposal and the bank, broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power on such proposal. If your bank, broker or other nominee holds your shares of BNC voting common stock in street name, your bank, broker or other nominee will vote your shares of BNC voting common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your bank, broker or other nominee with this joint proxy statement/prospectus. BNC believes that the BNC merger proposal, BNC compensation proposal and BNC adjournment proposal are non-routine proposals and your bank, broker or other nominee can vote your shares of BNC common stock only with your specific voting instructions.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a BNC Shareholder's Vote

If you hold your shares of BNC voting common stock in your name as a shareholder of record, you may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to BNC's Secretary, (3) attending the BNC special meeting in person, notifying the Secretary, and voting by ballot at the special meeting, or (4) voting by telephone or the Internet at a later time.

Any shareholder entitled to vote in person at the BNC special meeting may vote in person regardless of whether a proxy has been previously given, but the mere presence (without notifying BNC's corporate secretary) of a shareholder at the BNC special meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

Written notices of revocation and other communications about revoking your proxy card should be addressed to:

BNC Bancorp

After careful consideration, the BNC board of directors determined that the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the mergers and the bank merger, each on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, are in the best interests of BNC and its shareholders. Please see The Merger BNC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the BNC Board of Directors included elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus for a more detailed discussion of the BNC board of directors' recommendation.

Pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Act and Rule 14a-21(c) under the Exchange Act, BNC is seeking non-binding, advisory approval from its shareholders of the compensation of BNC's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger, as disclosed in The Merger Interests of BNC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Quantification of Potential Payments to BNC's Named Executive Officers in Connection with the Merger. The proposal gives BNC shareholders the opportunity to express their views on the merger-related compensation of BNC's named executive officers. Accordingly, BNC is requesting its shareholders to adopt the following resolution, on a non-binding, advisory basis:

RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be paid or become payable to BNC's named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, in each case as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in The Merger Interests of BNC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Quantification of Potential Payments to BNC's Named Executive Officers in Connection with the Merger, are hereby APPROVED.

Approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger, and the vote with respect to this proposal is advisory only and will not be binding on Pinnacle or BNC. If the merger is completed, the merger-related compensation may be paid to BNC's named executive officers to the extent payable in accordance with the terms of their compensation agreements and arrangements even if BNC shareholders fail to approve the advisory vote regarding merger-related compensation.

The BNC board of directors unanimously recommends that BNC shareholders vote FOR the BNC compensation proposal.

PROPOSAL NO. 3: BNC ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

The BNC special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to permit, among other things, further solicitation of proxies if necessary to obtain additional votes in favor of the BNC merger proposal.

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains certain information about the merger. The discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated herein by reference. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger that is important to you. We urge you to read carefully this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement attached as Annex A, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Terms of the Mergers

Each of Pinnacle's and BNC's respective boards of directors has adopted the merger agreement and approved the transactions contemplated thereby. The merger agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into BNC, with BNC remaining as the surviving entity. Such surviving entity will, as soon as reasonably practicable following the merger and as part of a single integrated transaction, merge with and into Pinnacle. Immediately following the completion of this second step merger, BNC Bank will merge with and into Pinnacle Bank. Pinnacle Bank will be the surviving bank in the bank merger.

In the merger, each share of BNC common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger, except for specified shares of BNC common stock held by BNC, Pinnacle or Merger Sub, will be automatically converted into the right to receive 0.5235 shares of Pinnacle common stock. No fractional shares of Pinnacle common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. BNC shareholders who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share of Pinnacle common stock upon completion of the merger will instead receive, for such fraction of a share, an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) based on the Pinnacle share closing price, as discussed below. For a discussion of the treatment of awards outstanding under BNC's equity incentive plans as of the effective time, see The Merger Agreement Treatment of BNC Equity Awards on page 105.

Upon consummation of the merger, Pinnacle will assume BNC's obligations under its outstanding $60.0 million subordinated notes issued in September 2014 that mature in October 2024. These notes bear interest at a rate of 5.5% per annum until September 30, 2019 and may not be repaid prior to that date. Beginning on October 1, 2019, if not redeemed on that date, these notes will bear interest at a floating rate equal to the three-month LIBOR determined on the determination date of the applicable interest period plus 359 basis points. The $50.5 million in aggregate principal amount of subordinated debentures issued by trust affiliates of BNC in connection with the issuance of trust preferred securities will also be assumed in connection with the merger.

Upon consummation of the merger, Pinnacle expects that its total assets will exceed $15.0 billion, which as a result of exceeding that level as a result of the merger, would cause the subordinated debentures Pinnacle and BNC have issued in connection with prior trust preferred securities offerings to cease to qualify as Tier 1 capital under applicable banking regulations. Though these securities would no longer qualify as Tier 1 capital from and after the closing of the merger, Pinnacle believes these subordinated debentures would continue to qualify as Tier 2 capital.

BNC shareholders are being asked to approve and adopt the merger agreement and Pinnacle shareholders are being asked to approve the issuance of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger. See The Merger Agreement for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about conditions to the completion of the merger and provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement. Subject to the satisfaction of the closing conditions set out in the merger agreement, Pinnacle and BNC expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2017.

Pinnacle's and BNC's board of directors and senior management have each considered and regularly reviewed their respective strategic direction, business objectives and long-term prospects, as part of their respective continuous efforts to enhance value for shareholders and other constituencies. These considerations have focused on, among other things, growth opportunities, prospects and developments in the regulatory environment, conditions and ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry, and the economy generally and financial markets, both with respect to financial institutions generally and Pinnacle and BNC respectively, in particular. In addition, Pinnacle and BNC both regularly evaluate and have completed business combinations in furtherance of their respective strategic direction, business objectives and long-term prospects.

On October 19, 2016, Pinnacle publicly disclosed that part of its long-range corporate strategy includes growth in attractive, high growth markets throughout the Southeast. Since Pinnacle's acquisition of Avenue Financial Holdings, Inc. (which we refer to as Avenue) in the summer of 2016, Pinnacle's executive management team had been considering expanding Pinnacle's operations outside of Tennessee through either an organic denovo expansion into certain key markets or acquiring a franchise with significant scale in key markets. The proposed merger with BNC meets each of Pinnacle's previously disclosed criteria for a potential merger, including that it (i) allows Pinnacle to expand into six of its nine previously identified targeted new markets; (ii) involves a financial institution of a sufficient size; (iii) involves a financial institution with a commercial thrust; (iv) is accretive to Pinnacle's earnings in the first year of operation, excluding merger-related charges; (v) offers an opportunity to retain the target company's current management; (vi) involves a financial institution that has demonstrated sustainable core profitability; and (vii) involves a financial institution that allows Pinnacle to achieve sufficient scale in the additional markets Pinnacle would enter as a result of the merger.

From time to time, Pinnacle's board and members of its senior management team have met with many representatives of various investment banking firms, including KBW, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities regarding possible strategic acquisitions that might be attractive to Pinnacle. In September of 2015, representatives of KBW met with Pinnacle's board at its annual strategic planning meeting to discuss general market conditions and potential strategic acquisitions. KBW highlighted 11 potential strategic acquisitions, including BNC.

In August 2016, a representative of BSP Securities contacted M. Terry Turner, President and Chief Executive Officer of Pinnacle, and suggested that he would like to introduce Richard D. Callicutt II, President and Chief Executive Officer of BNC, to Mr. Turner as both were CEOs of leading banks that were rapid consolidators and that both franchises were analyzing many of the same considerations as the banks approached and, in Pinnacle's case, exceeded $10 billion in total assets.

On September 12 and 13, 2016, Pinnacle's board of directors held its annual strategic planning meeting at which management reviewed with the board of directors management's desire to focus its future consideration of strategic acquisition targets on financial institutions headquartered outside of Tennessee. Representatives of KBW and Sandler O'Neill separately met with Pinnacle's board of directors, with KBW focusing on Pinnacle and general market conditions. Representatives from Sandler O'Neill also discussed general market conditions and the developing consolidation trends within the banking industry. The representatives from Sandler O'Neill also discussed with the Pinnacle board members potential acquisition targets for Pinnacle within certain markets in the Southeastern United States, including BNC. During these sessions, management highlighted several key markets outside of Tennessee, but within the Southeastern United States, that management believed offered attractive expansion opportunities. One of the more interesting criteria that management highlighted as making a market attractive was anticipated population growth for the next five years, with markets with greater than 6% anticipated population growth garnering the most discussion from the board and management. Following the strategic planning meeting, Pinnacle's management shared certain information regarding Pinnacle with BSP Securities in response to a request from BSP Securities.

On September 28, 2016, Mr. Callicutt and David B. Spencer, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of BNC, along with a representative of BSP Securities, met with Mr. Turner, Harold R. Carpenter, Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President of Pinnacle, and Robert A. McCabe, Jr., Chairman of Pinnacle, in Nashville, Tennessee. They also discussed at a high level the general feasibility and potential benefits of a strategic business combination between the two companies.

On October 3, 2016, in a visit with Messrs. Turner and Carpenter in Nashville, representatives of KBW reviewed with Messrs. Turner and Carpenter feedback from ongoing acquisition conversations. Mr. Turner inquired as to whether KBW had any previous relationship with BNC and noted that he would be interested in receiving input from KBW regarding a potential transaction between BNC and Pinnacle, in addition to potential transactions with several other franchises discussed at the meeting. Following the meeting, KBW scheduled a meeting with Mr. Callicutt for October 19, 2016.

During the executive session of an October 4, 2016 regularly scheduled meeting of Pinnacle's board of directors executive committee, Mr. Turner discussed with the members of the executive committee various potential strategic transactions that Pinnacle's management was analyzing, including the possible acquisition of BNC. Mr. Turner noted that, although certain senior executives of Pinnacle had met with BNC executives, there had been no serious discussions with anyone representing BNC as to a potential transaction between the parties.

On October 17, 2016, Sandler O'Neill met with the board of directors and management of BNC. During this discussion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed BNC's relative performance and market valuation compared to its peers, available strategic alternatives, and the potential value BNC could receive in a sale scenario.

On October 19, 2016, a representative of KBW met with Mr. Callicutt, at the request of Mr. Turner, to review general market conditions, as well as to discuss a potential merger with Pinnacle. At that meeting, Mr. Callicutt expressed preliminary interest in further discussions regarding a potential merger between Pinnacle and BNC.

On October 28, 2016, representatives of KBW reviewed with Messrs. Turner and Carpenter on a preliminary basis, high-level financial aspects of a potential transaction between Pinnacle and BNC.

Turner and Carpenter updated the committee members on the developments since the last executive committee meeting related to potential strategic transactions involving Pinnacle. They noted for the committee members that KBW had provided summary information for management related to high-level financial aspects of a possible transaction with BNC. Other potential merger partners were also discussed at this meeting.

On November 17, 2016, Messrs. Turner, Carpenter and Hugh M. Queener, Chief Administrative Officer and Executive Vice President of Pinnacle, met with Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer for dinner in Naples, Florida, where certain members of both banks' management teams were attending an investor conference sponsored by Sandler O'Neill although no representatives of Sandler O'Neill were present at this discussion. The primary topics discussed were the areas that would require the most attention should a business combination between the two firms occur, including key personnel, incentive structures, branch models and technology vendors, among other items.

On December 5, 2016, a representative of KBW met with Messrs. Turner and Carpenter in Nashville to discuss the possibility of Pinnacle moving forward with the consideration of a merger between BNC and Pinnacle.

Turner and Carpenter discussed with the committee members in attendance the possible acquisition of BNC. Mr. Carpenter also reviewed summary information that KBW had provided to management related to high-level financial aspects of a possible transaction with BNC, which information had been provided to the committee members shortly before the meeting.

On December 6, 2016, Mr. Callicutt met with Mr. Turner in Nashville, Tennessee and engaged in further preliminary exploratory discussions regarding a potential strategic business combination between Pinnacle and BNC. At this meeting, Mr. Callicutt and Mr. Turner further discussed their respective companies and the general feasibility and potential benefits of a strategic business combination between the two companies, including the potential operational and cultural fit between the two companies. Following this conversation, Mr. Callicutt discussed with members of BNC's management and the BNC board of directors the possibility of a strategic business combination with Pinnacle.

On December 14, 2016, at a special meeting of the BNC board of directors, the BNC board of directors reviewed, together with management, the details of the discussions between representatives of BNC and representatives of Pinnacle. The BNC board of directors determined that it would be advisable and in the best interests of BNC shareholders to continue discussions with Pinnacle and directed management to continue to engage with representatives of Pinnacle and to discuss potential terms of a transaction. On December 14, 2016, BNC entered into a confidentiality agreement with Pinnacle in order to facilitate reciprocal due diligence efforts.

On December 15, 2016, Mr. Carpenter and another member of Pinnacle's finance and accounting staff met with Mr. Spencer at BNC's headquarters in High Point, North Carolina to discuss a potential business combination in more detail and various due diligence matters related thereto.

On December 16, 2016, Mr. Callicutt and Sandler O'Neill discussed the possible engagement of Sandler O'Neill in connection with the potential business combination in further detail.

Between December 14, 2016 and the afternoon of December 19, 2016, Pinnacle, with the assistance of KBW and Bass, Berry & Sims PLC (referred to as Bass Berry), Pinnacle's outside legal counsel, prepared a draft of a non-binding indication of interest outlining the terms of a potential transaction between Pinnacle and BNC. On the afternoon of December 19, 2016, KBW submitted the indication of interest to BSP Securities and Sandler O'Neill. The indication of interest expressed that, subject to the completion of due diligence and the negotiation of a definitive agreement, and based on Pinnacle's preliminary review of a potential transaction, Pinnacle was prepared to offer BNC's shareholders between 0.50 and 0.51 shares of Pinnacle's common stock for each outstanding share of BNC's common stock. The indication of interest further expressed that the exchange ratio would be fixed and that 100% of the merger consideration would be payable in shares of Pinnacle's common stock. This letter also highlighted the premium this range of values offered to the closing sales price for BNC's common stock on December 16, 2016 and the increase that Pinnacle's quarterly cash dividend would be to BNC's quarterly cash dividend.

Following receipt of the non-binding indication of interest on December 20, 2016, Mr. Callicutt called Mr. Turner and communicated that the range of exchange ratios expressed in the non-binding indication of interest submitted by Mr. Turner on December 19, 2016 would need to be increased as a condition to BNC continuing discussions with Pinnacle regarding a potential transaction. Mr. Turner also indicated that a necessary element of any potential transaction would involve Mr. Callicutt and Mr. Spencer continuing as part of the management team of the combined company, and that BNC and its shareholders would have continued representation on the combined company's board through the continued service of several current BNC directors.

diligence and negotiation of a definitive agreement, Pinnacle was prepared to improve its non-binding offer to acquire all of BNC's common stock at a fixed exchange ratio within a range of 0.520 and 0.527 shares of Pinnacle common stock for each share of BNC common stock.

On December 20, 2016, at a meeting of the BNC board of directors, the BNC board of directors reviewed and considered the revised indication of interest. Representatives of BNC's management, BSP Securities, Sandler O'Neill, and BNC's legal advisors, Troutman Sanders LLP (referred to as Troutman Sanders) and Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz (referred to as Wachtell Lipton) were also present at the meeting. During the meeting, representatives of Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities discussed the financial terms of Pinnacle's proposal and provided an overview of each of Pinnacle's and BNC's business, performance, competitive positioning and valuation metrics, a review of precedent transactions, and a review of the profile of the pro forma combined company in the event of a business combination. They also discussed the banking industry more generally and recent developments in the trading prices of BNC, Pinnacle and similar financial institutions generally, as well as certain of BNC's potential strategic alternatives. In this regard, representatives of Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities discussed the limited number of other potential strategic partners, both similarly sized to BNC and larger institutions, the level of interest that these other potential strategic partners might have in proceeding with a transaction, and the financial ability of such partners to combine with BNC and offer attractive consideration to BNC's shareholders. As part of this discussion, it was noted that none of the potential strategic partners identified by Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities represented a likely attractive alternative to the proposed transaction. The cultural fit between Pinnacle and BNC was also discussed, including Pinnacle's expressed goal of expanding its franchise and its commitment to maintaining BNC's strong presence in its current markets, and Pinnacle's proposal to provide BNC and its shareholders and other constituencies with continued representation on the combined company's board through four of eighteen board seats. At the conclusion of the meeting, the BNC board of directors approved the revised non-binding indication of interest, authorized BNC's management and advisors to begin performing reverse due diligence on Pinnacle and negotiating the transaction documentation and determined to allow Pinnacle to conduct further due diligence on BNC.

At the meeting of the BNC board of directors held on December 20, 2016, the BNC board of directors also determined that, as discussions with Pinnacle continued, it would be advisable and appropriate to formally engage financial advisors. The BNC board of directors selected Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities to serve as BNC's financial advisors based on, among other factors, each financial advisor's reputation, experience in mergers and acquisitions, valuations, financing and capital markets, and each financial advisor's familiarity with BNC and BNC's strategic goals and the industries in which it competes. On December 20, 2016, BNC formally retained Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities.

On December 21 and 22, 2016, certain members of Pinnacle's senior management met with representatives of KBW and Bass Berry to discuss various matters related to the proposed merger with BNC, including the timing for preparing an initial draft of the definitive transaction documents and for meeting with Pinnacle's regulators to discuss the proposed merger.

The BNC board of directors thereafter discussed the transaction and the pricing terms, and the recent stock market performance of BNC, Pinnacle and the markets generally. The BNC board of directors also considered, among other things, the financial analyses of Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities regarding the valuation of BNC as a stand-alone entity. A representative of Bass Berry and senior management also provided the Pinnacle board of directors with an update on the proposed financing alternatives available to raise capital to support the transaction and reviewed with the directors the potential timing for a capital raise transaction.

Following these presentations, the Pinnacle board meeting continued with discussions and questions among the members of the Pinnacle board of directors, senior management, KBW and Bass Berry. After considering the proposed terms of the merger agreement and the various presentations of its financial and legal advisors, and taking into consideration the matters discussed during the meeting and prior meetings of the Pinnacle board of directors, including the factors described under Pinnacle's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Pinnacle Board of Directors, the Pinnacle board of directors unanimously determined that the mergers, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the issuance of shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger, were advisable and in the best interests of Pinnacle and its shareholders, and the directors voted to adopt the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated by it and recommend to Pinnacle's shareholders that they approve the issuance of shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger at a duly called meeting of shareholders.

On January 22, 2017, following the conclusion of the meetings of the boards of directors of BNC and Pinnacle occurring on the same date, Pinnacle and BNC executed the merger agreement, Pinnacle and its directors and executive officers and BNC and its directors and executive officers and Aquiline BNC Holdings LLC executed the shareholder support agreements related to the BNC merger and Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer and Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank executed the employment agreement, in the case of Mr. Callicutt, and the change in control and severance agreement, in the case of Mr. Spencer.

The transaction was announced on the evening of January 22, 2017 with the issuance of a joint press release.

On January 23, 2017, Pinnacle commenced and thereafter priced a public offering of shares of its common stock. On January 23, 2017, Pinnacle completed the issuance of approximately 3.2 million shares of its common stock (including shares sold pursuant to the exercise by the underwriter of its option to purchase additional shares of Pinnacle's common stock) for net proceeds, after the payment of underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated expenses payable by Pinnacle, of approximately $191.2 million.

Pinnacle's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Pinnacle Board of Directors

Pinnacle's board of directors concluded that the merger is in the best interests of Pinnacle and its shareholders. In deciding to adopt the merger agreement and approve the transactions contemplated by it, Pinnacle's board of directors considered a number of factors, including, without limitation, the following:

each of Pinnacle's, BNC's, and the combined company's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings, and prospects. In reviewing these factors, the Pinnacle board of directors considered its view that BNC's financial condition and asset quality are sound, that BNC's business and operations complement those of Pinnacle, and that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the bank merger, would result in a combined company with a larger market presence and more diversified loan portfolio than Pinnacle on a standalone basis. The board of directors further considered that BNC's earnings and prospects, and the synergies potentially available in the proposed merger, create the opportunity for the combined company to have superior future earnings and prospects compared to Pinnacle's earnings and prospects on a standalone basis. In particular, the Pinnacle board of directors considered the following:

- i the strategic rationale for the merger, given its potential of creating a premier banking franchise specializing in serving the banking needs of consumers and small and middle market businesses across many of the attractive markets in the Southeast;

Table of Contents

- i potential growth opportunities through the expansion into new and attractive North Carolina and South Carolina markets, including the Greensboro-High Point-Winston Salem Triad area, Raleigh, and Charlotte, North Carolina markets, and the Greenville, South Carolina market;
- i the similarity of the cultures of the two companies, including with respect to strategic focus, client service, credit cultures and risk profiles, which Pinnacle believes should facilitate the successful integration and implementation of the transaction;
- i potential increased income opportunity derived from the ability to expand BNC's commercial lending and treasury management suite of products and to market a larger number of products and services to BNC's customers that are not presently offered;
- i the expanded possibilities, including organic growth and future acquisitions, that would be available to the combined company, given its larger size, asset base, capital, lending capacity and footprint; and
- i the potential enhanced economies of scale resulting in improved efficiencies and risk diversification;

the anticipated pro forma impact of the merger on the combined company, including the expected positive impact on financial metrics including earnings and returns on tangible stockholders' equity;

BNC's reputation throughout the North Carolina banking market and its strong ties to the communities it serves;

the Pinnacle board's understanding of the current and prospective environment in which Pinnacle and BNC operate, including national and local economic conditions, the interest rate environment, increasing operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on Pinnacle both with and without the merger;

the fact that Pinnacle's shareholders will have a chance to vote on the share issuance in connection with the merger;

Pinnacle's past record of integrating acquisitions and of realizing projected financial goals and benefits of acquisitions;

expansion of Pinnacle's operations into a number of high-growth markets previously targeted by Pinnacle's board of directors for expansion;

the ability to further overcome the potential negative impact on Pinnacle's earnings as a result of Pinnacle's assets exceeding $10 billion, including the limit on the amount of debit card interchange fees that Pinnacle Bank is able to charge under the so-called Durbin Amendment under the Dodd-Frank Act, and the increased regulatory burden and cost on Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank of having total assets in excess of $10 billion, including becoming subject to oversight by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, while acknowledging the consequences to Pinnacle of its total assets exceeding $15.0 billion after giving effect to the merger, including the fact that no portion of Pinnacle's and BNC's trust preferred securities would continue to qualify as Tier 1 capital;

the merger is anticipated to enhance the franchise value of Pinnacle, both in the short-run and in the long-run;

Pinnacle's management's review of the business, operations, earnings and financial condition, including capital levels and asset quality, of BNC;

the merger brings to Pinnacle's associate team a number of outstanding, experienced bankers;

the opinion, dated January 22, 2017, of KBW to the Pinnacle board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to Pinnacle of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger, as more fully described below under Opinion of Pinnacle's Financial Advisor; and the expected tax treatment of the mergers, taken together, as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes.

Table of Contents

The Pinnacle board of directors also considered the potential risks related to the merger but concluded that the anticipated benefits of the merger were likely to substantially outweigh these risks. These potential risks include:

the possibility of encountering difficulties in achieving anticipated cost synergies and savings in the amounts estimated or in the time frame contemplated;

the possibility of encountering difficulties in successfully integrating BNC's business, operations, and workforce with those of Pinnacle;

certain anticipated merger-related costs;

the diversion of management attention and resources from the operation of Pinnacle's business towards the completion of the merger;

the size of BNC in relation to Pinnacle;

the geographic distance between Pinnacle's headquarters and the markets in which BNC operates; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the bank merger and the risk that such regulatory approvals will not be received in a timely manner or may impose unacceptable conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Pinnacle board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Pinnacle board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Pinnacle board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of such matters, the Pinnacle board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision, and individual members of the Pinnacle board of directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Pinnacle board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with Pinnacle's management and Pinnacle's legal and financial advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

It should be noted that this explanation of the Pinnacle board's reasoning and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" above.

For the reasons set forth above, the Pinnacle board of directors determined that the merger and the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are in the best interests of Pinnacle and its shareholders, and unanimously recommends that Pinnacle shareholders vote FOR approval of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal and FOR the Pinnacle adjournment proposal.

Opinion of Pinnacle's Financial Advisor

Pinnacle engaged KBW to render financial advisory and investment banking services to Pinnacle, including an opinion to the Pinnacle board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Pinnacle of the exchange ratio in the merger. Pinnacle selected KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

As part of its engagement, representatives of KBW attended the meeting of the Pinnacle board held on January 22, 2017 at which the Pinnacle board evaluated the proposed merger. At this meeting, KBW reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW as set forth in such opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Pinnacle. The Pinnacle board adopted the merger agreement at this meeting.

The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion, which is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference, and describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in preparing the opinion.

KBW's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the Pinnacle board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the merger. The opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio in the merger to Pinnacle. It did not address the underlying business decision of Pinnacle to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement or constitute a recommendation to the Pinnacle board in connection with the merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Pinnacle common stock or any shareholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the merger or any other matter, nor does it constitute a recommendation as to whether or not any such shareholder should enter into a voting, shareholders', affiliates' or other agreement with respect to the merger or exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such shareholder.

KBW's opinion was reviewed and approved by KBW's Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with its policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

In connection with rendering the opinion described above, KBW reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of Pinnacle and BNC and bearing upon the merger, including, among other things:

an execution version of the merger agreement, dated as of January 22, 2017;

the audited financial statements and the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2015 of Pinnacle;

the unaudited quarterly financial statements and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2016, June 30, 2016 and September 30, 2016 of Pinnacle; certain unaudited financial results for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2016 of Pinnacle (contained in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by Pinnacle with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 18, 2017);

the audited financial statements and the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2015 of BNC;

the unaudited quarterly financial statements and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2016, June 30, 2016 and September 30, 2016 of BNC;

Edgar Filing: Skkynet Cloud Systems, Inc. - Form 8-K

certain preliminary draft unaudited financial results for the quarter and fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 of BNC (provided to KBW by representatives of BNC); certain publicly available regulatory filings of Pinnacle and BNC and their respective subsidiaries, including (as applicable) the quarterly reports on Form FRY-9C and quarterly call reports filed by Pinnacle Bank and BNC Bank with respect to each quarter during the three year period ended December 31, 2015 and the quarters ended March 31, 2016, June 30, 2016 and September 30, 2016;

certain other interim reports and other communications of Pinnacle and BNC to their respective shareholders; and other financial information concerning the respective businesses and operations of Pinnacle and BNC furnished to KBW by Pinnacle and BNC or which KBW was otherwise directed to use for purposes of its analysis.

Table of Contents

KBW's consideration of financial information and other factors that it deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to its analyses included, among others, the following:

the historical and current financial position and results of operations of Pinnacle and BNC;

the assets and liabilities of Pinnacle and BNC;

the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry;

a comparison of certain financial and stock market information of Pinnacle and BNC with similar information for certain other companies, the securities of which were publicly traded;

publicly-available First Call consensus street estimates of BNC published by FactSet Research Systems, as well as assumed BNC long term growth rates provided to KBW by Pinnacle management, all of which information was discussed with KBW by such management and used and relied upon by KBW at the direction of such management and with the consent of the Pinnacle board;

publicly available First Call consensus street estimates of Pinnacle published by FactSet Research Systems, as well as assumed Pinnacle long term growth rates provided to KBW by Pinnacle management, all of which information was discussed with KBW by such management and used and relied upon by KBW at the direction of such management and with the consent of the Pinnacle board; and estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the merger on Pinnacle (including without limitation the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the merger and the estimated net proceeds from the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger) that were prepared by Pinnacle management, provided to and discussed with KBW by such management, and used and relied upon by KBW at the direction of such management and with the consent of the Pinnacle board.

KBW also performed such other studies and analyses as it considered appropriate and took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. KBW also participated in discussions that were held by managements of Pinnacle and BNC regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of each of their respective companies and such other matters as KBW deemed relevant to its inquiry.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was provided to it or that was publicly available and did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assume any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. KBW relied upon the management of Pinnacle as to the reasonableness and achievability of the publicly available consensus street estimates of Pinnacle and BNC (and the assumed long-term growth rates of Pinnacle and BNC) referred to above that were provided to or otherwise discussed with KBW by such management, and that in each case KBW was directed by such management to use. KBW further relied upon such management as to the reasonableness and achievability of the estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the merger on Pinnacle (including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the merger and the estimated net proceeds from the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger) referred to above. KBW assumed, at the direction of Pinnacle, that all of the foregoing information was reasonably prepared on bases reflecting, or in the case of the Pinnacle and BNC publicly available street estimates referred to above that such estimates were consistent with, the best currently available estimates and judgments of Pinnacle management, and that the forecasts, projections and estimates reflected in such information would be realized in the amounts and in the time periods estimated. The foregoing financial information of BNC that KBW was directed by Pinnacle management to use reflected differences from the forecasts, projections and estimates that were prepared by BNC and provided to Pinnacle. Accordingly, with the consent of Pinnacle, in rendering its opinion, KBW's reliance upon Pinnacle management as to the reasonableness and achievability of such information included reliance upon the judgments and assessments of Pinnacle and Pinnacle management with respect to such differences.

It is understood that the portion of the foregoing financial information of Pinnacle and BNC that was provided to KBW was not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure, that all of the foregoing financial information, including the publicly available consensus street estimates of Pinnacle and BNC referred to above that KBW was directed to use, was based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and that, accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in all of such information. KBW assumed, based on discussions with the respective managements of Pinnacle and BNC, and with the consent of the Pinnacle board, that all such information provided a reasonable basis upon which KBW could form its opinion and KBW expressed no view as to any such information or the assumptions or bases therefor. KBW relied on all such information without independent verification or analysis and did not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

KBW also assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either Pinnacle or BNC since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to KBW and that KBW was directed to use. KBW is not an expert in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and KBW assumed, without independent verification and with Pinnacle's consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for each of Pinnacle and BNC are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering its opinion, KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Pinnacle or BNC, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor did KBW examine any individual loan or credit files, nor did it evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of Pinnacle or BNC under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, KBW assumed no responsibility or liability for their accuracy.

KBW assumed, in all respects material to its analyses:

the merger would be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement (the final terms of which KBW assumed would not differ in any respect material to its analyses from the execution version of the merger agreement that had been reviewed) with no adjustments to the exchange ratio and with no other consideration or payments in respect of the BNC Common Stock;

that any related transactions (including the bank merger and the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger) would be completed as contemplated by the merger agreement or as otherwise described to KBW by representatives of Pinnacle;

the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement were true and correct;

each party to the merger agreement or any of the related documents would perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions, any necessary regulatory or governmental approval for the merger and any related transaction (including the bank merger and the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger) and that all conditions to the completion of the merger and any related transaction (including the bank merger and the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger) would be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the merger agreement or any of the related documents; and in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger and any related transactions (including the bank merger and the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger), no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of Pinnacle, BNC or the pro forma entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the merger.

KBW assumed that the merger would be consummated in a manner that complied with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. KBW was further advised by representatives of Pinnacle that Pinnacle relied upon advice from its advisors (other than KBW) or other appropriate sources as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to Pinnacle, BNC, the merger and any related transaction (including the bank merger and the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger), and the merger agreement. KBW did not provide advice with respect to any such matters.

KBW's opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date of such opinion, of the exchange ratio in the merger to Pinnacle. KBW expressed no view or opinion as to any other terms or aspects of the merger or any term or aspect of any related transaction (including the bank merger and the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger), including without limitation, the form or structure of the merger or any related transaction, any consequences of the merger to Pinnacle, its shareholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects, merits or implications of any employment, retention, consulting, voting, support, cooperation, shareholder or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the merger, any related transaction, or otherwise. KBW's opinion was necessarily based upon conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on the date of such opinion and the information made available to KBW through such date. Developments subsequent to the date of KBW's opinion may have affected, and may affect, the conclusion reached in KBW's opinion and KBW did not and does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. KBW's opinion did not address, and KBW expressed no view or opinion with respect to:

the underlying business decision of Pinnacle to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement;

the relative merits of the merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that are, have been or may be available to or contemplated by Pinnacle or the Pinnacle board;

any business, operational or other plans with respect to BNC or the pro forma entity that may be currently contemplated by Pinnacle or the Pinnacle board or that may be made by Pinnacle or the Pinnacle board subsequent to the closing of the merger;

the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of Pinnacle's or BNC's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to any compensation to the holders of Pinnacle common stock or BNC common stock or relative to the exchange ratio;

the effect of the merger or any related transaction (including the bank merger and the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger) on, or the fairness of the consideration to be received by, holders of any class of securities of Pinnacle, BNC or any other party to any transaction contemplated by the merger agreement;

the actual value of Pinnacle common stock to be issued in connection with the merger;

the prices, trading range or volume at which Pinnacle common stock or BNC common stock will trade following the public announcement of the merger or the prices, trading range or volume at which Pinnacle common stock will trade following the consummation of the merger;

any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to any of the parties to the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement; or any legal, regulatory, accounting, tax or similar matters relating to Pinnacle, BNC, any of their respective shareholders, or relating to or arising out of or as a consequence of the merger or any other related transaction (including the bank merger and the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger), including whether or not the merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes.

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of KBW, Pinnacle and BNC. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the KBW opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the Pinnacle board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the Pinnacle board with respect to the fairness of the exchange ratio. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between Pinnacle and BNC and the decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the Pinnacle board.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented by KBW to the Pinnacle board in connection with its opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the financial analyses underlying the opinion or the presentation made by KBW to the Pinnacle board, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBW did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, KBW believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion.

For purposes of the financial analyses described below, KBW utilized an implied transaction value for the proposed merger of $1.749 billion, or $33.14 per outstanding share of BNC common stock, based on the 0.5235x exchange ratio in the merger and the closing price of Pinnacle common stock of $63.30 on January 20, 2017. In addition to the financial analyses described below, KBW reviewed with the Pinnacle board for informational purposes, among other things, the implied transaction multiple for the proposed merger of 15.9x BNC's estimated 2018 earnings per share (EPS) taken from consensus street estimates for BNC, based on the implied transaction value for the proposed merger of $33.14 per outstanding share of BNC common stock.

Select Transactions Analysis. KBW reviewed publicly available information related to 12 selected U.S. bank transactions (referred to as the selected transactions) announced since January 1, 2013, with announced deal values greater than $1 billion. Transactions where either the buyer or seller was not a multi-branch bank and terminated transactions were excluded from the selected transactions. The selected transactions were as follows:

Acquiror	Acquired Company	Announcement Date
F.N.B. Corporation	Yadkin Financial Corporation	July 21, 2016
Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce	PrivateBancorp, Inc.	June 29, 2016

Umpqua Holdings Corporation	Sterling Financial Corporation	September 11, 2013
PacWest Bancorp	CapitalSource Inc.	July 22, 2013

For each selected transaction, KBW derived the following implied transaction statistics, in each case based on the transaction consideration value paid for the acquired company and using financial data based on the acquired company's then latest publicly available financial statements and, to the extent publicly available, forward year EPS consensus street estimates prior to the announcement of the respective transaction:

Price per common share to tangible book value per common share of the acquired company (in the case of the one selected transaction involving a private acquired company, this transaction statistic was calculated as total transaction consideration divided by total tangible common equity);

Tangible equity premium (transaction value minus tangible common equity) to core deposits (total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000) of the acquired company, referred to as core deposit premium;

Price per common share to last 12 months (LTM) EPS of the acquired company (in the case of the one selected transaction involving a private acquired company, this transaction statistic was calculated as total transaction consideration divided by LTM net income); and

Price per common share to estimated EPS of the acquired company in the 11 selected transactions in which First Call consensus street estimates for the acquired company were then available from FactSet Research Systems.

KBW also reviewed the price per common share paid for the acquired company for the 11 selected transactions in which the acquired company was publicly traded as a premium/discount to the closing price of the acquired company one day prior to the announcement of the acquisition (expressed as a percentage and referred to as the one-day market premium). The above transaction statistics for the selected transactions were compared with the corresponding transaction statistics for the proposed merger based on the implied transaction value for the proposed merger of $1.749 billion and using preliminary historical financial information for BNC as of or for the 12 months ended December 31, 2016 provided by BNC's management and 2017 EPS consensus street estimates for BNC.

Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies involved.

Relative Contribution Analysis. KBW analyzed the relative standalone contribution of Pinnacle and BNC to various pro forma balance sheet and income statement items of the combined entity. This analysis did not include purchase accounting adjustments or cost savings. To perform this analysis, KBW used (i) balance sheet data for Pinnacle and BNC as of December 31, 2016, (ii) estimated earnings data for Pinnacle and BNC taken from consensus street estimates for Pinnacle and BNC for fiscal 2017 and fiscal 2018 and assumed long term earnings growth rates provided by Pinnacle management and (iii) as indicated below, assumptions relating to the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger provided by Pinnacle management. The results of KBW's analysis are set forth in the following table, which also compares the results of KBW's analysis with the implied pro forma ownership percentages of Pinnacle and BNC shareholders in the combined company based on the 0.5235x exchange ratio in the merger:

Pro Forma Financial Impact Analysis. KBW performed a pro forma financial impact analysis that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of Pinnacle and BNC. Using closing balance sheet estimates as of July 1, 2017 for Pinnacle and BNC provided by Pinnacle management, EPS consensus street estimates for Pinnacle and BNC, assumed long term earnings growth rates provided by Pinnacle management, and pro forma assumptions (including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger, certain accounting adjustments assumed with respect thereto and assumptions relating to the Pinnacle common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger) provided by Pinnacle management, KBW analyzed the estimated financial impact of the merger on certain projected financial results. This analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to Pinnacle's 2018 and 2019 estimated EPS and could also be accretive to Pinnacle's estimated tangible book value per share at closing. Furthermore, the analysis indicated that, pro forma for the merger and the common stock offering undertaken in connection with the merger, Pinnacle's tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio, leverage ratio, common equity Tier 1 ratio, Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio, and total risk-based capital ratio at closing could be higher than on a standalone basis. For all of the above analysis, the actual results achieved by Pinnacle following the merger may vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range for the implied equity value of BNC, taking into account the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger as well as certain accounting adjustments assumed with respect thereto. In this analysis, KBW used estimated earnings data for BNC taken from consensus street estimates for BNC for 2017 and 2018 published by FactSet Research Systems, assumed long term earnings and asset growth rates provided by Pinnacle management, and estimated cost savings and related expenses and accounting adjustments provided by Pinnacle management. KBW assumed discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 12.0%. The ranges of values were derived by adding (i) the present value of the estimated excess cash flows that BNC could generate over the five-year period from 2017 to 2021 and (ii) the present value of BNC's implied terminal value at the end of such period, in each case applying estimated cost savings and related expenses and accounting adjustments. KBW assumed that BNC would maintain a tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio of 8.00% and BNC would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level. In calculating the terminal value of BNC, KBW applied a range of 15.0x to 19.0x estimated 2022 earnings. This discounted cash flow analysis resulted in a range of implied values per share of BNC common stock, taking into account the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger as well as certain accounting adjustments assumed with respect thereto, of $38.61 per share to $52.33 per share.

The discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent on the assumptions that must be made, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values, dividend payout rates and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of BNC.

Miscellaneous. KBW acted as financial advisor to Pinnacle in connection with the proposed merger and did not act as an advisor to or agent of any other person. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, KBW has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of its and their broker-dealer businesses, and further to certain existing sales and trading relationships between Pinnacle and certain KBW affiliates, KBW and its affiliates may from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Pinnacle and BNC, and as a market maker in securities, KBW and its affiliates may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Pinnacle or BNC for its and their own accounts and for the accounts of its and their respective customers and clients. KBW employees and employees of KBW affiliates may also from time to time maintain individual positions in Pinnacle common stock and BNC common stock, which positions currently include an individual position in shares of Pinnacle common stock held by a senior member of the KBW advisory team providing services to Pinnacle in connection with the proposed merger.

Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, Pinnacle agreed to pay KBW a non-refundable cash fee equal to 0.45% of the aggregate merger consideration, which fee is currently estimated to be approximately $8.6 million, $1.5 million of which became payable concurrently with the rendering of KBW's opinion and the balance of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Pinnacle also agreed to reimburse KBW for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify KBW against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of KBW's engagement or KBW's role in connection therewith.

Table of Contents

In addition to this present engagement, in the two years preceding the date of KBW's opinion, KBW from time to time provided other investment banking assistance to Pinnacle for which KBW did not enter into any engagement agreement or receive compensation. In the two years preceding the date of KBW's opinion, KBW provided investment banking and financial advisory services to BNC and received compensation for such services. KBW acted as an underwriter in connection with BNC's registered offering of common stock in July 2016. In connection with the foregoing offering, KBW received fees (including underwriting discounts) of approximately $0.6 million in the aggregate from BNC. KBW may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to Pinnacle, BNC or their respective affiliates and receive compensation for such services.

BNC's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the BNC Board of Directors

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to recommend to its shareholders to approve the merger proposal, the BNC board of directors consulted with BNC management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following factors:

each of BNC's and Pinnacle's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects;

the implied value of the merger consideration based on the 20 trading day average closing price of Pinnacle common stock as of January 20, 2017 of $35.70 for each share of BNC common stock represented approximately a 10.5% premium over the 20 trading day average closing price of BNC common stock as of January 20, 2017 (the last trading day prior to the execution of the merger agreement) and was 2.91 times BNC's tangible book value per share as of December 31, 2016;

the anticipated economies of scale for the combined company;

the anticipated pro forma impact of the merger on the combined company, including the expected impact on financial metrics, including earnings, dividends, return on equity, tangible book value, and regulatory capital levels;

the current and prospective environment in which BNC and Pinnacle operate, including national and local economic conditions, the interest rate environment, the competitive and regulatory environments for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on BNC both with and without the merger;

the historical performance of each of BNC common stock, Pinnacle common stock, Pinnacle common stock's liquidity in terms of average daily trading volume and the level of future cash dividends anticipated to be received by BNC's shareholders upon completion of the merger;

Pinnacle's record of performance over a substantial period of time and throughout various economic cycles, including its earnings record;

publicly available information regarding Pinnacle's regulatory status and the expectation that regulatory approvals for the mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement could be received on a reasonably timely basis;

the expanded possibilities, including organic growth and future acquisitions, that would be available to the combined company, given its larger size, asset base, capital and footprint;

the fact that the merger consideration would be in stock with a fixed exchange ratio, which would allow BNC's shareholders to participate in the future growth and performance of the combined company;

the strategic benefits of the transaction and the synergies and cost savings expected to be achieved by the combined company upon completion of the merger, and potential for BNC's shareholders, as future Pinnacle shareholders, to benefit to the extent of their interest in the combined company from the synergies of the merger and the anticipated pro forma impact of the merger, and the expectation that the merger will be accretive to Pinnacle's earnings per share in 2018;

the complementary nature of the business strategies, customers, cultures and business lines of the two companies, which the BNC board of directors believes should provide the opportunity to mitigate integration risks and increase potential returns, including that:

- i the nature of the business strategies, customers and geographic areas of the two companies would enable the combined company to achieve goals BNC would have independently attempted to pursue in connection with its strategic plan (including greater cross-selling opportunities based on complementary product sets);
- i the fact that there is no overlap with respect to the geographic footprint of Pinnacle and BNC; and

Pinnacle's record of service to its communities as exemplified by its Outstanding Community Reinvestment Act examination rating;

the review undertaken by the BNC board of directors and management, with the assistance of financial and legal advisors, with respect to the strategic alternatives available to BNC, including:

- i the likelihood of an alternative transaction;
- i the value of BNC as an independent company;
- i the capital and earnings available to BNC as an independent company, at the time and as expected in the future, to pursue various business and strategic initiatives; and i

the challenges facing BNC as an independent institution, including challenges associated with approaching the $10 billion asset threshold under the Dodd Frank Act, and the BNC board of directors belief that combining with a larger financial institution would benefit BNC's shareholders, customers and communities;

the terms of the merger agreement that restrict BNC's ability to solicit alternative transactions, and the fact that the merger agreement provides that BNC may take certain actions in response to an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal under specific circumstances, in the event that the BNC board of directors makes a good faith determination (in accordance with the merger agreement and after consultation with BNC's outside legal counsel and financial advisor) that the failure to take such actions would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, the possibility that BNC could be required to pay a termination fee under certain circumstances, and the fact that BNC's shareholders will have an opportunity to vote on the merger and that their approval is a condition to completion of the merger;

the anticipated continued participation of certain of BNC's directors, officers and employees in the combined company, which enhances the likelihood that the strategic benefits that BNC expects to achieve as a result of the merger will be realized and that the benefits and talents that BNC brings to the combined company will be appropriately valued and effectively utilized;

Pinnacle's commitment in the merger agreement to maintain certain standards of compensation and benefits (including equity based awards) to continuing BNC employees for up to one year following the effective time; and the social and economic effects of the mergers on BNC's depositors, borrowers, other customers, employees and creditors, and on the communities in which BNC and BNC Bank operate or are located.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the BNC board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the BNC board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the BNC board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The BNC board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with BNC's management and BNC's financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the BNC board of directors is forward-looking in nature. This information should be read in light of the factors described under the section entitled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

For the reasons set forth above, the BNC board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of BNC and its shareholders, and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The BNC board of directors unanimously recommends that BNC's shareholders vote FOR the BNC merger proposal, FOR the BNC compensation proposal and FOR the BNC adjournment proposal, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies.

Opinions of BNC's Financial Advisors

BNC Bancorp retained Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities to act as financial advisors to BNC's board of directors in connection with BNC's consideration of a possible business combination. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. BSP Securities is a leading investment banking firm focused on the financial services sector and one of the most active investment banking firms in this sector in the Greater Southern U.S. In the ordinary course of their investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities are regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities acted as financial advisors in connection with the proposed transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the January 22, 2017 meeting at which BNC's board of directors considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities each delivered to BNC's board of directors their respective oral opinion, which opinions were each subsequently confirmed in writing on January 22, 2017, to the effect that, as of such date, the exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of BNC common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion and BSP Securities' opinion are attached as Annex C and Annex D, respectively, to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The opinions outline the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities in rendering their respective opinions. The description of the opinions set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each respective opinion. Holders of BNC common stock are urged to read both the Sandler O'Neill opinion and the BSP Securities opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to BNC's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger agreement and the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of BNC as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger agreement and the merger. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to the holders of BNC common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of BNC to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or any other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for BNC or the effect of any other transaction in which BNC might engage. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by any officer, director or employee of BNC or Pinnacle, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other shareholder, including the exchange ratio to be received by the holders of BNC common stock. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

a draft of the merger agreement, dated January 22, 2017;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of BNC that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

Sandler O Neill also discussed with certain members of the senior management of BNC the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of BNC and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of Pinnacle regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Pinnacle.

In performing its review, Sandler O Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by Sandler O Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O Neill by BNC or Pinnacle or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O Neill, and Sandler O Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler O Neill relied on the assurances of the respective managements of BNC and Pinnacle that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would have made any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler O Neill did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O Neill did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of BNC or Pinnacle or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was Sandler O Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O Neill rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of BNC or Pinnacle. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of BNC or Pinnacle, or of the combined entity after the merger, and Sandler O'Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to BNC or Pinnacle. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with BNC's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both BNC and Pinnacle were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for BNC for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings growth rate and dividends per share for BNC for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of BNC. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information was based. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of BNC or Pinnacle since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to Sandler O'Neill's analysis that BNC and Pinnacle would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to Sandler O'Neill's analysis.

Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting or tax matters relating to the merger or any other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date of its opinion. In giving its opinion, BSP Securities assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was provided to BSP Securities by Pinnacle and BNC, and their representatives, and of the publicly available information for Pinnacle and BNC that BSP Securities reviewed. BSP Securities is not an expert in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and did not independently verify such allowances, and relied on and assumed that the aggregate allowances for loan losses set forth in the balance sheet of BNC at September 30, 2016 were adequate to cover such losses and complied fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practice as of the date of such financial statements. BSP Securities was not retained to, nor did it conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of BNC, did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, liabilities or prospects of BNC, was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal, and did not review any individual credit files. The opinion of BSP Securities was necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date thereof. BSP Securities expressed no opinion on matters of a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting nature or the ability of the merger, as set forth in the merger agreement, to be consummated. No opinion was expressed as to whether any alternative transaction might be more favorable to holders of BNC common stock, than the merger.

With respect to analysts' consensus estimates for future earnings of BNC used by BSP Securities in its analyses, management of BNC confirmed that those estimates were consistent with the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of BNC. BSP Securities assumed that the financial performance reflected in all estimates used by BSP Securities in its analyses would be achieved. BSP Securities expressed no opinion as to such financial estimates or the assumptions on which they were based. BSP Securities also assumed that there was no material change in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of BNC or Pinnacle since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to BSP Securities, other than those changes which may have been provided by senior management of BNC and Pinnacle. BSP Securities assumed in all respects material to its analyses that BNC and Pinnacle will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to BSP Securities' analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and all related agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each party to the merger agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the merger agreement in all material respects and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement are not waived in any material respect.

BSP Securities' opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to be paid by Pinnacle to holders of BNC common stock in the merger and does not address BNC's underlying business decision to proceed with the merger. BSP Securities was retained on behalf of the board of directors of BNC, and BSP Securities' opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any director of BNC as to how such director should vote with respect to the merger agreement. In rendering the opinion, BSP Securities expresses no opinions in respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of BNC, or any class of such persons relative to the exchange ratio to be received by the holders of BNC common stock in the merger or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation.

Financial Analyses of BNC Bancorp's Financial Advisors

In rendering their respective opinions, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's and BSP Securities' opinions or the joint presentation made by Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities to BNC's board of directors on January 22, 2017, but is a summary of the material analyses performed and jointly presented by Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities to BNC's board of directors on January 22, 2017. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities believe that their analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying their respective opinions. Also, no company included in the comparative analyses described below is identical to BNC or Pinnacle and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of BNC and Pinnacle and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at their respective opinions, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that they considered. Rather, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support their respective opinions, rather, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities made their independent determinations as to the fairness of the exchange ratio on the basis of their respective experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of the analyses taken as a whole.

In performing their analyses, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which are beyond the control of BNC, Pinnacle, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities prepared their analyses solely for purposes of rendering their respective opinions and jointly presented such analyses to BNC's board of directors at its January 22, 2017 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's and BSP Securities' analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of BNC common stock or the prices at which BNC common stock or Pinnacle common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities and their respective opinions were among a number of factors taken into consideration by BNC's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and should not be viewed as determinative of the exchange ratio or the decision of BNC's board of directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger.

Net Present Value Analyses. Sandler O Neill and BSP Securities performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of BNC common stock assuming BNC performed in accordance with publicly available mean analyst earnings per share estimates for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018 and an estimated long-term annual earnings growth rate and dividends per share for BNC for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of BNC. To approximate the terminal value of a share of BNC common stock at December 31, 2020, Sandler O Neill and BSP Securities applied price to 2020 estimated earnings per share multiples ranging from 19.0x to 24.0x and price to estimated December 31, 2020 tangible book value per share multiples ranging from 230% to 280%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 13.0% which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of BNC common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of BNC common stock of $29.03 to $40.64 when applying multiples of earnings per share and $29.71 to $40.11 when applying multiples of tangible book value per share.

To illustrate this impact, Sandler O Neill and BSP Securities performed a similar analysis assuming BNC's net income varied from 15% above estimates to 15% below the estimates utilized in the immediately preceding table. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for BNC common stock, applying the price to estimated 2020 earnings per share multiples range of 19.0x to 24.0x referred to above and a discount rate of 10.89%. As illustrated in the following table, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of BNC common stock of $26.69 to $45.18 when applying multiples of earnings per share.

Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities noted for the BNC board of directors that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming the merger closes at the end of the second calendar quarter of 2017. In performing this analysis, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities utilized the following information and assumptions: (i) publicly available mean analyst earnings per share estimates for BNC and Pinnacle for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018 and estimated long-term annual earnings growth rates and dividends per share for BNC and Pinnacle for the years thereafter, as provided by the respective senior managements of BNC and Pinnacle; (ii) the anticipated regulatory impact of the merger on Pinnacle, as provided by the senior management of Pinnacle; (iii) the offer and sale by Pinnacle of a certain amount of common stock in connection with the merger, as provided by the senior management of Pinnacle; and (iv) certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of Pinnacle. The analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to Pinnacle's earnings per share (excluding one-time transaction costs and expenses) in the years ending December 31, 2017, December 31, 2018, and December 31, 2019 and accretive to Pinnacle's estimated tangible book value per share at close and accretive to Pinnacle's estimated tangible book value per share at December 31, 2017, December 31, 2018, and December 31, 2019.

In connection with this analysis, Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities considered and discussed with the BNC board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Certain Unaudited Prospective Financial Information of BNC

BNC does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance due to, among other reasons, the inherent difficulty of accurately predicting financial performance for future periods and the uncertainty of underlying assumptions and estimates. However, BNC is including in this joint proxy statement/prospectus certain limited unaudited financial information for BNC on a standalone basis, without giving effect to the mergers or the bank merger, which was discussed with Sandler O'Neill, BSP Securities, Pinnacle and KBW in connection with the merger.

The following table presents unaudited prospective financial information of BNC provided to Sandler O'Neill and BSP Securities, and, in the case of the earnings per share information, to Pinnacle and KBW and discussed by BNC management with each such party. The earnings per share information consists of IBES consensus estimates of earnings per share for calendar years 2017 and 2018, and BNC management approved extrapolation for calendar years 2019 and 2020 based on an assumed 8.0% long-term earnings per share growth rate.

In light of the foregoing, and considering that the Pinnacle and BNC special meetings will be held several months after the unaudited prospective financial information was prepared, as well as the uncertainties inherent in any forecasted information, Pinnacle shareholders and BNC shareholders are cautioned not to place unwarranted reliance on such information, and Pinnacle shareholders and BNC shareholders are urged to review BNC's most recent SEC filings for a description of BNC's reported financial results and the financial statements of BNC included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Table of ContentsInterests of BNC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the BNC board of directors, BNC shareholders should be aware that the directors and executive officers of BNC have certain interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of BNC shareholders generally. The BNC board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in making its recommendation that BNC shareholders vote to approve the merger proposal. These interests are described in further detail below.

Treatment of BNC Equity-Based Awards

BNC Options. At the effective time, each outstanding option to purchase shares of BNC common stock issued pursuant to BNC's equity-based compensation plans, whether vested or unvested, will become fully vested and cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of (x) the Pinnacle share closing price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (y) the exercise price of each such option and (ii) the number of shares of BNC common stock subject to each such option to the extent not previously exercised.

BNC Restricted Stock Awards and BNC RSU Awards. At the effective time, each outstanding BNC RSU award granted under BNC's equity-based compensation plans and each outstanding BNC restricted stock award granted under BNC's equity-based compensation plans prior to December 31, 2016 will fully vest and be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of BNC common stock underlying each such award.

At the effective time, each outstanding BNC restricted stock award granted on or after December 31, 2016 will be converted into a restricted stock award relating to shares of Pinnacle common stock, with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such award, and relating to the number of shares of Pinnacle common stock, determined by multiplying (i) the number of shares of BNC common stock subject to such BNC restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time by (ii) the exchange ratio.

For an estimate of the amounts that would become payable to each of BNC's named executive officers upon the vesting and settlement of their unvested equity-based awards, see "Quantification of Payments and Benefits to BNC's Named Executive Officers" below. BNC estimates that the aggregate amount that would become payable to its 15 non-employee directors in settlement of their unvested equity-based awards if the effective time of the merger were March 15, 2017, and based on a price per share of BNC common stock of $35.66 (the average closing price of shares of BNC common stock on the five business days following the announcement of the merger), is $3,209,400.

Pinnacle Employment ArrangementsEmployment Agreement with Richard D. Callicutt

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank entered into an employment agreement with Richard D. Callicutt, which would supersede his existing employment agreement with BNC upon the effective time of the merger. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Callicutt would serve as Chairman of the Carolinas and Virginia for Pinnacle Bank for an initial term ending on December 31 of the year in which the third anniversary of the closing of the merger occurs and would receive a base salary of $630,000 per year and a target annual bonus opportunity of no less than 75% of his base salary.

In settlement of Mr. Callicutt's benefits under his employment agreement with BNC, he would be entitled to an initial cash payment of $1,996,667 upon the closing of the merger and, upon his termination of employment from Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank, an additional cash payment of $763,333, which would either be paid in a lump sum (if the termination of employment occurred within two years following the effective time of the merger) or in ten monthly installments (if the termination of employment occurred later).

If Mr. Callicutt's employment were terminated by Pinnacle without cause or by Mr. Callicutt for cause during the term of the employment agreement (and not within 12 months following a change in control of Pinnacle), he would be entitled to severance benefits in the form of (a) base salary continuation for three years following termination (in the event of termination by Pinnacle without cause) or two years following termination (in the event of termination by Mr. Callicutt for cause), (b) reimbursement of health insurance premiums for himself and his immediate family for 12 months following termination (in the event of termination by Pinnacle without cause) or three months following termination (in the event of termination by Mr. Callicutt for cause) and (c) vesting of any unvested restricted stock awards granted prior to the effective time of the merger.

If Mr. Callicutt's employment were terminated by Pinnacle without cause or by Mr. Callicutt for cause during the term of the employment agreement and within 12 months following a change in control of Pinnacle, he would be entitled to severance benefits, in lieu of those described in the immediately preceding paragraph, in the form of (a) a lump sum severance payment on the last day of the month following the month of termination equal to the product of (i) three multiplied by (ii) his base salary and target annual bonus, (b) health insurance benefits for himself and his immediate family for three years following termination, (c) vesting of any unvested restricted stock awards granted prior to the effective time of the merger and (d) tax assistance of up to $2,500 annually for three years following termination.

The employment agreement provides that, if the compensation and benefits payable thereunder would be subject to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, such amounts would be reduced to the extent such reduction would put Mr. Callicutt in a better after-tax position.

The employment agreement contains noncompetition and nonsolicitation of clients or employees covenants that apply for three years following Mr. Callicutt's termination of employment and incorporates the covenants concerning noncompetition and nonsolicitation of clients or employees from Mr. Callicutt's employment agreement with BNC, which apply for three years following his termination of employment.

Change of Control and Severance Agreement with David B. Spencer

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank entered into a change of control and severance agreement with David B. Spencer, which would supersede his existing employment agreement with BNC upon the effective time of the merger.

In settlement of Mr. Spencer's benefits under his employment agreement with BNC, he would be entitled to an initial cash payment of $1,667,611 upon the closing of the merger and, upon his termination of employment, an additional cash payment of $468,915, which would either be paid in a lump sum (if the termination of employment occurred within two years following the effective time of the merger) or in eight monthly installments (if the termination of employment occurred later).

If Mr. Spencer's employment were terminated by Pinnacle without cause or by Mr. Spencer for cause prior to December 31 of the year in which the third anniversary of the closing of the merger occurs (and not within 12 months following a change in control of Pinnacle), he would be entitled to severance benefits in the form of (a) base salary continuation for one year following termination, (b) reimbursement of health insurance premiums for himself and his immediate family for 12 months following termination and (c) vesting of any unvested restricted stock awards granted prior to the effective time of the merger.

If Mr. Spencer's employment were terminated by Pinnacle without cause or by Mr. Spencer for cause during the term of the change of control and severance agreement and within 12 months following a change in control of Pinnacle, he would be entitled to severance benefits, in lieu of those described in the immediately preceding paragraph, in the form of (a) a lump sum severance payment on the last day of the month following the month of termination equal to the product of (i) two multiplied by (ii) his base salary and target annual bonus, (b) health insurance benefits for himself and his immediate family for two years following termination, (c) vesting of any unvested restricted stock awards granted prior to the effective time of the merger, and (d) tax assistance of up to $2,500 annually for two years following termination.

The agreement provides that, if the compensation and benefits payable thereunder would be subject to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, such amounts would be reduced to the extent such reduction would put Mr. Spencer in a better after-tax position.

The agreement contains covenants regarding noncompetition and nonsolicitation of clients and employees that apply for two years following Mr. Spencer's termination of employment (if he is entitled to severance benefits under the agreement) or one year following Mr. Spencer's termination of employment (if he is not entitled to severance benefits).

Superseded BNC Employment Agreements

As noted above, each of Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer is party to an existing employment agreement with BNC, which would be superseded upon the effective time of the merger by the applicable executive's new employment agreement (in the case of Mr. Callicutt) or change of control and severance agreement (in the case of Mr. Spencer) with Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank.

Under the superseded BNC employment agreements, if the applicable executive's employment were terminated involuntarily without cause or by the executive for good reason within two years following a change in control (such as the merger), subject to the execution of a release of claims, the executive would be entitled to severance benefits in the form of (a) a lump sum severance payment within 30 days following the date of termination equal to the product of (i) three multiplied by (ii) his base salary and target annual bonus, (b) an annual bonus for the year of termination, prorated based on the number of days elapsed in the year as of the date of termination, (c) continuation of medical, dental and life insurance benefits for three years following termination as if the executive remained an active employee, (d) full vesting of any unvested equity awards and (e) up to $25,000 in outplacement benefits and use of office space and reasonable office support facilities, including secretarial assistance for one year following the date of termination.

Each superseded BNC employment agreement provides that, if the compensation and benefits payable thereunder would be subject to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, such amounts would be reduced to the extent such reduction would put the applicable executive in a better after-tax position.

Each superseded BNC employment agreement contains covenants concerning noncompetition and nonsolicitation of clients or employees that apply for 15 months following the applicable executive's termination of employment.

BNC Change in Control Severance Agreement with Ronald J. Gorczynski

BNC is party to a change in control severance agreement with Ronald J. Gorczynski, which provides severance benefits upon a qualifying termination of employment. If Mr. Gorczynski's employment were terminated without cause or for good reason within six months prior to, or 24 months following, a change in control of BNC (such as the merger), subject to his execution of a release of claims, he would be entitled to (a) a cash severance payment equal to 24 months of his annual base salary, which severance payment is payable in a lump sum within 60 days following the date of termination, (b) full vesting of any unvested equity awards; and (c) reimbursement of health insurance premiums for up to 12 months following termination.

Salary Continuation Agreements

BNC and each of Messrs. Callicutt, Spencer and Gorczynski are party to salary continuation agreements, which are nonqualified deferred compensation retirement arrangements. Upon a change in control (such as the merger), benefits under the salary continuation agreements would fully vest. Benefits payable to Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer under the salary continuation agreements executed in 2007 would be payable in a lump sum within three days of a change in control, while benefits payable to Messrs. Callicutt, Spencer and

Gorczynski under salary continuation agreements executed in 2016 would be payable in equal monthly installments commencing in the month after the month in which the applicable executive attains age 65 and would continue for the executive's lifetime.

Endorsement Split Dollar Agreement

BNC and Mr. Gorczynski are party to an endorsement split dollar agreement, which provides that, in the event of Mr. Gorczynski's death before the earlier of his separation from service and the date he attains age 65, his designated beneficiaries would be entitled to the lesser of (x) $886,275 and (y) 100% of the total death proceeds payable under the life insurance policy or policies on his life minus the cash surrender value. If a change in control (such as the merger) occurs before Mr. Gorczynski's separation from service and he dies before attaining age 65, his beneficiary would be entitled to the benefits contemplated by the foregoing sentence whether he dies before or after separation from service.

Post-Closing Roles

As noted above, upon the effective time of the merger, Mr. Callicutt would be appointed Chairman of the Carolinas and Virginia for Pinnacle Bank, and Mr. Spencer has executed an agreement to continue with Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank following the effective time. In addition, upon or immediately following the effective time of the merger, Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank would elect Mr. Callicutt and three additional members of the board of directors of BNC (currently expected to be Abney S. Boxley III, Thomas R. Sloan and G. Kennedy Thompson) to the boards of directors of Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, from and after the effective time, the surviving corporation would indemnify certain persons, including BNC's directors and executive officers. In addition, the merger agreement requires that for a period of six years from the effective time, subject to a cap on the amount of premiums, Pinnacle would maintain an insurance policy for the benefit of certain persons, including BNC's directors and executive officers. For additional information, see The Merger Agreement Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance.

Quantification of Potential Payments to BNC's Named Executive Officers in Connection with the Merger

The information set forth in the table below is intended to comply with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, which requires disclosure of information about certain compensation for each of BNC's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger and assumes, among other things, that each of BNC's named executive officers is terminated without cause immediately following the effective time of the merger. As described under the caption Interests of BNC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger above, Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank have entered into new employment arrangements with each of Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer that would become effective upon the closing of the merger. The merger-related compensation described below is based on the named executive officers existing employment arrangements with BNC, which would be superseded upon the effective time of the merger. It does not include amounts payable to Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer under their new employment arrangements with Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank following the closing of the merger. For additional details regarding the terms of the payments described below as well as the new employment arrangements among Pinnacle, Pinnacle Bank and Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer, see the discussion under the caption Interests of BNC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger above.

Edgar Filing: Skkynet Cloud Systems, Inc. - Form 8-K

The amounts indicated below are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur or be accurate on the relevant date, including assumptions described below, and do not reflect certain compensation actions that may occur before the effective time of the merger. For purposes of calculating such amounts, in addition to the assumptions described in the footnotes to the table below, we have assumed:

March 15, 2017 as the closing date of the merger; and a severance-qualifying termination of each named executive officer's employment immediately following the effective time of the merger.

Name	Cash ($) ⁽¹⁾	Equity ($) ⁽²⁾	Pension/ NQDC ($) ⁽³⁾	Perquisites/ Benefits ($) ⁽⁴⁾	Total ($)
Named Executive Officers
Richard D. Callicutt	2,829,946	11,268,560	3,678,874	72,464	17,849,844
David B. Spencer	2,186,233	8,094,820	2,763,055	69,839	13,113,947
Ronald J. Gorczynski	601,440	356,636	835,342	41,482	1,834,900

(1) The cash amount payable to the named executive officers consists of the following components:

- (a) Cash severance in the form of (i) for Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer, a lump sum severance payment within 30 days following the date of termination equal to the product of (A) three multiplied by (B) the applicable executive's base salary as of March 15, 2017 and target annual bonus for the year ending December 31, 2017 and (ii) for Mr. Gorczynski, a lump sum payment equal to 24 months of base salary as of March 15, 2017. The cash severance is contingent upon a qualifying termination of employment (i.e., double-trigger) and the execution of a release of claims.
- (b) In the case of Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer, an annual bonus for the year of termination, prorated based on the number of days elapsed in the year as of the date of termination. The prorated annual bonus is contingent upon a qualifying termination of employment (i.e., double-trigger) and the execution of a release of claims. Set forth below is the estimated value of each component of the aggregate cash amount.

Name	Severance Payment ($)	Prorated Bonus ($)
Named Executive Officers
Richard D. Callicutt	2,760,000	69,946
David B. Spencer	2,136,526	49,707
Ronald J. Gorczynski	601,440

As described under the caption Interests of BNC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger above, upon the effective time of the merger, the employment agreements between BNC and each of Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer would be superseded and each executive would become entitled to aggregate cash payments of $2,760,000 (for Mr. Callicutt) and $2,136,526 (for Mr. Spencer) in consideration for waiving their entitlements under their employment agreements with BNC.

Table of Contents

- (2) As of the effective time of the merger, all equity-based awards that were granted prior to December 31, 2016 would vest automatically (i.e., single-trigger) and be settled for the merger consideration (or, in the case of stock options, a cash amount approximately equal to the value of the merger consideration less the applicable exercise price). All restricted stock awards granted on or after December 31, 2016 and prior to the effective time of the merger would convert, as of the effective time of the merger, into restricted stock awards with respect to the common stock of Pinnacle (with the number of shares subject to such awards adjusted by the exchange ratio), which awards would be subject to full vesting upon a qualifying termination of employment following the effective time of the merger (i.e., double-trigger). This table assumes a price per share of BNC common stock of $35.66 (the average closing price of shares of BNC common stock on the five business days following the announcement of the merger). Set forth below is the estimated value of each type of unvested BNC equity-based award held by the named executive officers that would become vested upon the effective time of the merger. None of the named executive officers hold unvested stock options.

Name	Single-Trigger Awards		Double-Trigger Awards
	Restricted Stock ($)	Restricted Stock Units ($)	Restricted Stock ($)
Named Executive Officers
Richard D. Callicutt	6,561,440		4,707,120
David B. Spencer	4,564,480		3,530,340
Ronald J. Gorczynski		356,636

- (3) The amounts above reflect the value of benefits that would vest automatically (i.e., single-trigger) upon the closing of the merger under the salary continuation agreements between BNC and each of Messrs. Callicutt, Spencer and Gorczynski. Benefits payable to Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer under the salary continuation agreements executed in 2007 would be payable in a lump sum within three days of a change in control, while benefits payable to Messrs. Callicutt, Spencer and Gorczynski under the salary continuation agreements executed in 2016 would be payable in equal monthly installments commencing in the month after the month in which the applicable executive attains age 65 and would continue for the executive's lifetime.
- (4) The amounts above reflect the value of (a) for Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer under their employment agreements with BNC, (i) continuation of medical, dental and life insurance benefits for three years following termination as if the applicable executive remained an active employee, and (ii) up to $25,000 in outplacement benefits and use of office space and reasonable office support facilities, including secretarial assistance and (b) for Mr. Gorczynski, (i) reimbursement of health insurance premiums for 12 months following termination, and (ii) continuation of his life insurance benefits under his endorsement split dollar agreement until attaining age 65 (which BNC estimates to have a cost of approximately $29,000). As described under the caption Interests of BNC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger above, upon the effective time of the merger, the employment agreements between BNC and each of Messrs. Callicutt and Spencer would be superseded.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase, as that term is used under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for accounting and financial reporting purposes. BNC will be treated as the acquired corporation for accounting and financial reporting purposes. BNC's assets and liabilities will be adjusted to their estimated fair value on the closing date of the merger and combined with the historical book values of the assets and liabilities of Pinnacle. Applicable income tax effects of these adjustments will be included as a component of the combined company's deferred tax assets or liabilities. The difference between the estimated fair value of the assets (including separately identifiable intangible assets, such as core deposit intangibles) and liabilities and the purchase price will be recorded as goodwill.

Table of ContentsPinnacle's Dividend Policy

No assurances can be given that any dividends will be paid by Pinnacle or that dividends, if paid, will not be reduced in future periods. The principal source of Pinnacle's cash flow, including cash flow to holders of its subordinated debentures and subordinated notes, including the BNC subordinated debentures and subordinated notes being assumed by Pinnacle in the merger, and any dividends payable to shareholders, are dividends that Pinnacle Bank pays to Pinnacle as its sole shareholder. The ability of Pinnacle Bank to pay dividends, as well as Pinnacle's ability to pay dividends to its shareholders, will continue to be subject to and limited by the results of operations of Pinnacle Bank and by certain legal and regulatory restrictions.

Pinnacle's board of directors may change its dividend policy at any time. For further information on Pinnacle's dividend history and restrictions on Pinnacle's and Pinnacle Bank's ability to pay dividends, see "Comparative Per Share Market Price and Dividend Information" beginning on page 31, "Supervision and Regulation" Payment of Dividends appearing in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and the Risk Factor entitled "Our ability to declare and pay dividends is limited" in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, which is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 150.

Public Trading Markets

Pinnacle common stock is listed for trading on the NASDAQ under the symbol "PNFP", and BNC common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol "BNCN". Upon completion of the merger, BNC common stock will no longer be quoted on the NASDAQ. Following the merger, shares of Pinnacle common stock will continue to be traded on the NASDAQ.

Under the merger agreement, Pinnacle will cause the shares of Pinnacle common stock to be issued in connection with the merger, including with respect to BNC options, BNC restricted stock and BNC restricted stock units (collectively, "BNC equity awards"), to be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

Dissenters' Rights in the Merger

Under the NCBCA, dissenters' rights are not available to holders of shares of any class or series of shares that are traded in an organized market and has at least 2,000 shareholders and a market value of at least $20,000,000. Because BNC common stock is traded on the NASDAQ, an organized market, and has at least 2,000 shareholders and a market value of at least $20,000,000, BNC shareholders do not have the right to dissent from the merger agreement and seek an appraisal in connection with the merger.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Pinnacle is registered as a financial holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (which we refer to as the "BHC Act"), and supervised and regulated by the Federal Reserve Board. BNC is registered as a bank holding company under the BHC Act and supervised and regulated by the Federal Reserve Board. Pinnacle Bank is primarily supervised and regulated by the FDIC and TDFI. BNC Bank is primarily supervised and regulated by the FDIC and NCCOB.

Completion of the merger is subject to prior receipt of certain approvals and consents required to be obtained from applicable governmental and regulatory authorities. Subject to the terms of the merger agreement, Pinnacle and BNC have agreed to cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file and cause their applicable subsidiaries to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings to obtain as promptly as practicable all regulatory approvals reasonably necessary or advisable to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

These approvals include, among others, approval from the Federal Reserve Board, the FDIC, the TDFI and the NCCOB. On February 10, 2017, Pinnacle filed applications and notifications to obtain regulatory approvals from the Federal Reserve Board, the TDFI and the NCCOB. Pinnacle Bank filed applications and notifications on the same day to obtain regulatory approvals from the FDIC, the TDFI and the NCCOB.

Federal Reserve Board

Certain of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to the BHC Act. On February 10, 2017, Pinnacle submitted an application to the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta pursuant to section 3(a)(5) of the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. § 1842(a)(5)) and section 225.15 of Regulation Y (12 C.F.R. § 225.15), seeking the prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board for Pinnacle to acquire BNC and thereby also indirectly acquire BNC Bank. The Federal Reserve Board takes into consideration a number of factors when acting on applications under section 3 of the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. § 1842(c)) and section 225.13 of Regulation Y (12 C.F.R. § 225.13). These factors include the financial condition of the bank holding companies and banks involved and the future prospects of the combined organization (including consideration of the current and projected capital positions and the levels of indebtedness) and the managerial resources (including the competence, experience, and integrity of the officers, directors, and principal shareholders, as well as their record of compliance with laws and regulations). The Federal Reserve Board also considers the effectiveness of the applicant in combatting money laundering, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, as well as the extent to which the proposal would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system. The Federal Reserve Board may not approve a proposal that would have significant adverse effects on competition or on the concentration of resources in any banking market.

FDIC

Certain of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the bank merger agreement, including the bank merger, are also subject to approval by the FDIC. On February 10, 2017, Pinnacle Bank filed an application with the FDIC pursuant to the Bank Merger Act (12 U.S.C. § 1828(c)) and FDIC regulations (12 C.F.R. § 303.60, et. seq.), for prior approval for BNC Bank to merge with and into Pinnacle Bank and to retain and operate the main office and branches of BNC Bank as branch offices of Pinnacle Bank. The FDIC takes into consideration a number of factors when acting on applications under the Bank Merger Act and its regulations (12 C.F.R. § 303.60, et. seq.). These factors include the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and combined banks. The FDIC also considers the effectiveness of the applicant in combatting money laundering, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, as well as the extent to which the proposal would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system. The FDIC may not approve a proposal that would have significant adverse effects on competition or on the concentration of resources in any banking market.

As required by the Community Reinvestment Act (the CRA) and in reviewing the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, the Federal Reserve Board and the FDIC will consider the records of performance of the relevant insured depository institutions under the CRA. In their most recent respective CRA performance evaluations, Pinnacle Bank received an overall outstanding regulatory rating and BNC Bank received an overall satisfactory regulatory rating.

State Regulatory Approval

To complete the merger and the bank merger, Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank are required to submit an application to, and receive approval from, the TDFI and the NCCOB. Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank filed their applications with the TDFI and the NCCOB on February 10, 2017. The TDFI and the NCCOB will review the applications to determine whether each of the merger and the bank merger complies with Tennessee law and North Carolina law, respectively, including deposit concentration limitations. In addition, Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank are required to provide the TDFI and the NCCOB with satisfactory evidence that the bank merger complies with applicable requirements under Tennessee and North Carolina law, respectively.

Public Notice and Comments

Furthermore, the BHC Act, the Bank Merger Act, the Tennessee Banking Act and the North Carolina Banking Act and applicable regulations require published notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, these applications, and authorize the Federal Reserve Board, the FDIC, the TDFI and the NCCOB to hold a public hearing or meeting if any such agency determines that a hearing or meeting would be appropriate. The Federal Reserve Board, the FDIC, the TDFI and the NCCOB take into account the views of third party commenters, particularly on the subject of the merging parties' CRA performance and record of service to their respective communities, and any hearing, meeting or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the applications are under review by these agencies.

Waiting Periods

In addition to the Federal Reserve Board, the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (which we refer to as the DOJ) conducts a concurrent competitive review of the merger to analyze the merger's competitive effects and determine whether the merger would result in a violation of the antitrust laws. Transactions approved under section 3 of the BHC Act or the Bank Merger Act generally may not be completed until 30 days after the approval of the applicable federal agency is received, during which time the DOJ may challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the applicable federal agency and the concurrence of the DOJ, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of such an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. In reviewing the merger, the DOJ could analyze the merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Reserve Board or the FDIC, and thus it is possible that the DOJ could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve Board or the FDIC regarding the merger's effects on competition. A determination by the DOJ not to object to the merger may not prevent the filing of antitrust actions by private persons or state attorneys general.

There can be no assurance if and when DOJ clearance will be obtained, or as to the conditions or limitations that such DOJ approval may contain or impose.

Additional Regulatory Approvals and Notices

Notifications and/or applications requesting approval may be submitted to various other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations.

Pinnacle and BNC currently believe that the merger does not raise substantial antitrust or other significant regulatory concerns and that we will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals. However, neither Pinnacle nor BNC can assure you that all of the regulatory approvals described above will be obtained and, if obtained, we cannot assure you as to the timing of any such approvals, our ability to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms or the absence of any litigation challenging such approvals. In addition, there can be no assurance that such approvals will not impose terms, conditions or restrictions that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, assets or business of Pinnacle and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the mergers and the bank merger. There can likewise be no assurances that U.S. federal or state regulatory authorities will not attempt to challenge the merger, or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result of such challenge.

Neither Pinnacle nor BNC is aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the merger other than those described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any such additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Table of ContentsTHE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes certain aspects of the merger, including certain material provisions of the merger agreement. The following description of the merger agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the merger.

Explanatory Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement and this summary of terms are included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. Factual disclosures about Pinnacle and BNC contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or in the public reports of Pinnacle and BNC filed with the SEC may supplement, update or modify the factual disclosures about Pinnacle and BNC contained in the merger agreement. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties by Pinnacle and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and by BNC, on the other hand. The representations and warranties and covenants made in the merger agreement by Pinnacle, Merger Sub and BNC have been made solely for the benefit of the other party. The representations, warranties and covenants were qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by Pinnacle, Merger Sub and BNC in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purpose of establishing circumstances in which a party to the merger agreement may have the right not to consummate the merger if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts. The representations and warranties also may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable to shareholders and reports and documents filed with the SEC and some were qualified by the matters contained in the confidential disclosure schedules that Pinnacle and BNC each delivered in connection with the merger agreement and certain documents filed with the SEC. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties, which do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, may have changed since the date of the merger agreement.

For the foregoing reasons, the representations and warranties or any descriptions of those provisions should not be read alone or relied upon as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Pinnacle, Merger Sub or BNC or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Instead, such provisions or descriptions should be read only in conjunction with the other information provided elsewhere in this document or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Please see Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 150. Pinnacle and BNC will provide additional disclosures in their public reports to the extent they are aware of the existence of any material facts that are required to be disclosed under federal securities laws and that might otherwise contradict the terms and information contained in the merger agreement and will update such disclosure as required by federal securities laws.

Structure of the Merger

Each of Pinnacle's, Merger Sub's and BNC's respective boards of directors has adopted the merger agreement and approved the transactions contemplated thereby. The merger agreement provides for, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, the merger of Merger Sub with and into BNC, with BNC surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Pinnacle. Pinnacle will, as soon as reasonably practicable following the merger and as part of a single integrated transaction, cause such surviving entity to merge with and into Pinnacle in a second step merger. Immediately following the completion of the second step merger, BNC Bank will merge with and into Pinnacle Bank, with Pinnacle Bank continuing as the surviving entity of the bank merger.

Pinnacle and BNC may by mutual agreement at any time change the method of effecting the mergers, if and to the extent they deem such change to be desirable. However, no such change may (i) alter or change the exchange ratio or the number of shares of Pinnacle common stock received by holders of BNC common stock or the amount or kind of the merger consideration, (ii) adversely affect the tax treatment of (A) holders of BNC common stock as a result of receiving the merger consideration or (B) holders of Pinnacle common stock or (iii) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in a timely manner.

The merger agreement further provides that if either BNC fails to obtain the required vote of its shareholders to adopt and approve the BNC merger proposal, or Pinnacle fails to obtain the required vote of its shareholders to approve the Pinnacle share issuance proposal, each of the parties will in good faith use its reasonable best efforts to negotiate a restructuring of the transaction (provided that neither party will have any obligation to agree to (i) alter or change any material term of the merger agreement, including the amount or kind of consideration to be issued to holders of BNC common stock or BNC equity awards or (ii) adversely affect the tax treatment of the transaction with respect to its shareholders) and/or resubmit the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby (or as restructured pursuant to the merger agreement) to its shareholders for approval.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time, each share of BNC common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, except for shares of BNC common stock owned by BNC, Pinnacle or Merger Sub (other than shares of BNC common stock held in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like, or otherwise held in a fiduciary or agency capacity, that are beneficially owned by third parties, and shares of BNC common stock held on account of a debt previously contracted), will be converted into the right to receive 0.5235 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Pinnacle's common stock together with cash in lieu of any fractional shares. Based upon the shares of Pinnacle and BNC common stock outstanding as of [], 2017, the last date before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for which it was practicable to obtain this information, we expect that BNC shareholders as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger will hold, in the aggregate, approximately []% of the issued and outstanding shares of Pinnacle common stock immediately following the closing of the merger (without giving effect to any shares of Pinnacle common stock held by BNC shareholders prior to the merger).

Fractional Shares

Pinnacle will not issue any fractional shares of Pinnacle common stock in the merger. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Pinnacle will pay to each former shareholder of BNC who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the Pinnacle share closing price by (ii) the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Pinnacle common stock that such holder would otherwise have been entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement.

Treatment of BNC Equity Awards

BNC Options. At the effective time, each outstanding option to purchase shares of BNC common stock issued pursuant to BNC's equity-based compensation plans, whether vested or unvested, will become fully vested and cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of (x) the Pinnacle share closing price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (y) the exercise price of each such option and (ii) the number of shares of BNC common stock subject to each such option to the extent not previously exercised.

BNC Restricted Stock Awards and BNC RSU Awards. At the effective time, each outstanding BNC RSU award granted under BNC's equity-based compensation plans and each outstanding BNC restricted stock award granted under BNC's equity-based compensation plans prior to December 31, 2016 will fully vest and be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in respect of each share of BNC common stock underlying each such award.

At the effective time, each outstanding BNC restricted stock award granted on or after December 31, 2016 will be converted into a restricted stock award relating to shares of Pinnacle common stock, with the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such award, and relating to the number of shares of Pinnacle common stock, determined by multiplying (i) the number of shares of BNC common stock subject to such BNC restricted stock award immediately prior to the effective time by (ii) the exchange ratio.

Exchange of Certificates in the Merger

The conversion of all of the shares of BNC common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement will occur automatically at the effective time. Certificates and book entry shares previously representing shares of BNC common stock that have been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration will be exchanged for certificates (or at Pinnacle's option, evidence of shares in book entry form) representing whole shares of Pinnacle common stock equal to the merger consideration, together with any cash in lieu of fractional shares and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto which the holder has the right to receive pursuant to the merger agreement. As soon as practicable, but in no event later than five business days after the effective time, Pinnacle will cause the exchange agent to mail to each record holder of certificates or book entry shares previously representing shares of BNC common stock a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of such certificates or the transfer of such book entry shares in exchange for the merger consideration. BNC shareholders should not return any certificates representing shares of BNC common stock with the enclosed proxy card for the BNC special meeting.

Upon proper surrender of BNC stock certificates or book entry shares for cancellation along with the executed letter of transmittal and other documents described in the letter of transmittal, BNC shareholders will be entitled to receive the merger consideration, as described above. No interest will be paid on any merger consideration that any such holder shall be entitled to receive.

At and after the effective time of the merger, each certificate or book entry representing shares of BNC common stock, until so surrendered and exchanged, will evidence only the right to receive, without interest, the merger consideration, including any dividend or other distribution payable with respect to the Pinnacle common stock which the shares of BNC common stock have been converted into the right to receive. The stock transfer books of BNC will be closed at the effective time of the merger and after the effective time there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of BNC of the shares of BNC common stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time. If a certificate for BNC common stock has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, Pinnacle or the exchange agent may require an affidavit of that fact by the claimant and the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Pinnacle or the exchange agent determines is reasonably required as indemnity before the exchange agent will issue shares of Pinnacle common stock under the merger agreement. If any certificates representing shares of Pinnacle common stock are to be issued in a name other than that in which the certificates or book entry shares of BNC common stock are surrendered or transferred in exchange are registered, it will be a condition of such issuance that the surrendered certificates are properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer or such book entry shares are properly transferred, and that the person requesting such exchange pay to the exchange agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of Pinnacle common stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the certificates surrendered or book entry shares transferred, or required for any other reason, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the exchange agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

Dividends and Distributions

Until BNC common stock certificates or book entry shares are surrendered for exchange, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time with respect to Pinnacle common stock into which shares of BNC common stock have been converted will accrue but will not be paid. Pinnacle will pay to former BNC shareholders any unpaid dividends or other distributions without interest only after they have duly surrendered their BNC stock certificates or book entry shares.

During each quarter of 2015 and 2016, Pinnacle's board of directors declared and Pinnacle paid a dividend of $0.12 and $0.14 per share, respectively. On January 17, 2017, Pinnacle's board of directors declared a dividend of $0.14 per share of Pinnacle common stock payable on February 24, 2017 to shareholders of record as of February 3, 2017. The amount and timing of all future dividend payments, if any, is subject to the discretion of Pinnacle's board of directors and will depend on Pinnacle's earnings, capital position, financial condition and other factors, including new regulatory capital requirements, as they become known to Pinnacle. See Supervision and Regulation Payment of Dividends in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K, and the Risk Factor entitled Our ability to declare and pay dividends is limited in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K which is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, for additional information about limitations on Pinnacle's ability to declare and pay dividends. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 150.

Withholding

The exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the merger consideration payable to any BNC shareholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the exchange agent withholds any amounts and the amounts are timely remitted to the appropriate governmental authorities, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the shareholders from whom they were withheld.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will be completed only if all conditions to the merger discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and set forth in the merger agreement are either satisfied or waived. Please see Conditions to the Completion of the Merger.

The merger will become effective upon the filing of the articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, unless a later time for completion of the merger is specified in the articles of merger. The closing of the merger will occur at 10:00 a.m., Central Time on a date no later than five business days after the satisfaction or waiver of the last to occur of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, unless another date, time or place is agreed to by the parties. While it currently is anticipated that the completion of the merger will occur in the third quarter of 2017, completion of the merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required regulatory approvals or in satisfying any other conditions to the merger. There can be no assurances as to whether, or when, Pinnacle and BNC will obtain the required approvals or complete the merger. If the merger is not completed on or before January 22, 2018, either Pinnacle or BNC may terminate the merger agreement, unless the failure to complete the merger by that date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to comply with any provisions of the merger agreement. See Conditions to the Completion of the Merger immediately below.

Legal Conditions to Merger

Each of Pinnacle and BNC have agreed to, and have agreed to cause their subsidiaries to, use their respective reasonable best efforts to (a) take, or cause to be taken, all actions reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements that may be imposed on such party or its subsidiaries with respect to the merger and the bank merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in merger agreement, to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and (b) obtain (and to cooperate with the other parties to obtain) any material consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any governmental entity or regulatory agency and any other third party that is required to be obtained by Pinnacle, BNC or their respective subsidiaries in connection with the mergers, the bank merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

BNC Shareholder Meeting and Recommendation of the BNC Board of Directors

BNC has agreed to take all action necessary to convene a meeting of its voting common shareholders for the purpose of voting upon approval and adoption of the merger agreement as soon as reasonably practicable upon the declaration of effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part. Except in the case of a BNC adverse recommendation change (as defined below), the BNC board of directors has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from its shareholders the vote required to approve and adopt the merger agreement, including by communicating to its shareholders its recommendation (and including such recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) that they adopt and approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. BNC must engage a proxy solicitor reasonably acceptable to Pinnacle to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to such required vote. However, if the BNC board of directors, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement, then it may withdraw or modify or qualify in a manner adverse to Pinnacle its recommendation to its shareholders that they approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and may submit the merger agreement to its shareholders without recommendation or with such modified or qualified recommendation (each of the foregoing defined in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as a BNC adverse recommendation change) (although the resolutions approving the merger agreement may not be rescinded or amended) and may communicate the basis for the BNC adverse recommendation change to its shareholders in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or a supplement or amendment thereto, provided that (1) it gives Pinnacle at least five business days prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action (including, in the event such action is taken by the BNC board of directors in response to an acquisition proposal, the latest material terms and conditions, and the identity of the third-party making any such acquisition proposal, or any amendment or modification thereof, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstances if not in response to an acquisition proposal) and (2) at the end of such notice period, the BNC board of directors takes into account any amendment or modification to the merger agreement proposed by Pinnacle and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement. Any material amendment to any acquisition proposal will require a new notice period, provided that the new notice period will be three business days instead of five business days.

BNC must adjourn or postpone its shareholder meeting one time if there are insufficient shares of BNC voting common stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting, BNC has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary for approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Pinnacle Shareholder Meeting and Recommendation of the Pinnacle Board of Directors

Pinnacle has agreed to take all action necessary to convene a meeting of its shareholders for the purpose of voting upon the issuance of shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger, as soon as reasonably practicable upon the declaration of effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part. The Pinnacle board of directors has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from its shareholders the vote required to approve the issuance of shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger, including by communicating to its shareholders its recommendation (and including such recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) that they approve the issuance of shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger. Pinnacle must engage a proxy solicitor reasonably acceptable to BNC to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to such required vote. However, if the Pinnacle board of directors, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the share issuance, then it may withdraw or modify or qualify in a manner adverse to BNC its recommendation to its shareholders that they approve the issuance of shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger and may submit the share issuance to its shareholders without recommendation or with such modified or qualified recommendation (each of the foregoing defined in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as a Pinnacle adverse recommendation change) (although the resolutions approving the merger agreement may not be rescinded or amended) and may communicate the basis for the Pinnacle adverse recommendation change to its shareholders in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or a supplement or amendment thereto, provided that (1) it gives BNC at least five business days prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action and (2) at the end of such notice period, the Pinnacle board of directors takes into account any amendment or modification to the merger agreement proposed by BNC and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement.

Pinnacle must adjourn or postpone its shareholder meeting one time if there are insufficient shares of Pinnacle common stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting, Pinnacle has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary for the approval of the issuance of shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger.

No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions

The merger agreement provides, subject to limited exceptions described below, that BNC and its subsidiaries will not authorize their affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by BNC or any of its subsidiaries) to (1) solicit, initiate, knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action designed to solicit, initiate, facilitate or encourage any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, any acquisition proposal, (2) participate in any discussions, negotiations or other communications regarding any acquisition proposal, (3) except in connection with and after making a BNC adverse recommendation change, make or authorize any statement, recommendation or solicitation in support of any acquisition proposal or (4) provide any confidential or nonpublic information to any person relating to any acquisition proposal with such party. Furthermore, BNC and its subsidiaries were required under the merger agreement to, and to cause their affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by BNC or any of its subsidiaries) to, immediately cease any discussions, negotiations or activities with any other party regarding an acquisition proposal.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term acquisition proposal means any proposal, offer or third party indication of interest in any (1) acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, of 20% or more of the consolidated assets of BNC and its subsidiaries, or 20% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of BNC or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 20% of the consolidated assets of BNC, (2) tender offer (including a self-tender) or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in such third-party beneficially owning more than 20% of any class of equity or voting securities of BNC or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 20% of the consolidated assets of BNC, or (3) merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving BNC or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 20% of the consolidated assets of BNC, in each case, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The merger agreement permits BNC and its subsidiaries to comply with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A with regard to an acquisition proposal that BNC or any of its subsidiaries may receive. In addition, if prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of its shareholders to approve the merger agreement, BNC receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal, BNC may, and may permit its subsidiaries and its and their affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by BNC or any of its subsidiaries) to, engage in discussions and negotiations with or provide nonpublic information to the person making that acquisition proposal only if:

the board of directors of BNC concludes in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors) that failure to take such actions would be more likely than to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, provided that, prior to providing any such nonpublic information, BNC provides notice to Pinnacle of its intention to provide such information;

any nonpublic information provided to such person is also provided to Pinnacle if not previously provided to Pinnacle; and BNC enters into a confidentiality agreement with such third-party on terms no less favorable to it than the confidentiality agreement between Pinnacle and BNC, and which confidentiality agreement does not provide such person with any exclusive right to negotiate with BNC.

BNC must notify Pinnacle promptly, and in any event within 24 hours of BNC's receipt of any acquisition proposal or any request for nonpublic information relating to BNC or any of its subsidiaries that could reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, or any inquiry from any person seeking to have discussions, negotiations or other communications relating to a possible acquisition proposal, of the identity of the third party making the acquisition proposal, inquiry or request and the material terms and conditions of any inquiries, proposals or offers, and must update Pinnacle on the status of the terms of any proposals, offers, discussions or negotiations on a current basis.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

General. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to completion of the merger in any of the following ways:

by mutual written consent of Pinnacle and BNC;

by either Pinnacle or BNC, if any governmental entity or regulatory agency that must grant a requisite regulatory approval has denied approval of the merger or the bank merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any governmental entity or regulatory agency of competent jurisdiction has issued a final nonappealable order, injunction or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting, or making illegal, the consummation of the merger or the bank merger, unless the failure to obtain a requisite regulatory approval is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement;

by either Pinnacle or BNC, if the merger is not completed on or before January 22, 2018, unless the failure of the closing to occur by this date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to comply with the merger agreement;

by either Pinnacle or BNC, if (1) the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement and (2) there has been a breach of any of the covenants, agreements, representations or warranties of the other party in the merger agreement, which breach is not cured by the earlier of 30 days following written notice to the party committing the breach or January 22, 2018, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured during such period, and which breach, individually or together with all other breaches, would, if occurring or continuing on the closing date, result in the failure of the condition relating to the performance of obligations or breaches of representations or warranties described under Conditions to the Completion of the Merger above;

by Pinnacle, if (1) prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of BNC shareholders to approve the merger agreement, (i) BNC or the board of directors of BNC makes a BNC adverse recommendation change or publicly discloses its intention to do so, or otherwise submits the merger agreement to its shareholders without recommendation for approval, or recommends to its shareholders an acquisition proposal other than the merger, or (ii) BNC materially breaches its obligation to hold its shareholders meeting to approve the merger agreement or materially breaches its obligations with respect to acquisition proposals, or (2) a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of BNC common stock is commenced, other than by Pinnacle or a subsidiary of Pinnacle, and the BNC board of directors recommends that the shareholders of BNC tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such shareholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within the 10 business day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act; or by BNC, if prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of Pinnacle's shareholders to approve the issuance of the shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger, Pinnacle or the board of directors of Pinnacle makes a Pinnacle adverse recommendation change or publicly discloses its intention to do so, or otherwise submits the Pinnacle share issuance proposal to its shareholders without recommendation for approval, or Pinnacle materially breaches its obligation to hold its shareholders' meeting to approve the share issuance.

Effect of Termination. If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void and have no effect, except that (1) both Pinnacle and BNC will remain liable for any liabilities or damages arising out of its fraud or its willful and material breach of any provision of the merger agreement, and (2) designated provisions of the merger agreement, including those addressing the payment of fees and expenses, the confidential treatment of information and, if applicable, the termination fee described below, will survive the termination.

Termination Fee. The merger agreement provides that BNC may be required to pay the termination fee to Pinnacle in the following circumstances:

If Pinnacle terminates the merger agreement prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of BNC shareholders to approve and adopt the merger agreement because (1) BNC or BNC's board of directors made a BNC adverse recommendation change or publicly disclosed its intention to do so, or otherwise submitted the merger agreement to its shareholders without recommendation for approval, or recommended to its shareholders an acquisition proposal other than the merger, or (2) BNC materially breached its obligation to hold its shareholders' meeting to approve the merger agreement, then BNC must pay the termination fee no later than the third business day following the termination.

If Pinnacle terminates the merger agreement prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of BNC shareholders to approve the merger agreement because BNC materially breaches its obligations with respect to acquisition proposals, which obligations include (1) subject to limited exceptions, BNC or any of its subsidiaries not authorizing any of their affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by BNC or any of its subsidiaries) to (i) solicit, initiate, knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action designed to solicit, initiate, facilitate or encourage any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, any acquisition proposal, (ii) participate in any discussions, negotiations or other communications regarding any acquisition proposal, (iii) except in connection with and after making a BNC adverse recommendation change, make or authorize any statement, recommendation or solicitation in support of any acquisition proposal or (iv) provide any confidential or nonpublic information to any person relating to any acquisition proposal with such party, and (2) BNC and its subsidiaries immediately ceasing, and causing their affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by BNC or any of its subsidiaries) to, immediately cease, any discussions, negotiations or activities with any other party regarding an acquisition proposal following the execution of the merger agreement, then BNC must pay the termination fee no later than the third business day following the termination.

If Pinnacle terminates the merger agreement because a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of BNC common stock was commenced, other than by Pinnacle or a subsidiary of Pinnacle, and the BNC board of directors recommended that the shareholders of BNC tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise failed to recommend that such shareholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within the 10 business day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act, then BNC must pay the termination fee no later than the third business day following the termination.

Table of Contents

If (1) the merger agreement is terminated by either party because the merger has not been completed on or before January 22, 2018, and BNC has failed to obtain the required vote of its shareholders at the duly convened special meeting of BNC's shareholders or any adjournment or postponement thereof at which a vote on the approval and adoption of the merger agreement is taken, or by Pinnacle because of a material breach by BNC of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement that causes an applicable condition to the merger to not be satisfied and (2) a bona fide acquisition proposal has been made known to senior management of BNC or has been made directly to its shareholders generally, or any person shall have publicly announced (and not withdrawn) a bona fide acquisition proposal with respect to BNC, in each case prior to the termination of the merger agreement, and within 12 months after termination of the merger agreement, BNC enters into any definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, any acquisition proposal (whether or not the same as the acquisition proposal referred to above), then BNC must pay the termination fee to Pinnacle on the earlier of the date the definitive agreement is executed or the transaction is consummated (provided that for purposes of the foregoing, all references in the definition of acquisition proposal to 20% will instead refer to 50%).

The merger agreement provides that Pinnacle may be required to pay a termination fee to BNC of $66.0 million in the following circumstances:

If BNC terminates the merger agreement prior to the receipt of the requisite vote of Pinnacle's shareholders to approve the issuance of the shares of Pinnacle common stock in connection with the merger because (1) Pinnacle or Pinnacle's board of directors made a Pinnacle adverse recommendation change or publicly disclosed its intention to do so, or otherwise submitted the Pinnacle share issuance proposal to its shareholders without recommendation for approval, or (2) Pinnacle materially breached its obligation to hold its shareholders' meeting to approve the share issuance, then Pinnacle must pay the termination fee no later than the third business day following the termination.

The termination fee could discourage other companies from seeking to acquire or merge with BNC prior to completion of the merger and could cause BNC to reject any acquisition proposal which does not take into account the termination fee.

Extension, Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

Extension and Waiver. At any time prior to the completion of the merger, each of Pinnacle and BNC may, to the extent legally allowed:

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of Pinnacle or Merger Sub, in the case of BNC, or BNC, in the case of Pinnacle;

waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant thereto on the part of Pinnacle or Merger Sub, in the case of BNC, or BNC, in the case of Pinnacle; and waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement on the part of Pinnacle or Merger Sub, in the case of BNC, or BNC, in the case of Pinnacle.

Amendment. Subject to compliance with applicable law, Pinnacle and BNC may amend the merger agreement at any time prior to the effective time of the merger. However, notwithstanding the foregoing descriptions of the provisions for extensions and waivers, after the approval of the Pinnacle share issuance proposal by shareholders of Pinnacle and approval of the BNC merger proposal by voting common shareholders of BNC, no amendment or waiver may be accomplished without the further approval of Pinnacle shareholders or BNC voting common shareholders, as applicable, if such amendment or waiver requires further approval under applicable law.

Table of ContentsEmployee Benefit Plans and Existing Agreements

Employee Benefit Plans. The merger agreement provides that for one year following the effective time of the merger, Pinnacle will provide each employee of BNC and its subsidiaries who continues to be employed by Pinnacle or its subsidiaries immediately following the effective time of the merger (who we refer to as a BNC continuing employee) with (i) a base salary or base wage rate, as applicable, that is no less favorable than the base salary or base wage rate, as applicable, provided by BNC or any of its subsidiaries to such employee immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, (ii) short- and long-term incentive compensation opportunities that, in each case, are (A) with respect to the fiscal year of BNC in which the merger occurs (if the merger occurs after the first quarter of such fiscal year), no less favorable than the short- and long-term incentive compensation opportunities provided by BNC or any of its subsidiaries to such employee immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, and (B) with respect to (x) the fiscal year of Pinnacle commencing immediately after the year in which the merger occurs (if the merger occurs after the first quarter of such fiscal year) and (y) the fiscal year of BNC in which the merger occurs (if the merger occurs in the first quarter of such fiscal year, in which case clause (A) above does not apply), no less favorable than the short- and long-term incentive compensation opportunities provided by Pinnacle or any of its subsidiaries to similarly-situated employees of Pinnacle or its subsidiaries, and (iii) participation in the other compensation and employee benefit plans in which similarly-situated employees of Pinnacle or its subsidiaries participate, to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Pinnacle or its subsidiaries.

Under the merger agreement, Pinnacle is obligated to honor all BNC employment, severance, change of control and other compensation agreements and arrangements between BNC or any of its subsidiaries and their employees (to the extent not terminated in connection with the merger), and all accrued and vested benefit obligations through the effective time of the merger which are between BNC or any of its subsidiaries and any of their current or former directors, officers, employees or consultants.

Following the effective time of the merger, with respect to each Pinnacle benefit plan in which BNC continuing employees are eligible to participate after the effective time (which we refer to as new plans), Pinnacle will recognize all service of the BNC continuing employees with BNC and its subsidiaries (including any predecessor entities or any entities which merged or consolidated with or into BNC or any of its subsidiaries) for all purposes, subject to certain customary exceptions. With respect to the BNC continuing employees and their eligible dependents, Pinnacle will (A) recognize all such service under the new plans for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any preexisting condition limitations, (B) waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under a corresponding BNC benefit plan and (C) give credit for amounts paid under a corresponding benefit plan for purposes of applying deductibles, copayments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the new plans, provided that with respect to any welfare benefits plans that are provided through a third-party insurer (i.e., are not self-insured), Pinnacle will use its commercially reasonable efforts to accomplish the foregoing.

Each BNC continuing employee whose employment is terminated by Pinnacle without cause within twelve months following the closing of the merger will receive a severance payment equal to one-month of severance benefits for each year of service with BNC and Pinnacle, with a minimum of one-month and a maximum of six-months of severance when terminated.

The merger agreement provides that following completion of the merger, Pinnacle and the surviving corporation will indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, all present and former directors, managers, officers and employees of BNC and its subsidiaries against any costs or liabilities incurred in connection with any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether arising before or after the effective time, arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director, manager, officer or employee of BNC or its subsidiaries or in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and will also advance expenses to such persons to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, provided that such person provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification.

The merger agreement requires Pinnacle to maintain, for a period of six years after completion of the merger, BNC's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, or policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are no less advantageous to the insured, with respect to claims against present and former officers and directors of BNC and its subsidiaries arising from facts or events that occurred at or prior to the completion of the merger. However, Pinnacle is not required to spend annually more than 250% of the current annual premium paid as of the date of the merger agreement by BNC for such insurance (which we refer to as the "premium cap"), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed that amount, then Pinnacle will maintain policies of insurance which provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the premium cap. In lieu of the foregoing, BNC, in consultation with Pinnacle, may (and, at Pinnacle's request, will use its reasonable best efforts to) obtain at or prior to the effective time, at Pinnacle's expense, a six-year "tail" policy under BNC's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence if such a policy can be obtained for an amount that, in the aggregate, does not exceed the premium cap.

Certain Additional Covenants

The merger agreement also contains additional covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, obtaining required consents, the listing of the shares of Pinnacle common stock to be issued in the merger on the NASDAQ, coordination with respect to litigation relating to the merger and further actions required to consummate the merger, advice relating to the occurrence of a material change, access to information, exemption from takeover laws, public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, exemption from liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, the absence of control over the other party's business and Pinnacle's or its subsidiaries' assumption of BNC's or its subsidiaries' obligations in respect of its outstanding debt, trust preferred securities, guarantees, securities, and other agreements to the extent required by the terms of such debt, trust preferred securities, guarantees, securities, and other agreements.

Expenses

The merger agreement provides that each of Pinnacle and BNC will pay its own expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, except that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger will be split evenly by Pinnacle and BNC.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGERS

Subject to the limitations, assumptions and qualifications described herein, it is the opinion of each of Bass, Berry & Sims PLC and Troutman Sanders LLP that the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the mergers to U.S. holders (as defined below) of BNC common stock that exchange their shares of BNC common stock for shares of Pinnacle common stock in the merger are as described below. The tax opinions of outside legal counsel for each of Pinnacle and BNC are filed as Exhibit 8.1 and Exhibit 8.2, respectively, to the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part. These opinions, however, will not bind the IRS or the courts and no assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below.

The following general discussion sets forth the material United States federal income tax consequences of the mergers, taken together, to U.S. holders (as defined below) of BNC common stock that exchange their shares of BNC common stock for shares of Pinnacle common stock. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, or under any United States federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the Code), the regulations promulgated under the Code and court and administrative rulings and decisions, all as in effect on the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. These laws may change, possibly retroactively, and any change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion.

This discussion addresses only those BNC shareholders that hold their shares of BNC common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Further, this discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances or that may be applicable to you if you are subject to special treatment under the United States federal income tax laws, including if you are:

a bank, thrift or other financial institution;

a tax-exempt organization;

an S corporation, partnership or other pass-through entity (or an investor in an S corporation, partnership or other pass-through entity);

an insurance company;

a mutual fund;

a regulated investment company;

a real estate investment trust;

a retirement plan, individual retirement account or other tax-deferred account;

a dealer or broker in stocks and securities, or currencies;

a trader in securities that elects mark-to-market treatment;

a holder of BNC common stock subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code;

a holder of BNC common stock that owns (or is deemed to own) 5% or more of the outstanding stock of BNC;

a holder of BNC common stock that received BNC common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option, through a tax qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation;

a person that is not a U.S. holder (as defined below);

a person that has a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

Table of Contents

a holder of BNC common stock that holds BNC common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, wash sale, conversion or other integrated transaction; or a United States expatriate.

In addition, this discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the mergers, nor does it address any other U.S. federal tax consequences (such as gift or estate taxes) including any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to Section 1411 of the Code. Determining the actual tax consequences of the mergers to you may be complex. They will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within the control of BNC or Pinnacle. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances.

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of BNC common stock that is for United States federal income tax purposes (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation, or entity treated as a corporation, organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) a trust if (a) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) such trust has made a valid election to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or (iv) an estate, the income of which is includible in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes regardless of its source.

The United States federal income tax consequences to a partner in an entity or arrangement that is treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes and that holds BNC common stock generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners in a partnership holding BNC common stock should consult their own tax advisors.

Tax Consequences of the Mergers Generally

Subject to the limitations, assumptions and qualifications described herein, the mergers, taken together, will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to Pinnacle's obligation to complete the merger that Pinnacle receive an opinion from Bass, Berry & Sims PLC, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the mergers, taken together, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to BNC's obligation to complete the merger that BNC receive an opinion from Troutman Sanders LLP, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the mergers, taken together, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on representations, covenants and undertakings provided by Pinnacle and BNC and on customary factual assumptions. If any of the representations or assumptions upon which the opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the mergers could be adversely affected. Neither of the opinions described above will be binding on the IRS or any court. Pinnacle and BNC have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the mergers, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below.

Tax Consequences to Pinnacle and BNC

Each of Pinnacle and BNC will be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code, and neither Pinnacle nor BNC will recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger.

Table of Contents

Tax Consequences to Shareholders

Subject to the qualifications and limitations set forth above, the material United States federal income tax consequences of the mergers to U.S. holders of BNC common stock will be as follows:

Receipt of Merger Consideration. A U.S. holder of BNC common stock will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of BNC common stock for shares of Pinnacle common stock in the merger, except for cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Pinnacle common stock.

Receipt of Cash in Lieu of Fractional Share. If a U.S. holder of BNC common stock receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Pinnacle common stock, such holder will recognize gain or loss, measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the tax basis of that holder's shares of BNC common stock allocable to that fractional share of Pinnacle common stock. This gain or loss will be a capital gain or loss, and will be a long-term capital gain or loss, if the holding period for the share of BNC common stock exchanged for cash is more than one year at the completion of the merger. The deduction of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Tax Basis of Pinnacle Common Stock Received in the Merger. A U.S. holder of BNC common stock will have a tax basis in the Pinnacle common stock received in the merger equal to the tax basis of the BNC common stock surrendered by that holder in the merger, reduced by any basis allocable to a fractional share of Pinnacle common stock deemed received and exchanged for cash in the merger (as described above).

Holding Period of Pinnacle Common Stock Received in the Merger. The holding period for shares of Pinnacle common stock received by a U.S. holder in exchange for shares of BNC common stock in the merger will include the holding period for the shares of BNC common stock surrendered in the merger. In the case of a U.S. holder of BNC common stock who holds shares of BNC common stock with different tax bases and/or holding periods, the preceding rules must be applied to each identifiable block of BNC common stock.

Reporting Requirements

All holders of BNC common stock will be required to retain records pertaining to the mergers and may be required to file with the holder's United States federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the mergers.

Backup Withholding

Holders of BNC common stock other than certain exempt recipients may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) on any cash payments received in lieu of fractional shares of Pinnacle common stock. Such a holder generally will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if the holder:

furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies that the holder is not subject to backup withholding on the Form W-9 or successor form included in the election form/letter of transmittal the holder will receive and otherwise complies with all the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or provides proof that the holder is otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will generally be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's United States federal income tax liability, provided the holder timely furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service.

This summary of material United States federal income tax consequences is for general information only and is not tax advice. Each holder of BNC common stock is urged to consult the holder's tax advisor with respect to the application of United States federal income tax laws to the holder's particular situation as well as any tax consequences arising under the United States federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations and other data give effect to:

the merger;

the sale by Pinnacle on January 27, 2017 of 3,220,000 shares of its common stock in a registered public offering and Pinnacle's receipt of $191.2 million in estimated net proceeds, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and the estimated offering expenses payable by Pinnacle; and

In addition, as explained in more detail in the accompanying notes, the preliminary allocation of the pro forma purchase price reflected in the pro forma condensed combined financial data is subject to adjustment and may vary significantly from the actual purchase price allocation that will be recorded upon completion of the merger.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations data appearing below does not give pro forma effect to the following for any period prior to the applicable date the transaction was consummated:

Pinnacle and Pinnacle Bank's subsequent investment in BHG which was consummated on March 1, 2016;

The pro forma financial data should be read in conjunction with Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and Pinnacle's audited consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto, in each case as included in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended

The allocation of the purchase price reflected in the following pro forma financial statements is preliminary and is subject to adjustment upon receipt of, among other things, appraisals of some of the assets and liabilities of BNC.

Note 1 Basis of presentation

The pro forma condensed combined financial information and explanatory notes have been prepared to illustrate the effects of the merger under the acquisition method of accounting with Pinnacle treated as the acquirer. The pro forma condensed combined financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and does not necessarily indicate the financial results of the combined companies had the companies actually been combined at the beginning of the period presented, nor does it necessarily indicate the results of operations in future periods or the future financial position of the combined entities. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of BNC, as of the effective date of the merger, will be recorded by Pinnacle at their respective fair values and the excess of the merger consideration over the fair value of BNC's net assets will be allocated to goodwill.

The merger, which is currently expected to be completed in the third quarter of 2017, provides for BNC common shareholders to receive 0.5235 shares of Pinnacle common stock for each share of BNC common stock they hold immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Based on the closing sale price of shares of Pinnacle common stock on the NASDAQ on January 20, 2017 of $63.30, the last trading day before the public announcement of the signing of the merger agreement, the value of the merger consideration per share of BNC common stock was $33.14. Based on the average closing trading price of shares of Pinnacle common stock on the NASDAQ over the twenty trading days ended January 20, 2017, the value of the merger consideration per share of BNC common stock was $35.70.

The pro forma allocation of the purchase price reflected in the pro forma condensed combined financial information is subject to adjustment and may vary from the actual purchase price allocation that will be recorded at the time the merger is completed. Adjustments may include, but not be limited to, changes in (i) BNC's balance sheet through the effective time of the merger; (ii) the aggregate value of merger consideration paid if the price of shares of Pinnacle common stock varies from the assumed $63.30 per share, which represents the closing share price of Pinnacle common stock on January 20, 2017; (iii) total merger-related expenses if consummation and/or implementation costs vary from currently estimated amounts; and (iv) the underlying values of assets and liabilities if market conditions differ from current assumptions.

The accounting policies of both Pinnacle and BNC are in the process of being reviewed in detail. Upon completion of such review, conforming adjustments or financial statement reclassification may be determined.

Table of ContentsNote 2 Preliminary Purchase Price Allocation

The pro forma adjustments include the estimated purchase accounting entries to record the merger. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired, net of deferred taxes, is allocated to goodwill. The fair values are estimated as of December 31, 2016. Estimated fair value adjustments included in the pro forma financial statements are based upon available information and certain assumptions considered reasonable, and may be revised as additional information becomes available.

Core deposit intangible assets of $62.0 million are included in the pro forma adjustments separate from goodwill and amortized using the sum-of-the-years-digits method over ten years. Actual amortization will be recorded on an accelerated basis which reflects the anticipated life of the underlying assets. Goodwill totaling $1.1 billion is included in the pro forma adjustments and is not subject to amortization. The purchase price is contingent on Pinnacle's price per common share at the closing date of the merger, which has not yet occurred. A 10% increase or decrease in Pinnacle's closing sale price per share of common stock on January 20, 2017 of $63.30 would result in a corresponding goodwill adjustment of approximately $248.6 million.

Note 4 Merger integration costs

Merger- and integration-related costs are not included in the pro forma condensed combined statements of income since they will be recorded in the combined results of income as they are incurred prior to, or after completion of, the merger and are not indicative of what the historical results of the combined company would have been had the companies been actually combined during the periods presented. Merger- and integration-related costs expected to be incurred resulting from the merger include financial, legal and advisory fees, software termination expenses and lease termination expenses, and are estimated to be $100.1 million pretax; $63.3 million of which is estimated to be incurred at closing by BNC. The $63.3 million of merger- and integration-related charges are reflected in the pro forma adjustments to the pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as a $33.2 million reduction to cash and a $30.1 million increase to accrued expenses and other liabilities. The balance of $36.8 million of merger- and integration-related charges are expected to be incurred after completion of the merger. None of these estimated merger- and integration-related charges had been incurred as of December 31, 2016.

DESCRIPTION OF PINNACLE CAPITAL STOCK

General

The authorized capital stock of Pinnacle consists of 90 million shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, and 10 million shares of preferred stock, no par value. As of the Pinnacle record date, [] shares of Pinnacle common stock were outstanding, and no shares of Pinnacle preferred stock were outstanding. The preferred stock may be issued in one or more series with those terms and at those times and for any consideration as the Pinnacle board of directors determines. As of the date hereof, such number of shares of Pinnacle common stock as are required to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement were reserved for issuance to BNC shareholders in accordance with the merger agreement and [] shares of Pinnacle common stock were reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding stock options under various employee stock option plans.

The following summary of the terms of the capital stock of Pinnacle is not intended to be complete and is subject in all respects to the applicable provisions of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (which we refer to as the TBCA) and is qualified by reference to Pinnacle s charter and Pinnacle s bylaws. To obtain copies of these documents, see Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 150.

Common Stock

The outstanding shares of Pinnacle common stock are fully paid and nonassessable. Holders of Pinnacle common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders. Holders of Pinnacle common stock do not have pre-emptive rights and are not entitled to cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of directors. The Pinnacle common stock is neither redeemable nor convertible into other securities, and there are no sinking fund provisions with respect to the common stock.

Subject to the preferences applicable to any shares of Pinnacle preferred stock outstanding at the time, holders of Pinnacle common stock are entitled to, in the event of liquidation, share ratably in all assets remaining after payment of liabilities.

Preferred Stock

No shares of Pinnacle preferred stock are outstanding. The board of directors of Pinnacle may, without further action by the shareholders of Pinnacle, issue one or more series of Pinnacle preferred stock and fix the rights and preferences of those shares, including the dividend rights, dividend rates, conversion rights, exchange rights, voting rights, terms of redemption, redemption price or prices, liquidation preferences, the number of shares constituting any series and the designation of such series.

Election of Directors

Pinnacle s charter and bylaws provide that each member of Pinnacle s board of directors is elected annually to a one year term. As a result of Pinnacle adopting a majority voting standard for directors at its 2015 annual meeting of shareholders, should a nominee to serve as a director that is nominated in an uncontested election fail to receive an affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the meeting at which the nominee is up for election, in person or by proxy, then that nominee, if that individual is an incumbent director, must tender his or her resignation to the chairman of Pinnacle s board of directors and the chairman of the nominating committee of Pinnacle s board of directors following the shareholder vote pursuant to Pinnacle s corporate governance guidelines. Subsequently, the nominating and corporate governance committee of Pinnacle s board of directors will consider the relevant facts and circumstances, including the factors that may have given rise to the resulting shareholder vote and the service and qualifications of the impacted director(s), and recommend to the board of directors within ninety days of the shareholder vote as to whether to accept or reject the resignation of the impacted director(s). Pinnacle's board of directors will also consider the relevant facts and circumstances when considering whether to accept or reject the nominating and corporate governance committee's recommendation. Subsequently, Pinnacle will describe a full explanation of the above process and the decisions regarding the impacted director(s) continued service on the board of directors in a Form 8-K filing with the SEC. Any director who tenders his resignation in the manner described in this paragraph will not participate in any discussion or recommendation related to the above process.

Pinnacle's bylaws also provide that the power to increase or decrease the number of directors and to fill vacancies is vested in Pinnacle's board of directors. The overall effect of this provision may be to prevent a person or entity from seeking to acquire control of Pinnacle through an increase in the number of directors on Pinnacle's board of directors and the election of designated nominees to fill newly created vacancies.

Dividends

Holders of Pinnacle common stock are entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by Pinnacle's board of directors out of funds legally available for dividends. In order to pay any dividends, Pinnacle will need to receive dividends from Pinnacle Bank or have other sources of funds. Under the Tennessee Banking Act, Pinnacle Bank is subject to restrictions on the payment of dividends to Pinnacle. Pursuant to these laws, Pinnacle Bank may not, without the prior consent of the Commissioner of the TDFI pay any dividends to Pinnacle in a year in excess of the total of Pinnacle Bank's net income for that year plus the retained net income for the preceding two years.

During the fourth quarter of 2013, Pinnacle initiated a quarterly common stock dividend. During the year ended December 31, 2016, Pinnacle paid $24.7 million in dividends to shareholders of Pinnacle. Pinnacle's ability to pay dividends to Pinnacle shareholders in the future will depend on Pinnacle's earnings and financial condition, liquidity and capital requirements, the general economic and regulatory climate, Pinnacle's ability to service any equity or debt obligations senior to Pinnacle common stock and other factors deemed relevant by Pinnacle's board of directors. See "Supervision and Regulation Payment of Dividends" in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K, and the Risk Factor entitled "Our ability to declare and pay dividends is limited" in Pinnacle's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, which is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, for additional information about limitations on Pinnacle's and Pinnacle Bank's ability to declare and pay dividends. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 150.

Corporate Transactions

Under the TBCA, with exceptions, any merger or similar transaction involving Pinnacle or any sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of its assets will require the affirmative vote of a majority of Pinnacle's directors then in office and the affirmative vote of a majority of the holders of the outstanding shares of Pinnacle stock entitled to vote on the transaction.

Pinnacle's charter describes the factors that Pinnacle's board of directors must consider in evaluating whether an acquisition offer made by another party is in its shareholders' best interests. The term "acquisition offer" refers to any offer of another party to:

make a tender offer or exchange offer for Pinnacle common stock or any other equity security of Pinnacle; merge or consolidate Pinnacle with another corporation; or purchase or otherwise acquire all or substantially all of the assets owned by Pinnacle.

The Pinnacle board of directors, in determining what is in Pinnacle and its shareholders' best interests, is required to give due consideration to all relevant factors, including, without limitation:

the short-term and long-term social and economic effects of the transaction on Pinnacle and its subsidiaries employees, customers, shareholders and other constituents;

Table of Contents

the consideration being offered by the other corporation in relation to (1) Pinnacle's current value at the time of the offer as determined in a freely negotiated transaction and (2) the Pinnacle board of directors' estimate of Pinnacle's future value as an independent company at the time of the offer; and the short-term and long-term social and economic effects on the communities within which Pinnacle and its subsidiaries operate.

Pinnacle has included this provision in its charter, because serving its community was, and remains, one of the reasons for organizing Pinnacle Bank. As a result, the Pinnacle board of directors believes its obligation in evaluating an acquisition offer extends beyond evaluating merely the payment being offered in relation to the market or book value of Pinnacle common stock at the time of the offer.

While the value of what is being offered to shareholders in exchange for their stock is the main factor when weighing the benefits of an acquisition offer, Pinnacle's board of directors believes it is appropriate to also consider all other relevant factors. For example, the board will evaluate what is being offered in relation to Pinnacle's current value at the time of the offer as determined in a freely negotiated transaction and in relation to the board's estimate of Pinnacle's future value as an independent concern at the time of the offer. A takeover bid often places the target corporation virtually in the position of making a forced sale, sometimes when the market price of its stock may be depressed. Pinnacle's board of directors believes that frequently the payment offered in such a situation, even though it may exceed the value at which shares are then trading, is less than that which could be obtained in a freely negotiated transaction. In a freely negotiated transaction, management would have the opportunity to seek a suitable partner at a time of its choosing and to negotiate for the most favorable price and terms that would reflect not only on Pinnacle's current value, but also its future value.

One effect of the provision requiring Pinnacle's board of directors to take into account specific factors when considering an acquisition offer may be to discourage a tender offer in advance. Often an offeror consults the board of a target corporation before or after beginning a tender offer in an attempt to prevent a contest from developing. In the opinion of Pinnacle's board of directors, this provision will strengthen its position in dealing with any potential offeror that might attempt to acquire Pinnacle through a hostile tender offer. Another effect of this provision may be to dissuade shareholders who might be displeased with the board's response to an acquisition offer from engaging Pinnacle in costly litigation.

The applicable charter provisions would not make an acquisition offer regarded by Pinnacle's board of directors as being the best interests of Pinnacle and its shareholders more difficult to accomplish. It would, however, permit the board to determine that an acquisition offer was not in Pinnacle's best interests, and thus to oppose it, on the basis of the various factors that the Pinnacle board of directors deems relevant. In some cases, opposition by the board might have the effect of maintaining incumbent management.

Anti-Takeover Statutes

The Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act generally provides that, except as stated below, control shares will not have any voting rights. Control shares are shares acquired by a person under certain circumstances which, when added to other shares owned, would give such person effective control over one-fifth, one-third, or a majority of all voting power in the election of a Tennessee corporation's directors. Shares acquired by such person that causes it to exceed each of these thresholds will be deemed to be control shares. However, voting rights may be restored to control shares by resolution approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the corporation's voting stock, other than shares held by the owner of the control shares. If voting rights are granted to control shares which give the holder a majority of all voting power in the election of the corporation's directors, then the corporation's other shareholders may require the corporation to redeem their shares at fair value.

The Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act is not applicable to Pinnacle because Pinnacle's charter does not contain a specific provision opting in to the act as is required under the act.

Table of Contents

The Tennessee Investor Protection Act, or TIPA, provides that unless a Tennessee corporation's board of directors has recommended a takeover offer to shareholders, no offeror beneficially owning 5% or more of any class of equity securities of the offeree company, any of which was purchased within the preceding year, may make a takeover offer for any class of equity security of the offeree company if after completion the offeror would be a beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of outstanding equity securities of the company unless the offeror, before making such purchase: (1) makes a public announcement of his or her intention with respect to changing or influencing the management or control of the offeree company; (2) makes a full, fair and effective disclosure of such intention to the person from whom he or she intends to acquire such securities; and (3) files with the Tennessee Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance (which we refer to as the Commissioner), and the offeree company a statement signifying such intentions and containing such additional information as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

The offeror must provide that any equity securities of an offeree company deposited or tendered pursuant to a takeover offer may be withdrawn by an offeree at any time within seven days from the date the offer has become effective following filing with the Commissioner and the offeree company and public announcement of the terms or after 60 days from the date the offer has become effective. If the takeover offer is for less than all the outstanding equity securities of any class, such an offer must also provide for acceptance of securities pro rata if the number of securities tendered is greater than the number the offeror has offered to accept and pay for. If such an offeror varies the terms of the takeover offer before its expiration date by increasing the consideration offered to offerees, the offeror must pay the increased consideration for all equity securities accepted, whether accepted before or after the variation in the terms of the offer.

The TIPA does not apply to Pinnacle, as it does not apply to bank holding companies subject to regulation by a federal agency.

The Tennessee Business Combination Act generally prohibits a business combination by a Tennessee corporation with an interested shareholder within five years after such shareholder becomes an interested shareholder. The corporation can, however, enter into a business combination within that period if, before the interested shareholder became such, the corporation's board of directors approved the business combination or the transaction in which the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder. After that five-year moratorium, the business combination with the interested shareholder can be consummated only if it satisfies certain fair price criteria or is approved by two-thirds (2/3) of the other shareholders.

For purposes of the Tennessee Business Combination Act, a business combination includes mergers, share exchanges, sales and leases of assets, issuances of securities, and similar transactions. An interested shareholder is generally any person or entity that beneficially owns 10% or more of the voting power of any outstanding class or series of stock of the corporation. Pinnacle's charter does not have special requirements for transactions with interested parties; however, under the TBCA, with exceptions, all mergers and similar transactions must be approved by a majority of Pinnacle's board of directors and a majority of the shares entitled to vote. Approval of the second step merger by Pinnacle's shareholders is not required under the TBCA.

The Tennessee Business Combination Act applies to Pinnacle, because neither Pinnacle's charter nor Pinnacle's bylaws expressly provides that Pinnacle shall not be subject to the act as is required under the act.

The Tennessee Greenmail Act applies to a Tennessee corporation, such as Pinnacle, that has a class of voting stock registered or traded on a national securities exchange or registered with the SEC pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act. Under the Tennessee Greenmail Act, Pinnacle may not purchase any of its shares at a price above the market value of such shares from any person who holds more than 3% of the class of securities to be purchased if such person has held such shares for less than two years, unless the purchase has been approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of voting stock issued by Pinnacle or Pinnacle makes an offer, of at least equal value per share, to all shareholders of such class.

Table of ContentsIndemnification

The TBCA provides that a corporation may indemnify any of its directors and officers against liability incurred in connection with a proceeding if: (a) such person acted in good faith; (b) in the case of conduct in an official capacity with the corporation, the person reasonably believed such conduct was in the corporation's best interests; (c) in all other cases, the person reasonably believed that the person's conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and (d) in connection with any criminal proceeding, such person had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, however, the TBCA provides that no indemnification may be made if the director or officer was adjudged to be liable to the corporation. The TBCA also provides that in connection with any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to an officer or director, no indemnification may be made if such officer or director is adjudged liable on the basis that such personal benefit was improperly received. In cases where the director or officer is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding instigated because of his or her status as a director or officer of a corporation, the TBCA mandates that the corporation indemnify the director or officer against reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding. The TBCA provides that a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the corporation's charter provides otherwise, upon application, may order that an officer or director be indemnified for reasonable expenses if, in consideration of all relevant circumstances, the court determines that such individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, notwithstanding the fact that (a) such officer or director was adjudged liable to the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation; (b) such officer or director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the officer or director; or (c) such officer or director breached the officer's or director's duty of care to the corporation.

Pinnacle's charter provides that it will indemnify its directors and officers to the maximum extent permitted by the TBCA. Pinnacle's bylaws provide that it shall indemnify its directors and officers that are made a party to a proceeding because they were a director or officer of Pinnacle's for reasonable expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the proceeding if he or she acted in a manner believed in good faith to be in or not opposed to Pinnacle's best interests, and in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In addition, Pinnacle's bylaws provide that it shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if he or she furnishes Pinnacle with (1) a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct that would entitle him or her to indemnification and (2) a written statement that he or she will repay any advances if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification.

Under Pinnacle's bylaws, the termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, is not, of itself, determinative of whether the director or officer met the standard of conduct required in order for him or her to be entitled to indemnification. Pinnacle's board of directors, shareholders or independent legal counsel determines whether the director or officer has met the applicable standard of conduct in each specific case.

Pinnacle's charter and bylaws also provide that the indemnification rights contained therein do not exclude other indemnification rights to which a director or officer may be entitled under any bylaw, resolution or agreement, either specifically or in general terms approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote. Pinnacle can also provide for greater indemnification than is provided for in the bylaws if it chooses to do so, subject to approval by its shareholders and the limitations provided in Pinnacle's charter, as discussed in the subsequent paragraph.

Pinnacle's charter eliminates, with exceptions, the potential personal liability of a director for monetary damages to Pinnacle and its shareholders for breach of a duty as a director. There is, however, no elimination of liability for:

a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Pinnacle or its shareholders;

an act or omission not in good faith or which involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
or any payment of a dividend or approval of a stock repurchase that is illegal under the TBCA.

Pinnacle's charter does not eliminate or limit Pinnacle's right or the right of its shareholders to seek injunctive or other equitable relief not involving monetary damages.

The indemnification provisions of the bylaws specifically provide that Pinnacle may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director or officer against any liability asserted against and incurred by him or her in his or her capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent whether or not Pinnacle would have had the power to indemnify him or her against such liability.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling Pinnacle pursuant to the foregoing provisions, Pinnacle has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Special Meeting of Shareholders:	Under the TBCA, the board of directors, any person authorized by the charter or bylaws or (unless the charter provides otherwise) the holders of at least 10% of the votes entitled to be cast may call a special meeting of shareholders.	The NCBCA provides that a corporation will hold a special meeting of shareholders if called for by its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by the NCBCA may be conducted at the special meeting of shareholders.

Pinnacle's bylaws allow for special meetings of shareholders to be called at any time by its board of directors, its president, or by the holders of at least 25% of votes entitled to be cast at any special meeting, upon the delivery of a written request to its secretary. Shareholder Action by Written Consent:	Pinnacle’s bylaws and charter provide that any action to be or that may be taken at a meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.	The NCBCA provides that any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders of a corporation, or any action permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of such shareholders, may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if one or more unrevoked consents in writing, describing the action to be taken and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records, is signed by all shareholders entitled to vote on the action.
Election; Qualifications and Size of Board of Directors:	The board of directors must not consist of less than five nor more than 25 members. The number may be fixed or changed from time to time, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Pinnacle’s capital stock entitled to vote in an election of directors, or by the affirmative vote of a majority of all directors then in office. Pinnacle’s board of directors currently consists of 18 directors. Prior to Pinnacle’s 2015 annual meeting of shareholders, the board of directors was divided into three classes, Class I, Class II and Class III, which were nearly equal in number as possible, and each class of director served a three year term. Pinnacle’s shareholders approved an amendment to Pinnacle’s charter to declassify the board of directors at the meeting. As a result, beginning with the election of directors at the 2015 annual meeting of shareholders,	Neither BNC’s articles of incorporation nor its bylaws contain a provision addressing shareholder action by written consent, and therefore the default NCBCA provision described above requiring unanimous action by written consent applies to written action by BNC’s shareholders. BNC’s articles of incorporation provide that the number of directors will be not less than 5 and not more than 30, with the exact number to be fixed from time to time by the BNC board of directors. The BNC board of directors currently consists of 15 directors. At all times that BNC has 9 or more directors, the directors shall be divided into three classes, with each class elected to staggered three-year terms so that the terms of approximately one-third of the directors expire each year. If BNC has fewer than 9 directors, then each director shall be elected to a term ending at the next succeeding annual meeting. If the number of directors falls below 9 during a year, that does not shorten the term of any incumbent director. BNC currently has more than 9 directors and therefore has a staggered board of directors. directors are elected for one year terms when the prior term of the class in which such directors previously were a part expires. The board of directors will be completely declassified following the 2017 annual meeting of shareholders. No person over the age of 75 is eligible for election.

No person shall be elected, re-elected or appointed as a director of BNC after age 72. However, the BNC board of directors may vote, on a year to year basis, to waive such requirement and extend the mandatory retirement age by one year.

If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group, only that voting group or the remaining director(s) elected by that voting group are entitled to fill that vacancy. The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires at the next meeting of shareholders at which directors are elected.
Removal of Directors:	The TBCA provides that shareholders may remove directors with or without cause unless the charter provides that directors may be removed only for cause. Dissenters Rights: The TBCA provides that a shareholder of a corporation is generally entitled to receive payment of the fair value of his or her stock if the shareholder dissents from transactions including a proposed merger, share exchange or a sale of substantially all of the assets of the corporation. However, dissenters rights are not available to holders of shares, such as shares of Pinnacle common stock, which are registered on a national securities exchange or quoted on a national market security system.

Votes on Extraordinary Corporate Transactions:

Under the TBCA, a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets, a merger of the corporation with and into another corporation, or a share exchange involving one or more classes or series of the corporation's shares or a dissolution of the corporation must be approved by the board of directors (except in certain limited circumstances) plus, with certain exceptions, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares of stock entitled to vote thereon.

Pinnacle's charter and bylaws contain no other specific provision.

BNC Shareholder Rights

The NCBCA provides that a shareholder of a corporation is generally entitled to appraisal rights and to obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares if the shareholder dissents from certain transactions, including a proposed merger, share exchange or a sale of substantially all of the assets of the corporation. However, dissenters rights are not available to holders of shares of any class or series of shares, such as BNC common stock, that are traded in an organized market and has at least 2,000 shareholders and a market value of at least $20,000,000.

Under the NCBCA, a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets, a merger of the corporation with and into another corporation, or a share exchange involving one or more classes or series of the corporation's shares or a dissolution of the corporation must be approved by the board of directors (except in certain limited circumstances) plus, with certain exceptions, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all shares of stock entitled to vote thereon.

Subject to limited exceptions, BNC's articles of incorporation require the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote to approve a merger or other business combination, unless the transaction is approved, prior to consummation, by the vote of at least 75% of the BNC board of directors or, in the case of a merger or combination proposed by a Related Person (as defined in BNC's articles of incorporation), 75% of the Continuing Directors (as defined in BNC's articles of incorporation).

Consideration of Other Constituencies:	The TBCA provides that no corporation (nor its officers or directors) registered or traded on a national securities exchange or registered with the SEC shall be held liable for either having failed to approve the acquisition of shares by an interested shareholder on or before such interested shareholder's share acquisition date, or for opposing any proposed merger, exchange, tender offer or significant disposition of the assets of the corporation or any of its subsidiaries because of a good faith belief that such merger, exchange, tender offer or significant disposition of assets would adversely affect the corporation's employees, customers, suppliers, the communities in which such corporation or its subsidiaries operate or are located or any other relevant factor if such factors are permitted to be considered by the board of directors under the charter for such corporation in connection with a merger, exchange, tender offer or significant disposition of assets. Under Pinnacle's charter, the Pinnacle board of directors, when evaluating any offer of another party (i) to make a tender offer or exchange offer for any equity security of Pinnacle, (ii) to merge or consolidate any other corporation with Pinnacle, or (iii) to purchase or otherwise acquire all or substantially all of the assets of Pinnacle, is required to, in determining what is in the best interests of Pinnacle and its shareholders, give due consideration to all relevant factors, including without limitation: (A) the short-term and long-term social and economic effects on the employees, customers, shareholders and other constituents of Pinnacle and its subsidiaries, and on the communities within which Pinnacle and its subsidiaries operate (it being understood that any subsidiary bank of Pinnacle is charged with providing support to and being involved in the communities it serves); and (B) the	North Carolina does not have an analogous statute. Amendment of Charter or Articles of Incorporation:	The TBCA provides that certain relatively technical amendments to a corporation's charter may be adopted by the directors without shareholder action. Business Combinations Involving Interested Shareholders:	The Tennessee Business Combination Act generally prohibits a business combination Pinnacle or a subsidiary with an interested shareholder within five years after the shareholder becomes an interested shareholder. Pinnacle or a subsidiary can, however, enter into a business combination within that period if, before the interested shareholder became such, Pinnacle's board of directors approved the business combination or the transaction in which the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder. After that five-year moratorium, the business combination with the interested shareholder can be consummated only if it satisfies certain fair price criteria or is approved by two-thirds of the other shareholders.	The North Carolina Shareholder Protection Act byand the North Carolina Control Share Acquisition Act restrict business combinations with, and the accumulation of shares of voting stock of, certain North Carolina corporations. BNC's articles of incorporation expressly state that BNC has opted out of the restrictions imposed by these statutes. As a result, these statutes do not apply to BNC or to the mergers.

For purposes of the Tennessee Business Combination Act, a business combination includes mergers, share exchanges, sales and leases of assets, issuances of securities, and similar transactions. An interested shareholder is generally any person or entity that beneficially owns 10% or more of the voting power of any outstanding class or series of Pinnacle stock.

The Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act generally provides that control shares will not have any voting rights, absent the restoration of such rights by a majority vote of the corporation's voting stock. Control shares are shares acquired by a person under certain circumstances which, when added to other shares owned, would give such person effective control over one-fifth, one-third or a majority of all voting power in the election of a Tennessee corporation's directors. Shares acquired by such person that causes it to exceed each of these thresholds will be deemed to be control shares. The Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act is not applicable to Pinnacle because Pinnacle's charter does not contain a specific provision opting in to the Tennessee Control Share Acquisition Act.

Pinnacle's charter does not have special requirements for transactions with interested parties.

Greenmail Act	The Tennessee Greenmail Act applies to a Tennessee corporation that has a class of voting stock registered or traded on a national securities exchange or registered with the SEC pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act. Under the Tennessee Greenmail Act, Pinnacle may not purchase any of its shares at a price above the market value of such shares from any person who holds more than 3% of the class of securities to be purchased if such person has held such shares for less than two years, unless the purchase has been approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of voting stock issued by Pinnacle or Pinnacle makes an offer, of at least equal value per share, to all shareholders of such class.	North Carolina does not have an analogous statute.

Further, if Pinnacle's board of directors elects not to exclude the proposal from consideration at the meeting (although not included in the proxy statement), the persons named as proxies in Pinnacle's proxy for Pinnacle's 2018 annual meeting of shareholders may exercise their discretionary authority to act upon any such proposal.

BNC

If the merger occurs in the expected timeframe, there will be no BNC annual meeting of shareholders in 2017. In that case, shareholder proposals must be submitted to the Secretary of Pinnacle in accordance with the procedures described above.

In case the merger is not completed on the expected timeframe, or at all, BNC may hold an annual meeting of shareholders in 2017. If BNC holds an annual meeting of shareholders in 2017, any BNC shareholder who may desire to submit a proposal under the SEC's shareholder proposal rule (Rule 14a-8) for inclusion in BNC's proxy and proxy statement for its 2017 annual meeting must have presented such proposal in writing to the corporate secretary of BNC at BNC's administrative office no later than December 7, 2016, provided, however, that if the date of BNC's 2017 annual meeting, if held, is more than 30 days before or after May 19, 2017, such proposal must be presented in accordance with the above procedures no later than a reasonable time before BNC begins to print and send its proxy materials for its 2017 annual meeting. Any shareholder proposals must also meet all other applicable requirements for inclusion in BNC's proxy statement.

BNC's bylaws provide an advance notice procedure for a shareholder to properly nominate any person for election to the board at an annual meeting. If the annual meeting is not scheduled to be held within a period that commences 30 days before the anniversary date of the annual meeting for the preceding year and ends within 60 days after such anniversary date (which we refer to as an Other Meeting Date), the shareholder must give notice by the later of the close of business on (i) the date 90 days prior to such Other Meeting Date or (ii) the tenth day following the date such Other Meeting Date is first publicly announced or disclosed.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, representations, warranties and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I.

THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the North Carolina Business Corporation Act (the NCBCA), at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall merge with and into Target. Target shall be the Surviving Company in the Merger, and shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of North Carolina. Upon consummation of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall terminate.

1.2 Effective Time. The Merger shall become effective as set forth in the articles of merger (the Articles of Merger) that shall be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina (the North Carolina Secretary) on the Closing Date. The term Effective Time shall be the date and time when the Merger becomes effective, as set forth in the Articles of Merger.

1.3 Effects of the Merger. At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects set forth in Section 55-11-06 of the NCBCA.

1.4 Conversion of Target Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Target, Parent, Merger Sub or the holder of any of the following securities:

(a) Subject to Section 2.2(e), each share of the common stock, no par value per share, of Target (including shares of Target Non-Voting Common Stock, the Target Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for shares of Target Common Stock owned by Target, Parent or Merger Sub (other than shares of Target Common Stock held in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like, or otherwise held in a fiduciary or agency capacity, that are beneficially owned by third parties (any such shares held in a fiduciary or agency capacity by Target, Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries, as the case may be, being referred to herein as Trust Account Shares) and shares of Target Common Stock held on account of a debt previously contracted (DPC Shares)), shall be converted into the right to receive 0.5235 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares (the Exchange Ratio) of the common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of Parent (the Parent Common Stock) together with cash in lieu of any fractional shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2(e) of this Agreement (the Merger Consideration). No shares of preferred stock of Parent will be issued in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) All of the shares of Target Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Article I shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time, and each certificate previously representing any such shares of Target Common Stock (each, a Certificate) and each uncertificated share of Target Common Stock (each, an Uncertificated Share) registered to a holder of Target Common Stock shall thereafter represent only the right to receive a certificate (or at Parent's option, evidence of shares in book entry form) representing the Merger Consideration in whole shares of Parent Common Stock, together with any cash in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 2.2(e), into which the shares of Target Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Uncertificated Share have been converted pursuant to this Section 1.4 and Section 2.2(e) and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto which the holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.2(b). Certificates and Uncertificated Shares previously representing shares of Target Common Stock that have been converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration shall be exchanged for certificates (or at Parent's option, evidence of shares in book entry form) representing whole shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the Merger Consideration, together with any cash in lieu of fractional shares and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto which the holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.2(b), in consideration therefor upon the surrender of such Certificates or transfer of such Uncertificated Shares in accordance with Section 2.2. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if, prior to the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock or Target Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, an equitable and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Exchange Ratio per share and Merger Consideration payable pursuant to this Agreement and any amounts payable to the holders of Target Equity Awards pursuant to this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, at the Effective Time, all shares of Target Capital Stock that are owned by Target, Parent or Merger Sub (other than Trust Account Shares and DPC Shares) shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and neither the Merger Consideration nor any other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

1.5 Parent Capital Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of Parent Capital Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger.

1.6 Merger Sub Common Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of common stock of Merger Sub, no par value per share (the Merger Sub Common Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one share of common stock, no par value per share, of the Surviving Company.

1.7 Treatment of Target Equity Awards.

(a) At the Effective Time, each outstanding option to acquire shares of Target Common Stock (a Target Stock Option) issued pursuant to Target's equity-based compensation plans identified in Section 4.12(a) of the Target Disclosure Schedule (the Target Stock Plans) that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether vested or unvested, shall become fully vested and shall be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive a cash payment from Parent or Parent Bank (the Cash Out Amount) in an amount equal to the product of (x) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration Price (as defined below) over the exercise price of each such Target Stock Option and (y) the number of shares of Target Common Stock subject to such option to the extent not previously exercised. After the Effective Time, any such cancelled Target Stock Option shall no longer be exercisable by the former holder thereof, but shall only entitle the holder to the payment of the Cash Out Amount, without interest. In the event the exercise price per share of Target Common Stock subject to a Target Stock Option is equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration Price, such Target Stock Option shall be cancelled without consideration and have no further force or effect. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Merger Consideration Price means the product of (i) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by (ii) the Parent Share Closing Price.

(b) At the Effective Time, each outstanding award of shares of Target Common Stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction (a Target Restricted Share Award) granted under the Target Stock Plans, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Target Restricted Share Awards granted on or after December 31, 2016) shall become fully vested and shall be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of each share of Target Common Stock underlying such Target Restricted Share Award.

(c) At the Effective Time, each outstanding Target Restricted Share Award granted on or after December 31, 2016 (and not as of the Effective Time previously forfeited or otherwise delivered to or retained by Target in connection with the payment of any withholding taxes associated with such award), shall be converted into an award (a Parent Restricted Share Award) of a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Target Common Stock subject to the corresponding Target Restricted Share Award multiplied by (ii) the Exchange Ratio. Each Parent Restricted Share Award shall, unless otherwise provided for in an agreement by and between the grantee and Parent, be subject to the same terms, conditions and restrictions as applied to the corresponding Target Restricted Share Award immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(d) At the Effective Time, each outstanding restricted stock unit award in respect of shares of Target Common Stock (a Target RSU Award and any such award or Target Stock Option or Target Restricted Share Award, a Target Equity Award) granted under the Target Stock Plans, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall become fully vested and shall be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of each share of Target Common Stock underlying such Target RSU Award.

(e) At or as soon as practicable following the Effective Time (which may be in connection with the payment of the first regular base salary payment due to such holder following the Closing, but in any event shall occur within thirty (30) days of the Effective Time), Parent or Parent Bank shall deliver the Cash Out Amount to the holders of Target Stock Options, without interest. Such payments may be reduced by any Taxes withheld pursuant to Section 2.3.

(f) At or as soon as practicable following the Effective Time (which may be in connection with the payment of the first regular base salary payment due to such holder following the Closing, but in any event shall occur within ten (10) business days of the Effective Time), Parent or Parent Bank shall deliver any Merger Consideration payable pursuant to Sections 1.7(b) or 1.7(d) to the holders of Target Restricted Share Awards and Target RSU Awards. Such payments may be reduced by any Taxes withheld pursuant to Section 2.3.

(g) At or prior to the Effective Time, Target and Parent, through their respective board of directors or the appropriate committee thereof, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions that are necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 1.7.

(h) Parent shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a number of shares of Parent Common Stock in respect of Parent Restricted Share Awards issued pursuant to Section 1.7(c). Effective as of the Effective Time, Parent shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor or other appropriate form) with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock subject to such Parent Restricted Share Awards and shall maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as such awards remain outstanding.

1.8 Articles of Surviving Company. At the Effective Time, the articles of incorporation of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Merger Sub Articles), shall be the articles of incorporation of the Surviving Company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law; provided, that the name of the Surviving Company as reflected in the Merger Sub Articles shall be BNC Bancorp .

1.9 Bylaws of Surviving Company. At the Effective Time, the bylaws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Merger Sub Bylaws), shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law; provided, that the name of the Surviving Company as reflected in the Merger Sub Bylaws shall be BNC Bancorp .

1.10 Tax Consequences. It is intended that the Mergers, taken together, shall constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization for the purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

1.11 Officers and Directors of Surviving Company. The officers and directors of Merger Sub as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall continue as the officers and directors of the Surviving Company.

respect to the Merger Consideration (such cash and certificates for shares of Parent Common Stock (or at Parent's option, evidence of shares in book entry form), together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund), to be issued pursuant to Section 1.4 and paid pursuant to Section 1.4 and Section 2.2(e) in exchange for shares of Target Common Stock outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any other rights of ownership with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold all dividends and other distributions payable or distributable with respect to such shares for the account of the persons entitled thereto.

2.2 Delivery of Merger Consideration.

(a) As soon as practicable, but in no event later than five (5) business days after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of one or more Certificates or Uncertificated Shares a letter of transmittal (Letter of Transmittal) in customary form as reasonably agreed by the parties hereto (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss of and title shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates or transfer of the Uncertificated Shares to the Exchange Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates or the transfer of the Uncertificated Shares in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon proper surrender of a Certificate or Certificates to the Exchange Agent for exchange and cancellation, together with such properly completed Letter of Transmittal or upon receipt of an agent's message by the Exchange Agent (or such other evidence, if any, of transfer as the Exchange Agent may reasonably request) in the case of a book entry transfer of Uncertificated Shares, the holder of such Certificate or Certificates or Uncertificated Shares, as applicable, shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, as applicable, (i) the Merger Consideration that such holder of the Certificates or Uncertificated Shares shall have become entitled pursuant to the provisions of Article I, including cash in lieu of any fractional shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2(e); and (ii) a check representing the amount of any dividends or distributions that such holder is entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.2(b), and the Certificate or Certificates so surrendered or the Uncertificated Share or Uncertificated Shares transferred shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on any Merger Consideration, including on any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares, or on any unpaid dividends and distributions payable to holders of Certificates or Uncertificated Shares.

(b) No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate or untransferred Uncertificated Share with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock represented thereby until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate or transfer such Uncertificated Share in accordance with this Article II. After the surrender of a Certificate or transfer of an Uncertificated Share in accordance with this Article II, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to the whole shares of Parent Common Stock which the shares of Target Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Uncertificated Share have been converted into the right to receive.

(c) If any certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate or Certificates surrendered or the Uncertificated Share or Uncertificated Shares transferred in exchange therefor is or are registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate or Certificates so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer or such Uncertificated Share or Uncertificated Shares shall be properly transferred, and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate or Certificates surrendered or Uncertificated Share or Uncertificated Shares transferred, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Exchange Agent

(d) After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Target of the shares of Target Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions that such holder is entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.2(b).

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender of Certificates or transfer of Uncertificated Shares for exchange, no dividend or distribution with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Parent. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Parent shall pay to each former shareholder of Target who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the average of the closing prices of Parent Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (Nasdaq), or such other securities market or stock exchange on which the Parent Common Stock then principally trades, for the ten (10) trading days ending on the trading day immediately preceding the Closing Date (the Parent Share Closing Price) by (ii) the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Parent Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.4.

(f) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of Target as of the first anniversary of the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent. Any former shareholders of Target who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions on the Parent Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of Target Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Target, its Subsidiaries, Parent, Parent Bank, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of Target Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(g) In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by Parent, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Parent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent, or if the Merger Consideration payable with respect to such Certificate has been returned to Parent pursuant to Section 2.2(f), Parent, will issue the Merger Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate.

(h) The payment of any transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration, value added and other Taxes and fees (including any penalties and interest) incurred solely by a holder of shares of Target Common Stock in connection with the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and the filing of any related Tax returns and other documentation with respect to such Taxes and fees, shall be the sole responsibility of such holder.

2.3 Withholding. Each of Parent, Parent Bank, Target and the Surviving Corporation is entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause the Exchange Agent to deduct and withhold, from any consideration payable or otherwise deliverable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder or former holder of shares of Target Common Stock or Target Equity Awards such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld therefrom under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law or under any other applicable legal requirement. To the extent such amounts are so deducted or withheld and remitted on a timely basis to the appropriate Governmental Entities, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as having been paid to the person to whom such amounts would otherwise have been paid. The parties hereto shall reasonably cooperate to reduce or eliminate any such deduction or withholding to the extent permissible under applicable law.

3.30 Internal Controls. The records, systems, controls, data and information of Parent and its Subsidiaries are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or accountants engaged or utilized by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any non-exclusive ownership and non-direct control that would not reasonably be likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Parent. To the knowledge of Parent, there is no reason to believe that Parent's outside auditors and its chief executive officer and chief financial officer will not be able to give the certifications and attestations required pursuant to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, without qualification, prior to the Closing Date.

The portions of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus relating to Target and its Subsidiaries and other portions within the reasonable control of Target and its Subsidiaries will comply in all material respects with the provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no representation or warranty is made by Target with respect to statements made or incorporated by reference therein based on information provided or supplied by or on behalf of Parent or its Subsidiaries for inclusion in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4.

4.34 Internal Controls. The records, systems, controls, data and information of Target and its Subsidiaries are recorded, stored, maintained and operated under means (including any electronic, mechanical or photographic process, whether computerized or not) that are under the exclusive ownership and direct control of Target or any of its Subsidiaries or accountants engaged or utilized by Target or any of its Subsidiaries (including all means of access thereto and therefrom), except for any non-exclusive ownership and non-direct control that would not reasonably be likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Target. Target has implemented and maintains a system of (i) disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Exchange Act) to ensure that material information relating to Target or any of its Subsidiaries is made known to the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of Target by others within those entities as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures and to make the certifications required by the Exchange Act and Sections 302 and 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, and (ii) internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with GAAP. Copies of any such disclosures were made in writing by management to Target's auditors and audit committee and a copy has been previously made available to Parent. To the knowledge of Target, there is no reason to believe that Target's outside auditors and its chief executive officer and chief financial officer will not be able to give the certifications and attestations required pursuant to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, without qualification, prior to the Closing Date.

Each of Target and Parent shall use their reasonable best efforts in consultation with their respective legal counsel to have the Form S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and Parent and Target shall thereafter promptly mail or deliver the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to their respective shareholders. Parent shall also use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or Blue Sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and Target shall furnish all information concerning Target and the holders of Target Capital Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action. If at any time any information relating to any of the parties, or their respective affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by a party, which information should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to any of the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus so that such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other parties hereto and, to the extent required by law, rules or regulations, an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and mailed, delivered or otherwise made available to the shareholders of Parent and Target.

(b) The parties hereto shall cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file and cause their applicable Subsidiaries to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities or Regulatory Agencies which are reasonably necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including, without limitation, the Mergers and the Bank Merger), and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such Governmental Entities, Regulatory Agencies and third parties. Parent and Target agree to furnish each other and each other's counsel with all information concerning themselves, their Subsidiaries, directors, trustees, officers and shareholders and such other matters as reasonably may be necessary or advisable in connection with the Joint Proxy Statement/

Prospectus, the Form S-4, the Requisite Regulatory Approvals and any application, petition or other statement or application made by or on behalf of Parent, Parent Bank, Target or Target Bank or any of their affiliates to any Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Parent and Target shall have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, all the information relating to Parent or Target, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, which appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party shall consult with the other in advance of any meeting or conference with any third party or any Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency, give the other party and its counsel the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences, except to the extent such meetings and conferences relate to confidential supervisory information. Each party will provide the other with copies of any applications, notices, petitions or filings, and all correspondence relating thereto, prior to filing, other than any portions of material filed in connection therewith that contain confidential supervisory information or other information filed under a claim of confidentiality and, in each case, subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information. Each party acknowledges and agrees that nothing in this Agreement, including this Section 6.1 and Section 6.2, shall require any party to provide confidential supervisory information to any other party.

(c) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Parent and Target shall use its reasonable best efforts to (i) avoid the entry of, or to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that would restrain, prevent or delay the Closing, and (ii) avoid or eliminate each and every impediment so as to enable the Closing to occur as soon as possible, including proposing, negotiating, committing to and effecting, by consent decree, hold separate order, or otherwise, the sale, divestiture or disposition of businesses or assets of Parent, Target and their respective Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, nothing contained in this Agreement shall require Parent or Target or their respective Subsidiaries to take, or agree to take, any actions specified in this Section 6.1 that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the Mergers and the Bank Merger (a Burdensome Condition).

(d) Each of Parent and Target agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, (i) that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Form S-4 will, at the time the Form S-4 and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (ii) that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the time of the Parent Shareholders Meeting and the Target Shareholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make any statement therein, in light of the circumstances under which such statement was made, not misleading. Each of Parent and Target further agrees that if it becomes aware that any information furnished by it would cause any of the statements in the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take appropriate steps to correct the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

(e) To the extent permitted by applicable law, Target and Parent shall promptly advise each other upon their (or their Subsidiaries) receiving any communication from any Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval will not be obtained, that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed or that a Burdensome Condition might be imposed on any such Requisite Regulatory Approval.

Target and the board of directors of Target shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from the shareholders of Target the Requisite Target Vote, including by communicating to Target's shareholders the Target board of directors recommendation (and including such recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus) that the shareholders approve this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, and Target shall engage a proxy solicitor reasonably acceptable to Parent to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to the Requisite Target Vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein, subject to Sections 8.1 and

8.2, if the board of directors of Target, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement, then the board of directors of Target may withdraw or modify or qualify in a manner adverse to Parent its recommendation (a Target Adverse Recommendation Change) to its shareholders that they approve this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, and in submitting this Agreement to its shareholders, the board of directors of Target may submit this Agreement to its shareholders without recommendation or with such modified or qualified recommendation (although the resolutions approving this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the board of directors of Target may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation or such modified or qualified recommendation to its shareholders in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto; provided, that the board of directors of Target may not take any actions under this sentence unless (i) it gives Parent at least five (5) business days prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action (including, in the event such action is taken by the board of directors of Target in response to an Acquisition Proposal, the latest material terms and conditions and the identity of the third party in any such Acquisition Proposal, or any amendment or modification thereof, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstances if not in response to an Acquisition Proposal) and (ii) at the end of such notice period, the board of directors of Target takes into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by Parent and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement. Any material amendment to any Acquisition Proposal will be deemed to be a new Acquisition Proposal for purposes of this Section 6.3 and will require a new notice period as referred to in this Section 6.3; provided, that with respect to any such amendment, the applicable notice period in this Section 6.3 shall be three (3) business days instead of five (5) business days.

(b) Target shall adjourn or postpone the Target Shareholders Meeting if (i) as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled there are insufficient shares of Target Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or (ii) on the date of such meeting Target has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the Requisite Target Vote; provided, that Target shall not be required to adjourn or postpone the Target Shareholders Meeting more than one (1) time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated, the Target Shareholders Meeting shall be convened and this Agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of Target at the Target Shareholders Meeting for the purpose of Target's shareholders voting on the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Target of such obligations.

6.4 Parent Shareholder Approval.

(a) Parent shall take, in accordance with applicable law and the Parent Charter and bylaws of Parent, all action necessary to convene a meeting of its shareholders (the Parent Shareholders Meeting) to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after the Form S-4 is declared effective for the purpose of obtaining the Requisite Parent Vote required in connection with this Agreement and, if so desired and mutually agreed upon, other matters of the type customarily brought before an annual or special meeting of shareholders to approve the matters required by the Requisite Parent Vote. Parent and the board of directors of Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from the shareholders of Parent the Requisite Parent Vote, including by communicating to Parent's shareholders the Parent board of directors recommendation (and including such recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus) that the shareholders approve the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger, and Parent shall engage a proxy solicitor reasonably acceptable to Target to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to the Requisite Parent Vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein, subject to Sections 8.1 and 8.2 if the board of directors of Parent, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend that Parent's shareholders approve the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger, then the board of directors of Parent may withdraw or modify or qualify in a manner adverse to Target its recommendation (a Parent Adverse Recommendation Change) to its shareholders that they approve the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger, and in submitting such proposal to its shareholders, the board of directors of Parent may submit such proposal to its shareholders without recommendation or with such modified or qualified recommendation (although the resolutions approving this Agreement and the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the board of directors of Parent may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation or such modified or qualified recommendation to its shareholders in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto; provided, that the board of directors of Parent may not take any actions under this sentence unless (i) it gives Target at least five (5) business days prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action and (ii) at the end of such notice period, the board of directors of Parent takes into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by Target and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, determines in good faith that it would nevertheless more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend that Parent's shareholders approve the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger.

(b) Parent shall adjourn or postpone the Parent Shareholders Meeting if (i) as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled there are insufficient shares of Parent Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or (ii) on the date of such meeting Parent has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the Requisite Parent Vote; provided, that Parent shall not be required to adjourn or postpone the Parent Shareholders Meeting more than one (1) time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated, the Parent Shareholders Meeting shall be convened and this Agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of Parent at the Parent Shareholders Meeting for the purpose of Parent's shareholders voting on the approval of the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Parent of such obligations.

6.5 Timing of Shareholders Meetings. Parent and Target will use their respective reasonable best efforts to hold the Parent Shareholders Meeting and the Target Shareholders Meeting on the same date.

6.6 Legal Conditions to Merger. Subject in all respects to Sections 6.1, 6.3 and 6.4, Target and Parent shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements that may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Merger and the Bank Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other parties to obtain) any material consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency and any other third party that is required to be obtained by Parent, Target or their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Mergers, the Bank Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.7 Nasdaq Listing. Parent shall cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger to be authorized for listing on Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

6.8 Employee Benefit Plans; Existing Agreements.

(a) During the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the first anniversary thereof (the Protected Period) and except as otherwise provided in this Section 6.8, Parent shall provide each employee of Target and its Subsidiaries who continues to be employed by Parent or its Subsidiaries immediately following the Effective Time (a Continuing Employee) with (i) a base salary or base wage rate, as applicable, that is no less favorable than the base salary or base wage rate, as applicable, provided by Target or any of its Subsidiaries to such Continuing Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) short- and long-term incentive compensation opportunities that, in each case, are (A) with respect to the fiscal year of the Target in which the Effective Time occurs (if the Effective Time occurs after the first quarter of such fiscal year), no less favorable than the short- and long-term incentive compensation opportunities provided by Target or any of its Subsidiaries to such Continuing Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (B) with respect to (x) the fiscal year of Parent commencing immediately after the year in which the Effective Time occurs (if the Effective Time occurs after the first quarter of such fiscal year) and (y) the fiscal year of the Target in which the Effective Time occurs (if the Effective Time occurs in the first quarter of such fiscal year, in which case clause (A) above shall not apply), no less favorable than the short- and long-term incentive compensation opportunities provided by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to similarly-situated employees of Parent or its Subsidiaries, and (iii) participation in the other compensation and employee benefit plans in which similarly-situated employees of Parent or its Subsidiaries participate, to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Parent or its Subsidiaries. Without limiting the immediately preceding sentence, Parent shall provide to each Continuing Employee whose employment is terminated without cause during the Protected Period, severance benefits equal to the amounts set forth on Schedule 6.8(a) taking into account the service of such Continuing Employees prior to the Effective Time consistent with Section 6.8(b) and any service with Parent and its affiliates thereafter. For purposes of this Section 6.8, cause shall have the same meaning as provided in any written employment agreement between any Continuing Employee and Parent or any affiliate of Parent on the date such Continuing Employee is terminated, or if no such definition or employment agreement exists, cause shall mean conduct amounting to (1) fraud or dishonesty against Parent or any affiliate of Parent; (2) the Continuing Employee's willful misconduct, repeated refusal to follow the reasonable directions of the Parent's board of directors or knowing violation of law in the course of performance of the duties of the Continuing Employee's service with Parent or any affiliate of Parent; (3) repeated absences from work without a reasonable excuse; (4) repeated intoxication with alcohol or drugs while on the premises of Parent or any affiliate of Parent during regular business hours; (5) a conviction or plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or a crime involving dishonesty; or (6) a breach or violation of the terms of any agreement to which the Continuing Employee and Parent or any affiliate of Parent are party.

(b) With respect to each Parent Benefit Plan, Parent shall recognize all service of the Continuing Employees with Target and its Subsidiaries (including any predecessor entities or any entities which merged or consolidated with or into Target or any of its Subsidiaries) for all purposes; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized (i) for purposes of benefit accrual under any tax qualified defined benefit pension plan, (ii) under any Parent Benefit Plan that is frozen to new participants or that applies to a grandfathered population or (iii) to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. With respect to the Continuing Employees and their eligible dependents, Parent shall (A) recognize all such service under the Parent Benefit Plans for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any preexisting condition limitations, (B) waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under a corresponding Target Benefit Plan and (C) give credit for amounts paid under a corresponding benefit plan for purposes of applying deductibles, copayments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Parent Benefit Plans; provided, however, that, with respect to any welfare benefits plans that are provided through a third-party insurer (i.e., are not self-insured), Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to effectuate the foregoing.

(c) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall assume and honor in accordance with their terms all employment, severance, change in control and other compensation agreements and arrangements between Target or any of its Subsidiaries and any of their employees, which are not terminated in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and all accrued and vested benefit obligations through the Effective

Time which are between Target or any of its Subsidiaries and any of their current or former directors, officers, employees or consultants.

(d) At the Effective Time, Target shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, cease contributions to and terminate the 401(k) plan sponsored by Target (the Target 401(k) Plan), subject to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and shall (i) adopt written resolutions (a copy of which shall be delivered to Parent at the Closing) to terminate the Target 401(k) Plan and fully vest all participants in their benefits thereunder, such termination and vesting to be effective as of the day immediately prior to the Effective Time; and (ii) deliver to Parent, prior to the Closing, notice of the Target 401(k) Plan termination. Parent reserves the right to suspend the distribution of benefits from the Target 401(k) Plan until the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS with respect to the termination of the Target 401(k) Plan. The Continuing Employees shall be eligible to participate, effective as of the Closing Date, in a 401(k) plan sponsored or maintained by Parent or one of its Subsidiaries (the Parent 401(k) Plan). Parent and Target shall take any and all actions as may be required, including amendments to the Target 401(k) Plan and/or Parent 401(k) Plan, to permit each Continuing Employee who is a participant in the Target 401(k) Plan to be eligible to commence participation in the Parent 401(k) Plan as of the Closing Date, make in-kind rollover contributions to the Parent 401(k) Plan of eligible rollover distributions (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code) in an amount equal to the full account balance distributable to such Continuing Employee from the Target 401(k) Plan, and accept rollovers of any plan loans.

(e) On and after the date hereof, any broad-based employee notices or communication materials (including any website posting) with respect to employment, compensation or benefits matters addressed in this Agreement or related, directly or indirectly, to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the prior prompt review and comment of the other party unless the notice or communication material is similar in substance to a notice or communication material previously reviewed pursuant to this Section 6.8(e), and the party seeking to distribute any such notice or communication shall consider in good faith revising such notice or communication to reflect any comments or advice that the other party timely provides.

(f) Nothing in this Agreement shall confer upon any employee, officer, director or consultant of Target or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates any right to continue in the employ or service of Parent, the Surviving Company, Target, or any Subsidiary or affiliate thereof, or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Surviving Company, Target, Parent or any Subsidiary or affiliate thereof to discharge or terminate the services of any employee, officer, director or consultant of Target or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to (i) establish, amend, or modify any Target Benefit Plan, Parent Benefit Plan or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement, or (ii) alter or limit the ability of Parent, the Surviving Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates to amend, modify or terminate any particular Target Benefit Plan, Parent Benefit Plan or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Effective Time. Without limiting the generality of and subject to Section 9.13, nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any person, including any current or former employee, officer, director or consultant of Target or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates, any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

6.9 Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) In the event of any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, including, without limitation, any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation in which any individual who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director, manager, officer or employee of Target or any of its Subsidiaries, or who is or was serving at the request of Target or any of its Subsidiaries as a director, manager, officer, employee or agent of another person, including any entity specified in the Target Disclosure Schedule (the Indemnified Parties), is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that such person is or was a director, manager, officer or employee of Target or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their predecessors or is or was serving at the request of Target or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their predecessors as a director, manager, officer, employee or agent of another person or (ii) this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, whether in any case asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time, the parties hereto agree to cooperate and use their best efforts to defend against and respond thereto. From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each such Indemnified Party against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and court costs and expenses in advance of the final disposition of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation to each Indemnified Party upon receipt of an undertaking (in reasonable and customary form) to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any such threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation.

(b) Subject to the following sentence, for a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by Target (provided, that Parent may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims against the present and former officers and directors of Target and its Subsidiaries arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement); provided, however, that Parent shall not be obligated to expend, on an annual basis, an amount in excess of 250% of the aggregate annual premium paid as of the date hereof by Target for such insurance (the Premium Cap), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed the Premium Cap, then Parent shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance which provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the Premium Cap. In lieu of the foregoing, Target, in consultation with Parent, may (and at the request of Parent, Target shall use its reasonable best efforts to) obtain at or prior to the Effective Time, at Parent's expense, a six-year tail policy under Target's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence if and to the extent that the same may be obtained for an amount that, in the aggregate, does not exceed the Premium Cap.

(c) In the event the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties or assets to any person, then, and in each such case, the Surviving Corporation shall cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation will expressly assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.9.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.9 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives.

6.10 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is reasonably necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Mergers, the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by the other parties to this Agreement.

6.11 Advice of Changes. Target and Parent shall promptly advise the other of any fact, change, event or circumstance known to it (i) that has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on it or (ii) which it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein or that reasonably could be expected to give rise, individually or in the aggregate, to the failure of a condition in Article VII; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties (or remedies with respect thereto) or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement; provided, further, that a failure to comply with this Section 6.11 shall not constitute the failure of any condition set forth in Sections 7.2 or 7.3 to be satisfied, or otherwise constitute a breach of this Agreement by the party failing to give such notice, in each case unless the underlying breach would independently result in the failure of a condition set forth in Sections 7.2 or 7.3 to be satisfied.

6.12 Acquisition Proposals; Board Recommendation.

(a) Target shall and shall cause its Subsidiaries and each of its and its Subsidiaries affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by Target or any of its Subsidiaries (each a Target Representative)) to immediately cease and terminate any and all existing discussions, negotiations or activities with any other parties conducted heretofore (whether currently ongoing or not) with respect to the possibility or consideration of any Acquisition Proposal. Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.12(b), from the date of this Agreement through the Effective Time, Target shall not, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries not to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause Target Representatives not to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate, knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action designed to solicit, initiate, facilitate or encourage any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) participate in any discussions, negotiations or other communications regarding any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) except pursuant to Section 6.3 in connection with and after making a Target Adverse Recommendation Change, make or authorize any statement, recommendation or solicitation in support of any Acquisition Proposal or (iv) provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to any person relating to an Acquisition Proposal with respect to such party.

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing Section 6.12(a), prior to the receipt of the Requisite Target Vote, Target may and may permit its Subsidiaries and Target Representatives to engage in discussions and negotiations with, or provide any nonpublic information or data to, any person in response to an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by such person made after the date of this Agreement to the extent that its board of directors concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel, and with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors) that failure to take such actions would be more likely than not to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, however, that, prior to providing any nonpublic information permitted to be provided pursuant to the foregoing, Target shall have provided notice to Parent of its intention to provide such information, and shall have provided such information to Parent if not previously provided to Parent, and shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to Target than the Confidentiality Agreement, which confidentiality agreement shall not provide such person with any exclusive right to negotiate with Target.

(ii) Target shall notify Parent promptly (but in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours) after receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, or any request for nonpublic information relating to Target or any of its Subsidiaries that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry from any person seeking to have discussions, negotiations or other communications relating to a possible Acquisition Proposal. Such notice shall, if made orally, be confirmed in writing, and shall indicate the identity of the person making the Acquisition Proposal, inquiry or request and the material terms and conditions of any inquiries, requests, proposals or offers (including a copy thereof if in writing and any related documentation or correspondence). Target shall also promptly, and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours, notify Parent, orally and in writing, if it enters into discussions or negotiations or engages in other communications concerning any Acquisition Proposal or provides nonpublic information or data to any person in accordance with this Section 6.12(b) and keep Parent reasonably apprised of the status and terms of any such proposals, offers, discussions or negotiations on a current basis including by providing a copy of all material documentation or correspondence relating thereto. Target shall use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any existing confidentiality or standstill agreements to which it or any of its Subsidiaries is a party in accordance with the terms thereof.

(iii) Nothing contained in this Section 6.12 shall prohibit Target, its board of directors or any of its Subsidiaries from taking and disclosing to its shareholders a position required by or otherwise complying with Rule 14e-2(a), Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A or Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that compliance with such rules shall not in any way limit or modify the effect that any action taken pursuant to such rules has under any other provision of this Agreement.

(c) Unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, Target shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their respective officers, directors, managers, agents, advisors and Target Representatives not to on its or any of Target's Subsidiaries or affiliates' behalf, enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, or other agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement referred to and entered into in accordance with Section 6.12(b)) relating to any Acquisition Proposal.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, the term Acquisition Proposal means, any proposal, offer or third party indication of interest in any (x) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of 20% or more of the consolidated assets of Target and its Subsidiaries or 20% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Target or any of its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 20% of the consolidated assets of Target, (y) tender offer (including a self-tender) or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in such third party beneficially owning 20% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Target or any of its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 20% of the consolidated assets of Target or (z) merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Target or any of its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 20% of the consolidated assets of Target, in each case other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.13 Financial Statements and Other Current Information. As soon as reasonably practicable after they become available, but in no event more than thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar month ending after the date hereof, Target shall furnish to Parent (a) consolidated financial statements of Target (including balance sheets, statements of operations and shareholders' equity) (to the extent available) as of and for such month then ended, (b) internal management reports showing actual financial performance against plan and previous period, and (c) to the extent permitted by applicable law, any reports provided to Target's board of directors or any committee thereof relating to the financial performance and risk management of Target and its Subsidiaries.

6.14 Exemption from Liability under Section 16(b). Target and Parent agree that, in order to most effectively compensate and retain those officers and directors of Target subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act (Target Insiders), both prior to and after the Effective Time, it is desirable that Target Insiders not be subject to a risk of liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law in connection with the conversion of shares of Target Common Stock and Target Equity Awards in the Merger, and for that compensatory and retentive purpose agree to the provisions of this Section 6.14. The board of directors of Parent and of Target, or a committee of non-employee directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act), shall reasonably promptly, and in any event prior to the Effective Time, take all such steps as may be required to cause (in the case of Target) any dispositions of Target Common Stock or Target Equity Awards by Target Insiders, and (in the case of Parent) any acquisitions of Parent Common Stock or Parent Equity Awards by any Target Insiders who, immediately following the Merger, will be officers or directors of Parent subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to be exempt from liability pursuant to Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

6.15 Bank Merger. Immediately following the Second Step Merger, Target Bank will merge (the Bank Merger) with and into Parent Bank pursuant to the agreement and plan of merger entered into by Parent Bank and Target Bank on the date hereof (the Bank Merger Agreement). Parent Bank shall be the surviving entity in the Bank Merger and, following the Bank Merger, the separate corporate existence of Target Bank shall cease. Promptly following execution of the Bank Merger Agreement, Target shall approve such agreement as the sole shareholder of Target Bank and Parent shall approve such agreement as the sole shareholder of Parent Bank. Prior to the Effective Time, Target shall cause Target Bank, and Parent shall cause Parent Bank, to execute such certificates or articles of merger and such other documents and certificates as are necessary to effectuate the Bank Merger (Bank Merger Certificates).

6.16 Exchange Matters. Prior to the Closing Date, Target shall cooperate with Parent and use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on its part under applicable laws and rules and policies of Nasdaq to enable the delisting of the shares of Target Common Stock from Nasdaq and the deregistration of the shares of Target Common Stock under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time.

6.17 Dividends. After the date of this Agreement, each of Parent and Target shall coordinate with the other the declaration of any dividends in respect of Parent Common Stock and Target Common Stock and the record dates and payment dates relating thereto, it being the intention of the parties hereto that holders of Target Common Stock shall not receive two dividends, or fail to receive one dividend, in any quarter with respect to their shares of Target Common Stock and any shares of Parent Common Stock any such holder receives in exchange therefor in the Merger.

6.18 Assumption of Target Debt. Parent agrees to execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, by or on behalf of Parent, the Surviving Company or Parent Bank (as the case may be), at or prior to the Effective Time, the Second Effective Time or at or prior to the effective time for the Bank Merger, as required, one or more supplemental indentures, guarantees, and other instruments and documentation required for the due assumption of Target's and Target Bank's obligations in respect of its outstanding indebtedness, Target Trust Preferred Securities, guarantees, securities, and other agreements to the extent required by the terms of such debt, Target Trust Preferred Securities, guarantees, securities, and other agreements.

6.19 No Control of Other Party's Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Parent, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Target or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Target, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Parent or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, each of Parent and Target shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

6.20 Change of Method. The parties may by mutual agreement at any time change the method of effecting the Mergers, if and to the extent they deem such change to be desirable; provided, however, that no such change shall (i) alter or change the Exchange Ratio or the number of shares of Parent Common Stock received by holders of Target Common Stock or the amount or kind of Merger Consideration, (ii) adversely affect the tax treatment of (A) holders of Target Common Stock as a result of receiving the Merger Consideration or (B) holders of Parent Common Stock or (iii) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in a timely manner.

6.21 Restructuring Efforts. If either Target or Parent shall have failed to obtain the Requisite Target Vote or the Requisite Parent Vote at the duly convened Target Shareholders' Meeting or Parent Shareholders' Meeting, as applicable, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, each of the parties shall in good faith use its reasonable best efforts to negotiate a restructuring of the transaction provided for herein (provided, however, that neither party shall have any obligation to agree to (i) alter or change any material term of this Agreement, including the amount or kind of consideration to be issued to holders of Target Common Stock or Target Equity Awards or (ii) adversely affect the Tax treatment of the transaction with respect to its shareholders) and/or resubmit this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby (or as restructured pursuant to this Section 6.21) to its respective shareholders for approval.

6.22 Takeover Statutes. None of Parent, Target or their respective boards of directors shall take any action that would cause any Takeover Statute to become applicable to this Agreement, the Mergers, the Bank Merger or any of

If any Takeover Statute may become, or may purport to be, applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby, each party and the members of their respective boards of directors will grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of any Takeover Statute on any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, if necessary, challenging the validity or applicability of any such Takeover Statute.

ARTICLE VII.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

7.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. The respective obligations of the parties to effect the Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) Shareholder Approval. This Agreement shall have been approved by the shareholders of Target by the Requisite Target Vote, and the Requisite Parent Vote shall have been obtained.

(b) Nasdaq Listing. The shares of Parent Common Stock which shall be issued to the holders of Target Common Stock and Target Equity Awards upon consummation of the Merger pursuant to this Agreement shall have been authorized for listing on Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance.

(c) Regulatory Approvals. All regulatory approvals, authorizations, waivers, consents, or orders from the FRB, FDIC, TDFI or NCCOB, and any other required regulatory approvals set forth in Section 3.4 and Section 4.4 which are necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Mergers and the Bank Merger, or those, the failure of which to be obtained would reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Surviving Corporation, shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired (all such approvals and the expiration of all such waiting periods being referred to herein as the Requisite Regulatory Approvals).

(d) Form S-4. The Form S-4 shall have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Form S-4 shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC and not withdrawn.

(e) No Injunctions or Restraints; Illegality. No order, injunction or decree issued by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the Mergers or the Bank Merger shall be in effect. No statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency which prohibits or makes illegal consummation of the Mergers or the Bank Merger.

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub set forth in Sections 3.2(a) and 3.8(a) (in each case after giving effect to the lead-in to Article III) shall be true and correct (other than, in the case of Section 3.2(a), such failures to be true and correct as are de minimis) in each case as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), and the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub set forth in Sections 3.1(a), 3.1(b), 3.2(b), 3.2(c) and 3.3(a) (in each case after giving effect to the lead-in to Article III) shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date). All other representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub set forth in this Agreement (read without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect set forth in such representations or warranties but, in each case, after giving effect to the lead-in to Article III) shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date); provided, however, that for purposes of this sentence, such representations and warranties shall be deemed to be true and correct unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, either individually or in the aggregate, and without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect set forth in such representations or warranties, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent or the Surviving Corporation. Target shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date and signed on behalf of Parent by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of Parent to the foregoing effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Parent. Parent and Merger Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by them under this Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time, and Target shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date and signed on behalf of Parent by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of Parent to such effect.

(c) Tax Opinion. Target shall have received an opinion of Troutman Sanders LLP, legal counsel to Target, dated as of the Closing Date and in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Target, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations, and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the Mergers, taken together, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering its opinion, such counsel may require and rely upon representations contained in certificates of officers of Target, Parent and Merger Sub, reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.

7.3 Conditions to Obligations of Parent and Merger Sub. The obligation of Parent and Merger Sub to effect the Merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver by Parent at or prior to the Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Target set forth in Sections 4.2(a) and Section 4.8(a) (in each case after giving effect to the lead-in to Article IV) shall be true and correct (other than, in the case of Section 4.2(a), such failures to be true and correct as are de minimis) in each case as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), and the representations and warranties of Target set forth in Sections 4.1(a), 4.1(b), 4.2(b), 4.2(c) and 4.3(a) (in each case after giving effect to the lead-in to Article IV) shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date). All other representations and warranties of Target set forth in this Agreement (read without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect set forth in such representations or warranties but, in each case, after giving effect to the lead-in to Article IV) shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date); provided, however, that for purposes of this sentence, such representations and warranties shall be deemed to be true and correct unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, either individually or in the aggregate, and without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect set forth in such representations or warranties, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Target or the Surviving Corporation. Parent shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date and signed on behalf of Target by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of Target to the foregoing effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Target. Target shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time, and Parent shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date and signed on behalf of Target by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of Target to such effect.

(c) Tax Opinion. Parent shall have received an opinion of Bass, Berry & Sims PLC, legal counsel to Parent, dated as of the Closing Date and in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations, and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the Mergers, taken together, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering its opinion, such counsel may require and rely upon representations contained in certificates of officers of Target, Parent and Merger Sub, reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.

ARTICLE VIII.

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of this Agreement or of the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger, by the shareholders of Target or Parent, respectively:

(a) by mutual consent of Parent and Target in a written instrument, if the board of directors of each so determines;

(b) by either Parent or Target if any Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency that must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the Merger or the Bank Merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any Governmental Entity or Regulatory Agency of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final nonappealable order, injunction or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger, unless the failure to obtain a Requisite Regulatory Approval shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(c) by either Parent or Target if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before the first anniversary of the date of this Agreement (the Termination Date), unless the failure of the Closing to occur by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(d) by either Parent or Target (provided, that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties (or any such representation or warranty shall cease to be true) set forth in this Agreement on the part of Target, in the case of a termination by Parent, or Parent or Merger Sub, in the case of a termination by Target, which breach or failure to be true, either individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches by such party (or failures of such representations or warranties to be true), would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.2, in the case of a termination by Target, or Section 7.3, in the case of a termination by Parent, and which is not cured by the earlier of the Termination Date and thirty (30) days following written notice to Target, in the case of a termination by Parent, or Parent, in the case of a termination by Target, or by its nature or timing cannot be cured during such period;

(e) by Parent, if (i) prior to such time as the Requisite Target Vote is obtained, Target or the board of directors of Target (A) makes a Target Adverse Recommendation Change (or publicly discloses its intention to do so) or otherwise submits this Agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval, or recommends to its shareholders an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger, or (B) materially breaches its obligations under Section 6.3 or Section 6.12, or (ii) a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Target Common Stock is commenced (other than by Parent or a Subsidiary thereof), and the board of directors of Target recommends that the shareholders of Target tender their shares in such tender offer or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such shareholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within the 10 business day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act; or

(f) by Target, if prior to such time as the Requisite Parent Vote is obtained, Parent or the board of directors of Parent (A) makes a Parent Adverse Recommendation Change (or publicly discloses its intention to do so) or otherwise submits the proposal to approve the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration in connection with the Merger to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval, or (B) materially breaches its obligations under Section 6.4.

The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to clause (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) of this Section 8.1 shall give written notice of such termination to the other party in accordance with Section 9.4, specifying the provision or provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is effected.

8.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Parent or Target as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, and none of Parent, Target, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever hereunder, or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, except that (i) Section 6.2(b), this Section 8.2 and Article IX (other than Section 9.1) shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, neither Parent, Merger Sub nor Target shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages (which, in the case of Target, shall include the loss to the holders of Target Common Stock and Target Equity Awards of the economic benefits of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the loss of the premium offered to the holders of Target Common Stock and Target Equity Awards) arising out of its fraud or willful and material breach of any provision of this Agreement.

(i) In the event that after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination of this Agreement a bona fide Acquisition Proposal shall have been made known to senior management of Target or shall have been made directly to its shareholders generally or any person shall have publicly announced (and not withdrawn) an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Target and (x) (A) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by either Parent or Target pursuant to Section 8.1(c) without the Requisite Target Vote having been obtained or (B) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(d), and (y) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the date of such termination, Target enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (whether or not the same Acquisition Proposal as that referred to above), then Target shall, on the earlier of the date it enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay Parent, by wire transfer of same day funds, a fee equal to $66,000,000.00 (the Termination Fee); provided, that for purposes of this Section 8.2(b)(i), all references in the definition of Acquisition Proposal to 20% shall instead refer to 50% .

(ii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(e), then Target shall pay Parent, by wire transfer of same day funds, the Termination Fee as promptly as reasonably practical after the date of termination (and, in any event, within three (3) business days thereafter).

(iii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Target pursuant to Section 8.1(f), then Parent shall pay Target, by wire transfer of same day funds, the Termination Fee as promptly as reasonably practical after the date of termination (and, in any event, within three (3) business days thereafter).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, but without limiting the right of any party to recover liabilities or damages in accordance with Section 8.2(a), the maximum aggregate amount of fees payable by Target or Parent under this Section 8.2 shall be equal to the Termination Fee, and in no event shall any party be required to pay the Termination Fee more than once.

(d) Each of Parent and Target acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, the other party would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if Target or Parent fails promptly to pay the amount due pursuant to this Section 8.2, and, in order to obtain such payment, the Parent or Target, as applicable, commences a suit which results in a judgment against Target or Parent, as applicable for the Termination Fee or any portion thereof, such non-paying party shall pay the costs and expenses of the other party (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit. In addition, if Target or Parent fails to pay the amounts payable pursuant to this Section 8.2, then Target or Parent, as applicable, shall pay interest on such overdue amounts (for the period commencing as of the date that such overdue amount was originally required to be paid and ending on the date that such overdue amount is actually paid in full) at a rate per annum equal to the prime rate (as announced by JPMorgan Chase & Co. or any successor thereto) in effect on the date on which such payment was required to be made for the period commencing as of the date that such overdue amount was originally required to be paid. The amounts payable by Target or Parent pursuant to Section 8.2(b) constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty, and, except in the case of fraud or willful and material breach of this Agreement, shall be the sole monetary remedy of Parent or Target, as applicable, in the event of a termination of this Agreement specified in such section.

ARTICLE IX.GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) will take place at 10:00 a.m. on a date and at a place to be specified by the parties, which shall be no later than five (5) business days after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable law) of the latest to occur of the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof (other than those conditions that by their nature or terms can only be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver thereof), unless another date or time is agreed to by Parent and Target. 9.3 Expenses. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such costs or expenses; provided, however, that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the transactions contemplated herein shall be borne equally by Parent and Target.

of any provision of this Agreement. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Articles, Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of or Exhibit or Schedule to this Agreement, unless otherwise indicated. The Parent Disclosure Schedule, Target Disclosure Schedule and each other Exhibit and Schedule hereto shall be deemed part of this Agreement and included in any reference to this Agreement. All references to dollars or $ in this Agreement are to United States dollars.

9.6 Amendment. Subject to compliance with applicable law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by the shareholders of Parent and Target; provided, however, that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by the shareholders of Parent or Target, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement that requires further approval under applicable law. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

9.7 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of Parent or Merger Sub, in the case of Target, or Target, in the case of Parent, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto on the part of Parent or Merger Sub, in the case of Target, or Target, in the case of Parent, and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements on the part of Parent or Merger Sub, in the case of Target, or Target, in the case of Parent, or of such party's conditions contained herein; provided, however, that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by the shareholders of Parent or Target, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any extension or waiver of this Agreement or any portion thereof which requires further approval under applicable law. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

9.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement, and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart.

9.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the documents and the instruments referred to herein) together with the Confidentiality Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

9.10 Governing Law. Any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement by one party against any other party shall be brought only in any federal or state court located in the State of Delaware, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue for such purpose. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, the parties hereby accept for themselves, and in respect of their property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction and venue of the aforesaid courts and waive any objection to the laying of venue on the grounds of forum non conveniens which they may now or hereafter have to the bringing or maintaining of any such action or proceeding in such jurisdiction, and agree that service of process upon any party in any such action or proceeding will be effective if notice is given in accordance with Section 9.4.

9.11 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT: (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (III) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS

WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (IV) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11.

9.12 Publicity. Except as otherwise required by applicable law or the rules of Nasdaq or as required under the rules and regulations of the SEC, neither Target nor Parent shall, or shall permit any of their respective Subsidiaries to, issue or cause the publication of any press release or other public announcement with respect to, or otherwise make any public statement concerning, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the prior consent of Parent, in the case of a proposed announcement or statement by Target or any of its Subsidiaries, or Target, in the case of a proposed announcement or statement by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

9.13 Assignment; Third Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of the parties hereto shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of Target, in the case of Parent or Merger Sub, or Parent, in the case of Target. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and assigns. Except for (i) as otherwise specifically provided in Section 6.9, (ii) from and after the Effective Time, but only if the Effective Time shall occur, the rights of holders of Target Common Stock to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Article II, and the rights of holders of Target Equity Awards under Section 1.7, and (iii) the right of Target to enforce the rights of its shareholders and the holders of Target Equity Awards pursuant to Section 8.2(a), this Agreement (including the documents and instruments referred to herein) is not intended to confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder. Any purported assignment in contravention hereof shall be null and void. The representations and warranties in this Agreement are the product of negotiations among the parties hereto and are for the sole benefit of the parties. Any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the parties hereto in accordance herewith without notice or liability to any other person. In some instances, the representations and warranties in this Agreement may represent an allocation among the parties hereto of risks associated with particular matters regardless of the knowledge of any of the parties hereto. Consequently, persons other than the parties hereto may not rely upon the representations and warranties in this Agreement as characterizations of actual facts or circumstances as of the date of this Agreement or as of any other date.

9.14 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction, and this Agreement shall be reformed, construed and enforced in such jurisdiction such that the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision or portion thereof shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

9.15 Delivery by Facsimile or Electronic Transmission. This Agreement and any signed agreement or instrument entered into in connection with this Agreement, and any amendments or waivers hereto or thereto, to the extent signed and delivered by means of a facsimile machine or by e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file, shall be treated in all manner and respects as an original agreement or instrument and shall be considered to have the same binding legal effect as if it were the original signed version thereof delivered in person. No party hereto or to any such agreement or instrument shall raise the use of a facsimile machine or e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file to deliver a signature to this Agreement or any amendment or waiver hereto or other such instrument or the fact that any signature or agreement or instrument was transmitted or communicated through the use of a facsimile machine or e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file as a defense to the formation of a contract, and each party hereto forever waives any such defense.

9.16 Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms hereof, including an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any action or proceeding brought in accordance with Section 9.10, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. Each of the parties hereby further waives (a) any defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate and (b) any requirement under any law to post security or a bond as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

The Board of Directors

Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc.

150 Third Avenue South, Suite 900

Nashville, Tennessee 37201

Members of the Board:

You have requested the opinion of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW or we) as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc. (Pinnacle) of the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) in the proposed merger of Blue Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pinnacle (Merger Sub), with and into BNC Bancorp (BNC) as a result of which BNC would be the surviving corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pinnacle (such transaction, the Initial Merger and, taken together with the merger of BNC with and into Pinnacle as soon as reasonably practicable following the Initial Merger, the Transaction), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement) to be entered into by and among Pinnacle, Merger Sub and BNC. Pursuant to the Agreement and subject to the terms, conditions and limitations set forth therein, at the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement), by virtue of the Initial Merger and without any action on the part of Pinnacle, Merger Sub, BNC, the holders of common stock, no par value per share, of BNC (BNC Common Stock), or the holders of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Pinnacle (Pinnacle Common Stock), each share of BNC Common Stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive 0.5235 of a share of Pinnacle Common Stock. The ratio of 0.5235 of a share of Pinnacle Common Stock for one share of BNC Common Stock is referred to herein as the Exchange Ratio. The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

The Agreement further provides that, at or following the consummation of the Transaction, Bank of North Carolina, a wholly-owned subsidiary of BNC, will merge with and into Pinnacle Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pinnacle, pursuant to a separate agreement and plan of merger (such transaction, the Bank Merger). In addition, representatives of Pinnacle have advised us that, as soon as practicable after the public announcement of the Transaction (and in any event prior to the Effective Time), Pinnacle is expected to consummate an offer and sale of Pinnacle Common Stock, for anticipated gross cash proceeds to Pinnacle of approximately $175 million (the Pinnacle Stock Offering). For purposes of our opinion and with the consent of Pinnacle, we have assumed, in all respects material to our analyses, the occurrence of the Pinnacle Stock Offering (including the full receipt of gross cash proceeds in connection therewith) as described to us by Pinnacle.

KBW has acted as financial advisor to Pinnacle and not as an advisor to or agent of any other person. As part of our investment banking business, we are continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our and their broker-dealer businesses, and further to certain existing sales and trading relationships between Pinnacle and certain KBW affiliates, we and our affiliates may from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Pinnacle and BNC, and as a market maker in securities, we and our affiliates may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Pinnacle or BNC for our and their own accounts and for the accounts of our and their respective customers and clients. KBW employees and employees of KBW affiliates may also from time to time maintain individual positions in Pinnacle Common Stock and BNC Common Stock. As Pinnacle has previously been informed by KBW, such positions currently include an individual position in shares of Pinnacle Common Stock held by a senior member of the KBW advisory team providing services to Pinnacle in connection with the proposed Transaction. We have acted exclusively for the board of directors of Pinnacle (the Board) in rendering this opinion and will receive a fee from Pinnacle for our services. A portion of our fee is payable upon the rendering of this opinion, and a significant portion is contingent upon the successful completion of the Transaction. In addition, Pinnacle has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

In addition to this present engagement, in the past two years, KBW has from time to time provided other investment banking assistance to Pinnacle for which KBW did not enter into any engagement agreement or receive compensation. In the past two years, KBW has provided investment banking and financial advisory services to BNC and received compensation for such services. KBW acted as an underwriter in connection with BNC's registered offering of common stock in July 2016. We may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to Pinnacle or BNC and receive compensation for such services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of Pinnacle and BNC and bearing upon the Transaction, including among other things, the following: (i) an execution version of the Agreement dated as of January 22, 2017; (ii) the audited financial statements and the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2015 of Pinnacle; (iii) the unaudited quarterly financial statements and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2016, June 30, 2016 and September 30, 2016 of Pinnacle; (iv) certain unaudited financial results for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2016 of Pinnacle (contained in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by Pinnacle with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 18, 2017); (v) the audited financial statements and the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2015 of BNC; (vi) the unaudited quarterly financial statements and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2016, June 30, 2016 and September 30, 2016 of BNC; (vii) certain preliminary draft unaudited financial results for the quarter and fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 of BNC (provided to us by representatives of BNC); (viii) certain regulatory filings of Pinnacle and BNC and their respective subsidiaries, including (as applicable) the quarterly reports on Form FRY-9C and quarterly call reports filed with respect to each quarter during the three year period ended December 31, 2015 and the quarters ended March 31, 2016, June 30, 2016 and September 30, 2016; (ix) certain other interim reports and other communications of Pinnacle and BNC to their respective stockholders; and (x) other financial information concerning the respective businesses and operations of Pinnacle and BNC furnished to us by Pinnacle and BNC or which we were otherwise directed to use for purposes of our analysis. Our consideration of financial information and other factors that we deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to our analyses included, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of Pinnacle and BNC; (ii) the assets and liabilities of Pinnacle and BNC; (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry; (iv) a comparison of certain financial and stock market information of Pinnacle and BNC with similar information for certain other companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (v) publicly-available consensus street estimates of BNC, as well as assumed BNC long term growth rates provided to us by Pinnacle management, all of which information was discussed with us by such management and used and relied upon by us at the direction of such management and with the consent of the Board; (vi) publicly available consensus street estimates of Pinnacle, as well as assumed Pinnacle long-term growth rates provided to us by Pinnacle management, all of which information was discussed with us by such management and used and relied upon by us at the direction of such management and with the consent of the Board; and (vii) estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Transaction on Pinnacle (including without limitation the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the Transaction) that were prepared by Pinnacle management, provided to and discussed with us by such management, and used and relied upon by us at the direction of such management and with the consent of the Board. We have also performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate and have taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. We have also participated in discussions that were held by managements of Pinnacle and BNC regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of each of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or that was publicly available and we have not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assumed any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. We have relied upon the management of Pinnacle as to the reasonableness and achievability of the publicly available consensus street estimates of Pinnacle and BNC (and the assumed long-term growth rates of Pinnacle and BNC) referred to above that were provided to or otherwise discussed with us by such management, and that in each case we were directed by such management to use. We have further relied upon such management as to the reasonableness and achievability of the estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Transaction on Pinnacle (including, without limitation, the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the Transaction) referred to above. We have assumed, at the direction of Pinnacle, that all of the foregoing information was reasonably prepared on bases reflecting, or in the case of the Pinnacle and BNC publicly available street estimates referred to above that such estimates are consistent with, the best currently available estimates and judgments of Pinnacle management, and that the forecasts, projections and estimates reflected in such information will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated. As you are aware, the foregoing financial information of BNC that we were directed by Pinnacle management to use reflect differences from the forecasts, projections and estimates that were prepared by BNC and provided to Pinnacle. Accordingly, with the consent of Pinnacle, in rendering our opinion, our reliance upon Pinnacle management as to the reasonableness and achievability of such information includes reliance upon the judgments and assessments of Pinnacle and Pinnacle management with respect to such differences.

It is understood that the portion of the foregoing financial information of Pinnacle and BNC that was provided to us was not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure, that all of the foregoing financial information, including the publicly available consensus street estimates of Pinnacle and BNC referred to above that we were directed to use, is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and that, accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in all of such information. We have assumed, based on discussions with the respective managements of Pinnacle and BNC, and with the consent of the Board, that all such information provides a reasonable basis upon which we could form our opinion and we express no view as to any such information or the assumptions or bases therefor. We have relied on all such information without independent verification or analysis and do not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

We also have assumed that there have been no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either Pinnacle or BNC since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to us and that we were directed to use. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, without independent verification and with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for each of Pinnacle and BNC are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Pinnacle or BNC, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor have we examined any individual loan or credit files, nor did we evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of Pinnacle or BNC under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, we assume no responsibility or liability for their accuracy.

We have assumed, in all respects material to our analyses, the following: (i) that the Transaction will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement (the final terms of which we have assumed will not differ in any respect material to our analyses from the execution version reviewed) with no adjustments to the Exchange Ratio and with no other consideration or payments in respect of the BNC Common Stock; (ii) that any related transactions (including the Bank Merger and the Pinnacle Stock Offering) will be completed as contemplated by the Agreement or as otherwise described to us by representatives of Pinnacle; (iii) that the representations and warranties of each party in the Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Agreement are true and correct; (iv) that each party to the Agreement or any of the related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents; (v) that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions, any necessary regulatory or governmental approval for the Transaction or any related transaction (including the Bank Merger and the Pinnacle Stock Offering) and that all conditions to the completion of the Transaction and any related transaction (including the Bank Merger and the Pinnacle Stock Offering) will be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the Agreement or any of the related documents; and (vi) that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the Transaction and any related transactions (including the Bank Merger and the Pinnacle Stock Offering), no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of Pinnacle, BNC or the pro forma entity or the contemplated benefits of the Transaction, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result or be derived from the Transaction. We have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. We have further been advised by representatives of Pinnacle that Pinnacle has relied upon advice from its advisors (other than KBW) or other appropriate sources as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to Pinnacle, BNC, the Transaction and any related transaction (including the Bank Merger and the Pinnacle Stock Offering), and the Agreement. KBW has not provided advice with respect to any such matters.

This opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof, of the Exchange Ratio in the Initial Merger to Pinnacle. We express no view or opinion as to any other terms or aspects of the Transaction or any term or aspect of any related transaction (including the Bank Merger and the Pinnacle Stock Offering), including without limitation, the form or structure of the Transaction or any related transaction, any consequences of the Transaction to Pinnacle, its stockholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects, merits or implications of any employment, retention, consulting, voting, support, cooperation, stockholder or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the Transaction, any related transaction, or otherwise. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusion reached in this opinion and that KBW does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion does not address, and we express no view or opinion with respect to, (i) the underlying business decision of Pinnacle to engage in the Transaction or enter into the Agreement, (ii) the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any strategic alternatives that are, have been or may be available to or contemplated by Pinnacle or the Board, (iii) any business, operational or other plans with respect to BNC or the pro forma entity that may be currently contemplated by Pinnacle or the Board or that may be made by Pinnacle or the Board subsequent to the closing of the Transaction, (iv) the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of Pinnacle's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to any compensation to the holders of Pinnacle Common Stock or relative to the Exchange Ratio, (v) the effect of the Transaction or any related transaction (including the Bank Merger and the Pinnacle Stock Offering) on, or the fairness of the consideration to be received by, holders of any class of securities of Pinnacle, BNC or any other party to any transaction contemplated by the Agreement, (vi) the actual value of Pinnacle Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Initial Merger, (vii) the prices, trading range or volume at which Pinnacle Common Stock or BNC Common Stock will trade following the public announcement of the Transaction or the prices, trading range or volume at which Pinnacle Common Stock will trade following the consummation of the Transaction, (viii) any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to any of the parties to the Transaction or any other transaction contemplated by the Agreement, or (ix) any legal, regulatory, accounting, tax or similar matters relating to Pinnacle, BNC, any of their respective stockholders, or relating to or arising out of or as a consequence of the Transaction or any other related transaction (including the Bank Merger and the Pinnacle Stock Offering), including whether or not the Transaction will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes.

This opinion is for the information of, and is directed to, the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Transaction. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Board as to how it should vote on the Transaction or to any holder of Pinnacle Common Stock or any stockholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the Transaction or any other matter, nor does it constitute a recommendation as to whether or not any such stockholder should enter into a voting, stockholders', affiliates' or other agreement with respect to the Transaction or exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such stockholder.

This opinion has been reviewed and approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with our policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Board of Directors

BNC Bancorp

3980 Premier Drive, Suite 210

High Point, NC 27265

Ladies and Gentlemen:

BNC Bancorp (the Target), Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc. (Parent) and Blue Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), are proposing to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement) pursuant to which Merger Sub will, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, merge with and into Target with Target being the surviving corporation and, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, Parent shall cause the Target to be merged with and into Parent (the Merger). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of common stock, no par value, of Target (Target Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of Target Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, will be converted into the right to receive 0.5235 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Parent (Parent Common Stock). Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of Target Common Stock.

Sandler O Neill & Partners, L.P. (Sandler O Neill , we or our), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement, dated January 22, 2017; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Target that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Parent that we deemed relevant; (iv) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Target for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings growth rate and dividends per share for Target for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Target; (v) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Parent for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings growth rate and dividends per share for Parent for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Parent; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Parent based on certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings, transaction expenses and the anticipated regulatory impact of the Merger on Parent, as well as the offer and sale by Parent of a certain amount of common stock in connection with the Merger, as provided by the senior management of Parent; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Target Common Stock and Parent Common Stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Target Common Stock and Parent Common Stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for Target and Parent with similar institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the bank and thrift industry (on a nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Target the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Target and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of Parent regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Parent.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by Target or Parent or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us, and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Target and Parent that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Target or Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Target or Parent. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Target or Parent, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to Target or Parent. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Target and Parent are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Target for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings growth rate and dividends per share for Target for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Target. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Parent for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings growth rate and dividends per share for Parent for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Parent. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings, transaction expenses and the anticipated regulatory impact of the Merger on Parent, as well as the offer and sale by Parent of a certain amount of common stock in connection with the Merger, as provided by the senior management of Parent. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of Target and Parent confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of Target and Parent, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and we assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information is based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Target or Parent since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Target and Parent will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analysis.

We have also assumed, with your consent, in all respects material to our analysis, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Target, Parent or the Merger or any related transaction, (iii) the Merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. We express no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting or tax matters relating to the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading values of Target Common Stock or Parent Common Stock at any time or what the value of Parent Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Target Common Stock.

We have acted as Target's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. Target has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. In the two years preceding the date of this opinion, Sandler O'Neill provided certain other investment banking services for Target for which Sandler O'Neill received customary fees and expense reimbursement. Most recently, Sandler O'Neill acted as co-lead manager in connection with Target's public offering of common stock in July 2016 and acted as financial advisor to Target in connection with Target's acquisition of Southcoast Financial Corporation, which transaction closed in June 2016. In addition, in the two years preceding the date of this opinion, Sandler O'Neill provided certain investment banking services to Parent and its affiliates for which Sandler O'Neill received customary fees and expense reimbursement. Most recently, Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to Parent in connection with Parent's acquisition of Avenue Financial Holdings, Inc., which transaction closed in July 2016, and Sandler O'Neill acted as book manager to Pinnacle Bank in connection with Pinnacle Bank's public offering of subordinated debt in March 2016. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Target, Parent and their respective affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Target, Parent and their respective affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Target in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Target as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the Agreement and the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of Target Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Target to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Target or the effect of any other transaction in which Target might engage. We also do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director or employee of Target or Parent, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent; provided, however, Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair to holders of Target Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

Board of Directors

BNC Bancorp

3980 Premier Drive

Suite 210

High Point, NC 27265

Members of the Board:

BSP Securities, LLC (BSP), a wholly owned broker/dealer subsidiary of Banks Street Partners, LLC, understands that BNC Bancorp (Target), Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc. (Buyer) and Blue Merger Sub, Inc. (Merger Sub), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer, have proposed to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 22, 2017 (the Agreement), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Target with Target being the surviving corporation and, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, Buyer shall cause the Target to be merged with and into Buyer (the Merger). Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning assigned to such terms in the Agreement.

In accordance with the terms of the Agreement, each share of Target Common Stock issued and outstanding at the Effective Time, except for certain shares of Target Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, shall cease to be outstanding and shall be converted into and exchanged for the right to receive 0.5235 share of Buyer Common Stock (the Exchange Ratio).

Target has requested that BSP render its opinion (the Opinion) to Target's Board of Directors, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to be received by the holders of Target Common Stock under the terms of the Agreement.

BSP, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of banks, bank holding companies, and various other financial services companies, in connection with mergers and acquisitions, initial and secondary offerings of securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. In rendering this fairness opinion, we have acted on behalf of the Board of Directors of Target and will receive a fee for this Opinion. BSP will also receive compensation for other advisory services related to the Merger, a portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Target has also agreed to reimburse us for our reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement by Target in connection with the Merger. During the past two years, BSP has provided advisory services to Target, for which it has received compensation.

For purposes of this Opinion and in connection with our review of the proposed Merger, we have, among other things:

1. Reviewed the terms of the Agreement;

2. Participated in discussions with Buyer's management and Target's management concerning their respective financial condition, asset quality and regulatory standing, capital position, historical and current earnings, management succession and Target's and Buyer's future financial performance;

3. Reviewed Target's recent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission including its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, as well as quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended September 30, 2016, June 30, 2016 and March 31, 2016;
4. Reviewed Buyer's recent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission including its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, as well as quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended September 30, 2016, June 30, 2016 and March 31, 2016;
5. Reviewed historical trading activity of Target and analysts' consensus estimates for Target's future earnings, as well as the estimated cost savings and related transaction expenses expected to result from the Merger;
6. Analyzed certain aspects of Target's financial performance and condition and compared such financial performance with similar data of publicly-traded companies we deemed similar to the Target;
7. Reviewed historical trading activity of Buyer and analysts' consensus estimates for Buyer's future earnings;
8. Compared the proposed financial terms of the Merger with the financial terms of certain other recent merger and acquisition transactions, involving companies that we deemed to be relevant;
9. Performed such other analyses and considered such other information, financial studies, and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we deemed relevant.

In giving our Opinion, we have assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that has been provided to us by Buyer and Target, and their representatives, and of the publicly available information for Buyer and Target that we reviewed. We are not experts in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and have not independently verified such allowances, and have relied on and assumed that the aggregate allowances for loan losses set forth in the balance sheet of the Target at September 30, 2016 are adequate to cover such losses and complied fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practice as of the date of such financial statements. We are not retained to, nor did we conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of the Target, did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, liabilities or prospects of the Target, were not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal, and did not review any individual credit files. Our Opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. We express no opinion on matters of a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting nature or the ability of the Merger, as set forth in the Agreement, to be consummated. No opinion is expressed as to whether any alternative transaction might be more favorable to holders of Target Common Stock, than the Merger.

With respect to analysts' consensus estimates for future earnings of Target used by BSP in its analyses, management of Target confirmed to us that those estimates were consistent with the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of Target. We assumed that the financial performance reflected in all estimates used by us in our analyses would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such financial estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Target or Buyer since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us, other than those changes which may have been provided by senior management of Target and Buyer. We have assumed in all respects material to our analyses that the Target and Buyer will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each party to the agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Agreement in all material respects and that the conditions precedent in the Agreement are not waived in any material respect.

BSP's Opinion as expressed herein is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to be paid by Buyer to holders of Target Common Stock in the Merger and does not address Target's underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger. We have been retained on behalf of the Board of Directors of Target, and our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any director of Target as to how such director should vote with respect to the Agreement. In rendering the opinion, we express no opinions in respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of Target, or any class of such persons relative to the Exchange Ratio to be received by the holders of Target Common Stock in the Merger or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation.

Except as hereinafter provided, this Opinion may not be disclosed, communicated, reproduced, disseminated, quoted or referred to at any time, to any third party or in any manner or for any purpose whatsoever without our prior written consent. The consent of any such public reference shall be satisfactory to us as set forth in the financial advisory agreement dated December 19, 2016. This letter is addressed and directed to the Board of Directors of Target in its consideration of the Merger and is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Merger. The Opinion expressed herein is intended solely for the benefit of the Board of Directors and shareholders of Target in connection with the matters addressed herein and may not be relied upon by any other person or entity, or for any other purpose without our written consent. This Opinion was approved by the Fairness Opinion Committee of BSP.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair to the holders of Target Common Stock, from a financial point of view.

Sincerely,

3290 Northside Parkway / Suite 800 / Atlanta, GA 30327 (404) 848-1571 (phone)

Table of ContentsPART II INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS*Item 20. *Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Tennessee Business Corporation Act ("TBCA") provides that a corporation may indemnify any of its directors and officers against liability incurred in connection with a proceeding if: (a) such person acted in good faith; (b) in the case of conduct in an official capacity with the corporation, the person reasonably believed such conduct was in the corporation's best interests; (c) in all other cases, the person reasonably believed that the person's conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and (d) in connection with any criminal proceeding, such person had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, however, the TBCA provides that no indemnification may be made if the director or officer was adjudged to be liable to the corporation. The TBCA also provides that in connection with any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to an officer or director, no indemnification may be made if such officer or director is adjudged liable on the basis that such personal benefit was improperly received. In cases where the director or officer is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding instigated because of his or her status as a director or officer of a corporation, the TBCA mandates that the corporation indemnify the director or officer against reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding. The TBCA provides that a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the corporation's charter provides otherwise, upon application, may order that an officer or director be indemnified for reasonable expenses if, in consideration of all relevant circumstances, the court determines that such individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, notwithstanding the fact that (a) such officer or director was adjudged liable to the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation; (b) such officer or director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the officer or director; or (c) such officer or director breached the officer's or director's duty of care to the corporation.

Pinnacle's charter provides that it will indemnify its directors and officers to the maximum extent permitted by the TBCA. Pinnacle's bylaws provide that it shall indemnify its directors and officers that are made a party to a proceeding because they were a director or officer of Pinnacle for reasonable expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the proceeding if he or she acted in a manner believed in good faith to be in or not opposed to Pinnacle's best interests, and in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In addition, Pinnacle's bylaws provide that Pinnacle shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if he or she furnishes Pinnacle with (1) a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct that would entitle him or her to indemnification and (2) a written statement that he or she will repay any advances if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification.

Under Pinnacle's bylaws, the termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, is not, of itself, determinative of whether the director or officer met the standard of conduct required in order for him or her to be entitled to indemnification. Pinnacle's board of directors, shareholders or independent legal counsel determines whether the director or officer has met the applicable standard of conduct in each specific case.

Pinnacle's charter and bylaws also provide that the indemnification rights contained therein do not exclude other indemnification rights to which a director or officer may be entitled under any bylaw, resolution or agreement, either specifically or in general terms approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote. Pinnacle can also provide for greater indemnification than is provided for in the bylaws if Pinnacle chooses to do so, subject to approval by its shareholders and the limitations provided in its charter, as discussed in the subsequent

II-1

Table of Contents

Pinnacle's charter eliminates, with exceptions, the potential personal liability of a director for monetary damages to Pinnacle and its shareholders for breach of a duty as a director. There is, however, no elimination of liability for:

a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Pinnacle or its shareholders;

an act or omission not in good faith or which involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
or

any payment of a dividend or approval of a stock repurchase that is illegal under the TBCA.

Pinnacle's charter does not eliminate or limit Pinnacle's right or the right of its shareholders to seek injunctive or other equitable relief not involving monetary damages.

The indemnification provisions of Pinnacle's bylaws specifically provide that Pinnacle may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director or officer against any liability asserted against and incurred by him or her in his or her capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent whether or not Pinnacle would have had the power to indemnify him or her against such liability.

Item 21. Exhibits and Financial Statement Schedules

(a) Exhibits. See the Exhibit Index which follows the signature pages to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is herein incorporated by reference.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement); and (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of securities, in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser: (i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424; (ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant; (iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and (iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(5) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(6) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145I, the registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(7) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (6) above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment has become effective, and that for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(8) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(9) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of, and included in, this registration statement when it became effective.

(10) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit, or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
