Notes:

1 CORPORATE INFORMATION

China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited (the Company), a joint stock company limited by shares, was established in the People's Republic of China (the PRC) on 14 April 1995. The address of the Company's registered office is 66 Airport Street, Pudong International Airport, Shanghai, the PRC. The Company and its subsidiaries (together, the Group) are principally engaged in the operation of civil aviation, including the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery, tour operations and other extended transportation services.

In the opinion of the directors, the holding company and ultimate holding company of the Company is China Eastern Air Holding Company Limited (CEA Holding), formerly named as China Eastern Air Holding Company, a state-owned enterprise established in the PRC.

The A Shares, H Shares and American Depositary Shares are listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and The New York Stock Exchange, respectively.

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. They have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for certain available-for-sale investments and derivative financial instruments which have been measured at fair value. Disposal groups held for sale are stated at the lower of their carrying amounts and fair values less costs to sell. These financial statements are presented in Renminbi (RMB) and all values are recorded to the nearest million except when otherwise indicated.

As at 31 December 2017, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by approximately RMB62.04 billion. In preparing the financial statements, the Board has conducted a detailed review over the Group's going concern ability based on the current financial situation. The Board has considered the Group's available sources of funds as follows:

The Group's expected net cash inflows from operating activities in 2018;

Unutilised banking facilities of approximately RMB59.47 billion as at 31 December 2017; and

Other available sources of financing from banks and other financial institutions given the Group's credit history.

The Board considers that the Group will be able to obtain sufficient financing to enable it to operate, as well as to meet its liabilities as and when they become due, and the capital expenditure requirements for the upcoming twelve months. Accordingly, the Board believes that it is appropriate to prepare these financial statements on a going concern basis without including any adjustments that would be required should the Company and the Group fail to continue as a going concern.

3 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES

The Group has adopted the following revised IFRSs for the first time for the current year's financial statements.

Amendments to IAS 7

Amendments to IAS 12

Amendments to IFRS 12 included in

Annual Improvements to IFRSs

2014-2016 Cycle

Disclosure Initiative

Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets for Unrealised Losses

Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities: clarification of the Scope of IFRS 12

The adoption of the above revised standards have had no material financial impact on the Group's financial statements.

4 REVENUES

The Group is principally engaged in the operation of civil aviation, including the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery, tour operations and other extended transportation services.

5 SEGMENT INFORMATION

(a) Chief operating decision-maker (CODM), office of the General Manager, reviews the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources.

The Group has one operating segment, reported as airline transportation operations, which comprises the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery, ground service and cargo handling services.

Other services including primarily tour operations, air catering and other miscellaneous services are not included within the airline transportation operations reportable segment, as their internal reports are separately provided to the CODM. The results of these operations are included in the other segments column.

Inter-segment transactions are entered into under similar commercial terms and conditions that would be available to unrelated third parties.

In accordance with IFRS 8, segment disclosure has been presented in a manner that is consistent with the information used by the Group's CODM. The Group's CODM monitors the results, assets and liabilities attributable to each reportable segment based on financial results prepared under the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises (the PRC Accounting Standards), which differ from IFRSs in certain aspects. The amount of each material reconciling items from the Group's reportable segment revenue and profit before income tax, arising from different accounting policies are set out in Note 5(c) below.

The segment results for the year ended 31 December 2017 were as follows:

	Airline transportation operations RMB million	Other segments RMB million	Eliminations RMB million	Unallocated* RMB million	Total RMB million
Reportable segment revenue from external customers	97,698	4,023			101,721

Interest expenses	3,080	205	(101)		3,184
Capital expenditure	32,149	657			32,806

The segment results for the year ended 31 December 2016 were as follows:

	Airline transportation operations RMB million	Other segments RMB million	Eliminations RMB million	Unallocated* RMB million	Total RMB million
Reportable segment revenue from external customers	94,338	4,222			98,560
Inter-segment sales		782	(782)
Reportable segment revenue	94,338	5,004	(782)		98,560
Reportable segment profit before income tax	5,788	397		322	6,507
Other segment information
Depreciation and amortisation	12,378	160			12,538
Impairment charges	22	7			29
Interest income	100	100	(104)		96
Interest expenses	2,553	280	(104)		2,729
Capital expenditure	34,631	776			35,407

The segment assets and liabilities as at 31 December 2017 and 31 December 2016 were as follows:

	Airline transportation operations RMB million	Other segments RMB million	Eliminations RMB million	Unallocated* RMB million	Total RMB million
As at 31 December 2017
Reportable segment assets	216,591	13,376	(5,514)	3,011	227,464
Reportable segment liabilities	165,148	11,301	(5,514)	11	170,946
As at 31 December 2016
Reportable segment assets	205,024	11,218	(8,896)	2,705	210,051
Reportable segment liabilities	159,437	9,373	(8,896)	41	159,955

* Unallocated assets primarily represent investments in associates and joint ventures, and available-for-sale investments. Unallocated results primarily represent the share of results of associates and joint ventures, income relating to available-for-sale investments.

(b) The Group's business operates in three main geographical areas, even though they are managed on a worldwide basis.

The Group's revenues by geographical area are analysed based on the following criteria:

- 1) Traffic revenue from services within the PRC (excluding the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (Hong Kong), Macau Special Administrative Region (Macau) and Taiwan, (collectively known as Regional)) is classified as domestic operations. Traffic revenue from inbound and outbound services between overseas markets excluding Regional is classified as international operations.
- 2) Revenue from ticket handling services, ground services, cargo handling service and other miscellaneous services is classified on the basis of where the services are performed.

	2017 RMB million	2016 RMB million
Domestic (the PRC, excluding Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan)	67,923	63,730
Regional (Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan)	3,624	3,516
International	30,928	31,658
Total	102,475	98,904

The major revenue-earning assets of the Group are its aircraft, all of which are registered in the PRC. Since the Group's aircraft are deployed flexibly across its route network, there is no suitable basis of allocating such assets and the related liabilities by geographic area and hence non-current assets and capital expenditure by geographic area are not presented. Except the aircraft, most non-current assets (except financial instruments) are registered and located in the PRC.

- (c) Reconciliation of reportable segment revenue, profit, assets and liabilities to the consolidated figures as reported in the consolidated financial statements:

	2017 RMB million	2016 RMB million
Revenue

FLEET STRUCTURE

The Group has been continuously optimising its fleet structure in recent years. In 2017, the Group introduced a total of 73 aircraft of major models and a total of 18 aircraft retired. With the introduction of B737-8MAX series aircraft and the gradual retirement of B767 series aircraft, the Group's fleet age structure has been made younger.

As at 31 December 2017, the Group operated a fleet of 637 aircraft, which included 627 passenger aircraft and 10 business aircraft held under trust. As the Company completed the transfer of 100% equity interest in Eastern Air Logistics Co., Ltd. (Eastern Logistics) to Eastern Airline Industry Investment Company Limited (Eastern Investment) on 8 February 2017, the fleet of the Group ceased to include the nine freighters operated by China Cargo Airlines Co., Ltd. (China Cargo Airlines).

REPORT OF THE BOARD

In 2017, the global economy had a steady recovery. Simultaneous economic growth were shown in developed economies, major emerging economies and developing countries. China's economy had a steady to good growth which was better than expected. The economic structures continued to optimize and the contributions of the service industry continued to increase. Benefited from the favourable continual recovery of the global economy, the global aviation industry had a continuous rise in the demand of travelers. The growth of China's civil aviation maintained its relatively fast growth rate in double-digit, yet the industry also faced challenges such as intensifying market competition, enhanced impact of the China High-Speed Rail, increasing fuel prices and restrictions on the increase of flight capacity.

The management and all staff of the Group have made concerted efforts, pushed forward and pro-actively promoted the development in various works such as production, operation, reform and transformation. The Group highly emphasized its works on and has taken full initiatives in corporate party building. On the premise of ensuring safe operations, the Group has strengthened its marketing, enhanced its service quality, proactively promoted multi-level external partnerships and expedited the pace of its business transformation, made new achievements in all aspects, achieved desirable operating results and further enhanced its overall competitiveness.

In 2017, the Group achieved total annual traffic volume of 18,856 million tonne kilometres representing an increase of 8.79% over the same period last year (hereafter refers to the 2016 data after eliminating the data of Eastern Logistics from February to December 2016), and served 111 million travelers, representing an increase of 8.91% over the same period last year. The Group recorded revenue of RMB102,475 million, increased by 3.61% compared to last year, and operation cost of RMB100,525 million, increased by 9.40% compared to last year, of which the cost of fuel increased RMB5,505 million compared to last year. The profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company amounted to RMB6,342 million, representing an increase of 41.00% compared to last year.

Safe Operation

The Group places great emphasis on striving to ensure safe operation. Through the formulation of safety management responsibility list, the Group strengthened procedure management and enforced safety management responsibilities. It also carried out safety management system effectiveness evaluation to enhance its abilities in identifying and managing material operational risks. In addition, the Group improved its emergency handbooks and emergency flows to enhance its ability in handling contingencies, as well as conducted comprehensive safety inspections and adopted specific prevention measures targeting material risk-prone areas to strengthen risk management. The Group made use of information technology to disseminate safety information and risk alerts quickly and strengthened the application of technology in safety management. It developed air defense information system to promote the integration of air security and ensured the safety of air defense.

In 2017, the Group's fleet had 2,073,000 safe flying hours in total, which have increased by 8.02% over the same period last year. The Group's fleet had 879,700 take-off and landing flights, which have increased by 6.97% compared to last year.

Marketing

Faced with unstable factors such as intensifying industry competition and geopolitical instability around the globe, as well as challenges such as expansion and acceleration of the formation of the China High-Speed Rail railway network, the Group flexibly adjusted its allocation of flight capacity, strengthened its management of revenue and air fares, continuously enhanced its direct sales ability and steadily expand its customer resources.

The strategy of the Group was to focus on hub network. Efforts have been made to foster the construction of hubs in Shanghai, Kunming and Xi'an to increase the value of hub network. The Group actively secured key market resources, improved flight schedules and created more opportunities for transits. The Group strengthened the research on the route network planning of Beijing's new hub, and actively promoted the construction project of CEA's base in the new airport in Beijing. The Group conducted seasonal improvements and adjustments on transportation capacity, and introduced Beijing-Hangzhou-Sydney, Kunming-Sydney and Wuhan-Sydney routes in accordance with the characteristics of European, American and Australian markets in recent years. In view of the changing demand for the Korean market, the Group reduced transportation capacity and changed to use smaller aircraft. It also introduced routes such as Shanghai-Jakarta, Shanghai-Cebu, Xi'an-Prague and Shenzhen-Krabi so as to be in line with the State's One Belt One Road initiative. As at the end of 2017, with the matching route networks with the SkyTeam Airline Alliance members, the route networks of the Group reached 177 countries and 1,074 destinations.

With effective implementation of increasing direct sales and reducing agency sales, the value-added business of the Group had an apparent boost, enhancing revenue management. To expand direct sales channels effectively, the Group launched Air Tickets Market offline while strengthened online sales channels on its official website and mobile user terminals, continued to enhance its ability in direct sales. The Group's revenue from direct sales increased significantly by 34.3% as compared to last year, representing 51.2% of revenue, which increased 11 percentage points as compared to last year while agency fee expenses reduced continuously. The Group also made efforts in developing various transforming products and value-added products and actively promoted product upgrade and sales transformation. Through the continuous expansion of multimodal transport products, improvement of Priority Seats and Class-upgrade Products and a diversified selection of packaged products and point redemption products, the revenue from transforming and value-added products increased significantly, with an increase of 53% compared to last year. Furthermore, the Group upgraded its revenue management and fare management systems to provide cutting-edge management tools for sustaining revenue growth. The launch of online overall distance (OD) yield management system encouraged the transformation of yield management model and the development of intelligent pricing system which further enhanced the accuracy and efficiency of fare management, achieving fare management intelligence.

The Group placed emphasis on the services and experiences provided to its frequent flyers, as well as actively maintained and developed the frequent flyer member base and the Group's customer resources. As at the end of 2017, frequent flyer members of Eastern Miles of the Group reached 33.36 million, increased by 14.3% compared to last year. The Group actively launched marketing campaigns such as Members Day and 818 Big Sale, as well as increased the diversity of non-aviation point redemption channels and products, boosted the loyalty of its customers such that the ratio of frequent flyer members repeated their flights raised to 31.71%, representing an increase of 1.37 percentage points. Meanwhile, the Group placed emphasis on and strengthened the cooperation with travel management companies (TMC), online travel agency's (OTA) agents and major customers. Sales revenue from TMC increased by 38.92% compared to last year. The Group also actively expanded and carefully maintained high-end customers. Revenue from direct corporate customers increased by 25.07% compared to last year, the number of direct corporate customers increased to 4,027, increased by 27.1% compared to last year.

External Partnerships

We have comprehensively strengthened and upgraded our partnerships with SkyTeam Airline Alliance members and further improved the quality of the partnership. In 2017, China Eastern Air Holding Company Limited (CEA Holding), the controlling shareholder of the Company, strategically invested in Air France-KLM (AFK), the Group also comprehensively upgraded its business partnership with AFK where the Company built up global strategic partnerships with Delta Air Lines, Inc. (Delta) and AFK in SkyTeam Airline Alliance, which further built up our international brand and enhanced our influence. The Group deepened the comprehensive partnership with Delta by further expanding the code-share coverage and jointly deepened marketing cooperation by expanding channels and markets. The Group also enhanced tourist experience of transit services by shortening the waiting time for transit and reduced the rate of mishandled baggage during transit. It promoted Double-Hundred Plan (the Group and Delta jointly signed with 100 corporate customers in the China market and the US market, respectively) to attract customers jointly. It also enhanced communication and actively increased training and exchanges on areas such as marketing, information technology and operation. The Group strengthened its business partnership with AFK by further expanding its code-share coverage with AFK. With the improvement of the tourists service information system, time for transit was reduced while the success rate in inter-airline transit increased. The Group also optimized the rules on ticket returns and rebookings which effectively enhanced tourist experience. Capitalized on the cooperation platform of SkyTeam Airline Alliance, the Group has newly launched code-share cooperation with Air Europa Líneas Aéreas, S.A.U. (IATA code: UX) from Spain and Czech Airlines j.s.c. (IATA code: OK).

The Group attached importance to and continued to strengthen the cooperation with airlines which are not members of SkyTeam Airline Alliance. In collaborating with Qantas Airways Limited (IATA code: QF), the Group launched enhanced cooperation in joint operation and sales, and points earning and redeeming of frequent flyer programme. The Group commenced to launch code-sharing cooperation with Jet Airways (India) Ltd. (IATA code: 9W) and Air Mauritius Limited (IATA code: MK), and discussion on bilateral cooperation of frequent flyers with WestJet Airlines Ltd. (IATA code: WS).

As at the end of 2017, the Group has launched code-sharing cooperation for 1,028 routes in 723 destinations with 28 companies. In 2017, the revenue from partnership with overseas airlines amounted to RMB7,558 million, representing an increase of 22.4% compared to last year.

The Group actively expanded cooperation with renowned brands of the global tourism industry and reached multi-area marketing cooperation with Ctrip Computer Technology (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. It deepened the cooperation with Shanghai Disneyland Resort by carrying out joint marketing projects through multi-channel sales such as official website and mobile application of the Disneyland products.

Customer Service

The Group is dedicated to offering sincere services so as to improve its brand image. The Group continued to adhere to the service philosophy of "Customer-Oriented and Dedicated Service", with which the Group provided services that specifically catered to the demand of customers. The Group continuously improved service software and hardware to optimize customer experiences throughout the trip. It strengthened service controls, improved service standards and business flows, improved service standards for platinum card members, promoted value-added services among corporate customers and improved service experiences for high-value customers. The Group also optimized digitalized experiences by increasing the usage rate of self check-in via mobile phones, internet and in overseas, of which the usage rate in China reached 71.19%, representing an increase of 8.38 percentage points compared to last year, and the international usage rate amounted to 22.70%, representing an increase of 6 percentage points compared to last year. The Group developed special online services such as seat reservation and launched innovative service modes such as service robots. It optimized in-flight service experiences by improving service quality, ranging from the service characteristics of routes, choices of in-flight supplies on aircraft to the quality of food items in-flight, where "Taste of Home" and "Taste of Mum" became our signature food brands. It opened the self-operated VIP lounge at Beijing Capital International Airport, the SkyTeam Airline Alliance VIP lounges at Terminal 2 of Beijing Capital International Airport, VIP lounge at Terminal 1 of Shanghai Hongqiao International Airport and high-end check-in area at Island F of Shanghai Hongqiao International Airport in order to enhance customer experience during check-in and boarding.

Reform and Transformation

The Group focused on the operation and development of the passenger transportation business, which served as a motivation to carry out reform and transformation. The Group continued to optimize e-commerce platform functions, enhanced the operations of China United Airlines Co., Limited (China United Airlines), a low-cost airline, deepened the market reform of supporting business, and continued to enhance the effect of reform and transformation on production and operation.

For e-commerce, the Group expedited the construction of its in-flight internet connection platform. The scale of the aircraft fleet with Wi-Fi installed ranked at the top nationwide and the Group took the lead in allowing the use of portable electronic devices on flight in China. As at the end of 2017, internet access has become available in all of the Group's 74 wide-body aircraft with the coverage of major business routes in Europe, the United States of America (the USA), Australia and China. "Internet Access In the Air" enhanced customers' in-flight experience. The Group also upgraded and improved its 11 overseas websites, and a total of 12 updates were made to its mobile application. Furthermore, the Group introduced new service products such as pre-flight ordering of in-flight meals via mobile application, with an aim to optimize service experiences of customers. It strengthened the shopping mall points operations by introducing diversified point redemption products such as oversized baggage redemption and continued to increase the revenue from the sales of non-aviation points, where the revenue from the sales of non-aviation points increased by 149% compared to last year.

In terms of low-cost airline, remarkable transformation of China United Airlines was witnessed. In 2017, the net profit of China United Airlines grew by 72.86% compared to last year. Through improving its official website, optimizing the functions and settings of mobile applications and launching brand marketing through self-owned media, direct sales channels of China United Airlines were further broadened. The revenue of China United Airlines contributed by direct sales represented 74.67% of the Group's total revenue. The Group actively expanded value-added services such as accommodation, transportation and insurance, to increase its revenue from non-aviation businesses. Revenue from non-aviation businesses increased by 23.11% as compared to last year.

Regarding the protective marketization reform and corporate reform, the Group further deepened the change from protective assets to operating assets and expanded the market of cooperative partners. Eastern Airlines Technology Co., Ltd. (Eastern Airlines Technology), a subsidiary of the Group, maintained a clear vision of Professional, Productive, Market-oriented, International and continued to strengthen the cooperation with overseas airlines by adding seven new customers such as Scoot Tigerair Pte Ltd. and UPS Airlines, gradually transforming to profit center from expenses-recurring. The ground service department gave full play of the dynamics from internal market reform, and labour productivity rate such as rate of working hours, utilization rate and output rate further increased. The Group actively and stably proceeded with reform for marketing service system, performing customer-centered reconstructions on marketing functions and establishing commerce committee, sales committee and customer committee, to explore new models of commerce, marketing and customer service management.

Party Building and Corporate Culture

The Group placed great emphasis on corporate party building, further promoted the comprehensive tightening of party discipline and stressed on the construction of corporate culture, with an impressive mission statement of "A happy CEA, Construct Jointly and Share". To put the guiding principles of Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era and 19th National Congress into action, the Group learnt the principles and further promoted the normalization and systematization of corporate party building, rigorously implementing the requirements under the comprehensive tightening of party discipline and persistently strengthening the construction of politics, and the building of a culture of integrity in the party. In pursuing the vision of a "World-class and Happy CEA", the Group pushed ahead with the construction of corporate culture to create a harmonious labour relationship and to increase employees' recognition and loyalty towards the Group, which in turn firmly fostered and created a sound atmosphere for the successful launching and continuous improvement in areas including safe operation, customer services, marketing and sales, and reform and development of the Group.

Social Responsibilities and Awards

The Group insisted on the five development visions of Innovation, Coordination, Green Development, Openness, Sharing and actively engaged in economic, social and environmental responsibilities. The Group insisted on the vision of green development and promoted green aviation by eliminating the entire use of paper in the cockpit, which resulted in a reduction in the emission of carbon dioxide for more than 400,000 tons, and the Group was awarded the International Carbon-Value Award Social Citizen Award by the World Economic and Environmental. The Group also insisted on the vision of sharing, and strived to achieve targeted poverty alleviation and targeted poverty elimination by continuously performing fixed-point poverty alleviation works in Shuangjiang and Qang Yin in Yunnan. The Group was rated as a State-owned Enterprise Poverty Alleviation and Development Unit and a Targeted Poverty Alleviation Demonstration Enterprise by the World Charity Forum. The successful emergency transfer of Chinese citizens who were stuck in the Commonwealth of Dominica and Bali, Indonesia gained social recognition. The Group's large-scale charitable programme Love at CEA continued to spread positive messages to society. The Group launched 836 projects in total, with 59,069 participants from our staff team and served a total of 65,733 people.

As at 31 December 2017, the Group was granted China Securities Golden Bauhinia Award for six consecutive years, recognized as one of the Top 30 Most Valuable Chinese Brand by Wire & Plastic Products Group (WPP), the world's largest brand communication group. It was also awarded as one of the World's 500 Most Valuable Brands by the famous brand appraisal organization Brand Finance. Participants of the Group joined the WorldSkills Competition and received excellent results that they were awarded Grand Slam in the first Aircraft Maintenance WorldSkills Competition of civil aviation industry in the PRC, showing craftsmanship of the Group.

Operating Revenues

In 2017, the Group's passenger revenues amounted to RMB91,564 million, representing an increase of 9.56% from last year, and accounted for 96.19% of the Group's traffic revenues. Passenger traffic volume was 183,181.98 million passenger-kilometres, representing an increase of 9.34% from last year.

The passenger traffic volume of domestic routes was 117,033.08 million passenger-kilometres, representing an increase of 10.03% from last year. The revenue amounted to RMB60,180 million, representing an increase of 11.16% from last year, and accounted for 65.72% of the passenger revenues.

The passenger traffic volume of international routes was 61,390.58 million passenger-kilometres, representing an increase of 8.04% from last year. The revenue amounted to RMB27,964 million, representing an increase of 6.08% from last year, and accounted for 30.54% of the passenger revenues.

The passenger traffic volume of regional routes was 4,758.33 million passenger-kilometres, representing an increase of 9.47% from last year. The revenue amounted to RMB3,420 million, representing an increase of 11.11% from last year, and accounted for 3.74% of the passenger revenues.

In 2017, the Group's cargo and mail traffic revenues amounted to RMB3,623 million, accounted for 3.81% of the Group's traffic revenues. Cargo and mail traffic volume was 2,663.01 million tonne-kilometres.

In 2017, the Group's other revenues were RMB7,288 million, representing a decrease of 22.05% from last year.

Operating Expenses

In 2017, the Group's total operating cost was RMB100,525 million, representing an increase of 9.40% from last year. Under the influence of further expansion of the Group's operational scale and the rapid growth in the passenger traffic volume and the number of passengers carried, the Group's various costs such as take-off and landing costs, food and beverages, and depreciation and amortisation increased from last year. Analysis of the changes in items under operating costs of the Group is set out as follows:

Aircraft fuel costs accounted for the most substantial part of the Group's operating costs. In 2017, the Group's total aircraft fuel cost was RMB25,131 million, representing an increase of 28.05% from last year, mainly due to an increase in the volume of refueling of 4.50% from last year for the Group, leading to an increase in aircraft fuel costs by RMB883 million. However, as the average price of fuel increased by 22.53%, aircraft fuel costs increased by RMB4,622 million.

In 2017, the Group's take-off and landing charges amounted to RMB13,254 million, representing an increase of 7.94% from last year, and was primarily due to the increase in the number of take-offs and landings of the Group. The Group increased the frequency of various international long-haul routes such as Europe, the USA and Australia, resulting in a rise in international take-off and landing charges, whereas domestic take-off and landing charges increased due to the adjustment of pricing standards of China's airports (CAAC 2017 Notice No.18).

In 2017, the Group's catering supply expenses were RMB3,090 million, representing an increase of 7.97% from last year, and was primarily due to the increase in the number of passengers in carriage and the rise in the standards required for the provision of catering.

In 2017, the Group's wages, salaries and benefits amounted to RMB20,320 million, representing an increase of 11.99% from last year, and was primarily due to the combined effect of the increase in the number of flight-crew and maintenance personnel, the increase in flight hours and the rise in the standard flight hour fees.

In 2017, the Group's depreciation and amortisation amounted to RMB13,969 million, representing an increase of 14.93% from last year, and was primarily due to the net addition of 45 aircraft (self-owned and under finance leases) to the Group's fleet in 2017. The increase in the number of aircraft and engines led to an increase in the original value of fixed assets and a corresponding increase in depreciation.

In 2017, the Group's aircraft maintenance expenses amounted to RMB5,346 million, representing an increase of 7.78% from last year, and was primarily due to the net addition of 9 wide-body aircraft and 46 narrow-body aircraft, which led to an increase in maintenance fees for aircraft and engines.

In 2017, the Group's aircraft operating lease rentals amounted to RMB4,318 million, representing a decrease of 9.65% from last year, and was primarily due to the decrease of 7 cargo aircraft under operating leases upon the disposal of the equity interest in Eastern Logistics.

In 2017, the Group's other operating lease rentals amounted to RMB836 million, representing a decrease of 3.69% from last year, and was primarily due to the decrease of fees for ground assets under lease.

In 2017, the Group's selling and marketing expenses were RMB3,294 million, representing an increase of 5.14% from last year.

In 2017, the Group's civil aviation development fund paid to the Civil Aviation Administration of China (CAAC) amounted to RMB2,080 million, representing an increase of 6.94% compared to last year. This was primarily due to the increase in the length of miles flown during the year.

In 2017, the Group's ground service and other expenses were RMB3,248 million, representing a decrease of 35.78% from last year. The Group's indirect operating expenses were RMB4,837 million, representing a decrease of 20.06% as compared to last year, which was primarily due to the transfer of 100% equity interests in Eastern Logistics by the Group. Data of 2016 comprised data of ground service and other expenses of Eastern Logistics in January to December 2016, and data of 2017 comprised data of ground service and other expenses of Eastern Logistics in January only. Excluding the effects of the data of Eastern Logistics in February to December 2016, ground service and other expenses decreased by 8.04% year-on-year, primarily due to the decrease in travel business expenses of the Group.

Other operating income and gains

In 2017, the Group's other operating income amounted to RMB7,481 million, representing an increase of 36.79% from last year, primarily due to the growth in revenue from partnered routes of the Group and the gains from transfer of 100% equity interests in Eastern Logistics by the Group, as well as the gains from the disposal of fixed assets and government subsidies.

Finance Income/Costs

In 2017, the Group's finance income was RMB2,112 million, representing an increase of RMB2,016 million from last year. Finance costs amounted to RMB3,184 million, representing a decrease of RMB3,088 million from last year, primarily due to the RMB2,001 million net exchange gains arising from the appreciation of RMB during the year. In 2016, the depreciation of RMB resulted in net exchange losses amounted to RMB3,543 million.

Profit

Profit attributable to equity holders of the Company in 2017 was RMB6,342 million, representing an increase of 41.00% from last year. The earnings per share attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company were RMB0.44.

Liquidity and Capital Structure

As at 31 December 2017, the Group had total assets of RMB229,727 million, an increase of 8.20% from the end of 2016. Its debt ratio was 74.41%, representing a 0.93 percentage point decrease from the end of 2016.

In particular, the Group's total current assets amounted to RMB18,293 million, accounted for 7.96% of the total assets and represented a decrease of 15.14% from the end of 2016. The Group's non-current assets amounted to RMB211,434 million, accounted for 92.04% of the total assets and represented an increase of 7.64% from the end of 2016.

As at 31 December 2017, the Group had total liabilities of RMB170,949 million, comprising current liabilities of RMB80,328 million which accounted for 46.99% of total liabilities, and non-current liabilities of RMB90,621 million which accounted for 53.01%.

Among the current liabilities, interest-bearing liabilities (short-term bank borrowings, short-term debentures, long-term bank borrowings due within one year and obligations under finance leases due within one year) amounted to RMB48,331 million or an increase of 36.96% from the end of 2016.

Among the non-current liabilities, interest-bearing liabilities (long-term bank borrowings, bonds payable and obligations under finance leases) amounted to RMB82,338 million or a decrease of 0.18% from the end of 2016.

In 2017, the Group proactively adjusted the structure of its foreign currency obligations by substantially cutting down its USD-denominated obligations in response to exchange fluctuations in order to lower its exchange rate risk. As at 31 December 2017, the breakdown of the Group's interest-bearing obligations by currencies is as follows:

Unit: RMB million

Currency	2017		RMB equivalent 2016		Movement (%)
	Amount	Percentage (%)	Amount	Percentage (%)
USD	36,809	28.17	52,866	44.89	-30.37
RMB	83,880	64.19	57,793	49.07	45.14
Others	9,980	7.64	7,114	6.04	40.29
Total	130,669	100	117,773	100	10.95

As at 31 December 2017, the Group's interest-bearing liabilities included long-term and short-term bank borrowings, bonds payable and short-term debentures equivalent to RMB63,801 million, an increase of 12.46% from RMB56,732 million as at 31 December 2016. The breakdown by currencies is as follows:

Unit: RMB million

Currency	2017	RMB equivalent
		2016	Movement (%)
USD	7,555	7,953	-5.00
SGD	2,435		N/A
EUR	4,921	4,215	16.75
KRW	1,058	1,008	4.96
RMB	47,832	43,556	9.82
Total	63,801	56,732	12.46

As at 31 December 2017, the Group's interest-bearing liabilities included obligations under finance leases equivalent to RMB66,868 million, an increase of 9.55% from RMB61,041 million as at 31 December 2016. The Group's obligations under finance leases were mostly based on floating-rate. The breakdown by currencies is as follows:

Unit: RMB million

Currency	RMB equivalent
	2017	2016	Movement (%)
USD	29,254	44,913	-34.87
SGD	627	739	-15.16
JPY	264	326	-19.02
HKD	675	840	-19.64
RMB	36,048	14,223	153.45
Total	66,868	61,041	9.55

Interest Rate Fluctuation

The Group's total interest-bearing liabilities (including long-term and short-term bank borrowings, short-term debentures, bonds payable and obligations under finance leases) as at 31 December 2016 and 31 December 2017 were equivalent to RMB117,773 million and RMB130,669 million, respectively, of which short-term interest-bearing liabilities accounted for 29.96% and 36.99%, respectively. Most of the long-term interest-bearing liabilities were liabilities with floating interest rates. Both the short-term liabilities and long-term interest-bearing liabilities were affected by fluctuations in current market interest rates.

The Group's interest-bearing liabilities were primarily denominated in USD and RMB. As at 31 December 2016 and 31 December 2017, the Group's liabilities denominated in USD accounted for 44.89% and 28.17%, respectively, of total liabilities while liabilities denominated in RMB accounted for 49.07% and 64.19%, respectively, of total liabilities. Fluctuations in the USD and RMB interest rates have and will continue to have significant impact on the Group's finance costs.

As at 31 December 2016, the outstanding foreign currency interest rate swap contracts held by the Group amounted to a notional amount of USD1,636 million. Such amount was USD1,420 million as at 31 December 2017, and these contracts will expire between 2018 and 2025.

Exchange Rate Fluctuation

As at 31 December 2017, the Group's total interest-bearing liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, amounted to RMB46,789 million, of which USD liabilities accounted for 78.67% of the total amount. Therefore, a significant fluctuation in the USD exchange rates will subject the Group to significant foreign exchange loss or gain arising from the exchange of foreign currency denominated liabilities, which affects the profitability and development of the Group. The Group uses hedging contracts for foreign currencies to reduce the foreign exchange risks for foreign currency revenues generated from flight ticket sales and expenses required to be paid in foreign currencies. The hedging contracts for foreign currencies mainly involve the sales of RMB and the purchase of USD at fixed exchange rates. As at 31 December 2016, the outstanding foreign currency hedging contracts held by the Group amounted to a notional amount of USD440 million. Such amount was USD829 million as at 31 December 2017, and will expire in 2018. In 2016, the Group's net exchange losses amounted to RMB3,543 million as compared to the net exchange gains of RMB2,001 million in 2017.

Pledges on Assets and Contingent Liabilities

As at 31 December 2016, the value of the Group's assets used to secure certain bank loans was equivalent to RMB17,559 million. As at 31 December 2017, the value of the Group's assets used to secure certain bank loans was equivalent to RMB11,207 million, representing a decrease of 36.18% compared to last year.

As at 31 December 2017, the Group had no significant contingent liabilities.

Capital Expenditure

According to the agreements entered into in relation to aircraft, engines and aviation supplies as at 31 December 2017, the Group expected its future capital expenditures on aircraft, engines and aviation supplies to be, in the aggregate, approximately RMB87,030 million, including expected capital expenditure of approximately RMB28,322 million in 2018.

Human Resources

As at 31 December 2017, the Group had 75,277 employees, the majority of whom were located in China. The wages of the Group's employees primarily consisted of basic salaries and performance bonuses.

RISK ANALYSIS

1. Macro-economic Risk

The aviation transportation industry is closely connected to the macro-economic environment. The civil aviation transportation industry is more sensitive to macro-economic climate, which directly affects the development of economic activities, disposable income of residents and changes in the amount of import and export activities. These factors will in turn affect the demand for passenger and cargo services. Meanwhile, the scale of the international airline transportation operations of the Group is relatively large, the international macro-economic situation will also affect the demand for the Group's passenger and cargo services. If the macro-economic climate worsens or trading dispute and conflicts are created, the Group's results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

The Group paid close attention to the changes in international and national macro-economic conditions and proactively capitalized on the opportunities derived from the One Belt One Road initiative promoted by the State, the construction of Xiongan New District, economic restructuring, upgrade of consumption level of residents, development of tourism economy and the newly constructed airport in Beijing to optimize allocation of flight capacity, production structure and marketing and sales, in order to achieve favorable results of operations.

2. Policy and Regulation Risk

The aviation transportation industry is relatively sensitive to policies and regulations. Changes in domestic and foreign economic environment and the continuous development of the aviation industry could result in the relevant laws and regulations and industry policies being adjusted accordingly. Such changes may, to a certain extent, result in uncertainties in the future business development and operating results of the Group.

With respect to industrial policies and regulations, the Group played an active role in various discussions concerning formulation and refinement, and considered the latest changes so as to seize the development opportunities arising from such updates and prudently respond to the uncertainties arising from the changes in policies and regulations.

3. Flight Safety Risk

Flight safety is the pre-condition and foundation for airlines to maintain normal operations and good reputation. Bad weather, mechanical failure, human errors, aircraft and equipment irregularities or failures and other force majeure events may have an adverse effect on the flight safety of the Group.

The Group regularly convened flight safety meetings, analyzed and reported on the Group's flight status in a timely manner and planned for flight safety management. Through strengthening safety responsibilities and commenced effective evaluation on safety management system, the Group established effective measures such as the comprehensive flight training control mechanism to enhance its capabilities of preventing flight safety risks and to ensure the Group continuously operates safely.

4. Terrorist Attack Risk

International terrorist attacks targeting aircraft and airport not only directly threatens flight safety, aviation security, operational safety and the safety of overseas institutions and employees, but also brings about on-going adverse impact on the outbound tourism demand for places where terrorist attacks have taken place. The Group strictly adhered to the requirements of aviation security of CAAC by amending the Aviation Security Plan to improve the Group's aviation security system. With reference to the typical cases regarding aviation security in recent years, the Group commenced simulation trainings and anti-terrorism practices on flight, with a view to enhancing the Group's aviation security team's ability to perform their duties and their service quality, which would in turn improve their responsiveness in handling emergencies. The launch of the electronic information platform of the aviation security system initiated the establishment of the aviation security information system, which enhanced the quality of aviation security information.

With reference to terror cases in recent years, the Group demonstrated fire drills and provided scenario trainings and specific trainings for weapons and firearms onboard, with a view to enhancing the aviation security team's ability to perform their duties and their service quality, which would in turn improve their responsiveness in handling emergencies. In the future, the Group will combine aviation security and safety audit, introduce aviation security assessment standards on routes, establish the communication link mechanism on the basis of the aviation security communication system and put spotlight on the primarily-focused regional routes for the formulation of specific aviation security proposals.

In light of the shrunken demand for passenger transportation induced by the domestic and overseas terrorist attacks, the Group will rely on the dynamic marketing analysis mechanism so as to study, optimize and adjust the flight capacity of the relevant routes in a timely manner.

5. Core Resources Risk

The rapid growth in the industry has caused competition among airlines for core human resources (such as management personnel in key positions and professional technical staff), air traffic rights resources and time slot resources. If the core resources reserves of the Group fail to adequately support the rapid growth of the Group's operational scale, the business and operations of the Group may be adversely affected.

The Group promoted the building of corporate culture of "Love at CEA" and further improved its incentive scheme for core technical staff to promote loyalty of core personnel. The Group proactively developed a core back-up workforce through providing training programs to a pool of multi-tier back-up management personnel and launching of core technical staff recruitment plan. Meanwhile, the Group proactively coordinated with the industry regulators with respect to air traffic rights and time slot resources, by actively initiating the application of international air traffic rights, and proactively participating in the market competition for time slot resources. In the future, as a main airline base, the Group will further seize the opportunities of the commencement of operation of the new airport in Beijing and make use of the SkyTeam Airline Alliance platform to continuously enrich and optimize route networks.

6. Competition Risk

With the liberalisation of the domestic aviation market, development of low-cost airlines and the leading international airlines' increasing addition of flight capacity in the China market, future competition in the domestic and overseas aviation transportation industries may intensify and may bring uncertainty to the Group's resources of air traffic rights and time slots, ticket price levels and market shares, and the results of operations of the Group may be adversely affected accordingly.

There is a certain level of overlap between railway transportation, highway transportation, ship transportation and air transportation in certain markets. As the impact from railway, highway and ship transportation on the domestic civil aviation market has become normalised and internet-based, certain route of the Group will experience larger competitive pressure.

The Group actively responded to the industry competition, strove for additions of air traffic rights and time slot resources in hub markets and core markets, steadily improved the aircraft utilization rate and consolidated and expanded market share in the three large hubs and core markets. Leveraging on the SkyTeam Airline Alliance platform, the Group enhanced its strategic cooperation with Delta and AFK, and strengthened the cooperation with non-member airlines of the SkyTeam Airline Alliance such as Qantas Airways to develop a highly efficient and convenient flight network which covered the whole of China and connected to the whole world.

Under the impact of other means of transportation, the Group focused on the three large hubs and core and key markets, refined its route network and reinforced complete access to the network and the sale of international interline transit products. Meanwhile, the Group put great efforts into improving its punctuality rate and capitalized on the speed advantage of aviation transportation.

7. Risk Associated with the Fluctuation of Jet Fuel Prices

Jet fuel is one of the major expenses of airlines. Significant fluctuations of international oil prices will significantly impact jet fuel prices and the Group's revenue from fuel surcharge and accordingly the Group's results of operations.

In 2017, setting aside the adjustment in factors such as fuel surcharge, if the average price of jet fuel had increased or decreased by 5%, jet fuel costs of the Group would have increased or decreased by approximately RMB1,257 million. In 2017, the Group has not conducted aviation fuel hedging activities.

In 2017, the Group seized the opportunities arising from the low international fuel prices, actively boosted its flight capacity and optimized the production structure. As a result, the Group achieved favorable results of operations. The Group will actively review the trend of oil prices and, with mandates from the Board, carefully conduct aviation fuel hedging activities.

8. Exchange Rate Fluctuation Risk

As the Group's foreign currency liabilities are mainly USD-denominated, if the exchange rate of USD against RMB fluctuates significantly, USD-denominated liabilities will therefore generate a large amount of foreign exchange loss/gain, which directly affects the Group's profit for that period and causes larger impact on the Group's operating results.

As at 31 December 2017, if USD had strengthened or weakened by 1% against RMB with all other variables held constant, the effect on the Group's net profit and other comprehensive income would have been as follows:

Unit: RMB million

	Effect on profit or loss		Effect on other comprehensive income
	Appreciation	Depreciation	Appreciation	Depreciation
USD exchange rates	-260	260	41	-41

In 2017, the Group expanded its financing channels by means of issuing short-term debentures and acquiring RMB borrowings to bring in RMB finance, and proactively optimized the mix of currency denomination of the Group's debts. As at 31 December 2017, the Group's proportion of USD-denominated debts made up of the Group decreased to 28.17%.

In the future, the Group will reinforce its review on the foreign exchange market, further expand the variety of its RMB financing instruments and improve the Group's debts and currency structure in order to minimize the adverse impacts arising from exchange rate fluctuations on the Group's operations.

9. Interest Rate Fluctuation Risk

The majority of the Group's liabilities are attributable to USD-denominated liabilities and RMB-denominated liabilities generated from introduction of aircraft, engines and aviation equipment. The adjustment in interest rates of USD and RMB may cause changes in the borrowing costs of the Group's existing loans that carry floating interest rates, as well as future finance costs, which in turn may affect the Group's finance costs.

As at 31 December 2017, assuming all other variables remain constant, if the interest rate had increased or decreased by 25 basis points, the effect on the Group's net profit and other comprehensive income would have been as follows:

Unit: RMB million

	Effect on profit or loss		Effect on other comprehensive income
	Increase	Decrease	Increase	Decrease
Floating rate instruments	-142	142	17	-17

The Group intends to launch transactions in derivatives to further optimise the proportion of floating-rate debts to the USD-denominated debts in the future. At the same time, the Group will make good use of the trend of the RMB interest rate to minimise RMB finance costs.

10. Information Technology Safety Risk

The development of all businesses in the Group's operational process is closely related to the information network system which imposes new requirements on traditional management and work processes of the Group. If there are any design discrepancies, operational default or interruption in the network information system of the Group, or if it experiences external network attacks, the Group's business and operations may be affected or result in leakage of customers' data. The occurrence of any of the foregoing may have an adverse effect on the brand image of the Group. Future upgrades of information technology that are required will challenge the reliability of the Group's existing systems.

The Group based on the "Three Centers in Two Places" plan to promote its work on the construction of the Xi'an data and disaster backup facility and the construction of a globalized basic assurance and service system. It optimized the multi-dimensional security protection system on the internet and the data centre to prevent the attack of the WANNACRY ransomware effectively. The Group conducted information system emergency response training and relied on security code quality analysis to implement security code review and security protection. It also commenced security review for information system and enhanced emergency response of internet security, optimized the multi-dimensional security protection system on the internet and the data centre and safeguarded the security of key information infrastructure, elevating the overall security protection standard on the Group's information system.

11. Development and Transformation Risk

While the Group expands to new international markets, carries out external investments, mergers and acquisitions and adjusts the structure of its existing businesses and assets, it may face risks including business decision making, laws, management and competition risks which may affect the results of implementing the development strategies of the Group.

During the process of transformation, the Group explores the e-commerce market to reduce aviation operation costs and innovative asset management methods, and adjusts the structure of its existing businesses and assets, with new requirements for the overall operating management abilities of the Group. Some of the Group's transforming projects or adjusted businesses may be unable to achieve expected goals.

The Group has been making improvements to the foreign investment management system and will enhance the research and substantiation of projects and refine the risk management mechanism through conducting due diligence and asset valuation during the process of expansion into the new international markets, external investment and acquisition and mergers, and adjustments to the structure of its existing businesses and assets.

12. Suppliers Risk

The aviation transportation industry requires advanced technology and high operating costs. There are limited available suppliers in respect of key operating resources including aircraft, engines, flight spare parts, jet fuel and information technology services. Airlines generally obtain operating resources through centralized purchases to reduce operating costs. If the Group's major suppliers are adversely affected, this may have an adverse impact on the business and operations of the Group.

The Group has been focusing on the suppliers who are closely related to the Group's production and operation, while the supplier management team analyzed the contractual performance of suppliers and conducted assessment on suppliers regularly. The Group paid close attention to the changing market conditions of the types of material highly relevant to its production and operation, whereas the collection and analysis of the fluctuations in price was conducted by the Group's procurement department.

13. Securities Market Fluctuations Risks

The Company's share price is not only dependent on its current results and projection for future operations, but also on factors including policy environment, macroeconomy, flow of market capital and investor sentiment etc. The Company's share price may be subject to significant changes due to the aforementioned factors, which may directly or indirectly result in loss to the investors, which in turn will reduce the travel demand from business travelers and affect the Group's capital operations and implementation of projects.

The Group continued to enhance its corporate governance standards, fulfill its obligations of information disclosure, improve its management ability and strive for outstanding operating results. In the meantime, the Group strengthened the communication between the capital markets and various investors, paid close attention to the Company's share price performance and media coverage, gave timely response to the market and made every effort to avoid unusual price movement of the shares of the Company.

14. Other Force Majeure and Unforeseeable Risks

The aviation transportation industry is highly sensitive to external factors. Natural disasters, public health emergencies and geopolitical instability around the globe may affect market demand and the normal operation of airlines. Flight suspension, decrease in passenger capacity and income, as well as increased safety and insurance costs may adversely affect the business and operations of the Group.

The Group strove to develop and refine its emergency response mechanism and emergency response plan in order to mitigate the adverse impacts arising from other force majeure and unforeseeable risks.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE RELEVANT LAWS AND REGULATIONS WHICH MAY HAVE A SIGNIFICANT IMPACT ON THE GROUP

During the Year, the Board was not aware of any significant matters which may cause impact on the Group or any non-compliance with the laws and regulations which may have a significant impact on the Group.

OUTLOOK FOR 2018

The Group would like to bring to the attention of readers of this report that this report contains certain forward-looking statements, including a general outlook of international and domestic economies and the aviation industry, and descriptions of the Group's future operating plans for 2017 and beyond. Such forward-looking statements are subject to many uncertainties and risks. The actual events that occur may be different from these forward-looking statements which, therefore, do not constitute any commitment by the Group to the future operating results.

Looking into 2018, according to the analysis and researches of relevant international institutions, the global economy is expected to continue to resume growth, though facing uncertainties, such as the rise of trade protectionism and the occasional occurrence of geopolitical risks. China's economy basically maintains its long term growth trend, the Chinese economy has changed from high speed growth stage to high quality development stage. China has an enormous potential to thrive, where new urbanization, service industry, high-end production industry and increase of consumption have rooms for development. China's civil aviation is experiencing the period in which ample opportunities are available and rapid growth can be achieved. The increase in consumption brought about by the continuous growth of disposable income of the Chinese residents, the new reform on ticket price published by the National Development and Reform Commission and CAAC, the principle "Keep Control Over the Aggregate Volume and Adjust the Structure" promoted by CAAC to support supply-side structural reforms, and the release of the ban on the use of portable electronic devices on aircraft will bring positive impacts to the development of civil aviation industry. Meanwhile, aviation industry suffers greater impact with heightened industry competition and the network layout and speed acceleration of China High-Speed Rail. The limited resources for development of airlines and the increase in oil prices and finance costs will also bring pressure and challenges to the operations of airlines.

In view of a relatively complicated external environment and intensifying competition, the Group will embrace challenges by seizing new development opportunities such as the "One Belt One Road" initiative, free trade port in Shanghai, the construction of the new airport in Beijing, and the full access to electronic devices on aircraft while promoting "Earnestness, Efficiency, Enthusiasm, Excellence", the corporate spirit of the Group. The Group will take the initiatives and dare to innovate, commencing solid works in areas such as safe operation, marketing, customer services, deepening reform, and transformation and development with an aim to bring better operating results to the shareholders of the Company and society. In 2018, the Group will focus on the following areas:

1. The Group will perform comprehensive implementation of responsibility system for production safety, further improve the construction of safety management system, refine the closed-loop management of flight training system, promote analysis and application of safety big data, continuously improve safety management, and persistently ensure the safe operation of the Group. The Group will stably promote the integration of flights and continue to increase operation efficiency and quality.

2. The Group will make use of big data to enhance its ability of market projection and the accuracy of allocating flight capacity, to foster its control on hub markets. Seizing opportunities brought forward by the reform of marketing system, the Group will further promote sales transformation comprehensively to enhance its ability of securing high-value customers. It will also strengthen the sales and service functions of self-channels to optimize service contents. The Group will expedite the marketing and localization of overseas talents and foster revenue management of international routes to enhance the international operating quality at a steady pace.
3. The Group will enhance its control on each key operational aspect and strengthen the interaction and coordination with each related party with a view to increasing on schedule rate of flights. It will also promote convenient services throughout the entire process and enrich the content of value-added services to enhance the quality of services delivered. The Group will continue to improve the consumption experiences on mobile application and the official website to expand consumption and service settings. The tourist service system will be upgraded to enhance the overall experiences of customers and to deliver high quality services, so as to fulfill the demand of people in pursuit of a good life and to build a brand image of quality services.
4. The Group will deepen the comprehensive reform and transformation and promote the progress of projects of significance at a steady pace. It will upgrade e-commerce platform, payment platform and overseas website, as well as establish in-flight internet payment standard system, to enhance its ability in creating in-flight internet value. The Group will also refine the non-aviation products of China United Airlines and integrate online and offline marketing to promote internet marketing. It will enhance the ability of Eastern Airlines Technology in overhaul repair and actively source new market customers, along with the reform of marketing service system to invigorate the organizational reform. The Group will solidly promote the construction of the base project at the new airport in Beijing and make plans for operations in advance.
5. The Group will make use of financial management and focus on enhancing cost control capabilities. There will be strict review of material investment projects to enhance cost control at source. The Group will revitalize stocks such as aviation supplies in flight and in lounges to reduce the waste of resources. It will also adopt sophisticated scientific management to strictly control material costs such as consumption of aircraft fuel, repair of aircraft and aircraft supplies. The Group will enhance the analysis of market benchmarks of personnel remunerations and perform strict assessment management to continuously control personnel costs. Different methods will be adopted to expand finance channels to reduce finance costs and innovative leasing models will be explored to reduce leasing costs.
6. The Group will further strengthen the Party's discipline comprehensively and focus on the construction of party branch of the lower rank, with a view to persistently strengthening party building and fully leveraging the supporting and guiding function of party building in the production, operations, reform and development of the Group, to provide solid political and organizational assurance for the ongoing healthy development of the Group.
