Basis of access to Information

The Information contained on this Microsite in respect of the Possible Offer is not intended to and does not constitute or form part of any offer to sell or otherwise dispose of or the solicitation of an offer to purchase, subscribe for or otherwise acquire any securities or the solicitation of any vote or approval in any jurisdiction pursuant to the Possible Offer or otherwise.

If Bidder announces a firm intention to make an offer to acquire Target, the full terms and conditions of the Possible Offer will be set out in the formal offer documentation (which may take the form of a scheme circular or offer document) sent to or made available to Target shareholders (the Offer Document) in accordance with the requirements of the Irish Takeover Rules. In considering the Possible Offer, shareholders of Target should only rely on the information contained, and procedures described, in the Offer Document.

The Information speaks only at the date of the relevant document or announcement reproduced on this Microsite and, subject to any continuing obligations under applicable law or any relevant listing rules, Bidder has and accepts no responsibility or duty to update any Information, document or announcement, and reserves the right to add to, remove or amend any information reproduced on this Microsite at any time.

In relation to any document, announcement or information contained on the Microsite, the only responsibility accepted by the directors of Bidder is for the correctness and fairness of its reproduction or presentation unless a responsibility statement in any relevant document expressly provides otherwise.

Neither the directors of Bidder, nor Target, nor any of their affiliated companies, have reviewed, and no such person is or shall be responsible for or accepts any liability in respect of, any information contained on any other website which may be linked to or from this Microsite.

Target shareholders should seek advice from an independent financial advisor as to the suitability of any action for the shareholder concerned. Any shareholder action required in connection with the Possible Offer will only be set out in the Offer Document sent to or made available to Target shareholders by Bidder if an offer for Target is made and any decision made by such shareholders should be made solely and only on the basis of information provided in the Offer Document.

Deutsche Bank Securities Inc (DBSI) is acting as financial adviser and Deutsche Bank AG, acting through its London Branch (together with DBSI, Deutsche Bank), is acting as financial adviser and corporate broker to Bidder and no other person in connection with the Information contained on this Microsite. Deutsche Bank will not be responsible to any person other than Bidder for providing any of the protections afforded to clients of Deutsche Bank, nor for providing advice in relation to any matters referred to herein. Neither Deutsche Bank nor any of its affiliates owes or accepts any duty, liability or responsibility whatsoever (whether direct or indirect, whether in contract, in tort, under statute or otherwise) to any person who is not a client of Deutsche Bank in connection with the Information contained on this Microsite.

Forward-looking statements

The information on this Microsite contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and business of Target and certain plans and objectives of Bidder with respect thereto. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements often use words such as anticipate , target , expect , estimate , intend , plan , believe , hope , aims , continue , will , may , should , would , could or other words of similar meaning. They are based on assumptions and assessments made by Target and / or Bidder in light of their experience and their perception of historical trends, current conditions, future developments and other factors they believe appropriate. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. The factors described in the context of such forward-looking statements in this announcement could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements. Although it is believed that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, no assurance can be given that such expectations will prove to have been correct and persons reading this announcement are therefore cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which speak only as at the date of this announcement.

There are several factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in forward-looking statements. Among such factors are changes in the global, political, economic, business, competitive, market and regulatory forces, future exchange and interest rates, changes in tax rates and future business combinations or disposals.

Notice to US holders of Target shares

Target shareholders resident in the United States should note that the Possible Offer relates to shares of a non-US company and is subject to disclosure requirements under Irish and EU law (which are different from those of the United States). In accordance with Rule 14d-1(d) under the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the Exchange Act), the Possible Offer is exempt from most rules under Regulation 14E and Regulation 14D of the Exchange Act. The Possible Offer is being made in accordance with the requirements of the Irish Takeover Rules. Accordingly, the Possible Offer is subject to disclosure and other procedural requirements, including with respect to withdrawal rights, offer timetable, settlement procedures and timing of payments, that are different from those applicable under US domestic tender offer procedures and law.

It may be difficult for Target shareholders resident in the United States to enforce their rights and any claim arising out of the US federal securities laws, since Target is located in a non-US country, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of a non-US country. Target shareholders resident in the United States may not be able to sue a non-US company or its officers or directors in a non-US court for violations of the US securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-US company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a US court's judgment.

In connection with a potential acquisition by Bidder of Target by way of a Scheme of Arrangement (the Scheme), the new Bidder shares to be issued to Target shareholders under the terms of the Scheme have not been, and will not be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 or under the securities laws of any state, district or other jurisdiction of the United States. It is expected that the new Bidder shares will be issued in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 provided by Section 3(a)(10) thereof.

In the event that a Scheme does not qualify (or Bidder otherwise elects pursuant to its right to proceed with the transaction in a manner that does not qualify) for an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, Bidder would expect to register the offer and sale of the securities it would issue to Target's US shareholders and Target shareholders by filing with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 (the Registration Statement), which would contain a prospectus (Prospectus), as well as other relevant materials (the Tender Offer Documents). No such materials have yet been filed. This communication is not a substitute for any Registration Statement or Prospectus that Bidder may file with the SEC.

INVESTORS AND SECURITY HOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE TENDER OFFER DOCUMENTS AND ALL OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS THAT BIDDER OR TARGET HAS FILED OR MAY FILE WITH THE SEC WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY CONTAIN OR WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION THAT INVESTORS AND SECURITY HOLDERS SHOULD CONSIDER BEFORE MAKING ANY DECISION REGARDING THE POSSIBLE OFFER.
