Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 23, 2018 (the Closing Date), Centene Escrow I Corporation (the Escrow Issuer), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Centene Corporation (Centene or the Company), issued $1.8 billion in aggregate principal amount of 5.375% Senior Notes due 2026 (the Notes). The Notes were sold to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A and outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S. The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), or any state securities laws and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

The Escrow Issuer has deposited the gross proceeds of the offering, along with certain additional funds, into a segregated escrow account. The Company intends to use the net proceeds of the offering to finance a portion of the cash consideration payable in connection with the Company's previously announced acquisition of substantially all of the assets of New York State Catholic Health Plan, Inc., d/b/a Fidelis Care New York, a New York not-for-profit corporation (the Fidelis Acquisition), to pay related fees and expenses and for general corporate purposes, including the repayment of outstanding indebtedness.

At the time of satisfaction of certain conditions relating to the Fidelis Acquisition, the Escrow Issuer will merge with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation (the Escrow Merger), and the Company will assume all of the Escrow Issuer's obligations under the Notes, the related indenture and the other applicable documents pursuant to a supplemental indenture and by operation of law (the Assumption) and subject to the satisfaction of certain other conditions, the gross proceeds from the offering will be released from the escrow account to the Company. If the Fidelis Acquisition is not consummated, the Escrow Issuer will be required to redeem the Notes at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date.

The Notes will be issued under an Indenture, dated as of May 23, 2018 (the Indenture), by and between the Escrow Issuer and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the Trustee). The Notes will mature on June 1, 2026. Interest on the Notes is payable on June 1 and December 1 of each year, beginning on December 1, 2018.

At any time after the date of the Assumption and prior to June 1, 2021, the Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at a price equal to 100.0% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed, plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon and a make-whole premium. The Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time on or after June 1, 2021 at redemption prices of 104.031%, 102.688% and 101.344% of the principal amount thereof if the redemption occurs during the 12-month periods beginning on June 1 of the years 2021, 2022 and 2023, respectively, and at a redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof on and after June 1, 2024, in each case plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date. In addition, at any time after the date of the Assumption and prior to June 1, 2021, the Company may redeem up to 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes at a redemption price of 105.375% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date, with the net cash proceeds the Company receives from one or more qualifying equity offerings.

If the Escrow Issuer experiences specific kinds of changes of control, it will be required to offer to purchase the Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest. If the Escrow Issuer sells certain assets and does not reinvest the net proceeds or repays senior debt in compliance with the Indenture, it must offer to repurchase the Notes at 100% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, with such proceeds.

Following the Assumption, the Notes will be senior unsecured obligations of the Company and will be equal in right of payment with all of the Company's existing and future senior indebtedness and will be senior in right of payment to all of the Company's existing and future subordinated debt. The Notes will not be guaranteed by any of the Company's subsidiaries and are only required to be guaranteed by any of the Company's subsidiaries in limited circumstances in the future.

The Indenture includes covenants that limit the ability of the Escrow Issuer, and following the Assumption, the Company, and their respective restricted subsidiaries to, among other things: incur additional indebtedness and issue preferred stock, pay dividends or make other distributions, make other restricted payments and investments, sell assets, including capital stock of restricted subsidiaries, create certain liens, incur restrictions on the ability of restricted subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other payments, guarantee indebtedness, engage in transactions with affiliates, designate unrestricted subsidiaries and merge or consolidate with other entities. The covenants are subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications set forth in the Indenture.

The Indenture provides for customary events of default, including failure to make required payments; failure to comply with certain agreements or covenants; failure to pay, or acceleration of, certain other material indebtedness; certain events of bankruptcy and insolvency; and failure to pay certain judgments. An event of default under the Indenture will allow either the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes to accelerate, or in certain cases, will automatically cause the acceleration of, the amounts due under the Notes.

The foregoing description of the Notes and the Indenture is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Indenture (including the form of note attached thereto), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 4.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
